After sending the telegram, he left the Western Union office and walked west on the same side of the street, toward the City Hall, located on the next corner. Before he reached the Police Department building, he noticed a police officer standing at the entrance to the ramp going into the basement from Main Street, but he did not know the police officer. Just before he reached that point, a police car came out of the basement, and he recognized the driver of the police car as Lieut. PIERCE. He explained he has known Lieut. PIERCE for twelve or fourteen years. PIERCE did not look toward him or speak to him and RUBY did not speak to Lieut. PIERCE. RUBY could not recall seeing anyone else in the police car with Lieut. PIERCE in either the front or back seat of the police car.

As the police car driven by Lieut. PIERCE came out of the basement ramp, the officer on duty at the entrance stepped back and walked toward the curb next to the street, with his back toward RUBY. As the police car got even with this officer, the officer stooped down and looked inside the car. At about this time, RUBY had reached the entrance to the Main Street ramp, and he took in the movement of the police car and the officer on duty at the ramp, with a quick glance. Without breaking his stride or hesitating, RUBY turned to his left and walked down the ramp into the basement. As he entered the ramp, he does not recall seeing any person standing around the entrance, and he does not know a former police officer named DANIELS.

RUBY said he is positive he did not have either of his hands in any of his pockets--either coat or trouser pockets--when he entered and walked down the ramp. He did not look behind him to see which way the police car went when it entered the street, and he did not look behind him to see whether anyone observed him entering the basement. RUBY said he had no kind of press card or any other kind of identification on the outside of his coat, and he exhibited no identification to anyone to gain entrance to the basement.

Just as he got to the bottom of the ramp, RUBY said, "A person who pops out with two men; that is all I can remember; naturally I know who he is; to me, he had this smirky, smug, vindictive attitude; I can't explain what impression he gave me, but that is all I can---, well, I just lost my senses; the next I knew I was on the ground and five or six people were on top of me". RUBY said that as he was going down the ramp he spoke to no one and no one spoke to him. He did not recognize anyone in the crowd there, and he did not stop and stand behind anyone.

RUBY was asked why he killed OSWALD, and he said, "I was in mourning Friday and Saturday. To me, when he shot before me like he did, something in my insides tore out, and I just went blank. To me, he represented--I'll go back a little bit. I listened to a eulogy Saturday morning, I am sure, and I heard Rabbi SILVERMAN speak about our President. He said, 'Here is a man that fought in all battles, but he didn't have a chance to fight here, he was shot from the rear'. I have been around people that are so smug and hard. Then about OSWALD being associated with Communism, and how he blemished this beautiful city; and Mrs. KENNEDY having to come back to the trial. I told no one I was going to kill him. No one knew I was going to shoot him. I didn't discuss anything with anyone about shooting him. No police officer assisted me in any way, or did, or said anything to suggest my shooting OSWALD. I remembered MULLINAX, a police officer who was killed, and MULLINAX was a friend of mine. I did not know J. D. TIPPIT. I knew a TIPPIT on the police department, but he was in the Special Service Bureau, and he was not the TIPPIT that was killed. I did not know the TIPPIT that was killed."

RUBY said he has never had any serious illnesses or hospitalizations and does not have a steel plate in his head. He volunteered his mother had previously been committed to an insane asylum. He professed to know of no other history of mental illness in his family.

RUBY stated he was born in Chicago in 1911. He spent four or five years in various foster homes in Chicago, mentioning that his father was an alcoholic. He said the father's alcoholic habits contributed to his mother's mental condition, along with her problems in "the change of life". He said he remained in Chicago until 1933.

He said that in 1933 he, one AL. DUNN, MAURY (last name not recalled) and a third person, whose name he could not immediately recall, went to Los Angeles, California, where they sold "Collier's Tip Sheet", which he described as a handicapper's tip sheet for horse races. He said their arrival in the Los Angeles area coincided, as he recalled, with the opening of the Santa Anita Race Track. He related they remained in the Los Angeles area for a few months only and during the same year, 1933, went to the San Francisco area, where he at first engaged in similar activities at the Bay Meadows Race Track. Subsequently, he sold subscriptions to Hearst newspapers, the San Francisco Examiner and San Francisco Call Bulletin, covering San Francisco and small towns in the general area.

He said he remained in San Francisco until 1937 and returned to Chicago and was unemployed for a considerable period. In 1941, he related, he, his brother EARL RUBY, HARRY EPSTEIN, MARTY SHARGOL (Phonetic) and MARTY GIMPLE "went on the road" selling punch boards and small cedar chests in numerous Eastern and New England states. He specifically mentioned the states of New York, Connecticut and Pennsylvania. He said he had no fixed address during this period, that the group lived in various hotels.

RUBY related that in late 1941 he returned to Chicago and continued his business of selling punch boards, primarily through mail orders. He mentioned an advertisement was run in Billboard magazine in this regard. He mentioned that during this period he became very closely associated with ARTY WAYNE, a musician.

RUBY stated he remained in Chicago until 1942. He said his brother SAMUEL was in military service, stationed at Jefferson Barracks in the St. Louis area. He said he went to St. Louis and spent a week or two there, to be near his brother. His brother EARL, he related, was at the time in the U. S. Navy, stationed at Dutch Harbor. He said he sold punch boards while in the St. Louis area. He said he returned to Chicago in 1942 and "hung around home," mentioning specifically the area of Division and Damon Streets. He said he had had difficulties with his previous partners in the punch board business.

In the period 1942-1943, he operated out of Globe Auto Glass Company, owned by one MORRIE KELLMAN. He mentioned that his brother HYMAN had, during this period, been released from military service as being "too old". He said that he personally entered the military service in 1943 and remained until 1946.

RUBY said that in 1946, on being discharged from military duty, he returned to Chicago and "prospered" in his mail order business involving punch boards and miscellaneous items. He said his sister EVA had for some time been wanting to operate a night club in Dallas and had moved to Dallas from California. He said he in the meantime had had some friction with his brothers and had sold his interest in their mutual business of selling punch boards and other items to the brothers.

He said he sent money to his sister EVA for a lease on a building in which to open a club. He said he at that time was living at the Congress Hotel, Chicago, having saved some money. He said for a brief period he was associated with one PINKIE HARWOOD, who lived in Detroit, in the promotion of "cookware". This was not a successful venture.

He said that in 1947 he moved to Dallas to be associated with EVA in the night club business. He returned to Chicago, however, in the same year in a few months in an effort to enter into various "merchandising deals". Being unsucoessful, he returned to Dallas in 1947 and has lived in Dallas continuously since.

RUBY said he went broke in the night club business in 1952 and had a "mental breakdown". He continued along this line by saying he was "mentally depressed" and that he "hibernated in the Cotton Bowl Hotel" for three or four months, declining to see his friends. He said he went back to Chicago briefly and his brother EARL tried to help him out financially. He returned to Dallas, however, in 1952.

RUBY said his first ventures in Dallas were the Bob Wills Ranch House and Silver Spur. He said that WILLIE EPSTEIN and MARTY GIMPLE were associated with him in the Silver Spur and it was at the Silver Spur that he went broke. He said after his "comeback" he tried operating the Silver Spur again. In 1952-1953 he operated the Ervay Theater, a motion picture house, briefly. In 1953 he became associated in the Vegas Club and "Hernando's Hideaway".

In 1956 he sold his interest in the Silver Spur. He related that in 1959-1960 he persuaded his brother EARL to come to Dallas and to assist in establishing the Sovereign Club. EARL did not remain in Dallas, however. He said the Sovereign

Club, established as a private club, became the Carousel, which continues to operate.

RUBY said he has not been associated with or operated any night clubs except in Dallas, Texas.

RUBY stated that he visited a friend of his brother in Windsor, Ontario, Canada, in 1929-1930 for two or three months. In 1933, when en route to California on a brief trip, he went across into Mexico at Juarez. He said this was purely a "tourist" trip of short duration. He said he has never been in Mexico otherwise and has never been outside the Continental United States except as indicated above and below. He said he has never been in Honolulu, Hawaii.

RUBY related that in August 1959 he went to Havana, Cuba, to see L. C. MC WILLIE, who was "some sort of a good will man" for the Tropicana, a gambling establishment. He said MC WILLIE sent him a plane ticket and he lived at the Fosca Apartments with MC WILLIE for a period of eight to ten days. He said he spent all of his time in Havana except to go to a small area on one occasion with "one of the FOX brothers", who owned the Tropicana. He said his trip to Cuba was completely non-political and that he has had no correspondence with persons in Cuba. He said MC WILLIE is now at the Thunderbird Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada.

RUBY stated he has not been a member of any political associations, clubs or organizations. He said his brother HYMAN was at one time interested in politics in Chicago in a small way. He said he may have belonged to B'nai B'rith and the "Jewish Welfare Fund". He said he has never been a member of the Communist Party or any "front" organizations, that he has had no membership in, or affiliation with, or interest in "Fair Play for Cuba" or any other Cuban organization of any type.

RUBY volunteered that some years ago, "at a time when CASTRO was popular in the United States", he read of an individual in the vicinity of Houston, Texas, having been engaged in "gun running to CASTRO". He said he attempted by telephone to get in touch with this individual as he had in mind "making a buck" by possibly acquiring some Jeeps or other similar equipment which he might sell to persons interested in their importation to Cuba. He said nothing came of this. He said he had never attended any meetings concerned with "gun running", smuggling of persons in or out of Cuba or otherwise in relation to Cuban affairs.

RUBY said he was associated in about 1937 in Chicago with the Scrap Iron and Junk Dealers Union but has otherwise had no other direct association with any union except American Guild of Variety Artists, the latter in connection with his night club businesses.

RUBY stated that during the summer of 1963 he took a trip to Houston, Texas, en route to Edna, Texas, where he visited CANDY BARR, a former Dallas strip tease figure who had just been released from the Texas State Penitentiary. He said he gave CANDY a dog as a present. He said he went on to New Orleans on this same trip, his purpose being to attempt to engage the services of "JADA", a stripper who had been performing in New Orleans.

He said that in the summer of 1963 he flew via American Air Lines to New York City, where he remained for two or three days at the new Hilton Hotel. He said his purpose was to see JOE GLASER, a booking agent, and to see officials of American Guild of Variety Artists in order to register complaints relative to competitors in Dallas. He said he traveled alone. On this trip, he recalls having run into "DANTE", a magician, in an automat and having visited or contacted BARNEY ROSS, former well-known prize fighter whom he had known in Chicago. He said on the return to Dallas he went via Chicago and that members of his family joined him briefly at O'Hare Field, the Chicago airport. RUBY said he could recall no other travel outside of Dallas during 1963.

He mentioned having been in New York, Joplin, Missouri; Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Chicago in 1956 when he was attempting to promote a young Negro tap dancer and drummer named NELSON, also known as "LITTLE DADDY". He said this trip lasted several weeks.

He related that he was in Hot Springs, Arkansas, in 1956, as he recalls, having flown there to attend the races. He said he believed he was in Little Rock during the same trip briefly. He said he was in Las Vegas, Nevada, in 1937 and does not recall having been there since that time.

RUBY stated that no police officers accompanied him on the trip to Hot Springs, mentioned above, and that he had never been outside the City of Dallas with any Dallas law enforcement officers. He said he had never employed any Dallas policeman in any of his clubs, although he had employed "Special Officers". For the services of the latter, he paid the City of Dallas, and the City in turn paid the "Special Officers" in question. He said he had never given money or other things of value to officers of the Dallas Police Department except bottles of whiskey at Christmastime to some. He said he had also had a practice of admitting officers to his clubs without cover charge and having given "special prices" on drinks; for example, he would give officers beer for 40 cents a bottle, where his usual price was more. He said he had never asked any special favors from any police personnel.

The following anonymous letter has been received by the FBI. It was postmarked January 8, 1964, at Saint Petersburg, Florida.

"Ruben shot Oswald fraid he talk to much he chicken they work togheir hire fram California jews We here to get Martin Luthr King and Wilkson and Mayr Allan We wont miss no. Two more in Washington to get Bob Kenedy and 2 nigers then johnson if he push intergratin We plege not fail or die We not fail no."

"Wilkson" may refer to Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and "Mayr Allan" may refer to Ivan Allen, Jr., Mayor of Atlanta, Georgia.

In view of the threat against the President, the text of the letter has been forwarded to the U. S. Secret Service.

This information was discussed with Mr. John Murphy of the Civil Rights Division on January 10, 1963. Mr. Murphy expressed the opinion that the facts constitute a violation of Federal extortion statutes and we are proceeding with an appropriate investigation concerning the threats to persons other than the President.

The President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy and the Atlanta, Georgia, Police Department have also been informed of the contents of the letter.

RE: DR. MANFRED S. GUTTMACHER

By communication December 27, 1963, the Bureau advised no record was found in Bureau indices concerning Dr. B. W. BROMBERG, defense psychiatrist.

Bureau noted background data on Dr. GUTTMACHER can be found in "Who's Who in America". The Bureau enclosed a copy of a memorandum from the Baltimore Office captioned "DR. MANFRED S. GUTTMACHER; INFORMATION CONCERNING", along with a clipping from the March 10, 1959, issue of the Baltimore Sun newspaper; a copy of a clipping from the February 6, 1959, issue of the Washington Daily News; and a clipping from the March 12, 1959, issue of the Washington Post and Times Herald.

The Baltimore memorandum referred to reflected Dr. GUTTMACHER to be a Chief Medical Officer of the Supreme Bench in Baltimore, a psychiatrist by profession and, according to the current city directory, an instructor at Johns Hopkins University.

It was stated indices of the Baltimore Office contain numerous references to Dr. GUTTMACHER. One such reference reflected a newspaper clipping from the Baltimore Morning Sun dated June 28, 1951, concerning testimony given before the House Committee on Un-American Activities. One LOUIS GINSBERG, described in the news article as a Baltimore food salesman, testified before the committee concerning the Book Shop Association of Baltimore. GINSBERG named ROCKWELL KENT, described in the news item as a "Left Wing painter and writer", as one of the lecturers obtained by the Book Shop Association. Representative JACKSON (Republican--California) asked GINSBERG if he could recall any "Conservative lecturers". GINSBERG replied that Dr. MANFRED S. GUTTMACHER, psychiatrist, had once spoken on "The Insanity of GEORGE III".

The Baltimore memorandum reflects that on July 22, 1955, former Confidential Informant [redacted] who had furnished both reliable and unreliable information in the past, advised that from 1944 to 1948 the Communist Party, USA, District 4, controlled and dominated the activities of the Book Shop of Baltimore, Inc., through the election of C.P. members as officers and by the support of Communist Party members in attendance at meetings of this organization.

The memorandum continues that in 1950 Dr. GUTTMACHER's name appeared on the letterhead of United World Federalists of Maryland, Inc., as one of the members of the Maryland Advisory Council.

The newspaper clippings furnished by the Bureau communication are concerned with the objection of Dr. GUTTMACHER to the inclusion in the "Journal of the American Medical Association" of a request by FBI for co-operation of all physicians in locating an individual who was then a federal fugitive. Dr. GUTTMACHER's position was, according to the articles, both supported and criticized by other physicians.

INFORMATION RE DR. MANFRED S. GUTTMACHER,
Physician, Baltimore, Maryland

Records of current Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, Baltimore, list Dr. MANFRED S. GUTTMACHER, with a residence of Stevenson, Maryland, and as a physician with office at 819 Park Avenue, Baltimore.

Information appearing in public press, Baltimore, reveals that MANFRED S. GUTTMACHER is attached to Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, and is the examining psychiatrist for the Supreme Bench of Baltimore, the 8th Judicial Circuit of the State of Maryland, located in Baltimore, Maryland.

Files of the Baltimore office contain no derogatory information concerning GUTTMACHER.

Information has appeared in the public press concerning the work of Dr. GUTTMACHER for the Supreme Bench. In connection with the case entitled "MELVIN DAVIS REES, Jr., aka; CARROLL VERNON JACKSON, Jr., et al, Victim, UFAP-Murder; Perjury", (OO: Baltimore), at the request of the U.S. Attorney for the District of Maryland, Dr. GUTTMACHER, in 1961, examined REES and certified that REES was competent to stand trial. In the matter entitled "JOSEPH HAVERMAN ALVEY, aka; MICHAEL JOSEPH CONDETTI (deceased), Victim, Kidnapping",(OO: Baltimore) again at the request of the U.S. Attorney, Dr. GUTTMACHER examined ALVEY and furnished an official opinion that he believed ALVEY represented a threat to the welfare of the community and should definitely be placed in a mental institution.

ADMINISTRATIVE

On December 30, 1963, PCI [redacted] advised Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING that for approximately six weeks in early 1961 she worked for JACK RUBY as a waitress at the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas. She stated she had never seen nor met LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no acquaintanceship he might have with RUBY.

PCI advised that RUBY was an individual who "would fly off the handle without provocation" and had a very hot temper. To her knowledge he fraternized with no one other than his roommate GEORGE SENATOR. She stated he always had his three dachshund dogs with him at work.

PCI advised that the turnover in his employees at the Carousel Club was great because RUBY could not get along for any period of time with his help and was highly critical of his employees, but would frequently be patting his heavy-paying customers on the back. She stated to her knowledge RUBY had never been married but was very devoted to his sister EVA, who ran the Vegas Club for RUBY.

PCI stated she had never heard RUBY discuss politics. She stated it was her belief that RUBY usually carried a gun and that he was very impulsive and did everything "on the spur of the moment."

PCI stated that it is her firm belief that RUBY as he passed the Dallas Police Station on the morning of November 24, 1963, thought of how he could become a hero by shooting OSWALD and acted on this impulse and did proceed to murder OSWALD. She stated she is firmly convinced there is no connection whatsoever between OSWALD and RUBY or in the assassination of the President and the subsequent killing of OSWALD.

It is noted that pages 5 through 10 of the report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS, dated December 31, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, sets forth interview on December 16, 1963, with HENRY MACHIRELLA, reporter for the "New York Daily News". MACHIRELLA in his interview furnished information to the effect that while at Dallas, Texas, on November 25, 1963, following the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY, he had an occasion to talk with Attorney TOM HOWARD, Dallas, who was representing JACK RUBY relative to the shooting. He stated that HOWARD related to him that shortly after the shooting of OSWALD, HOWARD went to his office on November 24, 1963, and there met a "lawyer from the East" who opened an attache case containing two pistols. This lawyer told TOM HOWARD that he had come to Dallas to kill OSWALD. HOWARD stated that he informed this man that he might as well take a bus back to the East. HOWARD indicated to MACHIRELLA that he had not reported this event to the police authorities.

It is further noted that Pittsburgh is origin of a pending case entitled "WILLIAM H. DARNALL, aka; CAA - CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPON"; Pittsburgh file 164-8; Dallas file 164-9. The report of SA RAY V. SHOEMAKER, dated December 19, 1963, at Pittsburgh, indicates that DARNALL was interviewed by Bureau Agents in Huntington, West Virginia, on December 10, 1963, at which time he orally admitted traveling by Eastern Airlines from Huntington, West Virginia to Dallas, for the purpose of shooting OSWALD and also admitted taking with him on this flight two pistols. He further admitted that after arriving at Dallas, he learned that OSWALD had already been killed by RUBY and consequently he contacted RUBY's attorney, TOM HOWARD, to offer his assistance in the defense of RUBY. He added that he returned to Huntington the following day, bringing the pistols with him. It is further noted that the USA, Charleston, West Virginia, has advised that since DARNALL appears to be an alcoholic, successful prosecution would appear questionable. He stated, however, that due to the purpose of the trip on the part of DARNALL, he desired to discuss this matter with the Department of Justice prior to rendering a final prosecutive opinion. In view of the above, TOM HOWARD is not being interviewed. Any such interview will be left to the discretion of the Pittsburgh Office.

Information obtained from records of Western Union Telegraph Company, 2034 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, set forth in this report was furnished by [redacted] Western Union Telegraph Company, Dallas, Texas.

The information obtained from the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Dallas, Texas, was obtained from [redacted] by SA ROBERT C. LISH on December 20, 1963.

E. B. DUGGER, Superintendent, Casa View Branch, U. S. Post Office, advised SA JAMES E. GARRIS on December 19, 1963, that his records fail to reflect a change of address for JEANINE or LLOYD JOHNSON, who formerly resided at 7927 Millstone, Dallas. He added, however, that change of address records are maintained for only two years. He also stated the regular mail carrier on the route that covers the above address advised him the JOHNSONS were unknown to him.

On December 20, 1963, LEON PHILLIPS, Assistant Superintendent, U. S. Post Office, Greenville and Sears Streets, Dallas, advised there was no forwarding address in the files of that office for ANN PETTA, 5119 Live Oak.

On December 19, 1963, [redacted] Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, furnished information to SA MALON L. JENNINGS at Fort Worth, Texas, regarding telephone number BUtler 1-1909.

On December 19, 1963, information concerning bank accounts of RALPH PAUL at the First National Bank, Arlington, Texas, was furnished confidentially to SA MALON L. JENNINGS by [redacted]

Check of the Cincinnati Office index reflects that on August 16, 1950, one GLORIA ALVERDA KEPPLER interviewed at the Cincinnati Workhouse advised that she and ORVILLE GADD had resided as man and wife at 1107 Banklick, Covington, Kentucky, and that GADD was then probably living with his mother, Mrs. VEVA WEBER, 1528 Greenup Street, Covington. KEPPLER denied that GADD had transported her from Covington, Kentucky, to Cincinnati, Ohio, stated that she and GADD had "broken up" after she was arrested on July 17, 1950, by Cincinnati Detectives, which arrest exposed her as a prostitute. She denied that GADD had any knowledge of her being a prostitute.

The records of the Western Union Telegraph Company, Houston, Texas, were made available by [redacted] whose identity should remain confidential.

On December 20, 1963, BILL GOODWIN, U. S. Post Office, Burbank, California, advised SA VINCENT J. O'NEILL that under date of October 1963 was a notation that there was no forwarding order for the HUEY J. MC QUILLANs from 135 South Cordova, Burbank, California.

On December 20, 1963 [redacted] a confidential source of the [redacted] Sherman Oaks, California, whose identity should not be divulged, advised SA VINCENT J. O'NEILL that she had no record of the name of HUEY J. MC QUILLAN, which indicated MC QUILLAN was probably a non-union bartender when he was so employed.

Louisville letter to Albany, April 9, 1960, captioned "CHRISTIAN KNIGHTS OF THE KLU KLUX KLAN, RACIAL MATTERS" (Louisville file 157-14; St. Louis file 157-0-13a), reflects that on June 17, 1960, [redacted] made available to SA WARREN L. WALSH a number of addressed envelopes which were to be subsequently mailed. Each envelope contained a copy of the "Klan Bulletin" dated June, 1960, together with application for membership in the Christian Knights of the Klu Klux Klan (CKKKK). One of these envelopes was addressed to Colonel JACK STINSON, 5326 Conde, St. Louis, Missouri.

Some of the envelopes were sent to the members of the CKKKK or to members of the National States Rights Party. Some envelopes were sent to non-members. The informant did not specify if Colonel STINSON was a member or non-member.

[redacted] PCI, on December 23, 1963, advised SA TONY J. SEABAUGH at Kansas City, Missouri, that he has known JACK LEON RUBY since about 1946, although he did not consider him a close friend. PCI related that in about January, 1946, he was on terminal leave from the U. S. Army and was then residing in Dallas Texas. He was acquainted with the married and divorced sister of RUBY, who then operated the Silver Spur in Dallas. She was having difficulty in the operation of this night club and her brother, JACK RUBY, who then resided in Chicago, came to Dallas to assist her in operation of the club. During the approximate period, January through March, 1946, PCI and the sister of JACK RUBY operated the Silver Spur and JACK RUBY "attempted to drum up business." PCI re-entered the U. S. Army in 1946, but visited the Dallas, Texas, area frequently thereafter and renewed his acquaintance with RUBY on each visit. PCI stated that he saw RUBY in Dallas, Texas, in 1950, 1953, 1957 and in 1960. In about 1953, RUBY operated the College Inn, a bar located near the intersection of Oaklawn and Lennox Avenue in Dallas, Texas. In 1960, this bar was known as the Vegas and was operated by RUBY's sister. PCI said when he was in Dallas in October, 1960, JACK RUBY managed a bar in an upstairs room on Commerce Street and PCI believed that the name of this bar was the Carousel.

PCI stated that he has not seen RUBY since 1960. He characterized RUBY as a very nervous individual who was constantly on the move, "glad handing" everyone he saw. RUBY was a very personable individual and had friends everywhere. He was big-hearted and if he liked you, would do anything for you. PCI said that he was not aware that RUBY had any connections with the hoodlum element in Chicago or Dallas and had never observed him with a gun in his possession. PCI stated that although RUBY was extremely nervous he had never exhibited any particular patriotic feelings and had not discussed politics with the PCI.

PCI was unable to offer any explanation for the actions of RUBY in connection with the slaying of OSWALD. PCI said he did not know OSWALD and had never heard RUBY refer to an individual by this name. PCI added that he did not know if RUBY had any friends or contacts on the Dallas Police Department.

Title:
JACK L. RUBY;
LEE HARVEY OSWALD - VICTIM (DECEASED)

Character: CIVIL RIGHTS

Synopsis:

JACK L. RUBY claimed first heard name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD following OSWALD's arrest, Dallas, 11/22/63; denied knowing or ever seeing OSWALD until evening, 11/22/63, at Dallas Police Department. RUBY advised on Sunday morning, 11/24/63, while en route to Western Union Office, observed numbers of people around both County Building and building housing Dallas PD. After sending money order, walked on Main St. to ramp into basement; as he approached, police vehicle exited, officer on duty stepped to curb away from ramp and looked into the police vehicle. At about time officer stooped to look into vehicle, RUBY reached ramp opening and, without breaking stride, walked down ramp into basement. RUBY denied having press card or any other kind of identification on outside of his coat as he entered; claimed did not exhibit any kind of identification to anyone to gain entrance to basement; stated no police officer assisted him in any way, did or said anything to suggest he shoot OSWALD. RUBY furnished additional background information concerning himself. Officer ROY EUGENE VAUGHN, on interview, denied observing any individual walk down ramp from Main St. other than duly authorized persons. NAPOLEON J. DANIELS, former police officer, claimed a man walked past Officer VAUGHN and down Main St. ramp shortly before OSWALD shot. EVA GRANT said whereabouts of her former husband, FRANK GRANT, unknown to her, but heard rumor years ago he was dead. Friends, associates, acquaintances and former employees furnished information as to their knowledge of RUBY's background and activities. No information developed to substantiate allegations that RUBY "picked up tab" for large party of police officers at his Carousel Club; that RUBY was co-signer on loans obtained at Dallas banks by Dallas PD officers. Mexican immigration records fail to reflect RUBY entered Mexico, 9/25/63 through 10/3/63. Additional information concerning RUBY's movements during pertinent period set out. Admitted acquaintances of OSWALD state have no knowledge of OSWALD - RUBY connection. Persons who sent congratulatory letters to RUBY did so due to overindulgence in alcohol or emotional impulse.

JACK L. RUBY was interviewed in an interview room located on floor 6-M of the Dallas County Jail, Dallas, Texas. His attorneys, MELVIN BELLI, San Francisco, California; JOE TONAHILL, Jasper, Texas; SAM BRODY, Los Angeles, California, and WILLIAM CHOULOS, San Francisco, California, were present. The interview commenced at 1:50 PM and continued until 3:30 PM, when RUBY went to the rest room. It was resumed again at 3:34 PM and continued until 5:00 PM.

JACK L. RUBY was advised by SA C. RAY HALL that he did not have to make any statement. He was reminded that his attorneys were present, and that any statements he made in answers to questions could be used against him in a court of law.

JACK L. RUBY then furnished the following information:

On the night of Wednesday, November 20, 1963, he was at his club, the Carousel Club, in Dallas, Texas. He thinks he closed the club at about 2:00 AM on November 21, 1963. One of his dancers, called "LITTLE LYNN", drank some champagne before closing, and when she started home she got sick and passed out at Nichols Brothers parking garage near his club. He thinks this occurred after 2:00 AM on November 21, 1963, but it could have been after 2:00 AM on November 20, 1963. He went over to see about her, and tried to get her to go to a hospital, but she refused to go. He remained with her, trying to take care of her, until 4:00 AM or 5:00 AM and then went home, so far as he can now recall. After he got home, he went to bed and went to sleep.

At about 10:30 AM or 11:00 AM on November 21, 1963, he received a telephone call at home from a girl named TRAMMELL, whose first name may be CONNIE, or something similar. He met this girl at the Carousel Club about eight months previously, and since meeting her she has called him on the telephone several times. The TRAMMELL girl lives in an apartment on either Gaston Avenue or Live Oak Street in Dallas. When she called him on November 21, 1963, she told him that she had to get a job and that she had an appointment with LAMAR HUNT. He asked her how she got an appointment with HUNT, and she told him that she called HUNT's home and got his number, then just called his office and asked him for an appointment about a job.

by Special Agents C. RAY HALL and MANNING C. CLEMENTS - LAC Date dictated 12/23/63

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

TRAMMELL asked RUBY to come after her and give her a ride downtown, so he got dressed, picked her up and drove her downtown. RUBY had an appointment with his attorney but does not remember whether it was GRAHAM KOCH or STANLEY KAUFMAN. Both attorneys have offices in the Mercantile Securities Building, Dallas, the same building in which LAMAR HUNT has his offices. TRAMMELL went up to see LAMAR HUNT and after RUBY completed his business with his attorney regarding some tax matters, he waited around the cigar stand in the lobby for a while for TRAMMELL to come down, but she did not, so he left and went to the Carousel Club. When he got to the club, one of his employees named LARRY was there.

LARRY was a young boy whom he had seen at the State Fair of Texas, and he gave LARRY a job at the Carousel Club after the fair closed. He had asked LARRY to build a crate so he could ship a dog to a friend of RUBY's, AL GRUBER, who lives on Olympic Street in Los Angeles, California. LARRY had not built the crate, so he got after him for not having done what he had asked him to do. So far as he remembers, he stayed around the Carousel Club until about 9:30 PM, when he and RALPH PAUL, who owns part of the Carousel CIub, went to the Egyptian Lounge for dinner.

While they were eating at the Egyptian Lounge, a man named CONNORS, who is a salesman for the Dallas Morning News newspaper, came over to the table and invited RUBY over to the Castaway Club located nearby. He declined the invitation because he did not want to go to this club as the manager had hired an orchestra away from RUBY that had played for RUBY for several years. After dinner, RUBY returned to the Carousel Club. During the evening of November 21, 1963, he did the breaks between shows, which were two breaks of twenty minutes each, and he used a roulette wheel to give away prizes to the audience. Sometime during the evening, he ordered someone out of the club because he was creating a disturbance, but he has no idea who this person was. He believes he closed the Carousel Club at about 2:00 AM on November 22, 1963, and went home. If he went anywhere to eat before going home, he does not remember it. He does not now remember whether GEORGE SENATOR, who shares the apartment with RUBY, was at home when he arrived there or not, but he went directly to bed and went to sleep.

On the morning of November 22, 1963, RUBY got up at about 9:30 AM and does not now recall whether GEORGE SENATOR was in the apartment or not. He drove downtown and stopped at the Dallas Morning News at about 10:50 AM. He believes he stopped for a moment and talked to two girls employed there, GLADYS CRADDOCK and a girl named CONNELLY or CONNELL. He thinks he gave them a bottle of Larson's CRD, a food supplement for persons on a diet. He then went to the office of TONY ZOPPI, but TONY was not there. RUBY looked over a brochure there about BILL DEMAR, a master of ceremonies at the Carousel Club. Another employee of the newspaper, a Mr. PAYNE, may have been in ZOPPI's office while RUBY was in there.

RUBY left that office and went to Mr. JOHN NEWNAM's office at the newspaper to talk about RUBY's ads. RUBY was trying to make a 12:00 noon deadline. Mr. CONNORS, the same person RUBY had seen at the Egyptian Lounge the previous evening, came in to NEWNAM's office, and they talked for a while. NEWNAM came in, and RUBY completed his advertisements for his clubs.

At about that time, people began running around, and RUBY heard someone say that somebody had been shot. First, he heard that Governor CONNALLY had been shot, then a Secret Service Agent, and then someone said that "our beloved President has been shot". RUBY then called his sister, EVA GRANT, and told her about the shooting and told her he would be at her house as soon as he could. He left the Dallas Morning News but does not know the time when he left. He drove to the Carousel Club and told his employee, ANDY ARMSTRONG, to get in touch with everybody and tell them he was closing his clubs. He then called a friend, ALICE NICHOLS, and she told him that Neiman-Marcus had closed their store. He called AB GRUBER in Los Angeles from the Carousel Club and told GRUBER he would send a dog to him soon. RUBY said he talked to GRUBER about the death of President KENNEDY but began crying and finally just told GRUBER he had to break it off and hung up the telephone.

Somebody brought some merchandise to the club, but he does not remember who it was, and RUBY just told the man to take the merchandise back as he did not want any. He called his sister several times during the afternoon and was so upset that he was belligerent toward his employees, ANDY and LARRY, who were at the Carousel Club. He remembers getting a telephone call from KATHY KAY; he called his business associate, RALPH PAUL, and told PAUL that he was going to close his clubs; he called BRECK WALL in Galveston, and also JOE PETERSON; and he called his sister EILEEN in Chicago, locating her at his sister MARIAN's house.

Sometime late that afternoon, he left the Carousel Club and went to the Ritz Delicatessen and bought a lot of food and then went to the home of his sister in Dallas, EVA GRANT. He and his sister talked and while there, his employee, ANDY, called and told him that DON SAFRAN, of the Dallas Times Herald, had called and wanted to get in touch with him. RUBY then called SAFRAN, who told RUBY that the Cabana and the Century Room were going to close and he did not know what ABE and BARNEY WEINSTEIN were going to do. RUBY said he told SAFRAN that he had already closed, without asking what the other club owners were doing. SAFRAN then asked RUBY about whether he would be open the next night, and RUBY said he did not know but would call him back. In a few minutes RUBY called SAFRAN back and told him he was going to be closed Saturday and Sunday nights, in addition to Friday night.

At no time did RUBY go to Parkland Hospital on November 22, 1963. At about 7:00 PM or 8:00 PM, he left his sister's home and drove to his apartment to get dressed to go to Congregation Shearith Israel Synagogue, arriving there at about 10:00 PM or 10:30 PM. Before he left his apartment, he called Dr. COLEMAN JACOBSON to determine when the services began at his Synagogue. Following services, refreshments were served, but he did not feel like visiting with anyone. He stayed there for a short time, then drove toward downtown. He passed the Club BaliHai, noticing that it was open, and then drove by the Gay Life Club and saw that it was closed. He then drove on to Phil's Delicatessen and went in and talked to the owner, PHIL MILLER. He had read in the newspaper, or heard over the radio, that the police officers in the Homicide Bureau would be working overtime that night, so he ordered ten sandwiches and decided he would take them something to eat. After he ordered the sandwiches, he called the Police Department Homicide Bureau and talked to Detective SIMS, telling him he was getting some sandwiches and would bring them down for them. SIMS told him they were about through and were winding up things there and did not want anything to eat. After SIMS told him that, he decided he would take the sandwiches to the employees at KLIF Radio Station.

He explained that he has known GORDON MC LENDON, owner of the radio station, for a number of years, and he also knows RUSS KNIGHT, a disk jockey at the station. The employees at the radio station have been good about giving him free plugs when he was trying to get started with his clubs, and he just wanted to do something for them because he knew they would be working late. He called GORDON MC LENDON's home, from Phil's Delicatessen, in order to get a number at the radio station so he could talk to the men on duty there. The daughter gave him a number, and he told her he was going to take some sandwiches to the radio station, but the daughter told him her mother had already sent some food up there. RUBY called the number he had gotten, but it was a wrong number.

He picked up his sandwiches and discovered they had made only eight, when he ordered ten. He drank a soft drink, then left with his sandwiches and drove downtown, driving up Commerce Street and parking across from the City Hall. He decided to go to the Police Department to try to locate some newsmen from KLIF in order to obtain the unlisted phone number for the radio station. He went to the third floor of the Police Department, where the newsmen were gathered. As he got off the elevator, a policeman, who was not known to RUBY, asked him where he was going, or whom he wanted to see. RUBY told him he was looking for JOE DELONG, of KLIF, and the officer let him go on inside. He looked around for a while, without seeing anyone from KLIF, and asked some unknown police officer to have JOE DELONG paged over the loud-speaker. DELONG did not answer the page, but while he was waiting he saw Captain FRITZ, of the Police Department, come out of his office with a person, OSWALD. RUBY heard a reporter tell FRITZ that this was not a good place, so FRITZ went back inside his office with OSWALD. In a minute, RUBY heard some newsmen say something about the basement, so he went down there to an assembly room where some newsmen were.

When he saw OSWALD here, this was the first time that he had ever seen him. He had never heard the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD before OSWALD's arrest on November 22, 1963, by the Dallas Police Department. Any rumors that OSWALD was ever at any of RUBY's clubs are wrong because RUBY had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD at any place before he saw him with Captain FRITZ at the Dallas Police Department the night of November 22, 1963. Any rumors that OSWALD was at the Carousel Club are absolutely untrue. RUBY has since heard reports that his master of ceremonies at the Carousel Club, BILL DEMAR, has reported that OSWALD was at the Carousel Club one night before President KENNEDY was assassinated.

RUBY said that this is absolutely false, because OSWALD was never there. RUBY has heard that ED SULLIVAN got in touch with BILL DEMAR and wanted DEMAR on SULLIVAN's television program, but SULLIVAN did not believe DEMAR's story and would not use him. RUBY further advised that newspaper reports that RUBY and OSWALD were seen together in Waco, Texas, are complete falsehoods because he was never with OSWALD anywhere. Reports that OSWALD was going to RUBY's apartment after President KENNEDY's death are absolutely false, because OSWALD did not know RUBY, RUBY has never had any previous connection with OSWALD, and OSWALD could not have been going to RUBY's apartment. RUBY said that his employee, ANDY ARMSTRONG, knows more about RUBY's club and RUBY's morals than anyone else, and ANDY can tell anyone that OSWALD was never in the Carousel Club.

When RUBY got to the assembly room, he went to the back of the room and stood on top of a table, so he could see and be out of the way. In a few minutes, HENRY WADE, the District Attorney, and Captain FRITZ came into the assembly room with OSWALD for an interview with the press. OSWALD mumbled or talked a little, but the newsmen could not hear him. RUBY did not hear OSWALD either. After a short time, Captain FRITZ took OSWALD away. HENRY WADE was then interviewed by the newsmen.

RUBY said that he had his revolver in his right front trouser pocket all during this evening, November 22 and 23, 1963, except when he went to church services. He left the revolver in his car while he was in church but put it back in his right trouser pocket when he got back to his car. He said he carried his gun because he had a lot of money on his person and always carried his gun when he carried money.

After the interview with WADE, RUBY left the assembly room and was out in the corridor. A newsman came by whom RUBY did not know, and RUBY asked him if he had seen JOE DELONG, of KLIF. This man said he had not seen DELONG, and RUBY mentioned that he had some sandwiches for KLIF. This man said he was from KBOX radio and asked RUBY what was the matter with them. RUBY said he told the man that next time maybe, but this time he had the sandwiches for KLIF. This man from KBOX then gave RUBY the unlisted phone number for KLIF. RUBY went around behind the counter in the basement offices of the Police Department and telephoned KLIF, talking to an employee named KEN. He told KEN he had some sandwiches but could not get in the entrance door to the radio station. At about that time, HENRY WADE walked by, and RUBY was still talking to KEN so he asked KEN if he wanted to talk to HENRY WADE. KEN said he did, so RUBY called to HENRY WADE and told WADE he was wanted on the telephone. WADE talked on the phone to KEN, then handed the phone back to RUBY. RUBY talked to KEN again, and KEN told him it was great of RUBY to help him get the interview with WADE.

RUBY said he then left the Police Department building, went to his car and drove over to Radio Station KLIF. He got the sandwiches out of his car to take them upstairs, but the front door was locked. In about ten or fifteen minutes, RUSS KNIGHT came by and let him inside. They all went upstairs, and the employees on duty ate the sandwiches. RUBY left Radio Station KLIF at about 3:00 AM on November 23, 1963, and drove to the Dallas Times Herald newspaper building. He went inside and talked to an employee named PAT GADOSH and gave PAT a twist board, an exerciser. GADOSH is the person at the newspaper who takes RUBY's ads for his clubs.

He talked with GADOSH about the advertisement in the Dallas Morning News, by BERNARD WEISSMAN, that was critical of President KENNEDY. GADOSH told RUBY not to worry about the ad, because the Dallas Morning News was suffering enough for carrying such an ad. RUBY got his ad taken care of and drove toward home.

While driving home, RUBY thought of the similarity between the BERNARD WEISSMAN advertisement and a sign he had seen which read, "Impeach EARL WARREN". He drove home and awakened GEORGE SENATOR and asked SENATOR to go with him. He called the Carousel Club and awakened his employee, LARRY, and asked LARRY if he knew how to operate a Polaroid camera. LARRY said he could operate the camera, so he told LARRY he would be down to pick up LARRY and the camera. RUBY and SENATOR then drove to the Carousel Club sometime about 4:00 or 5:00 AM on November 23, 1963, and picked up LARRY and the camera. They drove to Central Expressway and Ross Avenue, where they found a sign, about 2 feet by 4 feet, on top of a Potter Steel Company sign, which read "Impeach EARL WARREN", and at the bottom of this sign was "Box 1757, Beltham, Mass."

They took some photographs of this sign, and RUBY then remembered that the BERNARD WEISSMAN ad had the address "Box 1792, Dallas, Texas", so they drove to the Main Post Office in Dallas and looked at Post Office Box 1792. RUBY asked a man on duty at the post office for the name of the man who had Post Office Box 1792, but the man told him he could not give RUBY the name of the box holder. They left and went to the Southland Hotel

Coffee Shop, where RUBY talked for a few minutes with the owner, a man believed to be named WEBB. RUBY said as a patriotic American he was so upset and intense over the sign, and the advertisement critical of President KENNEDY, that he could not eat anything but drank some orange juice at the coffee shop. They left the coffee shop and dropped off LARRY at the Carousel Club at about 6:00 AM. As he got out of the car, LARRY told RUBY that he supposed RUBY was not going to bed, and RUBY told LARRY that he was not going to bed. RUBY and SENATOR drove on to their apartment and went to bed.

At about 8:30 AM on November 23, 1963, LARRY phoned RUBY and asked him what kind of dog food he wanted. RUBY said that before he realized that he had told LARRY he was not going to bed, he talked real ugly to LARRY. He found out later that LARRY left the keys to the Carousel Club next door and left town without telling RUBY he was leaving or where he was going. RUBY got up at about 11:00 or 11:30 AM and got dressed and drove downtown. He decided to stop and look at all the wreaths that had been placed on the side of the street near where President KENNEDY had been shot. He looked at the wreaths, then went over to talk to Police Officer CHANEY, who was on duty there, and talked with CHANEY for a few minutes, but choked up and left because he did not want CHANEY to see him crying. He went on up the street and met WES WISE, of KRLD television station, and talked to WISE for a few minutes. He drove on away and as he was leaving he noticed that Captain FRITZ and Chief of Police CURRY were walking around the scene of the assassination. He backed up and told WISE, "There goes FRITZ and CURRY". He then drove on home.

Later on in the afternoon he drove back downtown and went to Sol's Turf Bar and talked with a man named BELLOCHIO, or something like that, who was in the place, and also talked to his accountant, ABE KLEINMAN, who was in the place. He showed them photos that he had taken of the sign "Impeach EARL WARREN", and they talked about that. BELLOCHIO was talking about the bad publicity that Dallas would get because President KENNEDY had been killed in Dallas and said he would probably have to leave town. RUBY reminded him that he had made his money in Dallas and should not leave now. BELLOCHIO wanted one of the photos that RUBY had taken, but RUBY would not give him a photo. While in this bar RUBY called his attorney, STANLEY KAUFMAN, and he told STANLEY about the photos. RUBY was in Sol's Turf Bar about forty-five minutes, then left sometime between 3:00 and 4:00 PM on the afternoon of November 23, 1963.

He does not remember exactly where he went [illegible] when he left but may have gone by the Lacy Building to see his tailor, but he then went back to the Carousel Club and then on home. His employee ANDY at the Carousel Club called him about 6:00 PM and wanted to leave, but RUBY told ANDY to stay at the club to answer any incoming telephone calls. He stayed home until about 11:00 PM, when he went to the Pago Club. He sat down at a back table and ordered a Coke. BOB NORTON, the manager, came over and told RUBY that he was going to close the club but had been told to keep it open. RUBY told NORTON that was all right, he could do whatever he wanted to do, but he had closed his clubs. RUBY left there after he finished his Coke and drove to his Carousel Club. He stayed around there for a little while, then drove home because he was not interested in any gaiety. He did not go to the Cabana Motel and visit a club there.

RUBY said that on the morning of November 24, 1963, he got a call from one of his dancers called LITTLE LYNN, who has been a pain to him because of her actions, and she said she needed some money for her landlord. On Friday night, November 22, 1963, he had to give her $5.00 so she could get home. He did not want her to come by his apartment to get the money because her husband would come with her and RUBY did not like her husband. He told LYNN he would send her some money by Western Union to Fort Worth, Texas. He had a lot of money with him that he had for a deposit to pay his excise tax, so he got his revolver and put it in his right front trouser pocket. He said he never carried the gun in his coat pocket because it would get his coat out of shape.

He said he had no permit to carry a gun and had no card or badge as any kind of law enforcement officer. However, a number of officers of the Dallas Police Department knew he had a gun. He recalled that a couple of times the police officers had taken him out of jail and given his gun back to him. He did not recall the names of these officers. He said that being around clubs and carrying money--it was like a jungle with all the [illegible]ckups--he carried his revolver when he had money on his person.

He left his apartment, got in his car and started to [illegible] the money to LITTLE LYNN. As he drove out of his [illegible]topped and talked to a neighbor, name unknown but [illegible]-in-law of Police Officer BUDDY MUENSTER. RUBY [illegible] car with him. He drove toward town on the [illegible]y and turned off onto Industrial Street, then [illegible]ain Street so he could see the wreaths at the spot where President KENNEDY was assassinated. As he passed the County Building he noticed a lot of people around so he assumed that OSWALD had already been moved to the County Jail. He drove on up Main Street and as he passed the City Hall he noticed a number of people around there. Just before he reached the next corner, he made an illegal left turn into a parking lot across the street from the Western Union Office and parked his car there. He left his dog in his car. He then walked across the street and sent a money order for $25.00 to LITTLE LYNN at Fort Worth.

After sending the telegram, he left the Western Union office and walked west on the same side of the street, toward the City Hall, located on the next corner. Before he reached the Police Department building, he noticed a police officer standing at the entrance to the ramp going into the basement from Main Street, but he did not know the police officer. Just before he reached that point, a police car came out of the basement, and he recognized the driver of the police car as Lieut. PIERCE. He explained he has known Lieut. PIERCE for twelve or fourteen years. PIERCE did not look toward him or speak to him and RUBY did not speak to Lieut. PIERCE. RUBY could not recall seeing anyone else in the police car with Lieut. PIERCE in either the front or back seat of the police car.

As the police car driven by Lieut. PIERCE came out of the basement ramp, the officer on duty at the entrance stepped back and walked toward the curb next to the street, with his back toward RUBY. As the police car got even with this officer, the officer stooped down and looked inside the car. At about this time, RUBY had reached the entrance to the Main Street ramp, and he took in the movement of the police car and the officer on duty at the ramp, with a quick glance. Without breaking his stride or hesitating, RUBY turned to his left and walked down the ramp into the basement. As he entered the ramp, he does not recall seeing any person standing around the entrance, and he does not know a former police officer named DANIELS.

RUBY said he is positive he did not have either of his hands in any of his pockets--either coat or trouser pockets--when he entered and walked down the ramp. He did not look behind him to see which way the police car went when it entered the street, and he did not look behind him to see whether anyone observed him entering the basement. RUBY said he had no kind of press card or any other kind of identification on the outside of his coat, and he exhibited no identification to anyone to gain entrance to the basement.

Just as he got to the bottom of the ramp, RUBY said, "A person who pops out with two men; that is all I can remember; naturally I know who he is; to me, he had this smirky, smug, vindictive attitude; I can't explain what impression he gave me, but that is all I can---, well, I just lost my senses; the next I knew I was on the ground and five or six people were on top of me". RUBY said that as he was going down the ramp he spoke to no one and no one spoke to him. He did not recognize anyone in the crowd there, and he did not stop and stand behind anyone.

RUBY was asked why he killed OSWALD, and he said, "I was in mourning Friday and Saturday. To me, when he shot before me like he did, something in my insides tore out, and I just went blank. To me, he represented--I'll go back a little bit. I listened to a eulogy Saturday morning, I am sure, and I heard Rabbi SILVERMAN speak about our President. He said, 'Here is a man that fought in all battles, but he didn't have a chance to fight here, he was shot from the rear'. I have been around people that are so smug and hard. Then about OSWALD being associated with Communism, and how he blemished this beautiful city; and Mrs. KENNEDY having to come back to the trial. I told no one I was going to kill him. No one knew I was going to shoot him. I didn't discuss anything with anyone about shooting him. No police officer assisted me in any way, or did, or said anything to suggest my shooting OSWALD. I remembered MULLINAX, a police officer who was killed, and MULLINAX was a friend of mine. I did not know J. D. TIPPIT. I knew a TIPPIT on the police department, but he was in the Special Service Bureau, and he was not the TIPPIT that was killed. I did not know the TIPPIT that was killed."

RUBY said he has never had any serious illnesses or hospitalizations and does not have a steel plate in his head. He volunteered his mother had previously been committed to an insane asylum. He professed to know of no other history of mental illness in his family.

RUBY stated he was born in Chicago in 1911. He spent four or five years in various foster homes in Chicago, mentioning that his father was an alcoholic. He said the father's alcoholic habits contributed to his mother's mental condition, along with her problems in "the change of life". He said he remained in Chicago until 1933.

He said that in 1933 he, one AL DUNN, MAURY (last name not recalled) and a third person, whose name he could not immediately recall, went to Los Angeles, California, where they sold "Collier's Tip Sheet", which he described as a handicapper's tip sheet for horse races. He said their arrival in the Los Angeles area coincided, as he recalled, with the opening of the Santa Anita Race Track. He related they remained in the Los Angeles area for a few months only and during the same year, 1933, went to the San Francisco area, where he at first engaged in similar activities at the Bay Meadows Race Track. Subsequently, he sold subscriptions to Hearst newspapers, the San Francisco Examiner and San Francisco Call Bulletin, covering San Francisco and small towns in the general area.

He said he remained in San Francisco until 1937 and returned to Chicago and was unemployed for a considerable period. In 1941, he related, he, his brother EARL RUBY, HARRY EPSTEIN, MARTY SHARGOL (Phonetic) and MARTY GIMPLE "went on the road" selling punch boards and small cedar chests in numerous Eastern and New England states. He specifically mentioned the states of New York, Connecticut and Pennsylvania. He said he had no fixed address during this period, that the group lived in various hotels.

RUBY related that in late 1941 he returned to Chicago and continued his business of selling punch boards, primarily through mail orders. He mentioned an advertisement was run in Billboard magazine in this regard. He mentioned that during this period he became very closely associated with ARTY WAYNE, a musician.

RUBY stated he remained in Chicago until 1942. He said his brother SAMUEL was in military service, stationed at Jefferson Barracks in the St. Louis area. He said he went to St. Louis and spent a week or two there, to be near his brother. His brother EARL, he related, was at the time in the U. S. Navy, stationed at Dutch Harbor. He said he sold punch boards while in the St. Louis area. He said he returned to Chicago in 1942 and "hung around home," mentioning specifically the area of Division and Damon Streets. He said he had had difficulties with his previous partners in the punch board business.

In the period 1942-1943, he operated out of Globe Auto Glass Company, owned by one MORRIE KELLMAN. He mentioned that his brother HYMAN had, during this period, been released from military service as being "too old". He said that he personally entered the military service in 1943 and remained until 1946.

RUBY said that in 1946, on being discharged from military duty, he returned to Chicago and "prospered" in his mail order business involving punch boards and miscellaneous items. He said his sister EVA had for some time been wanting to operate a night club in Dallas and had moved to Dallas from California. He said he in the meantime had had some friction with his brothers and had sold his interest in their mutual business of selling punch boards and other items to the brothers.

He said he sent money to his sister EVA for a lease on a building in which to open a club. He said he at that time was living at the Congress Hotel, Chicago, having saved some money. He said for a brief period he was associated with one PINKIE HARWOOD, who lived in Detroit, in the promotion of "cookware". This was not a successful venture.

He said that in 1947 he moved to Dallas to be associated with EVA in the night club business. He returned to Chicago, however, in the same year in a few months in an effort to enter into various "merchandising deals". Being unsucoessful, he returned to Dallas in 1947 and has lived in Dallas continuously since.

RUBY said he went broke in the night club business in 1952 and had a "mental breakdown". He continued along this line by saying he was "mentally depressed" and that he "hibernated in the Cotton Bowl Hotel" for three or four months, declining to see his friends. He said he went back to Chicago briefly and his brother EARL tried to help him out financially. He returned to Dallas, however, in 1952.

RUBY said his first ventures in Dallas were the Bob Wills Ranch House and Silver Spur. He said that WILLIE EPSTEIN and MARTY GIMPLE were associated with him in the Silver Spur and it was at the Silver Spur that he went broke. He said after his "comeback" he tried operating the Silver Spur again. In 1952-1953 he operated the Ervay Theater, a motion picture house, briefly. In 1953 he became associated in the Vegas Club and "Hernando's Hideaway".

In 1956 he sold his interest in the Silver Spur. He related that in 1959-1960 he persuaded his brother EARL to come to Dallas and to assist in establishing the Sovereign Club. EARL did not remain in Dallas, however. He said the Sovereign

Club, established as a private club, became the Carousel, which continues to operate.

RUBY said he has not been associated with or operated any night clubs except in Dallas, Texas.

RUBY stated that he visited a friend of his brother in Windsor, Ontario, Canada, in 1929-1930 for two or three months. In 1933, when en route to California on a brief trip, he went across into Mexico at Juarez. He said this was purely a "tourist" trip of short duration. He said he has never been in Mexico otherwise and has never been outside the Continental United States except as indicated above and below. He said he has never been in Honolulu, Hawaii.

RUBY related that in August 1959 he went to Havana, Cuba, to see L. C. MC WILLIE, who was "some sort of a good will man" for the Tropicana, a gambling establishment. He said MC WILLIE sent him a plane ticket and he lived at the Fosca Apartments with MC WILLIE for a period of eight to ten days. He said he spent all of his time in Havana except to go to a small area on one occasion with "one of the FOX brothers", who owned the Tropicana. He said his trip to Cuba was completely non-political and that he has had no correspondence with persons in Cuba. He said MC WILLIE is now at the Thunderbird Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada.

RUBY stated he has not been a member of any political associations, clubs or organizations. He said his brother HYMAN was at one time interested in politics in Chicago in a small way. He said he may have belonged to B'nai B'rith and the "Jewish Welfare Fund". He said he has never been a member of the Communist Party or any "front" organizations, that he has had no membership in, or affiliation with, or interest in "Fair Play for Cuba" or any other Cuban organization of any type.

RUBY volunteered that some years ago, "at a time when CASTRO was popular in the United States", he read of an individual in the vicinity of Houston, Texas, having been engaged in "gun running to CASTRO". He said he attempted by telephone to get in touch with this individual as he had in mind "making a buck" by possibly acquiring some Jeeps or other similar equipment which he might sell to persons interested in their importation to Cuba. He said nothing came of this. He said he had never attended any meetings concerned with "gun running", smuggling of persons in or out of Cuba or otherwise in relation to Cuban affairs.

RUBY said he was associated in about 1937 in Chicago with the Scrap Iron and Junk Dealers Union but has otherwise had no other direct association with any union except American Guild of Variety Artists, the latter in connection with his night club businesses.

RUBY stated that during the summer of 1963 he took a trip to Houston, Texas, en route to Edna, Texas, where he visited CANDY BARR, a former Dallas strip tease figure who had just been released from the Texas State Penitentiary. He said he gave CANDY a dog as a present. He said he went on to New Orleans on this same trip, his purpose being to attempt to engage the services of "JADA", a stripper who had been performing in New Orleans.

He said that in the summer of 1963 he flew via American Air Lines to New York City, where he remained for two or three days at the new Hilton Hotel. He said his purpose was to see JOE GLASER, a booking agent, and to see officials of American Guild of Variety Artists in order to register complaints relative to competitors in Dallas. He said he traveled alone. On this trip, he recalls having run into "DANTE", a magician, in an automat and having visited or contacted BARNEY ROSS, former well-known prize fighter whom he had known in Chicago. He said on the return to Dallas he went via Chicago and that members of his family joined him briefly at O'Hare Field, the Chicago airport. RUBY said he could recall no other travel outside of Dallas during 1963.

He mentioned having been in New York, Joplin, Missouri; Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Chicago in 1956 when he was attempting to promote a young Negro tap dancer and drummer named NELSON, also known as "LITTLE DADDY". He said this trip lasted several weeks.

He related that he was in Hot Springs, Arkansas, in 1956, as he recalls, having flown there to attend the races. He said he believed he was in Little Rock during the same trip briefly. He said he was in Las Vegas, Nevada, in 1937 and does not recall having been there since that time.

RUBY stated that no police officers accompanied him on the trip to Hot Springs, mentioned above, and that he had never been outside the City of Dallas with any Dallas law enforcement officers. He said he had never employed any Dallas policeman in any of his clubs, although he had employed "Special Officers". For the services of the latter, he paid the City of Dallas, and the City in turn paid the "Special Officers" in question. He

he had never given money or other things of value to officers of the Dallas Police Department except bottles of whiskey at Christmastime to some. He said he had also had a practice of admitting officers to his clubs without cover charge and having given "special prices" on drinks; for example, he would give officers beer for 40 cents a bottle, where his usual price was more. He said he had never asked any special favors from any police personnel.

ROY EUGENE VAUGHN, 3231 Logan wood Drive, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information after being advised that he did not have to furnish a statement; that any statement he did furnish could be used against him in a court of law and of his right to an attorney before furnishing a statement:

He stated he distinctly recalls the information furnished to Agents of the FBI on or about December 1, 1963, at Dallas. As concerns the events shortly before and after the departure of the police vehicle occupied by Lieutenant PIERCE, Sgt. MAXEY and Sgt. PUTNAM, he could not be sure of the exact times involved. He did recall that shortly after 11:00 a.m. on November 24, 1963, he noticed quite a few people coming out of the passageway from the jail office of the basement of the Police Department. At that time he was standing at the entrance to the Main Street ramp about one yard in from the building and in the middle. His body was facing toward the sidewalk but he was able to occasionally glance behind him and was able therefore to observe some of the activities.

At about 11:18 a.m., he recalled observing individuals forming lines around the bottom of the Main Street ramp from the passageway to the jail office. He could not be sure whether these were police officers or reporters as he does not recall recognizing anyone in particular. He then recalled hearing someone hollering, "Watch the car," and then observed the police car come into view at the bottom of the ramp. As the car approached the top of the ramp, he walked from where he was standing in the middle, diagonally toward the curb on the east side of the driveway. He stated the distance from the exit of the ramp to the curb is from 10 to 12 feet. He recalled that he was standing almost exactly on the curb where the sidewalk joins the street but did not recall stepping into the street. The traffic at that time was steady but not very heavy, and he seemed to recall that the traffic lights at the intersection of Harwood and Main Streets were in operation. He could not recall whether or not there was a police officer directing traffic at that intersection.

As he walked from the ramp to his position on the curb, he made it a point to watch that no one entered the ramp as he stepped away from it. He was facing in a westerly direction as the police car drove out and recalled waving the police car on as an indication that there was no traffic coming from the west on Main Street and that the way was therefore clear for the car to enter Main Street. He stated he did not concern himself with any traffic that may have been moving west on Main Street as he felt it was sufficient to insure that the car was able to cross the east-bound traffic lane without difficulty. He felt the driver of the vehicle would be able to cope with any other traffic once he crossed the east-bound lane. He did not recall looking towards the east while assisting the vehicle and was certain he did not stop any cars that were driving from the east in a westerly direction on Main Street. He stated from the time he left his position in the center of the ramp, walked to the curb, and returned he made it a point to carefully observe the ramp opening to insure that no one entered the basement from the ramp. He observed no one entering the basement during that time.

He did not know where the vehicle driven by Lieutenant PIERCE was going and after observing it make a left turn onto Main Street, did not follow the car visually. He did not know where the car went after it made this turn. He immediately walked back to the ramp after the car passed in front of him and returned to his position which was about one yard inside the ramp and in the center. He again faced in a northerly direction and there was no possibility as far as he was concerned that anyone could have come down the ramp while he was standing there and not be seen by him. He also recalled that when he motioned for the police car to enter the street that vehicles were parked at the parking meters west of the exit on the south side of Main Street. He stated the nearest parking meter is about ten feet from the ramp exit and he was certain a car was parked at that meter.

At the most, about three minutes of time elapsed from the time he returned to the center of the ramp and heard a muffled shot in the basement. Just before he heard that shot he heard someone holler in the basement, "Here he comes." Within a matter of seconds after that he heard the muffled shot. He then immediately looked down into the basement and saw a scuffle.

He did not believe that someone could have gotten into the basement when he walked to the curb. He was able to see the ramp exit when the police car pulled out and if someone had attempted to walk down the ramp at that time he was quite sure that he would have seen them. The period of time that elapsed from when he left his post to walk to the curb and return was just long enough for him to walk there, glance up the street, and wave the car on and walk back.

He recalled that during this period of time there were about four or five people standing on the west side of the ramp entrance. The only individual he recalled in that group was the former shoeshine boy at the police department. He recalled that he had a pair of binoculars hanging from his neck. He could not recall if the shoeshine boy was standing there at the time OSWALD was shot, however. On the east side of the ramp the only individual standing there during the time the police car left and OSWALD was shot was N. J. DANIELS. He thought that DANIELS had walked up to the ramp at about 10:15 a.m. and recalled chatting with him off and on up until the time of the shooting.

He recalled telephoning DANIELS on November 25, 1963, at his residence. He told DANIELS who he was and asked him if he recalled the police car driving up the ramp shortly prior to the shooting. DANIELS stated he did recall that he also asked DANIELS if he saw anybody go down the ramp possibly when he stepped out to the curb to let the car go by. He stated DANIELS told him that he had not. He did not recall asking DANIELS any further questions but was shocked when he later learned that DANIELS had advised the Dallas Police Department that he had seen a man walk down the ramp prior to the shooting.

At no time did he observe any individual walk down the ramp other than those that he had previously stated were authorized by him to enter the building. This included the city doctor, a young man in his 20's driving a Volkswagen. When he was going up the ramp to take his post there he stopped a Sergeant from the department of Public Safety assigned to the License Bureau and after checking his credentials allowed him to enter the basement. He allowed officers SPRINGER and WATKINS to enter the basement, TOMMY CORBET, and the United Press or Associated Press representative and also the newsman connected with the WFAA Radio or TV Station. All of these individuals were allowed to enter the basement after their identities were established.

He has not seen JACK RUBY since the occasion during December, 1961, when he stopped RUBY for a minor traffic violation. He stated he doubted he would recognize RUBY if he saw him on the street. He felt that if he did encounter RUBY and converse with him briefly, he would probably then recognize him. He has never been to the Carousel Club, did not know of its existence prior to RUBY's arrest and did not know that RUBY owned that club. He recalled having been to the Vegas Club on two occasions while on duty, this being during 1959 or 1960. He made no social visits to the Vegas Club.

He knows nothing concerning the background, personal life or political convictions of JACK RUBY. He had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination and knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

NAPOLEON J. DANIELS was reinterviewed at the N. J. Daniels Real Estate Company, 4316 Oakland Street, Dallas, Texas. He furnished the following information:

He advised that in addition to the information he furnished concerning himself when last interviewed by the FBI that he was on the Dallas Police Force for seven years and attended Texas Southern University for 3½ years.

Subsequent to being interviewed by the FBI at Dallas, he was requested by the Dallas Police Department to report to the Central Police Headquarters for the purpose of being reinterviewed. He stated the police officers who questioned him there attempted to clarify whether or not Officer ROY VAUGHN was out of place while standing guard at the Main Street ramp on November 24, 1963. They also advised him that the police car that left the Main Street ramp just prior to the shooting of OSWALD left 57 seconds before the shooting. He stated that apparently they did not feel his estimate of approximately two minutes from the time the car left the ramp to the time of the shooting was correct. This point was emphasized in the interview by the police officers and he felt that they did not believe that he was being truthful in furnishing this estimate. He stated the police also asked him if he would be willing to take a polygraph examination at the conclusion of the interview and he agreed. He stated he took the examination but did not know the results.

Regarding the events that took place at the Main Street ramp on November 24, 1963, he felt he had furnished as much detail as he could possibly recall when previously interviewed by the FBI. He stated that when the police car arrived at the entrance to the ramp he was standing at the edge of the marble pillar on the east side of the ramp. He stated this pillar is about six or seven feet long and from the edge of the pillar to the sidewalk is about another ten feet. As the car came up the ramp it paused briefly in a normal fashion for a car entering a busy street. He did not recall Officer VAUGHN speaking to anyone in the car. As stated previously, he seemed to recall clearly that VAUGHN walked from his position just inside the ramp out into Main Street. He could not recall which of the three painted stripes on the street VAUGHN walked to but felt that it was the center stripe. He was certain that VAUGHN did not cross the center stripe but could not recall how close to the center stripe he actually did walk.

He also seemed to recall that when the police car left the ramp that he had the thought in his mind that it was probably going to the county jail where LEE HARVEY OSWALD would be transferred. He did not watch the car as it drove west on Main Street and did not know whether or not the car turned onto Harwood Street. In attempting to come to an estimate of how much time elapsed between the car leaving the entrance and the shooting of OSWALD, he seemed to recall that the car was gone for a long enough period of time for it to arrive at its destination. He realized that it takes longer than a minute or two for the car to get to the county jail but this was the thought that flashed through his mind at the time.

After VAUGHN returned from the street, he again positioned himself in the center of the Main Street ramp facing out towards Main Street. He could not recall in which direction VAUGHN's eyes were fixed at the time, but he did recall that he was facing directly out toward the street. As soon as VAUGHN positioned himself there he left his position at the end of the marble pillar and walked closer to the curb so as to get a better view down the ramp and into the basement. After taking the few steps to that position he then faced the building and made every effort to see into the basement. It was while he was standing in that position that the man, who a few moments after that walked by VAUGHN into the basement, appeared in his vision. He stated he observed this out of the corner of his eye and the man was probably about 18 to 20 feet away when he first realized that someone was walking in his direction. The man walked directly in front of him which would have meant that he walked between the building and himself. He stated this is probably why he distinctly recalled that the man's right hand was in his coat pocket as the right side of this individual would be the only side that he could observe as he walked by him.

As previously stated no one walked down the ramp during the time VAUGHN stepped into the street. As soon as the car left he felt that they would be bringing OSWALD out momentarily and in order to get a better view, he stepped toward the curb.

He stated it only took VAUGHN about 15 or 20 seconds to return to his position at the head of the ramp. He recalled wondering why VAUGHN let the man walk by him and assumed that he must have known the individual.

He stated he could recall nothing additional at this time concerning the events at the Main Street ramp.

Captain O. A. JONES, Forgery Bureau, Police Department, Dallas, Texas, upon request, furnished verifax copies of statements from, and reports of polygraph examinations of ROY E. VAUGHN and NAPOLEON J. DANIELS. He furnished the following reports without making any detailed comments concerning the nature of the information contained therein:

(1) Letter to Mr. J. E. CURRY, Chief of Police, from ROY E. VAUGHN, Patrolman, Dallas Police Department:

"Subject: Assignment of Officer
ROY E. VAUGHN #1539
Sunday, November 24, 1963

"Sir:

"At approximately 9:00 A.M. while working Squad 105, Officer Roy E. Vaughn received a call to call Extension 511. Officer L. C. Taylor advised me to report to the City Hall and to park the squad car on the street and report to Station 511.

"At approximately 9:15 A.M. or 9:30 A.M., Lieutenant R. S. Pierce told Officers A. R. Brock and B. G. Patterson; R. C. Nelson, and I to report to Sergeant Patrick T. Dean in the basement of the City Hall.

"Officer B. G. Patterson and I were instructed by Sergeant Dean to guard the north and south ramps of the City Hall. I was assigned to the Main Street Ramp.

"During this time there were several police vehicles which contained police officers that entered the basement by this ramp.

"At approximately 10:15 A.M. Ex-Police Officer N. J. Daniels came by this location and remained until after the shooting occurred.

"At approximately 11:18 A.M. a city squad car which contained Lieutenant Pierce, Sergeant Maxey and Sergeant Putnam exited by this ramp.

"At approximately 11:21 A.M. I heard what sounded to be a shot, I stayed by the post and allowed no one to enter or leave the basement area. After the shooting, about five (5) police reserves were sent to this ramp to assist with the crowd and traffic.

"At approximately 12:45 P.M. a white male approached me at this entrance and stated that he was an employee of Jack Ruby and would like to talk to someone about this. I escorted this person to the basement of the City Hall after being relieved on my post by a police reserve and called Captain Fritz's office and Detective Boyd came to the basement and took custody of this person.

"I contacted Lieutenant Pierce in the Patrol Office and he advised me to secure the post and return to service with the Dispatcher.

"Respectfully submitted,

"/s/Roy E. Vaughn
"Patrolman #1539
"Patrol Division"

(2) Statement of Patrolman Roy E. Vaughn, dated November 29, 1963:

"During the time I was guarding the Main Street Ramp several squad cars with prisoners came into the basement. I checked each car and occupant to make sure.

"About 30 minutes prior to the shooting Tommy, a City mechanic, attempted to drive a police car into the basement and I stopped him. He parked the squad a short distance away and came back to where I was standing and told me that he had to go into the basement to check the automobile or parking situation and I let him through. He explained that he had worked late the two previous days.

"I noticed that Sergeant Dean was talking to Tommy at the bottom of the ramp and Tommy came back up the ramp and stayed around a few minutes and left.

"A United or Associated Press reporter in his middle twenties identified himself by an official press card and I let him through. This to the best of my knowledge was about twenty minutes prior to the shooting.

"At approximately 2 or 3 minutes prior to the shooting Lieutenant Pierce, Sergeant Maxey and Sergeant Putnam drove a squad car up the ramp onto Main Street. This was the only car that drove out the Main Street Ramp while I was on duty. As this car came up the ramp I was standing in the middle between the raised sides and I stepped to the right by the car and walked to the edge of the street to assist them onto Main. Traffic was not heavy but was steady. I do not recall whether or not it was necessary to stop any cars for them. As soon as they drove out I assumed my previous position between the raised portions of the ramp.

"There were about 6 people standing on the sidewalk on the west side of the ramp. Ex-officer N. J. Daniels was standing on the east side of the ramp. One of the group on the west side was one of our ex-shine boys. He had a pair of binoculars. Pedestrian traffic was very light. The ones that came by would generally look down the ramp but be on their way.

"I met Jack Ruby in 1959 and I have seen him once since that time. I do not believe that I would recognize Ruby if I passed him him on the street but probably would if I had a conversation with him. I have not seen him to know him since December of 1961.

"I called N. J. Daniels the next day about 9:00 a.m. I told him who I was and that I remembered seeing him. I asked if he remembered seeing the squad car come out. He said that he did. I asked him if he saw anybody go into the basement while I was assisting the car to get out, and he said he definitely did not see anyone."

(3) Memorandum from P. L. BENTLEY, Detective, Dallas Police Department, to Chief of Police CURRY, dated December 6, 1963:

"A polygraph examination was given Roy E. Vaughn (W/M/28) at the request of Deputy Chief N. T. Fisher. This examination was given on November 28, 1963. Below is a list of pertinent questions that were asked during this examination.

"RE: Interview with Mr. N. J. Daniels,
2229 Sutter

"Sir:

"On November 29, 1963, Mr. N. J. Daniels was interviewed by the undersigned officers as to any information he might have concerning the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald and if he could give any information as to how Jack Ruby gained entrance to the basement of the City Hall.

"A lengthy interview was held with Mr. Daniels and an 'Affidavit-in-Fact' taken - copy attached.

"Mr. N. J. Daniels stated at the time of this interview that he had not been contacted by any Federal agency. "

(5) "Affidavit In Any Fact" dated November 29, 1963, signed by N. J. DANIELS:

"COUNTY OF DALLAS

"BEFORE ME, Ann Schreiber, a Notary Public in and for said County, State of Texas, on this day personally appeared N. J. Daniels, 2229 Sutter, Dallas, Texas, FR 4-6179.

"Who, after being by me duly sworn, on oath deposes and says: On Sunday, November 24 at approximately 11:00 A.M., I came up to the Main Street ramp to the basement of the city hall. I was standing on the Western Union side of the ramp and I spoke to Officer Vaughn, he was on duty at that location. Officer Vaughn was standing in the center of the ramp keeping people from entering the basement of the city hall. I had been standing there several minutes when a squad car drove up the ramp with three officers inside, they drove on to Main Street and turned west on Main. At this time Officer Vaughn stepped out into the middle of Main Street and stopped the west bound traffic on Main so this squad car could make its turn on Main Street. For a brief moment while Officer Vaughn was blocking traffic, the ramp entrance at this location was left unguarded. I was standing at the east corner of the ramp and turned to watch Officer Vaughn stop the traffic. From the position where I was standing it was impossible for anyone to walk behind me and gain entrance into the basement. I did not notice anyone walk in front of me and go into the basement. At this time I was thinking to myself that if I saw anyone go in I would so advise Officer Vaughn. After stopping traffic for this squad car Officer Vaughn took up his duties in the middle of the ramp. Several minutes later I stepped out towards the street so that I could have a better view down the ramp. As I did so I noticed a white male, approximately 50 years of age, 5'10", weighing about 155-160#, wearing a dark (blue or brown) single breasted suit, white shirt, and dark colored tie, this man was not wearing a hat, he had light colored hair thinning on top, round face, kind of small head, fair complexion, he was not wearing an overcoat nor was he carrying one but he did have his right hand inside of his right suit coat pocket, approaching the ramp from the direction of the Western Union. This person walked in the ramp and into the basement going between Officer Vaughn and the east side of the building. Officer Vaughn at this time was standing at the top of the ramp in the middle of it facing towards Main. I did not see Officer Vaughn challenge this person nor did he show any signs of recognizing him, nor even being aware that he was passing, but I know that he saw him. It struck me odd at the time that Officer Vaughn did not say something to this man. Approximately two minutes after this man had walked down the ramp I saw quite a bit of movement in the basement outside the jail office and then I heard a shot. From the time that I first spoke to Officer Vaughn until I heard the shot, which was approximately a period of twenty-five minutes, at no time did I see anyone leave or enter the basement of the city hall from the ramp entrance on Main Street except one squad car which contained three officers and this one unknown white man who entered. On Monday, November 25, 1963, at approximately 9:00 A.M., Officer Vaughn called me on the telephone at home and asked me if I had noticed anyone going into the basement while Lieutenant Pierce was coming out, I told him 'no' I did not. He told me he was bothered about the possibility that someone could have gone in there while Lieutenant Pierce and the other two officers were coming out in the squad car. I told him 'no, I did not.' But I did not mention the other fellow I saw go in because I was sure he had seen him.

(6) Letter from P. L. BENTLEY, Detective, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, dated December 12, 1963:

"Subject: Polygraph examination given to N. J. Daniels C/M/32

"Sir:

"At 3:10 P.M., December 11, 1963, a polygraph examination was given to N. J. Daniels.

"This examination was given to determine if Mr. Daniels was telling the truth in the statement he had given.

"During the pre-test interview with Mr. Daniels, he stated that he was sure the person he stated he had seen enter the city hall basement was not Jack Ruby. He stated that he was shown a picture of Jack Ruby and that Ruby did not look like the person he stated that he had seen. He was very confused during this interview and stated he was not sure of anything in his statement. He also stated that he felt like the squad he saw come out of the basement had enough time to get to the county jail before this person entered the basement of the city hall.

"He was then placed on the polygraph and the following pertinent questions were asked and answers given.

"1. Have you told the complete truth in the statement you gave? Answer: Yes Indication: False

"2. Have you deliberately made up any of this story? Answer: No Indication: False

"3. Do you think the person you stated you saw enter the basement at that time was Jack Ruby? Answer: No Indication: True

"4. Did you actually see the person you described come from the direction of the Western Union? Answer: Yes Indication: False

"5. Do you think this person entered the basement of the city hall after the squad drove out? Did not answer this question.

"6. Have you seen the person you described in your statement around the city hall before? Did not answer this question.

"7. Have you given a true description of the person you stated you saw enter the basement of the city hall? Answer: Yes Indication: False

"8. Did you actually see the person you described enter the basement of the city hall? Answer: Yes Indication: False

"9. Did you get a good look at this person? Answer: Yes Indication: False

"Most of the above questions were repeated on other charts with the same answers given and same indications noted."

RONNIE DUGGER, editor, The Texas Observer, Austin, Texas, informed that he arrived in Dallas, Texas, with Press [illegible] Fort Worth, Texas, November 22, 1963. He said he went to the Dallas Police Department Building approximately 10:00 p.m. November 22, 1963 and somewhere en route to the third floor met GLADWIN HILL, head of Los Angeles Bureau, New York Times. DUGGER states he and HILL took the main elevator to the third floor and as they (HILL and DUGGER) stepped off the elevator, DUGGER said he sensed a challenge from a uniformed officer at the elevator and as he, DUGGER, reached for his press credentials, the uniformed officer said "Oh Yeah, I know you." The uniformed officer then turned toward HILL and indicated he wanted to see HILL's credentials. DUGGER told the officer "He (HILL) is with New York Times and he (HILL) is o.k." DUGGER said the officer then stated "If he (HILL) is o.k. with you, he is o.k. with me." DUGGER related so far as he, DUGGER, knows the officer did not know him, DUGGER, and he, DUGGER, did not know the officer and does not recall ever having seen the officer before. DUGGER said he had not been in Dallas Police Department Building for approximately one year before November 22, 1963. DUGGER described the officer as age 45-50 years, 5'6", 160-170 pounds, short stocky build and jovial DUGGER stated he, DUGGER, remained on the third floor of Dallas Police Department Building until entire press club went to the lin e up room where LEE HARVEY OSWALD appeared before the press. DUGGER said he did not see JACK RUBY at the press conference at the Dallas Police Department on night of November 22, 1963, and did not know RUBY prior to publicity in instant matter. DUGGER said he left Dallas on night of November 23, 1963, and was not in Dallas on November 24, 1963.

At Milwaukee, Wisconsin:

On December 20, 1963, EARL GOLZ, 3127 West Fardale, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, a reporter for "The Milwaukee Sentinel," informed SA RICHARD C. THOMPSON that he had covered portions of the news stories on JACK L. RUBY for "The Milwaukee Sentinel" by telephone contact with two persons in Dallas, Texas. One of these was RONNY DUGGER, editor of the "Texas Observer," a biweekly who also covered news for the "Washington Post." GOLZ recalled that DUGGER furnished him information concerning FRANK FERRARO, who was beaten up by RUBY in 1962 and whose attorney in the matter was JOHN B. WILSON of Dallas, Texas. GOLZ said that DUGGER told him that FERRARO had once been in Milwaukee--shortly after leaving Dallas, Texas, and GOLZ later made telephone contact with Attorney JOHN B. WILSON in the hope of obtaining information for a new story of interest to the Milwaukee public.

GOLZ said that he checked the Sentinel's library and found a reference to a FRANK FERRARO of Whittier, California. GOLZ recalled that in 1953 FERRARO and another associate from Whittier had allegedly met TONY ACCARDO of Chicago when he alighted from a plane at an airport in Los Angeles. GOLZ said that he wondered whether this FRANK FERRARO was identical to the person beaten by RUBY; and he, no doubt, mentioned it to DUGGER. He later discarded the idea that the men were identical because of their apparent differences in background and because there was nothing to suggest that they were one and the same person.

GOLZ stated that he assumed that his discussion with DUGGER of FERRARO had been retold and distorted to the point where TONY ACCARDO had become "JOE VELACHI" and the incident had been attributed to the FRANK FERRARO beaten by RUBY in 1962. GOLZ said that at no time did he believe or hear that FRANK FERRARO had been a roommate of RUBY in 1957 or 1958, and he also attributed this discrepancy in dates to a distortion of a story retold.

GOLZ said that the FRANK FERRARO beaten by RUBY apparently stayed in Milwaukee from about September to November, 1962, and then went elsewhere. He said that he had never been in touch with this man and, to the best of his knowledge, FRANK FERRARO was an itinerant dishwasher or kitchen helper.

GOLZ said that he had never been in touch personally with Assistant District Attorney WILLIAM F. ALEXANDER and his only contacts in Dallas had been by phone with Attorney WILSON and Editor DUGGER.

On December 20, 1963, Mr. ALFRED E. LEWIS, Staff Reporter, Washington Post, Washington, D. C., advised SA RICHARD WOOD KAISER that following the presidential assassination and the LEE HARVEY OSWALD murder he had been sent to Dallas, Texas, in company with fellow reporter LAURENCE STERN in order to prepare a comprehensive article concerning the entire matter.

LEWIS stated that he and STERN arrived in Dallas, Texas, on November 26, 1963, where they remained for a period of three days obtaining various facts for inclusion in this article. He recalled that he contacted the Dallas City Planning Department where he picked up a city map containing the various pertinent locations, such as the assassination site. In this regard he conferred with a number of city officials obtaining their observations of the events which had taken place during the previous week.

LEWIS advised that he had discussed the assassination and murder with numerous reporters, most of whom he did not know. The only individuals he knew who had actually witnessed OSWALD's murder were JERRY O'LEARY, Washington Star Reporter and TONY RIPLEY, Detroit News Reporter.

He stated that none of the information furnished by the two reporters has been included in the article prepared by himself and STERN which had appeared in the December 1, 1963, edition of the Washington Post.

LEWIS pointed out that all of the information contained in their article was of necessity hearsay and that they had encountered considerable difficulty in separating facts from rumors.

GENE MILLER, Reporter, "Miami Herald" advised that on November 24, 1963, he was in Dallas, Texas, covering news events subsequent to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. During the morning of November 24, 1963, he was on the third floor of the Dallas Municipal Building with other reporters and proceeded to the basement of this building to observe the transfer of prisoner LEE HARVEY OSWALD. About the time that OSWALD was removed from the elevator in the basement of the building, MILLER proceeded up the ramp and had arrived at the left side of the armored car parked there, when he heard a shot behind him. His back was to the scene and he did not observe OSWALD being shot by JACK RUBY. He said that following the shot, the police immediately sealed the area and no one was permitted to leave.

MILLER said that numerous police officers were present in the basement during the attempted transfer of OSWALD and these officers carefully examined credentials of the various members of the press. MILLER said he showed his credentials on two occasions and they were very closely scrutinized by officers. He said that, in addition, officers searched all the cars in the basement, physically searched the air conditioning ducts and rain spouts outside the building. He said he felt the security in the basement was excellent.

MILLER said he was a stranger in Dallas and had no way of knowing who was authorized to be in the basement or who was not authorized. It was his understanding that only police officers and members of the press were supposed to be in the basement, but it appeared that everyone in the Dallas Police Department knew JACK RUBY and simply accepted him as belonging with the police. MILLER said that as a matter of fact, RUBY had attended a press conference prior

On December 20, 1963, Mr. LAURENCE M. STERN, Staff Reporter, Washington Post, advised SA RICHARD WOOD KAISER that following the President's assassination and subsequent murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, his newspaper had sent both himself and a fellow reporter, ALFRED E. LEWIS, to Dallas, Texas, in order to prepare a comprehensive article concerning these events. He stated that they arrived in Dallas, Texas, on November 26, 1963, at which time he proceeded to the Texas Depository Building; however, he was unable to gain entrance due to the fact it was under guard by Secret Service Agents. At this location he encountered JERRY O'LEARY, Washington Star Reporter, and they had a general discussion concerning events of the previous week. He stated that none of the information furnished to him by O'LEARY had been included in the article prepared by himself and LEWIS which had appeared in the December 1, 1963, edition of the Washington Post.

STERN stated that the only two individuals whom he had encountered in Dallas who had actually witnessed the shooting of OSWALD were O'LEARY and TONY RIPLEY, reporters from the Detroit News.

STERN stated that he had included in the Post article information concerning security precautions being taken by the Dallas Police Department to protect OSWALD's life which had been furnished to him by RONNIE DUGGER, free lance reporter representing the Texas Observer, Austin, Texas. He stated that this information had concerned police precautions which were in effect on Friday night, November 22, 1963, and that DUGGER had not been a witness to the OSWALD murder on November 24, 1963, inasmuch as he was not in Dallas, Texas, on that date.

STERN made available a photostatic copy of a portion of the memorandum which DUGGER had furnished him concerning these security precautions which is set forth as follows: ". . .The almost incredible scene, in the line-up room, very late Friday night.

". . .as we came off the elevator, we were asked for credentials. the guy at the elevator, an officer, looked at me and said, 'i know you.' i doubt it - i never saw him before. gladwin hill of the times was on the elevator, so i vouched for him to save him getting out credentials -- the guy said okay, i know you, if he's okay with you, fine. so two of us got in without credentials. that's how slipshod it was. . ."

STERN stated that as of necessity all of the information contained in the article prepared by himself and LEWIS was hearsay; however, he felt that it was substantially factual.

EVA GRANT, sister of JACK L. RUBY, advised telephonically that she was previously married to one MAGID and was married on or about August 21, 1936, to FRANK GRAVNOVSKY, also known as FRANK GRANT, at San Francisco, California. She said she was divorced from GRANT some five years later in Los Angeles, California, her attorney being one SANFORD.

She said she had heard a rumor seven or eight years ago from an unrecalled source that FRANK GRANT had died. FRANK had a sister named PEARL who also used the name GRANT. This woman was single when EVA last heard of her. PEARL worked as a buyer of purses for some Los Angeles store such as "Burt's" or "Butler Brothers". FRANK had a sister named ROSE SOLOMON in Los Angeles. FRANK GRANT worked around Hollywood Studios and was a member of ITASE Union. EVA GRANT stated she did not know the full name of this union. She professed to be unable to supply a street address for FRANK GRANT.

The following interviews were conducted by SA JAMES J. O'CONNELL:

HARRY STURNER, Comb and Sheers Barber Shop, 270 North Beverly Drive, Beverly Hills, California, advised December 23, 1963, that he has not seen or heard of JACK RUBY for about 23 years. STURNER left Chicago in 1941 and it was prior to that time that JACK "SPARKY" RUBINSTEIN was a customer in his barber shop. He was a normal kid and talked and acted no different than other kids his age.

HARRY GELBART, Rothschild Barber Shop, 222 North Beverly Drive, Beverly Hills, California, stated December 23, 1963 he recalled JACK RUBINSTEIN merely as a customer in his barber shop in Chicago in the early 1940s, but has not had any connection or association with him since that time. RUBINSTEIN never appears to be out of the ordinary and was just like any other young man who came into the barber shop.

Mr. AL GOLDEN, Westube Corporation, 1920 East Maple Street, El Segundo, California, upon interview advised as follows:

He stated that he formerly resided at 1355 Western Avenue, Northwest Section, Chicago, Illinois, and attended Schley Grammar School located at Oakley and Patomic Street, Northwest Section, Chicago, Illinois.

Mr. GOLDEN states that to the best of his recollection he attended this school in the early "1920's" and added that JACK RUBENSTEIN was also in attendance at this grammar school. He stated that after graduating from Schley Grammar School he and RUBENSTEIN, who was generally known as "Yank" among the other school children, then went to Sabin Junior High School.

Mr. GOLDEN advised that it was his recollection that he attended this latter school for one or two semesters and withdrew as his family moved to another section of Chicago, Illinois. He added that while attending Schley Grammar School he became involved in an argument with RUBENSTEIN, nature unrecalled, in the school yard of Schley Grammar School, whereupon RUBEN "knocked the hell out of me".

Mr. GOLDEN described RUBENSTEIN during that period as being a "real nice kid but somebody you should not mess around with". He stated that RUBENSTEIN had a "trigger temper" and stated that if other school children took advantage of RUBENSTEIN it was the general rumor among the school children hat "you were in for trouble and a beating".

Mr. GOLDEN added that from a temperment standpoint RUBENSTEIN was no worse than the other kids but his temper was "triggered real quick" and by the same token he, RUBENSTEIN, "calmed down just as fast" and held no grudges against any of the kids with whom he might get in an argument with.

Mr. GOLDEN stated that after he and RUBENSTEIN engaged in a scuffle they became the best of friends while in attendance at the above schools as previously indicated.

The following investigation was conducted by SA J. MASON MELVIN:

AT WEST YELLOWSTONE, MONTANA

On December 4, 1963, EDWARD MORRIS, Jr., owner, MORRIS MOTEL, advised that he is, no doubt, the person who was overheard to remark that he, MORRIS, could call Chicago, Illinois, anytime and get all the information he wanted on JACK RUBY. MORRIS pointed out that he had been drinking at the time on November 24, 1963, but he pointed out that he had formerly resided in Chicago and, when he had seen the picture of RUBY on TV, he is sure that this is the same person who ran the TORCH CLUB, or the bar next to the TORCH CLUB, about 18 to 20 years ago. The TORCH CLUB was located on the northwest corner of Walton and Clark Streets in Chicago. The bar next to it is not believed to be any longer in existence. At that time RUBY was not using the last name of RUBY and the name he was using may have been RUBENSTEIN or similar.

MORRIS also believed that this man had worked as a bouncer at other places in Chicago. MORRIS said he is going back to Chicago next week for a visit and, if he learns any information there, he will contact the Chicago FBI Office. MORRIS noted that there was a rumor to the effect that this man, whatever his name, was run out of Chicago by "the syndicate."

Previous information was received at West Yellowstone, several years ago, that EDWARD MORRIS, Jr., the owner of the MORRIS MOTEL, is a member of a Chicago meat packing house family, that MORRIS had been given some money to go to West Yellowstone and build and operate a motel, because he was quite wild and embarrassing the family in Chicago.

CHARLES SEYMOUR AYCOCK, The Wigwam, Litchfield Park, Arizona, furnished the following information:

His permanent address is 104 Hale Street, Farmersville, Texas. He is 33 years of age, having been born and raised in Dallas, Texas; is single; and has worked at The Wigwam, Litchfield Park, a resort hotel, for six seasons. He has worked the past four seasons full-time each entire year and it is his sixth season at the hotel where he is employed as a bellman, lobby porter, cocktail waiter, and is given other jobs to do. He sold insurance in Dallas, and beginning in 1953 until 1957 he worked as a salesman at the Olmsted-Kirk Paper Company, 1033 Young Street, Dallas. While working as a salesman, he had part-time work during the same period at the Fitzgerald Supper Club in Dallas. He lived in an apartment on Maple Street in Dallas, which was located across the street from the Stoneligh Hotel. Several doors nearby were some bars and one of these was called the Fitzgerald Supper Club, which was later called the Red Jacket. AYCOCK believed that it was while he was working part-time at the Fitzgerald Supper Club that he first met JACK RUBY. He had heard that RUBY owned the Vegas Club which was located some two miles away in Dallas. He merely met RUBY as a customer and later had seen him in the downtown area of Dallas, and stated RUBY seemed to be very well known in Dallas. AYCOCK never went out socially with RUBY, and said he may have on one occasion given RUBY a ride to the airport. He never worked for RUBY, but did have a speaking acquaintance with him, and felt RUBY knew him personally. AYCOCK was under the impression that RUBY had never been married, had been in Dallas about 15 years, and he knew nothing about RUBY's background prior to his living in Dallas.

He described RUBY as being a real nice, polite individual and one that he never knew of being in any trouble whatsoever. He said he knew of no subversive connections RUBY might have ever had; never had heard of LEE OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY; knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD; and had no knowledge of any conspiracy with anyone with RUBY to kill OSWALD. AYCOCK stated he possessed no knowledge of any Specialist-4 SAMUEL BAILEY BAKER, ASN RA 18643929, Post Office Box 74, assigned Nike Missile. Terrell, Texas, with B. Battery, Fourth Missile Battalion, 562nd Artillery, informed that on or about November 19, 1963, he was to receive a re-enlistment bonus from the Army. He stated to prevent this bonus of approximately $1,000 being sent to the Nike Missile Base at Terrell. Texas, from being lost or stolen, he went that date to Camp Wolters, Mineral Wells, Texas, where he obtained this money personally. BAKER informed that on returning from Camp Wolters to the Nike Missile Base at Terrell, Texas, he converted $600 of this bonus into 30/$20 denomination American Express Travellers Checks at the Merchants and Farmers State Bank, Weatherford, Texas, for safe-keeping.

BAKER informed that on the same night, on or about November 19, 1963, he and other servicemen acquaintances from the Nike Missile Base celebrated at the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas, where he cashed three of the above described American Express Travellers Checks to pay for the bill. BAKER informed as he recalled, the bill amounted to approximately $47.00. BAKER informed these bills were presented by him to the waiter for payment who took them to RUBY for approval. He stated he does recall RUBY being at the Carousel Club that night.

BAKER informed he has been to the Carousel Club in Dallas on previous occasions where he had observed RUBY, recognizing him as the owner and operator of the club. He stated this was the only association he has had with RUBY and does not know him personally and has had no other contact or association with this individual.

BAKER informed he came to recognize and know RUBY from the fact that on occasions a prize is given to some customer consisting of a bottle of champagne, which prize is generally given to the winner by RUBY. He said it was through the ceremony involving these prizes that he came to recognize and know RUBY as being the owner of the club.

JAMES B. BOURLAND, 1314 36th Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., advised that he formerly resided at 2418 Cambridge Street, Wichita Falls, Texas, having arrived in Washington, D. C., approximately one year ago.

BOURLAND advised that for a number of years, he had been an independent oil well operator in the Dallas, Texas, area. During the period from 1956 to 1959, he had occasion to visit the Vegas Club, located on Oak Lawn Street, Dallas, Texas, four or five times a year. Manager of this Club was JACK RUBY, with whom he became casually acquainted, due to his, RUBY's, stopping to visit at his table briefly from time to time.

He recalled that in 1959 or 1960, JACK RUBY took over management of the Carousel Club, which is located on the second floor across from the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas, Texas. Up until November, 1962, he visited this club eight to ten times a year for the purpose of entertaining his out of town business associates. He stated that RUBY always stopped at his table to greet him, and at all times appeared to be friendly and a personable individual. He never observed RUBY become involved in any fights or arguments in his club. RUBY appeared to spend the majority of his time in the club circulating among the customers; and he never observed him join any particular group or associate with any particular individual. RUBY was always well-dressed and exhibited a strictly business attitude.

BOURLAND stated he has seen a number of photographs of JACK RUBY in the local press and he definitely is identical with the night club manager with whom he was acquainted in Dallas, Texas. He has also observed press photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and stated he was not acquainted with OSWALD nor has he ever seen OSWALD or a person answering his description in association with JACK RUBY.

The name MARGARET CALDWELL was found in a note pad that was located in some of JACK RUBY's possessions.

MARGARET CALDWELL advised that she was employed in Room 1400, Vaughn Building, for the Kirk Dial Company. She advised that approximately three months ago she was having lunch in the Bankers Drug Store, which is located on the first floor of the above-named building. She stated an individual began talking to her and told her that his name was JACK RUBY. She stated she tried to discourage him from talking, that he was rather insistent and tried to give her a guest card to the Carousel Club. She told him she was not interested and that when she left he followed her to the bus stop. At this point she became frightened, so she returned to the drug store and called a cab.

She advised that was the first and only time she has seen JACK RUBY to her knowledge. She knows nothing regarding his connection with OSWALD or any of his associates.

Mr. WILLIAM NOEL COPELAND, 202 38th Street, New Orleans, advised that he knew JACK RUBY of Dallas, only as a possible business account in connection with his former employment with the Sam Bloom Advertising Agency, Dallas, Texas, and his infrequent visits to RUBY's nightclub in Dallas. Mr. COPELAND said that he first heard of RUBY while attending Texas University at Austin. He stated that he and other college friends (names unrecalled), would infrequently visit RUBY's nightclub in Dallas.

COPELAND stated that the first time he actually talked with RUBY was during April or May 1961, at which time he contacted JACK RUBY at the Vegas Club in an effort to solicit an advertising account for the Sam Bloom Advertising Agency. He stated that he called on RUBY at the Vegas Club at approximately 6 PM one evening and talked with him until 7:30 or 8:00 PM. He stated that he recalled on this evening RUBY's sister was sick and that JACK RUBY was at this time helping his sister run the business at the Vegas Club.

COPELAND stated that the entire text of the evening's conversation regarded RUBY's running of his clubs, and how he obtained his entertainers and the advertising possibilities re RUBY's nightclub. COPELAND stated that RUBY told him he often called to other "strip clubs" in various parts of the U. S. and talked with possible future entertainers. RUBY then told him that if it appeared he and the potential entertainer could get together, he, RUBY, would then visit that city to talk with the potential employee in person to close the deal.

COPELAND stated he never received the RUBY account and would not have accepted it, as he later learned RUBY's credit was not good.

COPELAND advised that he could not recall if he left his business card, on which the telephone number of Sam Bloom's Advertising Agency was printed, or whether he may have written his name with both business and residence phone on a piece of paper and left it with RUBY. COPELAND further stated that this sole contact with RUBY, was on a strictly business basis in connection with his former employment with Sam Bloom's Advertising Agency.

Mr. COPELAND stated that telephone number DA 1-4749 was the former telephone number of he and his wife when they resided at 1060 Magellan Circle, Dallas. He stated that he believed RI 8-4136 was one of the office numbers for the Sam Bloom Advertising Agency, Dallas, Texas, his former employer.

He stated that he, COPELAND, traveled to Dallas, Texas, on business for Abe Chapman and Associates, New Orleans, his present employer, on November 23, and returned on November 24, 1963. He stated that while in Dallas, he saw RUBY on TV in connection with RUBY's killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. COPELAND stated that he has not had any contact with RUBY since April or May, 1961. Mr. COPELAND stated that he has no knowledge of any organization that RUBY may be a member.

Mr. COPELAND stated he did not know and had never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor had he ever seen OSWALD in the presence of RUBY or during any time he visited the Vegas Club. Mr. COPELAND stated he knew of no connection whatever between OSWALD and RUBY. He further advised he knows of no contacts or connections of RUBY with the Dallas Police Department.

BARRY HERBERT JAMES DEAVENPORT, 984 Kenwood, Inglewood, California, was interviewed at the offices of architectual firm of Leach, Cleveland, and Associates, 8900 Melrose Avenue, Los Angeles, California. He furnished the following information:

He formerly resided in Dallas, Texas, has been in the Los Angeles area about 1½ years, and is employed as an architect. He is acquainted with JACK RUBY by reputation only, having frequently gone to clubs in Dallas operated by RUBY. On occasion he would have to sign the membership register to gain admittance to some of these clubs, the names of which he cannot recall. He never liked RUBY personally, one reason being that about five or six years ago, RUBY pistol whipped a good friend of his. On several occasions when in RUBY's clubs, he observed RUBY strike a customer from behind.

He has no knowledge of any association between RUBY and OSWALD, never knew OSWALD and has no idea as to why RUBY killed OSWALD. On many occasions when he was in RUBY's clubs, he observed Dallas police officers present and frequently in conversation with RUBY, but could not identify any of these officers by name. He suspected at the time that RUBY paid off some of these officers because of the prostitutes, thugs and gamblers who were permitted to hang around his clubs, but has no basis for this suspicion other than hearsay information he obtained from unrecalled sources and his own intuition.

Several years ago, he happened to be in the Egyptian Lounge operated by the CAMPISI Brothers, and overheard one of the Brothers make a statement that he was financing RUBY, or words to that effect. His (DEAVENPORTS) father is an attorney in Dallas.

He is described as follows:

Mr. BENJAMIN J. GARITTY, JR., 639 Peavy, Dallas, Texas, telephone number DA 8-1784, was interviewed at his place of employment, Thomas Y. Pickett Company, 4000 Cedar Springs, Dallas, at which time he furnished the following information:

He advised that from 1955 to 1957, he was employed as a room clerk at the Adolphus Hotel at Dallas, together with a close associate by the name of JOHN HICKY. He could recall that during this particular employment, he was introduced to JACK RUBY and believed that this introduction was made by JOHN HICKY. Mr. GARITTY stated that he had conversed with JACK RUBY on a few occasions but that he never really got to know RUBY until 1960 at which time RUBY approached him in regard to obtaining a membership for RUBY's new club called the Sovereign Club. RUBY advised him at this time that he was opening a new private night club and that he would be more than glad to give a free membership to anyone that would help him obtain other members for the club. GARITTY stated that he and JOHN HICKY told RUBY that they would make every effort to obtain additional members for his new club. GARITTY stated that he could not recall actually ever obtaining any members for RUBY's club and that the only reason he and HICKY had associated with RUBY at this particular time was to obtain free membership to the club. He stated that he could recall talking with RUBY on several occasions during the beginning of this new club and could recall that RUBY was having a very difficult time in obtaining members. He could recall one specific incident when he met with RUBY at the Waffle Shop in Oak Lawn. At this time, RUBY advised him that he was having a real hard time making ends meet concerning the new club and was very despondent. GARITTY could recall telling RUBY that it did not look as bad as he was making it appear and that he reassured RUBY that he and HICKY would do everything in their power to obtain members and make the club a success. GARITTY stated that when he told RUBY this, he noticed that RUBY got very emotional and noticed that he was either crying or felt so bad that tears were coming from his eyes. He stated that he was very much surprised observing RUBY in this manner because he had always regarded RUBY as being somewhat of a "tough guy" and would never think that RUBY was quite this emotional.

GARITTY went on to say that he never did sell any memberships to the club and his relationship with RUBY finally broke up. GARITTY could not recall the last time he saw RUBY but was under the impression that he had seen him on the street near the Adolphus Hotel sometime during this past summer of 1963. He advised that he noticed nothing unusual concerning RUBY and had heard nothing that would be unusual in regard to RUBY's activities. He advised that although he felt he knew RUBY quite well, he did not have any information pertaining to RUBY's background, friends or associates. RUBY always seemed to be very friendly toward all his customers and had always treated them with very high regard.

In regard to RUBY's actions on November 24, 1963, Mr. GARITTY stated that he is of the opinion that RUBY shot OSWALD because RUBY was actually "emotionally involved". He explained this by saying that RUBY has very strong feelings and was of the opinion that this was RUBY's normal reaction in such a desperate time.

GARITTY stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to him prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and he had never seen nor heard of anything that would connect RUBY and OSWALD.

GEORGE W. GUEST, 4562 Bogenville Drive, advised that he was born on May 16, 1923, at Chicago Heights, Illinois, and was employed as a musician. He was married, but divorced since September, 1952, following which time he traveled extensively giving performances on behalf of the USO which took him to many countries around the world.

He advised that following the war, he continued to follow his profession as a marimba player with engagements in various hotels around Chicago, and subsequent thereto in various areas of Texas. He advised that he went to Dallas, Texas, in 1955, but established no permanent residence for about six months.

He stated that during the fall of 1955, he and GEORGE SENATOR, with whom he had become acquainted while residing in Dallas, Texas, shared an apartment on Mc Kinney Avenue, which was owned by a Mr. WILLIAM MASON.

He advised that he and Mr. SENATOR shared this apartment for about six months, at which time he left the apartment and moved into an apartment with Mr. CHARLES LA ROCHE.

Mr. GUEST stated he had previously known Mr. LA ROCHE from Chicago, Illinois, and when LA ROCHE came to Dallas as a representative of the Canada Dry Company, they renewed their acquaintances and then decided to take an apartment together since he was dissatisfied with the conduct of GEORGE SENATOR. He advised that he and Mr. LA ROCHE renovated a stable on a large plantation near Dallas, where they lived in a bachelor apartment for about one year prior to the time he met and married his present wife.

He advised that he met his wife in January of 1957, and they were married in June of 1957, and then moved to Lauderdale By the Sea, Florida, in January of 1958, and he had never returned to Dallas since that time.

Mr. GUEST advised that during the six months that he resided in the same apartment with GEORGE SENATOR, he observed SENATOR to have many women in the apartment, and he became quite well known for his promiscuous behavior with women.

He also pointed out that SENATOR had been divorced shortly prior to that time from a woman who is believed to be residing somewhere in Miami, Florida, but whose name and present address he did not know. Mr. GUEST further stated that through his association with CHARLES LA ROCHE, he met JACK L. RUBY on possibly two or three occasions. He advised that these contacts were limited to the length of time it would take to consume a drink in RUBY's cafe, while LA ROCHE was talking to RUBY on business matters. He stated that he did not have any personal knowledge concerning RUBY prior to the time he met him in Dallas, and knew nothing about his personal traits or habits.

Mr. GUEST advised that to the best of his knowledge he had never observed anything that would cause him to think that either GEORGE SENATOR or JACK RUBY were homosexually inclined.

Mr. GUEST also advised that he had never heard of the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the time of the assassination of the late President JOHN F. KENNEDY and since he had not been in Dallas, Texas, since 1958, he had no way of knowing whether OSWALD was ever associated with RUBY prior to the time RUBY killed OSWALD.

JACK HARDEE, JR. was interviewed at the Mobile County Jail, Mobile, Alabama, where he is incarcerated in federal custody. He was advised that he did not have to speak with interviewing agents; that anything he said could be used against him in a court of law; and that he could have the advice of an attorney prior to the interview. No threats, promises, or duress were used to induce him to make this statement.

HARDEE stated that he was born near Memphis, Tennessee, and he was 38 years old. He stated that he has travelled extensively throughout the southern part of the United States.

HARDEE stated that he has spent some time in Dallas, Texas, and he had met JACK RUBY during the course of his contacts in Dallas. He stated that approximately one year ago, while in Dallas, Texas, he attempted to set up a numbers game, and he was advised by an individual, whom he did not identify, that in order to operate in Dallas it was necessary to have the clearance of JACK RUBY. He stated that this individual, whom he did not identify, told him that RUBY had the "fix" with the county authorities, and that any other fix being placed would have to be done through RUBY.

HARDEE stated that he did not like RUBY upon their first contact, and this, coupled with a change in his plans, which was unrelated to this, caused him to change his mind about operating the numbers game, and the plan fell through.

HARDEE stated that he had also met JACK RUBY because a girlfriend of his, whom he refused to identify, went to the Bent Elbow Club in Dallas in an effort to obtain a job as a stripper. He stated that she was referred to the Cow Girl Club, and, from there, to JACK RUBY, where she went to work. He stated that he was out of town at the time, and, upon his return, he learned from an undisclosed source that RUBY was "messing around" with his girlfriend. He stated that he felt fondly towards this girl, because she is the mother of an illegitimate daughter by him. He stated in the course of the interview that the girlfriend was a Canadian Citizen and the adopted daughter of an American woman. He indicated that she had had some trouble with Immigration Authorities in Dallas recently and was granted her citizenship approximately three years ago.

HARDEE stated that when he heard that RUBY was attempting to have sexual relations with his girlfriend, he, with two friends of his, went to RUBY's business place, and he personally warned RUBY to keep his hands off the girl. He stated that at that time RUBY exhibited to him a nickel-plated .357 Magnum Revolver, which he was wearing on his left hip stuffed inside his trousers. Because HARDEE had two friends with him, and RUBY had only two of his friends present, the encounter was a "Mexican Stand-Off", and RUBY accepted HARDEE's warning.

HARDEE stated that upon his insistence his girlfriend quit working for RUBY as of that time.

During the period that HARDEE was in Dallas approximately one year ago, he was in RUBY's presence on several occasions. He stated that RUBY impressed him as being the type of individual who would kill without much provocation.

HARDEE also stated that the police officer whom HARVEY LEE OSWALD allegedly killed after he allegedly assassinated the president was a frequent visitor to RUBY's night club, along with another officer who was a motorcycle patrol in the Oaklawn Section of Dallas. HARDEE stated from his observation there appeared to be a very close relationship between these three individuals.

HARDEE also stated that he had seen RUBY in the Dallas Police Department wearing a gun, and officers there, whom he did not know, were aware that RUBY was wearing a gun at the time.

HARDEE stated that he knew TOM ~~X~~ DASSISTER, the "Second Floor Shoe Buyer" for Volks Brothers Shoe Company, and his wife, whose name he could not recall, a former barmaid for RUBY, were well-acquainted with RUBY and could furnish information about him.

HARDEE stated that he knows of his own personal knowledge that RUBY hustled the strippers and other girls who worked in his club. RUBY made dates for them, accepting the money for the dates in advance, and kept half, giving the other half to the girls. These dates were filled in the new hotel in downtown Dallas and the Holiday Motel in Irvington, where RUBY had an associate, whom HARDEE could only identify as a Negro who drove a big Cadillac.

HARDEE also stated that an individual he knows only as SOL, who operates and owns SOL's Bar And Restaurant on either Main Street or Elm Street in Dallas, Texas, was well-acquainted with RUBY.

SHARON GAIL HART, 6505 Aberdeen, whose name appeared in an address book of JACK RUBY, furnished the following information:

She met JACK RUBY approximately four years ago but does not recall how, or where she met him. She said she assumes she met RUBY through either JINX HOFFA or GIGI JOHNS, friends of hers.

Miss HART said she has been in the Vegas and Carousel Clubs on several occasions. She said RUBY was always gentlemanly in her presence; however, she considered him to be boisterous and crude. She said she never saw him display a temper.

Miss HART said she never dated RUBY, that all of her meetings with him were casual meetings.

She said she never saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD at any of RUBY's clubs or in his company. She said the first time she saw OSWALD was when she viewed him on television after the assassination of President KENNEDY.

She said she heard that RUBY carried a gun, but she never saw him in possession of it.

Mr. HUGHES advised that it would be very logical that his name appear as JIMMY HUGHES as a member of one of JACK RUBY's clubs inasmuch as he was a member of the club referred to as the Sovereign Club. He has known JACK RUBY since sometime around 1955, but never regarded RUBY as anything but a casual acquaintance. Mr. HUGHES went on to say that he has been in the club business for several years and has automatically come into contact with several other club owners, one of which was JACK RUBY. He stated that he has never had any lengthy conversations with RUBY, and that to the best of his knowledge, they never discussed politics. The conversations always seemed to center around the entertainment field or in the operation of the various night clubs in and around Dallas. He could recall the last time he saw JACK RUBY was sometime in 1960, at a meeting of the various club owners in the Dallas area. He could not recall all the individuals present at this meeting, but was under the impression that the meeting was called to organize some type of club to analyze the Liquor Board Control standard regulations inasmuch as most of the club owners were not fully aware of just exactly what they consisted of. This was the last time he had either talked with RUBY and believed that it was the last time he even saw RUBY.

He could offer no information whatsoever concerning RUBY's background, friends, and relatives, and stated that he had never heard of the name LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination. He knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD; between RUBY and any member of the Dallas Police Department; and no one who was a member of the Dallas Police Department who worked for RUBY at any time.

He advised that he first met JACK RUBY sometime around 1945-1946, exact date he could not recall, at the Vegas Club, which he described as being a night club operated at that time by RUBY. He advised that his acquaintanceship with RUBY since around 1945 or 1946 has been strictly a casual one; he has never regarded himself as being a close associate. He stated it would be very logical that his name appeared as a member or possibly a temporary member of one of JACK RUBY's clubs, but he could not specifically recall ever having joined any of RUBY's clubs. Although he could not recall joining a club, it is possible that he did join the Sovereign Club and just could not recall having obtained this membership.

Although Mr. HUMPHREY was a casual acquaintance of JACK RUBY, he could offer no information pertaining to RUBY's background, associates, or friends, and stated that he had never discussed any type of politics that would lead him to believe RUBY was interested in same. He knew of no reason as to why RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated that the only information he could offer was that which he had read in the local newspapers. He has never heard or been acquainted with an individual by the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination and knew of no connection whatsoever between RUBY and OSWALD; between RUBY and any member of the Dallas Police Department; and knew of no one who was a member of the Dallas Police Department who worked for RUBY at any time.

Mrs. COLEMAN JACOBSON, 6121 Preston Haven, advised that she and her husband, Dr. COLEMAN JACOBSON, had become acquainted with JACK RUBY several years ago as they attended the same synagogue. It has been the practice of the JACOBSONs for several years to invite members of the synagogue who had no families to their home for the observance of the Passover, and that since JACK RUBY appeared to have no family, he had been so invited to their home on several occasions.

She stated that RUBY appeared to be a lonesome little man who had no family and that he had behaved as a perfect gentleman every time he had visited their home. RUBY was quite well liked by her children. She recalled he liked dogs very much, at one time having as many as seven. On one occasion he kept the JACOBSON dogs while the family was on vacation.

Mrs. JACOBSON had no association with RUBY outside of the synagogue or while he was a guest in her home. She never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the Presidential assassination. She was not aware of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD. She was likewise not aware of any reasons why RUBY shot OSWALD.

Mr. DONALD C. KEYES, Vice-President in Charge of Programing, KLIF, Dallas, Texas, whose name appeared as "DON C. KEYES" in the personal effects of JACK RUBY, advised that it would appear very logical that his name appeared as a member of one of JACK RUBY's clubs, inasmuch as he was a member of the Sovereign Club when it first opened.

He stated that he first met RUBY around 1952 or 1953 and could recall an individual by the name of BOBBIE PETERS, who introduced him to RUBY. PETERS at this time was the so-called manager of the Studio Lounge, but is now deceased. During his acquaintance with RUBY, KEYES could recall several conversations, but most of same were centered around the entertainment field and to the best of his recollection, there was never any discussion concerning politics.

KEYES went on to say that he knew very little concerning RUBY's background, but did recall that RUBY had an intense dislike for an individual by the name of MILTON JOSEPH, who is described as a local jewelry salesman. He could not recall any specifics concerning RUBY's relationship with JOSEPH, but could recall RUBY mentioning JOSEPH on a few occasions. KEYES could also remember that an individual by the name of IRVING ALCANO was a partner of RUBY's when the Vegas Club first opened, but could not elaborate on their association. KEYES stated that he heard rumors to the effect that RUBY and ALCANO had a falling-out and that RUBY had "pistol-whipped" ALCANO several years ago. He could not furnish any information concerning ALCANO, but had heard that ALCANO is now in the florist business in New Orleans.

KEYES went on to say that he last saw RUBY approximately two and a half months ago at the Variety Club, but was unable to recall their conversation. He stated that he knows of no specific reason why RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and was only in possession of his own opinions along this line. He knew of no relationship between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD and expressed the fact that OSWALD was unknown to him prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Just prior to the close of the interview, Mr. KEYES stated that JACK RUBY had called the office of KLIF about two and a half weeks ago and requested to talk with GORDON MC LENLAND, owner of KLIF. MC LENLAND was not in the office, at that time, so KEYES spoke with RUBY. Although he could not recall the exact text of the conversation, KEYES advised that RUBY stated that he was calling from the County Jail and that "BILL" let him make the call. RUBY advised KEYES that he had received several congratulatory telegrams and it was RUBY's desire to have these telegrams printed in the newspaper. RUBY requested that these telegrams be made public, to show the people that "he wasn't such a bad person."

Mr. KEYES stated that the telephone conversation did not last long and that RUBY mentioned nothing other than the telegrams and the fact that he wanted them printed. KEYES stated that he turned this information over to JOE LANG of KLIF for further inquiry.

KEYES further stated that the only other information he possessed concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY and the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was that which he had read in the newspaper.

Mr. INIAS. ~~W. T. KNIGHT~~, JR., 1800 McGregor Street, wife MARY L. ~~KNIGHT~~, Wichita Falls, Texas, Telephone 767-7905, was contacted at the above address, at which time he advised he is presently unemployed. He stated, however, in about October of 1963, he had been in Dallas, where he is a member of the Musicians Union there, and had attempted to form a musical group to play engagements in the local Dallas night clubs. He advised that he had been in the Carousel Club in Dallas on several occasions. He stated on one of these occasions he had purchased two bottles of champagne and had issued a $37 check on his account at a Wichita Falls bank. He advised this check was insufficient and as a result of this, he believes two calls had been made to him by the head waiter of the Carousel Club.

Mr. KNIGHT advised that he knew JACK RUBY only in connection with his visits to the Carousel. He advised he had seen RUBY only in this club and had never associated with him socially or in a business way. He advised RUBY apparently did not know his name, as RUBY addressed KNIGHT as, "Hi, pal."

KNIGHT advised he knew of no association RUBY might have had with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He advised he did not know whether RUBY habitually carried any weapon; he had never seen a weapon in RUBY's possession. He reiterated, however, he had only known RUBY through his visits to RUBY's night clubs.

At White Plains, Westchester County, New York

The following investigation was conducted by SA THOMAS B. LYNCH:

A review of current telephone directories covering Mount Vernon, New York, fail to reflect a listing for PAULA KUHN.

N.Y NOEL BATES, Manager, Westchester Credit Bureau, on December 14, 1963, advised they had a record of LA PAULA KUHN, who in 1958 resided at 118 Pearsall Drive, Mount Vernon. She was described as 37 years of age, single, occupation-Secretary. The Westchester Credit Bureau as of February, 1960, received an inquiry from the Dallas, Texas Credit Bureau indicating that LA PAULA KUHN was employed as a Secretary at Engineering Products Company, 7012 Fremont Street, Dallas, Texas. There was a judgment filed against her in a local court during 1961 by the New York State Tax Commission. It was noted that she at one time had an account at the Chase Manhattan Bank, New York, New York.

At Mount Vernon, New York

Inquiry at 118 Pearsall Drive on December 14, 1963, reflected that LA PAULA KUHN was unknown at this address.

PAULA KUHN, 7012 Fremont, Dallas, TEXAS, advised as follows:

She has known JACK RUBY of Dallas, Texas, since around 1950, during which time he owned several clubs in the Dallas area. She has not seen him in the last five or six years and knows of no connection between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD, as she is not acquainted with OSWALD.

KUHN explained she maintains a residence in Fort Worth, Texas, at 4310 Jackson, in addition to her Dallas residence.

She explained that although she had know RUBY for many years, it was her opinion he was merely a man who liked to enjoy life and to be around people. She had no insight into his political or philosophical views.

Mr. THOMAS LASSITER, Assistant Manager, Volk Brothers, Inc., branch store, Live Oak and Skillman, residence 717 West Page, Dallas, Texas, advised he had been in JACK RUBY's Vegas Club not more than three or four times in his life; the last time being approximately three and one-half years ago. His only observation of RUBY was on such occasions and he doubted if he would recognize him at this time if he saw him. He had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the Presidential assassination and was not aware of any connection between OSWALD and RUBY. He had no knowledge or information that members of the Dallas Police Department frequented establishments owned by RUBY and had never observed any officers during the few times he attended the Vegas Club.

Mr. LASSITER stated he has been divorced from his wife, MARGARET LASSITER, for the past three years. She currently resides on West 38th Street, Denver, Colorado, and is co-owner with her mother of the Snow White Beauty Shop in Denver, Colorado. His wife was never employed or in any way associated with RUBY according to his best knowledge.

Mrs. NORMAN E. LEWIS, formerly MAYBELLE KIRSCH, Irwin 5468 Anita, Telephone TA 6-4032, advised that she formerly resided at 5739 Gaston, in the Eden Rock Apartments, and she believed she worked at the Holiday Inn or King's Room at the Adolphus Hotel as a waitress in 1960. She says in 1959 she had worked as a student dance instructor at the Dale Dance Studio across from the Adolphus Hotel in an upstairs area. She first met JACK RUBY at a delicatessen near the Dale Dance Studio. She said that both of these businesses are now no longer in existence. She said that she does not recall ever having worked for JACK RUBY or any of his night clubs and she never dated him or had any personal contact with him. She advised that he may have gotten her name and address from the dance studio or at the King's Room. She had seen him many times at various locations around town. She added that she did not know him well enough to state what type of a person he was, but he always treated her very nicely.

Mrs. LEWIS advised that she last saw RUBY on November 21, 1963, when he was driving a white car, make unknown, and he was at the Expressway and Main Street, when he tooted his horn at her. She said the car was then observed by her at Munger and Live Oak and that RUBY again tooted at her and drove on. She said the car was not a station wagon and did not have a luggage rack and she could not tell what type of car it was. She said this was the last time she saw RUBY prior to the shooting of the President and OSWALD. The only time after that was on television. She said she was quite upset over the Presidential assassination, her husband was out of town, and her father had just passed away. She said she did not appear too upset about RUBY shooting OSWALD, but could not understand why it was announced that OSWALD was going to be moved from one place to another, which would permit such a shooting.

LEROY MABRY, 4000 Stonebridge, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed concerning his knowledge of and any possible association with JACK RUBY. He advised that approximately two or three months ago, a friend of his, LEON WORTH, opened a nightclub in Dallas. Soon after WORTH opened his club, MABRY visited WORTH who introduced him to a JACK (LNU), believed to have been in the employ of WORTH.

MABRY said soon after JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD he (MABRY) telephoned WORTH and jokingly asked WORTH if the JACK he introduced him to at his club was JACK RUBY. He said WORTH answered affirmatively, and that JACK RUBY was his "partner." MABRY opined that WORTH felt he (MABRY) was "pulling his leg" when WORTH answered him as he did. MABRY does not know if WORTH was actually acquainted with RUBY.

MABRY stated he had visited RUBY's Carousel Club on one occasion in the past, but that he never met RUBY and knew nothing about him.

MABRY also advised he does not know OSWALD and he knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

The following investigation was conducted by SA CARLOS L. KIRBY, JR., at Galveston, Texas:

On January 2, 1964, THOMAS J. McKENNA, 1527 Broadway, advised he is employed by Raymond R. Rapp, Jr., and Associates, Architects, Room 417, Stewart Building, 220 - 22nd Street, Galveston, Texas. McKENNA stated he lived at either 3103 or 3105 Harvard Street, Dallas, Texas, prior to moving to Galveston approximately one year previously. McKENNA stated his home telephone number at 1527 Broadway Street is SO 3-8022.

He stated that about two years ago he, together with his wife, attended a show at the Adolphus Hotel, Dallas, Texas. The operators of this show are BILLY RAY WILSON, who uses the show name Breck Wall, and JOE PETERSON. WILSON and PETERSON reside at the Adolphus Hotel.

After the show, at WILSON's suggestion, he, together with his wife, PETERSON and WILSON, attended the show at the Carousel, and WILSON introduced him and his wife to JACK RUBY, operator of the Carousel. After the show was over at the Carousel, RUBY accompanied by an unknown individual took him, his wife, WILSON and PETERSON to breakfast at the Cotton Palace Bowling Alley. McKENNA stated this is the only time he had ever seen RUBY, and he remembers nothing about RUBY other than he appeared to be a friendly and pleasant individual.

McKENNA stated he never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD, knew nothing about OSWALD, and in his contacts with RUBY he received no information indicating that RUBY was acquainted with OSWALD.

McKENNA stated that BILLY RAY WILSON lived with him and his wife for several years.

He stated that on November 23, 1963, the day after President KENNEDY was shot, WILSON and PETERSON visited his home here, and shortly after WILSON arrived he (WILSON) received a telephone call from RUBY. He stated as well as he could recall from the telephone conversation between RUBY and WILSON, RUBY was glad that WILSON had closed his show at the Adolphus Hotel in view of the President's death and RUBY apparently was disappointed because other shows had not closed in Dallas.

McKENNA stated he had no additional information concerning RUBY, and has no idea as to the close acquaintanceship or association between RUBY, WILSON, and PETERSON.

Mr. JOHN W. MC MILLAN, Distributors, Jax Beer, 509 East Northside Drive, residence 5200 Keswick, advised that he had met JACK RUBY about four years ago, which would have been in about 1959. He stated the only contact he had with RUBY was when he was attempting to get RUBY to handle Jax beer in RUBY's club and, in particular, the Vegas Club operated by RUBY.

MC MILLAN stated that as he recalled there was a private club where RUBY's Carousel is now located in Dallas which was operated by JOE SLATIN in about 1959, and MC MILLAN had a company membership in this private club. He could not recall the name of the club. MC MILLAN stated that he recalled hearing that RUBY had financed SLATIN, but he had no personal knowledge of RUBY financing SLATIN.

MC MILLAN stated that he could recall talking to and seeing RUBY on only two occasions, and both times it was in an effort to sell RUBY on handling Jax beer, and without any appointment. MC MILLAN could not recall that he had actually been in the club after it became known as the Carousel, but he would not say positively that he had not been in the Carousel Club.

MC MILLAN advised that RUBY had been very cordial and in fact MC MILLAN was of the opinion RUBY was over-solicitous to the point of putting up a false front. MC MILLAN stated the opinion he got was that RUBY was concerned only with RUBY and was actually "self-centered".

MC MILLAN stated that he did not know anything about RUBY's political beliefs or background. He stated that he did not know of any connection between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He did not know if RUBY was acquainted with OSWALD. MC MILLAN stated he had no knowledge of OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

MC MILLAN added that he last knew of SLATIN to be operating a lunch counter in the Lawrence Hotel, Dallas, Texas.

The following investigation was conducted by SA THOMAS H. THORNTON:

AT SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA

On December 20, 1963, Mrs. A. V. WILLIAMS, 832 Vales Street, advised she is an aunt of ROBERT M. MARCH. She said MARCH resides at 1612 Fair Oaks Avenue, Apartment 23, South Pasadena, California. She said his residence phone is 799-7679 and his office phone is MA 6-3888.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

ROBERT M. MARCH, 1612 Fair Oaks Avenue, Apartment 23, South Pasadena, California, phone 799-7679, advised he is employed in the Bureau of Investigation of the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office. His business phone is MA 6-3888, Extension 82276.

MARCH said his true name is ROBERT E. MILLER and that he changed his name to MARCH at Dallas, Texas, for business purposes. He said he formerly operated the Oak Cliff Athletic Club on Kiest Boulevard, between Beckley and Zangs Boulevard in Dallas, from about December 1960, to March, 1961. At that time JACK RUBY had a "key club" known as the Soverign Club at Dallas. MARCH said membership in this club was $50 per year. He said he visited this club on approximately five occasions. He originally met RUBY at the Soverign Club through a friend of MARCH, JOHN MC QUILLAN, aka HUEY MC QUILLAN. MARCH said that MC QUILLAN was a bartender at the Oak Cliff Athletic Club at the time. According to MC QUILLAN, RUBY had given a free membership to MC QUILLAN in the Soverign Club inasmuch as MC QUILLAN reportedly had knowledge of or had previously associated with individuals known mutually by MC QUILLAN and RUBY at Chicago, Illinois, or at an unknown location in Florida. MC QUILLAN also claimed that he, MC QUILLAN, knew people in the "syndicate," but no further explanation concerning this statement was furnished to MARCH.

MARCH said he met RUBY on several occasions, but that he did not know him very well. He said he never had met LEE OSWALD nor did he know of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

MARCH recalled that JIM (LNU), a bartender at RUBY's Soverign Club, had at one time mentioned RUBY had a "violent temper and would beat up his employees." MARCH does not know any further details concerning this matter. He described JIM as a white male, American, 45 to 50 years, and balding.

Concerning information as to HUEY J. MC QUILLAN, MARCH said he had last talked to MC QUILLAN telephonically about two weeks earlier, at which time MC QUILLAN indicated he was going to hitchhike back to Dallas, Texas. MC QUILLAN's wife, JESSIE, reportedly was to have a child born the prior week end and MC QUILLAN indicated he was returning to Dallas for the birth of this child. He said he did not know the names of the parents of JESSIE nor their residence location, although they did live in the Oak Cliff section of Dallas. JESSIE was formerly a student nurse in about 1960 to 1961 at a hospital described by MARCH as a "new large hospital primarily known for its nurses' training program." He said he was not certain if this hospital was the Southwest Medical School and added it possibly was connected with Parkland Hospital in Dallas. He described JESSIE MC QUILLAN as a white female, American, age 25 years, 5'4", small slender build, and brown hair.

MARCH added that MC QUILLAN met JESSIE in Dallas when she worked at a "beer bar," possibly the Texas Bar, which was located in downtown Dallas near the bus terminals. He believed this bar to which he was referring was operated by an older woman.

MARCH added that JOHN MC QUILLAN has a brother, name unknown, who lives in the general Burbank, California, area. He said that JOHN had a girl friend, BILLIE (LNU), who is employed at a candy store during the daytime and sang at the Olive Branch Club on West Olive in Burbank. He believed telephone number 843-9596 was the phone number of the Olive Branch Club. He described BILLIE as a white female, American, age 25 years, brunette and very attractive looking.

MARCH said if he determined any additional information to locate the MC QUILLANs, he would immediately advise the FBI.

MARCH recontacted SA PAINE on December 26, 1963, to advise that when he arrived at home that night a Christmas card had been received by Mr. and Mrs. MARCH from JESSIE MC QUILLAN, which card indicated the newly born child was named LAURA. JESSIE listed a return address of 4931 Eastgate, Dallas 16, Texas. He said the card did not indicate if her husband was there with her.

The following investigation was conducted on December 20, 1963, by SA VINCENT J. O'NEILL in an attempt to locate and interview HUGH J. MC QUILLAN, 211 South California Street, Burbank, California:

Neighborhood inquiry at 211 South California Street determined that HUGH MC QUILLAN no longer resided there and his present whereabouts are unknown.

The records of the Glendale Merchants Association, 538 North Brand, Glendale, California, as caused to be reviewed, determined that they had a file concerning HUGH JOHN MC QUILLAN and wife JESSIE, who resided at 211 South California Street, Burbank in 1962. This file indicated that MC QUILLAN failed to pay several loans and on at least three occasions property was repossessed from him for failure to pay. MC QUILLAN's employment was listed as bartender at "Lon & Mac's" (no city given), and his former employment in October, 1962, was listed as Siegel's Liquor Store, Dallas, Texas.

The records of the Burbank, California, Police Department indicated that HUGH JOHN MC QUILLAN had an automobile repossessed on August 26, 1962, at which time he was residing at 211 California Street, and on January 2, 1963, the Burbank Police received a telephone report of a possible prowler from JESSIE MC QUILLAN, 135 A South Cordova, Burbank.

Mrs. FRANCES FOTHERGRILL, 2248 North Naomi, Burbank, a former neighbor of the MC QUILLAN's at 135 South Cordova, advised that HUGH J. and JESSIE MC QUILLAN have separated and the latter resides with her parents (name unknown) in Dallas, Texas, and is expecting her third child soon. Mrs. FOTHERGRILL does not know the present whereabouts of HUGH MC QUILLAN.

"LEFTY" MILLER, Bartender of Lon & Mac's Cafe, 4307 West Olive, Burbank advised that JOHN MC QUILLAN formerly worked at that cafe in 1962, but due to excessive drinking, his services were terminated and MC QUILLAN's present whereabouts are unknown to MILLER.

Mrs. THOMAS YOUSCH, 16258 Vintage Street, Granada Hills, advised that she is the owner of the apartments at 135 South Cordova, and that in approximately October, 1963, JESSIE and JOHN MC QUILLAN separated and moved from the apartment. Mrs. YOUSCH stated that JESSIE MC QUILLAN presently resides in Dallas, Texas, with her parents, name and address unknown, and that JOHN MC QUILLAN, who still owes rent, is reportedly residing in the Los Angeles area.

A telephone call to the Chance Cafe, 3911 Riverside Drive, Burbank, determined that JOHN MC QUILLAN was known as a "bar fly" and according to the bartender, MC QUILLAN returned to Dallas, Texas approximately one week ago, and his present whereabouts in Dallas are unknown.

The following investigation was conducted on December 26, 1963, by SA GEORGE A. PAINE, Jr.

AL CERCEO, Olive Branch Bar, 3522 West Olive, Burbank, California, advised the girl friend of JOHN MC QUILLAN, aka, is BILLIE LOUISE OLSON, who might possibly know the location of MC QUILLAN. He said BILLIE LOUISE is employed at a candy store, name unknown, near Seventh and Hill Streets in Los Angeles, California. He believed her location could be ascertained through the International Pancake House in the Westchester, California, area. He said he did not know the location of HUEY MC QUILLAN.

Inquiry at the International House of Pancakes, Inglewood, California, phone OR 8-5881, determined BILLIE LOUISE OLSON was formerly the hostess at the Crenshaw Branch of the International House of Pancakes.

Inquiry at the Crenshaw Branch of the International House of Pancakes ascertained that BILLIE LOUISE OLSON was employed by Barton's Candy Store in downtown Los Angeles, California.

BILLIE LOUISE, formerly known as BILLIE LOUISE OLSON, employed at Barton's Candy Store, 402 West Seventh Street, Los Angeles, California, phone 623-3334, advised she is the former girl friend of HUEY J. MC QUILLAN, aka JOHN MC QUILLAN. She said she did not know his location. She terminated associating with MC QUILLAN when she ascertained he was married. She believed his brother, BOB MC QUILLAN, whose wife is named BEVERLY, possibly resided on Avon Street in a green apartment house behind a large apartment house, facing Riverside Drive at Avon Street. She said she would immediately advise the FBI if she determined HUEY MC QUILLAN was still in the area.

HUGH J. MC QUILLAN, also known as JOHN, 4931 Eastgate Drive, a member of the Sovereign Club, furnished the following information:

He first met JACK RUBY in October 1961 when he visited the Sovereign Club with a JIMMY NAIL.

MC QUILLAN said at the time he met RUBY he, MC QUILLAN, was tending bar at the Alpine Club, Dallas, owned by a WALLACE MARCH and managed by ROBERT MARCH. He said at the time of his meeting with RUBY he was given a free membership to the Sovereign Club.

MC QUILLAN said RUBY subsequently attempted to get him to come to work at the Sovereign Club. However, he refused inasmuch as he had become manager of the Alpine Club.

MC QUILLAN said he considers himself and RUBY to be good friends, but that they had disagreements. He recalled one instance where he hired one of RUBY's hostesses away from him and RUBY called him on the telephone and berated him for it. He said he saw RUBY later that night and RUBY made no mention of the incident.

He said he considers RUBY to be basically a nice guy and extremely generous; however, he was very emotional and nervous and would shout at his help.

He said the only mutual friend he and RUBY had was BILL HOWARD, who operated the Stork Club in Dallas. He said there was never any discussion between them concerning mutual friends in Chicago, nor did he give any indication or say anything to RUBY which would lead RUBY to believe that he knew any individuals in the Syndicates.

MC QUILLAN said he had lived in Miami, Florida, for many years and he had discussed Miami, Florida, with RUBY, but that they did not have any mutual friends in that city.

He said he recalls RUBY, saying he did not have anything to do with the rackets any more, but there was no further discussion concerning this. MC QUILLAN said he visited the Vegas Club a couple of times and had visited the Sovereign and Carousel

The following investigation was conducted by SA CLAUDE H. MEADOW, JR. at Gainesville, Florida, on December 17, 1963:

Mrs. BLANCHE McWILLIE, whose home address is 3631 Southwest 18th Terrace, Miami, Florida, was interviewed at the residence of her daughter, NANCY A. McWILLIE, 3705 Southwest 20th Street, Gainesville. Mrs. McWILLIE advised she has known JACK LEON RUBY for about 12 or 15 years having met him through her son, LEWIS, in Dallas, Texas. She advised that her son, LEWIS, at the time she met RUBY, was operating a night club in Dallas. 140 Texas

Mrs. McWILLIE advised she would visit her son about twice a year staying about a month during each visit. She advised that her son was residing at that time in the Maple Terrace Apartments which is an apartment hotel. RUBY did not live in the same apartment building but would visit with her and her son practically every day. She advised RUBY had an apartment somewhere in Dallas, but that she never visited him in this apartment. She recalls that RUBY at the time, was operating the Vegas Club in Dallas which, according to Mrs. McWILLIE, was not an elaborate club but was supposed to have been a decent club. She advised that her acquaintance with RUBY was restricted to her son's apartment, and that the last time she saw RUBY was about seven years ago.

She recalls that she believes the last time she saw RUBY he was going with a girl named ALICE (Last Name Unknown) and understood this girl to be a schoolteacher. She described ALICE as being in her early 30's, a nicely dressed girl, very refined looking with brown hair and of average height.

Mrs. McWILLIE stated that she had always considered RUBY to be a well mannered individual who did not drink or smoke, and that she had never heard anything unfavorable concerning him during the time she was visiting her son in Dallas.

Mrs. McWILLIE advised she did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never heard his name mentioned by JACK RUBY.

LOUIS J. MC WILLIE, 3627 Eastern Avenue, advised that he had a sister NANCY MC WILLIE who is an associate professor at the University of Florida at Gainesville, Florida. She is in the Medical Department, but not a doctor. She resides at 3705 South West 20th Street, Gainesville, Florida. He advised that she visited him when he resided at Maple Terrace Apartments, Dallas, Texas and stayed at his house for about a week. On this occasion she met JACK RUBY through him. He stated that NANCY has never visited him at Las Vegas and that he does not know how to account for RUBY having her address listed as 3040 Kishner Drive, Apartment 204, which he stated was his former address in Las Vegas.

He furnished his wife's name as MARGUERITE. He does not know the name BILL OLSHER.

Mrs. RUTH ROBISON, 3216 Raleigh, Apartment A, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

She is manager of the King's Terrace Apartments and about two and a half years ago, she had tenants by the name of (FNU) MC WILLIE living in the apartments. She said at the time the MC WILLIEs moved, they left a package in their apartment, which they told her would be picked up by JACK RUBY.

Mrs. ROBISON said approximately a week after the MC WILLIEs moved, she called RUBY, since he had no picked up the package, and requested that he come to the apartments and obtain same. She said RUBY came to the apartment that night and obtained the package which she noted contained poker chips.

Mrs. ROBISON advised after seeing RUBY's picture on television she recognized him as the same individual who had picked up the poker chips and mentioned the fact to some of her friends. She said her friends suggested she advise the FBI of the incident, but inasmuch as she observed the package to contain poker chips and nothing further, she did not feel it to have any importance to the current inquiries being conducted.

CHARLES R. MEEKER, JR., Manager of Maple Terrace, Stoneleigh & Terrace Apartments, advised he met JACK RUBY sometime in 1960, when RUBY came to the Fair Grounds and contacted him at his office, the State Fair Musicals.

MEEKER said RUBY attempted to get him to bring the guest stars who appeared at the Fair Grounds Musicals to RUBY's club, which he believed was a private club, across the street from the Adolphus Hotel, Dallas. He said he thought RUBY gave him a membership card to the club at the time, but he cannot recall whether he still had the card or not. He stated he went to the club at a later time when it was a public club, probably the Carousel, with a theatrical agent from Chicago, Illinois, who had asked him to see a Negro singer who was at RUBY's club. He said she was excellent, but he could not estimate the time of this visit; however, it was the only time he had been at the club.

MEEKER advised he used to book the talent at the Empire Room in the Statler Hilton Hotel until January, 1963, and he thought RUBY occasionally visited the Empire Room to catch the show, but he cannot be certain of this either.

He added he had seen RUBY around town on numerous occasions, but has had no personal contact or association with him. Further, he did not know RUBY well enough to describe his character, but stated he was rather brash in his approach. He knew of no connection between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MEEKER was contacted at his office, Room 215, Stoneleigh Hotel, Maple Avenue.

VIRGIL MIERS, Amusements Editor, "Dallas Times Herald", whose name was furnished by DONALD B. SAFRAN as being an acquaintance of RUBY, advised as follows:

Mr. MIERS stated that he has known RUBY on a business basis only during the past six or seven years. He stated prior to meeting RUBY he was called by him by telephone relative to space to be used in the "Dallas Times Herald" newspaper for the Vegas Club. A few days later, he, MIERS, was at the showroom of the Adolphus Hotel and RUBY came by him and when he saw MIERS, he started shouting something to the effect that MIERS had given more space in his paper to the other clubs than he had to RUBY's clubs. MIERS did not learn how RUBY recognized him whereas MIERS had never seen RUBY before to his knowledge.

MIERS advised that RUBY has appeared at the "Times Herald" Building on numerous occasions concerning publicity for his clubs and frequently has complained of preferential treatment being given his competitors relative to space in the newspaper concerning various clubs in Dallas. MIERS added that RUBY has appeared to be unreasonable in his complaints concerning alleged unfair treatment of him by this newspaper.

MIERS stated he last saw RUBY several months ago, exact date unknown, when RUBY appeared at the "Times Herald" Building on business.

MIERS advised that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information indicating that OSWALD and RUBY ever associated together. He added that he has no information concerning the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY.

Mr. WILLIE C. MILLER, 3508 Oak Creek Circle, Dallas, Texas, Telephone Number EV 1-5465, was interviewed to determine why his telephone number appeared in the address book belonging to JACK RUBY.

Mr. MILLER advised that he has been a fire inspector for the Dallas Fire Department located at 2111 Main Street, Dallas, for the past several years, and in connection with his employment, he becomes acquainted with several of the club owners in the Dallas area. He explained this by saying that the fire inspectors are required to make periodic checks, in conjunction with the police department, of the various night clubs. Each club in the Dallas area is required to be inspected by both the fire department and the police department prior to the issuance of a dance license and for this reason MILLER was of the opinion that RUBY had written MILLER's telephone number in his notebook.

MILLER went on to say that he regarded RUBY as a casual acquaintance and knew of nothing specific concerning his background, friends, or associates, political views, or any connection he may have had with the Dallas Police Department. LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to him prior to the assassination, and he knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

ROYCE WAYNE MONTGOMERY, also known as "RUSTY", 439 Myers Circle, who is believed to be a charter member, member or temporary member of one of JACK RUBY's clubs, furnished the following information:

He has known JACK RUBY for approximately ten years having met him when he owned the Silver Spur Club in Dallas. He said he last saw RUBY about four years ago at the Soyereign Club in Dallas.

MONTGOMERY advised RUBY attempted to interest him in going into partnership with him in the operation of the Sovereign Club. However, he was not interested in doing so.

MONTGOMERY advised he operates a drive-in and in connection with this business, he receives quite a few passes to night clubs throughout the city and he may have possibly obtained a pass to one of RUBY's clubs through his business. He said he does not recall ever having attended the Carousel or Vegas Clubs.

MONTGOMERY advised he always considered RUBY to be a very emotional and highly excitable type individual who got carried away with his ideas.

MONTGOMERY stated he could furnish no background information concerning RUBY nor does he know anything concerning his character or associates.

MONTGOMERY advised LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to him and does not recall ever having seen him at RUBY's clubs or in company with RUBY.

Mr. ROBERT LOUIS NORTON, 3414 Manana, Dallas, Texas, telephone number LA 6-5710, whose name and telephone number appeared as "BOB NORTON, FL 7-7009, in RUBY's personal property in connection with a search of his car, was contacted at which time he advised that telephone number FL 7-7009 is his old number and that it would appear very logical that his name and number would be in the personal effects of RUBY.

He advised that he is the owner of the Pago Club, which is located at 4611 Cole, telephone number LA 6-5710, and because of the type of business he is in he has become acquainted with JACK RUBY. He could not recall the exact date he first met RUBY but felt that it was approximately seven years ago when RUBY used to have a place of business near the Pago Club which was at that time located at 2228 Mc Kinney, Dallas, Texas. Like all club owners, he, NORTON, and RUBY were brought together strictly through business contacts and could recall having conversation with RUBY strictly in the line of business, generally in the field of entertainment. NORTON could recall RUBY stopping in at his club on various occasions to observe the entertainment and would on different occasions attempt to employ the individuals that he (NORTON) had for his entertainment.

Mr. NORTON stated that his association with RUBY has been strictly that of a business relationship and could not recall ever socializing with RUBY. He has never discussed politics with RUBY and has never heard RUBY express his likes or dislikes along this line.

Mr. NORTON went on to say that he last observed JACK RUBY sometime during the evening of November 23, 1963, and explained that RUBY came by his place of business. NORTON advised that he talked with RUBY concerning what a terrible thing for the President to have been assassinated, and asked RUBY at this time if his clubs were closed. He could recall that RUBY told him that he definitely had his clubs closed that night and after a very short conversation RUBY left Mr. NORTON's club. NORTON stated that he could recall nothing unusual that happened that particular evening and that RUBY appeared to be very calm during the entire conversation.

Mr. NORTON advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to him prior to the assassination of the President and knew of no connection whatsoever between RUBY and OSWALD. He knew of no connection whatsoever between RUBY and any members of the Dallas Police Department and was of the opinion that RUBY's association with the Police Department was similar to that of all club owners in the Dallas area.

NORTON could offer no information as to why RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD and possessed no other information other than what he had heard through the local news media.

He has known JACK RUBY around three years and aside from seeing him approximately two times a month while he was a member of the Sovereign Club, he would occasionally see RUBY around the court house and in the downtown area. He described RUBY as an emotional, gregarious person who did not impress him as having any interest in politics or associated interests.

It was his opinion the only manner in which RUBY was associated with the shooting of LEE OSWALD was through his emotions. He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD or between RUBY and anyone of the type person OSWALD appeared to be, based on what he had read in the papers.

NORMA BARNETT PEREZ advised she left Dallas, Texas, during the month of November 1963, a few days after Halloween. She stated that she came to Southgate, California, with one JIM PAZ and MARY LORENE O'NEAL in JIM PAZ's 1958 Edsel automobile.

PEREZ related while in Dallas, Texas, she last lived at the Bryant Hotel on Bryant Street with her aunt KATHLEEN FULLER. PEREZ advised she applied for work at JACK RUBY's Carousel night club after noticing an ad in one of the local Dallas newspapers advertising for cocktail waitresses at RUBY's Carousel.

PEREZ related she telephonically contacted the Carousel and they told her to come down and apply. She stated she did go to the Carousel located on Commerse Street, Dallas, Texas, and at this time JACK RUBY was busy and was unable to see her. She was told to come back the next day which she did and at this time JACK RUBY talked with her and invited her to lunch. She went to lunch with RUBY and another man whose name she does not recall and RUBY took her to a restaurant on Industrial Boulevard behind the 77 Drive-In and at this time RUBY told her that he thought she would make a good stripper. He offered to send her to a local strip tease school so that she could work up a routine, learn a strip act and then appear at his club. PEREZ stated that she told RUBY she would be agreeable to becoming a stripper because she liked dancing and thought she would like the work.

PEREZ stated her dealings with JACK RUBY were strictly limited to a few telephone conversations and this one specific time which he took her to lunch. She advised the day after RUBY took her to lunch she telephonically contacted him telling him that she was in need of money and inquiring as to when she could start to the strip school. According to PEREZ, RUBY advised her it would be a few days and at this time she told him she needed money and he told her he could get her work at the Bull Pen Drive-In as a car hop in a town near Dallas.

PEREZ related that she took this employment at the Bull Pen Drive-In as a car hop which RUBY arranged for her and after working as a car hop for approximately one week she again went back to the Carousel and asked to see JACK RUBY in regards to her attending a strip tease school and at this time she was told by someone in the Carousel that Mr. RUBY wanted nothing more to do with her because he had learned that she had a police record.

PEREZ stated she told this individual in the Carousel that she did not have a Dallas police record which she stated is true. However, the person insisted that Mr. RUBY did not want her and had no further interest in her and asked her to leave the club. She stated she did leave the Carousel and had no further dealings whatsoever with JACK RUBY.

PEREZ related she does not have any police record in Dallas. However, she has served ten days in Tucson, Arizona, for vagrancy.

PEREZ related that MARY O'NEAL was employed by JACK RUBY as a cocktail waitress; however, she believed that MARY only worked at the Carousel approximately five to seven days and quit because she did not like the work. PEREZ stated her dealings with JACK RUBY were very limited and she advised that she was surprised when she read in the papers that RUBY had killed OSWALD. She stated she did not know if there was any conspiracy between RUBY and OSWALD and that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to her.

PEREZ related that when she was living at the Bryant Hotel she had telephone number CA 4-2234.

RHONDA LOU PONDER, 115 Maple, stated that she first met JACK RUBY while she was working at the Howard Johnson Restaurant located on the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike. While in the Howard Johnson Restaurant about five months ago, RUBY introduced himself to PONDER and during resulting conversation offered PONDER a job as a waitress at the Vegas Club in Dallas, indicating to her he was in need of some "new faces". The initial meeting of RUBY and PONDER terminated with RUBY's invitation to PONDER to visit the Vegas Club and "look the situation over".

PONDER stated she traveled to Dallas about two weeks later and went to the Vegas Club to see RUBY and discuss further details about employment. During this discussion with RUBY, she learned RUBY was interested in employing her as a stripper and not as a waitress, all contingent on her going on a diet. RUBY did not offer her a specific salary but advised her his girls did real well. PONDER stated she refused the offer of employment as a stripper, advising RUBY she was under the impression he wanted her as a waitress. PONDER stated she saw RUBY on the third and final time when he stopped in the Howard Johnson Restaurant sometime during October 1963. She stated RUBY did not speak to her on this occasion and RUBY acted as though he did not recognize her.

PONDER further advised she never heard RUBY discuss his political beliefs and was not aware of any association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MARIO SANCHEZ, 2224 Van Cleve Drive, owner, South Ervay Pawn Shop, 2609 South Ervay, who was reportedly a former employee of JACK RUBY at the Vegas Club, furnished the following information:

In December 1956 he was employed with the Lee Optical Company located several doors from the Vegas Club, doing display work. He said an individual who he later learned was JACK RUBY contacted him at Lee and told him he had seen some of his work and asked him to do some work for him at the Vegas Club. He said he thereafter visited the Vegas Club on several occasions socially, and on one occasion he emceed his Sunday night show for RUBY at the Vegas Club when RUBY was out of town. He said on this occasion some members of the Arthur Murray Studios displayed various dance steps.

SANCHEZ said he had not seen RUBY in several years, when in 1959 he came in contact with him, at which time RUBY offered him a firm membership in the Sovereign Club for $25.00. He said at the time he, SANCHEZ, and his wife were operating a business consultant firm, Bettancourt and Associates, and when RUBY found out what kind of work he was doing he offered him a free membership to the Sovereign Club in exchange for a list of individuals he would be able to contact concerning prospective membership in the Sovereign Club and also for any promotional ideas he might be able to furnish RUBY.

SANCHEZ said he never reached an agreement with RUBY concerning the aforementioned work as he could never pin RUBY down as to what, exactly, he wanted. He said RUBY would not stay still long enough to discuss the details and after about one hour he left him. He said he did accept a membership to the Sovereign Club in order to "get RUBY off my back".

SANCHEZ said RUBY was a very excitable person and one who wanted to dominate all conversations. He said he never had any disagreements with RUBY, however, found him to be very evasive.

SANCHEZ said that after the aforementioned discussion with RUBY, he visited the Sovereign and Carousel Clubs socially on one occasion. He said his meetings with RUBY thereafter were chance meetings.

He first met JACK RUBY ten or twelve years ago at which time RUBY was involved in the operation of the Sovereign Club along with one JOE SLAYTIN. He used to visit SLAYTIN and has in consequence met RUBY. The only person he ever introduced to RUBY was one BOB WRIGHT, a bank employee who mentioned to him he would like to belong to the club in order to drink but would like to become a member without paying the heavy initial cost. SANSONNE introduced WRIGHT to RUBY for this particular reason. He has not seen JACK RUBY more than three or four times in the last five or six years due to the fact he has been working inside in an administrative capacity during these years. He has no intimate knowledge of RUBY and was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD in any way and because of this he has no knowledge of any association between RUBY and OSWALD.

The following investigation was conducted in the St. Louis Division by SAs JOHN H. CREECH and LOUIS F. CAPUTO:

On January 2, 1964, Mrs. EUGENE E. SMITH, nee REVA YOUNG, 1524a Jefico Boulevard, Arnold, Missouri, was interviewed at her home and acknowledged writing a Christmas card with note enclosed to JACK RUBY in Dallas. Mrs. SMITH stated that she and her husband, EUGENE, actually were introduced to each other by JACK RUBY in 1951. She said that at that time RUBY owned the Silver Spur night club in Dallas and that she would occasionally visit the night club with friends after completing her days work at the telephone company in Dallas. Mrs. SMITH stated that she probably talked to RUBY no more than six or eight times between 1951 and 1952, as he seemed to her to be a shy, withdrawn type of person and one not easy to talk to.

She said that her husband, EUGENE, was at that time on the Dallas police force and would occasionally stop in at the Silver Spur when coming off duty. She said that neither she nor her husband knew RUBY other than casual conversation at the night club. Mrs. SMITH said that she cannot recall RUBY ever having mentioned anything about the President, any possible assassination, or any threats or discussion by RUBY to do with the Government or anyone in it. She recalled that RUBY introduced her husband to her one evening at the club because he, SMITH, wanted to dance with her and had not at that time been introduced. Mrs. SMITH reiterated that other than casual conversation between herself and RUBY no other matters were discussed at any time.

Mrs. SMITH stated that she felt after sending the card possibly it was wrong for her to have sent the card to RUBY, but she said that she quite often has sent either cards or letters to people and mentioned Mrs. JOHN F. KENNEDY, JOHN GLENN, and the family of the slain J. D. TIPPITT. She said that when she wrote to the TIPPITT family she sent them $5.00 because she and her husband were very concerned for the welfare of Mrs TIPPITT. She said that she often writes notes of either sympathy or congratulations to people as she is often lonely and her husband is gone quite often on his job with the Greyhound Bus Lines.

Mrs. SMITH said that her husband, EUGENE [illegible] was not available for interview at present as he is currently on the road as a relief driver for Greyhound Bus Lines. Mrs. SMITH indicated that she expects her husband to arrive home sometime over the weekend and that she would promptly have him notify the FBI so that he might be interviewed.

At the conclusion of the interview, Mrs. SMITH was asked if she knew of any association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD, to which she replied she never heard [illegible] mention any such association or knowledge.

PEGGY STEELE, exotic dancer and strip-tease artist, currently appearing at the Rainbow Room, Printer's Alley, Nashville, Tennessee, was interviewed at the Noel Hotel, Nashville, Tennessee, where she is stopping over at Room 515. She advised she has known JACK LEON RUBY slightly for about six years. He formerly operated the Vegas Club in Dallas, Texas where she first met him when she visited this club as a customer. Her hometown is Dallas, Texas and through visiting the club, she has had at least a speaking acquaintance with RUBY for the past six years. She has never dated him or had any social contact at all with him. She knows nothing concerning his past activities or background and regards him as "slightly nuts." She has appeared at his club, The Carousel, in Dallas only on one occasion. This was during July or August of 1962. RUBY acted very strangely during her engagement there, often conversing with one of his dogs as though it were human. She regarded him as being slightly "off."

She knew of no association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD to her knowledge. She stated she knew nothing concerning events surrounding the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY or the subsequent slaying of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She knew nothing concerning RUBY'S associates or association, if any, with the Dallas Police Department.

Captain H. T. VOGEL, Traffic Division, El Paso Police Department, El Paso, Texas furnished the following information:

He stated that when interviewed by Special Agent DAVID J. REID on December 5, 1963 he had mistakenly said that he had been in Dallas, Texas in June, 1961.

He corrected his error and said that he was in Dallas, Texas in June, 1962 attending the Texas Police Association annual convention.

At that time he was in charge of the El Paso Police Department hospitality room located in the Baker Hotel. He stated that the El Paso Police Department was endeavoring to bid for the 1964 annual TPA convention to be held in El Paso, Texas.

He stated that in June, 1962 he did not go to the Carousel nor did he meet RUBY.

He reported that several officers present at the convention and at the hospitality room, that he was hosting, invited him, spontaneously, to go to the Carousel Club for a party.

He stated that he did not go to the Carousel. He does not know the names of officers who did attend. He does not know if Chief CURRY attended, nor does he know if RUBY "picked up the tab."

He was again in Dallas in August, 1962 attending the Southwestern Law Enforcement Institute on August 6, 7, 1963. On one of these evenings in company with JERRY HILL

E. R. "BUDDY" WALTHERS, Deputy Sheriff, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, was apprised of the fact that records of JACK RUBY revealed that he, WALTHERS, holds a membership card to one of RUBY's clubs. WALTHERS furnished the following information in way of explanation:

WALTHERS stated his primary duties as a Deputy Sheriff are vice investigations. He stated his job entails contacting most of the clubs in the Dallas area. He said that, as a result of this, he has known JACK RUBY for many years and he has visited his clubs on numerous occasions.

WALTHERS said that several months ago he asked RUBY for a card to the Carousel Club so that he would not have to show his badge when he went to the club. He stated this prevented patrons and employees from knowing who he was.

WALTHERS said that, in his contacts with RUBY, he has ascertained that RUBY is a very impulsive type of individual and does things on the spur of the moment. He stated RUBY has a bad temper and exhibited his temper many times at the club.

WALTHERS stated RUBY is the type of individual who wants to be liked by everyone and to be the center of attention.

WALTHERS stated he is of the opinion RUBY just happened to be at the Police Department garage at the right time, and it was an impulsive act which prompted him to kill OSWALD.

WALTHERS advised he knows of no association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

JOE E. SLATIN, employee at Banker's Drug, 206 S. Ervay, Dallas, Texas, was reinterviewed particularly with regards to what appears to be membership list in RUBY's possession which relates to Sovereign Club membership.

SLATIN again explained that he was a co-owner of the Sovereign Club with RUBY when the club opened in early 1960, but that he did not stay with RUBY in this business too long. He pointed out that the operation of the Sovereign Club as he and RUBY were operating it was actually illegal at that time. Consequently, they could not guarantee the names furnished by individuals who were members of this club were in all instances their true names. He advised that it was highly probable that in some instances the individuals would have furnished fictitious names, because of the illegal nature of the club. He advised that they had an arrangement for temporary membership in the club which was for two or three days at a cost of a $1.00 or $1.50. Because of the location of the Sovereign Club downtown, usually a number of these temporary members would have been individuals from out-of-town cities in town temporary at local hotels.

The following list of names were furnished to SLATIN who advised he did not recall any of these individuals:

SLATIN was unable to furnish any additional information regarding his association with RUBY. He reaffirmed that in the past when he was in business with RUBY, he never saw a gun in RUBY's possession. He explained that when he was the co-owner of the Sovereign Club with RUBY, he, SLATIN, handled the money, but that actually the club was doing so poorly, that they would do well to meet expenses on any given day.

JULES HENRY HERBERT, also known as "Frenchie", 5047 - 34th Street, advised the following information:

He met JACK RUBY in April or May, 1963, in the Sheraton-Lincoln Hotel, Houston, Texas, where he (HERBERT) was employed as a bellhop. At this time RUBY obtained a room for $3 for a two or three hour period in order to clean up but did not use the room to stay overnight. RUBY told HERBERT that he had a dog with him and that he was planning to deliver the dog to CANDY BARR, who is a well known strip tease artist in the Texas area. RUBY left the puppy in the lobby of the hotel while he cleaned up and then, to the best of HERBERT's recollection, RUBY rented a car to drive to Dallas, Texas. RUBY gave HERBERT one of his business cards which had "The Carousel" printed on the card. RUBY also talked to one FRANK SMART, who was also a bellhop at the hotel. HERBERT emphatically denied having any other association with RUBY or ever receiving any telephone calls, correspondence or having conversation with him since that period.

HERBERT advised that he was fired from his position as a bellhop in the Sheraton-Lincoln Hotel in May, 1963, and he left Houston at that time. HERBERT stated he has never visited RUBY's club in Dallas but that he had planned to visit it if he should ever be in the Dallas area.

HERBERT stated he knows of no person named PAUL TOWERS but that there was a bellhop named PAUL, whose last name he did not know, who was employed for a short period at the Sheraton-Lincoln Hotel in Houston.

HERBERT advised that his address while residing in Houston was 2717 Morrison Street and that he is presently employed in Port Arthur, Texas, for the American Insulation Company.

HERBERT stated he does not know of any of RUBY's associates and that RUBY was alone when he visted the Sheraton-Lincoln Hotel in Houston.

MAIMA ISADORE KAPLAN, 1541 South Beverly Drive, advised that he and his wife, SYLVIA, were employed by the "San Francisco Call Bulletin" as solicitors, from about 1933 to 1938. He stated that JACK RUBY and his sister, EVA GRANT, were also employed as solicitors by the "San Francisco Call Bulletin" for a short while, and their work was managed by him.

KAPLAN stated that RUBY came to San Francisco from Chicago. He stated that he believes he, KAPLAN, had other solictors under his management who had come to San Francisco from Chicago, and it was probably through one of these people that RUBY became known to him.

Mr. KAPLAN stated that his wife, SYLVIA, has never met JACK RUBY, as they were not solicitors at the same time. He stated that he had not seen RUBY nor has he heard from him since that time. He stated that EVA GRANT was in Los Angeles, about four years ago, and visited with them for a few days.

Mr. KAPLAN stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to his wife and him.

On this date, Mrs. LYLE A. (ANNA M.) MOORE, 8400 Russell Lane, Cleveland 9, Ohio, personally called at the Cleveland Office, as a result of her expressed desire, and furnished the following information:

She advised that she presently resides with her husband, LYLE A. MOORE, in a trailer at Lot #109, Miller's Trailer Park, at the above address and that she has telephone number 961-2411.

She advised that she was born on September 9, 1926 at Coffee Springs, Alabama.

She stated she is presently employed as a waitress and a bartender at Hanych Lounge at 5200 Memphis, Cleveland, Ohio, where she has been intermittently employed since the Summer of 1962.

She advised that at the age 19 she was employed as a waitress at the OK Cafe in 1945 in Phenix City, Alabama, and subsequently also worked at the Green Front Cafe, also in Phenix City, Alabama, as a waitress during 1946 and 1947.

She stated that during the period of 1945 and 1947, she believed that while in Phenix City, Alabama, she had observed someone resembling JACK RUBY who frequented and who was believed to have some connection with the Manhattan Club and gambling spot located on 14th Street in Phenix City, Alabama. She stated that it was at the Manhattan where she generally saw this party she believed to resemble JACK RUBY. She stated that she now recalls at that time this man resembling RUBY was called possibly "JAKE" (LNU). She stated that man was a gambler and definitely not in the Armed Forces of the United States. She stated that in about 1945, this man would have been in his early thirties, about 5'11" tall, 190 pounds, black hair, and neat and flashy in his apparel. She stated she recalled that he did not speak like a "southerner".

She stated this party resembling RUBY was believed possibly to have associated with the manager, name unknown, of the Manhattan Club, and also a Mr. BENNETT, who ran the Blue Bonnet in Phenix City, Alabama at the time, perhaps might have observed the man resembling RUBY.

She stated that she had never seen this individual resembling JACK RUBY since the period of 1945 to 1947.

She stated that when she observed RUBY's photograph in the newspapers and on television, it then came to her that she believed she had observed this man, RUBY, in the Manhattan Club.

She stated that following the murder of LEE OSWALD, the fact that she had seen someone resembling JACK RUBY, prayed upon her mind, and she felt that the murderer should not go unpunished and that it was her duty to report any information she possessed.

She advised that she telephoned the White House at approximately 3:30 AM on November 30, 1963 to advise that she believed she had seen someone resembling RUBY in Phenix City, in the period 1945 to 1947. She stated that at the time she made the call to the White House, she had been drinking alcoholic beverages.

She stated she had no further information concerning the individual resembling JACK RUBY.

She advised, concerning her own background, that her father was AMOS HUSSEY and in 1945 she resided with her father and her brothers WALLACE, LAWRENCE and EARL in the tenant house owned by J. W. WILSON, which house was located on Summerville Road just outside Phenix City, Alabama.

She stated her brother WALLACE is now 39 years of age and lives at 2619 Lemon Street in Polatka, Florida. She stated her brother LAWRENCE, now age 34, is presently confined in Kilby Prison in Montgomery, Alabama, and the whereabouts of EARL, now age 32, are unknown to her since he is a "wanderer".

She stated that Mr. J. W. WILSON was approximately 50 years of age in 1942 and that he was a wealthy grocery and meat market operator, whose place of business was located on Broadway in Phenix City, Alabama. She stated that in 1942 J. W. WILSON purchased her a home located in Columbus, Georgia, and also an automobile and subsequently in 1944 purchased her a restaurant in Atlanta, Georgia.

She stated that Mr. WILSON had been in love with her despite the fact that he was a married man with a family and that she often accompanied him on hunting trips and cattle buying expeditions and on the latter occasion, she drove the truck for him. She stated Mr. J. W. WILSON died in 1955.

She denied any reciprocation of his feelings for her.

She advised that she was first married in August, 1946 to one GEORGE ALDEN and that for a two month period in 1945 ALDEN worked at the Green Front in Phenix City, and later in 1943, they moved to Des Moines, Iowa, and lived with Mr. ALDEN's parents and that she and Mr. ALDEN were subsequently separated in 1953, when he divorced her in Portland, Oregon, that same year.

She stated on September 26, 1958, she married her present husband, L. A. MOORE in Bonnieville, Washington. She stated her present husband is employed as a "press man" by the Forest City Publishing Company in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. MOORE advised that she had an afternoon appointment on this date with Secret Service to furnish them with whatever information she possesses concerning the man resembling JACK RUBY seen by her in the period 1945 to 1947 in Phenix City, Alabama.

On December 6, 1963, Miss JEAN McCANN, Social Worker, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Anchorage District Field Office, Anchorage, advised that following the assassination of the late President of the United States, JOHN F. KENNEDY, in Dallas, Texas, and the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Dallas by JACK RUBY, a fellow Social Worker by the name of FRANCIS M. STEVENS, indicated to her that the name of JACK RUBY appeared familiar. He indicated to her that he may have met RUBY or may have seen RUBY in Minneapolis during the period of time he resided or worked there. She advised that STEVENS stated he was waiting to observe a photograph of RUBY on television or in the newspapers to determine if he was familiar.

Miss McCANN advised that following the publication of RUBY's photograph, STEVENS remarked to her that he may have known RUBY as his photograph appeared most familiar. STEVENS mentioned that he may have met RUBY at a party which was held in Minneapolis. She obtained the impression the party, to which STEVENS referred, occurred in December, 1962, when STEVENS visited Minneapolis on vacation.

She further advised that STEVENS had bragged that his brother-in-law was a member of the United States Secret Service and that his duty was to guard the President of the United States and his family.

She had no other details and could not determine if STEVENS was sincere in what he said about RUBY or whether it was another attempt on his part to appear important in the eyes of the staff members of the Bureau of Indian Affairs. She advised she resolved this doubt by bringing STEVENS' remarks to the attention of W. O. CRAIG, her superior.

On December 3, 1963, Mr. W. O. CRAIG, Area Field Representative, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Anchorage District Field Office, 528½ Fifth Avenue, Anchorage, advised that a FRANCIS MICHAEL STEVENS, 1507 Martin, Anchorage, is employed as a Social Worker on the staff of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Mr. CRAIG advised that STEVENS is somewhat of a personnel problem in that, although intelligent and qualified, he is too ambitious and of late has taken to practices in the field of his work which contradicts the policy established by the Bureau of Indian Affairs. He advised STEVENS is most ambitious and is somewhat a braggart. He explained that STEVENS has spread among the staff members on his level numerous stories of his life in Minneapolis, and that he has met highly important and influential people. He is a "name dropper" and goes out of his way to be important.

CRAIG advised this is a personnel problem which he can handle.

CRAIG advised that on December 2, 1963, an employee, Miss JEAN McCANN, who is a Social Worker, reported to him that STEVENS had been making remarks in the office that he knew or had met JACK RUBY, the man who murdered LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Dallas, Texas. STEVENS further attempted to make impressions that he had a brother-in-law who was a member of the United States Secret Service and whose job it was to guard the President of the United States and his family. CRAIG advised he has no way to tell whether STEVENS is telling the truth or whether he is fabricating another story to make him appear important.

On December 9, 1963, Mr. CRAIG advised FRANCIS M. STEVENS was out of town on business and was not due to return until December 13, 1963.

On December 14, 1963, FRANCIS MICHAEL STEVENS, 1507 Martin, Anchorage, Alaska, advised that in the spring of 1943 he was in the United States Army and was assigned to the Coast Artillery on Umnak Island, Alaska. In the spring of 1943 he was transferred to Camp Haan, California, and in connection with the transfer he was given some leave, which he decided to spend in the Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minnesota, area.

He advised that during the travel to Minnesota, he met an individual, a member of the United States Army who was also assigned to a unit on the Aleutian Chain of Alaska, by the name of HAROLD PERKINS. PERKINS was en route to Minneapolis for leave in connection with a transfer. During this common travel to Minnesota they became acquainted and agreed to get together one night in Minneapolis while both were on leave. It was decided to celebrate in Minneapolis inasmuch as PERKINS had a relative who operated a nightclub there.

He stated that as planned, PERKINS called him in St. Paul, where he was staying, and he and his fiancee joined PERKINS and his wife and a group of PERKINS' relatives and an evening was spent together at the Happy Hour Club in Minneapolis. The entire evening was spent at the Happy Hour Club, where he met not only relatives of PERKINS, but numerous friends whom PERKINS called over to their table and to whom PERKINS introduced him. The names of any of PERKINS' relatives and friends he met that night are unrecalled due to the passage of time. He stated that nothing unusual occurred that evening at the Happy Hour Club.

He advised that subsequently and while on leave in the St. Paul and Minneapolis area in 1943, he mentioned to various neighbors and friends of the evening spent with PERKINS at the Happy Hour Club. He stated that he was informed by several that the PERKINS family were considered to be of the "underworld" type and that the Happy Hour Club was owned by a member of the PERKINS family. He stated he had no knowledge of this when he attended the Happy Hour Club.

He advised he has not seen HAROLD PERKINS since that time. He advised, however, that in approximately 1949 or 1950 he frequented the Gay Nineties Club in Minneapolis. He does not recall at this time how he became aware that a brother of HAROLD PERKINS was operating the Gay Nineties when he entered the Club. He suggested that he may have remembered the brother from 1943 or he may have asked a waitress or his name may have appeared on the menu. In any event, he sought out PERKINS, whose first name is unrecalled, and asked him about HAROLD PERKINS. As he recalled, he received a very evasive answer and it was that HAROLD PERKINS was in Texas.

He subsequently learned, how and when remains unrecalled, that HAROLD PERKINS was also known as HAROLD PERKANSKI or HAROLD PERKINSKI, and he believes that PERKINS is a shortened version of his right name.

He advised the Happy Hour Club no longer exists and believes that it burned down several years ago.

STEVENS advised that he attended the University of Minnesota from 1946 to 1950 when he graduated. Following graduation, he worked for the Hennipan County Welfare Board in Minneapolis for approximately one and a half years as a child welfare worker. After this he was employed as a Child Welfare Consultant for the State of Minnesota for approximately one and a half years. Following this, he was employed as a Business Representative for the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees Union, District Council 3, in Minneapolis.

He advised that in the capacity of Business Representative for this union, he spent a great deal of time in the courthouse in Minneapolis. Further, he had frequent contact with union officials of other unions. In addition, he had frequent contact with politicians, as well as other influential people in the City of Minneapolis. He advised that he was infrequently in the company of sordid characters, who operated nightclubs in Minneapolis.

STEVENS advised that following the assassination of the late President of the United States, JOHN F. KENNEDY, and the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK RUBY in Dallas, Texas, the name and photograph of RUBY appeared on television. He advised his reaction was that he had either seen RUBY or knew RUBY by name. He advised further the name of RUBENSTEIN also sounded familiar. He advised that he has no specific recollection of being introduced to RUBY, but believes RUBY's name and photograph are so familiar to him to make him believe that somewhere and someplace he has seen RUBY, but he cannot place the event. He stated that in his efforts to remember the circumstances, he can only recall two periods of time when it would have been possible to have known RUBY. One occasion was in 1943 when he and HAROLD PERKINS spent the evening at the Happy Hour Club in Minneapolis and where he met numerous relatives and friends of PERKINS, and the other possible period of time was when he was employed as the Business Representative of the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees Union, District Council 3, Minneapolis.

He advised that since first observing RUBY's photograph on television, he has given it much thought and he just cannot place exactly where and when he may have met RUBY.

He stated that it has been several years since he has resided in the Minneapolis area, and he believes there are two people there who could probably state whether RUBY was ever in Minneapolis. They are EDWARD RYAN, Sheriff, Hennipan County, Minnesota, who was sheriff during 1953, 1954, and 1955, and is still sheriff, and MILES LORD, Assistant United States Attorney, Minneapolis. As he recalled, LORD made a reputation prosecuting racketeers and is, therefore, familiar with that element in Minneapolis and could possibly know whether JACK RUBY ever resided, worked or had any interests in Minneapolis.

STEVENS recalled the name of ISADORE BLUMENFIELD, Minneapolis, as a man reputedly involved in the rackets. As he recalled, it was rumored that BLUMENFIELD was connected with the PERKINS element and it was rumored that BLUMENFIELD controlled or had an interest in the various nightclubs and had influence with liquor licenses. STEVENS could not recall his sources for the information concerning BLUMENFIELD. STEVENS believes that BLUMENFIELD may at this time be confined in a penitentiary.

STEVENS advised that his wife's brother, JEROME P. DOLAN, is a member of the United States Secret Service and is assigned to Omaha, Nebraska. He advised he has most infrequent correspondence with the DOLAN family. He stated he has never been advised by DOLAN or any other family member of the current assignments of DOLAN. He stated that through his mother-in-law he heard that DOLAN has had assignments to guard the children of the late President of the United States, JOHN F. KENNEDY, and had had an assignment to protect President LYNDON B. JOHNSON's family when JOHNSON was Vice President of the United States or when he was a senator. He reiterated he has never been apprised of a current assignment of DOLAN's and it is usually months later that his mother-in-law will write and mention where DOLAN had been.

STEVENS advised that he did not mention to any staff member of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Anchorage, that he knew RUBY. He explained that he mentioned that RUBY's photograph appeared familiar and he believed that it was RUBY he met in Minneapolis in either 1943 or the early 1950's.

He advised that should he recall any additional information, he would immediately notify the FBI.

HAROLD TANNENBAUM, Tropical Motel Trailer Park, Chef Menteur Highway advised that he and JOE SAVARIN were attempting to go into business together during the early Summer of 1963 as they were going to form a booking agency for Biloxi, Mississippi and New Orleans. TANNENBAUM said that inasmuch as he was the manager of the Old French Opera House in New Orleans at that time, he could not openly be a partner with SAVARIN as an operator of a night club cannot also be a booking agent. He said SAVARIN's office, as best he can recall, was at that time 1230 Maison Blanche Building, New Orleans. He said to the best of his knowledge, JOE SAVARIN met with JACK RUBY only one time and that was the first night that he, TANNENBAUM, met RUBY at the Old French Opera House in the Spring of 1963. He stated to the best of his knowledge, SAVARIN never again met with RUBY.

TANNENBAUM said that inasmuch as he was going into business with SAVARIN in New Orleans, he did use telephone number 524-4322 to make calls to RUBY as he was also dickering to go to work for RUBY at one of RUBY's night clubs in Dallas.

He said the name JACK MITCHELL and the name BOB WEAVER are not familiar to him and he does not believe he has ever met them.

He said the address 225 Baronne Street, Suite 210 is not familiar to him.

The name ISAIAH ROUNDS, 1816 Iberville Street is not familiar to him at all.

GRAHAM M. BRANHAM, Engineer, Manson Laboratories, Stamford, Connecticut, was interviewed while visiting in the home of his father, R. C. BRANHAM, Woodland Point, Belton, Texas.

BRANHAM advised that during approximately 1960 while he was employed for Collins Radio Corporation in Dallas, he and a friend, AMOS JACOBS, owner of the Vagabond Club at 2219 Greenville Avenue, went to the Sovereign Club located across the street from the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas. This club had just opened, and JACOBS was anxious for BRANHAM to meet the owner. JACOBS introduced BRANHAM to the manager of the Sovereign Club and was given a membership in the club. BRANHAM returned to this club one time on a later date, but he continued to receive notice of dues which he ignored and apparently was dropped from membership.

He related that he thought he met the original owner of the Sovereign Club which may have been JACK L. RUBY. However, he stated he does not remember RUBY as the person whom he met in company with JACOBS, but recalls that he saw RUBY in the club. BRANHAM advised he has no further contact with the Sovereign Club or JACK L. RUBY; that he knows nothing about RUBY's background and past activities, and had no knowledge of any connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

RE: ROBERT M. ERSKINE

The following investigation was conducted by SA PAUL W. HUCKERIEDE:

AT HOUSTON, TEXAS

On December 24, 1963, ROBERT M. ERSKINE, Division Manager, Continental-Emsco, Humble Building, Houston, whose home address is 12150 Tera, Houston 24, Texas, was interviewed in his office. ERSKINE advised that he met JACK RUBY in 1958 or 1959 when RUBY came to the office of Continental-Emsco in Dallas and attempted to solicit executives of that business to purchase memberships in one of his clubs. ERSKINE advised he saw RUBY on approximately three or four occasions, but he never purchased a membership. He advised that finally he was given a membership to the club as were several other executives at Continental-Emsco and on two or three occasions he went to the club. ERSKINE does not recall the name of this club, however, it was on the second floor of the building and across the street from the "Adolphus". ERSKINE advised he saw RUBY on the two or three occasions he was in his club and probably spoke to him on two or three occasions commenting on the entertainment or talk of that nature.

ERSKINE advised he has not been to one of RUBY's clubs or has not seen RUBY for probably over two years. ERSKINE advised he had no knowledge of any of RUBY's friends or activities and to his knowledge he had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD. ERSKINE advised he was transferred from the Dallas office of Continental-Emsco to the Houston office on May 20, 1963.

Mr. HUGH D. GRANBERRY, Belt Line Road, Garland, Texas, furnished the following information:

Mr. GRANBERRY, an employee of Mobil Oil Company, in approximately 1960 received telephone calls and brochures from the operators of the Sovereign Club. He seemed to recall that at that time the Sovereign Club was in its initial stages, as it had only recently opened. At that time, the Sovereign Club was attempting to gain new members. GRANBERRY stated he joined the Sovereign Club with the intention of using it as a club where he could take clients and friends for luncheon.

To the best of Mr. GRANBERRY's recollection, he attended or was in the Sovereign Club on one occasion. He stated that, shortly after attending the Sovereign Club, the club closed. He did not know JACK RUBY, nor did he know LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated he had no information or knowledge pertaining to any association or acquaintance between OSWALD and RUBY.

DOROTHY JANE HOLMAN, interviewed at H. S. Riggs Accounting Firm, advised she is presently teaching and working on her doctorate degree at Kansas University, Lawrence, Kansas.

HOLMAN advised she had been a charter member of the Sovereign Club, which had been a private club, started by JACK RUBY. HOLMAN advised that in 1960 she had been living in Dallas, Texas, and going to school in Denton, Texas, at North Texas State University, working on her Master's degree in Political Science. She advised she saw an ad in one of the Dallas newspapers advertising the Sovereign Club and answered the ad, asking for more information.

HOLMAN advised a man called her, identifying himself as "Mr. RUBENSTEIN", and made the final arrangements for her membership in the club. She advised she went to the club several times, taking friends with her, and it was her opinion that RUBY's club was one of the best run she had ever seen.

HOLMAN advised she met JACK RUBY only once or twice at the door of the club and she had never noticed any trouble at the club, except for a few parties getting too loud. She stated further she had never noticed anyone serving as a bouncer or manager other than RUBY, and she had never heard of any connection between RUBY and any of the policemen in the city of Dallas.

HOLMAN further advised she knew of no relationship between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never heard of OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES F. GLONEK at Dallas:

DALLAS TEXAS

The name WILFORD JACKSON, 4106 Esmalda, appeared among RUBY's property as a former employee at one of his clubs.

On December 17, 1963, investigation in the vicinity of 4106 Esmalda reflected that this is a very run down dilapidated neighborhood and that the house at 4106 appeared to be deserted with a portion of the roof removed.

DALLAS, TEXAS

On December 17, 1963, Mrs. JOHNNIE MAE MITCHELL, 4114 Esmalda, advised that a part of the roof of Mr. JACKSON's house blew off in a heavy wind last October and she has only seen him around there one time since then. She had no idea as to where he might be staying now or who he might be staying with.

She was advised that it appeared Mr. JACKSON had formerly worked for JACK RUBY in the past. She advised she was not acquainted with JACK RUBY and was not familiar with events relating to the assassination of President KENNEDY and the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

She advised she doubted very seriously that JACKSON ever worked for any length of time for anyone during the past few years as he never appeared to have any steady employment. He appeared to get what little money he needed to live on primarily from going out and mowing lawns.

She was not acquainted with JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD, knew of no association between these two men of any possible involvement of other individuals with these two men in the shootings.

DOUGLAS J. MILLER, 2408 South Dundee, Tampa, Florida, appeared at the Tampa Office for interview. Mr. MILLER stated in 1956 or 1957 he was the Division Sales Manager for the Joseph Schlitz Brewing Company, Dallas, Texas.

Mr. MILLER said that when he was in the above position at that time, JACK L. RUBY appeared in his office one day, accompanied by another individual, whom Mr. MILLER could not further identify. At this time, RUBY introduced himself, and explained that he was soliciting trial memberships in the Sovereign Supper Club, which he was organizing in downtown Dallas. RUBY said that he had a list of prominent Dallas business and professional men who were already members, and he wanted to add Mr. MILLER's name to the list. The membership cost nothing, so Mr. MILLER accepted the invitation. Thereafter, Mr. JACK L. RUBY left Mr. MILLER's office.

Mr. MILLER said that during the next several weeks, he went to the Sovereign Supper Club for dinner on several occasions with his wife, and found that the food and entertainment were of the highest caliber. On these occasions, JACK L. RUBY, acting as the genial host, came to his table, and chatted for a few mements, generally asking about the food and the service. Mr. MILLER said he had no further contact with RUBY, and had the impression that RUBY had high aspirations for the success of the Sovereign Supper Club. Mr. MILLER added that at the end of six months, the trial membership ended, and he did not take out a permanent membership.

Mr. MILLER said further that he had no information concerning any other contacts made by RUBY, and knew nothing else about him.

On December 24, 1963, Miss ROSE ALICE PALMER, 3812 Heywood Street, advised that she is the ticket agent for Delta Airlines at Greater Southwest Airport. Miss PALMER advised she recalls that about three to four years past, a passenger, name not recalled, gave her a complimentary dinner for two at a private club or key-type club in Dallas. She said that she does not recall the name of the club and did not use this pass. She said further that she recalls the club was located in downtown Dallas, but cannot recall the address or name of the club.

Miss PALMER said further that several weeks later she received in the mail a membership from this same club, but did not use it and never went to the club. She said that she threw this membership away at the time she received it.

Miss PALMER said that to her knowledge, she has never been to a club owned or operated by JACK RUBY. She said she does not know JACK RUBY and did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

He had known JACK RUBY for approximately three years and had met him at the time he joined a club owned by RUBY, which club was across the street from the Adolphus Hotel on Commerce Street in Dallas. He could not recall the name of this club but knew RUBY owned it and also knew that RUBY had owned several clubs in that particular area.

His only connection with RUBY was through the membership he had in this club, and the reason he joined the club was to be able to have a place to drink. He recalled the card cost him $50.00 and that he made use of the card.

He knew nothing concerning RUBY's background except that he was apparently a "man about town" who knew a great many people. In that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he knew of no association or connection between JACK RUBY and OSWALD.

He stated that approximately two or three years ago he had a business on Knox Street called the Campbell's Appliances and could recall meeting RUBY at STARK's place of business. Although he could not recall the exact circumstances regarding the meeting, he advised that RUBY asked him to join his club, called the Sovereign Club, and explained that he thereafter joined the club. He described the Sovereign Club as being a social night club and was of the opinion it was patronized by several of the nicer people in Dallas. STARK went on to say that he visited the Sovereign Club on only one or two occasions and could not recall ever engaging in any lengthy conversations with RUBY. His acquaintanceship with RUBY was strictly a casual one and he could recall seeing RUBY for the last time around February of 1962.

STARK was unable to furnish any background information regarding friends or associates of RUBY and stated that he never discussed any type of politics with RUBY at any time.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to him prior to the assassination and he knew of no connection whatsoever between RUBY and OSWALD. He knew of nothing that would connect RUBY with any of the police authorities in Dallas and stated that he never saw any of the local policemen in RUBY's clubs, to the best of his knowledge.

At that time these apartments were owned by a man by the name of LAVAZORRIO of Chicago, Illinois, who subsequently sold them to JACK STEELE, now manager of Lemon Wood Apartments in Dallas. Apartment No. 5020 was rented to two young men by the names of JOHN and DON, last names not recalled, but who were from St. Louis, Missouri. These young men began selling membership in the Sovereign Club, a supper club located near the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. WHITING bought membership in the club for a period of three months for $12.50.

WHITING related that he and his wife attended the Sovereign Club only twice during 1960 and 1961, and on one occasion they were accompanied by DON, JOHN, and GERRY DAMON, 3511 Travis Street, Dallas. They were introduced to JACK RUBY, the manager, during their first visit to the club, but have had no further contact with him. WHITING informed he did not know anything about RUBY and had no knowledge of any association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. SIDNEY G. WHITING, JR., 1916 Windsor, Waco, Texas, whose husband is District Sales Manager for Dodge Division of Chrysler Motors, advised that she and her husband have lived in Waco since May, 1963, and previously had resided in Dallas. During August to December, 1960, they were managers of the Wedgwood Apartments, 5018-5022 San Jacinto Street in Dallas, at which time these apartments were owned by a man by the name of LAVAZORRIO of Chicago, Illinois. Subsequently the apartment building was sold to JACK STEELE, now manager of Lemmon Wood Apartments in Dallas, and the transaction was handled by JACK S. COLE, an Attorney in Dallas. However, she informed there were no permanent records of the tenants maintained.

Mrs. WHITING related that Apartment No. 5020 of the Wedgwood Apartments during the latter part of 1960 was rented to two young men by the names of JOHN and DON, last names not recalled, who were from St. Louis, Missouri. These two young men sold membership in the Sovereign Club, a supper club owned by JACK RUBY. Mr. and Mrs. WHITING bought membership in the club for a period of three months for $12.50.

Mrs. WHITING related she and her husband attended the Sovereign Club only on two occasions during 1960 and 1961, and on the first occasion they were introduced to JACK RUBY, the manager, but had no further contact with him. On one occasion they were accompanied to the club by DON, JOHN, and GERRY DAMON, 3511 Travis Street, Dallas. Mrs. WHITING advised she did not know anything about RUBY and had no knowledge of any association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. BOB YARBOROUGH, 4608 Columbia Street, was apprised of the fact that the effects of JACK RUBY revealed that he was a member of one of RUBY's clubs. YARBOROUGH explained this as follows:

He advised that several years ago he joined the Sovereign Club located at the present site of the Carousel Club on Commerce Street. He stated that this was a private club operated by JACK RUBY.

YARBOROUGH stated that he did not use his membership on many occasions and that the club closed in a matter of months after its opening.

YARBOROUGH stated that he could furnish no information of value as pertains to RUBY inasmuch as he had little or no contact with him during the period that he attended the Sovereign Club.

He advised that he knows of no association between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

BILLY JAMES BAKER, 1012 Miranda Drive, Mesquite, Texas, advised that he is employed with the Fire Department, Station Number 3, located at 500 North Oakland Avenue, Telephone FR 4-2380, and stated that it would be logical for RUBY to have the telephone number of Fire Station # 3 in his address book.

He explained this by saying he had worked for JACK RUBY for a short period of time, mostly on weekends, sometime around 1960, and could recall RUBY calling him on a few occasions at Fire Station # 3. He went on to say that he first met RUBY around 1955 or 1956 at the Vegas Club and that he used to patronize the Vegas Club strictly as a social entertainment. After becoming fairly well acquainted with RUBY, BAKER stated that he began working as a ticket collector at the Vegas Club as a part-time job, and was never a permanent-type employee of RUBY's. During this period, his association with RUBY was strictly that of employee - employer relationship, and he stated that he had never associated socially with RUBY. He could offer no background information concerning RUBY, but expressed the fact that RUBY had several friends in the Dallas area.

BAKER did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination, and could offer nothing that would connect RUBY and OSWALD in any manner whatsoever. He knew of no connection that RUBY may have had with the Dallas Police Department.

LUVESTA ALFRED BELL, 1601 E. 7th, Austin, Texas, furnished the following information:

He is employed as a waiter in the dining room at St. Edward's University, Austin, Texas, and has lived in Austin for about six months since moving from Dallas, Texas, where he was formerly employed as a waiter at the Sheraton Hotel.

BELL stated that he was also formerly employed as a drummer in the band of ROBERT MOSS at the Vegas Club in Dallas, Texas, from about 1953 to 1955 when he went to Chicago. In about 1958 he returned to Dallas and went to work as a drummer in the band of JOE JOHNSON at the Vegas Club in Dallas. He observed a photograph of JACK RUBY whom he recognized as the manager of the Vegas Club. BELL advised that when he first worked at the Vegas Club, RUBY was there most of the time; however, during the period he worked there the second time, RUBY's sister, EVE, seemed to be in charge and it was because of a disagreement that BELL had with EVE that he terminated his employment at the Vegas Club. He explained that one night his car was disabled and a girl friend of his took him to the club and intended to wait for him there. She had been in the club on previous occasions but on that particular night she was refused admittance by EVE, for no apparent reason other than that she was colored, as is BELL. BELL decided that if EVE was not going to admit his girl friend, he would rather not work there, and he resigned. He stated that RUBY did not know his girl friend, but was apparently aware of the circumstances surrounding BELL's resignation. BELL added that he saw RUBY once late in 1961 after he resigned from his job at the Vegas Club and that RUBY was pleasant to him and apparently did not bear any grudge against BELL.

BELL stated that he recalled that RUBY was at times quick-tempered but was almost always friendly to BELL. He stated that in spite of RUBY's temper, he never imagined that RUBY would have been the type to kill anyone. He also recalled that RUBY had a gun of some kind but he could not describe it and did not recall RUBY ever displaying the gun or threatening anyone with it. BELL stated that his first impression upon learning that RUBY had shot OSWALD was that RUBY had done it to gain recognition or publicity. He added that he never discussed politics with RUBY but was of the opinion that RUBY was fond of President KENNEDY.

BELL observed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated that he did not recognize the photograph as that of anyone he had ever seen in the Vegas Club or as an associate of RUBY's. He could not recall any reference to OSWALD prior to what he has read of OSWALD in connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY.

BELL advised that as he recalled, RUBY was proud of his association with Dallas police officers and he recalled that on occasion there would be several police officers in uniform at the Vegas Club and that they would also attend the club in civilian clothes but he was able to recognize them because he had seen them there in uniform previously. He could not furnish the names of any police officers he had seen in the Vegas Club and did not know of any that RUBY spoke of in particular.

BELL stated that he received a speeding ticket in Dallas, and RUBY appeared with him before the judge and interceded in BELL's behalf, claiming that BELL could not afford to pay a fine because he, RUBY, did not pay him enough to allow him to afford such an extra expense. BELL stated that he was fined $10.00 instead of $25.00. He also recalled that he received a traffic ticket in Dallas on another occasion and mentioned it to RUBY who told him that he would take care of it. BELL advised that he gave RUBY the ticket and did not ever find out what happened to it. He added that he did not know if RUBY paid the fine himself or was able to make other arrangements to avoid a penalty.

BELL added that RUBY was well acquainted with many police officers in Dallas and although BELL did not have any specific knowledge concerning the subject, he opined that RUBY was probably able to enter the Dallas Police Department unchallenged because of his acquaintance with members of the department and was then able to get to the area where OSWALD was being transferred for transportation to the County Jail at which time he was shot.

BELL asserted that although he worked for RUBY as a drummer in the band for about four years, he did not become well acquainted with RUBY and did not establish a close social relationship with him. BELL also stated that he heard that RUBY had another club in Dallas but that he, BELL, never attended the other club.

BELL suggested that another band member, JAMES DOTSON, also known as "PIG", a bass fiddle player, worked at the Vegas Club for a long period of time and would be likely to be familiar with the identities of regular patrons and friends of RUBY.

ROGER BLACKMAR, 4005 Southwest Boulevard, Dallas, whose name, as ROGER BLACKMAN, was furnished by EDWARD NELSON BERNET as being formerly employed by RUBY as a musician, furnished the following information:

BLACKMAR advised that he met JACK RUBY during the early part of 1953, at which time he began employment by RUBY at the Sovereign Club, playing in a combo known as the "Cell Block 7". He played the bass fiddle and the combo played on Friday and Saturday evenings. The combo was under the direction of EDWARD NELSON BERNET. This employment lasted until the latter part of 1955 and they resumed their employment for several months during the early part of 1961 but this time they used the name "Dixieland" as the name for the combo.

BLACKMAR stated that his acquaintance with RUBY is limited to the business association as described above and has not seen or talked to RUBY since 1961. He stated that he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never received any information indicating a relationship or acquaintance between RUBY and OSWALD.

He added that he has no information concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of OSWALD on the part of RUBY.

He worked for RUBY for a period of two or three weeks in August, 1961. He said he had a friend, "DUKE" STEVENSON, who was a drummer in the band at the Carousel Club and, when the position of pianist in the Carousel became available, STEVENSON suggested him for the job.

CARROLL advised he had very little personal contact with RUBY. He said he did not particularly like RUBY as he appeared to be very excitable and emotional. He said he never had any trouble with RUBY personally and does not know of anyone who did have trouble with him.

CARROLL advised he never knew RUBY to carry a gun; however, he seems to recall someone mentioning that RUBY did have a job and was supposedly connected with the Mafia or Syndicate.

CARROLL advised he does not ever recall seeing LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the Carousel Club, or in the company of RUBY. He said the first time he recalls seeing OSWALD is when he viewed him on television after the assassination of President KENNEDY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA RALPH E. RAWLINGS:

AT DALLAS, TEXAS:

Investigation was conducted to locate BETTY CARTER, 5034 Hall Street, a former employee at one of RUBY's clubs, as follows:

L. A. TABBS, Manager, Statler Terrace Apartments, which includes the address 5034 Hall Street, advised he could find no record of BETTY CARTER having been an occupant at 5034 Hall Street, Dallas, although he admitted his records are in such a condition that an accurate check is not possible.

On December 18, 1963, records of the Retail Merchants Credit Association reflect BETTY CARTER, 5034 Hall Street, with a business address of Park Cities Bank and Trust Co., Dallas, Texas, was in their records as of October 1960.

Contact at the Park Cities Bank and Trust Co., Dallas, Texas, reflected Miss CARTER had never been employed by this bank but operated a travel agency in the bank space for one Dr. CHARLES YATES, 3505 Turtle Creek, Dallas.

On December 19, 1963, Dr. CHARLES YATES advised that BETTY JEAN CARTER left Dallas two or three years ago and when he last heard from her she was living in Houston, Texas. He advised he believes she is married, but he does not know her married name.

On December 19, 1963, a forwarding address for BETTY JEAN CARTER could not be found in the files of postal authorities, Dallas, Texas.

On December 20, 1963, LEE SMITH, Iberia Airlines, 530 West Sixth Street, Dallas, advised BETTY JEAN CARTER has been gone from Dallas at least two years and has been residing in Houston, Texas. She believed Miss CARTER is now married, but she does not know her married name. When she last heard from her, she was working at the Patricia Stevens Modeling School.

On December 19, 1963, BETTY HUCKABEE, Pan Pacific International Tours, 211 North Ervay, telephone RI 1-5118, advised that she has not heard of BETTY CARTER in some time and has no idea of her current name or address.

JAMES DONALD CHUMLEY, 3435 Cedar Springs, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

At the time the Sovereign Club opened in approximately late 1959 or 1960, CHUMLEY was employed at the Sovereign Club as a waiter. He worked at the Sovereign Club for three or four nights when the club first opened. During the period of his employment, CHUMLEY made arrangements for the rental of a piano for the club. When he approached the management for money to pay for the rental of the piano, they refused him his request. He stated he then quit the club and shortly thereafter returned to Lubbock, Texas, his hometown, and entered college. CHUMLEY stated that he returned to the Dallas area in approximately 1963.

CHUMLEY advised that during the period he was a member of the Sovereign Club he may have known JACK RUBY at that time; however, he is not certain. He stated he has no knowledge of any personal acquaintances of RUBY and, at this time, he would consider himself not to be a personal acquaintance of RUBY, due to the lapse of time since his employment at the Sovereign Club. He advised he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he had no information or knowledge of any acquaintance or association between OSWALD and RUBY.

JOEY GERARD, Room 432, Baltimore Hotel, stated he is in show business as a master of ceremonies, singer, and comedian and can always be located through contact with his agent, MIKE RAFF, St. Louis, Missouri.

GERARD stated he has known JACK RUBY since May, 1961, and in terms of actual contact has been with him about five months. He said he worked as master of ceremonies at the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, for JACK RUBY on three separate occasions. Another occasion in December, 1961, he worked for RUBY as a bartender at the Carousel Club.

GERARD said the last time he worked for JACK RUBY was in January, 1962, when he appeared at the Carousel Club for two weeks. Since this time he saw RUBY about three times when he would drop in at the Carousel Club to see the show, at which time he would also talk with RUBY. The last time he saw JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club on such an occasion was in the latter part of April, 1962.

GERARD said on the previous evening he studied a photograph of OSWALD which appeared in a current magazine and is positive he never saw OSWALD in the Carousel Club. He said to determine whether or not OSWALD was acquainted with RUBY contact should be made with RUBY's close associates named BUDDY KING and JIMMY RHODES.

BUDDY KING is a former entertainer and in 1961 was employed by JACK RUBY as Manager at the Carousel Club. GERARD was unable to furnish KING's current whereabouts, but said he heard in 1962 that he was "fronting" a night club in Dallas, Texas. He explained "fronting" is a show business term for a person who runs a night club for a person who actually has the license. He also explained that by "fronting" he means a person who operates a night club and tries to give the appearance of owning it when actually he does not.

GERARD said JIMMY RHODES was a photographer for JACK RUBY and helped him set up the lighting and staging at the Carousel Club. RHODES currently resides at 1022 Mulberry, Sulphur Springs, Texas, telephone TU 5-4323.

by SA EDWARD M. MORELAND:jc Date dictated 12/19/63

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

GERARD described BUDDY KING and JIMMY RHODES as individuals who "busted out" of the entertainment racket. He said JACK RUBY liked to surround himself with these type of persons.

GERARD said JACK RUBY was a very "erratic" type of individual and was "given to having fits of temper". GERARD said three or four times nightly he recalled RUBY would become very angry and would shout, using very profane and verbally abusive language. These outbursts usually occurred as a result of arguments with waitresses and bartenders who RUBY would accuse of stealing or not performing their duties satisfactorily.

GERARD said in the five months contact with JACK RUBY he only saw him actually "lay his hands" on one person. This situation occurred when the band leader and trumpet player named FRANK FISHER came into the Carousel Club in an intoxicated condition. RUBY refused to allow FISHER to go on stage and when FISHER insisted RUBY grabbed him and pushed him toward the door. GERARD said FISHER currently resides at 2377 Dalworth, Apartment 103, Grand Prairie, Texas.

GERARD related that JACK RUBY especially disliked his sister, EVA, and every time she came to the Carousel Club a loud argument between the two would usually ensue. EVA operated another club either owned by RUBY or partly owned by him.

Concerning RUBY's acquaintance and association with police officers, GERARD said that uniformed officers were always in the Carousel Club at the end of the bar. RUBY always had a pot of coffee at the bar and the officers would congregate there. GERARD said he remembered a Lieutenant JOHN TONY, a plain-clothes detective of the Dallas Police Department, was frequently in the club. He estimated that Lieutenant TONY would be in the Carousel Club two or three times weekly either off duty or on duty. On a number of occasions he observed Lieutenant TONY come into the Carousel Club with a group of persons and have a small party and see the show.

JACK RUBY always had a special price for police officers and other close friends of his and would sell beer and setups to these individuals at approximately his cost.

GERARD said he vaguely remembered seeing the late officer TIPPETT at the club but was unable to furnish details or be positive about this.

GERARD said he was aware that RUBY had a revolver in his desk at the Carousel Club inasmuch as on one occasion he saw it. He never remembered ever seeing RUBY carrying a gun.

GERARD remembered that frequently JACK RUBY went to the Dallas Police Station for the purpose of getting FRANK FISHER out of jail. GERARD explained FISHER would usually be in jail on a drunk charge. He remembered this jail was near the Post Office in downtown Dallas.

GERARD also stated that he remembered JACK RUBY was very strict concerning any acts or jokes pertaining to either religion or politics. GERARD said RUBY especially resented any jokes pertaining to the Jewish religion.

GERARD said he remembered that he was the master of ceremonies when SYRA, an exotic dancer, whose stage name is "The Dutch Doll" first played at the Carousel Club.

GERARD was unable to furnish any information concerning any association with JACK RUBY and subversive elements or membership in any type of "extremist" organizations.

He stated that he has been a singer and comedian, but is presently in partnership with his father in the insurance business.

He stated that he was employed as a singer and comedian by JACK RUBY, at the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas for approximately four or five weeks in May or June, 1961, the exact dates unrecalled. During this period of employment he resided at a hotel, the exact name and location unrecalled.

While employed by RUBY he was friendly with RUBY, and occasionally took his meals with him. He reported that during this employment and social meetings with RUBY, their conversations dealt primarily with the night club business and the field of entertainment.

He stated that at no time did RUBY mention the name LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Further, RUBY did not mention or discuss politics, or his feelings toward the late President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

He continued that in approximately September or October, 1962 he was a singer and comedian with the Chuck Cabot Orchestra and during this employment, played an engagement at the Sheridan Hotel, Dallas, Texas for a grocer's, or food convention of some kind.

Since last seeing RUBY in September or October, 1962, he reported that RUBY has talked to him on two or three occasions by long distance telephone, one time being November 6, 1963.

During this conversation, and those earlier made, RUBY requested him to make a return engagement at the Carousel as a comedian. He stated that other entertainment, and business commitments have always interfered with his accepting RUBY'S offers.

He stated that RUBY kept a gun in his desk at the Carousel, but he never knew or saw RUBY carrying a firearm.

He continued that RUBY, in his opinion, was a temperamental person, but not violent in nature.

He stated that he was very surprised and shocked when he heard that RUBY was formally charged with the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

JIMMIE JACKSON, 1301 Diseman, Dallas, Telephone WH 1-4460, whose name, address, and date notation appeared as a former employee of one of JACK RUBY's clubs, was contacted, at which time he furnished the following information:

He advised that he first met JACK RUBY sometime around 1958 or 1959, at the Sovereign Club in Dallas, which he described as being a local night club owned and operated by JACK RUBY. He could not recall the exact circumstances surrounding the meeting of RUBY, but shortly after their acquaintance began, he, JACKSON, started working for RUBY as a janitor at the Sovereign Club. Although he could not recall exact dates that he had worked for RUBY, he estimated that it was from 1959 to early part of 1961. His association with RUBY during this period was strictly that of employee-employer relationship and stated that he could offer very little information pertaining to the type of individual RUBY was. He always regarded RUBY as being a good employer.

JACKSON was unable to furnish any background information regarding RUBY and knew of no close associates. He stated that he had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and possessed no information whatsoever that would possibly connect RUBY and OSWALD.

JACKSON was of the opinion that there was no connection between RUBY and OSWALD inasmuch as he had never seen OSWALD either at the Sovereign Club or in RUBY's presence at any time. He stated that working as a janitor in the Sovereign Club, he became somewhat familiar with the various members and could not recall ever having seen OSWALD enter the club.

JACKSON was unable to furnish any pertient information pertaining either to the assassination or the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He also advised that he knew of no association whatsoever between RUBY and any member of the Dallas Police Department; and knew of no one who was a member of the Dallas Police Department who worked for RUBY at any time.

He explained that he formerly resided in Dallas, Texas, at 3031 Congress Street for approximately a two year period during 1960 and 1961. During this time, he was employed by the Dallas Museum of Contemporary Arts in Dallas.

During his above employment he used to purchase his art supplies from the Asel Art Supply Store in Dallas and while in that store on one occasion one of the store employees, known to him as "Frenchie", told him if he was interested in working in a night club as a waiter, he could earn from $50.00 to $100.00 per night. "Frenchie" told him he, "Frenchie", and another Asel Employee worked nights as waiters at the Soverign Club, downtown Dallas, and if Komodore would contact the maitre d' at that club, Komodore would probably be employed as a waiter.

Komodore subsequently went to the Soverign Club, address not recalled, where he was interviewed by the maitre d' and hired as a night waiter at that club. When he reported for work, the maitre d' informed him he would not be paid a salary but would received 15 per cent of the amount of the checks from tables he served. He was also shown a guest list of approximately 30 or more names that would be guests of the club and would not be required to pay for their meals or drinks.

Komodore worked all night the first night and when he finished his work wanted to collect his pay but was told by the maitre d' he did not have any pay due him because all the customers he served were on the guest list and did not have to pay their checks. Komodore's protests were of no avail and he received no pay for the night's work. Because of this he worked at above club only that one night.

During the night he worked at above club, the maitre d' pointed out a man at one of the tables, stating that this man was the boss and Komodore was to be the waiter for that table. The individual pointed out as the boss was sitting at the table with a girl and Komodore served them. Komodore could not recall having heard the boss's name and could described him only as short and well-dressed. Komodore further related he has seen pictures of Jack Ruby on television and in newspapers; however, due to the lapse of time and the fact the interior of the club was extremely dark, he could not say whether or not the above individual described as the boss was Jack Ruby. Komodore stated it would only be an assumption on his part, since apparently someone believes that he was at one time an employee of Ruby, that the boss he served at the club would possibly have been Jack Ruby. He could think of no other possible connection he would have had with Ruby.

According to Komodore "Frenchie" had said that above club was the only place in Dallas that could serve mixed drinks to tables and this was possible only because the club had a deal with the District Attorney. "Frenchie" also told him that the District Attorney's name was on above mentioned guest list and further this list contained mostly names of city officials.

Komodore described the Soverign Club as being very exclusive, stating that the silverware was apparently so expensive that the waiters were required to sign for all the silverware they used at their respective tables. He did not, however, like the atmosphere of the club and because of what "Frenchie" had told him, got the definite impression the club was being operated illegally.

In conclusion, Komodore said that unless above mentioned boss of the club was in fact Jack Ruby, or the Soverign Club was owned by Ruby, then to his knowledge he has never met nor seen Ruby nor been employed by him, and could furnish no information concerning him, his associates or friends.

MARY LORENE O'NEAL, 3020 Nebraska Avenue, advised she left Dallas, Texas, during the month of November 1963, exact date unrecalled, and came to Southgate, California, with one JIM PAZ and NORMA BARNETT PEREZ.

O'NEAL related while in Dallas, Texas, she was living at the Bryant Hotel on Bryant Street, and that she answered an ad in one of the Dallas newspapers which ad was for cocktail waitresses at the Carousel night club. She advised she went to the Carousel for interview and was employed by JACK RUBY, the owner, as a cocktail waitress, she believed during the latter part of October 1963. She stated that she worked at the Carousel for approximately five to seven days as a cocktail waitress, did not like the work and quit this job in order to come to Southgate, California. She stated her dealings with JACK RUBY were very limited and that she only actually saw him on approximately three occasions; once when she was hired, another time when he acted as master of ceremonies for the show, and on one other time when he happened to stop by when she was on duty. She advised she had no idea that RUBY would be capable of commiting the type crime for which he is charged in Dallas and was shocked when she read of this in the newspapers.

She related that the name LEE HARVEY OSWALD is unknown to her, that she does not recall ever having heard of this name or this person before the President was assassinated. She stated from viewing pictures of OSWALD on television and in the newspapers she does not recall ever having seen this person and is quite certain that she has never seen him in the Carousel.

MARY O'NEAL related her knowledge of RUBY was so limited that she would be unable to say if RUBY knew or was acquainted with OSWALD and if any conspiracy existed between these individuals, O'NEAL stated she was not employed at the present time, but was seeking employment as a waitress in some of the local restaurants at Southgate, California. She stated her usual occupation is waitress.

RICHARD WILLIAM PROEBER, 410 Westheimer, Houston, Texas, advised that he has been in Houston for about three years. Prior to his arrival in Houston, he had lived in Dallas. He had moved to Dallas in 1958 from Wisconsin, and left Dallas in 1961 for Houston. He advised he was employed at the Merchants State Bank, and, as a part-time job, had worked as a waiter in one of JACK RUBY's private clubs. He could not quite recall the name of RUBY's club, but he thinks it was the Vegas Club.

PROEBER said that he only worked for about two months at RUBY's club and left because he was afraid that his job at the club would be harmful to his position at the bank.

PROEBER said that he first went to JACK RUBY's club as a Stage Manager for an All Girl Review. This review was a stripper production run by BRECK WALL and JOE PETERSON. These two men were under a contract with RUBY for girl entertainment.

PROEBER advised that he did not personally know JACK RUBY, but had waited on him on many occasions in RUBY's club. He said that RUBY was a very rough character and was always very nervous. He said that RUBY would "fly off the handle" at the least little thing.

PROEBER advised that on one occasion JACK RUBY severely beat JOE PETERSON over a contract dispute. He said that RUBY had two of his associates hold PETERSON while RUBY beat him. It was after this incident that PROEBER quit his job as a waiter.

PROEBER advised that, to the best of his recollection, he had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in JACK RUBY's club, or anywhere else. He knows of no connection between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

PROEBER advised that he never heard JACK RUBY discuss politics in the night club or anywhere else. He said of all the times he heard RUBY talking, it was about gambling, girls or booze. He said RUBY was a loud-mouth and liked to belittle people in public. He said that RUBY would constantly "chase down" his help.

When asked of JACK RUBY's association with Dallas Police Department, PROEBER advised that RUBY's club was frequented by Dallas Police officials. He said it was talk amongst RUBY's help that RUBY was "paying off" the Dallas Police Department for special favors. PROEBER had no idea of what these special favors consisted nor did he know the identities of any Dallas Police Officers involved.

FRANK RIOS, 2712 Throckmorton, Dallas, advised as follows:

He formerly worked for JACK RUBY at one of his clubs about three years ago for an approximate three-month period as a bus boy and general worker. He saw him only in this connection and occasionally at the Dallas YMCA, where he, RIOS, trained as a fighter. He described RUBY as a man "hard to please" and who became angry on occasion when things did not go just perfectly.

In that his association with RUBY was limited to the above and due to the fact that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he knew of no connection between the two men.

Mr. ALBERT B. SCHROLL, residence 711 East Colorado, Dallas, professional pitcher for the Minnesota Twins Baseball Club, currently employed as a salesman by the Fink Paint Company, 2605 Elm, Dallas, advised he had first become acquainted with JACK RUBY in about the middle of September 1963 when he came to Dallas. He was never a member of any of RUBY's clubs but was allowed to enter the club because of his status as a baseball pitcher. RUBY appeared interested in sports and suggested at their first meeting that he might be able to employ SCHROLL in the capacity of bouncer at one of his clubs.

SCHROLL was thereafter employed one evening at RUBY's Vegas Club and "off and on" for approximately one month at the Carousel Club. His duties were to assist in the seating of customers and to keep down possible rowdyism among them. He had no association with RUBY outside of his employment.

From his observation of RUBY, it was his opinion RUBY was a highly emotional individual, which has led him to believe that the shooting of OSWALD was in no way premeditated. Mr. SCHOLL had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the Presidential assassination and knew of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

He was not aware of any reasons why RUBY shot OSWALD.

During his employment at RUBY's club, Mr. SCHOLL became aware that several police officers of the Dallas Police Department frequented the clubs and appeared friendly with RUBY. He was not aware of the names or identities of such officers.

DELORES SILVA was interviewed at the home of her mother, MARIA M. SANTOS, 155 Bradley, San Antonio, Texas, and she advised the following information:

SILVA stated she is an entertainer and uses the stage name, Dior Angel. Her act is as a striptease dancer and she worked at the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, for three or four weeks in April 1963. She stated she could not recall the dates, but the engagement started on Monday after Easter Sunday. Her employer at the Carousel Club was JACK RUBY. She stated she had very little association with RUBY, other than business but indicated she had dinner with him on Easter Sunday and he later showed her around Dallas. She also advised he asked her to be his girl, but she refused him. She said he seemed very lonely and wanted companionship. SILVA stated that on other occasions she and other entertainers in Dallas at that time went out as a group and RUBY often went along, but she had little close association with him.

SILVA further advised she does not know OSWALD and can recall no one resembling OSWALD ever being at the Carousel or any other place she has worked. She stated she knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY. She added that, to her knowledge, they did not know each other and she has heard no one mention that they may have been connected in any way.

SILVA stated that during the time she worked in Dallas her boy friend was CARMEN PETRILLO, a member of Carme and Paul Comedy Team. She added that she does not know where they are appearing at present, but about two weeks ago they were at a hotel (name unknown) in Great Falls, Montana. She advised that PETRILLO does not resemble any of the photographs she has seen of OSWALD. She also advised that PETRILLO told her that the FBI had talked with him regarding RUBY. She further advised she was interviewed by FBI Agents in Massachusetts a few days after the President was assassinated.

SILVA indicated that RUBY seemed to let little things bother him and was emotional at times. He was loud at times and seemed to be trying to attract attention to himself. She said at times he was like a little boy in his desire for companionship. She added that she was surprised when she heard that RUBY had shot OSWALD because she did not think of him as a person who would do such a thing. SILVA also stated that she never knew RUBY to carry a gun, but guessed that he did as most club owners do since they often carry large amounts of money.

SILVA advised that she plans to leave San Antonio December 26, 1963, for a four-week engagement at the Show Bar, New Orleans, Louisiana.

HERMAN VIRDIE SMITH, 117 West 112th Street, Los Angeles, California, advised he was formerly employed as a drummer for various bands at clubs owned by JACK RUBY at Dallas, Texas. He approximated he was so employed from about 1953 until March 1961. He said he was a member of the LEO PHILLIPS Band about 1953 at the Silver Spur Bar in South Dallas. He was employed by band leader JOE JOHNSON at the Vegas Club in Dallas on several occasions between 1958 and August 1959 and November 1960 until about March 1961. He said he also was a member of Red Calhoun's Band between 1950 and 1956. SMITH pointed out that the three band leaders are Negroes and are well known in the Dallas, Texas, area.

SMITH said that about 1955 or 1956, when he was employed by Red Calhoun, JACK RUBY had an argument with RED CALHOUN. RUBY had "brass knuckles" and hit CALHOUN in the mouth causing CALHOUN to have about 8 stitches taken in his mouth. About November 1960 JOE JOHNSON was out of the Dallas, Texas, area and SMITH attempted to get a band together to play for RUBY's bar. He said he was unsuccessful and at that time had an oral argument only with RUBY. He said that RUBY was usually nice to SMITH but that a minute later he could have a "very violent temper." He explained RUBY talks to most people as if they are "children" and "kids" people during such conversation. He said, however, that one could not talk to RUBY in the same manner or RUBY "would blow his cork."

SMITH said RUBY was a strict individual in that he would refuse admittance to a bar for such a thing as not liking ones appearance generally. He said he was a "sympathetic" man in that he financially assisted many people at various times. He added RUBY had a "belligerent attitude" but would never get into an argument with certain types of individuals unless RUBY had one or more associates present with him. He said RUBY did not allow "expressive dancing" in his clubs and that if individuals did not fall in line with the thoughts of RUBY he would "run off the customers from the premises." SMITH considered that if one "crossed RUBY" they would become an enemy of RUBY. He said EVA GRANT, RUBY's sister, ran the Vegas Club about 1959. He considered EVA and her temperament and personality to be much like RUBYs.

SMITH concluded by stating he has not been in Dallas nor seen or heard from RUBY since SMITH left in early 1961. He said he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or of any connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

JOHN W. TORBETT, also known as JOHNNIE TORBETT, 3500 Routh Street, Dallas, whose name was furnished by EDWARD NELSON BERNET as being a former employee as musician by RUBY, advised as follows: Texas

Mr. TORBETT informed that he is presently employed as actuarial student by the Great American Life Insurance Company of Dallas. He stated that he met JACK RUBY in early 1953, at which time he began working for RUBY at the Sovereign Club, now called the Carousel Club, in the capacity of trumpet player as a member of a combo called the "Cell Block 7". This combo was under the direction of EDWARD NELSON BERNET. He stated that he played with this combo more or less regularly on Friday and Saturday nights until early 1955, at which time, he, TORBETT, entered military service. He stated that he did not see JACK RUBY again until during the early part of 1961 when he again began playing in the same combo for RUBY during the weekends for a few months. He stated that following this employment, he did not see RUBY again and has not spoken with him. He added that the above is the extent of his acquaintance with RUBY and he did not become well enough acquainted with RUBY to feel qualified to make a statement concerning RUBY's character, temperament or political views. TORBETT added that he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information concerning any possible relationship between RUBY and OSWALD or concerning the killing of OSWALD on the part of RUBY.

Mrs. ROBERT WIMBERLY nee GAILLE BERRY, 2324 Rockcrest Drive, Albany, Texas, advised she worked for JACK RUBY for approximately two weeks as part-time help in August of 1960, doing clerical work consisting of mailing, typing, filing and sending out brochures. She advised the brochures were to various individuals to recruit them as members of the private club known as "The Sovereign" opened by RUBY where the Carousel is presently located.

She advised the mother of BETTY GRIMES, a girl friend of hers, had worked for EVE RUBY at the Vegas Club. RUBY called the mother and wanted her to come to work for him during the changeover of "The Sovereign" club from a dance studio formerly located in the building. She could not recall GRIMES' mother's name, as the lady had remarried and she, in fact, stated she did not know the whereabouts of BETTY GRIMES. She stated that EVE RUBY would know the identity and whereabouts of BETTY's mother.

She stated she wasn't around RUBY a great deal and the only time she would see him was when he brought prospective club members into the club and would introduce them. She stated she was only 14 years of age at the time and that JACK RUBY always appeared as a gentleman around her. She advised she had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, had never seen him, and knew of no connection whatsoever between RUBY and OSWALD. She was unable to furnish any further information.

DALLAS, TEXAS

JAMES H. (JIMMY) RHODES, presently residing at the home of his parents, 719 Brinker Street, while convalescing from recent major surgery, advised he is a photographer, producer of stage entertainment, and a bartender. He noted for the past two years he has worked mainly as a free-lance photographer, maintaining business offices at two locations, namely, 2535 Cedar Springs and 3524 Cedar Springs, both Dallas, Texas.

RHODES volunteered he served in the U. S. Army Air Corps for four and one-half years during World War II and, following discharge, moved from Sulphur Springs, Texas to Dallas, Texas. He noted subsequently, during the Korean conflict, he was recalled to active duty in the U. S. Air Force serving approximately thirteen months. Following this most recent discharge, RHODES had become employed with KRLD Radio and Television, in Dallas, and, about this time, first met JACK RUBY, who was then operating the Silver Spur Night Club located on South Ervay Street, Dallas. He said he met RUBY through one TINY GRANT, a night club Master of Ceremonies, now deceased. In 1959, upon learning RHODES was a photographer, RUBY approached him with a request RHODES do some publicity work and photographs for his night club businesses. Sometime thereafter, believed in late 1959, RHODES said he terminated his employment with KRLD and started free-lance photography work. RUDY became a client of his and would send various performers to RHODES for publicity shots.

RHODES said it was his recollection RUBY sold the Silver Spur in early 1960 and thereafter purchased the Vegas Club. At about the same time, RUBY opened a private club known as the Sovereign Club, which he later converted to a public club, changing the name to the Carousel Club. It was at this time RUBY requested RHODES to go to work for him as a "general handy man," his duties being to help RUBY book shows, train girls for dancing, [illegible] supervise writing for floor shows and, on occasion, fill in as a bartender at the Carousel. RHODES stated he worked in this capacity for about three months and then moved back to Sulphur Springs, Texas, in late Summer, 1960, where he did some free-lance lighting and photography work. He noted, however, while in Sulphur Springs, he commuted back and forth to Dallas doing photography and publicity work for performers appearing at various Dallas night clubs, including RUBY's clubs. Since that time, he has had contact with RUBY on an average of about two or three times per month, always in connection with publicity work, which RUBY employed him to perform.

RHODES related in his association with RUBY he came to know RUBY as a person who is "fanatical in his beliefs;" good to his help; one who really loved to be liked by people; an individual who wanted the police as his friends; a fierce competitor; and a man with an "uncontrollable temper," but who would get over his display of temper quickly. RHODES advised close associates to RUBY known to him were TINY GRANT, mentioned above, RALPH PAUL; JOE JOHNSON, a Negro bandleader; WALLY WESTON, a Master of Ceremonies; BRECK WALL and JOE PETERSON, theatrical producers; EARL NORMAN; BILL WILLIS, a drummer in various bands, and FRANK FISHER, a musician in various Dallas bands. Concerning PAUL, RHODES said he is of the opinion PAUL was the financial backer in most of RUBY's ventures and the person who would be financially able to pay for the defense of RUBY, regardless of the amount of money needed for attorneys' fees.

In the period he has been associated with RUBY and particularly during the time of his employment by RUBY, RHODES observed RUBY was very friendly with members of the Dallas Police Department and, in particular, with members of the Vice Squad. RHODES said during his three-month employment he recalled many officers of the Dallas Police Department came in and out of the Carousel, including both uniformed patrolmen, as well as plain-clothes officers. He said RUBY always served these officers Cokes or coffee and permitted them free access to the kitchen at the Carousel, where they could help themselves to food. He said RUBY never objected to the appearance of the officers at the club and gave orders to the bartender and waitresses that the officers should never be charged for anything they received at the club. He said this was standard procedure in many of the Dallas night clubs and was not solely limited to the Carousel Club, insofar as police officers were concerned. RHODES said he recalled on occasions RUBY would take Dallas police officers out to eat at night.

When questioned, RHODES claimed an inability to recall the identity of the officers referred to above, stating although he saw the officers in the club, he was never introduced to them.

RHODES said he recalled that, approximately one month after the Carousel became a public club in 1960, a large party was held there by a group of thirty or forty police officers. He said it was his recollection it was at the time a police or sheriffs' convention was being held in Dallas and a number of the officers in attendance at the party were from out of town. RHODES claimed he did not know who made the arrangements for this party, nor could he identify any of the officers in attendance, other than to state he, RHODES, was bartender for the affair and that RUBY told him "the chief" was there. RHODES pointed out he did not actually see "the chief" and he assumed he was referring to Chief CURRY, of the Dallas Police Department. RHODES said the party in question took place during regular club hours and it was his understanding RUBY "picked up the tab." When asked, RHODES was unable to furnish the identity of any other employees of the Carousel Club who were present, or otherwise corroborate his statements with respect to the party.

In addition to the above, RHODES said he also recalled during his three-month employment at the Carousel that fourteen members of the Dallas Police Department Vice Squad also attended a party at the Carousel, which party was held after hours. RHODES claimed he was the bartender for this affair and that the officers drank "mostly Cokes." He alleged there were no waitresses present at the affair, nor could he identify any witnesses who could verify his statement concerning this party. RHODES claimed although he could remember the number of officers in attendance he could not, however, identify any of the officers, again claiming he never met any of them and only knew them by sight.

RHODES explained RUBY was "very cranky" about serving any alcohol after hours because he did not want to break the law. RHODES said RUBY "had no reason to pay off officers," as he would not tolerate law breaking in the Carousel. On many occasions rehearsals and try-outs would be held after hours because theatrical agents would bring their acts in at that time for RUBY to approve or disapprove. Sometimes there were officers, but he never saw any fraternizing between officers and members of the acts.

RHODES also stated if BOB LARKIN, former host at the Colony Club, who is now working at the Monmarte Club, were contacted, he would have no trouble identifying the names of the Vice Squad members and the other officers who were always hanging around the Carousel Club, because the same officers were also in and out of the Colony Club.

RHODES explained that there was one particular team of officers who were always coming to the Carousel Club or the Colony Club and he cannot think of their names, but they should be well known to LARKIN and ABE WEINSTEIN, owner of the Colony Club.

RHODES readily admitted that he had sold eight negatives of RUBY to Time Magazine, but he understood that although Time paid him, they were actually for Life Magazine. He said he had been paid $200 and that the entire matter had been handled through SHEL HERSHORN, Black Star Agency, 2936 Fondren, Dallas, Telephone EM 1-6508; or 3023 Routh, Telephone RI 7-0440. He stated they were the only photographs he had of RUBY and that they were pictures of RUBY interviewing a female entertainer, and there were some other entertainers in and out of RUBY's office. There were no pictures of customers. He said he did not know the name of the entertainer. RHODES permitted SA DRAKE to view the negatives he had prepared for mailing to HERSHORN. The negatives reflected an outline of a person resembling RUBY, and a female in shorts and a top which appeared to be a costume used by entertainers such as dancers.

There were shots of RUBY at a desk and in the other negatives there were observed what appeared to be other female entertainers. RHODES stated that these negatives were being mailed to HERSHORN. He stated that he had no other negatives, as he had searched his photography work to make sure he did not have other material which might interest some of the national publications, who, RHODES said, would buy anything picturing RUBY or his clubs.

In discussing photography, RHODES stated that at the Carousel Club there had been two amateur photographers, whose names he did not know, who more or less had the run of the place for the shooting of pictures of customers and entertainers and, if these persons were identified, he was sure that they should have some material that would depict customers in the Carousel Club. RHODES said he believed that these individuals used Polaroid cameras. He also stated that he was sure that these two amateurs could be identified by making inquiry at the Carousel Club in Dallas.

In conclusion, RHODES stated he had never seen OSWALD and did not know OSWALD ever being in the company of RUBY or so much as ever being in one of RUBY's clubs. He did say that RUBY would receive a great deal of publicity out of what he had done, and that there were probably many people in Dallas who felt that RUBY should go free. RHODES said he had never heard the name of OSWALD mentioned prior to seeing him on television the day of the assassination of President KENNEDY.

DALLAS, TEXAS

ABE L. WEINSTEIN, 11028 Westmere, operator of the Colony Club, 1322-1/2 Armour, furnished the following additional information upon reinterview:

His club is checked mainly by members of the Dallas Police Department. These men work in pairs and change shifts each month. He does not recall the names of any of these officers, with the exception of Detective JAMES GILMORE, who appears to be the ranking officer on the details that check his club. These men check his operations very closely and are thoroughly and completely businesslike in their contacts.

In his thirty years as a night club operator in Dallas, he has never had an instance in which members of the Dallas Police Department have tried to "freeload". He always keeps hot coffee for the officers and does not charge them for it. However, in those instances in which officers come to the club off duty, they pay for any refreshments they may buy. He has never been asked for free entertainment or free refreshments by any of the Dallas officers.

Mr. WEINSTEIN stated that he and JACK RUBY were competitors and not on friendly terms. For this reason he has not been in RUBY's place of business and knows nothing of his policy toward treating members of the Dallas Police Department. He knows of no specific instances in which RUBY has treated Dallas policemen at no cost. He cannot recall a police association convention in Dallas about 1961 and has no information that a group of officers was entertained at no cost at the Carousel Club about this time.

ROBERT LARKIN, 500 North Harwood Street, Dallas, Texas, volunteered the following information:

Mr. LARKIN advised he is presently manager of the Mont Martre Club at 206 Browder Street, Dallas, and formerly managed the Colony Club located next door to the Vegas Club, operated by JACK RUBY and his sister, EVA GRANT. He stated that by virtue of his occupation he has known JACK RUBY during the past eight years and has seen him at more or less regular intervals at one of the other of their clubs. Occasionally, he would find himself in the same party with RUBY and, on each occasion, he would usually chat with RUBY for some time.

He stated that about five years ago, possibly four, he managed RUBY's Vegas Club during the three summer months, during which period RUBY vacationed in Cuba.

LARKIN stated he last saw RUBY at about 5:50 PM, on November 23, 1963, when he met him at the corner of Browder and Commerce Streets, where they were both walking in opposite directions. RUBY was going west on Commerce. They stopped and chatted on the street for five or ten minutes and the first part of the conversation concerned the assassination of President KENNEDY in a general way. He does not recall that the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was mentioned by either. He recalls that RUBY merely stated he felt the assassination was a terrible tragedy. RUBY said nothing to indicate he was under an unusual mental or nervous stress or that he contemplated doing anything about it. The conversation changed to their personal affairs when RUBY asked him why he did not go into partnership with him in the Carousel Club.

LARKIN stated he does not recall discussing politics with RUBY at any time. He continued he considered RUBY to be a man of extreme emotions and one who was quick to become angry. He stated that if RUBY became angry with a customer for any reason, such as obscene language, he would immediately grab the individual and shove him out of the club and occasionally would strike the individual without first trying to reason with him.

LARKIN stated that by the very nature of his business RUBY made it a point to be friendly with police officers, and a number of officers knew him and dropped by his establishment from time to time. He recalls that one Lieutenant JAMES GILMORE, of the Dallas Police Department Vice Squad, was particularly friendly with RUBY. GILMORE was occasionally accompanied by his partner on his rounds when he would stop by to visit JACK's place and often would view the show. LARKIN added that he has no information which would indicate RUBY ever did any unusual favors for police officers, in order to get them obligated to him and he does not recall ever hearing that RUBY would throw parties for police officers at his place or elsewhere, or ever picked up the tab for any sort of social entertainment for police officers.

LARKIN advised he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never had any reason to suspect that there ever existed a relationship or acquaintance between OSWALD and RUBY. He added he has no information concerning the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY, or how RUBY may have gained entrance to the basement of the Dallas Police Department prior to the shooting.

ANDREW ARMSTRONG, Manager, Carousel Club, was contacted at the Carousel Club, 1312 1/2 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, relative to a report that two amateur photographers using Polaroid cameras had free access to the club and photographed the strippers and patrons of the club. Mr. ARMSTRONG furnished the following information:

ARMSTRONG has been managing the Carousel Club since JACK RUBY was incarcerated on November 24, 1963, and for 1 1/2 years prior to that time worked at the Carousel Club as bartender and general handyman. During this period ARMSTRONG has never seen any amateur photographers who had free run of the Carousel Club, has never seen a Polaroid camera on the premises, with the exception of the camera used by the Carousel Club. The camera owned by the club is used to photograph patrons who have won prizes or who have participated in the show. These photographs are usually taken by ARMSTRONG and are given to the customers prior to the time they depart the club.

The Carousel Club maintains no photographs taken of customers in the club.

Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY was advised that it had been alleged that he and a group of his officers had attended a party at the Carousel Club in 1960 and that JACK RUBY had picked up the "tab". It was also alleged that RUBY had given a party for approximately fourteen members of the Dallas Vice Squad during a convention in Dallas in 1960. Chief CURRY stated he did not know JACK RUBY, and had never seen him to his knowledge prior to the shooting of OSWALD. CURRY advised that he has never been in the Carousel Club and has never attended any parties at the Carousel Club or any place else where RUBY picked up the "tab". He could not recall a police convention being held in the city of Dallas in 1960.

CURRY also advised that he was sure that RUBY had never given a party for the Vice Squad of the Dallas Police Department. He stated that there probably were not over fourteen men assigned to the Squad and stated that they were divided primarily into two shifts so that counting the days off, there would not be nearly that many Vice Squad members on duty at any one time. CURRY stated that it was the assignment of men on duty, both uniformed and plain-clothes officers, to check on the Carousel Club and all other such establishments during their working hours. He could not say that none of his men had not drunk coffee or cokes in the Carousel Club but stated that it was against the policy of the Department for officers to take "gratuities" of any kind, this included food, drinks and so forth. He advised the men had all been told at anytime they let someone give them something, that person usually expects something in return, therefore, he does not want his men accepting favors from anyone.

Mr. DAVID L. JOHNSTON, Justice of Peace, Precinct Number 2, Dallas County, 1411 West Belt Line Road, Dallas, Texas, advised as follows:

He does not personally know JACK RUBY. After RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD November 24, 1963, he realized that RUBY was someone whom he had seen before sometime in the past. He also remembered that he had seen RUBY at a press conference at the Dallas Police Department late November 22, 1963, or early November 23, 1963.

The press conference was arranged for press representatives to photograph and interview OSWALD. The conference was agreed upon by Captain J. W. FRITZ, Chief J. E. CURRY, Dallas Police Department, HENRY WADE, Dallas County District Attorney and WILLIAM ALEXANDER, Assistant Dallas County District Attorney.

He observed RUBY in the group of press representatives at the conference and at that time he (JOHNSTON) was in the company of District Attorney WADE. He thought RUBY was another press representative when he first saw him. Immediately after the conference, RUBY came up to JOHNSTON, introduced himself as JACK RUBY, shook his hand and gave him a business card for the Carousel Club. After RUBY learned that JOHNSTON was Justice of Peace, he shook his hand a second time. This was about 12:15 AM or 12:30 AM, November 23, 1963. He still has the business card given to him by RUBY. He had not observed RUBY talking to District Attorney WADE or anyone else.

He did not see RUBY say anything to OSWALD at the press conference and had no information indicating that RUBY and OSWALD knew each other.

He had no information concerning security measures taken at the Police Department subsequent to OSWALD's arrest until the time OSWALD was shot. He does not know of any unauthorized person permitted to enter the Police Departmer

He was not in the Police Department basement wh OSWALD was shot November 24, 1963.

OSWALD was arraigned on both occasions in Dallas City Municipal Building. During his contacts with OSWALD, OSWALD made no pertinent remarks.

Mr. JOHNSTON said that after RUBY shot OSWALD, he received information from a confidential source whom he declined to identify that RUBY had been co-signer on some loans obtained at Dallas banks by some Dallas Police Department officers. He told this information to Chief of Police CURRY but did not disclose his source to CURRY. 1 Date December 20, 1963

Mr. HARRY K. YEAGER, Vice President and Cashier, Preston State Bank, furnished the following information:

Records of that bank failed to reflect a record of a checking account; savings account; safety deposit box, credit file, or loan folio on JACK L. RUBY; JACK RUBENSTEIN; Vegas Club or Carousel Club.

He said a check of the cashier's check register from September 1, 1963 to November 24, 1963, failed to reflect any record of a cashier's check being purchased by RUBY during that period.

Mr. YEAGER further advised their bank has no record of RUBY being listed as a co-signer on any notes.

Records of the Bank of Services and Trusts, Dallas, were checked and revealed that their cashier's checks issued between September 1, 1963, and November 24, 1963, reflected on September 27, 1963, the Carousel Club purchased a Cashier's Check # 22854 in the amount of $200.00 for the Power and Light Company of Dallas, and that on November 5, 1963, the S & R, Inc. (Carousel Club) purchased a $550.00 Cashier's Check # 23517, payable to the estate of H. H. WATSON.

On December 4, 1963, the S & R, Inc. (Carousel) purchased a $550.00 Cashier's Check # 23998, which was also payable to the estate of H. H. WATSON. These cashier's checks to the estate of H. H. WATSON were deposited in the Republic National Bank, Dallas, in the account of HOWELL H. WATSON by JACK D. WATSON, of Watson & Watson Trusts Account.

Texas

In regard to the last cashier's check purchased, the colored porter from the Carousel Club, name unknown, brought the club's receipts into the bank and obtained the cashier's check.

Their records contained no loans, savings accounts, checking accounts for JACK RUBY, JACK RUBENSTEIN, Carousel or Vegas Clubs. However, they did have an account for the S & R, Inc., and for the old Sovereign Club, which account was now closed. They exhibited the signature cards for the S & R, Inc., which indicated that on February 17, 1960, JOE E. SLATIN and JACK RUBY opened the account with a $500.00 deposit. They advised that the account was revised on May 15, 1960, to add the signature RALPH PAUL, 1312-1/2 Commerce, telephone RI 7-0025.

It is noted that the only noticeable large deposit was on September 21, 1960, when there was a deposit of $3,000.00. Prior to this deposit, on August 12, 1960, the account had a balance of $76.00. On the same date of the deposit of $3,000.00, there was a check written in the amount of $2,000.00, leaving a balance of $1,076.00. On September 23, 1960, a $1,000.00 check was written, leaving a balance of $75.00 after a $1.00 service fee charge had been deducted. It was noted that at the end of December 1960 the account contained $73.00 and there has been no activity since, with the exception of the deductions of $1.00 for service charges, and the account now totals $64.00.

Miss INGRID CARTER, Teller, Merchants State Bank, 5217 Ross Avenue, Dallas, Texas, advised she has been employed here for the past five years. She stated that during this time JACK RUBY has purchased numerous cashier's checks from her. She believed most cashier's checks purchased by RUBY were for his rental payments.

Miss CARTER said that on most occasions, when RUBY purchased cashier's checks, he was alone, although she recalls that sometime ago, a young man whose identity is unknown to her, did accompany RUBY to the bank on several occasions. She advised that about two weeks before RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, RUBY purchased a cashier's check from her and commented to her that he had to take his "pep" pills to give him energy and make him happy. She added that RUBY was somewhat of a nervous person and at times he was friendly and jovial and at other times he seemed depressed and moody.

Miss CARTER knew nothing about RUBY's personal life and, other than her contacts with him at the bank, had no association with him. She knew none of his friends or acquaintances. She said he never mentioned the Dallas Police Department or having friends on that department.

Miss CARTER did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

Records of the First National Bank in Arlington contain a checking account for The Bull Pen, 1936 East Abram. RALPH PAUL is authorized to sign checks on this account. During the period October 9, 1963 to December 17, 1963, regular weekly deposits were made and a balance of $11,000 to $13,000 maintained. Examination of cancelled checks for December 1, 1963 to date, reflect the account used to pay usual business expenses.

A checking account for RALPH PAUL, 1936 East Abram with a balance of $2900 is contained in the records. During the period July 24, 1963 to December 16, 1963, regular deposits of $169.50 were made approximately every week. These deposits consisted of a check drawn on The Bull Pen account. The only unusual item was a check paid December 11, 1963, dated November 17, 1963, payable to LEO C. TONTI, 10060 San Lorenzo, telephone RI 7-2387 for $500, and cashed at the Mercantile National Bank on December 9, 1963.

Savings account number 4451 for RALPH PAUL with a balance of $461 contained in bank records which account has been dormant since 1959.

No other accounts could be located in the First National Bank in the name of RALPH PAUL or where he might have opened other accounts.

The above information is confidential and should not be disclosed except upon issuance of subpoena duces tecum. MR. RAYFORD PAYNE, Cashier, is the proper person to whom a subpoena duces tecum should be issued to produce bank records in court.

Miss PAT BUCHHEIT, 614 Fair Meadows, Duncanville, Texas, Telephone AX 8-0604, was contacted, at which time she advised that she had telephonically contacted the FBI Office, Dallas, a few days ago and had related information to the effect that she had lived in the same apartment as JACK RUBY in February and March, 1962. She stated that they resided at the apartment building located at Marsalis and Stemmons, and because of this thought the FBI might be attempting to contact her. At the time she contacted the FBI, she pointed out that she could furnish no positive information concerning RUBY and that she had met RUBY only on two occasions.

Miss BUCHHEIT, when interviewed, advised that she could not recall the exact date that she had met JACK RUBY, but could recall seeing him on different occasions around the apartment building located at Marsalis and Stemmons. She could vaguely recall that RUBY lived upstairs and that her apartment was downstairs.

Miss BUCHHEIT stated that she could recall only one specific conversation she had had with RUBY. She stated that this was one evening when a group of her friends were having a little outing near the apartments and could recall RUBY approaching to get together and ask whether they needed anything to drink. She could not recall the exact conversation, but stated that RUBY went to his apartment and returned with a fifth of bourbon for the get-together. She stated that RUBY did not stay around and did not have any lengthy conversation with anyone that particular evening.

She was unable to furnish any other information pertaining to RUBY and stated this was the only time she could ever recall actually having talked to RUBY. She described RUBY as being like any other neighbor in the apartment building and stated that she knew nothing specific regarding RUBY's activities, friends or associates. LEE HARVEY OSWALD was not known to her prior to the assassination and she knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD; knew of no association whatsoever between RUBY and any member of the Dallas Police Department; and knew of no one who was a member of the Dallas Police Department who worked for RUBY at any time.

Mrs. DOROTHEA NELL ADAMS, 10323 Andover, telephone number DA 7-6275, was reported to be a neighbor of JACK RUBY sometime in 1962, and was contacted at which time she furnished the following information:

She advised that she had previously resided with PATSY BUCHHEIT at the Marsala Apartments and to the best of her recollection, she resided at these apartments during March, April and May, 1962. She could vaguely recall meeting an individual by the name JACK RUBY but could not recall all of the exact details concerning this meeting. She did recall that she, her roommate, BUCHHEIT, and a few of her friends were having a small get-together in the apartment area one evening and that during the course of the evening JACK RUBY approached the group and asked whether or not they had anything to drink. She did not recall who talked with RUBY at this time but a few minutes later, RUBY reappeared there and brought them a fifth of liquor. She went on to say that RUBY did not stay for any length of time and estimated that he had just given them the liquor and thereafter departed the area. She stated that this was the only contact she ever had with JACK RUBY and as a result, knew of no information regarding RUBY's background, friends or associates. She knew of no connection whatsoever between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to her prior to the assassination of the President.

Mrs. ADAMS stated that she possessed no information other than what had been put out by the local news media.

On January 2, 1964, Mrs. FRANCES BIRCH, also known as FANNY BIRCH, Mrs. JAMES R. BIRCH, 9100 Metz Drive, Dallas, who has been previously interviewed as a former employee (stripper) of JACK RUBY, furnished the following information to SAS EDMOND C. HARDIN and PAUL L. SCOTT:

Mrs. BIRCH stated that since September, 1963, she has been acquainted with one AL HARVEY, 3025 Touraine Street, Dallas, Texas, who allegedly is a salesman for the M & M Sales, Fort Worth, Texas. She stated that HARVEY formerly dated her daughter, JANE BIRCH, whom he threatened to kill with a pistol on one occasion. He had told Miss BIRCH that he had been treated in the Army for shell shock. He, on one occasion, while at the BIRCH home, pretended to have heart trouble and upon his request was permitted to stay in the BIRCH home for four days. Mrs. BIRCH stated that HARVEY always carried a Derringer pistol on his person and also owns a .38 caliber revolver. She further stated that she considered HARVEY to be a "psycho and a nut". She continued by stating that she did not believe half the things HARVEY said to her and to her daughter.

Mrs. BIRCH related that on November 23, 1963, HARVEY was at her home and prior to leaving, the general conversation revolved around the assassination of the President. At that time, HARVEY stated "I think I'll go home and get my gun and go down and shoot OSWALD". He left and on another occasion, several days later, when he was at her home HARVEY stated that "if RUBY gets out, he'll get the same thing OSWALD got". HARVEY did not indicate that he was planning to or would shoot RUBY if he had the opportunity and did not elaborate upon this statement.

Mrs. BIRCH stated that when interviewed previously by FBI Agents, she did not inform them of the statements made by HARVEY inasmuch as she did not believe HARVEY and considered him to be "crazy" and believed he made the remarks only because of his mentally unbalanced condition. She added that she was voluntarily furnishing this information on January 2, 1964, inasmuch as she felt that HARVEY "might be crazy enough to kill RUBY". She added that she does not believe that HARVEY ever knew OSWALD and has no personal knowledge that he is acquainted with RUBY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA RALPH E. RAWLINGS and failed to identify SHIRLEY BRUCE:

It was determined that there is no exchange FL 4- in the Dallas area or in the state of Texas.

City Directories were checked for the years 1961, 1962 and 1963 without identifying SHIRLEY BRUCE.

Credit records of the Retail Merchants Credit Association failed to positively identify SHIRLEY BRUCE.

The following persons who were somewhat familiar with employees of RUBY were contacted and were unable to identify her:

The following investigation was conducted by SA LANSING P. LOGAN in efforts to identify and interview in regard to JACK RUBY:

On December 20, 1963, [JUDY HAHN,] Records Section, Dallas Police Department, advised that a search of her records failed to reveal any information identifiable with BARBARA CENDOSE or MELODIE CENDOSE.

[BIRDIE SUE BELCHER] Retail Merchants Credit Association, advised on December 23, 1963, that a search of her records failed to reveal any information that would identify either MELODIE or BARBARA CENDOSE.

A review of the 1963 Dallas telephone directory failed to reveal any such telephone numbers as HE 2-0291 and EN 9-2126.

It was noted that the prefix on these two telephone numbers is not listed as being a Dallas, Texas, prefix number.

A review of the current city directory and all other city directories available failed to list a name of MELODIE or BARBARA CENDOSE.

On December 17, 1963, Mr. ANDREW ARMSTRONG, bartender--manager, Carousel Club, advised that the names MELODIE and BARBARA CENDOSE are not familiar to him.

The following investigation was conducted by SA ROBERT J. ANDERSON at Sherman, Texas:

An item secured from JACK RUBY's note pad contained the notation GEORGE (LNU) and the number LM 3559, Sherman, Texas.

On December 17, 1963, the Sherman City Directory and the Sherman telephone book were consulted and found to contain no numbers or letters identical or similar to LM 3559.

On December 17, 1963, Mrs. ROSA HOLINGSHEAD, operator, General Telephone Company, Sherman, Texas, advised that the number LM 3559 is one digit short of being a telephone number. She stated that prefix letters such as LM are no longer in use in the Sherman, Texas, area. She further advised that no telephone number in Sherman, Texas, or the immediate vicinity ends in 3559.

On December 17, 1963, W. G. BLANTON, Sheriff, Grayson County, was advised of this matter and stated he knows of no GEORGE (LNU) in the Sherman vicinity who might be connected with JACK RUBY or any night clubs in Dallas, Texas.

On December 26, 1963, it was ascertained from the Texas Department of Public Safety, Austin, Texas, that 1963 Texas License LM 3559 is registered to WALTER SELF, Whitesboro, Texas, the owner of a 1953 Fordor Dodge.

On December 26, 1963, WALTER (NMI) SELF, age 71, 812 West Water, advised he is the owner of a 1953 blue Dodge bearing 1963 Texas License plates LM 3559. Mr. SELF advised he is the sole driver of the above vehicle, and neither he nor his vehicle has been in Dallas for over two years. Mr. SELF further stated that he knows of no person with either the first or the last name of "GEORGE" who might know JACK RUBY, and he, SELF, has never been in any night club. He also stated he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

The following investigation was conducted in the Houston Division with regard to the name ANN GIBSON and the license number JU 5041, which appeared in an address book in the possession of JACK RUBY at the time of his arrest on November 24, 1963, at Dallas, Texas:

The following investigation was conducted by SA HOLLIS Q. BOONE:

AT VICTORIA, TEXAS:

An examination of the automobile registration for the year 1963 at the Victoria County Sheriff's Office on December 18, 1963, reflected the following information:

1963 license JU 5041 was a Jackson County license number and was assigned to a 1949 Chevrolet Coach belonging to JAMES SAILES, 101 N. Erie Street, Edna, Texas.

1962 license JU 5041 was assigned to 1958 Ford and the name of JAMES N. STRINGER, 506 East Goodwin Street, Victoria, Texas.

On December 18, 1963, JAMES N. STRINGER was located at hi residence at this time of 804 Loma Vista Street, and advised that he had never known an ANN GIBSON and had never heard of JACK LEON RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD until the recent publicity brought about by the assassination of President KENNEDY.

The following sources of information were contacted at Victoria on December 18 and 19, 1963, with negative results as to possible identification of ANN GIBSON:

Victoria Sheriff's Office records, by Chief Deputy Sheriff DORAN CORNELIUS

Victoria Police Department, by Mrs. HAZEL HOUSTON

Victoria Credit Bureau, by Mrs. MARTHA JOINER

The Victoria, Texas, current telephone directory, 1962 and 1963 Victoria city directories

Attorney JAMES M. FLY, Victoria Bank and Trust Company, who represents numerous criminals, including prostitutes, pimps and other such local police characters.

On December 19, 1963, EDDIE BECK was interviewed in connection with this matter and advised that several years ago he had known an ANN GIBSON although he did not know if that was a real name, who was a prostitute around Dallas, Texas. He stated that he had no idea where she might be at this time, that she probably was in her 40's in age, as it had been several years since he had seen or heard of her. EDDIE BECK is a well-known pimp and procurer and is at this time under federal sentence for possession of narcotics and is out on appeal. He advised he had no idea whatsoever as to how ANN GIBSON could be located at this time.

AT EDNA, TEXAS:

On December 18, 1963, Sheriff LEWIS WATSON advised that there was no Alabama Street in Edna and that he did not know a JAMES SNYDER.

Logical source of information failed to reflect a JAMES SNYDER or Alabama Street in Edna.

The lists of automobile licenses for Jackson County were reviewed and reflect that 1963 license number JU 5041 was assigned to a 1949 Chevrolet which was the property of JAMES SAYLES, of 101 North Erie Street, Edna, Texas.

On December 18, 1963, SAYLES was located and interviewed, and he advised that he had never heard of an ANN GIBSON, or JACK LEON RUBY, or LEE HARVEY OSWALD until the recent incident at Dallas. It should be noted that SAYLES is an elderly Negro male of very low financial status in Edna.

In order to double check on the 1963 license number JU 5041, the Texas Department of Public Safety was contacted by radio at Edna and furnished the same registration of this car as belonging to JAMES SAYLES.

On December 18, 1963, JUANITA PHILLIPS, also known as CANDY BARR, was contacted at Edna in view of the fact that she had previously been interviewed in this case as an acquaintance of JACK LEON RUBY. PHILLIPS stated that she had never heard of an ANN GIBSON and would not know whether RUBY had ever had any connection or association with an ANN GIBSON or not.

Set forth below is an item secured from a note pad belonging to JACK RUBY:

BARBARA HICKMAN
WA 4-6568 TEXAS

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES E. GARRIS:

The current Dallas, Texas, telephone and city directories reflect no listing for a BARBARA HICKMAN.

A review of the alphabetical listing of telephone exchanges in the state of Texas reflects that San Antonio is the only city in Texas with a WA-4 exchange.

AT SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS:

Mrs. TROY WARICK, Business Office Supervisor, Southwest Bell Telephone Company, advised on December 20, 1963, that WA 4-6568 is not a San Antonio number. She stated that San Antonio WA 4 numbers stop at the 4100 group.

A check of the San Antonio Telephone Directory and City Directories reflects no one by the name of BARBARA HICKMAN.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 18, 1963

ROBERT JONES, 4825 Thompson Court, Detroit, Michigan, advised that telephone number 924-6568 (WA. 4-6568) is his telephone number. JONES advised that he does not know anyone by the name of BARBARA HICKMAN, and to his knowledge, no one by the name of BARBARA HICKMAN had ever had a telephone number identical to his. JONES advised that to the best of his recollection this telephone number had been assigned to him by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company approximately two years ago. He also advised that he had resided at his current address since approximately 1955. JONES advised that he had never been in Texas and did not know JACK LEON RUBY.

The name RICHARD HICKMAN was taken from a list representing names found in a book which was the property of JACK RUBY. The list possibly represented former members of one of JACK RUBY's clubs.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES E. GARRIS, except where indicated:

The current Dallas, Texas Telephone and City Directories reflect no listing under the name RICHARD HICKMAN. There is a listing, however, for a Mrs. RICHARD C. HICKMAN, 9414 Lanshire, telephone DI 8-3535.

On December 21, 1963, Mrs. RICHARD C. HICKMAN, above address, was contacted and she advised her husband passed away in 1944. She knew of no other RICHARD HICKMAN in this area.

On December 19, 1963, Mrs. [BIRDIE SUE BELCHER,] Merchants Retail Credit Association, Dallas, advised SA ROBERT J. WILKISON that her files reflect no record of RICHARD HICKMAN.

On December 20, 1963, [PAT WISE,] Record Bureau, Dallas Police Department; J. G. VICKERY, Identification Bureau, Dallas Police Department; and Deputy J. J. SLOVAK, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, advised their files reflect no record of RICHARD HICKMAN.

In view of the lack of identifying information concerning the above RICHARD HICKMAN, no further action is being taken.

On December 20, 1963, SA JAMES J. STRATFORD, JR. and SA EDWARD J. SHEILS interviewed THOMAS NORTON HILL, age 28, single, who is the Director, Field Activities, John Birch Society, 395 Concord Avenue, Belmont, Massachusetts.

Mr. HILL advised that he lives at 19 Kelly Road in Cambridge, Massachusetts and he has no telephone. He stated that he never knew JACK LEON RUBY and never even heard of him until after the assassination of President KENNEDY. He advised that he attended Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas, in the fall of 1953 until about January, 1958 at which time he had graduated and had done some graduate work. In July, 1959, he became employed by the John Birch Society at Dallas, Texas, and he covered the State of Texas as a worker for this Society for about one year until July, 1960.

He stated that because he was a native of Boston, he accepted an opportunity to come to the home office of the John Birch Society, 395 Concord Avenue, Belmont, Massachusetts where he is presently employed. He stated that while he lived in Dallas, he resided in the Highland Park area and later in the Lakewood section, but does not recall and, as a matter of fact, he is quite certain that he never had a telephone number EM 1-1197.

He stated that the John Birch Society publishes a monthly magazine entitled, "American Opinion". He stated that his name has never appeared as a writer of any articles of this magazine and he can offer only one possible explanation as to why JACK LEON RUBY would have the name THOMAS HILL in his possession. He stated that the John Birch Society has been very active for the past two and one-half years in a move to impeach EARL WARREN, Chief Justice, U. S. Supreme Court, and as a part of his campaign there are billboards that appear throughout the United States which have a white background and through the use of a facsimile of the American Flag in the upper left hand corner contains this message, "Save Our Republic, Impeach EARL WARREN". He stated that at the bottom of the billboard in the lower left hand corner appear the words: "For information write", and in the lower right hand corner appear the words: "THOMAS HILL, 385 Concord Avenue, Belmont, Mass."

JJS:ras

He stated that although the John Birch Society occupies portions of a large building at 395 Concord Avenue, Belmont, they have a small office at 385 Concord Avenue for purposes of mailing.

He also stated that his name appeared on these billboards in various states throughout the United States because state laws require the name and address of an individual for any type of advertising which is of a political nature.

He further advised that when he lived in Dallas, Texas, he resided at 2681 Abrams Road and he knows of no one who was acquainted with JACK LEON RUBY.

AT DALLAS, TEXAS:

The name PAUL A. HUTMACKER was found in a book which was the property of JACK RUBY and it is believed that this individual is a member of one of JACK RUBY's clubs. The following investigation was conducted in efforts to locate, identify, and interview regarding his knowledge concerning RUBY:

A review of the current city directory and telephone directory failed to reveal a listing for PAUL A. HUTMACKER. Miss JUDY HAHAN, Dallas Police Department, advised a search of her records on December 18, 1963, failed to reveal any record identifiable with PAUL A. HUTMACKER.

On December 20, 1963, BIRDIE SUE BELCHER, Retail Merchants Credit Association, Dallas, advised SA LANSING P. LOGAN that a search of her records revealed that a PAUL HUTMACKER had resided at 5103 Live Oak, Dallas, in 1960, and his employment was listed as the Maverick Club. His wife was listed as CATHERINE.

On December 24, 1963, Mrs. L. S. HOPKINS, Manager, 5103 - 5109 Live Oak, was contacted by SA LOGAN, at which time she advised that she has been the manager of these apartments since March, 1962, and could not recall ever having a tenant by the name of PAUL A. HUTMACKER. She advised that the previous manager, Mrs. BUTTON, Telephone TA 4-6687, could possibly furnish more information pertaining to tenants that had resided at this apartment building.

Mrs. D. C. BUTTON, 5200 Bellmont, Dallas, Telephone TA 4-6687, advised on December 24, 1963, that she was the manager of the apartment buildings located 5103 Live Oak for two and one-half years, estimating from 1960 - 1962, and she could recall no tenant by the name of PAUL A. HUTMACKER as residing there.

The name MILT JAFFE or JOFFE, Los Angeles, California, was found during the search of JACK L. RUBY's effects which were found on his person, in his car or in his apartment, after his arrest in Dallas, Texas, on November 24, 1963.

On December 16, 1963, the Los Angeles Office advised that investigation at Los Angeles had been unsuccessful in locating MILT JAFFE or JOFFE in Los Angeles. The Los Angeles Office referred the name MILTON JAFFE to the Las Vegas Division as having been the subject of NI ✓ investigation in an Anti-Racketeering case at Las Vegas in May, 1963 on the possibility that this could be the MILT JAFFE or JOFFE about whom Los Angeles had been conducting investigation.

On December 18, 1963, the Las Vegas Office advised that MILTON JAFFE, Stardust Hotel and Casino, Las Vegas, advised SAs DONALD M. HALLAND and ARTHUR N. BARRETT on December 18, 1963, that JACK L. RUBY or RUBENSTEIN is unknown to him. JAFFE said he has never met RUBY and also that he has never lived in Los Angeles, California.

On the basis of this interview, it was believed that MILTON JAFFE, Stardust Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada, is not believed identical with the MILT JAFFE or JOFFE, Los Angeles, California, whose name was found among JACK L. RUBY's effects at Dallas, Texas.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES E. GARRIS, except where indicated:

The current Dallas, Texas, telephone and city directories reflect no listing for a JEANINE JOHNSON.

On December 20, 1963, [PAT WISE] Record Bureau, Dallas Police Department; J. G. VICKERY, Identification Bureau, Dallas Police Department; and Deputy J. J. SLOVAK, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, advised their files reflect no record of JEANINE JOHNSON.

On December 19, 1963, Mrs. [BIRDIE SUE BELCHER] of Merchants Retail Credit Association, Dallas, advised SA ROBERT J. WILKISON that her files reflect a record for a JEANINE JOHNSON, who resided at 7927 Millstone in April, 1961. Her files reflected a past-due account for this person in 1960, at Sanger-Harris Department Store in Dallas.

The current Dallas, Texas, City Directory reflects a listing for LLOYD JOHNSON at 7927 Millstone, no employment given.

The Dallas, Texas, Telephone Directory reflects several listings for LLOYD JOHNSON, all of which were telephonically contacted on December 21, 1963, and persons answering advised that JEANINE JOHNSON was unknown to them.

On December 20, 1963, Mrs. [FLORENCE BAKER], Adjustments, Sanger-Harris Department Store, Main Street, Dallas, advised she checked the active, inactive, and collections accounts in the Credit Department of this store and was unable to identify JEANINE JOHNSON.

By communication, dated December 11, 1963, Mr. HERBERT J. MILLER, JR., Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, U. S. Department of Justice, furnished the following informations:

In a letter received by the Attorney General recently from MARVIN JONES of 1714 Life Building, Dallas, Texas, the following information is furnished:

"(1) I was personally told by a member of the Sheriff's office that on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, about 5:00 A.M., the Sheriff's office either sent a car to transfer Oswald or requested that the transfer be made at that time, but that Dallas Police Chief Curry refused to transfer him at that time because of press notice, although Ruby was transferred without notice to the press.

"(2) One television report stated that employees and other persons entering the building where Oswald worked were checked by the Dallas police on Friday morning, November 22, 1963, and that Oswald entered carrying a package but it was not checked by the policeman for the reason that Oswald said it contained a window shade.

"(3) Mr. Jack Gay, one of my law partners, learned Friday afternoon, November 22, 1963, from one of his clients that some man had stated that he would give his life to kill President Kennedy. This information was given to Chief Greene of the Police Department of Farmers Branch (a suburb of Dallas) because the person hearing the statement made was a female who resides in Farmers Branch. It is my understanding that Chief Greene has made some investigation of this matter."

JAMES WADE MYERS was interviewed at the Jackson County Jail, Pascagoula, Mississippi, on November 26, 1963, by SA JAMES J. FILES. MYERS stated he believed RUBY was connected with underworld characters and that a prosperous Dallas businessman, JOHN J. KING, had visited the Carousel Club, Dallas, numerous times.

The following investigation was conducted by SAs WILL HAYDEN GRIFFIN and JAMES C. KENNEDY:

On November 28, 1963, ROBERT FOLEY, broker, Goodbody and Company, Dallas, was contacted and advised that he had been connected with Goodbody and Company and Bache and Company, brokerage firms in the Dallas area, for approximately eighteen years. FOLEY reviewed his records and could find no record of a JOHN J. KING residing in Dallas who had done business with either of the brokerage firms. FOLEY advised he would inquire among other brokers and brokerage firms in an effort to locate and identify JOHN J. KING.

On December 23, 1963, FOLEY advised SA WILL HAYDEN GRIFFIN that he had canvassed all brokerage firms in Dallas and had inquired among his customers who are wealthy Dallas businessmen and could locate no record for a JOHN J. KING, prosperous business man in Dallas. FOLEY did know a JOHN J. KING, who is an oil man and considered a millionaire, who resides in Denver, Colorado, and does some oil business in the Dallas area. KING is in Dallas several times a year and FOLEY handles all of his business transactions with KING in the Dallas area.

FOLEY advised he entertains KING on each trip to Dallas and he has no knowledge of KING ever being in the Carousel Club or having ever known RUBY.

Mrs. MARJETTA LOPEZ, 5108 Victor, Dallas, Texas, advised on December 30, 1963, that she was "high" the night she called FORREST SORRELS, U. S. Secret Service, Dallas, concerning JACK RUBY.

Mrs. LOPEZ said all she recalls telling Mr. SORRELS is that he might be able to find out something concerning RUBY at the Market.

Mrs. LOPEZ said she did not have any information concerning RUBY and the only thing she knows about him is that when he came to Dallas from Chicago, he came into the Market area.

The above information was predicated on information furnished on December 19, 1963, by FORREST SORRELS, U. S. Secret Service, Dallas, who advised SA KENNETH C. HOWE that a Mrs. LOPEZ, Telephone Number TAylor 4-1445, had called him and said if the Government is still investigating RUBY and interested in information concerning him, they should check down around the "market area." When SORRELS tried to tie her down specifically, she mentioned something about a hotel in that area and a "cabbage house" or "cribbage house."

SORRELS said he does not know whether Mrs. LOPEZ has any information of value, but pointed out she had tried to be of assistance to Secret Service in the past in connection with a case Secret Service had against a sister or half-sister of hers.

SORRELS was unable to give any address and had only the above telephone number. He said it would be perfectly permissible to tell Mrs. LOPEZ he had referred her information to the FBI for appropriate handling.

The following investigation was conducted by SAs THOMAS B. ESTEP and GEORGE H. MENZEL on January 2, 1964, at Williamsburg, Clermont County, Ohio:

Dr. ALBERT DAVID MC ERLANE, 159 South 2nd Street, furnished the following information:

He and his wife flew to Washington, D. C., to march in President KENNEDY's funeral procession. He was in the Navy and met KENNEDY once in the service in 1942 when the President was just another Navy officer. MC ERLANE was a combat Intelligence Officer on board ship and acting Communications Officer during World War II.

His purpose in sending his telegram to ROBERT KENNEDY was to talk to someone about getting legislation enacted immediately which would take the RUBY murder trial out of the jurisdiction of Texas into the Federal court because he does not think RUBY will get a fair trial in the state court. He is not legally informed, but he would help any way he can in a movement to get RUBY's trial in Federal court.

Dr. MC ERLANE stated that he did not know victim; have any information on the assassination or any association of victim and subject, and did not know RUBY unless subject is identical with one RUBENSTEIN, first name unknown, who was a Navy enlisted man whom MC ERLANE met in February or March of 1943 or 1944 at Hollywood Beach, Florida. He knew this RUBENSTEIN briefly when MC ERLANE was attending the Navy Radar School at the Hollywood Beach Hotel, exact dates not recalled, having met him at Pappa Bouche's (phonetic) place, a sort of night club, south of Hollywood Beach towards Miami and within walking distance of the Hollwood Beach Hotel. This RUBENSTEIN was not attending the radar school, was a white male, American, in the Navy, about 5'10", 150 pounds, 21 or 22 years of age, thin build, unmarried, and said he was a friend of JACK DEMPSEY who was a Coast Guard officer. He was supposed to meet DEMPSEY one night but this did not materialize. He was a likeable, alert individual who "knew his way around," having gotten a plane ticket for MC ERLANE for a trip to Cincinnati near the end of MC ERLANE's radar school training, after which MC ERLANE never saw him again. On being shown a copy of the November 24, 1963, Dallas Police Department photograph of subject, Dr. MC ERLANE stated that the RUBENSTEIN he knew resembled the photograph in some features generally, particularly the large nose as best he could judge after 20 years. This man was also known to a fellow Navy Radar School ensign named SPARROW, first name not known, who was believed to have been killed in the Pacific when his ship sank off Iwo Jima. He stated he could recall nothing further on this RUBENSTEIN.

Dr. MC ERLANE appeared nervous in mannerisms and spoke emotionally when discussing the assassination. His description from the interview and credit bureau check is: ALBERT D. MC ERLANE

|---|---|
| Name: | Dr. ALBERT DAVID MC ERLANE |
| Address: | 159 S. 2nd Street, Williamsburg, Ohio |
| Occupation: | M. D., general practice in Williamsburg since October, 1963 |

| Military Service: | U. S. Navy, NSN 413347/2105, World War II |
| Miscellaneous: | No record at Cincinnati Police Department and Hamilton County Sheriff's Office |

Check of the Credit Bureau of Cincinnati through Miss KATHERINE HOOD, Supervisor, reflects that Dr. ALBERT MC ERLANE, divorced wife MARY, is a self-employed physician, his address in a September, 1963, report being 3927 Reading Road, with September, 1957, address of 161 West Sharon Avenue, Glendale, Ohio, a Cincinnati suburb. He has been known to the Credit Bureau file since 1954, has been in medical practice since September, 1957, and is well regarded as to character, habits and morals. The September, 1963 report shows his estimated monthly income as $600.00, graduated from the University of Cincinnati Medical College in July, 1954, and later on the staffs of St. Mary's hospital, where he interned, also Deaconness and Good Samaritan hospitals. His credit record reflects six money suits between 1961 and 1963 including a mortgage foreclosure in 1963, a $12,479.71 note in 1962, and a $75.00 Personal Tax suit in 1962. There is also record as of August 6, 1962, of a divorce action by ALBERT D. MC ERLANE, 161 West Sharon Avenue, Glendale, versus MARY J. MC ERLANE for divorce and custody of children, but no record that the divorce was actually granted. There were also several collection items.

Commander CHARLES LEON NAGLE, Assistant to the Deputy Comptroller, Office of the Secretary of the Navy, Pentagon Building, Washington, D. C., advised that during August, 1950 he received a near fatal head injury while stationed with the Navy in Dallas, Texas.

He advised that this injury resulted in the placement of a steel plate in his head and also caused a complete memory lapse concerning activities which had occurred just prior to his receiving the injury. He explained that his own personal recollection was that he had attended a Navy League Banquet at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas, Texas, the night of the accident. His next recollection was when he regained consciousness approximately a week later in the Fort Worth General Hospital, Fort Worth, Texas.

NAGLE stated that through hearsay from other officers whom he accompanied that evening, names unrecalled, he learned the following:

After the banquet a group including himself had visited a night club. On leaving the club he reportedly had taken the wrong hat and returned to obtain his own while his companions waited outside the club. These companions subsequently found him unconscious at the bottom of the stairs leading to the night club on the second floor. He was carried to the Adolphus Hotel which reportedly was across the street from the club. The house physician determined he was in critical condition with a fractured skull and sent him to the hospital.

NAGLE stated that he has never attempted to return to the club or otherwise ascertain how he sustained this injury. He does not believe that he fell down the night club stairs, however, has no recollection that he was physically attacked by anyone in the club. He feels that the subsequent Police and Navy investigation of the matter may have developed further details in this regard.

NAGLE informed that during the previous week he contacted Texas Congressman RAY ROBERTS at the latter's request. Congressman ROBERTS informed him that he might be somewhat of a celebrity due to the fact that JACK RUBY may have been the person responsible for his head injury in 1950. The Congressman explained that the night club where he, NAGLE, received this injury was known as Abe and Pappys and the bouncer at the time reportedly was JACK RUBY. The Congressman asked him if he could recall any of the circumstances and NAGLE informed him that he could not due to his memory lapse.

NAGLE stated that during this conversation a call was received from H. R. NIEMAN, JR., retired United States Navy Admiral who had handled the Navy inquiry concerning this matter. NIEMAN also asked him whether he could recall the event commenting that he felt that JACK RUBY might have been responsible for physically attacking him and causing this injury.

NAGLE advised that he has observed photographs of JACK RUBY in various papers and magazines, however, cannot recall ever having seen him before.

DON D. REECE, Route 1, Box 8, Prairie Grove, Arkansas, on December 20, 1963, furnished the following information:

A day or two after LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot by JACK L. RUBY, he was eating at a drive-in restaurant in the 1300 block on Irving Boulevard in Irving, Texas and overheard a conversation between some woman and her daughter. The daughter, whose first name was FRANCINE, was working as a car hop at the drive-in restaurant.

The woman told FRANCINE that a girl who worked for her had formerly worked for RUBY. Too, the woman revealed during the conversation that she resided a few doors from where the OSWALD family lived at Irving.

According to Mr. REECE, he told JACK DORRIS, Security Officer, Stoneleigh Hotel of the conversation he overheard and DORRIS reported the information to the FBI Office in Dallas, Texas. He was contacted telephonically by the FBI Office in Dallas and furnished the Dallas Office the above information. He stated he found out the name of the woman and her daughter and also furnished this to the Dallas FBI Office, but at this time does not have their full names or recall them.

Baltimore, Maryland
Phone SARATOGA 7-9050

On December 13, 1963, SOL GOODMAN, proprietor of the Two O'Clock Night Club, 414 E. Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Maryland, advised Special Agent J. STANLEY POTZ that CARMELLA is one of the dancers for whom he served as booking agent. The only entertainer by this name booked by GOODMAN is CARMELLA ANTOINETTE RICKMAN and GOODMAN does not know any other entertainers by the name of CARMELLA.

Mr. GOODMAN explained that CARMELLA has not been in Baltimore for several months, but has been filling engagements at various night clubs around the country. She is currently on a two week engagement, starting December 9, 1963, at the Bagdad Playmate Club, Forestville, Connecticut, a suburb of Bristol, Connecticut.

GOODMAN stated that he has never booked CARMELLA in the night club of JACK L. RUBY in Dallas, Texas and does not know of any association CARMELLA may have had with RUBY or his club. He said he had received a telephone call from CARMELLA since November 22, 1963, concerning a booking and that she had not mentioned any knowledge of, or contact with RUBY.

Mr. GOODMAN stated that he did not know how RUBY had secured CARMELLA's name in care of the address and telephone of GOODMAN. He mentioned that CARMELLA also gets some bookings through ROZ RUSSELL of Atlanta, Georgia. Mr. GOODMAN added that he, himself, does not know either JACK L. RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has never had any contact or communication with either of them. So far as he knows, RUBY has never been to GOODMAN's Two O'Clock Club, or to Baltimore.

CARMELLA ANTOINETTE RICKMAN, 7333 - 85th Avenue, Palmer Park, Hyattsville, Maryland, business address Post Office Box 1414, Landover, Maryland, advised that she dances under the name of "CARMELLA". According to RICKMAN, she has never performed in the state of Texas.

RICKMAN pointed out that there are five other dancers using the name "CARMELLA" to her knowledge. She said she has never met JACK RUBY and would not work in his club due to the low salaries which he pays.

RICKMAN said that it was possible that a theatrical agent may have submitted her name to RUBY without her knowing it since this is a common occurrence in show business.

RICKMAN advised that she does not know of any association whatsoever between RUBY and OSWALD. She further advised that she does not know any of RUBY's associates.

RICKMAN likewise stated that she was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

ELIZABETH ANN TIDDER, nee LANDERS, formerly Mrs. ROBERT SEYMOUR HIRSCH, 1603 Trinity View, Irving, Texas, voluntarily furnished the following information:

About six years ago she was employed as a cigarette girl at the Theater Lounge in Dallas, Texas. The owner of the Theater Lounge was BERNIE WEINSTEIN. WEINSTEIN told her that there would never be a raid on the Theater Lounge as he had connections in the Police Department. He never mentioned who his connections were and she did not know whom his connections were with the Police Department. She saw on one occasion WEINSTEIN give money to a detective of the Dallas Police Department. She did not know this detective or, in fact, if he actually was a detective. She could not give any specific details regarding any other pay-offs by WEINSTEIN. She said it was generally believed that in order to operate such a club, the owners would have to "pay off" the Police Department.

She has never met JACK RUBY and, in fact, never heard his name until the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She did not know OSWALD, nor has she heard of any association between RUBY and OSWALD. She met her former husband ROBERT HIRSCH in Terrell, Texas, where both were being treated for a mental disorder. HIRSCH was the type of person who would like people to think he was important and she believed that he would fabricate details in order to make people believe that he was important. She added that she believes the Dallas Police Department presently have a warrant for the arrest of her former husband on traffic charges.

Although Mr. WISE could not recall the exact circumstances surrounding the meeting of JACK RUBY, he could recall that he was working for a Mr. MAXWELL during the early part of 1963 as an accountant and during this period, JACK RUBY had contacted Mr. MAXWELL in efforts to obtain a job for one of his girls. WISE stated that he did not know the name of this particular girl but did know that RUBY was attempting to arrange some type of employment with MAXWELL for this particular girl. He stated that he had met RUBY for a very brief period that particular day and could also recall giving him a business card with his, WISE, name, business and telephone number. Mr. WISE stated that he is always looking for more business and because of this had given RUBY his card in hopes that RUBY may contact him at a future date for purposes of handling his account.

Mr. WISE further advised that this was the only time he had met JACK RUBY and for this reason could offer no information pertaining to his background, associates or friends. LEE HARVEY OSWALD is unknown to him and he knew of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY. The first he had heard of OSWALD was in the local newspapers just after the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mr. WISE went on to say that he did not know the connection between JACK RUBY and Mr. MAXWELL but was of the opinion that MAXWELL was a close associate of RUBY.

Mr. WISE was unable to furnish any other information and stated that the only information he possessed was that which he had read from the newspaper and television.

The name "BETTY KELLEY, LA 6-3253" appeared on a note pad belonging to JACK RUBY and the following investigation was conducted in efforts to identify, locate and interview this individual for any information pertaining to RUBY:

A review of the Cole's Criss-Cross Directory by SA LANSING P. LOGAN on December 16, 1963, revealed that telephone number LA 6-3253 is listed to a BETTY KELLEY, 3500 Routh, Dallas, Texas.

Attempts to locate BETTY KELLEY at 3500 Routh by SA LOGAN on same date resulted in negative contacts. A neighborhood investigation was conducted with negative results regarding the whereabouts of BETTY KELLEY at this address.

A review of the current City Directory reflected a BETTY KELLEY residing at 14200 Heritage Circle, Dallas, telephone number CH 7-7260.

Mrs. BETTY KELLEY, 14200 Heritage Circle, Dallas, was contacted on December 20, 1963, at which time she advised that JACK RUBY is unknown to her and she can think of no reason whatsoever as to why the name BETTY KELLEY, LA 6-3253, appeared in the personal effects of RUBY. To the best of her recollection, she has never had a telephone number similar to this one and knew of no one by the name BETTY KELLEY who would be associated with RUBY.

On December 20, 1963, [BIRDIE SUE BELCHER] Clerk, Merchants Retail Credit Association of Dallas, Dallas, advised that a search of her records failed to reveal a BETTY KELLEY that had a previous address of 3500 Routh, Dallas.

[JUDY HAHN] Clerk, Dallas Police Department, advised that a review of her records failed to reveal any information identifiable with BETTY KELLEY.

It should be noted that inquiry at telephone number LA 6-3253 resulted in negative contact concerning BETTY KELLEY.

On December 20, 1963, Mrs. BETTY JEAN KELLY, 273 Monahan Court, Dallas, advised that she is not acquainted with JACK RUBY nor could she think of any reason why the name BETTY KELLEY with the telephone number notation LA 6-3253 appeared in RUBY's effects. She advised that she has never had a telephone number similar to this one and was of the opinion that it must be a different BETTY KELLEY.

The notation "KAY, LA 8-8166" appeared in a note pad secured from JACK RUBY's personal effects. The following investigation was conducted in efforts to locate, identify and interview this individual in regard to JACK RUBY:

A review of the Cole's Criss-Cross Directory revealed that telephone number LA 8-8166 is listed to a KATHRINE JOHNSON, 3310 Douglas, Dallas, Texas.

On December 20, 1963, SA LOGAN attempted to contact JOHNSON at 3310 Douglas which resulted in negative contact or any information as to her present whereabouts.

On December 20, 1963, Mr. GEORGE STANSBURY, Manager, Douglas Arms Apartments, telephone number LA 1-3440, advised that he could vaguely recall a KATHRINE JOHNSON who had resided in one of his apartments at 3310 Douglas in 1962. He was of the opinion that she had moved around August, 1962. After a brief review of his records, Mr. STANSBURY stated that KATHRINE JOHNSON had resided at 3310 Douglas from February 1, 1962 until August, 1962, and that she had left without leaving a forwarding address. STANSBURY was unable to offer any information whatsoever pertaining to the whereabouts of KATHRINE JOHNSON and after reviewing his records, indicated that there was no information of value concerning her present whereabouts.

On December 24, 1963, [BIRDIE SUE BELCHER] Merchants Retail Credit Association of Dallas, Dallas, advised a search of her records failed to reveal any information identifiable with KATHRINE JOHNSON.

[JUDY HAHN] Clerk, Dallas Police Department, advised on December 24, 1963, that she was unable to locate any information identifiable with KATHRINE JOHNSON.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES J. WARD at Dallas, Texas:

The below named individuals are believed to be members of one of JACK RUBY's clubs in Dallas:

TOM HANOVER
JULIUS LA FALLO
JAMES R. LANDRUM

The following named individuals advised, on dates indicated, that the files of their organizations contain no record identifiable with the above listed individuals:

BIRDIE SUE BELCHER, Merchants Retail Credit Association, Contacted December 17, 1963;

JIM KITCHINGS, Identification Division, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, contacted December 20, 1963;

J. G. VICKERY, Identification Division. Dallas Police Department, contacted December 20, 1963.

The Dallas City Directory for the years 1961 through 1963, and the Dallas telephone directory, failed to reflect a listing for the above listed members of RUBY's club.

The below listed individual is believed to be a former employee of RUBY:

STEPHANIE LA MAC
3588 A Inwood Road
Dallas, Texas

On the dates indicated, the following named individuals advised they did not know LA MAC or could find no file identifiable with her in their organizations:

DIANA HUNTER, employee Carousel Club;
ANDREW ARMSTRONG, bartender, Carousel Club;
WILMA HUGHES, American Guild of Variety Artists.

All of the above individuals contacted on December 17, 1963.

BIRDIE SUE BELCHER, Merchants Retail Credit Association, contacted on December 18, 1963.

JIM KITCHINGS, Identification Division, Dallas County Sheriff's Office.

J. G. VICKERY, Identification Division, Dallas Police Department.

All of the above individuals were contacted on December 20, 1963.

Mrs. JEAN MORRISON, Assistant Manager, Lemonwood Apartments, 3588 Inwood Road, advised on December 18, 1963 she could locate no record for a STEPHANIE LA MAC as being a former tenant of the Lemonwood Apartments.

She advised the name LA MAC is completely unfamiliar to her.

A review of the City Directory for the years 1961 through 1963 and the Dallas telephone directory, failed to reflect a listing for a STEPHANIE LA MAC.

The following investigation was conducted by SA ROBERT J. ANDERSON at Dallas, Texas:

On December 19, 1963, the Department of Public Safety, Dallas, Texas, advised that 1963 Texas license MK 8053 is registered to CUB AMOS, 3117 Night Street, Dallas, Texas, for a 1962 Oldsmobile.

They advised that 1963 Texas license LM 9143 is registered to J. L. HAYES, 217 North Sevilin, Denison, Texas, for a 1964 Oldsmobile. It is noted that the above two vehicles were observed parked near the Supreme Forest Woodmen's Circle Home, Highway 82 West Sherman, Texas, by Mrs. ELIZABETH GRANT, a practical nurse employed at that Home. She had advised she possibly had seen JACK RUBY at the Home on or about November 19, 1963. Mr. EARLL J. CASEY, Manager of the above Home, stated the above individuals are frequent visitors to the Home for business reasons.

ASSOCIATES AND ACQUAINTANCES OF JACK RUBY

The following investigation was conducted at New York City, New York by SAS TIMOTHY B. LAGRONE and ROBERT J. LAWSON on December 18, 1963, relative to RUBY's possession of telephone number MU 2-5562, which is listed to the Hall Syndicate Incorporated, 30 East 42nd Street, an advertising firm featuring many prominent syndicated columnists, comic strips, and cartoonists.

IRIS WOOLFE, Secretary to ROBERT M. HALL, President of the Hall Syndicate, Incorporated, advised after contact with switchboard operator, Miss IRENE MC CANN, that telephone numbers MU 2-5560, MU 2-5561, MU 2-5562, and MU 2-5563, have been listed to the Hall Syndicate Incorporated, since 1953. MU 2-5562 is used as the night line after 5:00 p.m., and this trunk line is given to any employee needing telephone service after hours. She identified VICTOR RIESEL, and HELEN STAUNTON, managing editor of the firm as the two persons who most frequently work evenings.

Miss WOOLFE advised that this firm features the following syndicated columns:

"The Allen-Scott Report"--reporting team famed for Washington "newsbeats"

Betty Beale--Washington's Number 1 social reporter (weekly)

Leonard Lyons--nation's most amusing anecdotist

Ralph McGill--famous Atlanta publisher and international commentator

William Pahlmann--top authority in interior design (three times weekly)

"Parents Ask"--from The Gesell Institute, leading authority on child developement

DOCUMENTATION NOT PHOTOGRAPHED

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale--famous minister with inspiration for millions (weekly)

Sylvia Porter--most widely read business and financial columnist

Victor Riesel--without peer on labor-management beat

Eric Sevareid--astute commentator on world affairs (weekly)

Horace Sutton--most travelled travel writer (weekly)

"Today's Etiquette"--Louise Davis advises on everyday etiquette

Earl Wilson--gayest, wittiest man-about-world columnist

"Young Living"--Enid Haupt, editor-in-chief of Seventeen magazine, advises young people (three times weekly)

"All About Food"--most intriguing food panel-strip on market

Jack Nicklaus--three golf lessons weekly by the Master's Champ

VICTOR RIESEL advised that his staff is frequently working evenings and uses trunk line MU 2-5562. However, persons who call in use MU 2-5560, and are advised to call back on MU 2-5562 in order to reach him directly. He stated that he has never had any contact with JACK RUBY but suggested that BETTY BEALE, LEONARD LYONS, and EARLE WILSON as possibilities for contact by an individual such as

RUBY who might wish to have his name or the name [illegible] of the Carousel Club appear in a syndicated column.

VICTOR RILSEL further commented on the wide aspects of the RUBY case, and advised that RUBY was formerly an organizer in the trash collection union in Chicago, which is controlled by friends of JAMES HOFFA.

HELEN STAUNTON, Managing Editor, advised that she frequently works evenings, and uses trunk line MU [illegible] 2-5562. She stated that she has not had any contact with JACK RUBY, and has no knowledge of any contact between RUBY and any associate of the Hall Syndicate. She expressed the possiblilty that RUBY may have made an unsuccessful attempt to contact EARLE WILSON or BETTY BEALE whose columns appear in the Dallas News.

Associates and Acquaintances of JACK RUBY

On December 27, 1963, CHARLES SANACORE was interviewed by Special Agent ROBERT J. LAWSON at the House of LOUIS FEDER, 545 Fifth Avenue, New York 17, New York. SANACORE advised that he resides at 297 Graham Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, and that he is a specialist in the designing and selling of hair pieces.

SANACORE advised after a check of his records that he has never had any business contact or association with JACK RUBY. He does not know how RUBY came into possession of his name or the name of his company but suggested the possibility that one of his customers gave his name to RUBY in that RUBY might have been interested in obtaining a hair piece.

SANACORE advised that he has customers from all over the country and that the only knowledge that he has of JACK RUBY is what he read in the newspapers following the assassination.

The following investigation was conducted by SA EDMOND C. HARDIN at Dallas, Texas:

The name LEONARD and the phone number FR 6-8140, appeared in a item secured from RUBY's car following the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by RUBY. It has been determined that this individual is identical with LEONARD WOODS who has been previously interviewed by SA KENNETH P. HUGHES.

The name MAXINE JOHNSON, 2810 Inwood, appeared on a list of names indicating possible former employment by RUBY.

On December 17, 1963, RUTH HAWKINS, 2810 Inwood, advised that she has lived at this address for the past twenty years and for several years has operated the Inwood Day Nursery at this same address. She stated that she knows of no one by the name of MAXINE JOHNSON and does not recall anyone leaving a child at that nursery who may have been employed by JACK RUBY. She stated she does not recall anyone named MAXINE JOHNSON ever coming to this nursery or attempting to leave a child there at any time.

On December 19, 1963, Identification Officers PAT CROSSLAND, Dallas Police Department, and J. H. KITCHING, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, advised they could locate no record identifiable with MAXINE JOHNSON.

On December 19, 1963, BIRDIE SUE BELCHER, Retail Merchants Credit Association of Dallas, advised she could locate no record in her files for a MAXINE JOHNSON.

On December 30, 1963, ANDREW ARMSTRONG, Manager, Carousel Club, advised SA JOSEPH PEGGS that he is sure that no one by the name of MAXINE JOHNSON has ever been employed at the Carousel Club by RUBY, or at any other club to his knowledge. He added that RUBY was in the habit of writing down many names of individual's whom he met or heard of, including names of prospective employees. He explained that this may be the reason for the name MAXINE JOHNSON appearing in a list of names obtained from RUBY.

On December 30, 1963, ALICE ALEXANDER, waitress, Carousel Club, and DIANA HUNTER, dancer, Carousel Club, and former employee of the Vegas Club, advised SA JOSEPH PEGGS that during the past two and one-half to three years no one by the name MAXINE JOHNSON has been employed at that club.

The following investigation was conducted by SA ALLEN H. SMITH in connection with various names and telephone numbers found in JACK RUBY's possession at the time of his arrest November 24, 1963:

RE: TELEPHONE NUMBER HA 8-9589

Search of 1963 Telephone Directories, Dallas, for 1963, 1962 and 1961, show that this number was not listed. In 1960, it was listed to Neal's Rooming House, 3212 Colonial, Dallas, Texas. Inquiry in the vicinity of 3212 Colonial, on December 16, 1963, failed to disclose anyone by the name of NEAL having resided at this address.

On December 19, 1963, Special Agent (R. A. BURROW) Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, stated that HA 8-9589 was connected September 26, 1963. It was a pay station at Fletcher's Corny Dog #2, Fair Park. It was disconnected October 23, 1963.

RE: BERKSHIRE - EM 8-7614

On December 16, 1963, NEWELL OLER, 6442 Ridgemont, Dallas, Texas, stated he had had this telephone number since October, 1962. He did not know JACK RUBY. Search of the Dallas Telephone Directories for 1961 and 1962 did not show a listing for this telephone number. The 1960 telephone directory showed this telephone to have been listed to CHARLES O. ZIEGLER, office 6033 Berkshire Lane.

On December 12, 1963, CHARLES O. ZIEGLER, Accountant, 2924 Bryn Mawr, stated he formerly had his office at 6033 Berkshire, but moved in 1961. He formerly had telephone number EM 8-7614. He said he was not acquainted with JACK RUBY and had no idea as to why RUBY had his former telephone number in his possession.

FERGUSON stated he was not acquainted with JACK RUBY. He stated that Precision Industries had manufactured components for aircrafts.

RE: Mrs. W. A. DUNN

On December 18, 1963, Mr. WILLIAM A. DUNN, 9837 Crestwich and Mrs. BETTY GILBERT (formerly Mrs. WILBORN A. DUNN), 2926 N. Henderson, both stated that they were not acquainted with JACK RUBY and if a Mrs. W. A. DUNN was a member of one of RUBY's clubs, this person was not identical with them.

On December 20, 1963, [BIRDIE SUE BELCHER], Merchants Credit Association of Dallas; [PATRICIA SIWIER], Dallas Police Department, Records Bureau; and [J. H. KITCHING], Dallas County Identification and Records Bureau, informed SA ROBERT J. WIKLISON that their records disclosed no information identifiable with Mrs. W. A. DUNN.

RE: E. JULIAN DAVIS, JR.

Check of the Dallas City Directories for the years 1953 through 1963, failed to disclose a listing for this individual.

On December 20, 1963, [BIRDIE SUE BELCHER], Merchants Credit Association of Dallas; [PATRICIA SIWIER] Dallas

Police Department, Records Bureau, and [J. H. KITCHING] Dallas County Identification and Records Bureau, informed SA ROBERT J. WILKISON that their records contained no information identifiable with this individual.

RE: R. L. SAUNDERS - "DALLAS MORNING NEWS"

SAUNDERS is reported as holder of Carousel Club card number 157. This individual has been previously interviewed.

RE: DEAN SCHNARE

Check of the Dallas City Directories for the years 1953 through 1963 showed no listing for this individual.

On December 20, 1963, [BIRDIE SUE BELCHER] Merchants Credit Association of Dallas; [PATRICIA SIWIEC] Dallas Police Department, Records Bureau; and [J. H. KITCHING] Dallas County Identification and Records Bureau, advised SA ROBERT J. WILKISON that their records disclosed no information identifiable with SCHNARE.

RE: ROBERT CURTIS TREW, 4432 Cole Avenue

This individual is listed as a former employee of JACK RUBY.

On December 19, 1963, Mrs. FREDDIE MURPHY, 4412 McKinney, stated she also managed the apartment at 4432 Cole Avenue. Her records showed that TREW and one HARLAN R. BARRETT rented an apartment at 4432 Cole from November 6, 1962 to January 9, 1963. They moved without leaving a forwarding address. Mrs. MURPHY had made a notation on the lease agreement that BARRETT was employed by the Collins Radio Company in Dallas, but had no information as to TREW's employment. She said she remembered that these two boys were from somewhere "up North" and had come to Dallas for the winter, but she could not remember where they were from. She said she remembered that when they left they said they were going home.

On December 20, 1963, GWEN HOLLEY, Personnal Department, Collin's Radio Company, 1200 N. Alma Road, stated she had no record of HARLAN R. BARRETT ever being an employee of this company.

The Dallas Post Office could locate no forwarding address for TREW or BARRETT.

On December 20, 1963, [BIRDIE SUE BELCHER,] Credit Association of Dallas, informed SA ROBERT J. WILKISON she had no record of ROBERT CURTIS TREW.

RE: J. A. UPSHAW - FR 6-8632 & LA 1-400

On December 19, 1963, DALVIN A. UPSHAW, 5824 Bluffman, Dallas telephone FR 6-8632, stated that he is presently employed as a postman and has been so employed since June 10, 1958. He was assigned to the U.S. Medical Center Station Post Office, 2507 Knight from June 10, 1958, until September, 1960, and the telephone number of this branch was LA 1-4000. He said he did not know JACK RUBY and had no idea as to why RUBY might have had his name. He said, however, that at various times he had delivered mail on a route, which included the Vegas Club on Oak Lawn in Dallas.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES S. WEIR, at Dallas, Texas, on December 31, 1963:

A list of the contents of the personal property of JACK RUBY, furnished to the FBI subsequent to his arrest, reflected a book which may have been a list of the membership of one of JACK RUBY's clubs. Two of the names were IRVING AAKIN and SAMUEL A. GRAY.

Contained in the property of JACK RUBY in connection with the search of RUBY's car were the following name and number:

JACK PORTER, FE 7-3288

The following directories and sources of information were checked in an effort to identify the names IRVING AAKIN, SAMUEL A. GRAY and JACK PORTER, FE 7-3288:

Dallas Telephone and Street Directories;

BIRDIE SUE BELCHER, Dallas Retail Merchants Credit Association;

PATRICIA SIWIEC, Dallas Police Department, Bureau of Records;

J. H. KITCHING, Dallas County Identification and Records Bureau.

GEORGE SENATOR, roomate of JACK RUBY at 223 South Ewing, Dallas, Texas, who was interviewed in December, 1963, advised he was not familiar with the names IRVING AAKIN and SAMUEL A. GRAY.

SUSIE GENTRY, 3108 Rupert Street, Dallas, telephone number ME. 1-4086, advised that prior to the Spring of 1963 her telephone number was FE 7-3288, which number she had had for approximately two years.

GENTRY stated she could recall no one named JACK PORTER who might have used her telephone number as a reference.

ARNOLD CLYDE GAYDOSH, also known as PAT GAYDOSH, 2837 Larry Drive, Dallas, Texas, whose name was furnished by JACK RUBY upon interview by Bureau agents on December 21, 1963, as being an individual with whom he had a conversation at approximately 3:00 AM on November 23, 1963, furnished the following information:

Mr. GAYDOSH advised that he is employed as lobster foreman in the composing room of the "Dallas Times Herald" and his employment is performed on the third floor of the building of that company. His employment is performed from 11:00 PM to 7:00 AM. He stated that he has known JACK RUBY since about 1950 when he, RUBY, was operating the Silver Spur and began contacting GAYDOSH from time to time relative to placing advertisements in the "Times Herald" newspaper concerning this business. He stated that as a result of meeting RUBY, he, GAYDOSH, began to visit RUBY's place of business from time to time as a customer. However, he was never a member of any of RUBY's clubs. He continued to see RUBY and talk with him briefly from time to time in connection with the business relationship established as described above. RUBY would sometimes call him direct to place an ad in the newspaper and periodically would drop in at the building during the early morning hours relative to this type of business.

GAYDOSH stated that he last saw RUBY at about 3:45 or 4:00 AM on November 23, 1963, at which time RUBY came to the third floor of the "Dallas Times Herald" Building relative to an advertisement to be placed in the paper for him. On this occasion, RUBY stated he desired to place two small ads in the paper relative to the Carousel and Vegas Clubs and to place a black border around these ads because of the assassination of President KENNEDY. At that time, RUBY stated, as best as GAYDOSH could recall, "This is no time for joy to be had and music to be heard. I want to show my respect and sympathy for what has happened".

While RUBY was there, he gave GAYDOSH a "twistaway board" which RUBY described as an exercise board and on which board one could do the "twist" dance and at the same time derive benefit from the exercise. GAYDOSH explained that he was given this board by RUBY as a result of a former conversation with RUBY concerning such a board. The occasion for this conversation resulted from an advertisement RUBY had placed in the "Dallas Morning News", a daily newspaper of the "Dallas Times Herald", which advertisement described the board and indicated that the board was daily demonstrated at the Carousel Club by one of the entertainers. When first seeing RUBY in person following this ad, GAYDOSH asked RUBY about the board whereupon RUBY described it and told GAYDOSH he would give him one later on.

While talking to RUBY on November 23, 1963, GAYDOSH noticed that RUBY appeared to be perhaps a little more depressed over the assassination of the President than the average citizen and he repeated on several occasions what a terrible thing it was. He said nothing however which indicated he might be considering killing OSWALD or that OSWALD should be killed by anyone else.

GAYDOSH advised that he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of OSWALD on the part of RUBY. He added that he knows of no association or acquaintanceship between RUBY and OSWALD.

EDWARD FIEN, Room 302, Lacy Building, 1521 Commerce, advised as follows:

He is a custom tailor and is the only tailor in the Lacy Building. Further he is the only employee in his shop and he is acquainted with JACK RUBY based only on the two occasions RUBY has visited his shop. The last time JACK RUBY came into his shop was on November 9, 1963, at which time he came in to pick up a suit which he had previously left for alterations. According to FIEN, JACK RUBY was not in his place of business November 23, 1963, or at anytime after November 9, 1963. He had no knowledge of RUBY other than this and he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Based on this, he knew of no association between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

LOIS MEEKS, waitress, Webb's Waffle Shop, 110 South Murphy, residence 326 East Woodin, advised that at approximately 4:45 AM on the morning of November 23, 1963, JACK RUBY, accompanied by two unidentified men, entered the waffle shop. They seated themselves at the lunch counter. RUBY ordered orange juice and his companions ordered coffee. They then proceeded to spread copies of a newspaper on the lunch counter and to read accounts of the Presidential assassination and look at photographs appearing in the paper. They remained in the waffle shop until approximately 6:00 AM.

Their conversation during this time, to the best of her recollection, concerned the assassination. RUBY did not appear highly excited or emotionally disturbed although she recalled his mentioning at one point, "This is really terrible". They left at approximately 6:00 AM. She never saw RUBY at any time in the waffle shop or elsewhere on the following day, November 24, 1963.

She has known RUBY for the past several years as a customer at the waffle shop as he occasionally had breakfast there. Several of his female employees formerly resided at the Southland Hotel, which is immediately adjacent to the waffle shop. Her contact with him has been as her customer in the waffle shop only, and she had no knowledge or information concerning him otherwise. She never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination and was aware of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

She had no knowledge or information as to the nature or extent, if any, of RUBY's friendship or association with members of the Dallas Police Department. She was aware of no reason why RUBY shot OSWALD.

Mrs. MARIE CROZIER, waitress, Webb's Waffle Shop, 110 South Murphy, residence 1822 Ballaway, Grand Prairie, Texas, advised she never at any time stated that JACK RUBY was in the waffle shop on the morning LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot. She stated that on the day prior to the OSWALD shooting, which was November 23, 1963, she arrived at work shortly after 5:30 A.M. and observed JACK RUBY with two other men, whose names she did not know, at the restaurant. They were drinking coffee and were looking at newspaper photographs and articles concerning the Presidential assassination.

She recalled noting that while RUBY wore a suit coat, he had no dress shirt, and she thought it strange that he would appear in an undershirt. She recalled no particular conversation with him at that time. Such remarks as he made concerned the assassination and gave no indication that he was contemplating the shooting of OSWALD.

Mrs. CROZIER stated she had known RUBY for several years, merely as a customer at the waffle shop, which is located immediately adjacent to the Southland Hotel. Several of RUBY's female employees formerly resided at the hotel, and RUBY was in the habit of having breakfast there occasionally during the early morning hours. Mrs. CROZIER had no association with or knowledge of RUBY except as a customer.

She knew of no association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never heard of OSWALD prior to the Presidential assassination. She was not well enough acquainted with RUBY to state whether or not he was highly emotional. She had no knowledge or information as to the reasons why he shot OSWALD.

Mr. ROLAND C. WEBB, owner, Webb's Waffle Shop, 110 South Murphy, residence 6538 Blanc Circle, advised that he arrived at the waffle shop at approximately 5:30 AM on November 23, 1963. He observed JACK RUBY and two unidentified male companions at the lunch counter looking at newspaper photographs and accounts of the Presidential assassination. The only remark he recalls being made by RUBY was, "This is really terrible". He recalled that while RUBY wore a suit, he did not wear a dress shirt and was attired in an undershirt. RUBY and his companions remained at the coffee shop for approximately thirty minutes, or until about 6:00 AM. RUBY was not in the coffee shop and was not observed by Mr. WEBB at any time on the following day, November 24, 1963.

Mr. WEBB advised he had been acquainted with RUBY as a customer for approximately ten years as several of RUBY's female employees have resided at the Southland Hotel, which is immediately adjacent to the waffle shop, and RUBY would occasionally have breakfast at the waffle shop. Mr. WEBB had no contact or association with RUBY outside of the waffle shop. From his observation of him there, he did not believe RUBY appeared to be overly emotional.

Mr. WEBB never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of the President. He was aware of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY. He had no knowledge or information as to the nature and extent, if any, of RUBY's contact and association with members of the Dallas Police Department. He was aware of no reason why RUBY shot OSWALD.

DONALD S. SAFRAN, whose name was furnished by RUBY during interview on December 21, 1963, as an individual with whom RUBY spoke by phone during the afternoon of November 22, 1963, advised as follows:

Mr. SAFRAN advised that he is employed as an Amusement columnist by the "Dallas Times Herald". He stated that by virtue of his position, he has known JACK RUBY on a business basis during the past five years and has visited his clubs on a number of occasions. He stated that he last saw RUBY in person about six weeks ago when RUBY appeared at the "Times Herald" office requesting that SAFRAN publish in the "Times Herald" paper a photograph of a comedian then employed at one of RUBY's clubs.

Mr. SAFRAN stated that he last talked with RUBY on November 22, 1963, by phone on three separate occasions between approximately 2:30 PM and 3:15 PM. He stated that he, SAFRAN, first called the Carousel Club and requested to speak with RUBY. The purpose of his call was to inquire of RUBY if he planned to close his clubs in view of the assassination of President KENNEDY. RUBY was not present but the individual answering the phone stated he would get in touch with RUBY and have him call SAFRAN. RUBY called SAFRAN a few minutes later and when he was asked if he was going to close his clubs, RUBY stated he planned to close the Carousel Club. RUBY called back a few minutes later and stated that he had decided to close both the Carousel and Vegas Clubs. About 3:15 PM, RUBY called the third time and requested SAFRAN not to mention to the others, i. e., the operators of other clubs at Dallas, that he, RUBY, was closing his clubs, explaining that he wanted to get a "scoop" on them.

SAFRAN stated that during the three telephonic conversations he had with RUBY on November 22, 1963, RUBY briefly mentioned the assassination of President KENNEDY by explaining that he felt terrible over this and that this was a terrible tragedy. He also stated that he had been crying because of the assassination of President KENNEDY. SAFRAN added that he does not recall that RUBY mentioned OSWALD by name on any occasion.

SAFRAN stated that RUBY has, in his opinion, a persecution complex and has often complained to SAFRAN of being given unfair treatment in respect to publicity of his clubs as compared to publicity given other clubs in Dallas.

Mr. SAFRAN advised that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has never received any information indicating a connection or association between RUBY and OSWALD. He advised that he has no information concerning the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY or the manner in which RUBY gained access to the basement of the Dallas Police Department prior to this shooting.

The records of Western Union Telegraph Company, 2034 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, reflect the following information:

Western Union (WU) records were checked for the period June 1, 1963, through November 30, 1963. These records were checked against money orders received by JACK LEON RUBY, also known as Jack Leon Rubenstein, and nickname "SPARKY," with check being made on variations of these names as to initials and first names. Records were also examined for money orders received by RUBY at WU, Dallas. A check was also made for messages sent by RUBY from Dallas. WU does not keep any record of messages received by a person with the exception of the messages set forth below, which it was possible for WU to trace to RUBY as the recipient of the message.

The records were negative regarding money orders sent by JACK RUBY from WU, Dallas, with the exception of a money order sent by JACK RUBY on November 24, 1963, at 11:16 AM, which money order was directed to KAREN BENNETT, care of Western Union Office, Fort Worth, Texas. Details regarding this money order previously obtained and set forth in FBI report. WU records did contain the following information concerning messages sent by JACK RUBY:

On May 28, 1963, RUBY sent the following message to "Eddie Kaplan Agency, 1564 Broadway, New York City." The message was signed "JACK RUBY."

On June 15, 1963, at 5:06 AM, the following message was sent to "M. J. TANNENBAUM, 6027 Chef Menteur, New Orleans, Louisiana." The message read as follows:

"Confirming contract for JADA to appear at the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, June 28 - July 13, 1963, with three consecutive two-week options. Salary at $550. This telegram will constitute a true and real contract, regardless of any other contract in existence. Sincerely." The message was signed "JACK RUBY."

On August 8, 1963, at 1:50 AM, the following message was sent to BOBBY FAYE, National Administrator, care of American Guild of Variety Artists, 551 5th Avenue, New York City. Message read as follows:

"Dear BOBBY. In spite of our recent discussion regarding the stop order on the amateur auditions, no effort is being made to discontinue same in Dallas. In defiance of your direct order dated July 29th and also following with a wire from your local office from TOM PALMER, dated July 30th, advertisements are still running for this week end for audition. I am relying on your good judgment in this matter. Thanks again for your kindness and consideration for me on my visit. Best regards to Miss ROSALER. Sincerely." Message was signed "JACK RUBY."

The following message was sent to Doctor and Mrs. COLEMAN JACOBSON, care of Mrs. OSCAR NEWMAN, 12 72nd Street, New York City. The message was sent at 9:37 AM, October 29, 1963. Message read ad follows:

"We wish to express our sincere sympathy in your great loss." This message was signed, "JACK RUBY and EVE GRANT."

On November 7, 1963, at 5:25 AM, the following message was sent by WU to "BILL DEMAR, Case Mia Motel, Wichita, Kansas." Message read as follows:

"Confirming your wire November 7th. $187 per week for six weeks. Continuous shows starting November 11th. Sincerely." Message signed "JACK RUBY."

Examination of WU records at Dallas revealed the following message was delivered to JACK RUBY on November 13, 1963. It was possible for WU to locate this message since RUBY asked for a report of delivery, which was kept on file in the WU Office, Dallas. The message directed to JACK RUBY read as follows:

"Continuous show policy must discontinue upon receipt of this wire or a relief Master of Ceremonies or act providing the prescribed 45 minute break per AGVA rules and regulations be substituted." This message was signed "TOM PALMER, Dallas Manager, AGVA."

The records of Western Union (WU) Telegraph Company, 2034 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, reflect the following information:

On November 24, 1963, at 12:35 PM, Pacific Standard Time, one PAUL L. COWPERTHWAITE, Los Angeles, California, sent a money order message to JACK RUBY, care of City Jail, Dallas, Texas. This message read as follows:

"Congratulations for eliminating a rat and doing the country a service. Money is to help procure a lawyer." In this money order message, COWPERTHWAITE sent RUBY $10.

On November 24, 1963, at 1:28 PM, Eastern Standard Time, one FRANK DRAGOTTA, 27 Gail Drive, Monmouth Beach, New Jersey, sent a money order message to "JACK RUBBIN," Dallas Police Station, Dallas, Texas. The message was posted at 1:28 PM, Eastern Standard Time, from Asbury Park, New Jersey. In the message, DRAGOTTA stated as follows:

"Get yourself a lawyer with this. Will send all you need." In this message, DRAGOTTA sent RUBY $100.

WU records reflect on November 25, 1963, the WU office at Asbury Park, New Jersey, sent the WU office, Dallas, Texas, a follow-up on the DRAGOTTA message in which the following information was furnished: It was stated DRAGOTTA entered the WU office at Asbury Park, New Jersey, at which time he asked for rates on money messages to Texas. DRAGOTTA was asked the destination city, at which time he declined to furnish the identity of the destination city. After receiving a rate quoted him by the WU clerk, DRAGOTTA completed his money order application, placed it face down on the counter at the WU office, along with $110, after which he left the WU office hurriedly. When WU discovered DRAGOTTA had been overcharged, DRAGOTTA was contacted by telephone at 27 Gail Drive, Monmouth Beach, New Jersey, and DRAGOTTA instructed WU to send the overcharge to him at 27 Gail Drive, Monmouth Beach, New Jersey.

On November 24, 1963, at 3:41 PM, one J. D. HARRISON posted the following message at WU, Ann Arbor, Michican, addressed to JACK RUBY, Dallas, Texas:

"For your legal defense." HARRISON sent RUBY $5 in this money order message.

WU Telegraph Company records failed to reflect RUBY received any additional money order messages, under his true name or other known names, between the period June 1, 1963, to November 30, 1963. Money order messages received were checked for his address at 1312½ Commerce Street, Dallas, the address of the Carousel Club; 3508 Oaklawn, Dallas, the address of the Vegas Club; and 223 South Ewing Street, Dallas, RUBY's home address. WU records were negative regarding money orders sent by RUBY under his true name or other names, between June 1, 1963, and August 31, 1963. These records had previously been checked for sent money orders between the period September 1 and November 24, 1963, with results set forth in previous of-WU records.

The above information should not be made public prior to being properly secured through the issuance of a subpoena duces tecum, which should be directed to Mr. L. R. WILCOX, District Manager, Western Union Telegraph Company, 2034 Main Street, Dallas, Texas.

PAUL J. DORFMAN, 1221 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois, advised as follows:

DORFMAN had never known JACK L. RUBENSTEIN by the name JACK RUBY. His first knowledge that JACK RUBY had changed his name from RUBENSTEIN to RUBY was when he was so advised by IRV KUPCINET, Chicago Sun Times columnist, who telephoned DORFMAN in Palm Springs, California. DORFMAN was amazed when he was told by KUPCINET that it was RUBY who had killed LEE OSWALD. DORFMAN had seen the shooting of OSWALD on television but did not recognize RUBY as the RUBENSTEIN whom he had known.

DORFMAN has never considered RUBY as a friend or associate because he, DORFMAN, who is 62 years of age, was probably 12 or more years older than RUBY. He first knew RUBY as a "neighborhood kid" who lived with his parents on Chicago's West Side, somewhere on Independence Boulevard. DORFMAN could not recall the name of any school RUBY may have attended nor the name of his parents, other than their last name was RUBENSTEIN. DORFMAN could recall no names of RUBY's associates, relatives, employments or neighbors. DORFMAN has not seen RUBY since about 1940, except maybe "a couple of times" when he had seen him on the street. The last time he saw RUBY was about 15 years ago and he only learned through RUBY's brother, that RUBY had gone to Dallas, Texas, and was running a cabaret.

About 1940, RUBY was working as an organizer for the Chicago Waste Material Handlers Union. He had been originally employed by JACK MARTIN who was then president of the union. DORFMAN does not know MARTIN's present whereabouts, but MARTIN used to work for the Chicago Sanitary District.

To DORFMAN's knowledge, RUBY was never a salaried employee of the union but probably drew some expense money from collected dues. RUBY was not a successful organizer and finally voluntarily left his employment with the union in 1940, about two months after DORFMAN was appointed to run it. RUBY probably left this employment because he was not making any money. There was only about $.06 in the treasury when DORFMAN "took over". DORFMAN even had to take $15 out of his own pocket to pay the salary of a female employee, whose name he cannot recall.

DORFMAN considered RUBY to be an emotional type of person who was either easily excitable or not capable of dealing with people. As an example, when RUBY was with the union, he would become personally concerned and involved with complainants to a degree that he became very excited over matters which did not appear to be important.

The only other persons who may have known RUBY in the union were JOE BRIEGLE (Ph) and HARRY O'REILLY (Ph), both now deceased who were Regional Directors of the Union.

DORFMAN was appointed by BRIEGLE in about 1940 to head the Union. This occurred after an argument between MARTIN, who was president of the Union and his organizer LEON COOKE, which resulted in MARTIN shooting COOKE, who subsequently died. According to DORFMAN, COOKE was a man about 25 years younger than MARTIN, and when COOKE assaulted MARTIN, MARTIN shot him in self-defense. MARTIN was tried in a Chicago Court and was found not guilty because the shooting was in self-defense.

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street. Dallas, Texas. Russia

A faded blue cloth jacket with padding bearing label "Sir Jac" with zipper front was exhibited to MARINA. She immediately identified this jacket as being the property of her husband, LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said she recognized the jacket because she has handled it and washed it for OSWALD. Texas. Russia

MARINA was further questioned concerning JOE R. FRANKLIN, who is presently confined at the Texas Department of Corrections at Huntsville, Texas. She reiterated she does not know this person and that she does not believe OSWALD ever knew him. She said in October, 1962, she was residing either at Mercedes Street in Fort Worth or in the homes of friends in Dallas. She did not reside in the Oak Cliff section during the period of October, 1962. She recalls living in a white frame house with a front porch, but this was located on Mercedes Street in Fort Worth. It was a duplex. The people who lived on the other side were a young couple. The woman was pregnant. MARINA does not recall she and OSWALD having any neighbor identified as an older woman who might have caused trouble between MARINA and OSWALD. She does not recall OSWALD ever bringing a man to her house either on Mercedes Street or where she was living with friends in Dallas. She said she does not recall any occasion when she walked from her house to a car with OSWALD and thereafter OSWALD got in the car and drove off with a man.

MARINA advised that to her knowledge she has never heard of the Texas Import-Export Company of Fort Worth, Texas. She said she has had no employment in the United States, nor has she been connected with any mercantile or commercial enterprise. She does not recall OSWALD being connected with any concern by this name.

MARINA said she knows of no Russian officials or intelligence officers that OSWALD contacted in Russia with the exception of those individuals he may have contacted for the purpose of obtaining the necessary documentation relating to his stay in Russia or his subsequent departure with her.

She advised of further information concerning Col. NICOLAI AKSIONOV. She had a girl friend whose boy friend was a distant relative of AKSIONOV. This girl friend and her boy friend did on occasions visit the OSWALDs at their apartment. She recalls this boy mentioning the AKSIONOVs. She recalls he mentioned on one occasion that AKSIONOV's wife had had an affair with another man. She said that this boy had several conversations with OSWALD out of her hearing, and it is entirely possible he may have furnished other facts concerning the background and family of AKSIONOV without her knowledge.

MARINA said she was not interested in conversing on political matters with OSWALD. Whenever he began a conversation along these lines, she would simply tell him that she was not interested. She recalls telling him in New Orleans at the time he was passing out the "Hands Off Cuba" circulars that no one would join his movement as most people had families and had to take care of them. She recalls telling OSWALD that the United States is a rich country and that almost everyone owns a home and OSWALD could not promise land or other things and thereby gain followers.

By letter dated December 17, 1963, JEROME A. PERLES of the law firm Perles, Cohen, Estrow, Kleefeld and Levy, 501 Madison Avenue, New York, New York, advised that sometime prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and the shooting of OSWALD, they had been asked to represent Mr. EDDY ROCCO, who is a photographer. The letter further stated that on November 24, 1963, their client had sold two photographs of JACK RUBY to the Associated Press and on November 25, 1963, certain photographs of JACK RUBENSTEIN and two photographs "which show the interior of the Carousel Club in Dallas" and "the contents of EDDY ROCCO's interview with said JACK RUBENSTEIN" were sold to Life magazine.

The letter further stated that ROCCO resides in Hollywood, California, travels on assignments and free-lance work. Therefore, they did not want to waste the Bureau's time but thought there was a possibility that their client might be of help to the Bureau.

Mr. EDWARD ROCCO, generally known as EDDY ROCCO, advised that he resides at 1350 North Laurel Avenue, Hollywood, California. He is presently visiting his father-in-law in Dallas, Texas. ROCCO stated that he had known of JACK RUBY for approximately two years, but he first met the [redacted] on approximately the fifth or sixth of November, 1963. He stated in the nature of his business he travels around the country, interviews owners and performers in various night clubs and other similar places of entertainment. He said that he had had correspondence with RUBY approximately two years ago when RUBY tried to get him to do a story on RUBY. He stated he decided not to do it at that time.

He stated that when he came here to do a profile on RUBY, which was on either the fifth or sixth of November, 1963, he was down at the Carousel Club for six or seven nights consecutively. He stated he talked to RUBY every night and also talked to several of the entertainers in the club. He stated his conversation with RUBY consisted of personal things about RUBY in connection with his show business.

ROCCO advised he had never heard of OSWALD prior to the time of the shooting. He had never heard any conversation pertaining to RUBY and OSWALD and did not know any of RUBY's associates other than those who were working for him as entertainers in the club at the time he was there. ROCCO further stated that he had taken two pictures of the interior of the Carousel and that Life magazine had these negatives. He said they were presently threatening to sue him because he was not supposed to show any pictures or make any comments to anyone outside of Life magazine.

ROCCO did not discuss anything else pertaining to the suit but did state that KATHRYN LEE or NATALIE KOSEK were both members of Life News Bureau and they would be the ones to contact in the event anyone wanted to observe these pictures.

ROCCO mentioned the pictures because he stated that when he was in New Orleans a few weeks ago, a photographer TERRY FRIEDMAN, with the "Times Picayune" had told him that the man in the plaid shirt in one of these pictures looked like OSWALD to him. ROCCO made available one of these pictures for reproduction. This picture shows approximately twenty-some people apparently looking at one of the entertainers although this cannot be told by looking at the picture. The man in the near foreground with what appears to be a plaid or large-checked shirt on is the one which FRIEDMAN thought might be OSWALD. ROCCO stated that a man whose name he cannot recall operates a flower shop on Canal Street, quite a way out, was reported to have known OSWALD. ROCCO stated that he went out and talked to this man and the man admitted that he had known OSWALD when OSWALD was about fourteen or fifteen years old. He stated that he had not seen OSWALD for nine years and upon seeing the picture stated that, in his opinion, the man in the picture was not OSWALD although he could not be sure of anything since he had not seen OSWALD for approximately nine years as mentioned previously. ROCCO further stated that at the time he went out to the flower shop to talk to this man, two FBI agents were interviewing the man and he had waited until they had finished before he showed the picture to this man. ROCCO stated that if the man in the picture were OSWALD, it would mean a great deal of money to him but he was convinced in his own mind that the man referred to was not OSWALD but he wanted to relate the matter to the FBI. ROCCO stated that as mentioned above both of the pictures of the interior were approximately from the same angle, therefore, he was of the opinion that the picture which he allowed the FBI to reproduce would show approximately the same that could be seen in the negatives that Life magazine has in their possession.

"Last Sunday, my husband and I, took a ride to Dallas to see the spot where our beloved President was assassinated. Later on we walked over to the jail house where Oswald was shot & stood among the many people who where there. My husband walked over to this man who was sitting on the stone wall with a radio to hear the later developments. The man with the radio said, Iwasn't surprised to hear about the killing of the President, for that was the strong rumor for the past month here in Dallas. They said they would shoot him if he visited this city. He went on to say he was surprised Jack Ruby shot Oswald, for six or eight days ago, Oswald was in the 'Carousal Night Club' talking to Ruby and they appeared real friendly. He said Oswald went there often.

"Maybe this bit of information is just loose talk, but I choose not to ignore it.

"Sincerely

"/s/ Mrs. Tilton"

The following investigation was conducted by SA WILLIAM E. LOGG, JR. at Wichita Falls, Texas.

Mrs. TILTON reiterated the information furnished in her letter of November 27, 1963. She stated both she and her husband had talked to the man who had stated he had seen OSWALD talking to RUBY in the Carousel Club. Mrs. TILTON advised, however, neither she nor her husband obtained this man's name nor did she have any other means of identifying him. She advised he was a white male, about 40 to 42, approximately 5'4", stocky build, dark receding hair. She advised he did remark that he was from Dallas and had lived in Dallas for sometime. Mrs. TILTON was unable to furnish any other identifying information concerning this man.

Mrs. M. F. TOBIAS, SR., manager, apartment building, 602-604 Elsbeth, Dallas, Texas, advised that she had previously furnished information that L. H. OSWALD had resided in Apartment 2 of 604 Elsbeth from November 3, 1962, until March 3, 1963. She stated that at that time she also furnished information that GEORGE (LNU) visited apartment #2 at 604 Elsbeth, Dallas, Texas, in a convertible automobile, possibly a Chevrolet, and moved Mrs. OSWALD and her young daughter out of apartment 2 sometime around the last day of November or the first day of December, 1962. Mrs. OSWALD, however, was only gone for approximately one week before she returned. She advised that she has since seen a photograph of JACK RUBY in a Dallas newspaper and felt there might be a possibility that RUBY might be identical with the person named GEORGE. She was shown a photograph of JACK RUBY taken on November 24, 1963. She stated she could not identify RUBY as being GEORGE from this photograph, however, he does resemble this man GEORGE. She stated that she would have to see RUBY in person to either identify or eliminate him.

Mrs. TOBIAS advised there are no tenants presently residing in the building at 604 Elsbeth who would have resided in that building when L. H. OSWALD did from November 3, 1962, to March 3, 1963. OSWALD definitely moved either on March 3, 1963, or the day before or day after. When he moved he moved to 214 W. Neely Street, which is only about 1½ blocks away. There are four apartments in the building at 604 Elsbeth where OSWALD resided. These apartments are numbered 1 - 4. Residing in apartment #1 which is located on the same floor as apartment #2 where OSWALD resided when OSWALD moved in was BEVERLY and GLENN BOLTON. The BOLTONs however, only resided there until about November 17, 1962, when they moved out of town. She believes that BOLTON's father is Mr. A. G. BOLTON, SR., Dallas, Texas, telephone # AX 8-2510.

Mr. ALAN TURNER, on or about November 24, 1962, moved into apartment #1 and was still residing in apartment #1 when the OSWALDs moved. TURNER she believes now resides in California but he did not leave any forwarding address with her.

JACK TUCKER was residing in apartment #3 which is located on the second floor of the building on November 3, 1962, when OSWALD moved into this building in apartment 2. TUCKER moved on December 16, 1962, but did not leave any type of a forwarding address and she has no idea where he might be at this time.

On December 29, 1962, two persons using the names of CARL and LUCY ZEMBOWER moved into apartment #3 and resided in this apartment until February 9, 1963 when LUCY moved to apartment #8 in the other building. CARL at that time was not still residing with LUCY. Apartment #3 then was vacant until after OSWALD moved. She stated that LUCY ZEMBOWER moved later to some unknown address. After LUCY moved CARL came back to the apartment looking for LUCY. CARL at that time told Mrs. TOBIAS that he and LUCY were not married and that the name ZEMBOWER was actually the name of LUCY. She did not learn the last name of CARL and could not advise where he or LUCY could be located.

ALAN TURNER, who is previously set out as being in apartment #1, was on November 3, 1962, residing in apartment #4 and resided in #4 until November 24, 1962, when he moved to apartment #1. Apartment #4 was vacant until about December 17, 1962, when a G. W. WELLS moved to this apartment. WELLS resided in this apartment until about January 8, 1963, when he moved into apartment #6 in another building. She believes that WELLS has now left the city and she has no idea where he might be at this time.

RUSSELL ATKINS moved into apartment #4 on January 28, 1963, and was still residing in #4 when OSWALD moved on March 3, 1963. ATKINS has now moved and she has no idea where he is at this time. She stated the Texas State Police did come to his apartment looking for him after he moved but she could not furnish any information as to why they were looking for him.

She stated that she could not furnish any information regarding the whereabouts of any of the above persons other than that set out above. She stated the owner of the apartment building, Mrs. W. M. JUREK, 9211 Hathaway Street, Dallas, Texas, telephone EM 1-0763, has the information cards which were filled out by the above tenants and these cards might give some background information which might assist in locating them.

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street.

She advised that in the late fall of 1962 when she and OSWALD were living at the Elsbeth Street address in Dallas, they had a quarrel. MARINA decided to move away from OSWALD. She contacted GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, who came out to the Elsbeth Street address in his convertible and took MARINA, her daughter JUNE, and a few baby things to the ANNA MELLER house at 5930½ La Vista. OSWALD was supposed to come to the MELLER house where they could talk over their domestic problems, but he did not. Later the same day, GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT took MARINA back to the Elsbeth Street address, where she packed up some belongings. GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT then took her back to the MELLER house. She stayed there about six days with ANNA MELLER, and then stayed for a while with KATHY FORD, the wife of DECLAN FORD, who lives at 14057 Brookcrest.

MARY LAWRENCE, 4425 Chestnut, Mesquite, Texas, employed as Head Waitress, Night Shift, Lucas B & B Restaurant, 3520 Oaklawn, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

She has been employed as Head Waitress at the Lucas B & B Restaurant, Dallas, for approximately five months each year during the past eight years. During this period, she has known JACK RUBY as a customer at Lucas B & B Restaurant. He would come into the restaurant several nights each week, usually during the early morning hours. She has seen JACK RUBY in the restaurant with a number of different people, both men and women, but she is not acquainted with and does not know the names of any of RUBY's associates. LAWRENCE is also acquainted with RUBY's sister, Mrs. EVA GRANT, who has been a customer frequently at the B & B Restaurant during the past eight years.

On Friday, November 22, 1963, at approximately 1:30 AM, a young man described as white, in his 20's, 5'7" - 9", medium build, 140 lbs., dark hair, came into the restaurant and sat down at a table and when approached stated he was waiting for Mr. RUBY, who would be in in a few minutes. About 2:15 or 2:30 AM, November 22, 1963, JACK RUBY came into the B & B Restaurant and, after looking at the young man at the table, sat down at a table behind the cash register. He did not order his usual food, stating he didn't feel good and ordered a large glass of orange juice. A few minutes later, the young man who was seated at the table went over to RUBY's table. Thereafter, RUBY paid the bill for both himself and the young man who had eaten. Mrs. LAWRENCE had never seen this young man in the restaurant before nor had she ever seen him with JACK RUBY prior to this occasion. On November 22, 1963, after the assassination of President KENNEDY and after the arrest of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Mrs. LAWRENCE saw OSWALD on television and stated the photograph of OSWALD on television appeared very similar to the young man who was with JACK RUBY in the B &B Restaurant earlier on the morning of November 22, 1963. Subsequently, Mrs. LAWRENCE and BOBBY (LNU), the cashier on the night shift at the B & B Restaurant, discussed the young man who was with RUBY on the early morning of November 22, 1963, and they agreed that he appeared very similar to LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. LAWRENCE was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and she stated the young man who was with JACK RUBY in the B & B Restaurant on the early morning of November 22, 1963, was similar in description and appearance to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She recalled, however, that the young man she had seen in the B & B Restaurant had a small scar near his mouth, either on the right or left side.

Mrs. LAWRENCE advised she has no knowledge of the activities of JACK RUBY other than her acquaintance with him as a customer at the B & B Restaurant. She was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never seen him to her knowledge, unless he could have been the man who was with RUBY on the morning of November 22, 1963.

MIMEO WILLIAM WESLEY UPPERMAN, stage name BILLY COLE, Room 5, Carlton Motel, Dallas, was interviewed in connection with information furnished by BOB PATTERSON, YMCA, Dallas, to the effect that on the evening of December 20, 1963, during a discussion at the Celebrity Bar, COLE said that he could prove JACK RUBY had passed money to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. UPPERMAN related the following:

He was in the Celebrity Bar on the evening of December 20, 1963, where his wife, JO ANN UPPERMAN, is a barmaid and he had had a beer with BOB PATTERSON, who lives at the YMCA, Dallas. He said a discussion came up about RUBY shooting OSWALD and he said something to the effect that it was a shame RUBY had shot OSWALD. He said that nothing was said about RUBY giving OSWALD any money. COLE, who was born without legs and who is a singer by occupation, said that he at one time had worked for RUBY at both the Vegas and Carousel Clubs in Dallas and had related this to PATTERSON. COLE was introduced to RUBY in the fall of 1962 by police officer BILL SHAFFORD and went to work at the Vegas Club at that time as a singer. He was there for approximately six months and then went to the Carousel Club in downtown Dallas where he was employed for a couple of months. This latter employment ended in March or April, 1963. He has not worked for RUBY or seen him since except on one occasion in early November, he spoke to RUBY when both were at the Victor Lounge, Commerce Street, across from the Statler Hotel.

COLE is not acquainted with OSWALD and has never seen him any where and particularly he has not seen him in any of JACK RUBY's clubs in Dallas. He knows of no association or connection between OSWALD and RUBY; he had no idea why RUBY had shot OSWALD; he knew nothing of RUBY's movements between November 22 and 24, 1963.

COLE stated that he could always be reached c/o his mother, Mrs. MATTIE COLEMAN, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. FRANK BARRON, 509 Eden Place, Ventura, California.

Mr. ALFRED D. HALL, 2420 19th Avenue, Port Huron, Michigan, Director of the Civil Department, St. Clair County Sheriff's Office, Port Huron, Michigan, stated that on either December 13 or 20, 1963, a Friday evening, at approximately 9 P.M., while at the 402 Club, 402 Quay Street, Port Huron, Michigan, his girl friend, Mrs. NORMA TRAVER, 920 Mansfield Street, Port Huron, and Miss PATTI LEWIS, a stripper, were sitting at the bar.

In conversation, mention was made of President JOHN F. KENNEDY's assassination, and Miss LEWIS was heard to remark that she knew JACK RUBY as she had worked for RUBY at Dallas, Texas, presumably as a stripper, but did not otherwise state when she had been associated with RUBY.

Mr. HALL stated that Miss LEWIS, who appeared at the time to be under partial influence of alcohol, advised in general terms which lacked complete understanding that the whole deal surrounding RUBY's connection with LEE HARVEY OSWALD's situation with regard to the President's death came out of Chicago. Miss LEWIS was then overheard to reportedly state, "I should keep my big mouth shut because every time I drink too much I start to talk too much."

Mr. HALL stated that when Miss LEWIS was asked why she knew of this situation as she had reportedly stated, she commented she had travelled the circuit and had worked in Chicago and made no further comment.

Mr. HALL stated that PATTI LEWIS is a white female, age 24, wears a blond wig, is 5'3" tall, 120 pounds, is three months pregnant and lives in St. Clair Shores, Michigan. She drives a new white Cadillac.

Mr. HALL stated that Miss LEWIS terminated her engagement at the 402 Club and her whereabouts are unknown although she reportedly remarked prior to leaving Port Huron that she was going to appear at the Brass Rail during the New Year's holiday.

On December 30, 1963, Detective HERMAN DUSELLIER, Port Huron, Michigan, Police Department, advised SA PHILIP L. MERCADO that the 402 Club, 402 Quay Street, Port Huron, as required, furnishes the names of all personnel employed at that club.

Detective DUSELLIER stated Port Huron records reveal that one DONELDA KAY BOYNTON, stage name PATTI LEWIS, 2527 Hartline, city not stated, was appearing as a stripteaser at the 402 Club the week of December 9, 1963. These records revealed Miss BOYNTON to be 24 years of age and to have a booking agent, namely, Delbridge and O'Halloran.

DONELDA KAY BOINTON, 2527 Hartline, Rochester, Michigan (permanent address), was interviewed in her automobile in the parking lot of the Windsor Hotel, 2203 Cass, Detroit, Michigan, where she is temporarily residing. She advised that she is employed as an "exotic dancer" and had appeared at Charlie's 402 Show Bar, Port Huron, Michigan, for two weeks in the early part of December, 1963. She said she had appeared there under her professional name, PATTI LEWIS.

BOINTON said that she does not know JACK RUBY, had never worked for him, or at his club in Dallas, Texas, and had not, in fact, ever worked in Texas. She further advised that she did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

BOINTON said that she was acquainted with a stripper named "JADA" who had worked for RUBY and concerning whom there had been considerable publicity in the papers after RUBY killed OSWALD. She said she met "JADA" in about 1957 in Miami Beach, Florida, when they were both working there but she had not seen her since about 1958 or 1959 when they were working in Syracuse, New York. She said "JADA" owes her some money, possibly as much as $300 or $400 as a result of both funds and costumes she has given to her. She said that on several occasions after "JADA" had received publicity, she has mentioned that she knows "JADA" but she has never said that she is acquainted with JACK RUBY.

BOINTON advised that she had no information which would indicate that the assassination of President KENNEDY and the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD were in any manner planned or controlled by any group, organization or individuals other than OSWALD and RUBY, respectively.

BOINTON further advised that she has in the past worked in Chicago, Illinois, but the last time she was there was in 1956 and she knew of no one there who might be in any manner involved in either the assassination or the murder.

Mrs. W. S. LUEBECK, 310 North Broadway, Havana, Illinois, mother-in-law to SA JAMES W. SWINFORD of the Dallas Division, telephonically advised SA SWINFORD on December 16, 1963, that Mrs. (FNU) ISAACS, Havana, Illinois, related to her that she had received a letter from her daughter, ALTA MARIA SHIRLEY, who resides at 6814 Dalhart Lane, Dallas, Texas, wherein Mrs. SHIRLEY stated that her son, name unrecalled, had stopped at a gas station in the Dallas area and while at the station, the station attendant, name unknown, commented to him that he knew that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK L. RUBY were acquainted as OSWALD used to drive RUBY's automobile to his gas station for servicing.

Subsequent contact with Mrs. ALTA SHIRLEY and her son, JOHN, determined that JOHN SHIRLEY, when home from Texas Tech College for Thanksgiving, heard of an SMU student who is a neighbor of CHARLES GOODBREAD, SHIRLEY's classmate, who had knowledge that OSWALD had often taken JACK RUBY's Cadillac car to a service station near the SMU campus, Dallas, for servicing.

Investigation identified the SMU student as WILLIAM VERNON UHLHORN.

Independent of the above, UHLHORN had been contacted on December 2, 1963.

NI FERREI

DL 44-1639
GTB:WGB/gm:BJD

The following investigation was conducted by SAs WILLIAM G. BROOKHART and GEORGE T. BINNEY at Dallas, Texas:

On December 2, 1963, WILLIAM VERNON UHLHORN, student at Southern Methodist University, advised that he had heard a rumor that a colored employee of Mustang Service Station located on Hillcrest Avenue near Southern Methodist University, had remarked that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had driven JACK RUBY's Cadillac to the service station for servicing.

On December 2, 1963, LOWELL DEE ENGLISH, Owner and manager, Mustang Service Center, 6511 Hillcrest Avenue, advised that his employee, ROBERT ROY, had made the comment that while in business for himself a few months ago at Ross Avenue Automotive, Dallas, Texas, LEE OSWALD had taken a 1959 Cadillac convertible to ROY to be repaired. ENGLISH stated he had discussed this matter at length with ROY and had endeavored to determine from ROY if he had saved the work repair order used in connection with the repairs of this alleged 1959 Cadillac. ENGLISH further advised that ROY had stated that in connection with the repairs of the Cadillac, he had driven OSWALD down town to JACK RUBY's burlesque house in Dallas. ENGLISH asked ROY how many times he had driven OSWALD, and ROY alleged that he took OSWALD down town several times. ENGLISH stated ROY had commented that the individual he knew as LEE was identified by ROY as being OSWALD through newspaper pictures after the assassination of President KENNEDY.

ENGLISH stated that he had subsequently searched through the repair orders which ROY had in his possession with negative results. ROY advised ENGLISH that additional repair orders had been retained by the bookkeeper who had handled ROY's accounting matters in connection with the operation of the Ross Avenue Automotive repair.

ENGLISH advised that records of his office revealed that ROBERT V. ROY was employed at the Mustang Service Station when ENGLISH took over the management of the service station on November 30, 1962. In March or April, 1963, ROY resigned to become self employed at the Ross Avenue Automotive

Y FERRELL
DATION

Service. ROY came back to work in October, 1963, at the Mustang Service Station.

On December 2, 1963, ROBERT VERNON ROY, mechanic, Mustang Service Station, residence 2318 Hatcher, advised that during the period he was self employed at the Ross Avenue Automotive Service located at 4228-30 Ross Avenue, Dallas, Texas, in late August or early September, 1963, he recalls that an individual known to him as Mr. LEE came to him for the purpose of doing repair work on a 1959 white Cadillac Convertible De Ville (62 Series). ROY stated that to the best of his recollection, LEE had stated on the first occasion of coming to him that he had been referred to ROY by a colored man who works at Cullum and Boren, a sporting goods company in Dallas, Texas.

ROY stated that he identified the person he knew to be Mr. LEE as LEE OSWALD through observing photographs of OSWALD in the Dallas newspapers following the assassination of President KENNEDY. A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was displayed to ROBERT VERNON ROY at this time, and he positively identified OSWALD as being the man for whom he did automotive repair work on a 1959 white Cadillac Convertible.

ROY stated that the repair work that he had performed for the person he knew as Mr. LEE would appear in his records. He made available two separate stacks of automotive repair orders to interviewing agents. A search of these records reflected no reference to a 1959 Cadillac.

ROY stated that additional repair orders were in the possession of an individual who had done accounting work for Ross Automotive repair. He identified this company as Whitehill Taxkeeping System of Dallas, 13037 Glenside Drive, Dallas, Texas, home phone BL 4-2330.

ROY stated that he had performed services for Mr. LEE on approximately four separate occasions and on one occasion LEE was brought to the Ross Avenue Automotive Repair Service in a 1960 blue four door Chevrolet by three other men whom ROY could not describe. On two other occasions when Mr. LEE came to ROY with the Cadillac, ROY drove Mr. LEE to the downtown area of Dallas, letting Mr. LEE out of ROY's car near the intersection of Elm and Akard not far from Whittle's Music Store.

ROY denied ever observing Mr. LEE in any burlesque house in downtown Dallas, Texas, and further denied ever observing Mr. LEE in the company of JACK RUBY, whose photograph ROY had also observed in the Dallas newspapers following the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. ROY denied having stated that he had driven Mr. LEE to a burlesque house in downtown Dallas and further denied any knowledge that the 1959 Cadillac Convertible upon which he had done repair work belonged to or was connected in any way with JACK RUBY.

On December 3, 1963, Mr. GORDON F. CULLUM, President, Cullum and Boren Company, 1509 Elm Street, Dallas, advised that his company employs approximately ten Negro men, and he would attempt to determine which one of these men may have taken a company car to the Ross Avenue Automotive Service for repairs.

On December 3, 1963, J. WALTER MALLOY, Cullum and Boren Company, advised that records of his office reveal a repair order from Ross Avenue Automotive bearing No. 1184 and dated June 8, 1963, in the name J. W. MALLOY on repair of a 1958 Chevrolet station wagon involving relining of brakes and replacement of two twin drums. This bill was paid by check No. 28331 on June 8, 1963, to Ross Avenue Automotive, 4228-30 Ross Avenue, in the amount of $27.85.

Mr. MALLOY advised that the station wagon had been driven to Ross Avenue Automotive by employee JAMES EARL FUCUALS.

On December 3, 1963, JAMES EARL FUCUALS advised that he recalled driving the company station wagon to Ross Avenue Automotive sometime ago; however, he could not recall the date. He stated further that he could not recall ever having referred anyone to Ross Avenue Automotive. Photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD were displayed to FUCUALS, who stated that he had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD except in newspaper photographs following the assassination of President KENNEDY.

ROBERT VERNON ROY was reinterviewed at Mustang Service Station on December 3, 1963, at which time he made available additional automotive repair orders which he had located through a search of his automobile. A review of these automobile repair orders failed to reflect any record of repair for a 1959 Cadillac. ROY also conducted a search of his former place of business at 4228-30 Ross Avenue and his second automobile, making available additional auto repair work orders to interviewing agents. A review of these auto repair work orders failed to reflect repair on a 1959 Cadillac.

On December 3, 1963, OLIVER C. VAN HOESEN, 2201 West Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, furnished the following information:

A conditional sales contract executed by VAN HOESEN on July 23, 1963, in behalf of ROBERT ROY for Whitehill Taxkeeping System reflected that this bookkeeping system went into effect September 1, 1963. Mr. VAN HOESEN advised that this account was serviced by a representative named HANK STILL, the salesman who had sold the plan to ROY. Mr. VAN HOESEN stated that he, VAN HOESEN, had retained no papers or repair orders of any type belonging to Ross Avenue Automotive Repair Service. He stated that these papers would have been in the possession of HANK STILL on a temporary basis; however, STILL had advised him that all such papers had been returned to Ross Avenue Automotive Repair Service. VAN HOESEN further advised that ROY's affairs were in a very turbulent condition and that he had gone out of business with his affairs and papers in complete disarray and confusion. He stated that subsequent efforts by VAN HOESEN to contact ROY relative to submission of his tax work papers had been negative and that

VAN HOESEN has subsequently disassociated himself with the Whitehill Taxkeeping System. HANK STILL, according to VAN HOESEN, is currently a student attending a college located at Lubbock, Texas, possibly Texas Tech.

VAN HOESEN stated that at no time during his contacts with ROY at the Ross Avenue Automotive Service did he, VAN HOESEN, observe a customer driving a 1959 white Cadillac Convertible, nor could he recollect the description of any of these customers.

On December 4, 1963, ROBERT VERNON ROY was reinterviewed at Mustang Service Station, at which time he advised that LEON WILLIAMS, an accountant, 1201 South Brighton, Dallas, Texas, had handled some accounting work for him during August and September, 1963.

On December 4, 1963, LEON FREDERICK WILLIAMS, 1201 South Brighton, made available automotive repair work orders of August and September, 1963, of Ross Avenue Automotive Service, a review of which reflected no reference to a 1959 Cadillac or the name LEE. Mr. WILLIAMS stated that he had no additional automotive repair records pertaining to Ross Avenue Automotive Repair Service.

On December 4, 1963, JAMES EARL FUCUALS was reinterviewed at Cullum and Boren Company at his request, at which time he furnished the following additional information:

FUCUALS advised that he recalls now that a white man came into Cullum and Boren wanting to look at the yellow pages of the telephone directory indicating that he needed his brakes fixed and wanted to know where the nearest garage was. FUCUALS said that he could go to the Ross Avenue Automotive since he had taken a company car there and received satisfactory service. FUCUALS said that he believes the white man went to the garage on Ross Avenue, and at any rate he wrote the telephone number and address down.

This white man came into the Cullum and Boren store about two or three weeks after FUCUALS had taken the station wagon to the Ross Avenue Automotive Repair, and he described the white man as approximately 35-40 years of age, approximately 5'9", heavy shoulders, wearing a sport coat or brown jacket and slacks. FUCUALS also believes this man was wearing suede loafer type shoes. FUCUALS did not observe the kind of automobile the man wanted repaired. FUCUALS again was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and said that this white man whom he referred to Ross Avenue Automotive did not in any way resemble OSWALD.

New Orleans on December 20, 1963, advised that JOHN LAURELL FORD was located on December 19, 1963, at 207 Louis Anne Avenue, Monroe, Louisiana. FORD stated he was employed at JERRY DUNCAN's service station in Dallas, Texas, from September, 1963, to November, 1963, and resided at 203 Elston Drive and 2423 Marfa Street, Dallas, during this period. FORD stated he placed a telephone call from the pay telephone located at Duncan Service Station to his mother's telephone, 323-6530, Monroe, Louisiana, sometime in the middle of October, 1963. FORD denied any contact or any knowledge of OSWALD and stated that the photograph of OSWALD does not remind him of anyone he has ever seen at the service station or in the neighborhood. FORD advised that the only person he drank beer with from the neighborhood of the station was a white male, 18-20 years of age, 5'3", 125-130 pounds, reddish blond hair, light complexion, dressed in cowboy boots and Western shirt, who rented a room from Mrs. A. C. JOHNSON across the street from the service station. FORD believes this person, name unknown, was employed at an auto parts store on Jefferson Street. FORD further advised this person does not resemble the photograph of OSWALD.

JERRY DUNCAN, operator, Enco Service Station, 1030 North Zangs Street, Dallas, advised SA HENRY J. OLIVER on December 21, 1963, that he had previously advised that he thought OSWALD had gone out on one occasion to drink beer with JOHN L. FORD, a former employee of this station. DUNCAN advised that the only information he can furnish regarding this is that the person he thought might be OSWALD got in a car with FORD and left with him one night after work. He cannot place the exact date but it possibly was in October, 1963. He only saw this man in the car with FORD, and he was some distance away from him at the time. He stated the person with FORD to the best of his recollection did resemble OSWALD and appeared to be similar in size. He advised he cannot furnish any further information in this regard, and it is possible he might be mistaken.

Mrs. A. C. JOHNSON, 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, Texas, on December 21, 1963, advised SA OLIVER that she has a roomer at this address, a FLOYD DE GRAFFENRED, who wears cowboy clothing and who was formerly employed by some auto parts concern. She stated that DE GRAFFENRED is presently employed by Sears Roebuck and Company and has always appeared to be a person of good character.

Mr. FLOYD G. DE GRAFFENRED, 1026 North Beckley, employed Sears Roebuck and Company, Mail Order Division, Dallas, on December 21, 1963, advised that he is acquainted with JOHN FORD, who formerly was employed at the Enco Service Station at 1030 Zangs Street. He stated he on one occasion around October, 1963, was at the service station talking to JOHN FORD and they decided to go drink a beer after FORD got off from work. FORD needed a clean shirt, so he, DE GRAFFENRED, went to his room and got a clean shirt for FORD. After getting this shirt, he returned to the service station and got into a car which belonged to FORD or one of his relatives. FORD got off in a few minutes and they left together and had a few beers. DE GRAFFENRED advised he can never recall seeing LEE HARVEY OSWALD around the Enco Service Station, and to his knowledge, FORD is not acquainted with OSWALD. OSWALD did reside at 1026 North Beckley while DE GRAFFENRED resided at this same address. DE GRAFFENRED advised he does not believe he saw OSWALD more than four or five times and then mainly in the television room. OSWALD would not speak to anyone, and DE GRAFFENRED never at any time talked to him. DE GRAFFENRED stated he could not furnish the names of any friends or associates of OSWALD. He never saw OSWALD talk to anyone and never saw him have any visitors. DE GRAFFENRED stated he does not know JACK RUBY and does not know of any association between RUBY or OSWALD.

Mrs. L. A. DURDEN, 1916 Ida Street, Arlington, Texas, was interviewed at Bond's Clothing Store, A-Harris Shopping Center, Oak Cliff Section, Dallas, Texas, and furnished the following information:

She was born in Germany and came to the United States in 1950 after marrying an American serviceman. She said that she and her husband returned to Germany in 1958 and remained there until 1961, at which time they returned to the United States. She advised she is now divorced from her husband, that in August, 1962, she moved to her present address in Arlington and had a telephone installed in her home. Her telephone number is CR 4-2187.

Mrs. DURDEN stated that she receives very few telephone calls and to the best of her recollection, she did not receive a telephone call on October 25, 1963, and that she did not place a call to her residence on that date.

She could not think of anyone who could have called her from the public telephone booth located at the Enco Service Station, 1030 North Zangs Boulevard, and she has no recollection of ever having placed a call from this public telephone booth to her residence, or to any other individual.

Mrs. DURDEN stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK L. RUBY were unknown to her prior to the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, on November 22, 1963. She is not personally acquainted with these two individuals and the only information she has concerning them is what she has read in the newspapers and from television and radio.

DOUGLAS MOORE, 2537 West Kiest Boulevard, an engineering student at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed concerning information which he was said to have drawn from remarks by Professor ILYA A. MAMANTOV in MAMANTOV's television appearance on December 10, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, that JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been associated with one another.

MOORE said he had drawn the conclusion RUBY and OSWALD were associated when Professor MAMANTOV had reported that OSWALD had requested he be represented by Attorney JOHN ABT of New York City, New York. MOORE said he considered OSWALD's request for this particular attorney to be "some sort of code" between OSWALD and RUBY. This, he said, was the only basis for his having concluded there must be this relationship between RUBY and OSWALD, as drawn from remarks by Professor MAMANTOV. He added that he had not heard the telecast in question but had made his analysis from a report by his mother as to what MAMANTOV had said.

MOORE said it was evident to him, having followed reports closely in the manner of a detective, that RUBY shot OSWALD "to shut him up". He expressed his suspicion of the results of any investigation which might refute reports that the two were associated in the assassination of President KENNEDY. He wondered, too, where OSWALD had gotten "all that money" found in his possession upon his arrest.

MOORE said his interest in following this case had prompted him to call the Dallas Police Department during the afternoon on the day after RUBY shot OSWALD, hopeful that he could get some inside information. His call was switched to one whom he felt to be a young girl. In talking to her, he said he had deduced that some years in the past OSWALD had been employed by RUBY. He expressed uncertainty as to exactly what he had been told and could provide no information which might assist in identifying his source, a girl at the Dallas Police Department.

MOORE said that his father, a realtor, had expressed interest in part-time employment in undercover assignments for the FBI.

JAMES A. JACKSON, 2301 South Ervay, advised that he resides 5107 Junius and has no home telephone. He said he was employed at American Bakery Co., 2301 South Ervay, as a "mixer" and has been so employed since August, 1960. He states his Social Security No. is 465-54-6916, and noted that he formerly used Social Security No. 465-50-6916, until he was advised by the Social Security Administrator that he should not use 50 as it was assigned to another person. This mixup occurred while he was in the Armed Forces or shortly after he got out, when he first went to work for American Bakery Co. He advised he has never known any person named LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY, also known as JACK RUBENSTEIN. He said he had heard of these names since the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, and the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. JACKSON said he first lived at 1204 McKee for about a year, then he moved to 214 West Neely, where he and his wife lived for about nine months, and thereafter moved to 701 North Boulevard Terrace until July, 1963, when he and his wife separated. Her name is SALLY ANN JACKSON, nee Bryer. She now resides at 830 Sabine, Dallas, Texas.

JACKSON states that his mother, Mrs. GUY ALEXANDER, resides 1825 Denton Drive in Carrollton, Texas, and she is the person listed on his employment record as the person to notify in case of death or accident. Mr. JACKSON said his immediate supervisor is Mr. OMAR CURTIS at the American Bakery Co., 2301 South Ervay.

JACKSON said he had no idea how LEE HARVEY OSWALD might have come in possession of a paycheck stub which apparently belonged to him, JACKSON, but that it was possible he might have accidentally dropped this checkstub on the street and someone could have picked it up, but he did not recall ever losing one.

EDDIE PIPER, 3402 Munger Street, employee Texas School Book Depository, 411 Elm Street, was interviewed concerning his being at the book store on November 22, 1963. He advised he came to work at his usual time, 10:00 A.M., November 22, 1963, and during the course of his morning employment had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD, a fellow employee, filling orders on the first floor. He did not recall the specific time he saw OSWALD, stating it was shortly after he got to work and stated this was the only time he saw OSWALD on that particular day.

Approximately 12:30 P.M., he was standing inside the first floor of the Texas School Book Depository looking out the window at the crowd of people who had gathered to view the Presidential Motorcade. While looking out the window, he heard what he believed to be three shots and saw people running, and later determined the President had been shot. He did not view the Presidential Motorcade itself inasmuch as the crowd was in his line of sight, and did not see LEE HARVEY OSWALD after the shots were fired. He advised he never works beyond the fourth floor in the school book building and did not have an occasion on that date to go above the fourth floor, and, further, during his course of employment, he had never entered into any discussions of any kind with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He advised he knew nothing about OSWALD and did not know JACK RUBY, and could offer no pertinent information of value.

Mrs. RUTH M. SMITH, 5315 Tremont, Dallas, Texas, who is employed as a field worker in the Public Welfare Department, furnished the following information:

On the morning of November 22, 1963, she was on the second floor balcony of the old red courthouse located on Main Street, Dallas, Texas. She noted that the Texas School Book Depository is not visible from this balcony as the corner of the courthouse obstructs the view.

She had been there approximately thirty minutes when the motorcade of President KENNEDY passed turning right on Houston Street shortly thereafter. The President's car passed out of her vision when it turned right on Houston Street but came back into sight after turning onto Elm Street.

After the motorcade had passed, she was watching a newsman on Main Street in front of the balcony when she heard what she felt was a shot. She stated there was a pause then two more shots fairly close together. At this time people seemed to panic and were dashing in all directions. She looked back toward President KENNEDY's car after the first shot and thinks he raised his hands to his face. The car seemed to slow or perhaps stop after the first shot and then just after the third shot a Secret Service man from the second car ran up to the rear of the President's car and threw himself into the rear seat. The car immediately sped away.

Mrs. SMITH stated there were a number of people on the balcony, but the only one she could recall specifically was MARVIN C. GAGE who is employed in the Public Welfare Department. She said most of the people on the balcony did not realize President KENNEDY had been shot thinking that the shots were fireworks or that the Secret Service had shot someone in the crowd.

Mrs. SMITH stated she had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD and did not know either OSWALD or JACK RUBY and knew of no association between them.

On December 23, 1963, LEON BURCHAM, 1343½ West 109th Street, telephone PL 4-0935, advised he is employed as a truck driver distributor by Harts Liquor Distributing Company, 1650 Nadeau, Los Angeles, telephone LU 1-6161.

BURCHAM stated he does not personally know JACK RUBY or LEE OSWALD. He does not know of any connection between OSWALD and RUBY. He stated he was very upset over the assassination of President KENNEDY and that "on an impulse" he sent a congratulatory telegram to RUBY for killing OSWALD. He said he has no intention of financially supporting any fund gathered for RUBY's defense.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

After having been advised he need not make any statement, that any statement made by him could be used against him in a court of law and that he had a right to counsel, ROBERT NEWTON CAIN furnished the following information:

CAIN came to Kansas City, Missouri, with his wife, BIRDIE MAE, in late August, 1963. They lived at 3916 Clark Street until early October, 1963, when they separated because of marital difficulties. Since that time, CAIN has been living on and off at 7107 East 67th Street, Raytown, Missouri, with another woman, MARGIE MC CORT.

Mr. CAIN stated he was not working on the day of the assassination and news of it could not have shaken him more if it had been his own father. On November 24, 1963, he was watching television and having a few drinks. As soon as it was announced OSWALD was dead, CAIN telephoned the telegraph office and sent a telegram congratulating RUBY. CAIN advised he would not have done it if he had not been drinking and realizes now that it was a foolish thing to do. He repeated the first sentence of the telegram and said he realized RUBY's act was not the American way, but felt at the time if OSWALD had gone to trial he would be declared insane and not prosecuted.

CAIN worked for Continental Baking Company, Dallas, Texas, from 1947 to 1953. During that time, he lived in Dallas, Houston, Austin and San Antonio. He returned to Dallas, Texas, December 12, 1963, with his wife and rented an apartment at 4501 Sycamore Street, Dallas. They left on December 24, 1963, and CAIN returned to Kansas City, Missouri. His wife, BIRDIE MAE, returned to her parents' home, R. C. TIERCE, Route 1, Northport, Alabama.

Mr. CAIN indicated one of his main reasons for returning to DALLAS was to witness the scene of the assassination of the President. He said the flowers on display from different countries moved him deeply.

"Dear Mr. CHASM

"Thank you so much for your faith in me during these trying times. Also want to thank you for your generous donation.

"May the good Lord bless and keep you.

"Your friend
JACK RUBY"

Mr. LYON advised records of the Bank of Commerce do not disclose the addressee to be an employee of the bank nor is there any record of any banking relationship with this person. Mr. LYON theorized possibly the addressee is connected with a National Bank of Commerce in a city other than Washington, D.C., pointing out there is no bank in the District of Columbia bearing the style "National Bank of Commerce".

Master Sergeant CARL C. DEWEY, 1428 Pennsylvania, Kansas City, Mo. was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent; that he did not have to make any statement and any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was further advised of his right to consult an attorney.

DEWEY advised on the day Late President JOHN F. KENNEDY was shot, he was very upset over the loss of our great President. He related when the news came out that JACK RUBY had shot LEE OSWALD, he said to himself "There is a man who has guts enough to get by all those policemen and shoot the man who shot the President."

He related he felt so good about OSWALD being shot, he decided right then to send JACK RUBY a telegram congratulating him on shooting OSWALD. He said that the way he felt about OSWALD, if he had been in Dallas and had the opportunity, he would have shot OSWALD.

DEWEY related he never met JACK RUBY; has never seen him except on television, and does not have any connection with RUBY or any of RUBY's associates, in any manner.

DEWEY appeared to have been drinking and did not desire to discuss the matter any further, stating he sent the telegram and was not sorry for sending it.

DEWEY related he would not furnish any description of himself, stating all his background is in his file with his organization in Chicago, Illinois.

At Milwaukee, Wisconsin:

On December 20, 1963, NORBERT W. DIETRICH, 6371 North 91 Street, Milwaukee, HOpkins 3-1561 and HOpkins 3-9521, was interviewed by SA RICHARD C. THOMPSON. He stated that he was a great admirer of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and was shocked by his death. Therefore, when he heard the news that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been shot and killed by JACK L. RUBY, he commented to his wife that such was the fate that should have befallen OSWALD. In fact, DIETRICH had been drinking some and he was rather emphatic in stating to his wife that he approved of the killing of OSWALD by RUBY. DIETRICH said that when his wife objected on the grounds that no man had the right to take the life of another, DIETRICH went to the phone and called in a telegram congratulating RUBY for his action. He said it was done on the spur of the moment without regard for the possible investigation that might follow. He said that he was not personally acquainted with either RUBY or OSWALD and had no knowledge of any of the circumstances relating to either, except insofar as he had read them in the papers or heard them on radio or TV.

The files of the Milwaukee Office contain no prior references to NORBERT W. DIETRICH.

TELEGRAMS RECEIVED BY RUBY

The following investigation was conducted by SA ROBERT P. MAHLER at Columbus, Ohio:

CARL DUNCAN, 391 Maplewood, Whitehall, Ohio, employed as a painter for Mollenauer Painting Company, 1226 Mc Allister Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, was interviewed on December 19, 1963. He said he was temporarily unemployed because of a slack season in the painting business. He was born June 22, 1927, Logan, West Virginia, and is married to MADELINE DUNCAN and they have five children.

DUNCAN said he had been highly emotionally interested in the activities which took place following the assassination of the late President KENNEDY and he consistently watched the subsequent developments on his television screen. He stated although he did not vote for KENNEDY, he considered the assassination to be a terrible crime.

During Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, DUNCAN was visiting at the home of his brother-in-law, HOMER MONTGOMERY, 1760 South Eighth Street, Columbus, Ohio, and was watching the news as it developed on television. He saw the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY and his immediate reaction, he said, was one of gladness that OSWALD was shot and he felt OSWALD got what he deserved.

Approximately ten minutes after he viewed the shooting and prior to the time it was announced OSWALD had died as a result of RUBY's action, DUNCAN said he felt so emotionally satisfied that OSWALD had been shot that he telephone the Columbus, Ohio Western Union Office from the home of his brother-in-law and dictated a telegram, to the best of his recollection, to "JACK RUBY, care of Dallas County Jail, Dallas, Texas." He stated he recalls having dictated the following message:

"Congratulations. I am sorry that you didn't kill him."

He said he furnished the Western Union operator with his correct name and address.

DUNCAN said his action was a "spur-of-the-moment" type of thing and because of his emotional state at the time, he did what he thought he should do. He said he definitely is in favor of RUBY and what the latter did to OSWALD. He said if he had waited a day or so longer, he probably would not have sent such a message for he would not have felt so strongly about the latter.

DUNCAN emphatically denied any personal knowledge of either OSWALD or RUBY and said he had never heard of either before. He knows of no connections between the two men. He said he can furnish absolutely no information in regard to either person, their associates or anyone connected with the incident. He repeated that he became strongly upset and expressed his feelings in the telegram to RUBY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA RALPH L. JENSEN at Key West, Florida, on December 20, 1963:

Mrs. MAGGIE T. FRANKLYN also known as JACKIE FRANKLYN, 220 Duval Street, Key West, advised she and her husband had been very fond of President KENNEDY and his assassination upset her emotionally. On the day LEE HARVEY OSWALD was killed by JACK RUBY, she was in her doctor's office being treated for a severe cold and actually saw the killing of OSWALD on television. Everyone was shocked to have been a witness to a murder. Her doctor had remarked someone should give RUBY a medal.

After returning home, she continued to watch later developments on television and decided to send a telegram of congratulations to RUBY. She stated she had no particular motive for sending it and attributes it to being very emotionally upset. She stated if she had thought it over a day or so she would never have sent the telegram.

She stated she has never met OSWALD or RUBY and knew of no connection between them. She stated that while her husband's name appears also as a sender of the telegram, the idea was hers, although he was aware of her actions.

The following investigation was conducted by SA THOMAS B. ESTEP on December 19 and 20, 1963, at Cincinnati, Ohio:

Mr. ORVILLE GEORGE GADD, 9671 Winton Road, not listed in the Hamilton County Directory or the Telephone Directory, was determined on December 19, 1963, to reside at this address and to have unlisted telephone 931-0528.

On December 20, 1963, Mr. GADD furnished the following information:

He is employed by the Flight Propulsion Division, General Electric Company, Evendale, Ohio, and has been employed for the past 11 years by General Electric. He was born September 15, 1927, at Hamilton, Ohio, was in the U. S. Air Force from 1945 to 1947, AFSN 4515058, with honorable discharge, married to ANNABELLE BOONE GADD, no children, was 100 per cent for the late President KENNEDY.

He did not know JACK L. RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor anything about them or the assassination prior to hearing about it at the plant and from the newspapers and television. He has no knowledge concerning any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

He sent a telegram on Sunday, November 24, 1963, after watching television and being emotionally aroused. He telephoned the telegram which read as follows:

"DURING THIS PERIOD OF UNANIMOUS BEREAVEMENT FOR OUR BELOVED PRESIDENT KENNEDY YOUR ACTION WAS A REFLECTION OF EVERY REDBLOODED AMERICANS FEELINGS. TO OBLITERATE THE MONSTER WHICH HOUSED THE SMIRKING FACE AND TWISTED MIND OF THE ASSASSIN WOULD SEEM TO BE LIKE KILLING A WILD ANIMAL HOWEVER AS A CIVILIZED AND DEMOCRATIC PEOPLE WE MUST TEMPER EMOTION WITH REASONING AND COMMON SENSE. THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE IS FOR THE COURTS OF JUSTICE NOT THE INDIVIDUAL."

GADD said that after he had sent the telegram, because he was so emotionally aroused over the assassination, he thought later about the possibility of RUBY actually being connected with

ROBERT B. O'BRIEN, 1600 Holcombe Blvd., Houston, Texas, advised that he has been employed for many years as a travelling salesman for the Vassarette Company of Chicago, manufacturers of brassieres and girdles. Mr. O'BRIEN said that he is acquainted with JACK RUBY of Dallas, Texas, in that he was introduced to him at his night club about two years ago by a friend who knew RUBY. He said that he probably would not recognize him if he would see him on the street and that he has had no personal dealings with him or knowledge of him or his acquaintances, whatsoever.

O'BRIEN was questioned concerning the telegram sent to RUBY, and he denied knowledge of such a telegram having been sent. He recalled that he had just returned to Houston on November 24, 1963, and had found that his wife had moved out of their apartment, desiring a separation. He said he was quite despondent and remembers that he became quite intoxicated over this weekend and could have sent such a telegram, while in a drunken condition.

Mr. O'BRIEN checked records of long distance calls from his telephone and found that he had made twelve (12) long distance calls on this day, which he said was most unusual for him and was further indication to him that he was drunk beyond normal competence.

O'BRIEN stated that he has a personal conviction that RUBY possibly did a service to the country by disposing of OSWALD, but he had not intended to make this feeling a matter or record. He denied knowing any of RUBY's friends and having any knowledge of his relationship with Dallas Police Officers.

JOHN R. SHAW, JR., 206 Beckleywood, Dallas, who sent a telegram to RUBY under the signature of "SAM" following the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY, furnished the following information:

Mr. SHAW stated that he is presently employed as an independent oil promoter. He stated that he was employed as patrolman by the Dallas Police Department during 1946 and 1947 and for several months during 1951. He stated that in connection with his employment as a police officer with the Dallas Police Department, he met JACK RUBY in about 1946 when he, SHAW, was working with police officer RIO SAM PIERCE, now a Lieutenant with the Dallas Police Department. SHAW advised that he and PIERCE frequently saw and talked with RUBY at his club, the Silver Spur, in connection with their police duties. As a result of their contacts with RUBY, he became fairly well acquainted with RUBY and was rather friendly with him as are many members of the Dallas Police Department.

SHAW stated that he last saw RUBY about October, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, and noted nothing in his conversation with him at that time or at any other time indicating that he ever knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD. SHAW added that he himself was never acquainted with OSWALD and never received any information indicating an acquaintance or association between RUBY and OSWALD. Neither did he receive any information relative to reasons concerning why RUBY shot OSWALD nor how he gained access to the basement area of the Dallas Police Department prior to this shooting.

SHAW stated that when President KENNEDY was assassinated and when RUBY shot OSWALD, he, SHAW, was in the Ramada Inn in Midland, Texas, in connection with his business. He stated that as a result of the assassination of President KENNEDY, he, SHAW, was unsuccessful in obtaining a business account due to change of plans, etc., on the part of his customers. As a result, SHAW went on a "binge". He stated that when he heard the news of the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY, he was still intoxicated and inasmuch as he was a friend of RUBY, he began drinking all the heavier and feeling sorry for old RUBY and due to his being glad that OSWALD had been killed, he decided to send SHAW stated that he does not recall the exact wording of his telegram, which he called to the desk by phone, but remembers that it went something as follows: "Congratulations. You killed a snake. Don't worry, I'll be in Dallas and help get you a lawyer." SHAW added that he did not follow up his promise of getting a lawyer for RUBY inasmuch as he learned that RUBY had already obtained counsel.

MARIE JONES, Clerk, Ramada Inn, Midland, Texas, advised that JOHN R. SHAW is a frequent guest of the Ramada Inn and had sent a wire to RUBY care of the Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963.

SHAW, who was intoxicated at the time, was happy that RUBY had killed OSWALD. SHAW told her that RUBY was a good friend of his. He also told her to sign the wire "SAM" as that is how RUBY knew him.

Miss JONES advised that SHAW was a frequent guest of the motel and had in fact checked out of the Ramada Inn on December 18, 1963 presumably to return to Dallas, Texas.

Miss JONES stated that SHAW registers at the motel as JOHN R. SHAW, Shawnee Production Company, with addresses of 206 Becklywood and 101 East Jefferson, Dallas, Texas. Miss JONES stated that SHAW is a heavy drinker and a big spender.

On December 19, 1963, Mr. ARTHUR VOLNEY SMITH, Apartment 3, 14422 Runnymeade Street, furnished the following information to SA CHARLES A. SHAW:

He said that he is 37 years of age and a veteran of World War II and the Korean War and holds the DFC and the Air Metal. He admitted being very emotionally upset over the assassination of the President and considered KENNEDY to be a very able President. Upon learning of the shooting of LEE OSWALD by JACK RUBY he had then sent a telegram of congratulations to RUBY at Dallas, Texas, because of his personal feelings in the matter, although he now feels that every man should first have his day in court before being judged guilty. Mr. SMITH stated that both JACK RUBY and LEE OSWALD were unknown to him and that he had no first hand information concerning either men.

The following investigation was conducted at St. Louis, Missouri by Special Agents JOHN H. CREECH and C. PERSHING BELL:

On December 19, 1963, Colonel JACK STINSON, President of the American Society of Auctioneers, was contacted at his home, 5326 Conde.

Colonel STINSON stated that he did send a telegram to JACK RUBY in Dallas which was of a congratulatory nature and which was sent shortly after the death of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Colonel STINSON said that he had been drinking and was very morose over the death of the President. He believes that this condition caused him to send the telegram because when he later considered what he had done he was rather regretful.

Colonel STINSON advised that he never knew JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that the idea of sending the telegram was strictly his own and not that of the American Society of Auctioneers. He felt that by sending the telegram it might boost RUBY's morale.

Colonel STINSON stated that the title Colonel preceding his name is one of an honorary nature and reflects no past military service. He stated that the title Colonel is one often given to auctioneers. He said that during the War he worked in the small arms plant in St. Louis and did not see military service due to a punctured eardrum. He stated that his date and place of birth were August 29, 1904 at St. Louis, Missouri.

Colonel STINSON stated that he is married and has two children and has been an auctioneer since the end of World War II.

The following investigation was conducted at Springfield, Oregon, by SA WILLARD T. LINEHAN:

ROBERT ~~J.~~ WRIGHT, 1974 N. 16th Street, telephone number 746-1984, said on December 21, 1963, that he is the Eugene area general agent for ICOA Life Insurance, which business is located at 29 West 11th Avenue, Eugene, Oregon.

Mr. WRIGHT said that on November 24, 1963, he and his wife were at their home watching the telecasts concerning the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY. They were watching television at the time JACK L. RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD. They continued watching and the more he thought about the matter the more he became convinced that he should send a telegram to RUBY. After some little time he went to the telephone, called Western Union in Eugene, Oregon, and dictated a message to the operator, charging the message to his home telephone, 746-1984 in Springfield, Oregon ( a closed telephone number).

He sent the telegram to JACK RUBY, Dallas City Hall, Dallas, Texas, and he dictated one word "Congratulations." The telegram was signed by him as BOB WRIGHT.

After he had dictated the telegram the girl to whom he dictated it, identity not known, mentioned something to the effect that she was not sure whether or not a telegram of this type could be sent. He did not argue with her over the matter. He returned to watch television and the more he thought about the matter of the remark made by the Western Union Clerk, the better he felt over the fact that apparently the telegram was not going to be sent.

The next information he knew concerning the telegram was knowledge gained by him from his telephone bill that the telegram actually was transmitted.

RELL FOUNDATION

He remarked that he possessed no personal knowledge concerning JACK L. RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and knows no information that they may have any connection with each other.

Mr. WRIGHT explained that although some time elapsed between the time he observed the shooting on the telecast and the time he sent the telegram, his action concerning the latter was a "spur of the moment act," and he has felt quite "foolish" about his action.

The following description of ROBERT J. WRIGHT was obtained through interrogation and observation:

|---|---|
| Race | White |
| Sex | Male |
| Nationality | American |
| Date of Birth | July 6, 1920 |
| Place of Birth | Marquette, Michigan |
| Height | Five feet, 11 3/4 inches |
| Weight | 185 pounds |
| Hair | Brown |
| Eyes | Blue |
| Marital Status | Married |
| Children | Six |
| Occupation | General agent for IOAC Insurance Company in Eugene, Oregon |
| Military Service | Received honorable discharge at end of World War II from U.S. Navy |
| Navy Serial Number | 2998872 |

Although he was born in Marquette, Mr. WRIGHT grew up in Chicago, Illinois, and he said he lived there until he entered the service at about the age of 17 years. He never met any persons in Chicago by the names of JACK LEON RUBY, JACK RUBINSTEIN, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, or O.H. LEE.

Mrs. ROBERT J. WRIGHT was interviewed on December 19, 1963, at which time it was ascertained that

The following investigation was conducted by Investigative Clerk JAMES D. MC KENZIE on December 19, 1963:

Investigative Clerk EUGENE KIRKMAN of the Washington Field Office assigned to the D.C. Credit Bureau, advised that a report of that agency dated August 14, 1961 pertained to a WILLIAM H. MC CLELLAND and his wife SHELBY JEAN MC CLELLAND who at that time resided at 7226 Forest Road, Kent Village, Maryland. Mr. MC CLELLAND was employed with the Association of American Railroads as a graphotype operator and his wife SHELBY was employed with the Acme Visible Records Company located at 707 H Street, Northwest, Washington, D.C.

Investigative Clerk KIRKMAN also located a D.C. Credit report made in 1963 for a ROBERT C. O'SHEA, date of birth December 24, 1916 and his wife SUSAN FRANCES O'SHEA, who at that time resided at 3542 Madison Street, Hyattsville, Maryland. This report disclosed that Mr. O'SHEA is employed as manager of the National Shirt Shop located at 432 F Street, Northwest, Washington, D.C. This report also contained a notation that both Mr. and Mrs. O'SHEA were from Dublin, Ireland.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent JAMES W. SIBERT on December 19, 1963:

Mrs. ROBERT CHRISTOPHER O'SHEA, 3542 Madison Street, advised that she was at home on Sunday, November 24, 1963, when her husband called in a Western Union telegram by phone, which was sent to JACK RUBY care of the Dallas, Texas Jail.

Mrs. O'SHEA stated that she and her husband are citizens of the Republic of Ireland and have not yet obtained their American Citizenship and have been in this country for approximately 7 years. She further remarked that her husband was so very disturbed and despondent over the assassination of President KENNEDY that he had broken down and cried immediately following this event and had, therefore, sent the congratulatory telegram to JACK RUBY after OSWALD had been killed.

Mr. ROBERT CHRISTOPHER O'SHEA, Manager of the National Shirt Shop, 432 7th Street, Northwest, Washington, D.C., who resides at 3542 Madison Street, advised that he had returned from Mass on Sunday, November 24, 1963 and was listening to the car radio when he heard the news announcement that RUBY had shot OSWALD. He stated after arriving home, he immediately sent a spontaneous Western Union telegram congratulating RUBY on his action.

Mr. O'SHEA stated that "if he had anything to do with it, he would have given RUBY the Congressional Medal of Honor". Mr. O'SHEA stated that he is not acquainted with RUBY, has never had any connection with JACK RUBY and is in possession of no information indicating that RUBY and OSWALD were previously acquainted prior to OSWALD's death.

Mrs. SHELBY JEAN MC CLELLAND, Apartment D-7, 4077 Warner Avenue, Hyattsville, Maryland, advised that she is no longer employed with Acme Visible Records and is currently a housewife. She advised that she had sent a Western Union telegram to JACK RUBY and that this was done on the spur of the moment after she had observed OSWALD's death on television. Mrs. MC CLELLAND stated that she could not account for her action in sending this telegram other than she felt that OSWALD got what he deserved and she personally feels that RUBY should "get off" any murder charges now pending.

Mrs. MC CLELLAND stated that she is not acquainted with JACK RUBY and has had no type of association with this individual and furthermore has never received any information indicating that RUBY and OSWALD had associations prior to OSWALD's death.

On December 19, 1963, DANIEL J. FITZMAURICE, 16 Huntington Avenue, Worcester, Massachusetts, advised SA GEORGE S. WALLACE as follows:

He is a machine operator employed by Henry R. Hanson Company, Worcester, Massachusetts, and he did send a congratulatory message by telegram to JACK RUBY following the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated he did this on the spur of the moment because he was agitated. He denied that he was acquainted with RUBY or OSWALD or that he had any information concerning either of them.

On December 23, 1963, Mrs. RENA L. JORDAN, 905 Watertown Street, West Newton, Massachusetts, advised SA JAMES J. STRATFORD, JR that she was so devoted to the late President KENNEDY and her heart was so filled with patriotism that she sent a telegram directed to JACK RUBY after RUBY had been arrested and charged with the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said she does not recall the message and does not believe that it was congratulatory in nature, but she sent it because she hated violence and she loved President KENNEDY. She stated that she has never been in Dallas, Texas in her life and she does not know JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

On December 30, 1963, THOMAS T. HANTAKOS, age 37, a bakery worker, married, has two children, residing 31 Claybourne Street, Dorchester, Massachusetts, advised SA JAMES J. STRATFORD, JR., as follows:

He sent a congratulatory telegram to JACK RUBY "on the spur of the moment." He said he was upset over the death of President KENNEDY and had no personal interest in JACK RUBY. He said he has never been to Dallas, Texas and does not know RUBY or OSWALD or anything concerning them other than what has appeared in news media.

On December 26, 1963, WILLIS C. HARRIS, 82 Middle Street, Braintree, Massachusetts, an oil burner repairman, age 34, advised SA JAMES J. STRATFORD, JR. that he had sent a congratulatory telegram to JACK RUBY. He stated that sending this telegram meant nothing to him and he now realizes that it was a stupid thing to do. He stated that he has never been in Dallas, Texas and does not know JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

The following investigation was conducted by SAs JACK EVANS MEHL and RICHARD G. PETERSON on December 20, 1963:

Mr. VERN TOMPKINS, 206 Melody Lane, Akron, Ohio, advised that on November 24, 1963, he sent a telegram to JACK RUBY, C/O Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, congratulating him on the assassination of LEE OSWALD. TOMPKINS stated he has never met RUBY or OSWALD nor has he ever belonged to any organization that these two individuals were affiliated with. He also stated he has no knowledge of any personal connection between RUBY and OSWALD and has no knowledge of their activities. TOMPKINS explained he was extremely upset by the news of President KENNEDY's assassination and did "quite a bit of drinking" over that weekend of November 22-25, 1963. He continued that on Sunday, November 24, 1963, the day he sent the telegram, he had been drinking again and when he received the news that RUBY had shot OSWALD he decided to send him a communication congratulating him.

Mr. JOSEPH CURRIER, 162½ E. York Street, Akron, Ohio, advised that on November 24, 1963, he sent a telegram to JACK RUBY, C/O Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, congratulating him on assassinating LEE OSWALD. He explained his main reason in sending this communication was to let RUBY know he (CURRIER) was glad OSWALD was dead because he was afraid if OSWALD's case went to trial "southern justice" would have set him free. He would not explain further what he meant by "southern justice." CURRIER said he does not personally know RUBY or OSWALD, has no knowledge of any connection between these two individuals and had never heard of them prior to the President's assassination. CURRIER also said he is not a member of any organization whatsoever.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES J. O'CONNELL at Beverly Hills, California:

On December 19, 1963, Miss A. L. LAWSON, 9187 Burton Way, Beverly Hills, California, advised that she did not know JACK LEON RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said she sent a telegram to RUBY at the time he shot OSWALD "on an impulse." She could not furnish any additional information.

On December 19, 1963, a check of available directories, credit bureau, and police department records was negative in locating any FRANK KENNEY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES E. ETHRIDGE:

On December 19, 1963, JOHN M. SMITH, 806 West Commonwealth, Alhambra, California, age 77, denied that he had sent a telegram to RUBY. He said he did not know RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said that he did not know any other JOHN M. SMITH in the Alhambra, California, area.

On December 19, 1963, a check of directories, credit bureau, and records of the Alhambra Police Department were negative in locating any other JOHN M. SMITH or CECILIA HAMILTON of Alhambra, California.

The following investigation was conducted by SA STEPHEN L. DURKIN:

On December 19, 1963, BILLIE (NMI) OWENS, also known as Bill Owens, Manager, Broadway Hotel, 234 East Broadway, Long Beach, California, advised that he did not know RUBY or OSWALD or of any connection between them. He said that he sent a telegram to RUBY at the time RUBY shot OSWALD as OWENS was very upset at the time and felt OSWALD should have been killed. He said, however, that he did this on impulse at the time and now realizes that OSWALD should not have been killed.

The following investigation was conducted by SA J. ROBERT SULLIVAN:

On December 19, 1963, JAMES FRANK STONE, 164 East Washington, Pasadena, California, advised that he did not know RUBY or OSWALD or of any connection between them. He said that he was "touched by the killing of our President" and sent RUBY the telegram on an impulse.

The following investigation was conducted by SA THOMAS G. CUMMINGS:

On December 19, 1963, Mrs. MARY ANN JOHNSON, 134 North Third Street, Fresno, California, advised she did not know RUBY or OSWALD or of any connection between them. She said she had never been in the State of Texas and had sent the telegram to RUBY "on the spur of the moment." She also said she sent a telegram of sympathy to Mrs. JOHN F. KENNEDY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA DONALD L. ALLEN:

On December 19, 1963, a check of directories, credit bureau, and of Huntington Park Police Department records failed to reflect any reference to the name DONALD BEAVSE.

The following investigation was conducted by SA RAYMOND R. RIEHLE, JR.:

On December 19, 1963, FRANK GOODELL, 13342 El Dorado Drive, Apartment 1915, Seal Beach, California, advised he did not know RUBY or OSWALD or of any connection between them. The following investigation was conducted by SA ROBERT S. BAKER at San Diego:

BETTY FELL, 5162 Ewing Street, San Diego, California, on December 19, 1963, advised that she and her sister WINNIE CRAIG of 3024 Main Street, Lemon Grove, California, sent a telegram on or about November 24, 1963, to JACK L. RUBY at Dallas, Texas, congratulating him for shooting LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She stated the telegram was sent at a time that she and her sister were both emotionally distraught over the death of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. She stated that ndther she nor her sister are acquainted with RUBY or OSWALD, nor does she or her sister have any knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

WINNIE CRAIG on December 19, 1963, furnished substantially the same information as her sister, BETTY FELL, regarding the telegram sent to JACK L. RUBY congratulating him for shooting LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mrs. CRAIG stated that neither she nor her sister are acquainted with RUBY or OSWALD and she has no information or any knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

Frisco, Texas
Dec. 21, 63

Dear Sirs:

MOST CONFIDENTIAL AT PRESENT TIME-PLEASE

As an average citizen of the United States, I am getting more irritated each passing day. In later paragraphs you will begin to understand.

The investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy in Dallas has made me a prime target for a gunman on two occasions. I have good evidence to that effect and will testify before thetwelve best brains that can be mustered, and I am convinced they would do just what I am doing in writing this letter.

I have been in and out of Jack Ruby nite spots since he came to Dallas ten years ago. Thanksgiving Day I left a letter containing information for the FBI at the car drop at the central post office in Dallas. No reply or acknowledgment was received from the FBI until I wrote a letter to Congressman Ray Roberts. He answered my letter of Nov. 30 on December. 4. and referred me to a Mr. Vincent Drane, assistant FBI agent in charge of Dallas office.

On the afternoon of Nov. 12, 63, two FBI agents came to my farm home and we sat in their car and talked for a half hour or more. They did not tell me if they had received the letter I had mailed Thanksgiving Day in Dallas, Texas. At the beginning the two agents prime target was the letter I had written to Congressman Ray Roberts and they wanted to know more about it. WHY?

After a wild and dangerous Sunday morning of Dec. 15, 63 at about 10AM, in which for the second time I identified a stranger at the front door of the farm home as a most likely person looking for me, from an upstairs room-not answering the front door, I followed him shortly afterward and raced toward Dallas to the nearest pay telephone. He was in a light blue-green International pickup truck. I got on the phone and the FBI line was busy, I called Texas Department of Public Safety and a man said probably the FBI wanted to talk to this man. I asked them to help get FBI and they said" if you can't, we can't. I dialed the operator and asked for help and she promised but nothing came out of it. Finally, I got someone at the FBI office and he said, "will you be home tomorrow we will check, or something.

Monday afternoon, Dec. 16, at a Dallas parking lot a rope was tied to my car radio antenna. The morning of Dec. 17, 63, I called the FBI office again and talked to a different agent and asked him to interpret this rope incident and he "said he was not familiar with the case. Nothing came out of this-no inquiry-nothing.

Wednesday, Dec. 18, 63 at 8PM, I sent a important telegram to Congressman Ray Roberts from the main Western Union Office in downtown Dallas, Texas. I ~~asked him if he had received my night letter~~ told him briefly what was going on. He told me in his previous letter not to hesitate to ask for help. To date I do not know if he received this wire.

What I need now is a reliable courier to reach Congressman Ray Roberts and ask him if he received this important wire, notify me, and warn him of possible danger because of his knoledge of this case-limited as it ~~was~~ in a short letter.

Re Bureau airtel, 12/31/63 with enclosures.

I am enclosing herewith to the Bureau copy of Dallas airtel, 12/19/63 to the Bureau in the case "JACK L. RUBY, aka; LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka (Deceased) - VICTIM; CR", Bufile 44-24016. This airtel reflects results of an interview with CLAYTON H. CLARK on 12/12/63 by Special Agents ALTON E. BRAMBLETT and LANSING P. LOGAN.

I am also enclosing a photostatic copy of the letter referred to by Mr. CLARK, dated November 28, 1963, as well as a photostatic copy of a letter which he wrote to Congressman RAY ROBERTS which was delivered to this office by Congressman ROBERTS to SA VINCENT E. DRAIN.

It was the conclusion certainly of the Agents conducting this interview that CLARK is [redacted] and certainly has a complex about someone following him. I can find no record of his contacting the office on December 17, but in view of the type of contact where he asks someone to interpret a rope being tied on his car radio antenna, it is entirely possible that if the call was actually made, nothing was done about it. In view of his apparent mental condition, I do not believe that any further contact with this individual is advisable.

Mr. CLAYTON H. CLARK, Route 2, Frisco, Texas, was interviewed on 12/12/63, by Special Agents ALTON E. BRADLEY and LANSING P. LOGAN as a result of a letter dated 11/28/63 to the Dallas FBI Office and letter dated 11/30/63 to Congressman RAY ROBERTS, Washington, D.C., from CLARK. Verifax copies of these letters are being enclosed herewith.

Mr. CLARK advised that in the Fall of 1961, he was in the Ace of Clubs, a Dallas bar. While in this bar, he met a girl by the name of MARIE, last name unknown. He described this girl as blonde, 5' 7", early 20's, wearing glasses, and rather nice looking. They had a few drinks and later went for something to eat. She gave him her phone number and about a week later, he made a date to meet her again at the Ace of Clubs. They had a few drinks and then she asked him to go to a private club that she belonged to on Greenville Avenue in Dallas. When they entered this private club, name not recalled, he noticed a mural on the wall and he made some mention that the mural was the type of art that was degrading to the general public. He could not recall what the mural looked like or exactly why he considered it degrading. She became angry about his comments regarding the mural and excused herself and went to the ladies' room. She stayed about a half hour and when she returned, she said she would like to go home. This girl said she worked for an insurance company and had been formerly employed in Austin, Texas, and was originally from Berlin, as he recalls.

He made another date to meet her in a Chinese restaurant on Greenville Avenue, name not recalled, about a week later. He arrived early and decided to drive around while waiting for her. He saw her drive by the restaurant and followed her but soon lost her. He returned to the restaurant and waited and she never showed up. He thought there was something strange about this and he later telephoned her and learned that the telephone had been disconnected.

[redacted] further advised that in the summer of 1962, he was in the Joker Restaurant in Dallas, Texas, which he described as a restaurant and bar. He noticed an attractive girl sitting over in the corner and in a few minutes she came over and told him that he looked like a General. He could not recall her name. She asked him to go over to her table and have a drink and they had three or four drinks together. She suggested that they go up to her apartment for a few additional drinks. He went over to her apartment, location not recalled and had a few drinks. She kept talking to him as if he were a General and asking him about Physics. He told her that he did not know anything regarding Physics, but she kept asking questions regarding Physics. She then suggested that they go to her private club in South Dallas. They got in to her Sports car with her driving and she drove exceedingly fast, running stop signs and breaking every traffic law. He stated that he was extremely scared and wondered why she was driving so wreckless. Before they got to South Dallas, she said she wanted a drink of ice water and stopped at a motel, name not recalled, and demanded from the manager of the motel a glass of ice water. She became very angry with him and the manager, but finally the manager gave her some ice water. It seemed to him that she wanted something from him, but exactly what, he did not know. [redacted] then went to a downtown Dallas restaurant and ate and drank coffee about 4:00 AM. It seemed to him during their conversation that she was trying to get something from him but he did not know exactly what she wanted from him. She then took him back to his car and before he left he asked her for her phone number. She gave him her phone number and later he determined that the number she had given him was not correct. He was sure she was in some sort of conspiracy as he felt she thought him to be a General and had important information.

He described this girl as blonde, about 34 years old, 5' 5", 122 pounds and very nice looking.

CLARK stated he has not seen the above two girls again, but he has the feeling that they may have been in some sort of conspiracy to obtain information from him.

One night in the Summer of 1962, he had visited the Carousel Club in Dallas. When he returned to his car located in a opened parking lot near the Carousel Club, four men in an automobile had his car blocked in. When he approached his car, these men kept looking at him. He got into his automobile and was afraid to get out due to these men staring at him. He finally asked them to move their car so he could get out which they did. He believed that these men were looking at him to see just what he would do and was possibly trying to harrass him.

In the Fall of 1962, he was driving to Dallas from Frisco and in Highland Park, a carload of men stopped him. These men said they were police officers and that he had committed a traffic violation. These men used very strong language but finally let him go. He never did know exactly what traffic violation he was supposed to have violated. He stated he felt these men had picked him out to stop for some particular reason but he could not give any reason for their action.

He stated one night he came out of a club on Lovers Lane at Dallas and noticed that four women were beating another woman. He believed this woman being beaten was the bandleader's wife in the club that he had just left. One of the women made some comment that she was from Irving, Texas. He did not want to get involved and left. Later a policeman came into the Waffle House where he was eating and questioned him regarding the fight but did not take him in. He believed that they were trying to get him into trouble and this was the reason the woman had attempted to involve him.

100-10461

In October, 1963, he noticed a blue and white two-door Ford driving by his house on numerous occasions. This car was occupied by two men and one of these men could possibly have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD but he did not see him clearly enough to recognize him. He became suspicious of this car as there had been cattle rustling in the neighborhood about that time. He started following the car in his automobile and after following for some distance, he decided to get the license number. He started moving up closer to the car and the car picked up speed. They reached the speed of about 95 miles per hour but he did obtain the license number. He no longer has the license number nor did he notify the Sheriff or the FBI of the incident. He believed that these men have been watching him for some reason but could not give any particular reason for their action.

He believed that all of the above facts are some sort of conspiracy against him to obtain information from him. He did not know of any information he had that would be of value to such persons.

He has seen JACK RUBY in the Carousel Club but has never had a conversation with him. He has no information regarding the background of RUBY. He has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor does he know of any association between OSWALD and RUBY.

It was believed by interviewing agents that this individual [redacted] appears to have a complex of one sort or another in that most people are against him or trying to hurt him in some way.

CLARK telephonically contacted the Dallas FBI Office on 12/17/63, and advised that he wanted to make sure the FBI had received his letter of 11/23/63. He stated he was afraid that if this letter fell into the hands of the Communist some harm might come to him.

The above information is being furnished to the Bureau for information and is not being included in next Dallas report as mentioned above.

Dear Mr. Roberts,

I am somewhat disturbed and angry at the speed, efficiency and possibly of the loyalty of our security system which I believe needs going over with a fine tooth comb. I have lived in the southwest corner of Collin most of my life on the land my ancestors settled. Also I have mixed and mingled with many people who live in Dallas. Sometimes a person who has kept his eyes and ears open can hear startling things and actually by accident or curosity get involved in what I believe to be an international plot or conspiracy.

As far as two years ago I became acquainted with a strange woman in Dallas via way of Austin and later Berlin who impressed me as being on an important mission of some kind-possibly I was a mistaken contact and not to know too much and a series of events that followed would make good reading before the assassination of President Kennedy. At the time these events seemed a little shallow to report, although on two occasions I actually started to call FBI. detective

Thanksgiving Day about 4 P M, I left a letter with important information for the FBI, at a letter box on the west side of the Federal Building-a car drop. Saturday morning Nov. 30, 63. I had heard nothing from anyone about more details which I omitted. Dallas

Sir, if it takes an act or Congress or act of the State Legislature, that trial should not come off by Dec. 9, 63 of Jack Ruby. There are too many missing links to hurry and let possibly a real big Communist plot get away.

Dear Sirs:

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION PLEASE

As a frequent visitor to Dallas and to many of its night spots I might be able to supply important information regarding subversive activities as far as two years back. Previous to the past week end I hadn't given serious thought to reporting some incidents which might have involved my personal safety-not realizing information I had could blow up a conspiracy. I am single and moved around quite a bit, at different clubs.

Some of the events are listed as follows: details omitted.

1. Meeting an attractive woman from Berlin. Date Summer 61 Germany

2. Meeting a second woman who thought I was a General that pressed me for information. Fall 61 (Not regarding) this.

3. Blocking of my car by four men in another car against curbing on a date and I left Jack Ruby's in July or August 62 This was on a lighted parking lot Carousel or during parking- only a few cars were on the lot at the time, about 2A.

4. Meeting of a few strangers who seemed to get violent in a discussion-especially when an opinion was voiced. later

5. The beating of a bandleader's wife at the closing time of a club on Lovers Lane by an unidentified woman -four women involved-one claiming I was involved, sending a policeman to the Toddle House for me One had stated they were from Irving.

An investigation of a blue & white tudor Ford by me which had been circuling around the farm for several hours at separated intervals-resulted in a high speed chase north on 75 to get license nos. This is real shocking to me as this man I am call could fit Lee Oswald-DRIVER OF CAR.

These series of events may not mean a thing but I am convinced that after I told the first story about this Berlin woman a reason for the other events would be in order, and could be related.

(RUBY)

DALLAS--JACK RUBY, THE SELF-APPOINTED AVENGER OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY, WILL BE OFFERED AS A WITNESS TO THE PRESIDENTIAL COMMISSION INVESTIGATING THE ASSASSINATION, A LAWYER SAID TODAY. THE LAWYER SAID RUBY WILL TAKE "TRUTH SERUM" IF THE COMMISSION WANTS HIM TO.

"TRUTH SERUM" IS SODIUM PENTATHOL. A PERSON INTO WHOSE VEINS SODIUM PENTATHOL IS INJECTED IS SUPPOSED TO ANSWER TRUTHFULLY ANY QUESTION ASKED HIM.

J. H. TONAHILL OF JASPER, TEX., ONE OF RUBY'S SIX LAWYERS, DISCLOSED THAT RUBY WILL BE OFFERED TO THE COMMISSION.

"WE OFFERED RUBY TO THE FBI LOCALLY BUT THEY REFUSED; I DON'T KNOW WHY," TONAHILL SAID.

RUBY, 52, OPERATOR OF A NIGHTCLUB THAT FEATURED STRIPTEASERS, KILLED LEE HARVEY OSWALD, 24, THE ACCUSED ASSASSIN OF KENNEDY, NOV. 24 IN THE BASEMENT OF CITY HALL. RUBY'S TRIAL ON A MURDER CHARGE IS DOCKETED FOR FEB. 3 IN DIST. JUDGE JOE B. BROWN'S COURT.

TONAHILL SAID HE WILL GO TO FEDERAL COURT IF NECESSARY TO MAKE FBI CHIEF J. EDGAR HOOVER AND CHIEF JUSTICE EARL WARREN TURN OVER TO HIM REPORTS OF THEIR INVESTIGATIONS OF THE OSWALD KILLING. WARREN HEADS THE PRESIDENTIAL COMMISSION.

TONAHILL ALSO WANTS REPORTS ON ALL LOCAL AND STATE INVESTIGATIONS.

TONAHILL AND MELVIN BELLI, SAN FRANCISCO "KING OF TORTS" WHO IS HEADING THE DEFENSE, SAID THE HOOVER AND WARREN REPORTS NO DOUBT HAVE FINE DEFENSIVE MATERIAL IN THEM "AND WE ARE ENTITLED TO IT UNDER SEVERAL SUPREME COURT DECISION."

OTHERS WHO WILL BE ASKED TO PROVIDE REPORTS ARE ATTY. GEN. WAGGONER CARR, HEAD OF THE TEXAS INQUIRY, AND DIST. ATTY. HENRY WADE OF DALLAS.

JUDGE BROWN SAID HE WILL MOVE UP RUBY'S BOND HEARING FROM JAN. 24 TO JAN. 20. THE HEARING BEGAN DEC. 23 AND WAS RECESSED FOR THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS UNTIL JAN. 10 AND LATER WAS SET BACK TO JAN. 24.

ATTORNEYS FOR BOTH SIDES AGREED TO THE NEW DATE.

TONAHILL, WHO INITIATED THE MOVE TO HAVE THE HEARING MOVED UP, SAID "THE LONGER THE DELAAY THE LONGER BAIL IS DENIED--AND WE WANT HIM (RUBY) OUT."

A United Press International (UPI) release of 1-7-64 quoted one of Ruby's defense attorneys, J. H. Tonahill of Jasper, Texas, as stating, "We offered Ruby to the FBI locally but they refused; I don't know why." The Director inquired, "Didn't we interview Ruby?"

Ruby was interviewed at the Dallas County Jail, Dallas, Texas, by Special Agents C. Ray Hall and Manning C. Clements on 12-21-63 in the presence of his attorneys J. H. Tonahill, Jasper, Texas, Melvin Belli and William Choulos, San Francisco, California, and Sam Brody, Los Angeles, California.

In the interview, Ruby furnished a detailed account of his activities between 11-20-63 and 11-24-63 and pertinent details of his personal history. He specifically denied ever knowing Oswald or having any contacts or associations with him prior to the time Oswald was shot on 11-24-63. Our collateral investigation concerning Ruby would indicate he gave a truthful account at this interview to the best of his recollection.

It is noted that attorney Tonahill, according to a UPI release, also said that Ruby would submit to "truth serum" -- sodium pentothal -- for the testimony before the President's Commission and in return he expected copies of the FBI and Warren Commission reports to be used in the defense of Ruby, and he said that he would go into Federal court if necessary to get the reports. Ruby's attorney Melvin Belli has also been quoted in the press as stating that it was all right with him if Ruby was given a polygraph examination and truth serum.

The Bureau has not received any specific request from Ruby's defense attorneys for the reports of our investigation or to afford Ruby a polygraph examination. Dallas was advised on

Jack Ruby

The above-captioned individual sent a letter dated 12-21-63 to "U. S. News and World Report," Washington, D. C., and it was subsequently forwarded to the Bureau by Mr. David Lawrence of that company who is on the Special Correspondents' List and a close personal friend of the Bureau. Clark in his letter claimed that the assassination of President Kennedy has made him a target for a gunman on two occasions. He also claims to have frequented Jack Ruby's night spots several times in the past 10 years. According to Clark, he left a letter for the FBI "at the car drop at the central post office in Dallas," on Thanksgiving Day but he received no reply to it from the FBI until he subsequently wrote a letter to Congressman Ray Roberts. On the afternoon of November (December) 12, 1963, two FBI Agents came to his farm house and talked to him for about half an hour. He then referred in a somewhat rambling and incoherent manner to an alleged "wild and dangerous automobile ride" where he was concerned about his personal safety. He attached some special significance to a rope that was allegedly tied to his car radio antenna when the car was parked in the Dallas parking lot on the morning of December 16th. He stated he referred the above two incidents to the FBI in telephone calls but he claimed that nothing came out of these inquiries. He stated he then sent a telegram to Congressman Roberts on December 18th but he received no acknowledgment from this wire. Clark's purpose in writing to Mr. Lawrence's publication was to request a courier to reach Congressman Roberts in Washington to determine if he had received Clark's telegram and to warn Roberts of the possible danger because of Robert's knowledg of the case involving Clark.

As it was not possible to identify Clark with any information in Bufiles the Dallas Office was asked to submit a resume of contacts he had with that office.

RESULTS OF FIELD CHECK:

Clayton H. Clark, Route 2, Frisco, Texas, was interviewed by Agents of the Dallas Office on 12-12-63 as a result of a letter dated 11-28-63 to the Dallas FBI Offic and a letter dated 11-30-63 to Congressman Ray Roberts which had been in turn forwarded to the Dallas Office. Clark related a number of incidents regarding his visits to bars in th Dallas area where he picked up female companions whom he continued to meet on a social basis. He attached special significance to certain statements and actions by these companions such as reference to a mural on a barroom wall; a girl who he claimed mistook him for an Army General and she continued to ask him questions about physics; and a woman who was being beaten by four other women outside of a Dallas town and alleged that the victim of the attack had tried to involve him in the foray. He related a number of other incidents which were equally bizarre but felt that there was some sort of conspiracy against him to obtain information, the exact nature of which he could not explain. One of the bars he attended was the Carousel Club owned by Jack Ruby. He had no information regarding the background of Ruby nor had he ever seen Lee Harvey Oswald and knew of no association between Oswald and Ruby.

Clark later telephonically contacted the Dallas FBI Office on 12-17-63 and stated he wanted to make sure that they received his letter of 11-28-63 and stated he was afraid the letter might fall in the hands of the communists and some harm might come to him.

The Dallas Office has forwarded a copy of Clark's letter of November 28, 1963, to the Bureau as well as a copy of his letter of 11-30-63 to Congressman Ray Roberts. Both letters referred in part to the substance of the information he furnished the contacting Agents during the interview with him on 12-12-63.

RECOMMENDATION:

That Mr. David Lawrence of "U. S. News and World Report" be advised that we have checked into the letter to his publication from Clayton H. Clark and when interviewed by Agents of the FBI on 12-12-63 Clark could furnish no information of interest to the FBI. LETTER ATTACHED SIGNED BY C. D. DE LOACH

Reference is made to telephone conversation on 12/24/63 between SAC SHANKLIN and Inspector JAMES R. MALLEY relative to SAC SHANKLIN's conversation with HENRY WADE, District Attorney, Dallas County. Mr. WADE expressed a desire to have copies of a number of reports of interviews, particularly those reflecting interviews with RUBY, background information furnished concerning RUBY and those reflecting RUBY's activities during the pertinent period.

WADE pointed out he would keep the information confidential but would find it most helpful in possible connection with cross-examination of witnesses. He also indicated he might subpoena some of our Agents should a witness tell a different story on the stand from the story related to Agents.

At Mr. MALLEY's instruction, I have caused a review to be made of interviews in connection with the phases mentioned above. The interviews are referred to below by names, dates of Dallas reports of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS and page numbers (in numerical sequence) of reports.

Bureau permission is requested to make copies of same available to Mr. WADE.

It is to be noted in connection with the last category, "RUBY's Activities During Pertinent Period (11/21-24/63)", still further interviews to be reported will reflect contacts during this period. Consideration will be given to listing such additional FD-302s in a separate communication.

Assistant District Attorney WILLIAM ALEXANDER advised Agents on December 19, 1963, the prosecution would "make no efforts to correct impressions" a jury may receive that OSWALD and RUBY were parts of a Communist conspiracy. The inference Agents received was that ALEXANDER felt a jury would be more likely to convict and give RUBY a substantial sentence, with the belief there was an OSWALD-RUBY connection.

With Bureau permission, I would like to advise District Attorney WADE that interviews have been conducted with hundreds of relatives, friends and associates of RUBY, as well as of OSWALD, that no information has been received to date from any source of established reliability that RUBY and OSWALD had ever known each other or had any association of whatsoever nature.

Enclosed herewith for Washington Field are two copies of a letter to the Bureau from Paul H. Smiley, 2323 40th Place, N.W., Washington, D. C., concerning this case. One copy is also enclosed for Dallas for their information. The news clipping mentioned was not enclosed.

For the information of Washington Field, Smiley is probably identical to one Paul H. Smiley who in 1954 was an inspector-investigator for the Veterans Administration (VA), Washington, D. C. In connection with our investigation of a fraud against the government case at the McGuire VA Hospital, Richmond, Virginia, in 1954, Smiley attempted to conduct a joint investigation with the FBI and when it became apparent to him that we did not intend to conduct an investigation jointly, he put every stumbling block in our way to stymie our investigation. In 1955 he furnished a complaint concerning alleged irregularities on the part of the Loan Guaranty Division of the VA, Los Angeles, California. The Bureau investigated the complaint which was without merit and prosecution was declined by the U. S. Attorney.

Washington Field will immediately upon receipt contact Smiley and interview him for full details of any specific information he may have concerning this matter. Any information he may have concerning matter within the jurisdiction of another Federal agency should be promptly referred to that agency. Advise the Bureau within three days of receipt of the results of the interview. Furnish appropriate 302's to office of origin Dallas for inclusion in a later report.

NOTE:

Smiley in a letter to the Bureau dated 1/4/64 referred to an article in the Daily News which he stated raised some interesting questions concerning the Ruby investigation. Washington Field instructed to interview Smiley for any information he may have.

Mr. Edgar Hoover, Director,
Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Washington, D.C.

January 4, 1964
2323 40th Pl. N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed herewith is a clipping from to-days issue of the Daily News, which raises some interesting questions which I have not seen discussed in the daily papers. May I point out some of those questions ?

The clipping raises a question regarding the manner in which Ruby gained access to the Parkland Hospital. May such access have been gained through the use of a Police Badge ???? And this question raises another, did Ruby gain access to the jail at the time of transfer of Oswald by means of a Police Badge, and was Ruby's appearance at the time he shot Oswold a pre-arranged episode involving the camera men, the Police, and Ruby ???

Several years ago while on an official visit to New York City. I was shown a gold or gold plated D.C. police badge which allegedly gave to that person unlimited access to the White House ...????? And on the same occasion two persons alleged to be a Captain and a Lieutenant of the N.Y.C. Police Department were pointed out to me as a protection against raids on unlimited use of liquors and lewd shows...?

I candidly can not go along with with alleged "black outs", opportune forgetfulness, or with a M.D's 'protective testimony' at a price. Most of those cases can be broken for what they are.

I am at home most every day, all day, at FE 7 5453, at the above address.

Wishing you every success in your activities,

Very truly yours,

Paul H. Smiley.

Dear Sir:

After much deliberation, and a sincere desire to do my duty as an American citizen, I would like to drop into one of your F.B.I. offices and add my little bit, to help in solving the Ruby Rubenstein case.

I would like to have attorney Fredrik Georgi present at the time I come in, plus another attorney, and perhaps my wife.

Do I have to have an appointment, or do I just gather my people and come in. It is permissible to bring two attorneys I hope.

Yours truly

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to a letter from Joe H. Tonahill, attorney for Jack Ruby, dated January 9, 1964. Since the letter was also addressed to you, a copy is not enclosed. There is enclosed a copy of my reply to Mr. Tonahill.

For your information, the allegation Mr. Tonahill attributes to the press concerning the possibility that Oswald may have been an FBI informant is absolutely false and no attempt was ever made to develop him as an informant.

Mr. Tonahill's letter also incorrectly indicates that we have conducted investigation for the prosecution and furnished the results to the District Attorney on a daily basis. Although we have made technical examinations of physical evidence submitted by the Dallas Police Department and informed the Dallas Police of the results of such examinations, we have not furnished local authorities with the results of our investigations.

ReBuairtel dated 1/9/64.

On 1/10/64 Mr. PAUL H. SMILEY, 2323 40th Place, N.W., Washington, D.C., advised SAs RICHARD WOOD KAISER and CARROLL M. GARNETT that he is presently retired from government service, having formerly been employed as an Inspector-Investigator for the Veterans Administration (VA). He was with the VA from 1921 to 1956 at which time he retired and accepted other government employment as an investigator on the Congressional Veterans Committee headed by Texas Congressman OLIN TEAGUE. He held this position from 1956 to late 1960 at which time he retired from government service.

SMILEY said that based upon his lengthy investigating experience he had decided to write the Director and express his observations concerning the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK RUBY. He is firmly convinced that RUBY could not have gained access to the Dallas Jail without having proper identification, possibly police identification. He feels that this case should be investigated on its own merit with no special considerations for any persons involved. He explained that he feels that RUBY obtained such identification through his known contacts with the Dallas Police Department and that any police officials involved should be appropriately identified and prosecuted. He recalled a past experience where police identification had been used for an illegal purpose.

Specifically, he related that during the 1920s he had made a trip to New York City on official business for the VA. While in New York he had attended a private party given by an individual (name not recalled) who owned a retread tire company located on Lexington Avenue. Also attending this party were numerous VA officials from the New York area as well as a Captain and Lieutenant from the area police precinct. The owner of this tire company had a contract with the VA for the training of handicapped veterans. He recalled that liquor was served illegally at this party and that a lewd and obscene show had also taken place.

Following the party he asked the tire company owner how he managed to conduct such illegal activities with the police actually present. This individual informed him that this was no problem with proper connections and as a means of illustration exhibited to him a gold or gold plated badge from the Washington, D.C., Police Department. He allegedly had obtained this badge while in Washington and assured that it would gain him entrance to the White House any time he desired.

SMILEY stated that due to the lapse of time he could recall no specific details concerning the individuals involved and was only citing the incident to prove his point concerning the RUBY case.

SMILEY stated that he has visited Dallas a number of times in his official capacity as investigator for the VA, however, was not personally acquainted with JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He explained that he first heard of these individuals through the press and T.V. due to the events which took place following the President's assassination in Dallas, Texas. He has no specific information or knowledge concerning either RUBY or OSWALD other than what he has obtained from the press and T.V.

Throughout the interview SMILEY exhibited a cordial attitude and was assured that his comments would be made a matter of record and that this case was being afforded vigorous and exhaustive investigation by this Bureau.

UACB, the information obtained from SMILEY concerning the police badge possessed by the New York tire company owner is not being disseminated to the U.S. Secret Service because of the time element and the indefinite character as to the identity of the individual involved.

NOTE: Paul H. Smiley, a retired investigator for the VA, was interviewed as a result of a letter he directed to the Bureau indicating he had information about the Ruby case. He was interviewed by WFO on 1/10/64 and it was determined he had no direct information other than that he had read in the newspapers. In illustrating some suggestions for investigating the Ruby matter, he stated that he had attended a part held by an unidentified owner of a New York tire company during the 1920's. This individual exhibited to him a gold or gold plated badge from the Washington, D. C., Police Department which he alleged would gain him entrance to the White House at any time he desired.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Enclosed is a copy of a letter, dated December 30, 1963, which I have received from Mr. Waggoner Carr, Attorney General of Texas. As you will note, Attorney General Carr indicates that the District Attorney of Dallas County, Henry M. Wade, is presently handicapped in his preparation of the case against Jack L. Ruby by the fact that certain records are in the possession of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

I would appreciate your advice concerning the nature of the records in the possession of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, if any, which Mr. Wade does not have and which he feels are necessary to the preparation of his case. As you know, this Commission is anxious to cooperate to the fullest extent possible with the Dallas and Texas law enforcement agencies. I am confident that your Bureau is no less eager to assist the Texas authorities. I would like to be advised, therefore, of any arrangements which can be made to assist Mr. Wade without impairing the investigative responsibilities of the FBI or the assignment of this Commission.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear General:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation I will appreciate your making known to the Commission the following information with the hope that the Commission may see fit to help the District Attorney of Dallas County, Mr. Henry Wade.

1. In preparing the State's case against Jack Ruby the District Attorney is presently handicapped by the fact that all records, including written statements are in the possession of the FBI. Would you please see what can be done to get these statements, etc., in the hands of the District Attorney? The case is presently set for trial in early February.

2. Mr. Wade is concerned about repeated statements made in the press to the effect that there is no connection between Oswald and Ruby. His point is that such press reports should say that no connection has thus far been established. He is aware that such press statements are not based on any statements or activities of yours, Chief Justice Warren's, or anyone connected with the Commission.

Again let me assure you that Texas stands ready to be of all possible assistance to you and the Commission in its search for the truth. We

Dear Mr. Rankin:

At the request of Assistant Attorney General Herbert J. Miller, Jr., Dallas County District Attorney Henry Wade was interviewed on January 14, 1964. He was asked to state specifically and categorically wherein the preparation of his case is in any way handicapped by lack of access to material in the possession of the Federal Government.

Mr. Wade when interviewed indicated he cannot state how he is handicapped as he does not know what information has been collected by the Federal Government but he believes the investigation has developed information concerning Ruby's background and associates. He said that without reviewing the oral and written statements taken by the Federal Government, he has no way of knowing what they contain.

Insofar as Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr is concerned, Wade said Mr. Carr has no authority to speak for him and Mr. Wade has never stated he was handicapped by not having statements that are in the possession of the FBI. He said that he has made it known that he needs all available information concerning the background and associates of Jack Ruby and the circumstances surrounding the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald. The Dallas Police Department conducted very little investigation concerning Ruby as it spent most of its time submitting a report defending itself with regard to the shooting of Oswald.

Mr. Wade wants the results of FBI investigation for use in cross-examining Ruby and any character witnesses who testify.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

Mr. Wade submitted the following letter to the FBI office in Dallas on January 14, 1964.

"As you are aware, we have a bond hearing on Jack Ruby set on January 20 and the trial for the murder of Lee Oswald set for February 3 in Criminal District Court No. 3 of Dallas County, Texas. In that trial all of the information we can gather with reference to the background of Jack Ruby from the time he was born up to the present, the names of all his business or social associates together with what they might have said concerning him or his mental capacity will be very important. I feel that you have some of this information or all of it in your present files. I would appreciate your obtaining the following:

"1. Copies of all interviews had by your Agents concerning Jack Ruby or any of his associates.

"2. The names of any persons in any way connected with Ruby together with their statements made concerning him.

"3. Any physical evidence that you might have in the Ruby case.

"4. Any summary you might have of the whole activities of Ruby during and at the time of this murder.

"5. Any statements that you might have tending to show any connection between Oswald and Ruby.

"6. Any statements that you might have dealing with whether or not Ruby belonged or had belonged to any subversive groups.

"7. Copies of the interviews had by your Agents at the City Hall and also the Dallas County Jail and what Ruby told them.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

"None of this information will be released to the press, radio or television, nor to anyone else outside of this office, and will be used exclusively in the trial of this case for the purposes of cross-examining the defendant should he testify and also cross-examining the character witnesses, and should any of these witnesses wherein you have a statement from them testify, if they vary from the statements made to your Agent, they will be used for the purpose of cross-examining this witness. I hope that this can be arranged as soon as possible since we will have to read and digest these prior to the trial on February 3."

This information has been furnished to Assistant Attorney General Miller.

Please advise us as to the action the Commission plans to take regarding Mr. Wade's request.

Dear Senator Tower:

There are many unanswered questions about the murder of President Kennedy and the murder of his murderer, and it appears that the Warren Commission is going to leave some of the most important of these questions unanswered.

For instance-in the files of the Dies Committee hearings of a few decades ago there appears the name of a Jack Rubenstein. He is listed as one of the founders of "Revolutionary Youth" a Marxist group in 1930, as one of the leaders of the Lovestone-Gitlow group of Communist Party U. S. A. in 1929, and reference is made to "Comrade" Jack Rubenstein a member of the National Executive Committee of the Young Communist League in a cable from the Young Communist International.

A complete investigation needs to be made to determine if the Jack Rubenstein who murdered Oswald and the Jack Rubenstein listed in the Dies Committee hearings records are one and the same. If they are found to be the same man it opens a whole new aspect in the murder of our President and the murder of his murderer.

Senator Tower, you know as well as I that the Warren Commission will try to "white wash" the whole affair unless they are forced by Congress to make the investigation complete.

I would be very interested and appreciative if you would use your influence to start an investigation of Jack Rubenstein alias "Jack Ruby."

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT TO PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION

Attached is a copy of a supplemental report concerning the killing of Lee Harvey Oswald by Jack L. Ruby.

At the time the first summary was prepared, we furnished a copy to Mr. J. Lee Rankin, one copy to each member of the Commission, and six additional copies.

Today Mr. Rankin requested 14 additional copies of the Bureau's report dated 12/5/63 with the enclosures and exhibits for members of the staff working on the President's Commission. These additional 14 copies will be furnished to Mr. Rankin.

In view of the above, we will furnish 28 copies of the supplemental summary to Mr. Rankin for the use of the Commission and their staff.

In addition, a copy will be made available to Deputy Attorney General Katzenbach; one copy to Assistant Attorney General Herbert J. Miller, Jr., ; one copy to Secret Service, and one copy to appropriate Bureau officials.

PREFACE

This supplemental report covers additional investigation concerning the killing of Lee Harvey Oswald by Jack L. Ruby on November 24, 1963, at Dallas, Texas.

The information developed concerns background information on Ruby, a contemplated business venture, and comments by Ruby and his attorney, Tom Howard, to officers of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department.

The report contains data on Ruby's explanation to the Dallas Police Department concerning his entrance to the basement of the Dallas Police Department Building. It also contains the results of polygraph examinations given by the Dallas Police Department to Roy Eugene Vaughn, the officer on duty at the entrance to the Main Street ramp, and former Police Officer Napoleon J. Daniels, who was present with Vaughn. Ruby has stated upon interview by the Federal Bureau of Investigation that he gained access to the basement of the Police Building by walking down the Main Street ramp.

The results of an interview of Jack L. Ruby by the Federal Bureau of Investigation on December 21, 1963, including Ruby's claim that he was armed while at the Dallas Police Department on the night of November 22, 1963, when he first saw Oswald, are included herein.

Extensive investigation conducted thus far has not established any connection between Ruby and Oswald or that Ruby conspired with any individual including police officers.

Investigation is continuing on a top priority basis to exhaust every logical source of pertinent information.

V. SUMMARY OF INVESTIGATION TO DATE 24

INDEX..... 25

I. ADDITIONAL BACKGROUND INFORMATION ON JACK L. RUBY

A. Family Medical History

Records of the Veterans Administration Research Hospital, Chicago, Illinois, contain information that Earl Ruby, brother of Jack L. Ruby, was hospitalized from August 10, 1960, to August 19, 1960. The clinical record-narrative summary indicates Earl Ruby intermittently harbored the thought of self-destruction, considering suicide by sleeping pills, gun or asphyxiation. On examination, Earl Ruby presented all the typical findings of acute depressive reaction in that he was somewhat withdrawn and showed many signs of free-floating anxiety.

B. Ruby's Personality

Michael Levin, Chicago, an attorney, has known the Rubenstein family, also known as the Ruby family, since 1919. Mr. Levin said his opinion of Jack Ruby would be to sum his personality into a statement of "desire for recognition."

C. Was Planning New Night Club

Joseph P. Rossie, who is engaged in the real estate business at Dallas, Texas, became acquainted with Jack Ruby about 11 years ago in Dallas. Mr. Rossie said he last saw Ruby in Dallas on November 20, 1963, at which time Ruby discussed opening a new club and wanted Mr. Rossie to invest money in the club and perhaps help in the management of this venture. Ruby talked of future plans at that time in a manner to indicate that he did not anticipate getting into any sort of trouble. Mr. Rossie believes that Ruby's killing of Oswald was the over-simplified solution of a simple and emotional man seeking justice.

D. Was Armed November 14 or 15, 1963

Mr. Curtis LaVerne Crafard, Bellaire, Michigan, related he was employed by Jack Ruby at the Carousel Club in Dallas commencing about November 1, 1963. He packed his clothing and left Dallas at about noon on November 23, 1963, without saying anything to anyone. Mr. Crafard said in regard to Jack Ruby's temper, that on approximately November 14 or 15, 1963, Ruby was having trouble with a master of ceremonies at the Carousel Club and Ruby sent him, Crafard, out to Ruby's car to get a gun. Crafard stated this was the only time he ever handled Ruby's gun and on this occasion he did not remove it from the paper sack it was in.

E. Allegations of Homosexuality

The investigation to develop background information concerning Ruby has revealed various rumors and allegations to the effect that he may be a homosexual, however, up to the present time, no evidence of homosexuality has been established.

II. STATEMENTS BY JACK L. RUBY AND HIS ATTORNEY

A. Comments to Detective Leavelle

Detective James R. Leavelle, Dallas Police Department, stated that on November 25, 1963, he assisted in transferring Ruby from the Dallas City Jail to the Dallas County Jail. While they were in the elevator in the Police Building, Leavelle said, "Jack, in all the years I've known you, you've never deliberately caused any police officer any trouble that I know of and you didn't do us any favor when you shot Oswald. You've really put the pressure on us." Ruby replied, "That's the last thing in the world I wanted to do. I just wanted to be a damned hero and all I've done is foul things up."

B. Tom Howard's Comments to Captain Fritz

Captain J. W. Fritz, Dallas Police Department, advised that he was furnished the following information by Tom Howard, attorney for Jack L. Ruby.

Ruby was at home at about 10:30 a. m., November 24, 1963, when he received a telephone call from a woman who asked Ruby for money. He dressed and then went to the Western Union Office and sent her a money order at 11:16 a. m.

After leaving the Western Union Office, Ruby walked up Main Street to the Police Building and as he approached the ramp leading to the basement he saw an automobile at the entrance. The driver called to the police officer who was standing at the ramp entrance and the officer approached the automobile.

While the officer was talking to the driver, Ruby walked behind the officer and proceeded down the Main Street ramp to the basement. He was in the basement a very short time before Oswald appeared.

Howard told Captain Fritz that Ruby had not known Oswald and that there is absolutely no possibility of Ruby's having any communist or Cuban connections. Howard also said that in his opinion it will be to Ruby's advantage to furnish authorities complete background information so that it can be definitely established that Ruby had no communist connections or prior acquaintance with Oswald.

Captain Fritz asked Howard why Ruby shot Oswald, and Howard replied that he feels Ruby probably thought that he would be a hero and would be carried out on the shoulders of those present.

III. RUBY'S ENTRANCE TO THE BASEMENT

A. Travel Time From Western Union

It has been determined that a man walking at a normal pace can readily proceed from the Western Union Office to the basement of the Dallas Police Building in less than a minute and a half.

B. Ruby's Explanation

Sergeant Patrick T. Dean, Dallas Police Department, advised that he asked Ruby on November 24, 1963, how he had gained entrance to the basement. Ruby told him he entered through the Main Street ramp two or three minutes before the shooting. Ruby also said that as he entered, an unmarked police car was leaving the Main Street ramp and the officer on duty at the entrance was talking to a man in the car whom Ruby believed to be Lieutenant Pierce. It is noted that Oswald was shot at approximately 11:24 a. m., November 24, 1963.

C. Statement of Sergeant Putnam

Sergeant James A. Putnam, Dallas Police Department, advised that at about 11:20 a. m., November 24, 1963, he left the basement of the Police Building in a car driven by Lieutenant Pierce. Sergeant Maxey was with them.

The car went up the Main Street ramp and Sergeant Putnam observed Officer Vaughn standing directly in front of the ramp near the intersection of the sidewalk and the street. He believes that Vaughn moved slightly to the side and took one or two steps into the street before waving the car on.

Sergeant Putnam also noticed four or five people standing on the sidewalk but did not look directly at them and does not know if Ruby was there.

Sergeant Putnam said that prior to leaving the basement, he carefully observed each individual present and he did not see Ruby. Sergeant Putnam described Officer Vaughn as a "forceful officer" who would have stopped Ruby or any other unauthorized person attempting to enter the basement.

D. Statement of Sergeant Maxey

Sergeant Billy Joe Maxey, Dallas Police Department, related that he went to the basement of the Police Building at about 11:00 a. m., November 24, 1963. A short time later Lieutenant Pierce entered in a black car and asked Maxey to accompany him and Sergeant Putnam for the purpose of escorting the armored car.

They left the basement by the Main Street ramp and prior to leaving the basement, Maxey observed those who were present at the foot of the Main Street ramp and states positively that Ruby was not in the group at that time.

Maxey stated that due to the narrowness of the ramp it would have been physically impossible for anyone to have entered at the same time that the car was leaving. He observed Officer Vaughn at the outside entrance to the ramp but he does not recall if anyone in the car spoke to Vaughn or if Vaughn stepped into the street to block traffic for the car's exit. He states that he did not see Ruby.

E. Statement of Lieutenant Rio S. Pierce

Lieutenant Rio S. Pierce, Dallas Police Department, stated that at approximately 11:15 a. m., November 24, he left the Homicide Bureau to obtain a police car for the purpose of escorting the armored car. He proceeded to the basement, obtained a car, instructed Sergeants Maxey and Putnam to accompany him, and drove out through the Main Street ramp. Officer Vaughn was standing in the center of the entrance to the ramp and moved to the sidewalk so that the car could pass. Lieutenant Pierce saw two or three other persons as he left the ramp but he paid no particular attention to them and does not know who they were.

F. Statement of Napoleon J. Daniels

Napoleon J. Daniels, a former Dallas Police Officer, related that on November 24, he was standing near the entrance to the Main Street ramp of the Police Building.

When he first arrived, no one else was present except Officer Vaughn, but about ten minutes before the shooting a Negro who was formerly a shoeshine boy in the police locker room appeared near the entrance of the ramp. He stated this individual wore a gray suit and had a camera hanging from his neck. To his best recollection, Daniels stated that this individual remained in the area until the time of the shooting.

Daniels saw a car carrying three officers leave the Main Street ramp and stated that Officer Vaughn walked almost to the center of the street to stop traffic. When he realized Vaughn was occupied, Daniels made it a point to insure that no one entered the ramp.

Daniels stated that about two minutes before the shooting he saw a man walking west on the south side of Main Street. This man walked directly past Officer Vaughn and down the ramp. He had his right hand in the pocket of his coat and the pocket bulged as though it contained a gun.

Daniels does not know Ruby but said that the man he saw enter the ramp resembles a photograph of Ruby. Daniels also said that just after the shooting he looked down the ramp and saw officers struggling in the basement with someone. He could only see the right arm of the man who was struggling with the officers but he felt certain the color of this man's suit was the same as that of the man who went down the ramp.

Daniels also advised that on November 25 Officer Vaughn telephoned him and asked if he saw anyone enter the basement while Officer Vaughn was stopping traffic on Main Street. Daniels told Officer Vaughn he had not.

G. Statement of Wilford Ray Jones

Wilford Ray Jones, who formerly shined shoes in the police locker room, stated that on the morning of November 24 he approached a uniformed policeman who was at the outside entrance of the Main Street ramp. He asked the policeman if Oswald had been brought out and the officer replied that he did not know.

Jones stayed at the Main Street ramp only a moment or two and then walked to Commerce Street where he stood across the street from the Commerce Street ramp for about twenty minutes. He saw an ambulance leave the Commerce Street ramp and was told by someone that a shot had been fired or that a prisoner had escaped.

Jones said he ran to a nearby parking lot to avoid any possible gunfire and then went to the Main Street ramp where he saw N. J. Daniels and a group of other people he could not identify.

Jones said he was wearing a dark blue or black suit and had a pair of binoculars around his neck.

He also stated he does not know Ruby, did not see him prior to the shooting and did not see anyone enter the Main Street ramp.

H. Statement of Officer Vaughn

Patrolman Roy Eugene Vaughn advised that on the morning of November 24, he was instructed to station himself at the entrance to the Main Street ramp and to permit no one to enter except those having press passes or police credentials. He commenced such duty at approximately 9:30 a. m. Several authorized persons were permitted to enter but he stated he is positive that Ruby did not enter the Main Street ramp. Two unidentified men who appeared to be with a television crew came up the ramp from the basement and returned with equipment taken from a car. Officer Vaughn said he allowed them to re-enter the basement without showing identification.

Patrolman Vaughn also stated that N. J. Daniels, a former police officer, spoke to him at about 10:30 a. m. and remained nearby until after the shooting.

Officer Vaughn stated he had been standing in the center of the ramp about one yard inside the building. Approximately three minutes before the shooting, he moved to the curb at the east side of the ramp exit and waved on a police car which was leaving the basement through the Main Street ramp. Lieutenant Pierce, Sergeant Maxey and Sergeant Putnam were in the car.

Officer Vaughn stated that while he was at the curb he carefully watched the exit of the ramp and he returned to his position in the center of the ramp after the car left.

Officer Vaughn also stated that as the car left the ramp he was concerned only with eastbound traffic and had no occasion to look to the east. He is certain that no one entered the ramp while Lieutenant Pierce's car was leaving or after he returned to the center of the ramp.

Officer Vaughn also advised that he last saw Ruby in 1961 and would probably not recognize him if he saw him now.

L. Polygraph Examination of Officer Vaughn

The Dallas Police Department has advised that on November 28 Officer Vaughn was afforded a polygraph examination which included the following questions and answers.

Question: "Did you see Jack Ruby near the Main St. entrance of the City Hall between 9:30 a. m. and 11:30 a. m. last Sunday morning?"

Answer: "No."

Question: "Did you allow Jack Ruby to enter the basement of the City Hall last Sunday morning?"

Answer: "No."

Question: "Did you talk with Jack Ruby last Sunday morning?"

Answer: "No."

Question: "Did you allow anybody to enter the basement of the City Hall last Sunday morning that did not show you proper identification other than the two men you told Chief Fisher about?"

Answer: "No."

Question: "Did you lie to Chief Fisher regarding this incident?"

Answer: "No."

Question: "Have you told Chief Fisher the complete truth regarding this incident?"

Answer: "Yes."

In the opinion of Detective P. L. Bentley, the polygraph examiner, each of the above questions was answered truthfully.

J. Polygraph Examination of Napoleon J. Daniels

The Dallas Police Department has advised that Napoleon J. Daniels was given a polygraph examination on December 11, 1963. The following is quoted from the report of Detective Bentley, polygraph operator, to the Chief of Police:

> "During the pre-test interview with Mr. Daniels, he stated that he was sure the person he stated he had seen enter the City Hall basement was not Jack Ruby. He stated that he was shown a picture of Jack Ruby and that Ruby did not look like the person he stated that he had seen. He was very confused during this interview and stated he was not sure of anything in his statement. He also stated that he felt like the squad he saw come out of the basement had enough time to get to the County Jail before this person entered the basement of the City Hall.
> He was then placed on the polygraph and the following pertinent questions were asked and answers given."

Question: "Have you told the complete truth in the statement you gave?"

Answer: "Yes." Indication false.

Question: "Have you deliberately made up any of this story?"

Answer: "No." Indication false.

Question: "Do you think the person you stated you saw enter the basement at that time was Jack Ruby?"

Answer: "No." Indication true.

Question: "Did you actually see the person you described come from the direction of the Western Union?"

Answer: "Yes." Indication false.

Question: "Do you think this person entered the basement of the City Hall after the Squad drove out?"

Did not answer this question.

Question: "Have you seen the person you described in your statement around the City Hall before?"

Did not answer this question.

Question: "Have you given a true description of the person you stated you saw enter the basement of the City Hall?"

Answer: "Yes." Indication false.

Question: "Did you actually see the person you described enter the basement of the City Hall?"

Answer: "Yes." Indication false.

Question: "Did you get a good look at this person?"

Answer: "Yes." Indication false.

Most of the above questions were repeated on other charts with the same answers given and same indications noted."

IV. INTERVIEW OF JACK L. RUBY BY FBI--DECEMBER 21, 1963

Jack L. Ruby was interviewed in the Dallas County Jail, Dallas, Texas. His attorneys Melvin Belli, San Francisco, California; Joe Tonahill, Jasper, Texas; Sam Brody, Los Angeles, California; and William Choulos, San Francisco, California, were present.

A. Activities on November 22, 1963

On the morning of November 22, 1963, Ruby arose at about 9:30 a. m. and subsequently drove to downtown Dallas, arriving at "The Dallas Morning News" at about 10:50 a. m. While at "The Dallas Morning News," Ruby said he heard someone say that somebody had been shot. First he heard that Governor Connally had been shot, then a Secret Service Agent, and then someone said, "Our beloved President has been shot." He left "The Dallas Morning News" and drove to the Carousel Club where he remained until late afternoon. He then went to the home of his sister, Eva Grant.

Ruby stated he did not go to Parkland Memorial Hospital at any time on November 22, 1963.

At about 7:00 or 8:00 p. m., he departed his sister's home, attended services at the Congregation Shearith Israel Synagogue, and then went to a local delicatessen to obtain sandwiches for officers of the Dallas Police Department. After ordering food for the officers, he telephonically contacted the Police Department and was advised the officers did not want anything to eat so he decided he would take the sandwiches to employees at KLIF Radio Station.

He decided to go to the Police Department to locate some newsmen from KLIF Radio Station. As he got off the elevator on the third floor of the Police Department, a policeman who was not known to Ruby asked him where he was going or whom he wanted to see. Ruby replied he was looking for Joe Delong of KLIF. The officer allowed him to enter. While he was waiting for Joe Delong, he saw Captain Fritz come out of his office with Oswald. This was the first time that he had ever seen Oswald. Ruby heard some newsmen say something about the basement so he went down to an assembly room where newsmen were gathered.

B. Was Armed on November 22, 1963--at Dallas Police Department

Ruby said that when he arrived at the assembly room in the Dallas Police Department he went to the back of the room and stood on top of a table so he could see and be out of the way. In a few minutes, Henry Wade, the District Attorney, and Captain Fritz came into the assembly room with Oswald for an interview with the press. After a short time, Captain Fritz took Oswald away.

Ruby said that he had his revolver in his right front trouser pocket all during the evening of November 22, except when he went to church services. He said he carried his gun because he had a lot of money on his person and always carried his gun when he carried money.

C. Knowledge of Oswald

Ruby said he never heard the name of Lee Harvey Oswald before Oswald's arrest on November 22, 1963, by the Dallas Police Department, that any rumor that Oswald was ever in any of Ruby's clubs is wrong because Ruby had never seen Oswald at any place before he saw him with Captain Fritz at the Dallas Police Department on the night of November 22, 1963. Ruby continued by maintaining that any rumors that Oswald was at the Carousel Club are absolutely untrue.

D. Whereabouts on November 23, 1963

Ruby said that when he left the Police Department late on November 22, 1963, he went to Radio Station KLIF where he remained until about 3:00 a. m. on November 23, 1963. He then drove to "The Dallas Times Herald" newspaper building. Subsequent to leaving "The Dallas Times Herald" and while driving home, he recalled a sign he had seen which read, "Impeach Earl Warren." He drove home, awakened his roommate, George Senator, and contacted an employee he identified only as Larry. At about 4:00 or 5:00 a. m., the three of them drove to Central Expressway and Ross Avenue where they photographed the above-quoted sign. Ruby stated they then stopped by the Post Office and the Southland Hotel Coffee Shop. He left the coffee shop at about 6:00 a. m. and went home to bed.

Ruby said he arose at about 11:00 or 11:30 a. m., drove downtown and visited the area where President Kennedy had been assassinated. He then visited a local bar, departing between 3:00 and 4:00 p. m. during the afternoon. He then returned to the Carousel Club, remaining until about 11:00 p. m. at which time he went to the Pago Club and then home.

E. Movements on November 24, 1963

On the morning of November 24, 1963, he received a telephone call from one of his dancers called "Little Lynn" who said she needed some money. He told her he would send her money by Western Union to Fort Worth, Texas. Ruby advised that in view of the fact he had a lot of money with him he got his revolver and put it in his right front trouser pocket. He left the apartment, drove by the spot where President Kennedy was assassinated, and as he passed the "County Building" he noticed a lot of people so he assumed that Oswald had already been moved to the County Jail which is in this building. As he passed the City Hall, he noticed a number of people around this location. He then parked his car across the street from the Western Union office and sent a money order for $25.00 to "Little Lynn" at Fort Worth. (Investigation has verified that this money order was sent.)

F. Entrance to Basement, Dallas Police Department

and walked west on the same side of the street toward the City Hall (which is also known as the Police Department Building). Before he reached the Police Department Building, he noticed a police officer standing at the entrance to the ramp leading into the basement from Main Street. He said he did not know the police officer. Just before he reached the ramp, a police car came out of the basement. He recognized the driver of the police car as Lieutenant Pierce. He explained he has known Lieutenant Pierce for twelve or fourteen years. Lieutenant Pierce did not look toward him or speak to him and Ruby did not speak to Lieutenant Pierce. Ruby could not recall seeing anyone else in the police car with Lieutenant Pierce, either in the front or back seat.

As the police car driven by Lieutenant Pierce came out of the basement ramp, the officer on duty at the entrance stepped back and walked toward the curb next to the street with his back toward Ruby. As the police car drew abreast this officer, the officer stooped down and looked inside the car. At about this time, Ruby had reached the entrance to the Main Street ramp and he took in the movement of the police car and the officer on duty at the ramp with a quick glance. Without breaking his stride or hesitating, he turned to his left and walked down the ramp into the basement. He does not recall seeing any person standing around the entrance, as he entered the ramp, and he does not know a former police officer named Daniels.

Ruby said he is positive he did not have either of his hands in any of his pockets--either coat or trouser pockets--when he entered and walked down the ramp.

Ruby informed he had no type of press card or any other kind of identification on the outside of his coat. He exhibited no identification to anyone to gain entrance to the basement. Ruby advised that as he was going down the ramp, he spoke to no one and no one spoke to him. He did not recognize anyone in the crowd and he did not stop and stand behind anyone.

G. Killing of Oswald

Ruby continued by stating that just as he arrived at the bottom of the ramp, "A person who pops out with two men; that is all I can remember; naturally I know who he is; to me, he had this smirky, smug, vindictive attitude; I can't explain what impression he gave me, but that is all I can---, well, I just lost my senses; the next I knew I was on the ground and five or six people were on top of me."

H. Ruby's Reason for Killing Oswald

Ruby was asked why he killed Oswald and said, "I was in mourning Friday and Saturday. To me, when he shot before me like he did, something in my insides tore out, and I just went blank. To me, he represented-- I'll go back a little bit. I listened to a eulogy Saturday morning, I am sure, and I heard Rabbi Silverman speak about our President. He said, 'Here is a man that fought in all battles, but he didn't have a chance to fight here, he was shot from the rear.' I have been around people that are so smug and hard. Then about Oswald being associated with communism, and how he blemished this beautiful city; and Mrs. Kennedy having to come back to the trial. I told no one I was going to kill him. No one knew I was going to shoot him. I didn't discuss anything with anyone about shooting him. No police officer assisted me in any way, or did, or said anything to suggest my shooting Oswald.

"I remembered Mullinax, a police officer who was killed, and Mullinax was a friend of mine. I did not know J. D. Tippit. I did not know the Tippit that was killed."

I. Physical Condition

Ruby said he had never had any serious illnesses or been hospitalized and does not have a steel plate in his head, as indicated in some press reports. He volunteered the information that his mother had previously been committed to an insane asylum. He professed to know of no other history of mental illness in his family.

He said in 1952 he "went broke" in the night club business and had a "mental breakdown." He continued along this line by saying he was "mentally depressed" and "hibernated in the Cotton Bowl Hotel" for three or four months declining to see his friends.

J. Business Ventures

In 1947 he moved to Dallas to be associated with his sister Eva in the night club business. He returned to Chicago, however, in a few months in an effort to enter into various "merchandising deals." Being unsuccessful, he returned to Dallas in 1947 and has lived in Dallas continuously ever since.

His first ventures in Dallas were the Bob Wills Ranch House and the Silver Spur. It was at the Silver Spur that he "went broke." After his "comeback," he tried operating the Silver Spur again. In 1952 - 1953 he operated the Ervay Theater, a motion picture house. In 1953 he became associated in the Vegas Club and Hernando's Hideaway.

In 1956 he sold his interest in the Silver Spur. He related that in 1959 and 1960 he persuaded his brother Earl to come to Dallas to assist in establishing the Sovereign Club. The Sovereign Club, established as a private club, has become the Carousel Club.

K. Travel Outside United States

Ruby stated he visited a friend of his brother in Windsor, Ontario, Canada, for two or three months in 1929 - 1930. In 1933, while en route to California, he went across into Mexico at Juarez. He said this was purely a "tourist" trip of short duration.

Ruby said that in August, 1959, he went to Havana, Cuba, to visit L. C. McWillie, who was "some sort of good-will man" for the Tropicana, a gambling establishment.

L. Association with Organizations

Ruby stated he has not been a member of any political associations, clubs or organizations. He said he has never been a member of the Communist Party or any "front" organizations and he has had no membership in or affiliation with, or interest in, the "Fair Play for Cuba" or any other pro-Castro organization of any type. Ruby volunteered that some years ago at a time when Castro was popular in the United States he read of an individual in the vicinity of Houston having been engaged in "gun running to Castro." He said he attempted to telephonically contact this individual as he had in mind "making a buck," however, nothing came of this. Ruby stated he had never attended any meetings concerning "gun running," smuggling of persons in or out of Cuba, or participated in any activities relating to Cuban affairs.

V. SUMMARY OF INVESTIGATION TO DATE

All police officers and members of the news media known to have been in the general basement area of the Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963, at the time Ruby shot Oswald have been interviewed.

Numerous acquaintances and associates of Ruby have been identified and interviewed.

The extensive investigation conducted thus far has not established any connection between Ruby and Oswald or that Ruby conspired with any individual including police officers.

Investigation is continuing on an expedite basis to exhaust every logical source of pertinent information.

MABEL E. SYLVESTER

On January 10, 1964, MABEL E. SYLVESTER was contacted at the Kendall Hotel, Kendallville, Indiana, and she made the following information available:

She stated that she had information which concerns a very powerful person in the United States who was involved with Ruby and Oswald in the assassination of President Kennedy. She knows of a photograph taken in the 1950's which shows Ruby with this person. This powerful figure and Ruby were definitely close associates and it is obvious to her Ruby killed Oswald to prevent him from talking.

She does not desire to furnish additional information concerning this photograph or to further identify this person she considers to be involved in the assassination.

She is a "medium", and on the night of January 9, 1964 she was contacted by John F. Kennedy who told her not to give the information to the FBI for if she did, he would "be washed right down the drain." Four days before the assassination "they" told her "President Kennedy would be pinned to the road." She asked the voices what they meant, but she did not receive any explanation. On the day of the assassination, prior to her knowing of it, she began crying and did not know why she was crying until she learned of the assassination.

The voices later named the person who engineered the assassination, and this person is a very powerful individual whom she cannot name. After his identity was revealed to her, she came upon the photograph of Ruby and this same person.

She is afraid to furnish the information she has to anyone but Mr. Robert Kennedy or a member of the Kennedy family. She will attempt to arrange the placing of this information in the proper hands.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

JACK RUBY;
LEE HARVEY OSWALD - VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS

"The Dallas Times Herald" on January 14, 1964, carried a story which quoted from a speech of the Attorney General of the State of Texas, Waggoner Carr, delivered on the night of January 13, 1964, to the Brotherhood of the Highland Baptist Church in Dallas.

Mr. Carr reportedly stated that FBI reports on Jack Ruby would be turned over to the Dallas District Attorney, Henry Wade, by the President's Commission investigating the assassination of President Kennedy. He said that Mr. Lee Rankin, Counsel for the Commission, has agreed to turn over the data at the request of the Attorney General of the State of Texas who on Saturday, January 11, 1964, gave the President's Commission all of the results of the Texas investigation into the assassination and the killing of Lee Harvey Oswald. He said that the District Attorney will be free to use the FBI data in the prosecution of the accused slayer of Oswald.

Attorney General Carr also stated that he had not read all of the reports of the Texas investigation but from what he had read, he had come to these conclusions: "Oswald was a lone ranger and worked alone. Oswald was the man who shot at former Major General Edwin A. Walker, and this fact indicated he was not part of a conspiracy because of the variance in the political philosophies of Walker and President Kennedy. There was no evidence of a link between Ruby and Oswald."

The above is submitted for your information.

A Reminder

The following reminder of a T.V. news report may prove important in the investigation of "Ruby."

It was before Oswald was shot.
It came over N.B.C. T.V.
A reporter in Dallas was reporting the following:-

Ruby and a few men were overheard talking. Annulment for Oswald was being discussed.

One man was quoted as saying "Ruby can take care of that."
Ruby was quoted as answering, "I sure can."

This suggests to the writer of this note that Ruby had already "taken care" of someone, and those men knew it.

Thanks for listening

TO : Mr. Belmont DATE: 1/14/64

FROM : A. Rose

SUBJECT: JACK L. RUBY, AKA.
LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA. - VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS

In two specific instances we have received the allegation that comments were made by news media immediately prior to the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald by Jack L. Ruby on 11/24/63 that Ruby was expected to commit the act.

One of these allegations was contained in an anonymous letter furnished to the Bureau by the President's Commission on 1/6/64. The letter stated that over NBC-TV prior to the shooting one man said, "Ruby can take care of that," and Ruby answered, "I sure can." There was insufficient information in our files to identify the writer of the letter. It was also searched through the anonymous letter file by the Laboratory but the writer could not be identified.

The second allegation was also contained in a letter furnished to the Bureau by the President's Commission on 1/6/64. This letter stated that Bob Walker, Dallas TV news broadcaster, made the remark immediately prior to the shooting, "Is Ruby there yet?" The writer also expressed some concern re the fact that Walker had two telephones on his desk which he was using simultaneously at the time of the broadcast. The letter was written by a Mrs. M. S. Chadwell of Kokomo, Indiana.

Mrs. Chadwell was interviewed on 1/9/64 at which time she stated that on the date of Oswald's shooting she was watching television and the commentator was a Bob Walker. She got the impression from Walker's attitude that he may have had prior knowledge of Ruby's presence at the Dallas Police Department prior to the shooting but could furnish no tangible information to substantiate this impression. She could not quote any specific statements made by the commentator and stated that she might have misunderstood him. In the interview her primary concern was over the two telephones on the commentator's desk and she questioned why it was necessary to him to have them.

It is noted that Mrs. Chadwell has previously contacted the Indianapolis Office on three occasions since 1950 at which time she alleged that people were listening in on her phone conversations and cutting in on her telephone line because of a dispute she had with the phone company in Kokomo where she had worked until she was forced out. Chief Raymond Keller, Indiana Police Department, has advised that Mrs. Chadwell had been well known to the Kokomo Police Department for a number of years as a chronic complainer and that she is considered to be mentally unbalanced.

It is further noted that in the investigation of the Ruby matter we have interviewed more than 75 news media representatives who were either present at the time Oswald was shot by Ruby or were connected with reporting the transfer of Oswald from the City Jail in Dallas to the County Jail. None have indicated that either themselves or anyone known to them had any knowledge of Ruby's presence at the Dallas City Hall and Jail prior to the shooting or that Ruby might possibly appear there on 11/24/63.

ACTION:

Dallas presently has a lead outstanding to determine on which network Bob Walker appeared. If his broadcast was taped, the tapes will be reviewed and the matter will be fully resolved. This lead will be closely followed - and results furnished to Mrs. Rankin -

In accordance with your memorandum of January 13, 1964, Dallas County District Attorney Henry Wade was interviewed on January 14, 1964. He was asked to state specifically and categorically wherein the preparation of his case is in any way handicapped by lack of access to material in the possession of the Federal Government.

Mr. Wade when interviewed indicated he cannot state how he is handicapped as he does not know what information has been collected by the Federal Government but he believes the investigation has developed information concerning Ruby's background and associates. He said that without reviewing the oral and written statements taken by the Federal Government he has no way of knowing what they contain.

Insofar as Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr is concerned, Wade said Mr. Carr has no authority to speak for him and Mr. Wade has never stated he was handicapped by not having statements that are in the possession of the FBI. He said that he has made it known that he needs all available information concerning the background and associates of Jack Ruby and the circumstances surrounding the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald. The Dallas Police Department conducted very little investigation concerning Ruby as it spent most of its time submitting a report defending itself with regard to the shooting of Oswald.

Mr. Wade wants the results of FBI investigation for use in cross-examining Ruby and any character witnesses who testify.

Mr. Wade submitted the following letter to the FBI office in Dallas on January 14, 1964.

TO: The Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation

DATE: January 14, 1964

FROM: Herbert J. Miller, Jr., Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division

SUBJECT: Jack Ruby.

A Congressional inquiry has been received by this Department and by the President's Commission to Investigate the Assassination of President Kennedy as to whether Jack Ruby may be identical to a Jack Rubenstein mentioned in hearings of the Dies Committee. The following references have been cited:

Volume I of the Dies Committee Hearings (75th Congress) at page 593 (hearings of August 17, 1938) refers to Jack Rubenstein as one of those who in 1930 launched the Revolutionary Youth as an organization to contribute to the Marxist drive in the United States.

At page 631 of the same volume of the Dies Committee Hearings there is another reference to Jack Rubenstein as a leader of the Communist Party of the United States of America-Majority, founded in July 1929.

Hearings, 76th Congress, Volume II, page 7143, in which the name Rubenstein appears in a document entitled "Relation to the Comintern".

It will be appreciated if you will advise me of any information relating to the foregoing which may be of assistance in answering the Congressional inquiries.

Wyllie, ASN 0916715, is assigned to Headquarters, Delaware-Eastern Pennsylvania Command at Wilmington, Delaware. He is reportedly stationed at the U. S. Army Reserve Center, 13th and Bern Streets, Reading, Pennsylvania. There is no home address indicated for Major Wyllie. It is not known if this individual is identical with the Major Wyllie referred to by G. P. Wyllie.

Knoxville and Philadelphia are instructed to immediately locate and interview the indicated individuals in accordance with the request of the Presidential Commission. Philadelphia must, of course, insure that Major Wyllie is the same individual referred to by G. P. Wyllie. Full details concerning the allegations must be obtained and any additional investigation necessary to resolve this matter must be immediately handled by teletype. Results of investigation should be furnished to the Bureau in a form suitable for dissemination without any delay.

Bureau records contain no information identifiable with Major John S. Wyllie; however, the following information is contained on G. P. Wyllie (Bureau file 63-7705), who is identical with the individual referred to above. The Bureau has received several prior communications from this individual starting in February, 1959, and the latest being in May of 1963. All of these communications have been highly critical of the Director and the FBI and extremely insulting in tone. You are, therefore, cautioned to be extremely circumspect in your contact with this individual.

NOTE:

In the letter to the Presidential Commission, G. P. Wyllie suggests that there is some connection between Jack Ruby and Lee Oswald occasioned by gambling operators. His letter does not contain much logic; however, he indicates his brother, Major John Wyllie, had told him that Oswald was after Governor Connally of Texas and he indicates his brother, while stationed at Fort Hood, Texas, probably learned of gambling operations and furnished this information to General Walker. Mr. Rankin desired that the Bureau conduct interviews to determine if there is any evidence to support the claims made by Wyllie, particularly the assertion that Oswald was intending to kill Governor Connally rather than the late President.

Bureau file 63-7705 on G. P. Wyllie shows that he initially wrote to the Bureau in February, 1959, and inquired if the Director was related to former President Herbert Hoover. The letter implied that if they were related the Director received favoritism because of the relationship. This communication was answered over Miss Gandy's signature and he was advised there was no relationship. In a letter dated 6-18-62, Wyllie commented that the Director had been head of the FBI 1½ years longer than the age of the Attorney General, Robert Kennedy, and stated "Too damn long in my opinion."

He stated he felt that people no longer think of the Director in regard to the FBI, but rather think of the FBI in regard to the Director and felt there should be a 16-year-limit imposed on the tenure in office by Federal executive officials. This letter was not acknowledged. He last wrote on 5-3-63 and wanted to know the Director's resident address so he could write as a private citizen. He desired to know the Director's views regarding a national police agency among other subjects. This was not acknowledged.

It is quite apparent this individual is a trouble-maker and rabble rouser and may even be suffering from a mental illness; however, in view of the request from the Presidential Commission we have no alternative but to interview him.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Re: Request for Bureau Interviews of
G. P. Wyllie and Major John S. Wyllie

Enclosed you will find a copy of a letter sent to the Commission by G. P. Wyllie. As you will note, the writer of the enclosed letter makes several assertions about Oswald's motive in shooting at the late President Kennedy's limousine and implies that there was a connection between Jack Ruby and Oswald's conduct.

I would appreciate the Bureau conducting interviews of the Wyllies to determine if there is any evidence to support the claims made in the enclosed letter, particularly the assertion that Oswald was intending to kill Governor Connally rather than the late President.

Thank you for your cooperation on this matter.

Sincerely,

J. Lee Rankin

Dear Sirs:

On Friday, 18 June 1954, Albert L. Patterson, Alabama Attorney General designate, was slain in Phenix City, Alabama.

Patterson was investigating illegal gambling operations in the southeast Alabama town which fattened on soldiers from nearby Fort Benning, Georgia

Governor Gordon Persons immediately declared martial law in Phenix City, ordering the state National Guard to control the corrupt city government.

The gamblers of Texas who were being investigated by Maj. A. Walker and Governor Connally knew that to openly and obviously murder John B. Connally would spell the doom of their booming enterprises, as had been the case in Phenix City a decade ago.

First they tried to kill Walker in order to scare Connally, and failed. Then they tried to kill Connally when he was with Kennedy and make it look like a mistake; the mistake happened in reverse.

Jack Ruby, the Dallas night club operator who shot and killed Lee Oswald, was acquainted with a Cleveland, Tennessee gambler, the late(and unlamented)"Cac" Hooper. They had met in Chicago. My brother Major John S. Wyllie, who was stationed at Fort Hood, Texas in recent years, said while on leave last month that Oswald was after Connally. Major Wyllie helped guard President Kennedy in Central America in 1963.

Major Wyllie while stationed at Fort Hood probably learned of gambling operations behind fronts, like Ruby's night club, and rank-and-file soldiers and forwarded the information to officers like Major General Walker.

Respectfully,

The following observations and recommendations are submitted for your consideration in connection with the proposal of the President's Commission to furnish all reports in the Ruby and Oswald cases to the prosecution and defense attorneys for the Ruby murder trial in Dallas:

1. We believe that the FBI has done a good job of investigation in this matter both before and after the assassination. We have nothing to hide and if all of the facts were to be made public and reviewed by the public, it is felt that the Bureau would not be criticized by reasonable people and legitimate organizations. However, in this instance, we are caught in the crosscurrents between the left and the right and each is trying to make a big conspiracy out of the assassination. They as well as others who have political or personal axes to grind will seize upon every opportunity to criticize the investigation as illustrated by some of the publicity since the assassination.

2. The issue in the murder trial is very narrow - whether Ruby was sane - and unless the attorneys intend to make a spectacle of it, the contents of our reports should not be disclosed. However, there is the definite danger that attempts will be made to persuade the jury that Ruby's action was justified because subject was directed by the Russians or the Cubans. Parts of our reports may be lifted out of context and by omission or innuendo the impression left that there was in fact such a conspiracy and that our investigation which failed to uncover it was incomplete.

The manner in which the reports were written add to this danger. The allegations were reported as received and then run out. The results of investigation may be hundreds of pages from the raw allegation and spread among several Dallas reports or those of other field offices. Time and the volume of information did not permit reporting the results of investigation along with the allegation.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the above facts be pointed out to the Commission; that we suggest that there be stringent conditions against publicizing our reports if they are given to the attorneys; and that we tell the Commission that we will set the record straight in any instance where only part of the facts are lifted from our reports and publicized.

3. Before disseminating our raw reports to the Commission we were careful to classify only those which included classified information from another agency or where it was necessary to protect a Bureau source. In some instances only a small portion of the report was of this nature but in accordance with classification rules, the whole report was classified.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that we inform the Commission concerning the specific portions of the classified reports which cannot be declassified and which should, therefore, not be furnished to the attorneys in the Ruby prosecution.

4. There is a danger that the Bureau will be criticized for reporting rumor, gossip or other information which might be embarrassing to various individuals. Because of the nature of this case, the field was instructed to report everything. The reports, therefore, contain every allegation about Oswald, his acquaintances and associates; critical statements made by various individuals about President Kennedy and his family; allegations by mental cases; other persons trying to be helpful, et cetera. To assist in evaluating the information, we included in the reports data from our files regarding many of the persons who furnished information particularly those who had an history of mental instability. We also included in the reports such things as the report of the autopsy of President Kennedy which the family did not want publicized; a statement of the chief of police in Dallas that he could not rely upon what General Walker said, et cetera. Some gossip could be regarded as libelous.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that we specifically point out to the Commission that the reports contain information of this kind which in some instances could cause embarrassment to some citizens and in others could be considered by the persons named as unwarranted publication.

5. There is a danger that demands may be made upon the Bureau to identify our confidential sources of information. In these reports whereverr possible we attributed the information to the original sources but we did use T symbols to cover such sources as [redacted] people who requested their identities conceiled and our own confidential informants who for the most part were utilized to characterize persons or organizations mentioned in the reports.

RECOMMENDATION

Although we can answer inquiries concerning Western Union or bank sources by advising that a subpoena should be issued to obtain the information, it is recommended that we point out to the Commission that we cannot disclose the other sources without compromising our informants, damaging our relations with other agencies or breaching confidences, all of which would be detrimental to our future investigative operations.

It

It is believed that the above recommended action will serve to alert the Commission as to the dangers of releasing our reports and put us in a better position in the event such release later results in criticism of the Bureau.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

"The Dallas Times Herald" on January 14, 1964, carried a story which quoted from a speech of the Attorney General of the State of Texas, Waggoner Carr, delivered on the night of January 13, 1964, to the Brotherhood of the Highland Baptist Church in Dallas.

Mr. Carr reportedly stated that Federal Bureau of Investigation reports on Jack Ruby would be turned over to the Dallas District Attorney, Henry Wade, by the President's Commission investigating the assassination of President Kennedy. He said that you have agreed to turn over the data at the request of the Attorney General of the State of Texas who on Saturday, January 11, 1964, gave the President's Commission all of the results of the Texas investigation into the assassination and the killing of Lee Harvey Oswald. He said that the District Attorney will be free to use the Federal Bureau of Investigation data in the prosecution of the accused slayer of Oswald.

Attorney General Carr also stated that he had not read all of the reports of the Texas investigation but from what he had read, he had come to these conclusions: "Oswald was a lone ranger and worked alone.

Oswald was the man who shot at former Major General Edwin A. Walker, and this fact indicated he was not part of a conspiracy because of the variance in the political philosophies of Walker and President Kennedy. There was no evidence of a link between Ruby and Oswald."

LAMONT C. PETERSON,
RD #2, BOX 371,
READING, PENNSYLVANIA

On January 14, 1964, Mr. LAMONT C. PETERSON, residing at RD #2, Box 271, Reading, Pa., was interviewed by Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at his specific request. Mr. PETERSON's letter, requesting interview, inferred that he had information regarding JACK L. RUBY, LEE HARVEY OSWALD and/or the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

Upon interview, it developed that the "RUBY-RUBENSTEIN" PETERSON mentioned in his letter was one (FNU) RUBENSTEIN, nickname "RUBY," who is an international organizer for the United Steelworkers of America.

PETERSON related that he works for the American Chain and Cable Company, Reading, Pa.; and, as such, is a member of Local 5912, United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO. He stated that in the summer of 1959, prior to the Steelworkers becoming the local at American Chain, PETERSON signed a card agreeing to accept the Steelworkers as his bargaining agent if they were voted in at an National Labor Relations Board election. Subsequently, because of dissatisfaction with the proposed contract, and prior to the National Labor Relations Board election, PETERSON tried to back out, and demanded his signed card back. This request was refused.

PETERSON said that he has sought legal advice about this matter; and, although he admitted having signed the card in good faith originally, he is now claiming "fraud in the inducement," but his attorneys seem unwilling or unable to gain redress for him.

COPIES DESTROYED

LAMONT C. PETERSON

PETERSON stated that initially ED HAAS was the union president but in about the spring of 1960, (first name unknown) RUBENSTEIN, whom PETERSON believes to be an International Representative of the Steelworkers and who he believes lives in the Reading, Pa., area, began to attend the Steelworkers meetings. PETERSON said that the company took over a former lunchroom where he and other employees had been accustomed to eating and playing chess on their lunch hour. PETERSON tried to file a grievance about this but RUBENSTEIN would not listen to him. PETERSON said he had written to former President EISENHOWER about this, also to the then President JOHN J. KENNEDY on November 13, 1961. He also said he has written to the Department of Justice and to Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY at various times. His letters all related the above grievances; none were ever threatening or abusive, but asked for "justice."

PETERSON said that once, as a result of his problems with the union, someone tried to run down his children as they left the house for the school bus. He never saw this man or car but the next evening a man came to his house and asked permission to leave his car in PETERSON's driveway for a while. His eight year old son later told him "that was the man that nearly ran us down." PETERSON also mentioned having been in the U. S. Navy and stated that the Navy had taught him to protect himself. He said that "I was taught if one man goes berserk, it is better to kill him, even if he is a close friend, rather than have him cause the death of 50 others." PETERSON said he is not a violent man and would rather move back than get involved in violence, but that sometimes he gets angry. He mentioned that in the Navy he was taught to use a gun and throw a knife, even backwards over his shoulder.

LAMONT C. PETERSON

PETERSON said he realized the complaint he had was not properly one for the FBI but that he wanted to bring his position to the attention of the United States Government, and that is the reason he has been writing letters.

PETERSON said that he is not against unions generally and on the contrary is very much in favor of them, at one time having been president of a local. He was formerly affiliated with the Bakers Union. PETERSON's gripe is against the leadership of the Steelworkers Local to which he is compelled to belong. He pays his dues regularly but has not attended any meetings for some time.

A confidential source, who has not been contacted with sufficient frequency to establish his reliability, related that he has had periodic contact with PETERSON over a period of several years. Source related that PETERSON is, in his opinion, a "nut" and he will be lucid for a time and then go off on a tangent. Source, although allegedly a member of the Steelworkers Union where he works, always expresses himself as being against them. PETERSON has, sometimes as often as once a month, contacted source, primarily to complain about his treatment as a member of the Steelworkers Local. Source has never found any real basis for legal action on behalf of PETERSON.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

The following investigation was conducted by SA GEORGE A. PAINE, JR.:

A review of the Los Angeles indices on January 10, 1964, reflected reference to the name of MAX UNTERBERG. The reference reflected that on May 11, 1961, [redacted] identified a photograph of JOSEPH STACHER, Aka Doc, et al, who was personally not known to the informant, as a person observed in the company of MAX UNTERBERG, co-owner of the Tropic Palms Motel, 10590 Wilshire Boulevard, Beverly Hills, California.

A review of Los Angeles indices under Los Angeles [redacted] reflects information concerning JOSEPH STACHER, true name GDALE OISTACZER, Aka, born March 12, 1900 (not verified), in Russia. STACHER, commonly known as "DOC" STACHER, is a described "hoodlum" and associate of "top hoodlums" in the Los Angeles area plus other locations. STACHER is last known as residing at the Beverly-Wilshire Hotel, Suite 615, Beverly Hills, California, and his occupation is "investments and real estate." STACHER is listed as a former lieutenant of deceased ABNER "LONGIE" ZWILLMAN. He reportedly knows most of the important individuals who are leaders in the criminal world in both the United States and Europe. He is believed to have some undisclosed financial interest in Las Vegas, Nevada, hotels and is alleged to have inherited ZWILLMAN's "empire" along with GERARDO CATENA, Newark, New Jersey, from which area STACHER originally came. He reportedly has a financial interest in the new Golden Hotel, Reno, Nevada, and owns the property on which the Moulin Rouge is located at Hollywood, California.

His listed present and former associates are FRANK COSTELLO, FRANK ERICKSON, MEYER LANSKY, ZWILLMAN (deceased), WILLIE MORETTIE (deceased), BUGSY SIEGEL (deceased), FRANK SENNES, MOE MORTON, BRYANT R. BURTON, HARRY RITZ, and NAT HARTMAN. He has no listed major arrests and is presently under indictment concerning income tax matters by Internal Revenue Service, Los Angeles, California.

Since his arrest on November 24, 1963, JACK L. RUBY has received numerous pieces of correspondence and has written several letters. The correspondence he has received has consisted of telegrams and letters including numerous Christmas cards. Copies of the various pieces of correspondence which he has received and which he has written have been furnished to the Dallas Office by the Dallas Police Department and the Dallas County Sheriff's Office. At the time these pieces of correspondence are duplicated, they are numbered consecutively by the Dallas County Sheriff's Office. A total of 939 pieces of correspondence has been received in the Dallas Office thus far, as of January 2, 1964. A fairly large number of these pieces of correspondence are duplicates. Most of the correspondence received by RUBY has been of a congratulatory or sympathetic nature, however, a fairly large proportion has been critical of his activities in killing LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

The correspondence received by RUBY, copies of which have been furnished the Dallas Office, have been reviewed regarding content and identity of the writer. In those instances where it was deemed advisable and where it was indicated that the writer was possibly acquainted with RUBY, leads have been set forth to have these persons interviewed. Where it was obvious that the writer was not acquainted with RUBY or where the communication was anonymous and there was no way to identify the writer, no lead was set forth.

Several money donations in the form of cash, checks, and money orders have been included in the correspondence received by RUBY, the largest single donation having been $100.00 and the smallest having been $1.00. The total does not amount to a large amount of money and individual communications enclosing these donations have designated them for different purposes such as a defense fund for RUBY and for items of personal comfort for RUBY such as cigarettes.

It is believed that further copies of correspondence will be received from the Dallas County Sheriff's Office subsequent to its receipt by RUBY and the Dallas Office will continue to review this correspondence for lead purposes.

The information from the records of the Bank of Dallas pertaining to the joint savings account and safety deposit box of EVA GRANT and JACK RUBY was furnished to SA JAMES S. WEIR by [redacted] Assistant Cashier, Bank of Dallas.

On December 26, 1963, [redacted] advised SA HOMER E. YOUNG that "Stripper SIRI" is SIRI PUTNAM, who is presently engaged at "The Follies Theater", Los Angeles, California.

On January 3, 1964, [redacted] New Orleans, Louisiana, was contacted by SA ALVIN J. ZIMMERMAN in an attempt to determine the identity of KITTY (last name unknown), who is reported by Dallas stripper CANDY CANE to have been associated with JACK RUBY. [redacted] advised that the only stripper he knew by the name of KITTY who worked in New Orleans was KITTY RAVILLE. He advised RAVILLE committed suicide in New Orleans in August or September 1963.

[redacted] stated his records indicate one VIVIAN MELLINGER, known as KITTY DeVILLE, a stripper, paid union dues at New Orleans August 17, 1963, but he does not believe she is currently working in New Orleans and does not know her present whereabouts.

JOSEPH FRANCIS CIVELLO with whom an interview is reported here-in is [redacted] CIVELLO was in attendance at the Appalachin Meeting.

On January 14, 1964, [redacted] advised SA ALFRED D. NEALY that ROY KIMES (ROY EUGENE KIMES, FBI #228 639, a well-known Texas and Oklahoma police character, now deceased) brought JACK RUBY to his home at Farmersville, Texas. He stated that KIMES was trying to buy a motel located north of Durant, Oklahoma, and was trying to promote RUBY into financing the purchase of this motel for him. [redacted] Informant stated that this incident was from six to seven months after KIMES had been released from the Texas State Penitentiary and approximately four years ago.

Informant advised that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

HENRY WADE, Dallas County District Attorney, was contacted and interviewed by SAs VINCENT E. DRAIN and W. HARLAN BROWN. WADE stated WAGGONER CARR, Texas Attorney General, had no authority to speak for him. WADE stated he had made it known that he needs all available information concerning JACK RUBY and circumstances surrounding his shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, as well as associates and background of RUBY.

WADE advised he had never stated that he was handicapped because he does not have certain written statements in possession of the FBI. WADE related that the Dallas Police Department had conducted very little investigation concerning RUBY and his background and had spent most of the time submitting an investigative report defending themselves because of the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY.

WADE advised his purpose in getting the information from the FBI was the fact that if RUBY should take the stand he would like to cross-examine him concerning his background and incidents RUBY may have been involved in which WADE could use in cross-examination. Also WADE related that he would cross-examine any character witnesses that might appear for RUBY.

WADE was asked to state specifically and categorically where he was handicapped in any way by lack of access to material in possession of the Federal Government at which time WADE advised that he was not in a position to do so because he did not have any knowledge as to what the background information collected by the Federal Government consisted of, but felt that the Federal Government had gone into RUBY's background and associates. WADE stated without reviewing such statements taken by the Federal Government, oral or written, he would have no way of knowing what these statements contained.

WADE furnished the following letter:

Re: Jack Ruby

"Dear Mr. Shanklin:

"As you are aware, we have a bond hearing on Jack Ruby set on January 20 and the trial for the murder of Lee Oswald set for February 3 in Criminal District Court No. 3 of Dallas County, Texas. In that trial all of the information we can gather with reference to the background of Jack Ruby from the time he was born up to the present, the names of all his business or social associates together with what they might have said concerning him or his mental capacity will be very important. I feel that you have some of this information or all of it in your present files. I would appreciate your obtaining the following:

1. Copies of all interviews had by your agents concerning Jack Ruby or any of his associates.

2. The names of any persons in any way connected with Ruby together with their statements made concerning him.

3. Any physical evidence that you might have in the Ruby case.

4. Any summary you might have of the whole activities of Ruby during and at the time of this murder.

5. Any statements that you might have tending to show any connection between Oswald and Ruby.

6. Any statements that you might have dealing with whether or not Ruby belonged or had belonged to any subversive groups.

7. Copies of the interviews had by your agents at the City Hall and also the Dallas County Jail and what Ruby told them.

None of this information will be released to the press, radio or television, nor to anyone else outside of this office, and will be used exclusively in the trial of this case for the purposes of cross-examining the defendant should he testify and also cross-examining the character witnesses, and should any of these witnesses wherein you have a statement from them testify, if they vary from the statements made to your agent, they will be used for the purpose of cross-examining this witness. I hope that this can be arranged as soon as possible since we will have to read and digest these prior to the trial on February 3.

Captain O. A. JONES, Dallas Police Department, furnished a "schematic diagram of the basement parking area, City Hall, involved in the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK RUBY". Attached to the drawing is a list of 99 individuals, including JACK RUBY, plus two persons identified only as "unknown Jap. reporter" and "unknown reporter". The list is described as a "key to personnel" shown on the diagram. A number is assigned to each individual on the list and a corresponding number on the diagram purports to show the location of the particular individual in the basement area at the time of the shooting.

A review of the list of individuals reflects all have been interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI with the possible exceptions of the unidentified reporters referred to above.

AT DALLAS, TEXAS:

WICK FOWLER, Reporter, Dallas Morning News, advised SA JOHN T. MC MURRER on January 7, 1964, as follows:

On the morning of November 24, 1963, at which time LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot at Dallas, Texas, he, WICK, was making a speech at the Marriott Motel to a group of women. He had no knowledge of activities at the police department at the time OSWALD was shot and, in particular, did not know and had not heard of any rumors that a 16-year-old high school girl reporter for a high school newspaper had been in the basement at the time of the shooting.

Date January 3, 1964

On January 3, 1964, Special Agent WILLIAM N. KIDWELL, JR., personally reviewed records maintained by the Marriage Records Department, Recorders Office, City and County of San Francisco, City Hall, Room 157. These records reveal in Book 353, Page 43, under registration number 4254, that EVA RUBENSTEIN MAGID, then residing 326 Eddy Street, San Francisco, on August 21, 1936, married FRANK GRANOVSKY, then residing Woodland Hotel, San Francisco.

MAGID was described as a white female, age 27, born in Chicago, Illinois, divorced, occupation - clerk. Her father is listed as JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN, born in Russia and her mother is listed as FANNY TUREK, born in Poland.

FRANK GRANOVSKY was described as a white male, age 30, divorced, born in Boston, Massachusetts, occupation - salesman. His father was listed as LOUIS GRANOVSKY, born in Russia and his mother is listed as SADIE PHILLIPS, born in Germany.

This information appears on Marriage License number 560 and reveals that the above individuals were married by ELLIOTT M. BURSTEIN, Rabbi, Congregation Beth Israel, San Francisco. The witnesses were listed as HUBERT BROOKER and E. B. ROSENGARTEN, both of 473 Ellis Street, San Francisco.

The above record can be produced by Deputy Recorder ANDREW F. MAISONMADE, Marriage Records Department, Officer of the Recorder, City and County of San Francisco.

At San Francisco, California

The following investigation was conducted by SA WILLIAM H. KIDWELL, JR.:

The files of the Marriage Records Department, Office of the Recorder, City and County of San Francisco, reviewed on January 3, 1964, revealed in part that on August 21, 1936, EVA RUBENSTEIN WAGID married FRANK GRANOVSKY. GRANOVSKY's San Francisco address was given as the Woodland Hotel. This marriage was witnessed by HUBERT BROOKER and E. B. ROSENGARTEN, both of 473 Ellis Street, San Francisco. The marriage ceremony was performed at the Congregation Beth Israel, 1039 Geary Street, San Francisco.

On January 8, 1964, FLORENCE M. FRENCH, 473 Ellis Street, advised that this address was formerly the location of the Woodland Hotel. However, in approximately 1960 the building was remodeled and is presently an apartment hotel. None of the former occupants of this building were retained as tenants subsequent to 1960. Mrs. FRENCH stated that she has been a resident of the district wherein 473 Ellis Street is located for approximately 30 years and has managed or owned various hotels in this neighborhood.

She stated that the names HUBERT BROOKER, E. B. ROSENGARTEN, FRANK GRANOVSKY, FRANK GRANT and EVA WAGID are unfamiliar to her.

On January 9, 1964, CLARA PARRISH, residence address 1013 Arguello Street, Redwood City, California, advised that she formerly owned the Woodland Hotel at 473 Ellis Street. She stated that this ownership occurred during the approximate period from 1931 through 1933. She advised that the hotel was then sold to a MARTIN ANDERSON. This individual owned and managed the establishment for many years but is now deceased.

Mrs. PARRISH also advised that the names mentioned above in the interview with Mrs. FRENCH are unfamiliar to her. She was unable to suggest anyone who might presently be in the San Francisco Area who was a tenant of the aforementioned hotel in 1936.

On January 9, 1964, M. L. ROCE, Realtor, 370 Market Street, advised that his company acted as agent for the Woodland Hotel for many years during the 1930s and 1940s. The hotel has changed hands on many occasions. The only person Mr. ROCE could specifically recall as having owned the premises was one CHARLOTTE RUSSELL, now deceased. Mr. ROCE stated that he had no personal contacts with the individuals who were tenants at this establishment.

On January 9, 1964, WILLIAM C. WAYDEMAN, Manager, Arlington Hotel, 430 Ellis Street, advised that he has resided in this immediate neighborhood for approximately 35 years. He stated that he knew many of the former tenants of the Woodland Hotel. He was unable to furnish the names or locations of any of these individuals, stating that he did not know whether any of these persons were still in this neighborhood.

Mr. WAYDEMAN stated that he has read numerous newspaper articles concerning the Subject and has seen photographs of the Subject both in the newspapers and on national television. He stated he did not know the Subject during the Subject's reported residence in San Francisco.

The names mentioned in the interview with Mrs. FRENCH set forth above were unfamiliar to Mr. WAYDEMAN.

On January 9, 1964, Mrs. KATHERINE WHEELER, Room 436, Arlington Hotel, 430 Ellis Street, advised that she has resided in this neighborhood for over 25 years. She stated that she lived in the Woodland Hotel on two occasions, one of them being during the period from 1934 through 1936. She stated that she does not recall having met anyone who was a tenant in this hotel during this period who used the names mentioned in the interview with Mrs. FRENCH, above.

Except for the publicity afforded the Subject's activities in Dallas during November, 1963, Mrs. WHEELER stated the name JACK LEON RUBY was unfamiliar to her.

Mrs. WHEELER was unable to furnish the names of any other individuals who were tenants of the Woodland Hotel during the period she resided at this establishment.

The following investigation was conducted by SA GEORGE A. PAINE, JR.:

The available directories for Los Angeles area reflected the following names:

PEARL GRANT, 826 South Hobart, Los Angeles, Phone DU 9-4640.

ROSE SOLOMON, 6206½ 11th Avenue, Los Angeles, Phone PL 8-5215.

ROSE L. SOLOMON, 1206 North Hayworth, Los Angeles, Phone OL 3-5190.

On January 6, 1964, Mrs. ROSE SOLOMON, 6206½ 11th Avenue, advised she is divorced from her former husband, ABRAHAM SOLOMON. She said she did not know of or have any relatives by the name of FRANK GRANOVSKY, aka Frank Grant.

On January 6, 1963, Mrs. ROSE L. SOLOMON, 1206 North Hayworth, advised she did not have any relative by the name of FRANK GRANOVSKY, aka Frank Grant..

On January 6, 1964, inquiry at the Retail Merchants Credit Association, Los Angeles, was negative concerning the name FRANK GRANOVSKY. The records reflected reference to a FRANK GRANT with wife FAE, first being on record with this bureau in 1937. The last report in 1959 reflected that this FRANK GRANT resided at 7114 Cantaloupe Avenue, Van Nuys, California. In 1956 he was listed as having been employed as a property man with Paramount Studios since 1938, and was a property man at Warner Brothers Studios in 1959.

On January 7, 1964, inquiry in the neighborhood of 1180 Oxford Road, San Marino, California, ascertained FRANK E. GRANT of that address and his wife ELIZABETH, nee PARK, were natives of the Los Angeles area.

On January 7, 1964, inquiry in the neighborhood of 727 West 7th Street, Los Angeles, ascertained that FRANK E. GRANT of that address deals in oil properties.

FERRELL
IDATION

Efforts were made to contact PEARL GRANT, 826 South Hobart Street, Apartment 310, on January 2, 3, 6-8, 1964, with negative results.

The following investigation was conducted by IC MILLARD T. ANDERSON:

On January 6, 1964, the records of the Bureau of Vital Statistics-Deaths of Los Angeles City and Los Angeles County were checked from 1940 to that date with negative results in any identifiable information reflecting the death of FRANK GRANOVSKY, aka Frank Grant.

The following investigation was conducted by SA WILLIAM L. BYRNE, JR.:

On January 6, 7, 1964, HOMER HILL, Payroll Records, 20th Century Fox Studios, was contacted to ascertain any information to identify and locate FRANK GRANOVSKY, aka. HILL stated he could not locate any record concerning the name of GRANOVSKY. HILL located reference to one FRANK GRANT, 7114 Cantaloupe Way, Van Nuys, California, with wife FAY. HILL stated his records reflected that GRANT had performed periodic work as a property man for several years at 20th Century Fox Studios. HILL said his register for industry-wide registration for motion picture studio employees failed to reflect any additional identifying information concerning any FRANK GRANOVSKY, aka.

FRANK GRANT, nee GRANOVSKY, 7114 Cantaloupe Way, Van Nuys, California, telephonically advised that he met EVA MAGID, nee RUBENSTEIN, at San Francisco, California, about 1935-1936. He said they were married shortly after he met her and they resided for one month at San Francisco. They lived together for about one month at the residence of an aunt of EVA, name unrecalled, which residence was located at the intersection of Eddy and Jones Streets, San Francisco. At that time, EVA was employed obtaining newspaper subscriptions for a San Francisco newspaper, possible the "San Francisco Journal."

FRANK met EVA's brother, JACK RUBY, at San Francisco at the time FRANK met and married EVA. GRANT believed from recollection that JACK RUBY was then employed in San Francisco selling linoleum. FRANK believed that the unknown aunt of EVA moved to either Portland, Oregon, or Seattle, Washington, about the time he and EVA were married.

FRANK and EVA then moved to Los Angeles, California, about 1936 where they resided together for only four months. At that time, EVA left FRANK and departed Los Angeles, reportedly to go to Chicago, Illinois, to obtain a divorce from FRANK. FRANK said he had no type of contact or communication with EVA or JACK RUBY until about 1939 or 1940 when EVA unexpectedly returned to the Los Angeles area. EVA then obtained a divorce from FRANK in Los Angeles at the time of her return. EVA thereafter departed the Los Angeles area and FRANK had no additional contact or communication with EVA and JACK RUBY since that time. He said he had no information that JACK RUBY had ever resided in the Los Angeles area. He did not know when RUBY departed San Francisco, or that EVA and JACK had gone to Dallas, Texas, until the time of publicity that JACK had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the time of the death of former President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He said he has not received any type of contact of communication from EVA or JACK since the shooting of OSWALD.

FRANK added that he had used the name of FRANK GRANT since shortly after graduation from high school and that he had his name legally changed to FRANK GRANT at Los Angeles in 1949. He said he is now 58 years of age and that EVA GRANT would be approximately 56 or 57 years of age, to the best of his recollection. FRANK said that he spent three years in the U.S. Army from November 30, 1942 until September 8, 1945, at which time he received an honorable discharge. He said he married his present wife, FAY, September 8, 1942, at Los Angeles, California. He said he is presently employed as a "property man" through Local 44 of the International Association of Theatrical and Stage Employees (IATSE).

FRANK said he had never met any other family members of EVA. He said he had no information or knowledge of any connection of EVA, JACK RUBY or any other possible family members being connected with any subversive group. He said he did not know JACK RUBY well enough at the time he met and married EVA to furnish additional comments concerning RUBY. FRANK explained that he had lived with EVA for only a total of six months, approximately, at San Francisco and Los Angeles. He said that when EVA departed Los Angeles, he would only presume that she returned to Chicago, Illinois, area, possibly to reside with her parents, names unrecalled. FRANK has never had any type of contact or communication with any of her family members. FRANK said that he has never been to Dallas, Texas, and had no information concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

PEARL GRANT, nee GRANOVSKY, 826 South Hobart Street, Apartment 310, Los Angeles, phone DU 9-4640, telephonically contacted SA GEORGE A. PAINE, JR. She advised she is employed by Allen Brothers, 1509 South Figueroa, Los Angeles, phone RI 8-7181.

She stated she has a brother, FRANK GRANT, nee GRANOVSKY, address unrecalled, Van Nuys, California, who has unlisted telephone number ST 6-8666. His wife is named FAY. She said that they do not have any sister named ROSE SOLOMON, or any other sisters. She said FRANK was last known a few months ago to have been working with the Perry Mason Show and that he had also previously been employed at Paramount Studios.

She said she did not know JACK RUBY, aka., or LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said her brother had been away from home for several years during the 1930s and she had no information that her brother had ever been married to EVA GRANT. She recalled FRANK had been married to one ETHEL MILLER during the early 1930s in Los Angeles, California. She said FRANK married his present wife, FAY, about 1940 or 1941, prior to his entrance into military service. She said she had no additional information of any connection of her brother with the JACK RUBY family.

JOSEPH FRANK FEDERICI, also known as JOE FREDERICI, JOE FREDERICA, whose name appeared on a list of names obtained from RUBY indicating possible former membership in one of RUBY's clubs, advised as follows:

FEDERICI is presently residing at 3909 Inwood, Apartment number 110, Dallas, and is moving from this residence in about ten days to return to his native state, New Jersey, with his wife. He stated he can be reached in the future in care of the Rolling F Ranch, Dilt's Corner Road, Lambertville, New Jersey. He is employed as Occupation Management Consultant by the Associated Industrial Consultants, 884 West State Street, Dallas. He has been so employed at Dallas and has been residing in Dallas since February, 1963. FEDERICI advised that he has never been a member of any of JACK RUBY's clubs but met RUBY at the Carousel Club as a customer in October, 1963. He believes that during one of the three or four occasions he was a customer at this club, RUBY wrote down his name. He added that he has never known RUBY socially but only as a customer at his club on three or four occasions and thus did not have the opportunity of becoming well acquainted with RUBY. He last saw RUBY at the end of October or early November, 1963, at the Carousel Club. He and his wife left Dallas during the early morning of November 22, 1963, to visit relatives at Providence, Rhode Island, home of his wife's people, and returned to Dallas on December 2, 1963.

FEDERICI stated he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never saw him to his knowledge. He has no information concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of OSWALD on the part of RUBY.

FEDERICI advised that due to the fact that he is of Italian decent and inasmuch as he presently has relatives residing in Italy, he has received considerable "kidding" by individuals who ask him if he has any connections with the "Mafia". He stated that to such questions he has on occasion jokingly stated that he is a nephew of VITO GENOVESE, allegedly a leading figure in the Mafia. He added that this has always been in jest and that he has no known relatives with any connection with the Mafia or any such group.

In an effort to identify and locate ANNE HAMILTON, not further described, allegedly a person who had dated JACK RUBY, the following investigation was conducted by SA JOHN T. MC MURRER:

Recent city directories for Dallas, Texas, list one ANNE HAMILTON, 1517 North Haskell, Apartment 203. Current telephone directory for Dallas lists one ANNE HAMILTON at 3808 Bryn Mawr, telephone EM 8-5335

On December 30, 1963, Mrs. AL G. HAMILTON advised her daughter ANNE is an 18-year-old high school student who has her own phone listing due to the many telephone calls she receives. She is certain her daughter is not acquainted with JACK RUBY and has not frequented or visited even occasionally any of the clubs operated by RUBY.

On January 3, 1964, Mrs. EMMA NORTHCUTT, 1517 North Haskell, advised one ANNE HAMILTON had moved from Apartment 7 on December 15, 1963, and had left no forwarding address. She had left owing a small balance on her rent, and Mrs. NORTHCUTT knew none of her friends or her employment.

On January 4, 1964, DOT REILLY, Merchants Credit Bureau, Dallas, Texas, was unable to locate any record possibly identical with ANNE HAMILTON, above.

On January 7, 1964, RENEE MARIAN HAYES, 5015 Simpson, telephone TA 7-9604, who has previously been interviewed in this matter and who is the person indicating ANNE HAMILTON had dated JACK RUBY, advised as follows:

HAMILTON was a waitress and she had no idea as to her current address or employment. She considered it likely HAMILTON had left town, and it was her opinion HAMILTON would be able to furnish no pertinent information regarding RUBY and would know him no better than she (HAYES) did. She said there is no waitresses' union in Dallas and she could think of no way in which HAYES might be located as she did not know her home town or identity of her parents.

She described HAMILTON as a white female American, age 24; height 5 feet, 10 inches; build slender; occupation waitress; dyes hair different colors.

In view of the above, no added investigation is contemplated in an effort to identify and locate ANN HAMILTON.

Mr. ROBERT H. HEISER, owner Heiser Construction Company, 105 Custom Forest Village, residence 3950 North Haven, Dallas, Texas, was reinterviewed by SA HAROLD R. DOBSON on January 15, 1964, for the purpose of ascertaining any knowledge he might have concerning the associates of JACK RUBY. Mr. HEISER stated that his contacts and association with RUBY consisted of selling him a cash register several years ago, subsequent contacts to secure payments for same and occasional visits to clubs owned or managed by RUBY approximately once or twice a year. He was thus not closely associated with RUBY and was not in a position to become acquainted with RUBY's close associates. He noted, however, during his contacts with RUBY that RUBY's associates appeared to be predominately men and that RUBY appeared to pay little attention to women. Mr. HEISER did not know RUBY well enough to venture an opinion as to whether or not this amounted to an abnormality.

Mr. HEISER stated that his wife's, KATHRYN, contacts with RUBY had been with him during occasional visits to RUBY's clubs as previously indicated and that she would therefore have even less information concerning RUBY than he. He stated that Mrs. HEISER had on the morning of the date of interview presented him with a baby boy.

HEISER contacted RUBY at the Silver Spur Club in Dallas in 1948 or 1949 and sold RUBY a cash register. As a result of this sale, it was necessary for HEISER to contact RUBY on a frequent regular basis to collect payments for the cash register. From about 1948 to 1952, HEISER saw RUBY frequently but, since then, has seen him infrequently at times when HEISER visited the Vegas or Carousel Clubs.

HEISER knows nothing concerning RUBY's personal life or political beliefs, but has always considered him to be a loyal American, and knows of no subversive activities on the part of RUBY.

HEISER has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY. HEISER knows of no police officers with whom RUBY was particularly close.

JO NELL HINCHLIFFE (reported to be an associate of RUBY), 2209 Sheridan, furnished the following information:

Miss HINCHLIFFE is a former Braniff Airlines stewardess. During September, 1963, while walking down Commerce Street in Dallas, a man who introduced himself to her as JACK RUBY approached her from the rear, tapped her on her shoulder, apologized for being impolite and told her what a nice looking figure she had and asked her if she would like to go to work as a stripper at the Carousel Club. She refused, at which time he gave her his telephone number and told her if she ever needed any help to call him. After attempting to find work in Dallas without success, she called RUBY and asked him if he knew where she could find a job. He took her to see Mr. ROBERT MAXWELL at the Gilded Cage in Dallas. Mr. MAXWELL, at RUBY's request, gave JO NELL a job as a waitress.

From September, 1963, to the time of RUBY's incarceration, she saw RUBY quite frequently on a social basis and became quite well acquainted with him. Miss HINCHLIFFE considers RUBY to be a loyal American and knows of no subversive activities on his part. He had never expressed any strong political beliefs in her presence. She could offer no reason for RUBY's killing OSWALD but indicated he was a man who formed strong opinions.

Miss HINCHLIFFE advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to her and she knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY. She indicated that RUBY was well acquainted with many police officers from the Dallas Police Department but she knew of no officer with whom he was particularly close.

Mrs. KUEHN, during the years 1957 - 1962, operated Bo's Barbecue, 1312 Commerce Street. Bo's Barbecue was located on the main floor in the same building as was located RUBY's Sovereign Club and later his Carousel Club. Mrs. KUEHN stated she feels RUBY's method of operation while operating the Carousel Club is the reason for her having to close her barbecue business at 1312 Commerce Street. She stated RUBY's method of advertising and his system of sign display were such that he had infringed upon her building frontage and, in her estimation, drove away her customers. She recalled RUBY sometimes came into her place of business, usually with a group of men, and had coffee and, occasionally, lunch. She stated he was hot tempered and, at times, seemed to be very crude.

Mrs. KUEHN, who now operates Bo's Barbecue, at 912 Commerce Street, advised she last saw RUBY in early November, 1963, when he came into her cafe for a cup of coffee. Prior to that time, she had not seen him since 1962, when she operated her barbecue business at 1312 Commerce Street.

Mrs. KUEHN did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor could she furnish any information pertaining to any association between OSWALD and RUBY.

FRANK LA MONTE, 10545 Lennox Lane, telephone number AD 5-2349, advised as follows:

He first knew JACK RUBY over nine or ten years ago in Dallas but has not seen him in the last three or four years. He could recall having seen RUBY two times in the Vegas Club and had seen him at different eating places on only two or three occasions several years ago. He had discussions with RUBY only two or three times, always regarding business and usually while in a group of people. Because of the limited association he had little or no knowledge concerning RUBY's personality and had no idea whatever as to his political or philosophical attitudes.

He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and therefore knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

CHARLES LANDIS, also known as Chuck Landis, residence at 3730 Crownridge Drive, Sherman Oaks, California, phone ST 9-4000 telephonically advised he is the President-Owner of the "Largo Club", 9009 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, California, phone 878-2222. He said the "Largo Club" is a night club for "strippers".

LANDIS said he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD. About late October, 1963, he met JACK L RUBY at the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, where LANDIS went to view WALLY WESTON, a burlesque comic. LANDIS had two drinks there and left to met with "PAPPY" DOLSON, 1500 Jackson Street, Dallas, the agent for WALLY WESTON. LANDIS returned to the Carousel Club with DOLSON to meet WALLY WESTON. While there, he met RUBY having been introduced to RUBY by WESTON. During the conversation LANDIS advised RUBY he, LANDIS, was residing at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas.

The following day LANDIS called the hotel to see if he had any messages and was advised that JACK RUBY had called LANDIS. LANDIS called RUBY from DOLSON's office, at which time he inquired of LANDIS if he was busy at that time. LANDIS said he was not at which time RUBY asked LANDIS if he desired to take a trip with RUBY. RUBY picked up LANDIS at DOLSON's office, at which time RUBY said he was going to the "Dr. Pepper Plant" in Dallas. RUBY indicated to LANDIS that he was going to that plant concerning some unknown type of "gadget" or concerning some unknown type of merchandising.

When they initially arrived at the "Dr. Pepper Plant", RUBY went inside to the lobby and LANDIS remained outside in the car. After a wait of an unrecalled amount of time LANDIS said it became warm in the car and he went into the lobby of the plant which he presumed was airconditioned. When LANDIS entered the lobby RUBY was still waiting in the lobby. Finally the receptionist came and took RUBY inside to see an unknown individual.

When RUBY came out to the lobby after his business visit, RUBY asked LANDIS if he was in a hurry to which LANDIS said, "no". RUBY thereafter drove by an apartment in Dallas to pick up his sister, EVA GRANT, and they drove her to the night club she operated, possibly the Soverign Club. He said this club was on an unrecalled street and there was no burlesque at this club. RUBY indicated EVA operated this club. RUBY then returned LANDIS to the Adolphus Hotel. Prior to departing RUBY told LANDIS he would contact him that evening.

RUBY contacted LANDIS later that evening and came by the hotel to pick up LANDIS. They had dinner at an unrecalled restaurant and thereafter stopped for "a couple of drinks" at a new hotel, which according to RUBY was connected with DORIS DAY. RUBY subsequently left LANDIS at LANDIS's hotel.

The next day LANDIS went to the Carousel Club to see WALLY WESTON, at which time he met EARL NORMAN, a burlesque comic, who is presently working at the "Largo Club".

LANDIS said RUBY personally inquired of LANDIS about the burlesque business, the amount of money made by the "strippers" and similar types of questions. He said no political or other type of conversation was had between them. He said RUBY appeared to him to be a very friendly individual, that was "flighty acting" meaning that he moved fast or would leave an area hurriedly. He said he had no additional pertinent information concerning RUBY.

Miss BESSIE MARGARET LEAVELLE, residence South Apartments, 405 Main Street, South Houston, Texas, telephone HU 4-1226, upon interview at her present place of employment, Andy's Inn, 9910 Galveston Road, South Houston, furnished the following:

She was born October 14, 1943, and has been married and divorced. During the summer of 1963, she lived with her mother, Mrs. VERA LACHAUSSE, in Rockwall, Texas, her mother having been then employed at Southern Trust and Mortgage Company, Dallas, Texas. In July or August, 1963, she sought to obtain a job as a waitress in Dallas. The Carousel Club, which is operated by JACK RUBY in Dallas, is located very close to the Southern Trust and Mortgage Company. Accordingly, she went to the Carousel Club one evening in either July or August, 1963, asked to speak with the proprietor, and in that manner met JACK RUBY for the first time. She told him she wanted a job as a waitress. He asked her concerning her previous experience, and specifically wanted to know if she was a stripper. He wrote down her name and the telephone number of her grandfather, W. W. BOSS, Rockwall, Texas, and said he would call her if he could use her. She felt RUBY did not seriously consider hiring her because she was only twenty years of age. She then went to the Music Bar located around the corner from the Carousel Club and obtained a job as a waitress. She stayed on that job for about three weeks, and a short time thereafter came to Houston, Texas, with her mother. She is presently employed at Andy's Inn as a waitress and bar maid.

Miss LEAVELLE advised this was the only time she had met JACK RUBY, and LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to her.

Mr. ROBERT MAXWELL (associate of RUBY), 3717 Rawlins, furnished the following information:

MAXWELL first met JACK RUBY during 1948 or 1949 when RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club and MAXWELL went to the club as a customer. From 1948 until about 1958 MAXWELL saw RUBY on an infrequent basis. In about 1958, MAXWELL went into the private club business and opened the Gilded Cage. After MAXWELL had opened the Gilded Cage, RUBY visited this club four or five times each year.

On one occasion, MAXWELL recalls that RUBY came to the Gilded Cage and asked MAXWELL to hire a girl by the name of JO NELL, which MAXWELL did. JO NELL worked for MAXWELL as a waitress for several months during 1960 or 1961. MAXWELL did not know the relationship between JO NELL and RUBY but indicated it was not unusual for RUBY to try to give a girl a helping hand.

MAXWELL, during this period, did not become closely associated with him and knows nothing concerning RUBY's personal life or political beliefs. MAXWELL considers RUBY to be a loyal American and knows of no subversive activities on the part of RUBY.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD is unknown to MAXWELL and he knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY. MAXWELL knows of no police officer with whom RUBY was particular close.

CLAUDE D. MERRELL, 2247 Lea Crest, Dallas, Texas, employed as chef, Copper Cow Restaurant, 1519 Commerce Street, Dallas, furnished the following information:

MERRELL has known JACK RUBY since about 1948 or 1949. At that time MERRELL was employed at the Royal Grill located across from the Adolphus Hotel on Commerce, Dallas, and JACK RUBY frequently came into the Royal Grill to eat. Subsequently, in the latter part of 1959, JOE SLATIN and MERRELL were planning to open a club at 1312-1/2 Commerce Street. SLATIN was to handle the front of the club and MERRELL was to operate the kitchen. They purchased some equipment, but before they could get started SLATIN ran out of money and he came to MERRELL and asked him if he would mind if they took in RUBY as a partner in this club.

MERRELL said he did not like JACK RUBY and did not approve of going into business with him, and he withdrew from the operation. At this time also, SLATIN decided to sell his interest to RUBY and did sell to RUBY for $1,500.00. Sometime in 1960, after SLATIN and MERRELL had withdrawn from the club, RUBY decided to incorporate as S & R, Inc., and since he needed three signatures on the incorporation papers, he requested SLATIN and MERRELL to sign the papers for him, which they agreed to do. They did not have any interest in the business and MERRELL actually signed as a favor to JOE SLATIN. RUBY later told MERRELL that he got the money to open the club from his brother in Chicago. MERRELL has never been in the club since that time and has had no contact with RUBY. He has seen him on the street in downtown Dallas since that time, however, has no knowledge of his associates or activities.

MERRELL said he first developed a dislike for RUBY while MERRELL was chef at the Royal Grill because RUBY always complained about the way his steaks were cooked. He also believed that RUBY was possibly homosexual. MERRELL had no specific information to this effect; however, he frequently observed RUBY accompanied by men and seldom saw him in the presence of women and, for this reason, assumed that he was a homosexual. He is not acquainted with any of the male companions of JACK RUBY. RUBY impressed him as the type who always wanted to be a "big shot". He was quick-tempered and MERRELL has heard that he mistreated waitresses and

DAVE L. MILLER, 5610 Lewis Street, Apartment D, who received a letter from JACK RUBY following RUBY's arrest, advised as follows:

Mr. MILLER stated that he is manager of the Enquire Shine and Press Shop, 1322 Commerce Street, which establishment is owned by his brother, ISIDORE MILLER. Mr. MILLER further informed that this establishment is located just two doors from the Carousel Club where RUBY has been operating a strip-type entertainment. He added that RUBY has regularly parked his automobile in a garage located between the Carousel and MILLER's place of business.

MILLER stated that through his employment, he has known RUBY for three years inasmuch as RUBY has regularly brought laundry and dry cleaning to this place and, as a consequence, a regular and continuous acquaintance has been developed. He also stated that on two or three occasions he has visited the Carousel Club as a customer but has never belonged to any of RUBY's clubs. RUBY also has dropped in from time to time on his way to or from the Carousel Club to say hello and also to have his shoes shined by one of the shoe shine boys.

MILLER advised that he has never discussed politics with RUBY and knows him only as a friendly, congenial person.

MILLER stated that he last saw RUBY on two brief occasions, the first being about 5:30 PM on November 22, 1963, when RUBY stopped by for just a minute or so on his way to or from the Carousel Club. At that time RUBY asked, "What do you think about that S.O.B. shooting the President?" referring to the assassination of President KENNEDY. He did not mention OSWALD's name and gave no indication that he ever saw or knew OSWALD. He gave no indication that he was more upset over the assassination than the average individual.

RUBY last appeared at MILLER's place of business about 5:30 PM on November 23, 1963, when he dropped in and asked MILLER not to display a sign advertising the Carousel Club, explaining that the club was closed due to the assassination. MILLER explained that for some time he has posted an advertisement for MILLER stated that in the letter he received from RUBY following his incarceration, RUBY asked him to say hello to SAM (HICKS) and DWAYNE (ARMSTRONG) and "the other boy", three colored shoe shine boys who knew RUBY only casually and as a customer in their shoe shine business. The third boy's name MILLER has forgotten since he is no longer employed.

MILLER stated that he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never had any reason to suspect that there was a relationship or acquaintance between OSWALD and RUBY. He is employed by the Dallas Police Department and has known JACK RUBY six and one-half years. He has seen JACK RUBY many times on official business and has been in his clubs after duty hours with his wife. He is not associated socially with RUBY but has had occasion to see him in dealings with his employees and based on this, considered RUBY a perfectionist who had unnecessarily given employees a "hard time" if conditions were not just as he desired them. His conversations with RUBY have been limited to club business and women and he has no idea as to RUBY's political or philosophical attitudes.

He has no knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD other than that obtained through newspaper accounts following OSWALD's arrest and he therefore knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

The name ART NELSON was found in a book which was the property of JACK L. RUBY, showing that NELSON was possibly a member of one of RUBY's clubs in Dallas, Texas.

On December 20, 1963, the San Francisco Office advised as follows with regard to ART NELSON:

ALLEN RYAN NELSON, also known as ART NELSON, disk jockey, Station KEWB, Oakland, California, on December 20, 1963, advised that he was with Station KLIF in Dallas, Texas, for about thirteen years. He was in Dallas from 1948 until 1958 and then went to Los Angeles, California, for a year and returned to Dallas until 1961, when he went to Los Angeles, and then to Oakland, California, in 1962.

He stated he met JACK L. RUBY at the Silver Spur Night Club in Dallas, Texas, in about 1951 or 1952. He claims RUBY made it a point to know members of the various news media and frequented Radio Station KLIF for purposes of publicity and spot announcements and may have purchased spots with Radio Station KLIF.

NELSON advised that he was a member of RUBY's Carousel Club in Dallas but cannot recall if RUBY gave him membership or if he paid membership, but he joined this club in view of the strict liquor laws in Texas.

Mr. NELSON said he last saw RUBY in 1960 in Texas and never saw or associated with him on the West Coast. He advised he was not a social friend of RUBY but only saw him at the club and never engaged in long conversation. He said he did not know of RUBY's political opinions. He stated he never knew or saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD at RUBY's club and did not know of any acquaintance between RUBY and OSWALD.

He advised that RUBY had a quick temper. This opinion was based on his observance of RUBY's dealings with his night club customers.

The following investigation was conducted by SA EDMOND C. HARDIN at Dallas, Texas, on January 6, 1964:

ELIZABETH JEAN NELSON aka Jean Nelson, 3909 Inwood Drive, Apartment 215, whose name was furnished by Mr. E. MACE NAYLOR, as having told him that a party was held on November 20, 1963, in the apartment of FRANK T. TORTORIELLO, at which party RUBY was believed to have been present, furnished the following information:

Miss NELSON advised she does not know RUBY and has never met or seen him to her knowledge. She stated she did not attend a party allegedly held on November 20, 1963, in the apartment of FRANK T. TORTORIELLO, but was told by ANN BRYANT, Apartment 106, same address, that Mrs. BRYANT had attended such a party briefly and believed that one individual she met at this party was JACK RUBY. Miss NELSON stated she believes she understood from Mrs. BRYANT that JOE F. FEDERICI (formerly spelled by her as FREDERICI) and his wife, SANDY FEDERICI, who reside in Apartment 110, of this address, also attended this party. She stated she does not know whether Mr. and Mrs. FEDERICI have ever been acquainted with RUBY, but she does know they are friendly with TORTORIELLO. She added that the FEDERICIS moved into the apartment at this address in February, 1963, and he is allegedly employed in the management consultant business at Dallas for his father, who allegedly resides in Trenton, New Jersey.

Miss NELSON stated she did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information whatsoever concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY.

Mrs. HARRIS D. BRYANT aka Mrs. Ann Bryant, 3909 Inwood Drive, Apartment 106, whose name was furnished by E. MACE NAYLOR as having attended a party on November 20, 1963, at Apartment 104, same address, at which party RUBY was allegedly present, furnished the following information:

Mrs. BRYANT stated that about 1:00 or 1:30 AM, on November 20 or 21, 1963, she was in her apartment alone and at that time FRANK T. TORTORIELLO, who resides in Apartment 104, same address, came to her apartment accompanied by a young woman unknown to Mrs. BRYANT. TORTORIELLO explained he had come to her apartment to request some ice, inasmuch as he had run out and needed same for friends he was entertaining in his apartment. He invited Mrs. BRYANT to his apartment for "a couple of drinks," which invitation she accepted. She went to TORTORIELLO's apartment and stayed thirty or forty minutes and had two or three drinks there. Upon arriving, she noticed that all present, except TORTORIELLO, were strangers. There were at that time, in addition to TORTORIELLO, four men and three women. She was introduced all around hurriedly and did not recall the names of any of the individuals but, after the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY, she saw RUBY's photograph in the newspaper, and noticed that this photograph looked familiar to one of the men present at the TORTORIELLO party. This man was apparently there with a young woman who had what Mrs. BRYANT described as a theatrical appearance. She was about twenty-five years of age, tall, brunette, and spoke with a slight accent, which may have been an accent of someone of Germanic origin. She heard someone, name not recalled, state that this woman was the wife of the man who resembled RUBY's photograph. She and this man left together a few minutes before Mrs. BRYANT left. She does not recall anything this man may have said and cannot recall the gist of any conversation she or any other person there may have had with him.

Mrs. BRYANT stated that the other two women present were attractive young women, in their mid-twenties. One of the women was an attractive blonde, who was tall and slender, and had a less theatrical appearance than the other two women. The other woman was a brunette, slightly taller than average, who had superficial hair and wore heavy make-up, and had a decided theatrical appearance. These women danced with two young men present and appeared to be rather friendly with them. The third man present, according to Mrs. BRYANT, was a man about fifty-five years of age, who had white hair and who conversed most of the time with TORTORIELLO.

Mrs. BRYANT advised that neither Mr. nor Mrs. JOE FEDERICI was present at the above-described party and she does not know whether they are acquainted with RUBY. She added that she does know they are acquainted with TORTORIELLO, but does not know the extent of their relationship with him. She added that "JADA," an exotic dancer who formerly worked for RUBY, was not present at the party, although she was known to Mrs. BRYANT and was allegedly a girlfriend of TORTORIELLO.

Mrs. BRYANT informed that since the above-described party she has not seen the individual resembling RUBY mentioned above, and is not certain in her own mind that this individual was actually RUBY. She stated she has never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of OSWALD on the party of RUBY.

CLARENCE NEWSOM, Care Of Segals Liquors, Akard and Commerce Streets, advised as follows:

He is known as "BUCK" NEWSOM and has known JACK RUBY approximately four years. His dealings with RUBY have been on a strictly business basis, as RUBY buys merchandise for his club at the store. In recent months, RUBY has had an open account of around $200 and NEWSOM has made continued efforts to collect on this account. He said RUBY would exhibit a large roll of bills when asked for payment and would manage to find $10 for partial payment on his account. RUBY has a current open account just in excess of $80 at Segals Liquors and RUBY had mentioned to NEWSOM on one occasion when he was attempting to make a collection that Segals was not alone in their financial problems with him as he owed others, including the Dallas newspapers. NEWSOM did not know the extent of RUBY's financial obligations, but considered him poor credit.

It was NEWSOM's belief that RUBY was possibly homosexual as he had heard numerous comments "on the block" to this effect and he recalled one situation where one of the several young men, whom RUBY on occasion would have living with him, was in the liquor store, and the following episode took place: The young boy had indicated to RUBY he was having a date with a girl and RUBY beat him badly and tore his shirt from his back. NEWSOM had no direct knowledge regarding the homosexual tendencies of RUBY and since he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, knew of no association whatever between RUBY and OSWALD.

NEWSOM said GENE BARNETT and "CATFISH" HANSEN are police officers who work the Akard and Commerce intersection.

NITSCHE met RUBY during the early 1950's through CECIL and JEAN HAMLIN, who were associated with RUBY at the Silver Spur Club, in Dallas, Texas. During the period from 1950 to November 24, 1963, NITSCHE visited RUBY frequently at the Silver Spur, Vegas and Carousel Clubs. Mr. WALLACE R. RASH, also known as WALLY RASH, WILLIE RASH, who has been previously interviewed furnished the following information:

Mr. RASH informed that he is the operator of Truth Verification, Inc., 2818 Maple Avenue. He stated he was formerly a police officer with the Dallas Police Department and in that capacity he first began to know JACK RUBY and his sister, EVA GRANT.

Mr. RASH advised that at about 10:45 AM on January 6, 1964, he received a telephone call from RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT, who indicated that RUBY had requested her to give Mr. RASH a "ring" for him and to request Mr. RASH to "drop" RUBY a postcard or letter, presumably to help boost RUBY's morale. Mr. RASH stated that he may send RUBY a postcard in view of this request and in view of his long-standing acquaintance and friendship with RUBY. He added that if he does send RUBY a card or other communication, it will be for no other purpose. He stated that he does not know whether RUBY may have had an ulterior motive in having his sister call him such as possible assistance but he added that he will not contemplate doing anything for or concerning RUBY without first getting in touch with FBI or checking with RUBY's attorneys, concerning the nature of any possible future request which may be made by RUBY.

Mr. RASH stated that during his conversation with Mrs. GRANT, Mrs. GRANT mentioned that she has no idea why RUBY killed OSWALD but indicated that it was due to the fact that RUBY was so upset over the assassination of President KENNEDY. She stated on two or three occasions that she did not realize on November 22, 1963, following the assassination, that RUBY was "so sick over the President being killed". She added that she was very fond of President KENNEDY herself and stated, referring to RUBY, "it just killed him. I tell you part of him died that day. He just never got over it." Mrs. GRANT also mentioned during this conversation that her family put up most of the money in connection with the operation of RUBY's Carousel Club and that RUBY must not have put up over $1,000.00 himself. added "RALPH PAUL must have put in a fortune, but he ain't telling". She continued by saying that business was poor at the Carousel Club before the assassination and presently is worse. RASH stated that at one point during the conversation, Mrs. GRANT stated that their father died at 88 years of age and "we didn't take it so hard. JACK for sure didn't", referring to the assassination of the President. She also mentioned that JACK is receiving money from time to time through the mails and that her family did not have "that kind of money" to pay for expensive lawyers. She also stated that RUBY was receiving quite a bit of correspondence and "gets some lousy cards sometimes". RASH advised that Mrs. GRANT ended her conversation by again requesting that RASH drop a postcard or letter to RUBY to let him know she called.

ROBERT W. RICHARDS, 4508 Cedar Springs, Apartment 102, Telephone Number LA 6-6097, advised as follows:

He had known JACK RUBY on a limited social basis for approximately six years. He had been a member of the Sovereign Club, several years ago, which club he knew RUBY had operated. He had seen RUBY on several occasions at the club and on two or three occasions RUBY had attended parties at his residence. He explained RUBY would show up, uninvited, as did many people in show business who would come to the party when they heard there was one.

He had never discussed anything but general topics with RUBY and then only on a limited basis, and it was his opinion RUBY was a normal-type person who was interested in everyday activities involving people.

He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and, therefore, knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

Mrs. TRAVIS M. RICHARDSON, 11425 Park Central, telephone number EM 1-1267, advised as follows:

Her husband had visited the Vegas Club, operated by JACK RUBY, on one occasion and he had mentioned this to her following the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD because of the coincidence. She and her husband had discussed the fact that he had met RUBY and it had been interesting to bring this point to the attention of some of their friends as it served as conversation material. Her husband is currently out of town on an extended business trip and she is reasonably certain he was only in the above club on one occasion and met JACK RUBY only on that one occasion. She explained that the name FRANCIS M. RICHARDSON has been erroneously placed on some of their credit cards and also in the City Directory for Dallas, merely through an error and that without a doubt, if the name FRANCIS M. RICHARDSON had been listed as a member of one of JACK RUBY's clubs, it would refer to them as she was certain RUBY had obtained their name at the time Mr. RICHARDSON indicated he wanted to join the club. Neither she nor her husband had any further knowledge of JACK RUBY and since neither knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD she felt there was no association between RUBY and OSWALD as far as she knew.

ANTHONY GEORGE RIZZO (reported to be an associate of RUBY), 934 Magellan Circle, furnished the following information:

RIZZO is an entertainer who works as a master of ceremonies and as a vocalist in local Dallas night clubs. He has known JACK RUBY for about two years and on numerous occasions RIZZO has stopped at the Carousel Club for the last show and to drink coffee and talk to JACK RUBY. RIZZO last saw RUBY on the night of November 20, 1963, and on this occasion RUBY asked RIZZO to go to work for him. Since RIZZO was already employed he refused RUBY's offer.

RIZZO considers RUBY to be a loyal American and knows of no subversive activities on the part of RUBY. RIZZO could not offer an explanation for RUBY's having shot OSWALD but did not believe that this act grew out of any strong patriotic belief. RIZZO has never seen RUBY with a gun and never knew him to carry a gun.

RIZZO does not know of and had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the time he shot President KENNEDY. RIZZO knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD. According to RIZZO, RUBY was acquainted with numerous police officers from the Dallas Police Department but he knows of no police officer with whom RUBY was especially close.

CHRIS THOMAS SEMOS, 1630 Cedar Hill, Dallas, Texas, owner Semos Restaurant, 605 Fort Worth Avenue, Dallas, furnished the following information:

He met JACK RUBY during the early part of 1950 through RALPH PAUL who with JOE BONDS operated the Sky Club, a night club which is adjacent to his restaurant. SEMOS said he thought RUBY was "crazy as hell", and he "ran" him out of his restaurant on numerous occasions. He said RUBY was loud, vulgar, crude and uncouth and that he exhibited all of these traits in his restaurant. He said RUBY would come in the restaurant, place his feet all over the upholstery and would act in a generally disgusting manner.

He said when he first met RUBY, he, RUBY, was operating a hillbilly club, name not recalled, and would dress in gawdy western style clothing. He said while RUBY was running this club, PAUL loaned him $15,000 to $17,000 when RUBY had trouble with the Internal Revenue Service. He said he does not know that this money was ever repaid but recalls one instance when PAUL mentioned the money to RUBY and RUBY pulled out a $10 bill and gave it to PAUL. He said PAUL spit on the money and threw it in RUBY's face.

SEMOS said he was never in RUBY's company socially and has visited his clubs, specifically the Sovereign Club, on only one occasion. He said he has heard many things about RUBY; i.e., he was bi-sexual, and was difficult to get along with, having numerous fights with his patrons and employees. He said he has no first-hand knowledge of any of RUBY's activities.

SEMOS said he heard a JIMMY DUNN, an insurance executive from either Lexington or Louisville, Kentucky, put up the money for RUBY to open the Sovereign Club. He said he understands a JOE SLATIN "fronted" for the club. He said DUNN's wife formerly worked at the Colony Club and they, Mr. and Mrs. DUNN, subsequently operated the bar on Commerce Street where the Sip-and-Nip Club is now located.

SEMOS said he and PAUL were partners in the operation of the Miramar Club from 1954 to 1956. He said they had a dispute, over PAUL's treatment of patrons, and he subsequently bought PAUL out. He said he thereafter did not speak to PAUL until approximately August, 1962, and has only seen him on rare occasions since that time.

He said PAUL was a highly volatile type person, of the same temperament as RUBY. He said PAUL was extremely generous on occasions and would "give you the shirt off his back if he liked you".

SEMOS said LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to him. He said he does not recall seeing OSWALD at RUBY's club, or in his company. He said he does not recall seeing him at the Sky Club or Miramar Club or in the company of PAUL or BONDS.

He said he has no information that RUBY or PAUL were affiliated with any subversive organizations.

LEO UKIE SHERIN, 525 North Crescent Heights, Los Angeles, telephone 651-1426, was interviewed at the Mauna Loa Motel, 80-880 Highway 111, Indio, California.

SHERIN said he met JACK RUBY during August, 1958 when RUBY came into the "University Club", Dallas, Texas, where SHERIN was playing piano. RUBY introduced himself to SHERIN and mentioned they had mutual friends, names not recalled by SHERIN. SHERIN saw RUBY occasionally thereafter at the "University Club" and also at RUBY's nightclub, "The Carousel." RUBY on occasions attempted to hire SHERIN to work for RUBY at "The Carousel", but SHERIN refused this employment because he did not want to play in a burlesque house.

SHERIN did not know RUBY's background and did not believe RUBY had any hoodlum connections. RUBY never discussed Communism, or ever mentioned "The Fair Play for Cuba Committee." He never expressed any radical or extremist views to SHERIN. SHERIN described RUBY as a lonely, overly dramatic person, who wanted to be liked by everyone. RUBY was constantly paying for dinner checks and giving people presents in order to have people like him. He was always inviting members of the Dallas Police Department to see the show at "The Carousel" and gave them coffee and sandwiches. On occasion a Dallas police officer would buy a drink and send it to one of the female performers at the burlesque house. RUBY would advise the officer not to waste his money on that girl as she had a boy friend and would then point to, or name, another girl and advise the officer "She will play." SHERIN could not recall the names of any police officers who frequented RUBY's club and did not know whether any officer ever "followed through" with girls suggested by RUBY.

RUBY never exhibited any great interest in politics, but had made statements to SHERIN that former President KENNEDY was a great man. SHERIN felt RUBY was over-sensitive, explaining that if one of the entertainers of the club was a couple of minutes late, he would go into a tirade.

SHERIN met RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT, who ran the "Las Vegas Club" in Dallas for RUBY, but SHERIN did not know her well, or become acquainted with her friends or associates. SHERIN said he feels that if RUBY determines where SHERIN resides he will try to call SHERIN as a character witness. SHERIN feels RUBY is a nice person and he would consider being a character witness for RUBY if he could first talk to RUBY. He feels RUBY would tell him why he killed OSWALD.

RUBY did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, or have any association with OSWALD, to the best of SHERIN's knowledge. The only close associate of RUBY known to SHERIN was RUBY's roommate, GEORGE SENATOR. SHERIN departed Dallas about one week prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. He recalled that about one week prior to his departure he observed the owner of the "Largo Club", a Los Angeles, California club, in Dallas visiting with RUBY. SHERIN did not recall the name of the owner of the "Largo Club."

Mr. EUGENE E. SMITH, 1524a Jefico Boulevard, Arnold, Missouri, was interviewed at his home and furnished the following information:

SMITH stated that at one time he had been on the Radio Patrol Squad of the Dallas, Texas Police Department and on several occasions had picked up persons at JACK RUBY's Silver Spur Night Club in Dallas. He stated that this was a fairly common thing as he believed RUBY employed his own special policemen who would make arrests of persons causing disturbances in the night club and subsequently notify the Dallas police for pickup. SMITH stated that he met RUBY in late 1951 or early 1952 and saw him off and on until 1957 when he, SMITH, left the Dallas Police Department. He stated that he was known only to RUBY as a visitor and customer and as a police officer but never outside of the club in any social capacity whatsoever. He stated that RUBY was well known to run his club with a firm hand and he described RUBY as a likeable person but one whom he felt was "queer as a three dollar bill". He stated that he meant by this that RUBY acted in what seemed to him to be a rather effeminate manner but not as a homosexual. He stated that it was just RUBY's general mannerisms that made him appear to be this way.

SMITH said that he could not recall the people that RUBY was known to associate with as in almost all cases the persons SMITH saw him with were merely customers of his night club. He stated that RUBY had introduced him to his wife, the former REVA YOUNG, one evening when SMITH wanted to dance with her. A year later on their first anniversary, RUBY presented them with a bottle of champagne as a present.

SMITH also stated that he never knew of RUBY to associate with any extremist or persons of questionable characters. He stated that he could not recall ever hearing RUBY mention the name OSWALD but he pointed out that of course this was [illegible] years ago and OSWALD would have been only a teenager at that time.

SMITH acknowledged knowing that his wife REVA had sent JACK RUBY a Christmas card just prior to Christmas, 1963, but had cautioned her against sending it in view of the current investigation to do with RUBY and OSWALD.

At this time, Mr. SMITH produced a letter postmarked December 31, 1963, Dallas, Texas, and addressed to The Smith family, 1524a Jeffco Boulevard, Arnold, Missouri. He stated that this letter was from JACK RUBY and that his wife had received it in the afternoon mail of January 2, 1964. He stated that the letter arrived just after his wife was interviewed by St. Louis agents of the FBI. He stated that the FBI was welcome to make a transcript of the letter but that he and his wife would like to keep the letter in their possession unless advised to the contrary. He did state, in addition, that should the FBI require the letter itself he would readily turn it over to St. Louis agents.

The contents of this letter are as follows:

"County Jail

"Dear Smitty & wife:

"Thank for you so much for your prayers and kind thoughts. May God bless you both and yours for a wonderful 1964 of health and happiness.

"I always wondered what had happened to both of you.

"Your Christmas card was one of the nicest I've received, and I shall always treasure it close to my heart, your expressions and feelings for me still have given me quite a lift in spirit and faith.

Detective ROY E. STANDIFER, Burglary and Theft Division, Dallas Police Department, residence 550 Wild Rose, Dallas, interviewed on the basis of information received that a Lieutenant ROY of the Burglary and Theft Division, Dallas Police Department, frequented the Carousel Club, furnished the following information:

STANDIFER has worked in the Burglary and Theft Division, Dallas Police Department, for the past eleven years. He is ranked as detective; however, some persons consider all detectives as lieutenants and occasionally refer to them as lieutenants. STANDIFER is the only officer in the Burglary and Theft Division with the name ROY, and he is known as ROY rather than referred to as STANDIFER.

STANDIFER has known JACK RUBY for approximately thirteen years. He first met RUBY at the Silver Spur Club on South Ervay Street, Dallas, while at this club on official business in connection with a complaint received. He knew RUBY as a club operator in Dallas and when RUBY was operating the Vegas Club on Oak Lawn Avenue. He also went to the Vegas Club in connection with a complaint. STANDIFER has never been to the Carousel Club. He has met and talked with RUBY on several occasions during the past thirteen years when RUBY would come to the police building or when he would run into him on the street.

He has had no close association with RUBY at any time and has never visited with him socially. RUBY frequently came to the police building, was widely known among police officers and liked to refer to the officers by first name as though they were close friends of his. He has known RUBY to inquire of an officer concerning the name of an officer with whom he was not acquainted and thereafter RUBY would greet this officer by first name as though well acquainted with him.

About thirty days prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY, RUBY called the Burglary and Theft Division and talked to STANDIFER concerning installation of a safe at the Carousel Club. He wanted someone from this division to come to the club and assist him in spotting the safe in the proper location.

JACK G. TIGER, also known as J. L. TIGER, Southland Hotel, Dallas, whose name was contained in a list of names taken from RUBY's effects following his arrest on November 24, 1963, furnished the following information:

TIGER stated that he is self-employed as motion picture and stage show producer and can always be reached through the above address or through Dallas telephone EMerson 8-5678.

TIGER advised that in connection with his occupation he has known RUBY for a number of years, exact length of time not recalled, having met him at Dallas, Texas, when RUBY was operating the Silver Spur. He stated that since that time he has periodically come in contact with RUBY whenever he returned to Dallas and would normally see RUBY at one of his clubs. He added that he has not been out with RUBY socially and that his acquaintance with RUBY is limited to a business relationship and as a customer (non-paying) at RUBY's clubs at Dallas.

TIGER stated that he last saw RUBY at Dallas about five months ago at the Carousel Club, at which time he attempted to interest RUBY in putting up some money to back a picture which TIGER was contemplating producing. RUBY declined to do so, explaining that he was short of money at the time and that due to his difficulties with the Internal Revenue, he was obligated first to that branch of the service.

TIGER stated that he considered RUBY to be a likeable and social individual although high-strung and with a tendency to be quick to lose his temper. He stated that he gained the impression that RUBY was extremely fond of many members of the Police Department and admired President KENNEDY. He further stated that he never discussed politics with RUBY but knew that RUBY did not tolerate any derogatory jokes at his club relative to politics, religion or race.

TIGER stated that he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never received any information indicating a relationship or an acquaintance between OSWALD and RUBY. He added that in his opinion OSWALD could not have gained the friendship and confidence

He explained by saying that he considered RUBY to be an outgoing, "Hail Fellow, Well Met" person whereas he has gained the impression from newspaper articles and information through other news media that OSWALD was self-retiring, anti-social and possibly arrogant.

TIGER added that he has no information concerning the shooting of OSWALD on the part of RUBY and stated that he was quite surprised to learn of this shooting and would have never believed RUBY could have done such a thing. TOOCH is employed as a delivery man for Colombo's Italian Pizza Bakery in Dallas. In connection with this employment, TOOCH met JACK RUBY three or four years ago. During the three or four years TOOCH saw RUBY at the Carousel Club on numerous occasions, but had no association with RUBY other than through making deliveries. On one occasion, RUBY gave TOOCH approximately twenty-five passes to the Carousel Club to hand out to his, TOOCH's, fellow employees and friends. TOOCH handed these passes out to some of the employees at Colombo's Italian Pizza Bakery and the remainder, which would be about twenty, he returned to RUBY. TOOCH could not recall the names of the employees to whom he gave these cards, but knows that many of the employees of the bakery have been interviewed by Agents of the FBI.

TOOCH knows nothing concerning RUBY's personal life or political beliefs. He knows of no connection between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and RUBY and knows of no police officers with whom RUBY is particularly close.

Mr. JOHN B. WILSON, JR., Attorney with offices at Room 820, Fidelity Union Life Building, 1511 Bryan, Dallas, Texas, advised that during approximately September of 1962 he was drinking beer at the Lasso Bar which was located across the street from the Baker Hotel in Dallas, Texas, when, between 7:00 and 7:30 PM, a man attired in a t-shirt entered the bar and asked a barmaid to loan him a dime to make a telephone call. She complied and the man whom he later found to be FRANK FERRARO proceeded to use the telephone which was located on the wall near where Mr. WILSON was sitting. Before the call was completed, another man whom Mr. WILSON later determined to be JACK RUBY entered the bar and proceeded to assault FERRARO. Mr. WILSON emphasized that he did not see brass knucks used by RUBY but that from the amount of blood issuing from wounds incurred by FERRARO during the fight, it was his conclusion that some device such as brass knucks had been used by RUBY. FERRARO bled profusely and Mr. WILSON, fearful that great bodily harm might result should the fight continue, stepped between RUBY and FERRARO and broke up the fight. He is unable to recall any of the conversation or remarks made by either FERRARO or RUBY during the fight and he had no knowledge or information as to the reason for the fight.

After the fight was stopped WILSON accompanied both RUBY and FERRARO outside where he looked for a policeman. Within a short time a squad car arrived. Mr. WILSON did not know whether the car's arrival was in response to a telephone call or whether it had been merely cruising in that area. He was not aware of the identities of the police officers. He noted that they apparently intended to arrest FERRARO and to do nothing to RUBY, whereupon he advised them he had witnessed the assault and since RUBY had been the aggressor they were arresting the wrong man. The officers then asked FERRARO whether or not he desired to press charges against RUBY and on WILSON's advice FERRARO answered in the affirmative. In the meantime, RUBY disappeared.

Mr. WILSON then gave FERRARO $5.00 to pay for taxi fare to Parkland Hospital as it appeared his wounds required medical attention.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mr. WILSON stated his principal impression of the attitude of the police officers was that they were quite willing to arrest FERRARO but were extremely reluctant to do anything about RUBY.

Mr. WILSON stated he had heard of RUBY prior to the above incident and that RUBY had on at least one occasion been pointed out to him but that he had not recognized RUBY until RUBY had given his name.

Mr. WILSON had no subsequent contact with RUBY.

A few days following the above incident, FERRARO appeared at Mr. WILSON's office and repaid the $5.00 loaned him. He asked Mr. WILSON to represent him in a civil suit for damages against RUBY because of the assault but Mr. WILSON advised him it would be contrary to the ethics of the legal profession for him to represent a client in a matter in which he himself would be a material witness. He expressed his willingness to FERRARO at that time to appear as a witness against RUBY if necessary. He described FERRARO's attitude toward suing RUBY as being "wishy washy" as one minute FERRARO would talk about how nice RUBY had been to him and how he would hate to cause him any trouble and next moment he would become quite angry and indicate a desire to institute suit. Several weeks later WILSON received a letter from FERRARO who was at that time in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, asking for the names of attorneys in Dallas who might be employed to institute a civil suit against RUBY based on the assault. WILSON talked of the matter to one associate who indicated no interest in representing FERRARO due to the fact that FERRARO was in Wisconsin which would make ready communication between attorney and client difficult. WILSON wrote FERRARO that he had been unable to interest any Dallas attorneys in instituting the action. WILSON stated he had destroyed the envelope which had contained FERRARO's letter and that he at this time had no way of determining FERRARO's Milwaukee address.

Mr. WILSON stated he had told the above story to a college friend, RONNIE DUGGER, who is currently the editor of a newspaper known as the "Texas Observer".

Apparently DUGGER had told the story to a Milwaukee, Wisconsin reporter because since the shooting of OSWALD Mr. WILSON has received two or three telephone calls from a newspaper reporter in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, whose name he is now unable to recall requesting additional information concerning FERRARO and the assault by RUBY. It appeared from such long-distance telephone calls that the reporter had determined FERRARO had resided at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, for a period of approximately two weeks and that the reporter has been unsuccessful in determining FERRARO's subsequent whereabouts.

Mr. WILSON stated he had previously been interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI concerning the appearance of the name "JOHN WILSON, Bond" among RUBY's papers. He had advised during the previous interview that he could think of no reason why his name should have appeared as he never represented RUBY and his only personal contact with him had been during the assault above mentioned. He stated that the general shock resulting from news of KENNEDY's assassination had also caused him to forget to mention during the previous interview a matter which might or might not be of some importance.

On the evening of November 23, 1963, Mr. WILSON attended a dinner. An individual known to him as SAM B. BALLEN was also in attendance and during the course of the meal indicated that he had been acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD as OSWALD had applied to him for employment. BALLEN stated that OSWALD had not impressed him as the type of person who would do such a terrible thing but that he had become almost convinced at that time that OSWALD had actually assassinated KENNEDY.

Mr. WILSON stated he had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination and that he knew of no connection or association between RUBY and OSWALD. Except for the apparent reticence of the police officers to arrest or otherwise detain RUBY following the assault as previously mentioned, Mr. WILSON had no knowledge or information as to the nature and extent, if any, of RUBY's contacts and association with members of the Dallas Police Department. He was aware of no reason why RUBY shot OSWALD.

G. DUFFIELD SMITH, Manager, Better Business Bureau, 1400 Dallas Federal Savings Building, whose name was furnished by BURNETT MERRELL FRAZIER, JR. as possibly having information in his files concerning JACK RUBY or one of his clubs, furnished the following information:

Mr. SMITH advised that a search of his files failed to reflect information concerning JACK RUBY, EVA GRANT, RALPH PAUL, The Carousel Club, Vegas Club and Silver Spur Club. Mr. SMITH advised that his records contained a file relative to the Sovereign Club, which is now known as the Carousel Club. Mr. SMITH made available his file on the Sovereign Club, Inc., 1312½ Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, which contains the following documents:

1. A letter postmarked Dallas, Texas, February 20, 1960, to the Better Business Bureau from the Sovereign Club, Inc., announcing the opening of the Sovereign Club, termed "newest private membership club" of Dallas.

2. A membership application blank and circular letter dated July 25, 1960, over the signature of JACK RUBY relative to the membership drive for the Sovereign Club. This letter reflects that membership to the club ranged from $50.00 (non-resident membership) to $180.00 (charter membership).

3. Information form of the Better Business Bureau executed and dated August 15, 1960, over the signature of JOHN CHAMBLESS, Vice President, Sovereign Club, Inc. This form reveals the following information concerning the club:

Incorporated December 7, 1959, in the amount of $1,000.00. Officers listed as RALPH PAUL, President; JOHN CHAMBLESS, Vice President and Manager; EARL RUBY, Vice President; JACK RUBY, Secretary-Treasurer.

AT IRVING, TEXAS:

BOBBY DARRELL MARTIN, 3515 Coker Street, whose name was furnished by WILLIAM C. MUELLER, 3534 Flaxey Street, Dallas, Texas, as an individual who had patronized RUBY's clubs, advised as follows:

He is employed as salesman at the Samuel Bingham's Manufacturing Company, Dallas. He stated that he went to the Carousel Club on about two occasions about one year ago but did not see RUBY on either occasion. He stated that prior to this time he had learned of the Sovereign Club, the previous name for the Carousel Club, and he requested through the mails an application blank for this club. He later decided not to join, however, and did not therefore attend the club until it closed its membership and was converted into the Carousel Club.

MARTIN stated that he has never met JACK RUBY and, to his knowledge, has never seen him. He stated that it is possible that several individuals may have erroneously obtained the impression that he knew RUBY inasmuch as he has told a number of his friends since the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY that he, MARTIN, had been to the Carousel Club on several occasions. MARTIN stated that he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY.

GEORGE PETTITT, 211 North Ervay, Telephone Number RI 8-0057, advised as follows:

To the best of his memory, he obtained a guest membership card in the Sovereign Club, Dallas, Texas, around July of 1960, when he first came to Dallas. He was in this club about three times following this, and he recalled the club folded around December, 1960.

He could not recall the person who gave him the guest card, but knew he had never met JACK RUBY, although some people had pointed RUBY out to him. He had never conversed with RUBY other than to say hello at the club, and he had never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Therefore, he knew of no association or contact between RUBY and OSWALD.

Mr. J. B. ROGERS, residence 3628 Southwestern, Vice President of Texas Prospectors, Inc., Room 522, Fidelity Union Life Insurance Building, 1511 Bryan, advised he was unable to account for his name appearing on notes in the possession of JACK RUBY as he had never met RUBY and had never been either a permanent or temporary member of any of RUBY's clubs. He recalled having been in RUBY's Sovereign Club with associates from the First National Bank in Dallas, Texas, on two or three occasions a few years ago and that for a brief period thereafter he had received literature from the Sovereign Club.

He never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of the President and was aware of no connection or association between OSWALD and RUBY. He had no knowledge or information concerning the nature and extent, if any, of RUBY's contact and association with members of the Dallas Police Department and was likewise unaware of the reasons why RUBY shot OSWALD.

Mr. ROGERS stated that his first name is JACK; that he had never been the holder of Post Office Box 10707 and that he was not identical with a person named JOHN ROGERS, allegedly holder of that box number.

HOWELL H. WATSON, Watson & Watson Realtors, Fidelity Union Life Building, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

Watson & Watson Realtors handles certain properties owned by H. H. NICHOLS and CLARICE NICHOLS, individually and as trustees of the estate of L. L. NICHOLS (deceased), formerly Nichols Enterprises. Included in this property is the building located at 1312 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas.

WATSON reviewed his file concerning the property at 1312-1/2 Commerce Street and advised this property was originally leased in December 1959 to one JOE E. SLATIN for a monthly rental of $550.00. A lease agreement dated April 1960 reflects JOE E. SLATIN as lessee.

WATSON said records of his company do not reflect all transactions relative to this piece of property; however, it was his understanding that JOE E. SLATIN originally leased the building with the intention of operating a club; however, SLATIN did not have sufficient funds and in early 1960 JACK RUBY entered into a business arrangement with SLATIN to operate the club, which was then known as the Sovereign Club.

A letter in WATSON's file dated April 20, 1963, is addressed to JACK RUBY, c/o Sovereign Club, Inc. A lease dated June 20, 1960, bears the signature Sovereign Club and JACK RUBY individually. A check of the records relative to property at 1312-1/2 Commerce made November 6, 1962, reflected JACK RUBY and JOE E. SLATIN had executed a lease on December 1, 1959, effective five years from December 1, 1959, to November 30, 1964. As of November 1962 the account was four months delinquent. A letter dated February 14, 1963, to JACK RUBY, Sovereign Club, Inc., reflected he was behind $1,650.00 in rent due.

The Watson record reflected that on March 1, 1963, a new lease was executed in the name of S & R, Inc., and JACK RUBY individually. The Watson file did not reflect the officers of S & R, Inc., and the lease was signed only by JACK RUBY for the corporation and individually. Watson records show that subsequent to March 1963 all rents on the property at 1312-1/2 Commerce Street were paid as due. These payments were made by cashier's check handed personally to ALVA F. MC KNIGHT, Watson salesman, or by mail.

At the time the new lease was executed in March 1963 salesman MC KNIGHT had suggested that the property be rented to another tenant; however, HOUSTON H. NICHOLS, owner of the property, who was personally acquainted with JACK RUBY, instructed that RUBY's lease be renewed.

HOWELL H. WATSON advised that neither he nor his brother, JACK D. WATSON, was personally acquainted with JACK RUBY, or had any knowledge of his associates and activities other than operation of the Sovereign and Carousel Clubs.

HOWELL WATSON has never seen JACK RUBY and his brother, JACK WATSON, had seen him on only one occasion in connection with rental of the property at 1312-1/2 Commerce. WATSON did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

WATSON advised he had no knowledge of persons connected with the S & R, Inc., other than JACK RUBY and that his company had had no dealings with anyone other than JACK RUBY.

WATSON advised that payment of rents by cashier's check was not the usual method of payment; however, he recalled that in early 1960 a check of JACK RUBY's in payment of rent had been returned by the bank and at that time it is possible the owner had requested him to make subsequent payments by cashier's check. He knew of no other reason why the rent would be paid by cashier's check rather than personal check or in cash.

RICHARD BERNET (former employee of JACK RUBY), 3737 McMillan Street, furnished the following information:

During a two-year period from 1953 to 1955, BERNET worked for RUBY as a musician at the Silver Spur Club in Dallas, Texas. For one month during the early part of 1961, he played in an orchestra for RUBY at the Carousel Club in Dallas. BERNET never became well acquainted with RUBY on a personal basis and knew him only in connection with playing in the band that worked for RUBY.

BERNET knows nothing concerning RUBY's personal life or his political beliefs and knows of no association between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY.

While playing at the Carousel Club in 1961, BERNET observed many officers of the Dallas Police Department on the premises during that period, but knows of no specific officer with whom RUBY was particularly close.

JERRY ANTHONY BOLAND, also known as TONY, 2515 Hillburn Drive, Apartment C, whose name appeared in a list of JACK RUBY indicating former employment at one of RUBY's clubs, furnished the following information:

BOLAND stated that he has known RUBY since 1961, at which time he met him due to beginning employment with RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT, about October 1961 at the Vegas Club where he worked as bouncer and emcee and assisted Mrs. GRANT generally in running the club. It was his understanding that RUBY and his sister both owned the club, but it was in Mrs. GRANT's name. At the same time, RUBY owned the Carousel Club, which was a union club, and he understood that RUBY could not register a non-union club such as the Vegas Club in his name. He regularly saw RUBY at the Vegas Club on Friday nights and since that time he has maintained a regular and continous acquaintance, both business and social, with RUBY. His employment at the Vegas Club on this occasion lasted until about April 1962.

In about November 1961 he began working for RUBY, in addition to his employment at the Vegas Club, at RUBY's Carousel Club as bouncer, doorman and overseeing the waitresses. This employment lasted until February 1962. During the fall of 1962 he resumed his employment at the Vegas Club and continued there until January 1963. About August 1963 he resumed his employment by RUBY at the Carousel Club and continued as such until about September 1963.

BOLAND stated that during the latter part of 1961 and January 1962, he stayed with RUBY at the Carousel Club, that is, he was furnished a rollaway bed by RUBY in the hall of this club and, at the same time, RUBY was residing in the back part of the club in a separate room. BOLAND stated that he had numerous occasions to converse with RUBY and feels that he became fairly well acquainted with RUBY's character, personality and disposition. He stated that he considers RUBY to be a friendly, helpful person in the event he likes someone, but he is also impetuous, high-strung and quick-tempered. BOLAND added that RUBY was also quick to return to normal and forget his differences with anyone with whom he became angry.

BOLAND stated that he did not know RUBY to carry a pistol regularly although RUBY did always carry his pistol when he brought cash to the club for the evening's operation but after arriving at the club he would usually lock up the gun. Whenever RUBY traveled in his car he would usually put his pistol in the trunk of the car.

BOLAND stated that he rarely discussed politics with RUBY but gained the definite impression that RUBY was more interested in the character and ability of the man running for office than the party itself.

BOLAND stated that RUBY was friendly with and knew many police officers and newsmen and felt a real friendship for them generally. RUBY was the type of person, according to BOLAND, who liked to "keep his nose clean", and although he may have known people in the various rackets, he is sure that RUBY did not work with or conspire with any such individuals. He does not recall RUBY mentioning Officer TIPPIT's name and does not know to what extent RUBY was acquainted with this individual.

BOLAND stated he last saw RUBY in August 1963 and has no information concerning the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY or as to how RUBY entered the basement of the Police Department prior to the shooting. He added that he himself never knew OSWALD and never had reason to believe that RUBY knew or associated with OSWALD at any time. He added that he feels personally quite sure that RUBY did not know OSWALD, explaining that had RUBY known OSWALD, BOLAND would have become aware of same at one time or another.

BOLAND stated that he recalls that on one occasion a year or so ago RUBY carried his pistol on his person for one week inasmuch as he had heard that someone who had just been released from prison was "looking for him". BOLAND stated he does not know the identity of this individual and has no additional information about the incident.

Miss JUDY BROWN, 1023 East Colfax Avenue, Denver, advised that she is presently employed as an exotic dancer at Sid Kings Crazy Horse Bar, 1211 East Colfax Avenue. Miss BROWN stated that she formerly resided at 1221 Carza in Dallas, Texas and was employed at the Carousel Lounge in Dallas for approximately one and a half months. Miss BROWN advised that in mid March, 1963, she saw an ad in a local newspaper which indicated that dancers were wanted at the Carousel Lounge in Dallas. She said she applied for this position and was interviewed by JACK RUBY for the job. She said that prior to this date she did not know JACK RUBY and that he employed her on a trial basis in March of 1963. She said that at the time she applied for this work she had no money and that she borrowed $55 from RUBY giving him a check in this amount drawn on her bank in Dallas.

Miss BROWN advised that she asked RUBY to hold this check and that she made an arrangement with him whereby he deducted payments from her salary until the $55 was repaid. She said that she obtained $100 a week for this employment and that she terminated her employment with RUBY in May, 1963.

Miss BROWN advised that during the month and a half that she was employed at the Carousel Lounge she saw JACK RUBY on a daily basis. She stated that RUBY is highly emotional, very impulsive and has a quick temper. Miss BROWN advised that during the time she knew JACK RUBY she never saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the Carousel Lounge or elsewhere and never heard RUBY mention OSWALD's name at any time. Miss BROWN stated that RUBY spent practically all of his time at the Carousel Lounge and that he has very few friends. She advised that she had no information which would indicate that RUBY and OSWALD were acquainted and that she had no knowledge of RUBY being connected in any way with the assassination of President KENNEDY.

CALHOUN is a musician by trade. During 1950 - 1954, CALHOUN had a combo which worked for JACK RUBY during this four-year period. In about 1954, CALHOUN had an argument with RUBY, at which time RUBY struck him in the mouth, which required medical treatment and sixteen stitches. After this fight with RUBY, CALHOUN quit working for RUBY and has had nothing to do with him since that time.

CALHOUN could furnish no reason for RUBY shooting LEE HARVEY OSWALD, with the exception of the fact that he has a violent temper. When RUBY loses his temper, he has no control over himself.

CALHOUN knows of no connection between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY and knows of no police officers with whom RUBY was particularly close.

WILLIS D. DICKERSON, also known as "DUB" DICKERSON, 2442 Hawthorne Street, Dallas, whose name was furnished by JACK J. ROWE as having possibly worked for RUBY in the past and at one time had a fight with RUBY, furnished the following information:

DICKERSON advised that he is presently unemployed but is a musician by trade and plays the guitar. He first met RUBY in about 1950 or 1951 when he played his guitar in a small combo for RUBY for a period of about three months. Since DICKERSON during that period had been changing from one combo to another, he does not recall the particular combo or the members of the combo in which he played for RUBY.

DICKERSON related that several months after he quit working at RUBY's club, he dropped into the club at about 12:30 or 1:00 AM sometime in about 1951 in order to be with RUBY's musicians during the after-hour period. There were still some customers in the place and DICKERSON pulled up a chair to a table of four people whom he recognized and sat down. He partially blocked the aisle and RUBY walked by and kicked DICKERSON's chair and stated, "DUB, you know you can't block the aisle like that".

DICKERSON said he replied to RUBY that "RUBY could go to hell" and if that was the way RUBY felt about it DICKERSON said he would not return to his club any more. DICKERSON walked outside and RUBY followed him, making some derogatory remark which DICKERSON does not recall. DICKERSON repeated to RUBY that he could "go to hell" and that DICKERSON did not plan to return any more. RUBY became extremely angry and struck DICKERSON in the face with his fist, knocking him down. When DICKERSON got to his feet, RUBY pushed him against a wall and while holding him to the wall, with one hand in DICKERSON's face, RUBY began striking DICKERSON in the groin with his knee.

DICKERSON stated that during this activity one of RUBY's fingers entered DICKERSON's mouth and DICKERSON, partly gritting from the blow and partly in self-defense, bit down hard on RUBY's finger and partially severed it at the first joint. He learned later that RUBY had to have the tip of this finger amputated. DICKERSON stated he saw RUBY only a few times following this incident and RUBY later told him he was not angry with him for the incident. No charges were filed by either party as a result of this fight.

JOHN EDWARD FLORER, 702 Kinney Avenue, Austin, Texas, University of Texas student, was employed approximately one month at the Vegas Club, Dallas, Texas, June 15, 1962, to July 15, 1962, by EVE GRANT, sister of JACK RUBY, in the capacity of greeter, morning clean up man, after he met RUBY at the YMCA in Dallas, Texas, immediately prior to June 15, 1962.

RUBY either owned or was interested in the Vegas Club, and after 3 a.m., on weekends RUBY frequented the Vegas Club with friends, then to Cotton Bowl on Lemon Avenue, Dallas, Texas, for an early breakfast.

FLORER recalls RUBY's brother, name unknown, worked for EVE GRANT, and was discharged after he reported late for work. This brother had washaterias in Dallas, Texas.

RUBY and GRANT were very concerned over money matters, and not wealthy. GRANT complained about RUBY owing income tax and no W-2 forms were furnished FLORER in connection with the above employment.

FLORER cannot recall LEE HARVEY OSWALD by name, nor identify photograph of OSWALD as anyone known to him. FLORER has no knowledge of RUBY's association with OSWALD.

FLORER considers RUBY an extrovert, intelligent, quick tempered, a fighter with a missing index finger which claimed was bit off in a fight.

FLORER has no knowledge of RUBY and OSWALD ever associating.

Mr. WILLIAM BOONE GOODE, Vice President, Diversa, Inc., 13th Floor, Exchange Bank Building, Exchange Park, residence 6754 Ridgeview Circle, advised that he had been the managing partner of an accounting firm known as W. B. Goode & Company, Room 1220, Mercantile Securities Building, Dallas, Texas, from 1956 until the firm merged with Alexander Grant & Company in Dallas in August of 1959. The W. B. Goode & Company was preceded by the W. O. Liggem Company and inherited JACK RUBY as a client from that company.

Mr. GOODE stated RUBY's account had always been a very small one and, to the best of his recollection, had consisted merely of assembling facts and figures furnished by RUBY to allow the execution of RUBY's income tax returns since the information upon which such returns were based was furnished exclusively by RUBY, with the firm having no way of knowing the truth or falsity of any item. Such returns were not certified by the firm.

Information furnished by RUBY for the firm's assistance in preparing the tax returns was invariably returned to him after the returns were prepared.

Mr. GOODE had not personally handled the RUBY account and was unable to recall at this time the identities of employees of the firm who had handled the RUBY account. He had seen Mr. RUBY on only one occasion during a visit made by RUBY to the firm. The principal thing he recalled concerning the RUBY account was that the firm had difficulty in collecting the fees charged for its services. To the best of his recollection, the firm prepared income tax returns for RUBY for the years 1956 to 1958, inclusive.

That portion of the firm's records which were not transferred to Alexander Grant & Company on the merger is in the possession of Mr. GOODE but in dead storage at this time. He stated that they would in no event contain any information in addition to the dates and amounts charged RUBY for the firm's services and the dates of payment.

Mr. GOODE has no knowledge or information at this time regarding the ownership of either the Vegas or the Carousel Club.

GOODE likewise has no information as to RUBY's expenses or donations of any amounts to the Dallas Police Department.

Mr. GOODE had only one contact with RUBY as above noted and never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination. He was not aware of any connection or association between RUBY and OSWALD and had no knowledge regarding the nature and extent of RUBY's contacts with members of the Dallas Police Department. He had no information as to the reasons why RUBY shot OSWALD.

Mr. JERRY HARMON, pianist, Kings Club, Adolphus Hotel, temporary residence 3609 Asbury, advised during mid-1960, he, with one GLORIA CHRISTIAN, executed a contract to perform at JACK RUBY's Sovereign Club. The contract was for approximately five or six weeks. His contacts with RUBY were purely as an employee only and were infrequent during this period. It was his understanding that RUBY was somewhat difficult to work for, but he never had any difficulty with him. He had no association with RUBY outside of business hours. The Sovereign Club at that time was a private club. Mr. HARMON never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the Presidential assassination and had no knowledge or information concerning any association or relationship between OSWALD and RUBY. He was not aware of the identities of any police officers who were particularly friendly with RUBY and had no knowledge or information as to the reasons why RUBY shot OSWALD. He has had little or no association with RUBY subsequent to the termination of the contract above mentioned.

Mr. HARMON indicated he was returning to his permanent residence in Los Angeles, California, on January 12, 1964.

MRS. CHARLES R. ISAACS, 324 El Camino Real, advised that about three years ago when she was working as a costume seamstress in the Dallas, Texas area she was requested by one BRECK WALL and one JOE PETERSON to design and make a group of costumes for a night club act which was being held at the club owned by JACK RUBY. She stated that she was paid for her work by a check signed by JACK RUBY but drawn on a bank in which he had no account.

She advised that she and her husband then confronted him with the bogus check and demanded cash for her work which RUBY paid.

She stated she does not know RUBY well, knows none of his friends or associates and could not comment on his character at all. She suggested that BRECK WALL and JOE PETERSON might have been closely associated with RUBY. She advised that they could probably be found through JOE REICHMAN, an orchestra leader at the Century Room of the Adolphus Hotel, Dallas, Texas.

CHARLES P. ISAACS, Passenger Sales Representative, American Airlines, advised that he had one occasion to meet JACK RUBY about three years ago when his wife contracted to do some costume seamstress work for individuals in a show at RUBY's club in Dallas, Texas. He advised that she did this one job and was paid by check signed by RUBY and drawn on a bank in which RUBY had no account. ISAACS advised that upon receipt of this bogus check, this occasioned his first and only meeting with RUBY. He advised that he took the check and his wife and confronted RUBY and demanded cash which RUBY then paid to them.

He stated that he knows no other people who know RUBY and could offer nothing further concerning the man.

Mrs. FRANK (WANDA JEANETTE) KELSEY, 604 Bridge Street, Weatherford, Texas, employed at Montgomery Ward's, Fort Worth, Texas, whose name appeared as a former employee of JACK RUBY, furnished the following information:

She was employed as a clerk at the Sovereign Club, Dallas, Texas, for approximately three weeks during the summer of 1960. She said she worked under RUBY's supervision, however recalls her checks were signed by another individual, whose name she does not now recall.

Mrs. KELSEY advised RUBY was a moody individual and it is her opinion that he considered himself to be "superior" to others. She said due to the short period of time she was employed at the Sovereign Club, she could furnish no additional information concerning RUBY.

Mrs. KELSEY advised LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to her and she does not ever recall having seen him or having heard his name mentioned prior to seeing him on television after the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mrs. LEONA KIRILENKO, 3908 Camino del Valle, SW, was reinterviewed and she re-affirmed information previously furnished by her on December 2, 1963, with regard to the homosexual allegations of JACK RUBY.

She stated that in about 1957 she had an engagement of two weeks at a strip tease joint in Houston, Texas, which was directly across the street from a homosexual hangout named the Carousel. She described the Carousel in Houston as a completely "faggott" joint catering to extremely obvious and wild homosexuals. She explained the term faggott by describing them as extremely obvious and wild homosexuals. She went directly to the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas, operated by JACK RUBY and upon her arrival, she was impressed with the fact that it was being run by JACK RUBY, whom she described as a "queen." She said a "queen" or "auntie" is a homosexual past thirty years of age.

She said that it was obvious to her from the first that RUBY hated women and he frequently came to the dressing room where the performers were dressing and berated the female performers in what she described as filthy four letter words.

She stated that RUBY had a "girl friend" who was a male individual whom she described as white male, 22 years, dark brown curly hair and "very pretty." She could not recall the name of this male individual, but stated his homosexual name was CARMEN. CARMEN associated closely with RUBY and she added that CARMEN painted his eye brows and darkened his eye lashes. She said that RUBY would become particularly mean towards the female performers when he had a "tiff" or argument with CARMEN.

KIRILENKO advised that she knew of no actual homosexual actions which may have taken place between RUBY and CARMEN and she never observed them in any other place than the Carousel Club or on the street. She stated that RUBY particularly made affectionate gestures towards CARMEN when he lighted CARMEN's cigarette, picked up a drink tab or gave him a drink. She said it was common talk among the performers at the club that RUBY was homosexual and was having an "affair" with CARMEN. She said she could not furnish exact dates and times concerning this activity stating that she had only a two week performance at the Carousel in Dallas, probably sometime in 1957, where she was a strip teaser. She has not observed RUBY since that time until he appeared on television recently.

The only other performer that she could recall who was there at the time and with whom she discussed RUBY's homosexual actions is a performer named BRONYA (phonetic). She could not recall BRONYA's last name, but she thought it was similar to WARBURN, WARBRUN or WERBEN. She said that BRONYA did a half and half act at the Carousel Club when she wore men's attire in the form of a tuxedo on one side of her body, while the other side of her body was attired by a formal dress. She recalled that BRONYA had a boyfriend named "BULLY" who was a former hoodlum, who may have been from the Kansas City, Missouri area; however, she was not sure of the location. She knew of no way in which BRONYA could be identified or located at the present time.

Regarding CARMEN, she stated that CARMEN was a "faggott" who exhibited extremely effeminate characteristics when not in RUBY's presence; however, CARMEN curbed these tendencies when in RUBY's presence. She also advised that RUBY used cologne heavily.

During the interview, KIRILENKO referred to RUBY several times as RUBY K. When questioned concerning this term, she said that she and other personnel at the Carousel Club referred to RUBY, when not in his presence, as RUBYKINS or RUBY BABY. She said the term of endearment RUBY K probably evolved from the term RUBYKINS; however, she cannot recall now specifically. She said that RUBY threw champagne parties at the club after closing hours, which CARMEN would attend; however, Mrs. KIRILENKO was never invited and could furnish no specific information regarding these parties.

Several times during the interview, Mrs. KIRILENKO affirmed the fact that she was furnishing above information concerning JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club, noting that she definitely recognized him when she observed him on television. She could recall the names of no associates or employees other than BRONYA and CARMEN set forth above.

January 6, 1964

Mrs. LEONA KIRILENKO, 3908 Camino del Valle SW, was reinterviewed concerning the homosexual allegations she previously made concerning JACK RUBY on December 2, 1963, and December 23, 1963. It was pointed out to her that RUBY did not operate the Carousel Club in Dallas until approximately sometime in January, 1960, and apparently did not venture into the operation of a strip tease club until approximately that date. Photographs of RUBY were displayed to her, and after carefully viewing them she said she is in error concerning the homosexual allegations previously made by her against RUBY. She said she is of the opinion now that she does not know JACK RUBY and was confusing him with someone who is very similar in appearance. Mrs. KIRILENKO was questioned concerning the identity of this individual whom she is confusing with RUBY, and she stated she cannot now recall. She said she has performed as a strip teaser in so many different clubs for short two-week contracts over a period of years that her recollections concerning specific individuals are now vague.

She stated to her recollection she has never performed in the Vegas Club or the Silver Spur Club in Dallas. She reiterated the fact that she does not know JACK RUBY and she was in error in stating that he had homosexual tendencies.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOHN H. CREECH in the St. Louis Division:

On January 6, 1964, in an effort to locate JOHN, last name unknown, whose wife was the former PHYLLIS GREEN, an employee of American Airlines assigned to the Reservation Desk in St. Louis, Missouri, Mr. AL ALVIS, Reservations Manager, American Airlines, St. Louis, Missouri, was contacted and stated that PHYLLIS GREEN left their employ following her marriage to a JOHN L. MANTIA. He stated that her last known address following her marriage was 1649a McLaran, St. Louis, Missouri.

On January 6, 1964, a check of the St. Louis City Directory for a JOHN L. MANTIA indicated he was an employee of the Owens-Illinois Company, St. Louis, Missouri, and currently resided at 1649a McLaran, St. Louis, Missouri.

On January 6, 1964, an interview with JOHN L. MANTIA at the Owens-Illinois Glass Company, 2122 Hereford, St. Louis, Missouri, disclosed that the last known address for DONALD LEWIS, a friend of MANTIA who had accompanied him to Dallas, Texas, was 5171a Eichelberger, St. Louis, Missouri.

On January 6, 1964, Mrs. HELEN BLOECHER, 5171 Eichelberger, St. Louis, Missouri, stated that she owns the duplex in which DONALD LEWIS and his mother, VIRGINIA LEWIS, used to live but they had moved sometime ago. She indicated she did not know to where they had moved. Mrs. BLOECHER stated that LEWIS had a sister living somewhere in the St. Louis area by the name of Mrs. FERD L. GRAF, JR., who might know where DONALD LEWIS could be located.

On January 6, 1964, a Telephone Directory check revealed that a Mrs. FERD L. GRAF resided at 7657 Sunset Drive Hazelwood, Missouri. On the same date Mrs. GRAF was interviewed and acknowledged that she is the sister of DONALD LEWIS. She stated that her brother, DONALD, now lives at 2831 Laurel View Lane, Bridgeton, Missouri, and that he currently works for Air Therm Manufacturing Company on South Spring Street, St. Louis, Missouri.

Mr. DONALD G. LEWIS was interviewed at his place of employment, the Air Therm Manufacturing Company, 700 South Spring, St. Louis, Missouri, and furnished the following information:

LEWIS stated that he was born on August 8, 1933, and currently lives at 2831 Laurel View Drive, Bridgeton, Missouri. He said he traveled to Dallas, Texas, in either early September or late August, 1960, along with JOHN MANTIA for the purpose of opening a cocktail lounge in Dallas upon his arrival. He said he and MANTIA had hoped to open this club with their combined savings but had found on their arrival in Dallas, that they did not have enough money. He said while looking for work, they had met EVE RUBY, JACK RUBY's sister, and talked to her concerning the possibility of their finding a job. She had directed them to JACK RUBY, who was then trying to establish business at the Sovereign Club in Dallas. LEWIS said that RUBY offered both him and MANTIA jobs selling memberships in the club. LEWIS said that neither he nor MANTIA were successful in selling and that following their attempts to sell, they worked periodically for RUBY in the club. LEWIS said that he often drove RUBY around the Dallas area on RUBY's social visits, but that he never really got to know RUBY very well. He said he was not paid for his services other than meals and "a bar tab".

In describing RUBY, LEWIS said he always felt that "JACK had a little Chicago in him" in that he was rather gruff and liked his own way. LEWIS also said RUBY had a bit of a temper but he felt he was basically a "softhearted guy". LEWIS cited an example of an occasion when RUBY at his own expense gave football tickets for an important game in Dallas to a man he hardly knew. He said that RUBY wanted very badly to make a success of the Sovereign Club. He said that in looking back on RUBY's activities and associations, he could not recall RUBY hanging around with anyone known to be any kind of a radical or extremist. LEWIS said that prior to the presidential assassination, he had never heard of or seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD and is sure that he never saw OSWALD at any time with RUBY. LEWIS said that he felt that RUBY, like any big night club owner, knew some people in the underworld but as to just who RUBY knew, LEWIS could not say.

LEWIS recalled that RUBY kept a .38 snub-nosed revolver in his, RUBY's, desk at the Sovereign Club. LEWIS felt that RUBY kept the gun strictly for protection purposes and thought that periodically RUBY took the gun with him when making a night deposit of large sums of money at the bank. He said that so far as he knew RUBY never carried the gun on his person other than the aforementioned occasion.

LEWIS said that he recalled President KENNEDY traveling through Dallas in the fall of 1960 and that he, LEWIS, was very thrilled about it, as he had the opportunity to shake the President Elect's hand. He could not recall if he mentioned this to RUBY or of any reaction RUBY had to it. He said to the best of his knowledge he never heard RUBY mention KENNEDY at all.

LEWIS recalled at one time that there were two men in the Sovereign Club, a JOE PETERSON and a BRECK WALL, who were producers of plays and entertainment in the Dallas area and who had staged some entertainment for RUBY during his operation of the club. LEWIS said that he recalled RUBY having been in a fight with JOE PETERSON at one time over something to do with PETERSON and WALL wanting to back out of a contract. LEWIS said that he had recently noted that PETERSON and WALL were producing some entertainment at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas, Texas.

EEL

Mr. JOHN L. MANTIA was interviewed at his place of employment, the Owens-Illinois Glass Company, 2122 Hereford, St. Louis, Missouri, and furnished the following information:

MANTIA stated that he is currently living at 1649a McLaran, St. Louis, Missouri and is married to the former PHYLLIS GREEN. MANTIA stated that he and a friend of his by the name of DONALD LEWIS, traveled to Dallas, Texas, in the late summer of 1960 with the idea in mind of opening a cocktail lounge there. MANTIA said they both had taken all their savings with them on the trip. MANTIA said that the last address he knew of for LEWIS was 5171a Eichelberger in St. Louis, Missouri.

MANTIA stated that prior to leaving St. Louis, neither he nor LEWIS had ever heard of JACK RUBY. He stated that in addition to the idea of opening a cocktail lounge in Dallas, his other purpose for the trip to Dallas was to see his girl-friend, PHYLLIS GREEN, who was then an airline stewardess for American Airlines in Dallas.

MANTIA said that while in Dallas, he and LEWIS had met JACK RUBY's sister who was at that time managing the Club Vegas and had talked to her indicating that he and LEWIS were looking for work in the Dallas area. MANTIA said that RUBY's sister suggested to them that they contact JACK RUBY with regard to selling memberships in the Sovereign Club, a night club which was owned at that time by her brother JACK RUBY. He stated that they met RUBY and RUBY agreed to pay them on a commission basis for any memberships sold in the club. MANTIA said that his efforts to sell these memberships were unsuccessful and that while he lived in Dallas for the most part he lived off his savings. He said he did some work for RUBY in the club, such as greeting visitors and other "odds and ends." He said that he felt that DONALD LEWIS saw more of RUBY than did he, MANTIA, as often times LEWIS would drive JACK RUBY around town. He said he was not paid for working for RUBY, other than occasional meals and free drinks.

Mr. LOUIS TOM LOY, 4057 Brynmawr Drive, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

LOY initially met JACK RUBY when LOY, as a member of a Dixieland Combo, played at the Vegas Club on week ends for approximately a year in 1953 - 1954. During that period, LOY had no personal business dealings with RUBY, as he was only a member of the band; however, he, on occasion during that period, did talk to RUBY. In approximately 1954, the Dixieland Combo that played at the Vegas Club received a better offer and thus terminated their employment at the Vegas Club.

In approximately 1961, LOY, as a member of a musical combo known as the Cellblock Seven, accepted an offer from RUBY to play at the Sovereign Club for approximately four week ends. To the best of his recollection, the group stayed on for an extra week end, making it a total of five week ends that they played at the Sovereign Club. At that time, they left the Sovereign Club and accepted an engagement at a different night club.

LOY recalled that he last saw JACK RUBY in late October or early November, 1963, approximately three weeks prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. At that time, RUBY appeared at the Levee Night Club, where LOY was playing as a member of a musical combo.

LOY described RUBY as a person who impressed him as being crude, uneducated, and definitely outspoken. LOY further described RUBY as a person who, when he had the Sovereign Club, had hoped to make the "big time" as a night club operator as he had planned to make the Sovereign Club into a club where he would cater to the carriage trade. It was LOY's opinion that this was

He later played for RUBY at the Carousel Club and saw him only on the occasions he played on weekends except on rare occasions when he would see him at other locations in downtown Dallas. It was his opinion, RUBY was a person who wanted everyone to like him and had a strong desire to be important. He thought most of the people liked RUBY for what he was and most people understood that he was the type person who wanted many friends. GEORGE B. MOSSE, JR., 6243 Mercedes Street, whose name appeared in a list obtained from JACK RUBY following his arrest on November 24, 1963, indicating former employment by RUBY, advised as follows:

Mr. MOSSE advised that he is presently self-employed as leader of a combo at Dallas. He stated that he has been so employed for over ten years and by virtue of this employment he met JACK RUBY about ten years ago at Dallas and has maintained a continuous acquaintance and association with RUBY since that time. He stated that his associations with RUBY are mainly through business contacts and mutual visits to clubs operated by RUBY and at which MOSSE has played with his combo. He stated that he has had limited contacts with RUBY socially, usually with other people at public places.

MOSSE advised that he was employed by RUBY in about 1958 to play at the Sovereign Club, operated by RUBY, and was so employed nightly, with his combo, for one or two weeks only. RUBY had to discontinue the services of this combo due to the fact that he felt he could not afford to pay the combo the money demanded for its services. MOSSE stated that this combo discontinued playing together and all the members have left Dallas and their whereabouts are unknown to him, with the exception of two members who have remained at Dallas, namely, WILLIAM F. SIMMONS, piano player, who resides at Irving, Texas; also RICHARD SHADBURNE, JR., trumpet player, who resides at Dallas, exact address unknown, and who is employed by the State Farm Insurance at Dallas.

MOSSE advised that he has always known RUBY as an extrovert and an individual who is usually friendly and wrapped up in his work. He stated that RUBY has always been friendly with many members of the Police Department and the press and has appeared to always try to run his clubs properly and within the law. He stated that he has never discussed politics with RUBY and does not know whether RUBY personally knew the late Officer TIPPIT.

JAMES T. NAZARETH, 113 White Street, Haverhill, Massachusetts advised that he is a retired musician and is presently employed part time by the Bernie Shoe Company, Haverhill, Massachusetts. He was born April 15, 1896 in Turkey.

From approximately March 1961 to July 1961 he was a member of the Kismet Review in which he played the oud, a stringed instrument. This review was managed and led by MURAD SOMAY. He assumes SOMAY is still leader of the Kismet Review and travelling through the United States but does not know how he can be located.

In approximately the early part of April 1961 the Kismet Review was booked into the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas for approximately 10 days. This club was owned and operated by JACK RUBY. On the first night of their engagement he and RUBY had a conversation relative to Chicago after NAZARETH told RUBY that he had played clubs in Chicago. At the close of the first night RUBY invited him to meet him the following day and he would show him around Dallas. He said that for the next eight or nine days he spent considerable time socially with RUBY and would also see him every night at the Carousel Club. RUBY introduced him to numerous persons whose names he cannot recall and took him to various clubs and restaurants. He recalls going to the Brass Cow Restaurant and the La Tunisia Restaurant where RUBY seemed to be well acquainted with the owners.

He recalls that two close friends of RUBY that came regularly to the club were a Mr. and Mrs. AUSTIN, 2742 Wilton Avenue, Dallas, Texas, telephone number FE 77042. He believes that at one time the AUSTINS were discussing going into partnership with RUBY. Mrs. AUSTIN's mother ALICIA ALUSAS, 1238 Tarpley Road, Dallas was also friendly with RUBY.

In about July 1961 he returned to the Dallas area on a visit and lived with the AUSTIN family for a few days. During that time he saw RUBY on two or three occasions when they visited the Carousel Club.

RUBY contacted him by phone in Florida in 1961 and invited him to organize a club and come to play at the Carousel for a week or two. About a year ago RUBY again telephonically contacted him at Haverhill, Massachusetts and wanted him to ogranize a club to play the club for a couple of weeks. On both occasions he told RUBY that it would not be a profitable venture for him and declined the invitation.

He considered RUBY to be a fine gentleman who appeared to be well liked by his employees and associates. He knew nothing of RUBY's activities other than that set out above and they never had occasion to discuss politics. He had never seen or heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD until the time of the President's assassination and knows of no association between OSWALD and RUBY. Shortly after the murder of OSWALD he wrote to both Mr. and Mrs. AUSTIN and to EVA RUBY concerning RUBY's plight. He had no particular reason in writing them other than his desire to find out how RUBY was doing.

The following investigation was conducted by SA EDMOND C. HARDIN:

On January 6, 1964, MC KINLEY PATTON, 1018-1/2 Ball Street, advised that he met JACK RUBY's sister EVA GRANT during the early part of 1962, at which time he began employment for her as a piano player in a combo at the Vegas Club which she was operating. This combo was directed by one JOE JOHNSON, whose present whereabouts are unknown to PATTON. He added that three other individuals played in this combo, but he has forgotten their names and does not know their whereabouts. He stated that this employment lasted for about five months. PATTON added that he never met RUBY during this time.

PATTON stated that he left Dallas during the latter part of 1962 and returned about one month ago and consequently has no information concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of OSWALD on the part of RUBY.

It has been determined that JOHN L. CHAMBLESS, also known as DELL CHAMBLESS, 213 Woodridge Way, Mesquite, Texas, whose name was furnished by GINGER ELAINE CHAMBLESS as a former employee of RUBY at the Sovereign Club, has been previously interviewed on December 19, 1963.

About one year ago he had worked for approximately two months for a lady he had known as EVA, the sister of JACK RUBY. He believed this lady's last name was RUBY but was not sure. He had been employed as a porter and handyman at the Vegas Club and had actually seen JACK RUBY on two occasions only. He had never associated with RUBY and knew nothing concerning his political or philosophical outlook, and since he was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he knew of no association between the two.

Mr. LEO PHILLIPS (reported to be a former employee of RUBY), 2410 Storks, furnished the following information:

PHILLIPS is a musician by profession and, as such, worked for RUBY as a musician during the early 1950's at the Silver Spur Club and at the Vegas Club. PHILLIPS was not employed on a full-time basis, but worked as the need arose. PHILLIPS knew RUBY only on an employee-employer basis, and knows nothing concerning his personal life or political beliefs.

Since about 1957 or 1958, PHILLIPS has seen RUBY infrequently and knows nothing concerning his activities during the past four or five years. PHILLIPS knows of no connection between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY and knows of no police officers with whom RUBY was particularly close.

On December 26, 1963, JIM KELLY, Manager, American Guild of Variety Artists (AGVA), 6513 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood, California, advised SA GEORGE A. PAINE, JR., that "SIRI" also known as "The Dutch Doll" was not employed through his agency. He said she is presently employed through the Cora Lee Theatrical Agency in Los Angeles. KELLY ascertained "SIRI" was last listed as residing at 7255 Franklin Avenue, Los Angeles, but this address was no longer a good address in locating her. He said the records reflected her AGVA dues were paid in Baltimore Maryland and are in force until February, 1964. The last two phone numbers listed for "SIRI" are HO 2-8018 and HO 7-7252. Her listed Social Security Number is 551-18-2418. He said he was certain "SIRI" was not presently working at the main "strip clubs" in the Los Angeles area, which clubs are handled by AGVA. He said the New York Office of AGVA at 551 5th Avenue, New York City, New York, might be able to furnish more recent information concerning "SIRI."

The following investigation was conducted by SA's GEORGE A. PAINE, JR., and HOMER E. YOUNG:

On December 26, 1963, MARJORIE ALICE PUTNAM, 2031 Ivar, Hollywood, California, advised she is known as "SIRI, the Dutch Doll." She said she has no telephone but can usually be located through the Cora Lee Agency in Los Angeles or at Room 9, at the Blake Hotel on Beechwood Street, Los Angeles.

PUTNAM stated she has been in show business for about 20 years and has worked as a "stripper" for the past several years. She said she did not know JACK RUBY or LEE OSWALD and had never worked at any of JACK RUBY's clubs in Dallas, Texas. She said there is another "stripper" known as "SIRA, MISS SWITZERLAND" or " The Swiss Miss." She said however, she did not know the location of that "stripper."

The following investigation was conducted by SA GEORGE A. PAINE, JR., on December 26, 1963.

JIM KELLY, AGVA, Los Angeles, advised he could not locate any record of "SIRA, aka" or "MISS SWITZERLAND, aka" in his records. He suggested AGVA, New York City, might be able to furnish information regarding that "stripper."

FRED M. SCHREINER, 4515 Live Oak Street, advised as follows:

He is a tax accountant and met JACK RUBY in early 1961, at which time RUBY came to him and explained he had been in difficulty with Internal Revenue Service and would like him to take care of his accounting in connection with the Vegas Club. He prepared the quarterly social security, withholding and cabaret returns for that year and also prepared his Federal Income Tax return for 1961. He saw RUBY approximately 12 times during that one year period and was obligated to discontinue working RUBY's papers as he became ill and was forced to forego some of his business commitments. To his knowledge, RUBY was the only person associated with the operation of the Vegas Club, although he had heard it was possible one of RUBY's brothers, name unknown, may have put up some money at the inception of this club. He believes RUBY's sister, EVA, ran the club for RUBY.

At that time, he understood the Carousel Club, under RUBY, was just getting started and he had no knowledge of how the accounting regarding this club was handled. It was his opinion RUBY likely held off obtaining an accountant to handle the paper work on the Carousel Club, as this appeared to be what he had done regarding the Vegas Club and was the reason he was behind in his book work and experiencing difficulty with Internal Revenue.

During this one year association with RUBY, he did not discuss with him politics, philosophy, and the like, and he had no knowledge of traveling on the part of RUBY. His interests with RUBY were strictly business and it seemed to him RUBY was solely interested in making money. He described RUBY as the typical night club operator who always believed "the next deal will set me up for life."

He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and, therefore, knew of no association between JACK RUBY and OSWALD.

Miss BARBARA SHEETS, 1028 East Colfax Avenue, advised that she is presently employed by the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Company at Denver. Miss SHEETS said that she was formerly employed by the Curtis Mathis Sales Company at Dallas, Texas, and resided at 1423 Hortense, Dallas. She advised that in April, 1963, she was employed on a "fill in" basis by JACK RUBY at the Carousel Lounge in Dallas, Texas for two or three nights. Miss SHEETS advised that she worked one night as a waitress and two nights collected cover charges at the Carousel and this constituted her complete employment at this lounge.

Miss SHEETS advised that because of this, her acquaintanceship with JACK RUBY was extremely limited and she had little information concerning his activities or acquaintances. Miss SHEETS advised that during the time she was employed by RUBY she never saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the Carousel Lounge and never saw OSWALD in RUBY's presence anywhere. She said she had no information concerning any groups or organizations to which RUBY might belong nor did she have any knowledge which would indicate that he was connected in any way with the assassination of former President KENNEDY.

ROBERT WEAVER, 5818 Velasco, Dallas, furnished the following information:

WEAVER stated that he has known JACK RUBY since the late 1940's when RUBY was operating the Silver Spur night club. WEAVER often frequented the Silver Spur and over the period of years got to know RUBY casually and had a speaking acquaintance with him. He advised that at no time did he socialize with RUBY and he reiterated that his acquaintanceship was based on his, WEAVER, attendance at the Silver Spur and the Vegas Clubs. Sometime in 1961, WEAVER accidentally bumped into RUBY at a waffle shop late at night in the vicinity of the Carousel Club. In conversing with RUBY that night, WEAVER identified himself to RUBY as a Public Accountant and RUBY, upon learning of WEAVER's occupation, asked WEAVER to handle the quarterly reports and returns of the Vegas Club and the Carousel Club. WEAVER accepted the business offer from RUBY and did work on the books for both clubs. He stated that he did complete a Schedule C tax return for the Vegas Club for the year of 1960 or 1961. WEAVER was unable to state definitely for which year he did make out the return. WEAVER did start a corporation return for the Carousel Club but never was able to complete the return. He advised that he had problems with the Carousel Club return as RUBY kept some of his papers and bills at his apartment, some at the Vegas Club, some at the Carousel Club and some in his car. WEAVER recalled that he probably worked on the Carousel Club corporation return until late 1961 or early 1962 when he decided to give up the task as he could not get all the needed reports and bills together..

It is WEAVER's recollection that the Carousel Club is part of a corporation known as the S & R Corporation of which RUBY is an officer. WEAVER advised that he last saw RUBY in early 1962 or possibly late 1961, when he, WEAVER, was working on RUBY's books.

WEAVER advised that he could recall no information regarding any form of bills or IOU's in the possession of RUBY that would in any way reflect any acquaintance or

R. L. DAVIS, in charge of Occupational License and Special Tax Department, City of Dallas, furnished the following information concerning money paid by JACK RUBY to the City of Dallas relative to the services of special officers at the Vegas Club:

Mr. DAVIS explained that regular police officers in Dallas are not permitted to work at any club during their off-hours or at any other time for the club management. He stated that clubs which have dancehall licenses use the special officers who are certified as special officers by the Special Service Bureau of the Dallas Police Department. These special officers are civilians who, when so employed, wear the regulation police uniform and carry a pistol inasmuch as they have been given the power of arrest. This explains why the money paid to these officers is turned over by the clubs to the City of Dallas, which in turn issues the money to the special officers. Mr. DAVIS stated that clubs qualified to use such officers usually send in money one year in advance, i.e. $7.00 per night for estimated work to be performed, and this money is directed to Mr. DAVIS's office who in turn puts it in a excrow fund in the Municipal Building, which fund is known as the Special Service Fund. Each day the Special Service Bureau of the Police Department turns in to Mr. DAVIS a list of the Special Service policemen performing such duties with the data relative to the amount of work performed and amount of money owed each one. Every two weeks Mr. DAVIS turns over the necessary funds to the Auditors Office which in turn issues the necessary funds to the special officers who come by every two weeks to pick up these checks. Mr. DAVIS further explained that occasionally such clubs will make out their checks relative to the services of such officers payable to the Police Department and in such instances the Police Department will merely forward the checks to the Tax Department to be placed in the above described Special Service Fund.

Mr. DAVIS advised that he keeps records of payments made by various clubs to Special Service officers on pink 3 x 5 cards and often these cards are destroyed after a certain period of time or when room is needed due to the

W. R. BROOKS, whose name was furnished as Mr. BROOKS, barber shop owner, by SARAH BORMASTER as a possible acquaintance and associate of JACK RUBY, advised SA EDMOND C. HARDIN as follows on January 14, 1964:

Mr. BROOKS advised that he is owner of the Brooks Barber Shop located in the basement of the Statler-Hilton Hotel, 1914 Commerce Street, Dallas. He stated that for several years he has been acquainted with GEORGE SENATOR, a customer in his barber shop. He recalls sending SENATOR to the warehouse of Mrs. BORMASTER and her husband on one occasion to take advantage of a sale of men's shirts. He advised that he did not at that time or later know JACK RUBY and if RUBY later went to this same warehouse to buy shirts, he must have been recommended to the establishment by SENATOR.

BROOKS stated that he has never been acquainted with RUBY and is not sure whether RUBY has ever been a customer in his barber shop. He added that he has no information concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

The name PEGGY FRANKLIN, 3904 Hall Street, telephone LA 6-7211, was found in a book in the possession of JACK RUBY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA'S JAMES J. WARD and ROBERT E. BASHAM, at Dallas, Texas:

The 1963 telephone book reflected a PEGGY FRANKLIN residing at 7801 Pond, telephone EX 8-6938; however, there was no listing for PEGGY FRANKLIN in the city directory for 1963.

On December 17, 1963, Mrs. LESTER RICH, 7801 Pond, mother of PEGGY A. FRANKLIN, advised her daughter worked for Texas Industries and never lived on Hall Street, in Dallas. She advised her daughter receives telephone calls for a PEGGY FRANKLIN, whose picture appeared recently in a Dallas newspaper. She exhibited a newspaper clipping which indicated that PEGGY FRANKLIN worked at Continental Rent-A-Car Company, Dallas, and was a Dallas "Big D" Beauty. The clipping indicated that FRANKLIN had been in the Dallas area the past four years.

Attempts were made to locate PEGGY FRANKLIN at the Continental Rent-A-Car Company, in Dallas, 4411 North Central Expressway, and at her desk at the Cabana Motel, with negative results, on December 17 & 18, 1963.

On December 19, 1963, PEGGY H. FRANKLIN, 5647 Gaston, Apartment 215, telephone TA 1-3586, advised she never lived on Hall Street and did not know JACK RUBY. She advised that, when she saw RUBY on television, he looked familiar to her, but she may have seen him in front of his club, or at the garage on Commerce Street around the corner from the Continental Rent-A-Car Office, on Akard Street, where she used to work. She said she did not know of any other PEGGY FRANKLIN in the Dallas area.

On December 19, 1963, OLIVER H. PENDER, Assistant Manager of apartments located at 3904 Hall Street, advised he never heard of PEGGY FRANKLIN and he has only been at the apartment house for two years, as has the present manager. He said Doctor WILLIAM S. HARRIS is the owner of the apartment building and has been since the building was built approximately five years ago. He said HARRIS has offices at 4020 Junius.

On December 20, 1963, Doctor WILLIAM S. HARRIS was contacted at his place of employment, Presbyterian Hospital, 4020 Junius, and he advised he could not recall the tenant PEGGY FRANKLIN. He said his manager when the building was erected was Mrs. LUCILLE RHODES, whose husband was H. J. RHODES, a paint contractor at Garland, Texas, telephone BR 6-5369.

On December 20, 1963, Mrs. LUCILLE RHODES was telephonically contacted and advised she could not recall PEGGY FRANKLIN.

On December 20, 1963, JIM KITCHING, Identification Officer, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, and J. G. VICKERY, Identification Officer, Dallas Police Department, advised their records contain no information identifiable with PEGGY FRANKLIN.

On December 20, 1963, SA ROBERT J. WILKISON caused a search of the records of the Retail Merchants Credit Association, which reflected that one PEGGY ANN FRANKLIN, who resided at 3904 Hall Street, Apartment D, in 1960, was employed by the National Gypsum Company, Dallas, and that she was formerly from Wills Point, Texas.

On December 27, 1963, and January 3, 1964, BERYL DUNWELL, employed at National Gypsum Company, 3707 Rawlins Street, Dallas, advised that PEGGY FRANKLIN worked for their company up until September 30, 1960. At the time of her employment, she was living at 429 East 8th Street, but when she left the company she was living on Hall Street. She said she did not know her current whereabouts in the city or her current employment, and thought PEGGY FRANKLIN had gotten married some time ago. She said if she thought of any information concerning PEGGY FRANKLIN she would contact the FBI.

Mrs. MARGARET HOPKINS, Club Manager, Casa Del Sol, 554 South Summit Street, furnished the following information:

Casa Del Sol is a private club operated at the Westchester House Apartments and also operates a private club in connection with Cross Keys, a cafe located at the Westchester Apartments. Casa Del Sol receives numerous calls from persons in Dallas, either on business or sometimes in making reservations at the club.

Mrs. HOPKINS stated that she has been the manager of this club since it was organized about two years ago. She stated that she was not acquainted with JACK RUBY and does not recall any particular phone call from JACK RUBY to EDison 6-2823, which is the phone number of Casa Del Sol in the Westchester House Apartments. She related that she and other employees around the club had discussed the assassination and JACK RUBY, and that none of the employees around Casa Del Sol ever said they were personally acquainted with RUBY.

Mrs. HOPKINS stated that she is not acquainted with RUBY and has never met or been acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

The Chicago Division of the FBI received a copy of a mimeographed letter from the Independent Voters Organization, 6649 South Lowe, Chicago, Illinois, directed to a business organization in Deerfield, Illinois. This letter reflected that the Independent Voters Organization issues a publication within a specified Chicago area and solicits ads from various firms which might benefit from the publication. A typewritten insertion to the mimeographed form reflected that all proceeds from this particular ad campaign would be utilized for the JACK RUBY defense. This letter was signed by ARNOLD KRAUSE.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60)

On December 31, 1963, S. W. JONES, 6649 South Lowe, Chicago, Illinois, was contacted, at which time he stated that ARNOLD KRAUSE came to work for him on a non-salaried basis, approximately two months ago in an effort to promote business directly as indicated in the promotional letter. He was to work strictly on a commission basis and the only reason he took KRAUSE in was because he had met KRAUSE at an Art Show at Navy Pier, in about 1958. Mr. JONES stated that the only reason he used KRAUSE in this promotion was because that KRAUSE was a white man and he felt it would do the promotion some good. KRAUSE was Director of Advertising until December 21, 1962, when he left Chicago to participate in some march on civil rights. JONES is not sure of the location of this march. He and KRAUSE had a disagreement because KRAUSE could not take orders and would not follow up on the promotional letters he had sent out. Upon learning that KRAUSE was placing a note on the letter that "all proceeds from this ad drive will go to the Defense Fund for JACK RUBY," JONES got extremely upset and told KRAUSE that this promotion had nothing to do with JACK RUBY and the proceeds would not go to the RUBY Defense Fund. JONES said that KRAUSE was using this as a come on and was completely without basis or merit.

He knew very little about KRAUSE other than that he was somewhat of an artist and does not know of KRAUSE's previous employment. KRAUSE is a white male, approximately 29 years old of medium height and build, whom JONES believes came from Germany to the United States as a child. KRAUSE was driving a 1960 black, two door Cadillac with an unrecalled Illinois license number.

JONES reiterated that this promotion, utilizing the Independent Voters Organization had nothing whatsoever to do with JACK RUBY and KRAUSE had used the notice in the letter on his own. JONES said that the Independent Voters Organization was organized by himself in order to promote advertising of various remodeling companies having homes which he felt would reach a select area in Chicago, and would be of advantage to these remodeling companies.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOSEPH G. PEGGS:

An item secured from RUBY's property in connection with a search of his car revealed the following notation, "Serv-U-Pharmacy, 1601 West 6th, HARRY SHULMAN". The current Dallas telephone and city directories were searched on December 13, 1963, and no listing could be located identifiable with HARRY SHULMAN or Serv-U-Pharmacy.

On January 7, 1964, FRED ELLIS, Credit Manager, Upjohn Drug Company, 4114 Central Expressway, Dallas, LEE KELTNER, Southwestern Drug Company, Dallas, and ROBERT MORRISON, McKesson and Robbins, Inc., Dallas, made a search of their records and advised they could locate no record of Serv-U-Pharmacy.

On January 8, 1964, SA PEGGS physically observed the address of 1601 West 6th Street and determined it to be a residential area in Oak Cliff, a suburb of Dallas, Texas.

With reference to the name WILLIAM YEAGER, not otherwise identified, which was found in a book which was the personal property of JACK RUBY, a review of the Dallas, Texas, City Directory on December 31, 1963, by SA HAROLD R. DOBSON disclosed the following:

W. YEAGER, Apartment B, 219 Tucker Street, Dallas, Texas; WILLIAM E. YEAGER, 4635 Bryan, occupation pharmacist; WILLIAM E. YEAGER, Apartment 102, 1107 South Ewing, pharmacist.

An examination of the current Dallas, Texas, Telephone Directory on the same date also disclosed the following:

W. C. YEAGER
8741 Rexford

Reverend W. J. YEAGER
1601 Hill

W. N. YEAGER
626 Dumont

W. R. YEAGER
107 South Bowser

W. W. YEAGER
Greenville Road

The above individuals were interviewed by SA HAROLD R. DOBSON on the date indicated.

Mrs. O. A. HESS, Apartment A, 2129 Tucker, Dallas, advised on January 2, 1964, she is the manager of a series of apartment buildings located in that block, and which includes Apartment B at 2119 Tucker. According to her records, the W. YEAGER who formerly occupied Apartment B at 2119 Tucker, moved without leaving a forwarding address on December 15, 1962. According to her records and her recollection, he was known as "BERT" YEAGER, which leads her to believe his given name was probably WILBERT rather than WILLIAM.

WILLIAM EARL YEAGER, 4530 Malden, Dallas, employed as a pharmacist by the Complete Pharmacy, 219 North St. Paul, Dallas, advised on January 4, 1964, that he had formerly resided at 4635 Bryan Street and at Apartment 102 at 1107 South Ewing Street, both Dallas, Texas. He had never been in any of JACK RUBY's clubs and had never heard of either JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of the President and the shooting of OSWALD.

Mr. W. C. YEAGER, 8741 Rexford, Dallas, advised on January 3, 1964, he had never been inside one of JACK RUBY's clubs and had never heard of either RUBY or OSWALD prior to the assassination and the shooting of OSWALD.

Reverend W. J. YEAGER, 1601 Hill Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, advised on January 3, 1964, that while his address is listed in the telephone book as 1601 Hill Street, it is listed by the post office as 1606 Hill Street. He had never been inside one of JACK RUBY's clubs and had never heard of either RUBY or OSWALD prior to the assassination and the shooting of OSWALD.

Mr. W. N. YEAGER, 1226 Ottawa Circle, Richardson, Texas, advised on January 2, 1964, he had formerly resided at 626 Dumont Street, Richardson, Texas. He had never heard of either LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY prior to the assassination and the shooting of OSWALD and had never frequented any of RUBY's clubs.

WILLIAM R. YEAGER, 208 Island, Richardson, Texas, advised on January 2, 1964, he had formerly resided at 107 South Bowser in Richardson, Texas. He is employed as administrative assistant to the City Manager of Richardson, Texas, and has been prominent as a coach of Little League ball teams in the area for the past several years. He stated he had been in JACK RUBY's Vegas Club on one occasion approximately three years ago, at which time he believed he might have met JACK RUBY. He stated he had no subsequent contact with RUBY and would not know him if he saw him at this time. He never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of the President, and he was aware of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY. He had no knowledge or information as to the nature and extent, if any, of RUBY's association with members of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department. He had no idea why RUBY shot OSWALD.

Mr. WESLEY W. YEAGER, 945 Greeville, Road, Richardson, Texas, advised on January 2, 1964, he had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY prior to the assassination of the President and the shooting of OSWALD. He had never been in any of RUBY's clubs.

In an effort to identify DICK LENARD, whose name together with "KTVT", appeared in the property of RUBY which was maintained by CURTIS L. CRAFARD, short time employee of RUBY at the Carousel Club, the following individuals were contacted:

On January 9, 1964, D. C. HORNBERG, Assistant Manager, KTVT-TV, 4321 North Central Expressway, stated that he has been with this television station since 1955 and is certain that no one by the name of DICK (or RICHARD) LENARD has worked for the company during that time. He added that the call letters KTVT have been used only since 1960. Mr. HORNBERG caused a check of his records to be made and advised that the name DICK LENARD was not contained therein.

On January 9, 1964, the following individuals advised that they do not know anyone by the name of DICK LENARD and have no information concerning his identity:

ANDREW ARMSTRONG, Acting Manager and Bartender, Carousel Club;

DIANE HUNTER, Dancer, Carousel Club and former employee Vegas Club;

WALLY WESTON, Master of Ceremonies, Carousel Club;

BILLIE HADLEY, Waitress, Carousel Club;

PAULINE HALL, Waitress, Vegas Club;

HEROME LENARD, 1026 Sabine Street;

T. J. LENARD, 118 North Edgefield Street.

On January 10, 1964, BIRDIE SUE BELCHER, Retail Merchants Credit Association of Dallas, Lieutenant K. P. KNIGHT, Identification Bureau, Dallas Police Department, and J. H. KITCHING, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, advised that they could locate no record in their files identifiable with DICK LENARD or RICHARD LENARD.

JN

The current Dallas telephone directory and city directory, as well as city directories from 1958 to the present, do not contain the name DICK LENARD or RICHARD LENARD.

In an effort to identify and interview GERRY JOHNSON, whose name appeared in a list of individuals in the property of RUBY, indicating possible employment by RUBY, the following individuals were contacted:

On January 9,1964, Mrs. GERRY JOHNSON, wife of LEE JOHNSON, 2610 West 10th Street, Irving, Texas, advised that she has never been employed by RUBY and does not know him. She added that she knows of no other individual named GERRY JOHNSON.

On January 9, 1964, the following individuals, all employees of the Carousel Club, advised that they do not know anyone by the name of GERRY JOHNSON and have no information concerning the identity of such name:

ANDREW ARMSTRONG, Acting Manager and Bartender;

WALLY WESTON, Master of Ceremonies;

DIANE HUNTER, Dancer and former employee Vegas Club;

BILLIE HADLEY, Waitress.

ANDREW ARMSTRONG, named above, stated that RUBY habitually wrote names of many individuals in his address books who were prospective employees, many of whom were never actually employed by RUBY.

On January 10, 1964, BIRDIE SUE BELCHER, Retail Merchants Credit Association of Dallas, Lieutenant K. P. KNIGHT, Identification Bureau, Dallas Police Department, and J. H. KITCHING, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, advised that a search of their files failed to reflect any information identifiable with GERRY JOHNSON.

The current Dallas telephone directory and city directory, as well as city directories from 1958 to the present, do not contain the name GERRY JOHNSON.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES S. WEIR, at Dallas, Texas, on January 9, 1964:

Contained in a notebook which was the property of JACK RUBY were numerous names of persons believed to be club members in clubs owned by JACK RUBY. One of the names in the book was that of ROBERT N. MORREL.

The following public sources were checked with negative results in an effort to identify ROBERT N. MORREL:

Dallas City and Telephone Directories

Dallas Police Department

The records of the Retail Merchants Credit Association revealed that a ROBERT NEWTON MORREL resided at the Clifton Hotel in 1960.

Inquiry was made at the West Colorado Hotel, formerly known as the Clifton Hotel. It was determined that records maintained by the Clifton Hotel were no longer available and the name ROBERT N. MORREL was not known to the management of the West Colorado Hotel.

Also set forth in the personal effects of JACK RUBY was the name Mrs. JIM E. WOFFORD, which name was believed to be that of a club member in one of JACK RUBY's clubs.

The following records and sources were checked, but no information identifiable with the name Mrs. JIM E. WOFFORD was located:

WHitehall 8-

Mrs. ETHEL WILLIAMS, 219 West Hobson, is listed as the subscriber to WH 8-7475.

The foregoing individuals were interviewed by SA HAROLD R. DOBSON on the dates indicated as follows:

Mr. W. O. DOUGLAS, 2344 Hartline Street, Dallas, advised on January 4, 1964, he had formerly resided at 1904 Old Gate Lane, Garland, Texas, and had telephone number BRoadway 8-7475. He had never been in any of JACK RUBY's clubs and had never heard of either RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of the President and the shooting of OSWALD.

Mr. FRANK SCHEFFLER, 3616 Centenary, Dallas, advised on January 2, 1964, he had never attended any of JACK RUBY's clubs and had never heard of either RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination and the shooting of OSWALD.

Mr. DOCK BOYLE, 733 Hillburn, Pleasant Grove, Texas, advised on January 2, 1964, he had never been in any of JACK RUBY's establishments and had never heard of either RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the Presidential assassination and the shooting of OSWALD.

MILDRED HUNTLEY, Turtle Creek Square Apartments, 3883 Turtle Creek Boulevard, on January 4, 1964, advised she is an interior designer for the Sanger-Harris Department Store in Dallas, Texas, and that she formerly resided at 3525 Turtle Creek Boulevard. She continues to have the same telephone number, LA 8-7475, as she had at her previous address. She stated she had never been inside any of JACK RUBY's establishments and had never heard of either RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the Presidential assassination and the shooting of OSWALD.

She also advised that at her current address, as well as her previous address, she has frequently received telephone calls from persons trying to call the Vegas Club. She referred to the current Dallas Metropolitan telephone book and discovered the telephone number for the Vegas Club is LA 8-4775. She believed that such persons calling her while attempting to contact the Vegas Club had probably transposed the first two numbers of the 4-digit sequence. She indicated an intention of getting her telephone number changed to avoid future inconvenience from this cause.

Mrs. JOAN THOMAS, Vacation Sales Agent, United Air Lines, Room 2003, Adolphus Towers Building, 1412 Main Street, Dallas, advised on December 31, 1963, that United Air Lines does not fly in or out of Dallas, Texas, but merely maintains an office here for the convenience of persons who desire to use connecting air lines to cities serviced by her company. She stated that consequently the volume of business conducted by her office is quite small and that it would be possible to check records of reservations to determine whether or not JACK RUBY had obtained a reservation on a United Air Lines by telephone or otherwise in Dallas, Texas.

She personally checked her records from April 1, 1963, to December 1, 1963, which failed to disclose any reservation made by or for JACK RUBY during that period. She stated that it was possible that RUBY might have called her office seeking information, in which event no record of the inquiry would be maintained. She had never been inside any of RUBY's establishments and had never heard of either RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the Presidential assassination and the shooting of OSWALD.

Mrs. ETHEL WILLIAMS, 219 West Hobson, Dallas, advised on January 2, 1964, she is the holder of telephone number WHitehall 8-7475. She has never been in any of JACK RUBY's clubs and never heard of either RUBY or OSWALD prior to the Presidential assassination and shooting of OSWALD.

The name DANIEL HURLEY was found in the personal property of JACK RUBY.

The name DOROTHY CHAMBERS appeared on a membership list which was in the personal property of JACK RUBY.

The name LEO W. BLEVINS appeared on Carousel Pass Card No. 232.

The name Mrs. BRYANT H. RYDER appeared on a membership list found in the possession of JACK RUBY.

The following sources were contacted by SA JOSEPH G. PEGGS on the dates indicated in an attempt to identify the above-named individuals:

JUDY HAHN, Clerk, Dallas Police Department, December 20, 1963;

BIRDIE SUE BELCHER, Retail Merchants Credit Bureau, December 20, 1963;

ANDREW ARMSTRONG, Manager, Carousel Club, Commerce Street, December 27, 1963.

All of the above individuals advised they could locate no record identifiable with the persons listed.

A search of the City and Telephone Directories on December 27, 1963, by SA PEGGS failed to reflect any listings identifiable with the individuals being sought.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Date January 8, 1964

GAIL RAVEN, nee Barbara Hogan, was reinterviewed at the residence of her stepfather and her mother, MR. and MRS. JOHN FINCH, Box 332, and she advised as follows:

On one or two occasions prior to 1963, she performed her striptease dance at the T-Bone Club, a supper club at 47th and South Broadway, Wichita, Kansas. It is her understanding the owner of this place (name unrecalled by her) is in some penitentiary. The manager is JIM YONKERS and a man named VIRGIL PEEL is around the club and she believes he is a part owner.

In early January, 1963, she was doing her striptease dance at the Carousel Club at Dallas, Texas, operated by JACK RUBY. Her agent, JACK COLE, doing business as Jack Cole Theatrical Agency, 525 Interurban Building, Dallas, office telephone RI-8-46664, home telephone (unlisted) BL-3-7136, arranged for her to appear at the T-Bone Club at Wichita. She referred to her contract for this appearance and furnished the dates as January 20, 1963, through February 9, 1963.

She was preceded at the T-Bone Club by PRECIOUS DIAMONDS, a stripper from Dallas whose agent is also JACK COLE and who regularly dances at the Theater Lounge in Dallas. Her boy friend is JOHNNY (Last Name Unknown), who plays the trumpet at the Theater Lounge.

GAIL RAVEN flew to Wichita from Dallas by herself on January 20, 1963. She stayed at the Casa Siesta (as GAIL RAVEN), 4449 South Broadway, about two blocks from the T-Bone Club. On Saturday afternoon, February 9, 1963, RUBY telephoned her from Dallas and told her he would fly to Wichita and bring her back to Dallas after she finished her engagement that night. She was packed and ready to leave Wichita after her Saturday night performance. At about 3:30 a.m. on February 10, 1963, JACK COLE telephoned her from Dallas and told her there had been some mix up about the next girl who was to commence stripping at the T-Bone Club who was scheduled to open on February 11, 1963. He instructed her to stay until he got someone to take her place and until further notice from him. She continued to strip at the T-Bone Club through Wednesday, February 13, 1963.

On that date, COLE called her and instructed her to return to Dallas. She left Wichita by plane at 6:30 a.m., February 14, 1963, by herself and returned to Dallas. She opened at the Colony Club that night, which place is next to the Carousel Club. She did not contact RUEY to tell him not to come to Wichita because she was staying a few extra days and she presumed he learned of her change of plans from JACK COLE.

RUBY was not in Wichita when she was there. She definitely did not introduce him to JIM YONKERS or VIRGIL PEEL. It was her impression from their conversation that they did not know RUEY as they inquired about him as club owners frequently do about one another.

She understood that RUEY had come to Wichita before she arrived to work at the T-Bone Club, that he had made a trip there to return PRECIOUS DIAMONDS to Dallas. If RUBY did go to Wichita, he stayed at the Casa Siesta Hotel where all the persons appearing at the T-Bone Club customarily stay. If he made the trip to Wichita, she presumed he went by himself and returned to Dallas with PRECIOUS DIAMONDS on or about January 20, 1963. She knew of no other time RUBY went to Wichita.

GAIL RAVEN returned to Wichita for another stripping engagement on July 29, 1963, but RUBY did not come to Wichita during her stay there at that time.

She reiterated she was not certain RUBY went to Wichita to return PRECIOUS DIAMONDS to Dallas but thought he might have made this trip.

The following investigation was conducted by SA ALVIN J. ZIMMERMAN at New Orleans, Louisiana:

On January 9, 1964, Mrs. ELOISE KELLUM, Probation Officer, 8000 Foucher Street, advised that she had received information that one TONY OTILLAR who is employed as a ticket agent by Delta Airlines, had made the statement that he was well acquainted with JACK RUBY inasmuch as RUBY had made numerous flights via Delta Airlines from New Orleans.

On January 10, 1964, TONY OTILLAR was contacted at his home at 228 North Atlanta Street, Metairie, Louisiana. OTILLAR advised that approximately seven years ago, JACK RUBY flew from New Orleans, Louisiana, to Havana, Cuba. At the time, RUBY was at the New Orleans Airport to catch this flight, OTILLAR struck up a conversation with him and then became acquainted with him. He advised that prior to leaving on the flight, RUBY made a long distance call to Dallas, Texas and talked with someone who was employed at his night club. He told whoever he was talking to that he was going to Havana and that the entire trip was being paid for by someone else and was not costing him anything. He advised the person he was speaking to on the telephone not to disclose his whereabouts unless it were to the police or some other official agency.

OTILLAR advised that approximately six months ago JACK RUBY came to the New Orleans Airport and flew via Delta Airlines to Houston, Texas. RUBY talked with OTILLAR for a short time and told him that he was transporting a dog which he had purchased and was taking it to the well known strip dancer CANDY BARR. OTILLAR advised that RUBY was with a Jewish or Italian man and RUBY introduced him as a bar operator in the French Quarter; however, OTILLAR was unable to recall the man's name.

An item appeared in the Dallas, Texas, Morning News edition of December 24, 1963, entitled "EARL WARREN Poster - Upset RUBY Took Photographs at 4:00 AM, Says Roommate." According to testimony by GEORGE SENATOR, RUBY's roommate, after photographing a billboard sign reading "Impeach EARL WARREN," SENATOR and RUBY went to the Post Office, Dallas, Texas, and protested to a clerk there about the "newspaper ad" (full page ad in Dallas Morning News of November 22, 1963, of American Fact-Finding Committee, BERNARD WEISSMAN, Chairman, Post Office Box 1792, Dallas, Texas).

In an effort to identify the post office clerk referred to in testimony by SENATOR, Postal Inspector HARRY HOLMES was contacted and he advised he would instruct various supervisors in the post office to make inquiries in an effort to identify the clerk in question.

On January 3, 1964, ALLAN MADDOX, Clerk, Postal Inspectors Office, advised it had been determined that 17 clerks were on duty between the hours of 5:00 AM and 7:00 AM on the morning in question and that if RUBY and SENATOR had appeared at the post office shortly before 5:00 AM, or shortly after 7:00 AM, there would be an additional 50 or 60 clerks who could possibly have been contacted by RUBY.

On January 7, 1964, MADDOX advised it had been determined that a great many individuals had made complaints or comments concerning instant ad and the clerks who had been queried concerning this matter had been unable to specifically recall RUBY as a complainant.

DON CAMPBELL, Advertising Salesman, "Dallas Morning News", whose name, as CONNORS, was furnished by JACK RUBY upon interview December 21, 1963, as an individual who spoke to RUBY at the Egyptian Lounge, Dallas, during the evening of November 21, 1963, furnished the following information:

Mr. CAMPBELL, who has been previously interviewed, advised that during the evening of November 21, 1963, he was at the Castaway Club located near the Egyptian Lounge. At about 10:00 PM, he entered the Egyptian Lounge for only a moment and noticed JACK RUBY and RALPH PAUL having dinner together in the Egyptian Lounge. He had known RUBY for several years on a business basis and therefore he went over to the table where RUBY and PAUL were seated and invited them to come with him to the Castaway Club when they had finished their dinner. RUBY declined the invitation explaining that he had to go elsewhere. CAMPBELL stated that he talked with RUBY and PAUL for only a minute or so and left.

SAM CAMPISI, co-owner, Egyptian Lounge, 5616 Mockingbird Lane, furnished the following information relative to JACK RUBY's presence at that restaurant on the evening of November 21, 1963, corroborating information furnished by JACK RUBY upon interview December 21, 1963:

Mr. CAMPISI, who has been previously interviewed, stated that he recalls seeing RUBY and RALPH PAUL at his restaurant during the evening of November 21, 1963. He stated that he recalls this as a very busy evening and consequently cannot be sure of the details surrounding RUBY's visit. He stated that as best as he recalls, RUBY and PAUL arrived at the restaurant between 9:45 and 10:00 PM and had dinner there, staying some 45 minutes. He stated that he does not recall the identity of any individual to whom RUBY and PAUL spoke while there and does not recall any particular conversation he himself may have had with them.

Mr. SETH KANTOR, Scripps-Howard Staff Writer, "Washington Daily News" Building, 1013 13th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., advised he definitely saw and talked with JACK RUBY on November 22, 1963, at the Parkland Hospital, Dallas, Texas. He stated he previously furnished this information to the FBI in Dallas and a couple of days later upon being interviewed by Captain JONES of the Dallas Police Department executed a detailed signed statement showing this information.

KANTOR stated he fully realizes the importance of what he has said, i.e., that he saw and talked with RUBY at the Parkland Hospital, November 22, 1963. He knows a man's life is at stake, and for that reason wants to be as specific as possible.

He stated he wrote an article showing he saw RUBY about 1:28 p.m., at the Parkland Hospital. Upon reflection, he stated, realizing the importance of the matter, it might have been about 2:00 p.m., rather than 1:28 p.m. He is positive, however, that it was November 22, 1963.

KANTOR stated it had to be at the Parkland Hospital. He explained from the airport in Dallas he joined the Presidential Motorcade. He was in a White House Press Bus with other reporters. He heard shots and the bus proceeded to the Trade Mart in Dallas. Somebody at the Trade Mart called the Dallas Police and asked what had happened. He was told the President had been shot and had been taken to the Parkland Hospital. Somebody or other took him and about six other reporters to the hospital in his station wagon. They arrived at the hospital about 12:50 p.m. He saw U. S. Senator YARBOROUGH of Texas outside the hospital. He spoke to him briefly. After identifying himself, a police officer took him in the hospital. This was about 12:55 p.m. Across from the emergency surgery room he phoned Washington and was on the phone about 20 minutes. After calling Washington, he spoke to Texas U. S. Congressmen ALBERT THOMAS and HENRY GONZALEZ who were in the emergency ward area. MALCOLM KILDUFF, PIERRE SALINGER's assistant, told everyone on the scene that he had an announcement to make and that everyone should follow him. KILDUFF walked off and MERRIMAN SMITH, of United Press International, and AL CROMLEY of the "Oklahoma City Oklahoman," walked on each side of KILDUFF, talking to him, apparently trying to find out what had happened. Three or four others, identities not recalled, and himself, followed KILDUFF, SMITH and CROMLEY.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

They went outside the hospital and back in through another entrance. As he went in this entrance, three or four steps in, he felt a tug at the bottom of his coat. He turned around. It was JACK RUBY. RUBY said "Hello, SETH," and stuck out his hand. KANTOR shook hands with RUBY. RUBY then said something to the effect, "Isn't this a terrible thing? Do you think I ought to close my places for three days?" KANTOR replied to the effect, "Yes, I think you should." KANTOR specifically recalled that RUBY said "three days." KANTOR stated that was all there was to the conversation. He stated that quite frankly he gave RUBY the brush-off. He did this because he was most interested in what KILDUFF was to announce and did not want to take the time to talk to RUBY. He could not recall what RUBY was wearing other than he believes he was hatless.

KILDUFF followed by the reporters proceeded to a make-shift press room in the hospital and announced that President KENNEDY was dead. This announcement was made at 1:30 p.m., November 22, 1963. KANTOR stated he had talked with RUBY just prior thereto so he figures he talked to him about 1:28 p.m. After making the announcement, KILDUFF stated he would have another announcement in about ten minutes. KILDUFF left the room.

After hearing the announcement, KANTOR got on the first available phone in the Parkland Hospital and called the Scripps-Howard Office in Washington, D. C. He was on the phone about 15 minutes. He then went back to the make-shift press room. KILDUFF was not there.

BILL STINSON, an administrative aid to Texas Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY, was in the make-shift press room. Another aid, JULIAN O. READ, was with him. STINSON for the benefit of the reporters present reconstructed on a blackboard where President KENNEDY, Governor CONNALLY and their wives were seated in the motorcade. While STINSON and READ were talking, JIGGS FAUVER, head of transportation at the White House, interrupted and told all present that a press pool car was needed to go to Love Field. This was about 2:00 p.m.

About 2:00 p.m., KANTOR stated, he left the make-shift press room along with other reporters. When he got outside the hospital he decided not to go to Love Field, thinking perhaps more news would be available in the make-shift press room. Immediately outside the hospital he saw Senator YARBOROUGH, Texas Congressman OLIN TEAGUE and HENRY GONZALEZ and Dallas Mayor EARL CABELL. They were waiting for transportation to go to Love Field. KANTOR stated he tried to get some information from them and then re-entered the hospital.

As KANTOR entered the hospital, RUBY was standing inside the entrance. It was either here that he saw and talked with RUBY as reported herein or at the time he was following KILDUFF as above. KANTOR stated he is not certain whether it was about 1:28 p.m. or about 2:00 p.m. He is positive, however, that he saw and talked with RUBY at the Parkland Hospital, November 22, 1963. It was about 1:28 p.m. or about 2:00 p.m.

He described the immediately foregoing entrance as on the south side of the hospital. It might have been the main entrance but it was rather small.

KANTOR stated he was in Dallas from September, 1960, to May, 1962, at which time he worked for the "Dallas Times Herald" newspaper. Shortly after starting work with this paper he met JACK RUBY. RUBY was a nightclub operator and quite naturally wanted publicity for his clubs. He frequently approached KANTOR with stories publicizing his interests. KANTOR specifically recalled he wrote one story furnished by RUBY. It was about a stripper who used snakes in her act. KANTOR stated there is no question that he knows JACK RUBY when he sees him.

KANTOR reiterated it was November 22 and at the Parkland Hospital that he saw and spoke with RUBY. It was not prior or subsequent thereto. KANTOR stated he was at the hospital November 22, and did not return to the hospital until about ten days thereafter. RUBY was in custody when he returned to the hospital. It had to be November 22 that RUBY was there.

KANTOR stated he was unable to furnish the identity of anyone who might have seen him talking with RUBY. About 1:28 p.m., there was a big rush following KILDUFF, as previously stated, and he is certain MERRIMAN SMITH and AL CROMLEY were so engrossed talking with KILDUFF, also they were in front of him, that they could not have seen him with RUBY. He is likewise certain the other reporters, identities not recalled, paid no particular attention to him, having their minds on what KILDUFF was to announce.

About 2:00 p.m., when he re-entered the hospital, after talking with the officials previously referred to, KANTOR stated, he observed hospital personnel, identities not known, in the entrance. He believes they were personnel because of their white garb. If it was there he saw RUBY rather than about 1:28 p.m., the personnel would not remember it because they were not paying any particular attention to him.

KANTOR stated after re-entering the hospital about 2:00 p.m., he went to the make-shift press room in the hospital. KILDUFF was not there. KANTOR stated he subsequently left the press room and got on a press bus en route to Love Field. He checked his notes and advised they show a notation by him at 2:30 p.m., written while on the bus, that he observed mobs of curiosity seekers driving around the Parkland Hospital.

KANTOR stated he next and last saw RUBY in the Dallas Jail. This was Sunday, November 24, 1963, at which time RUBY was being led by the Dallas Police from an upper floor of the jail. KANTOR stated he looked directly at RUBY and RUBY appeared to be looking directly at him. RUBY, however, showed no signs of recognition. RUBY's complexion was pasty, his face was grim and his lips were drawn tightly together.

KANTOR gave a note to ART HAMMET, a Dallas police officer, who works in the office of Dallas Police Captain GLEN KING, asking that HAMMET give the note to RUBY. The note read, "JACK, Can I please talk to you, SETH." HAMMET told him he would try to see that RUBY got the note, but cautioned KANTOR that he could not make any promises that RUBY would get the note. Subsequently, KANTOR stated, he gave the same type note to TOM HOWARD, RUBY's lawyer, and asked that HOWARD give it to RUBY. HOWARD said he would. KANTOR stated he received no reply to these notes.

ABM:jmm

KANTOR was pointedly told by interviewing agents that RUBY has emphatically denied he was at Parkland Hospital at any time November 22, 1963, or subsequent. KANTOR was specifically asked whether he might be mistaken about seeing RUBY there November 22. KANTOR reiterated he is absolutely certain he saw and spoke with RUBY at the Parkland Hospital on November 22.

KANTOR was told that he might be called upon to testify in this case. He was asked what he would say if under oath and on the witness stand in a court of law to the question, "Did you see and talk with RUBY at the Parkland Hospital on November 22, 1963?" KANTOR stated he would answer, "Yes," because he is absolutely certain he did.

KANTOR speculated that perhaps RUBY has said he was not at the Parkland Hospital on November 22, as part of his reported plea of temporary insanity. KANTOR stated he is not acquainted with all facets of such a plea but felt it might help RUBY's cause for RUBY to deny being at the hospital when he knows he was, and that KANTOR would have to testify that he saw him there. Then too, KANTOR stated, RUBY might have been in emotional shock and cannot recall being at the hospital.

KANTOR stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and he does not know whether RUBY knew OSWALD. He stated he does not know whether there was any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

KANTOR stated he wants to cooperate with the FBI anyway possible, and the FBI should consider him at all times available for interview.

Mr. DOYLE STOKES, 213 South Ewing, who was reported to have seen RUBY on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, furnished the following information:

Mr. STOKES advised he is employed by the Veterans Administration Hospital where he is in charge of the Morgue. He works five days a week, Monday through Friday, and weekends when emergencies arise. Mr. STOKES last saw JACK RUBY on Saturday afternoon, November 23, 1963, sometime between 1:00 and 1:30 PM, as RUBY drove his automobile out of the driveway which runs along side of the STOKES' residence. He knows definitely it was Saturday afternoon because he was called back to the hospital to work and after he received his call to go back to work, he telephoned Mrs. STOKES to tell her that he had to work. Mr. STOKES did not see JACK RUBY on Sunday morning November 24, 1963.

Mr. STOKES has known JACK RUBY for three or four months having met him in the neighborhood when RUBY was walking his dogs. Mr. STOKES knows nothing concerning RUBY's personal life or political beliefs. He stated he knows of no connection between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. JACK JOHNSON, 2114 Fenwick Street, Dallas, Texas, contacted the Dallas Division telephonically and advised he had been shown a photograph, approximately 12" x 11", of the President in his automobile as it was turning from Houston to Elm Street. In the background, JACK RUBY could be seen standing on the curb at the corner of Houston and Elm.

Mr. JOHNSON stated the photograph was taken by a Mr. MORRIS, who formerly owned the Morris Stores in Dallas and now owns several buildings in Snider Plaza. Mr. MORRIS had the photograph in the Ray Sullivan Insurance Agency, at 6408 Snider Plaza, which is a building owned by MORRIS. Mr. JOHNSON advised Mr. MORRIS' residence or office could be obtained from RAY SULLIVAN at 6408 Snider Plaza.

The following investigation, conducted by SA PAUL L. SCOTT at Dallas, Texas, was based on information received that a Mr. MORRIS, who formerly owned the MORRIS stores in Dallas and now owns several buildings in Snider Plaza, had taken a photograph of the President in his automobile as it was turning from Houston to Elm Street, and in the background JACK RUBY could be seen standing on the curb at the corner of Houston and Elm.

On January 9, 1964, Mr. MORRIS WEINKRANTZ, 5508 Forest Lane, Dallas, advised that several days after the assassination of President KENNEDY he purchased an enlarged photograph of President KENNEDY and the Presidential party from a Negro, identity unknown, who was selling these photographs on Forest Avenue in Dallas. The Negro told him that the photograph had been taken of the President in his automobile as it was turning from Houston onto Elm Street and that JACK RUBY was standing in the background when this photograph was taken. Mr. WEINKRANTZ said the man with the hat, standing in the upper right of the photograph behind the man with the camera in his hand, had been pointed out to him as JACK RUBY, and the woman without glasses back of this man was supposedly one of the girls who had worked for JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club.

Mr. WEINKRANTZ made available this photograph for copying.

SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS has observed a photograph, which includes the late President JOHN F. KENNEDY in an automobile during the parade on November 22, 1963. This photograph was furnished by Mr. MORRIS WEINKRANTZ on January 9, 1964, and purportedly was taken at a point where the President's car was turning from Houston Street to Elm Street.

According to Mr. WEINKRANTZ, an individual standing in the upper right of the photograph behind the man with a camera in his hand had been pointed out to him as being JACK RUBY.

SA CLEMENTS, who interviewed RUBY over a period of some three and one-half hours on December 21, 1963, advises the photograph does not in his opinion include anyone closely resembling JACK RUBY.

BARNEY BAKER is a former organizer for the Central States Conference of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters Union and was a reported muscle and bagman for Teamster President JAMES RIDDLE HOFFA.

BARNEY BAKER was interviewed at his residence, 5900 Sheridan Road, Apartment 5E. He advised that he was released from Sandstone Penitentiary June 7, 1963, and is presently employed as field representative for the Chicago Loop Auto Refinishing Company, Incorporated, paint factory, 3216 South Shields Avenue, Chicago.

BAKER advised that on November 11, 1963, his wife CAROLINE called him at his office and told him that he had just received a long distance telephone call from Dallas, Texas, at his home phone of RA 8-4031. His wife stated that it was requested that he return the call and ask for LOU. BAKER advised that he cannot recall the telephone number that he called in Texas, but stated he did return the call the same day from his office telephone which is Chicago number 225-0560. He stated that upon completion of the call to the Dallas number he told the person who answered that he was BARNEY BAKER and that he was returning a call to someone at that number. He stated that the person on the other end of the line said "That's me. My name is (BAKER could not recall the first name) RUBY." This person then told BAKER "You don't know me but we have mutual friends." BAKER said he asked who the mutual friends were but RUBY simply said "We got friends but I don't want to talk over the phone." According to BAKER, RUBY then related that he was in the burlesque and strip show business in Dallas and that competitors were "attempting to knock me out." He advised that he needed a favor and BAKER asked what the favor was. RUBY related that he had several strip shows operating in the Dallas area and said that the American Guild of Variety Artists (AGVA) "are giving me a headache." He told BAKER that competitors through the help of the AGVA were "giving me a fit." BAKER stated that RUBY suggested that "mutual friends" had advised that BAKER was familiar with unions and handling matters such as this and requested that BAKER contact the AGVA and "straighten them out."

BAKER advised that he had not known JACK RUBY prior to the call but RUBY spoke in a fast and erratic manner making it rather difficult to understand him. BAKER stated that he advised RUBY that he had been released from prison in June, 1963, and that part of the provisions of his five years probation were that he should not engage in any labor management relations activities during the probation period. BAKER recalled that RUBY attempted to persuade him to intercede with the AGVA for him but BAKER concluded the conversation by firmly declining to offer any assistance in the matter.

BAKER advised that as a result of his former capacity as union organizer, he had many friends some of whom were influential politicians and high ranking hoodlums. He stated, however, that he forgot about the conversation with RUBY and did not attempt to determine who the "mutual friends" were who had referred RUBY to him at that time. He stated, however, that after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and the subsequent murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK RUBY, he made inquiry of numerous persons in an attempt to determine who referred RUBY to him. He stated the results of the inquiry were negative and he still has no idea as to the identity of the individual who suggested that RUBY contact him at Chicago.

"Well Jack now that Things have sorta quited down I will drop you a fue lines, Jack you probley dont Remember this Picture or that is this Picture of This Person, But I will sorta reFresh your memory a Little, now think Back not to far for it was say about Last May I Came into your night club and this Fellow was with me I interduced this Person to You and while we were sitting their in come this other Fellow and up jumped this Fellow I interduced to you and he went over to where this Person was and brought him Back to where we were sitting he interduced him to us Both Remember Yes the one and only OSWALD he shouted and you jumped up and started to through this Person out in the pictre and said you will never get me, than in a fue days i came back into your night club and their you and This Person OSWALD sit, This Person of which interduced OSWALD to you and me he is Back East now I'am gong back in a Fue days, he said as long as OSWALD is dead now he hoped that you will never talk, I will Tell the old gang hello For I Know you would want me to So Long For now Jack will Try to get to your Trials.

"FRED"

The above letter enclosed a photograph of a white male bearing the following printed notation at the top left-hand corner: "LENORA (D) Remember Him". The letter was postmarked Portland, Oregon, on December 8, 1963, bearing no return address and addressed to JACK RUBINSTEIN, In Care of the Dallas County Jail, Dallas, Texas. The entire letter as well as the envelope was printed.

The following investigation was conducted by SA EDMOND C. HARDIN at Dallas, Texas:

The following individuals, on dates indicated, were shown the photograph of an unidentified white male bearing the notation "LENORA (D) Remember Him", who advised that they have never seen this individual to their knowledge and have no information as to his identity:

Mr. SIDNEY EDWARD VOEBEL, commonly known as EDWARD VOEBEL, was interviewed at his place of employment, Quality Flower Shop, Inc., 4916 Canal Street, likewise his residence address.

He was shown a photograph of several patrons in the business establishment of JACK RUBY, Dallas, Texas, it having been alleged that one of the individuals pictured in the foreground is possibly LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that he knows without question that the person to which referred is not OSWALD. He continued that, among other reasons for so stating, OSWALD had darker, wavier hair than the person in the photograph, and that the facial features of the individual pictured are unlike those of OSWALD.

Mr. VOEBEL continued by saying that he first saw the photograph in the latter part of November or early part of December, 1963, when a person whose identity he did not know came to the flower shop. Thrusting the photograph before Mr. VOEBEL, this person inquired if the person seated in the foreground could possibly have been OSWALD. Mr. VOEBEL stated at that point that it could not. He advised that this individual had said something to the effect he was with an organization identified by its initials, much like a representative of the Associated Press (AP) or United Press International (UPI), and this individual left the impression he was with one of the national wire services. Mr. VOEBEL stated this person then left the premises and has not been seen since.

Mr. TERRY A. FRIEDMAN, 416 North Labarre Road, was interviewed at "The Times-Picayune", where he is employed as a photographer. New Orleans, Louisiana

He was shown a photograph of several patrons in the business establishment of JACK RUBY at Dallas, Texas. He said he had previously been shown the same photograph by the person who took it, Mr. EDWARD ROCCO, free-lance photographer. Mr. FRIEDMAN continued by saying he originally had told Mr. ROCCO the person seated in the foreground looked like LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said he had no actual basis for saying this, as OSWALD was never known to him. He advised the statement was intended only as conversation and was by no means intended as an identification. Mr. FRIEDMAN then stated he has no knowledge whatsoever of the identity of the person in question.

He continued by saying that he was introduced to Mr. ROCCO at "The Times-Picayune" in the latter part of November or early part of December, 1963, by Mr. SAM SUMMERLIN, Associated Press (AP) Bureau Chief in New Orleans. He said he had never seen Mr. ROCCO before and has not seen him since. He advised Mr. SUMMERLIN did not participate in the conversation, as he left after making the introductions. Mr. FRIEDMAN concluded by saying that he could add nothing additional to the facts concerning the occasion of his conversation with Mr. ROCCO.

With reference to information received from Attorney SEARCY LEE JOHNSON, Dallas, Texas, on December 31, 1963, that one RUSS MOORE, a disk jockey at Station KLIF, Dallas, had mentioned to him sometime ago that one of the station's engineers had indicated he was doing a rewiring job at one of JACK RUBY's clubs and was of the opinion he had observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD at that time, the following investigation was conducted by SA HAROLD R. DOBSON:

Mr. RUSSELL LEE MOORE, also known as RUSS KNIGHT, "The Weird Beard", residence 2715 Barnes Branch Road, Dallas, Texas, employed as a disk jockey by Radio Station KLIF, 2104 Jackson, Dallas, advised on January 3, 1964, he was unable to recall ever receiving information from anyone that one of the station engineers had observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD in one of JACK RUBY's clubs while performing a rewiring job at such club. He was likewise unable to recall ever stating to anyone he had received information to that effect.

He advised that there is only one engineer assigned to the station at its office at the above address, MIKE EDWARDS, and that other engineers are stationed at the station's transmitter site. Mr. MOORE stated he had previously been interviewed by Bureau Agents concerning his contacts and association with JACK RUBY, which had consisted of doing some radio advertising for RUBY approximately one and one-half years ago; observing RUBY bowling at the Cotton Bowling Palace in Dallas, occasionally after work, and a visit from RUBY at the station on the evening of November 23, 1963, following the assassination of the President and the apprehension of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. MOORE had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of the President and had no knowledge or information concerning any connection between OSWALD and RUBY. He had no knowledge or information as to why RUBY shot OSWALD. He was aware that RUBY was generally acquainted with members of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department, but he had no information as to the identities of specific officers with whom RUBY was associated.

Mr. LOGAN Z. "MIKE" EDWARDS, residence 6038 Linden Lane, Dallas, Chief Engineer, Radio Station KLIF, Dallas, advised on January 4, 1964, that following the assassination of the President on November 22, 1963, he was in conversation with one of the station's radio engineers assigned to the station transmitter, DONALD C. STUART, 1505 North Fitzhugh, Dallas, who advised him that approximately two weeks prior to the Presidential assassination and the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, JACK RUBY had entered an electronics shop in which he, STUART, was a partner, accompanied by an individual who, from the photographs of OSWALD, might have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD. RUBY at that time had requested STUART to bid on the rewiring of the sound system at the Carousel Club.

At the time of Mr. EDWARDS' conversation with STUART, STUART had not advised the authorities of the above information and asked EDWARDS to whom such information should be furnished. EDWARDS told him he should immediately report the information to both the FBI and the Dallas Police Department. Mr. EDWARDS saw STUART on Tuesday, following the shooting of OSWALD, at which time STUART indicated he had not yet found time to report his information to the authorities, whereupon EDWARDS told him if he did not report same forthwith he himself would call the authorities. Mr. EDWARDS stated that STUART then called both the FBI and the Dallas Police Department, and he personally knew that STUART had been subsequently interviewed fully by Special Agents of the FBI concerning the matter.

Mr. EDWARDS was not acquainted with either JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no information that they were in any way associated with each other.

Investigation has previously established the individual referred to by DONALD C. STUART as having been in company of RUBY was CURTIS LA VERNE CRAFARD, not OSWALD.

AT GALVESTON, TEXAS:

On December 4, 1963, ALVIN HARRINGTON, salesman, Factory Outlet Shoe Store, advised SA CARLOS L. KIRBY, JR., that on November 25, 1963, an unknown white female appeared at the store and purchased a pair of shoes. While at the above store, this unknown female related she has a friend who has an acquaintance in New Orleans, Louisiana, who operates a rooming house, and this acquaintance at one time rented a room to LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but the landlady found some Communist literature in OSWALD's room and requested him to move.

The unknown female also reported that a station wagon picked up OSWALD at the rooming house in New Orleans, Louisiana, and the landlady obtained the license number from the station wagon, which license number reportedly was listed to JACK RUBY.

ALVIN HARRINGTON and other employees at the factory outlet store, Galveston, Texas, advised they have no idea as to the identity of the unknown female (customer) referred to above.

JESSE JAMES GARNER advised that he observed the station wagon with Texas license plate in which Mrs. OSWALD and the baby departed. He said this station wagon was cream colored and was driven by a lady who had two small children. He said that he did not obtain the license number but did observe that it was a Texas license plate. He advised that he has seen photographs of JACK RUBY in the newspapers and on television and that he has never seen him in New Orleans and that he knows of no connection between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. GARNER stated that shortly before OSWALD was arrested by the New Orleans Police Department, probably the day before, Mrs. GARNER told him that OSWALD had two posters attached to the screen porch of his apartment at 4905 Magazine Street. This occurred sometime between 4:30 and 5:00 p.m. after GARNER got home from work. He said that he went over to the OSWALD apartment and observed the posters which read "Hands Off Cuba." He told OSWALD to remove the posters, and OSWALD asked him, "Who rejected?" GARNER replied that he objected and that if OSWALD did not remove the posters, he would have to move.

GARNER related that OSWALD immediately took the two posters down. Mr. GARNER said that he did not know of any other place of residence which OSWALD had in New Orleans, other than the apartment in which he lived at 4905 Magazine Street.

Mrs. JESSE JAMES GARNER advised that she did not know of any rooming house in which LEE HARVEY OSWALD resided, and his only place of residence known to her is the apartment which he resided at 4905 Magazine Street. She said that shortly before OSWALD was arrested by the New Orleans Police Department, she observed two posters which read "Hands Off Cuba" hanging on the front porch of the OSWALD apartment. She called this to the attention of her husband, and Mr. GARNER made OSWALD remove the pamphlets.

Mrs. GARNER said that the station wagon which brought Mrs. OSWALD and the child to New Orleans was the same one which picked up Mrs. OSWALD and the baby when they left New Orleans. This station wagon was driven by a lady and had a Texas license plate on it. She did not recall the license number. Mrs. GARNER stated that she had seen photographs of JACK RUBY on television and in the newspapers and that she never observed RUBY in New Orleans and that she knows of no connection or association between OSWALD and RUBY.

Miss MARILYN MURRET, 757 French Street, cousin of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, advised as follows:

OSWALD arrived at the home of her mother, 757 French Street, where MARILYN lives, in the spring of 1963. OSWALD advised that he had come from Texas where his wife and child were staying at the home of a woman who speaks Russian. OSWALD stayed at the MURRET home for about a week until he had obtained a job and rented an apartment on Magazine Street. She does not know the address of this apartment. It is the only place she knows of that OSWALD rented. She saw on television the landlady of this apartment who stated she asked her husband to request OSWALD to remove a poster or leaflet, which apparently was in praise of CASTRO or Cuba. This was apparently pasted or hung somewhere on the front of the apartment OSWALD had rented. As best she could recall this television interview, the landlady said her husband told OSWALD that if he did not remove the poster or leaflet that he would have to move. OSWALD removed it. Miss MURRET was not aware of any room OSWALD had rented or of any communist literature found in the room. She stated that if there is such a rumor it was probably confused with the above incident.

She does not know of any contacts between OSWALD and JACK RUBY. She had never heard RUBY's name mentioned prior to the murder of OSWALD by RUBY. The only station wagon she is aware of that has any connection with OSWALD is the station wagon which was driven by the lady from Texas, who brought OSWALD's wife and child to New Orleans. She did not see this station wagon herself, although she was at home when the woman arrived with OSWALD's wife and child. Her mother told her they had arrived in a station wagon. MARILYN was in the house getting ready to go out and this woman came into the house for a few minutes, and she was introduced to her but she did not recall her name. She assumes it was the Mrs. PAYNE who was reported in the newspaper as being the woman at whose house OSWALD's wife and child had stayed.

MYRTLE EVANS, 1910 Prytania Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, was interviewed at her place of residence and advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD contacted her relative to an apartment during the first week of May, 1963. She advised that at this time she and OSWALD spent about three hours together conversing mainly about OSWALD's family.

She advised that OSWALD told her that he (OSWALD) was currently living with his aunt on French Street. She stated OSWALD did not say anything to her about living in a rooming house and that she knew of none in which OSWALD resided prior to his occupancy of the Magazine St. apartment. She stated she knows of no station wagon picking up OSWALD at a New Orleans rooming house nor does she know of any landlady obtaining communist literature from OSWALD's room. She advised she was under the distinct impression that OSWALD had been residing with his aunt prior to the time that he occupied the Magazine Street apartment.

Mrs. CHARLES F. MURRET, 757 French Street, furnished the following information:

She knows nothing concerning her nephew, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, ever living in any rooming house. She knows nothing about any landlady finding communist literature in his room and requesting him to move. She stated she had seen on television the landlady of the Magazine Street apartment where LEE and his family had lived while in New Orleans in the spring and summer of 1963, and the landlady said she had asked LEE to remove a pro-Castro sign from the front of his apartment which LEE did. Mrs. MURRET saw no communist literature in LEE's possession while he stayed at her house for about a week after he arrived in New Orleans in late April or early May, 1963, prior to moving to the apartment. She knows of no other place where he lived in New Orleans after his arrival in the spring.

She knows of no connection between LEE OSWALD and JACK RUBY. She does not know and had never heard of JACK RUBY prior to RUBY shooting LEE. The only station wagon she saw in connection with LEE OSWALD was the station wagon which a lady was driving who brought LEE's wife, MARINA, and child, to the MURRET home to meet LEE and who then drove LEE and his family to the Magazine Street apartment that LEE had rented. LEE told Mrs. MURRET the woman was the woman with whom his wife had been staying in Texas. Mrs. MURRET may have been told the woman's name but does not recall. She now assumes her name is Mrs. PAYNE, inasmuch as newspaper accounts have stated MARINA had been staying at Mrs. PAYNE's home in Texas.

JOHN M. MURRET, 6622 Louis XXIV Street, advised as follows:

He is a cousin of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Sometime in the spring of 1963, OSWALD arrived at the home of his mother at 757 French Street, where MURRET was living at the time. OSWALD stayed at the house about a week and then rented an apartment on Magazine Street. The Magazine Street apartment was the only place he knows of where OSWALD lived after moving from MURRET's parents' house.

MURRET knows nothing concerning the finding of any communist literature in OSWALD's room and a landlady requesting him to move. MURRET saw a television interview in which the landlady of the Magazine Street apartment stated that she had requested her husband to ask OSWALD to take down a sign of some sort that was on the screen door or window of the apartment OSWALD was renting. OSWALD did take down the sign.

MURRET knows of no connection between LEE OSWALD and JACK RUBY. The first time he had heard JACK RUBY's name was in connection with RUBY's shooting of OSWALD. The only station wagon he knows of that has any connection with OSWALD is the station wagon which brought OSWALD's wife and child from Texas. MURRET was told by a member of his family that OSWALD's wife and child had been staying with this woman in Texas. The last time he saw OSWALD was on Labor Day, 1963, when he took OSWALD, his wife and child from the MURRET home on French Street to OSWALD's apartment on Magazine Street.

Mrs. MICHAEL R. (RUTH) PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, has been interviewed in connection with other matters.

Mrs. PAINE advised that she first met LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife, MARINA OSWALD, on or about February 22, 1963. This meeting took place at a social gathering and Mrs. PAINE, who spoke Russian, became acquainted with MARINA OSWALD, who only spoke Russian and has no knowledge of the English language. According to Mrs. PAINE, in about April, 1963, Mr. and Mrs. LEE HARVEY OSWALD visited at her home where they had dinner together. It later came to Mrs. PAINE's attention that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had lost his job and had traveled to New Orleans, Louisiana, in early May of 1963, in order to seek employment.

Mrs. PAINE advised that on May 10, 1963, she drove MARINA OSWALD and MARINA's child to New Orleans, Louisiana, to join LEE OSWALD. At the time, LEE OSWALD had an apartment on Magazine Street in New Orleans.

Mrs. PAINE, who was very fond of Mrs. MARINA OSWALD, later became aware that OSWALD had lost his job in New Orleans, Louisiana, and that Mrs. OSWALD was in the late stages of pregnancy with their second child. Accordingly in September of 1963, Mrs. PAINE drove from Irving, Texas, to New Orleans, Louisiana, arriving at the apartment on Magazine Street in the late afternoon of September 20, 1963. She remained at the OSWALD apartment until the morning of September 23, 1963, when she and MARINA and the OSWALD baby departed New Orleans leaving LEE OSWALD there. Prior to leaving New Orleans, Mrs. PAINE went to a service station about a block and a half from the OSWALD residence, located on the same side of the street, where she purchased a new tire for her car, a 1955 green Chevrolet station wagon which then bore 1963 Texas license NK 4041. According to Mrs. PAINE, on leaving New Orleans they drove to a small town in Texas where she and MARINA OSWALD spent the night of September 23, 1963, and on September 24, 1963, they arrived at Irving, Texas.

On December 12, 1963, Mr. ROBERT LYON, Vice President, Bank of Commerce, Washington, D. C., made available to SA WARREN L. LOVE a letter which had been erroneously delivered to that bank.

This letter was addressed to ROBERT B. CHASM, National Bank of Commerce, Washington, D. C., bearing the return address Box 5475, Dallas, Texas. The envelope bore the notation "re: has account in your bank" and contained a letter written in pencil as follows:

"County Jail
"12/6/63

"Dear Mr. CHASM:

"Thank you so much for your faith in me during these trying times. Also want to thank you for your generous donation.

"May the good Lord bless and keep you.

"Your friend
"JACK RUBY"

Mr. LYON noted that there was no National Bank of Commerce located in Washington, D. C., and that records of the Bank of Commerce, Washington, D. C., did not disclose the addressee to be an employee or that there was any banking relationship with addressee.

On December 31, 1963, Mr. ROBERT M. LYON, Vice President, Bank of Commerce, advised SA LOVE that in his opinion the notation "has account in your bank" on the bottom of the envelope was written by RUBY because it was in similar handwriting as that contained in the envelope on the letter signed by RUBY. He theorized that the above notation was placed on the envelope because the donation to RUBY was in the form of a check drawn on a National Bank of Commerce and RUBY presumably did not have the contributor's address.

Mr. ROBERT B. CHASM, sales manager, Standard Tire and Battery Company, 10th and H Streets, N. E., Washington, D. C., advised that he resides at 810 Larch Street, Takoma Park, Maryland. R B Chasm

CHASM stated that during the first week of December, 1963, he had mailed a check to JACK LEON RUBY to assist in his legal defense at his forthcoming trial for the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. This check in the amount of $10 was drawn on the National Bank of Washington, Washington, D. C. He addressed the envelope forwarding this checked to "Mr. TOM HOWARD, Attorney for JACK RUBY, Dallas, Texas."

CHASM advised that he had enclosed a note to RUBY which to the best of his recollection was as follows:

"Enclosed please find my check for $10 which I hope will be multiplied by thousands more in order to help your defense. Hope you will be acquitted. Put your trust in God and your lawyer because I do.

"R. B. CHASM"

CHASM stated that the above check had not been returned on his last bank statement and presumably has not yet been cashed by RUBY. He has not received any reply from RUBY or his defense attorney acknowledging receipt of this check.

CHASM explained that he was not personally acquainted with RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD having never heard of these individuals prior to the events which took place following the President's assassination. CHASM has never visited Dallas, Texas, and has resided in the Washington, D. C., area for the past 15 years.

He explained the following circumstances as being responsible for his sending this contribution to RUBY:

On November 23, 1963, the day following the President's assassination, his mother-in-law, who was in ill health, had passed away. He attributed her death in part to her grief over the President's assassination. CHASM and his wife were also grief stricken by these events.

In subsequent conversations many of his relatives and acquaintances in discussing these events appeared to attach more guilt to RUBY than to OSWALD. In addition, he noted in the papers that many people were forwarding donations to the widow of the policeman shot by OSWALD as well as to OSWALD's widow. No one appeared to be in sympathy with RUBY and on the contrary it appeared that many people were overlooking the fact that OSWALD was the person responsible for this terrible crime.

He feels that RUBY was emotionally upset at the time he shot OSWALD and did not commit this act for any personal gain or recognition.

Another factor was a press statement made by the prosecuting attorney in Dallas, Texas, to the effect that he had previously secured death penalty convictions and would also secure the death penalty for RUBY apparently without regard to the unusual circumstances.

CHASM stated that in view of the above he had decided to send this contribution as a humanitarian gesture; however, he emphatically denied that he was ever acquainted with RUBY.

Major WILFORD CARLISLE, Personnel Section, 5th Army Headquarters, Hyde Park Boulevard and Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois, advised that Master Sergeant CARL C. DEWEY in May, 1963, was assigned to the Chicago area for close observation and supervision and to determine his current abilities and habits.

In November, 1963, a request was made that Sergeant DEWEY be relieved from the intelligence corps based on a history of alcoholism and indiscretions involving the civilian community which reflected unfavorably on the corps. An informal investigation was conducted regarding a neighborhood incident in which Sergeant DEWEY was involved, but none of the neighbors were willing to testify regarding the incident so there were no court-martial proceedings against Sergeant DEWEY; however, Sergeant DEWEY has been withdrawn from his investigative status and badge and credentials removed.

In a statement by Sergeant DEWEY, he admitted that he is probably an alcoholic and has been in Alcoholics Anonymous. The statement made by the Sergeant set out his past military history and neighborhood history. A copy of the statement made by Sergeant DEWEY was directed by him to the then President, JOHN F. KENNEDY, because of "humane actions of the President in the past". The personnel file on Sergeant DEWEY indicates that he has never been court-martialed and has had no other difficulties.

He was recently given a psychiatric evaluation and treatment examination and the diagnostic impression was that he has a passive-aggressive personality with alcoholism, moderate, chronic.

The following description was obtained from the personnel file regarding Sergeant DEWEY:

| Name | CARL C. DEWEY |

On December 23, 1963, Mrs. DOROTHY FAZZINO, housewife, 76 Tyler Avenue, West Sayville, New York, advised SA JOHN J. RAGAN she sent a telegram to JACK RUBY in Dallas, Texas, because the events surrounding President KENNEDY's death had overwhelmed her; she felt she had to do something and at the time, she considered RUBY's action appropriate. She said she does not know RUBY or OSWALD and had never heard of them prior to the Dallas incident. She has never been in Dallas or any further from home than Alabama.

LEO S. FIENSTEIN, 7 Nautilus Avenue, Plainview, New York, was interviewed SAS TIMOTHY B. LAGRONE and ROBERT J. LAWSON on December 26, 1963. FIENSTEIN was interviewed at Lane's Hardware Store, 907 7th Avenue, New York City, where he is a partner in that business.

FIENSTEIN stated that upon hearing the news about the assassination of the late President KENNEDY, he was enraged and emotionally upset, stating that he felt as though a member of his own family had been assassinated. Upon receiving the news that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been shot and killed by JACK RUBY, he felt that RUBY had performed an act that he himself would have done had he had the opportunity. He further stated that he himself is a law abiding citizen not prone to be violent, however, he could not condemn RUBY for killing OSWALD, and felt that RUBY had done a service to his country by killing OSWALD. After learning that RUBY had killed OSWALD, he sent a telegram to RUBY in care of the Dallas Police, as he felt he would like RUBY to know that he had performed an act that met with full approval of all law abiding citizens.

FIENSTEIN said that he had never heard of RUBY prior to above shooting nor would he have any way of knowing if there had been any conspiracy between RUBY and OSWALD concerning the assassination. In conclusion, FIENSTEIN said that from the newspaper accounts, he was aware that the Federal Bureau of Investigation was attempting to determine if there was any connection or conspiracy between OSWALD and RUBY, and in the event this is determined, he was definitely opposed to what RUBY had done, and further hoped that RUBY was punished to the fullest extent of the law.

ROBERT BENJAMIN FRANK, Room 814, Devonshire Hotel, 19 East Ohio, Chicago, furnished the following information:

He has lived at the above address for about 10 years and is presently employed as a swing cook at the La Salle Hotel. Prior to coming to Chicago he lived at 909 East Jefferson in Dallas, Texas, where he was a waiter and part-time drummer. While in Dallas he recalls working at Lucas B & B Restaurant at Irvings, 4437 Lover's Lane and at Arkins, 1101 Commerce.

It was at Irvings that he met JACK RUBY who came in there often to eat. FRANK described RUBY as very personable and a good tipper. He said that RUBY was a sensual person, but had a hot temper if aroused.

He said that on one occasion he "stood in" for RUBY's drummer at the Silver Spur on South Ervay in Dallas, but only played one night as he didn't "dig" that hillbilly music.

FRANK said that the last time he saw RUBY was at Arkins in Dallas some 10 or 11 years ago and had not heard of or from him since that time.

He said that shortly before Christmas he got rather "high" one night and feeling sorry for RUBY sent him a Christmas card with two dollars.

FRANK said he had no knowledge of any hoodlum connections on the part of RUBY.

FRANK said that he was born in San Francisco on September 8, 1923, and described himself as a "drifter."

AT MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN

On January 6, 1964 Mrs. FRANK (KLAZINA) HOLT, 739 South 26 Street, Room 2, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, who said that she usually used the name EVELYN HOLT, advised SA RICHARD C. THOMPSON as follows:

Shortly after JACK RUBY shot LEE OSWALD, she sent a telegram to JACK RUBY, Dallas, Texas, congratulating him. She did this because she was deeply shaken by the assassination of President KENNEDY and because of her enthusiasm over the shooting of OSWALD and her sympathy for JACK RUBY. She said that she sent the telegram on her own initiative, although she felt that her husband would have wanted her to do so--having heard through her sister-in-law, VIOLA KRIER, whose address she believes to be 1222 West Mitchell Street, Milwaukee, that FRANK HOLT had telephoned from parts unknown expressing his approval of RUBY's action.

Mrs. HOLT said that she was not acquainted with RUBY nor with OSWALD nor did she have any information about either except through public sources. She said she did not know whether they were previously acquainted. She also said that to the best of her knowledge her husband didn't know either RUBY or OSWALD.

Mrs. HOLT said that her husband was absent from home at the time the telegram was sent and is again absent from home--his whereabouts being unknown to Mrs. HOLT. She said that he was home for a very short time about two weeks ago but left again. She attributed his absence to his being part Indian, stating that she felt he inherited a tendency to roam and not to stay in one place. She said that she had been married to FRANK HOLT for ten years and during that time he had frequently left home. Mrs. HOLT said that her husband had difficulty in keeping a job because of an arrest record and she said she thought this was one of the causes of his leaving home periodically.

Mrs. HOLT said that she was born in the Netherlands and entered the United States in 1920. She said that she was a U. S. citizen and was currently working as a cook although she has also worked as a nurse. She said that she was loyal to the United States and as an admirer of President KENNEDY had been terribly shocked by his assassination.

On January 1, 1964, JOHN E. HUNTER, 1421 West 45th Street, Los Angeles, California, phone 292-3302, advised the telegram he sent to the Dallas Police Department, was directed to the Chief of Police of that department and not to JACK RUBY. He did not know the name of RUBY at the time the telegram was sent. He said he did not know RUBY or LEE OSWALD.

NY 44-974

Mr. JOSEPH BALTHAZAR LAMBERTA, Attorney-At-Law, 1517 Franklin Avenue, Mineila, New York, was interviewed on December 19, 1963, by SAS FRANCIS J. SANDIN and ARTHUR D. KEEFE, JR. LAMBERTA advised he was enraged at the fact that President JOHN F. KENNEDY was shot and killed by LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said that he had been to church on the Sunday following the President's death and prayers were said during the Mass for the late President.

Mr. LAMBERTA advised that this caused him to think additionally of what a fine young man President KENNEDY had been and of the late President's wonderful family.

He stated that upon leaving the Church after Mass, an unknown woman mentioned that LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who had killed the President, was shot. Mr. LAMBERTA stated that upon hearing this, he felt a sense of relief in that OSWALD had received his "just deserts." LAMBERTA said that he felt, at that time, that OSWALD would not have been convicted for the crime he had done, and no direct evidence existed against OSWALD. He said that he did not know anything of JACK RUBY's background and on an impulse sent to RUBY, in care of Chief of Police in Dallas, Texas, a telegram. Mr. LAMBERTA revealed that he believes that the telegram read, "In gratitude I stand ready to assist you in any way you permit me."

LAMBERTA stated that he never knew OSWALD or RUBY and knows of no association between OSWALD and RUBY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA EDMOND C. HARDIN:

AT DALLAS, TEXAS:

On November 24, 1963, Captain WILL FRITZ, Dallas Police Department, furnished the Dallas Office with several congratulatory telegrams addressed to JACK RUBY, c/o the Dallas Police Department. One such telegram was signed "McLean's Bar and Grill (The Boys)".

A review of the current Dallas Telephone and City Directories failed to reveal a listing for McLean's Bar and Grill. The only business establishment listed is McLean Hair Treatment Parlor, Dallas Health Club Building.

On December 31, 1963, the Dallas Telephone Information Operator, unidentified, advised that she could locate no listing for McLean's Bar and Grill.

On January 3, 1964, BRUCE MC LEAN, owner, McLean Hair Treatment Parlor, 1323 Dallas Health Club Building, 1805 Elm Street, who has been previously interviewed, advised as follows:

MC LEAN stated that JACK RUBY has been a regular customer at his place of business for some time but added that he has already furnished information concerning his acquaintance of RUBY to the FBI on a former occasion. MC LEAN stated that neither he nor any of his employees, to his knowledge, sent RUBY a congratulatory telegram or any other type communication following RUBY's incarceration. He explained that his employees are all female and, consequently, could not be referred to as "the boys" but stated, in his opinion, this may have been done as a joke on someone's part, knowing that RUBY was a regular customer of MC LEAN's establishment and knowing that the employees are all women.

MC LEAN further stated that he knows of no other establishment in Dallas such as McLean's Bar, Grill, Lunch, Cafe, Restaurant, etc.

PAUL RALPH NEW, who stated he was born January 10, 1940 at Quincy, Massachusetts, and who stated he is an entertainer, describing himself as a vocalist, comedian and musician, currently residing at The Cairo Hotel, 1615 Q Street, North West, Washington, D. C., and performing at the Crescent Restaurant, 1338 New York Avenue, North West, Washington, D. C., advised he travels in connection with his work, but can always be contacted through the Associated Booking Corporation, 203 North Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois or through his father, JOSEPH J. NEW, who is the general manager of the El Mirador Hotel, Sacramento, California.

NEW stated he met JACK RUBY in Dallas, Texas, in the latter part of June 1963. He explained he and his group, which is known as PAUL NEW and the Crew, performed at the Cabana Motor Hotel, Dallas, Texas, during June 1963. In the latter part of June 1963, he was on a break, about 10 P. M., in the Cabana Restaurant, at which time an unknown male approached him and introduced himself as "I'm JACK RUBY. I own the Carousel." RUBY complimented NEW's performance. BOBBY POLLIHAN, the saxophone player with NEW's Crew, was with NEW. With RUBY was an unknown male, white, about 29 years old, 6'4", muscular, good-looking, full head of pitch black hair combed straight back, dark complexion. RUBY introduced this man to NEW, but NEW stated he cannot now recall the man's name. RUBY asked NEW if NEW was married and when told yes, RUBY invited NEW, NEW's wife and the members of NEW's Crew to the Carousel for a few drinks. RUBY took a card from his pocket. This card had JACK RUBY on it and also the Carousel on it. On the back of the card, he wrote, "Please let PAUL NEW and his friends in." NEW stated due to other commitments, he did not get to go to the Carousel.

NEW stated he subsequently saw RUBY about five times in June 1963. On these occasions, RUBY was in the Cabana and was either by himself or with the above unknown male. NEW did not engage RUBY in conversation and both men merely exchanged social amenities.

Shortly after being complimented by RUBY, as above, ROBERT CALLAHAN, a business acquaintance of NEW, who is the business manager for JOHNNY CRAWFORD, the child star in the television show, "The Rifleman", invited NEW to the Vegas Club, Dallas, Texas, which NEW described as an after-hours joint.

ROBERT CALLAHAN, who is well known in the entertainment field in Dallas, took NEW to the Vegas Club. At the door, CALLAHAN introduced a woman to NEW and as NEW now recalls, it was RUBY's sister, name not remembered. While at the Vegas Club, NEW saw the above unknown male who had been with RUBY. This male appeared to be an employee of the Vegas Club, probably the bouncer, and as NEW recalls, he asked CALLAHAN his identity. He believes CALLAHAN told him this male was an ex-boxer.

About November 27, 1963, NEW stated he wrote a letter to RUBY in care of the Dallas Jail. He believes he was in Benton Harbor, Michigan, at the time. He told RUBY he was writing a song, a tribute to President KENNEDY, and wanted to know RUBY's sentiments at the time he killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD. NEW felt this information might assist him in writing the song. NEW advised RUBY has not replied to the letter.

NEW stated the foregoing constitutes his contacts and knowledge of RUBY in their entirety. He stated RUBY never offered him work, although when RUBY approached him as above, he got the initial impression that RUBY was a booking agent. NEW stated he never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of him. He stated he does not know whether RUBY ever met OSWALD, whether RUBY had any knowledge of OSWALD and does not know whether there is any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

Mrs. LILLIAN PACELLI advised she resides at 213 West 24th Street, Chicago, Illinois, telephone CA 5-4817. She is currently employed as Cashier in a drugstore at Illinois Tech, 3200 South Wabash, in Chicago. She stated that approximately 20 years ago, she was one of four women who were employed as Lady Detectives at the Sherman Hotel on North Clark Street in Chicago. Through this employment, she came to know JACK RUBY because of the fact that he frequented the lobby of the Sherman Hotel. She recalled that around 1945, when RUBY was in the army, he gave her a gift of a set of either silver or chrome salt and pepper shakers.

Due to the recent publicity RUBY received in connection with the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, she felt at Christmas time that she would try to build up RUBY and, therefore, sent him a Christmas card and a short letter. She said she has not seen RUBY for the past 18 years and has no knowledge of his activities during that period. She has never been acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She does not know of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

It is understood that the Department now contemplates giving out no information concerning Lee Harvey Oswald but that after the reports concerning Jack Ruby have been reviewed for the purpose of removing any confidential information, they will be shown to Dallas County District Attorney Henry Wade in order that he may indicate the material that would be useful to him and that Mr. Wade will probably be given the material he requests. It is also understood that the Department contemplates furnishing Ruby's attorneys only with a list of the names and addresses of persons who have furnished information having a bearing on Ruby's mental condition.

From your review of these reports, you are undoubtedly aware that in many instances they contain information which may be in the nature of gossip and rumor and which has not been substantiated. Nevertheless, such information represents the views of the persons interviewed and has been reported as it was received by us. This is being called to your attention in view of the fact that if this type of information should be misused or become a matter of public knowledge, it would reflect most unfavorably upon the Department of Justice and the President's Commission.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

This is to advise you that Attorney Joe H. Tonahill, one of Jack Ruby's attorneys, telephonically contacted Mr. J. Gordon Shanklin, the Special Agent in Charge of our Dallas, Texas, Office and advised that he was making available Jack Ruby for all types of scientific tests, including a polygraph examination and administering of truth serum and that he desired this be handled today.

Mr. Shanklin advised Mr. Tonahill that as he was undoubtedly aware the FBI was not handling the murder case involving Jack Ruby, that this was a state case.

Mr. Tonahill immediately stated that he was advising the FBI so the FBI would make this information available to The President's Commission as he desired The President's Commission to be aware of the fact that he was making Ruby available for such scientific tests.

Mr. Shanklin advised Mr. Tonahill that it might be well for him to personally advise The President's Commission of his desire to make Mr. Ruby available for scientific tests.

AAG Miller advised this afternoon that the reports on Ruby are presently under review in the Department to determine whether there is any confidential or objectionable material which should be removed before the reports are shown to Dallas County District Attorney Wade. The review will also identify persons who have furnished information bearing on Ruby's mental condition.

As soon as the file review can be completed, Wade will be permitted to look through the reports to determine what material he considers of value to the prosecution, and the Department will then decide whether to make the material available to him and will probably give him what he wants. Upon completion of the file review the Department will also write to Ruby's counsel, furnishing a list of names and addresses of persons who have given information bearing on Ruby's sanity.

Mr. Miller commented that if the Bureau is in a position to tell him what, if any, information should be removed from the reports before they are shown to Wade, arrangements could be immediately made for Wade to see the reports and further review by the Department in this regard would be unnecessary. Mr. Miller was advised that the Bureau would defer to the judgment of the Department as to what information should or should not be made available to Wade.

ACTION:

We will continue to follow this matter closely with the Department until it is fully resolved.

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY
AND THE KILLING OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD
VISUAL AIDS

Messrs. James J. Rowley, Chief, U. S. Secret Service, and John E. Campion, Aide to the Assistant Chief for Security, visited the FBI on 1-13-64 for the purpose of viewing the re-enactment of the happenings surrounding the captioned events using the visual aids prepared by the FBI to demonstrate specific situations.

They were most impressed with the hour and one-half briefing, both remarking that they now have a much clearer conception of the physical makeup of each site. Chief Rowley stated that these exhibits would be extremely valuable to those Secret Service agents who made up the motorcade personnel to testify before the President's Commission in the event they were subpoenaed. He would very much appreciate receiving a copy of the visual aids brochure which describes the exhibits.

The Director has approved furnishing 28 copies of this brochure to the President's Commission. There appears to be no reason why this information cannot be made available to the Secret Service for their official use, other than the fact that the Director may wish to first consider furnishing copies to the President and/or the Attorney General.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the Director approve furnishing a copy of the brochure to Chief Rowley, U. S. Secret Service, for his official use.

U. S. Attorney Barefoot Sanders and his assistant B. H. Timmons, Jr., Dallas, conferred with Special Agents 1/14/64 concerning demands of prosecution and defense for production of FBI reports and the testimony of Special Agents at Ruby's bond hearing January 20, 1964.

Mr. Sanders advised that he had talked with Defense Attorney Tonahill on 12/24/63 relative to the testimony which would be expected of the Agents at the bond hearing. Tonahill said he anticipated questions of the defense would be restricted to information supplied by Ruby to Agents at interviews on 11/24/63 at Dallas Police Department and on 12/21/63 at the Dallas County Jail. Mr. Sanders furnished this information to the Department.

Mr. Sanders also said he had advised the Department of press reports that the defense was now demanding all FBI reports and of a press interview of Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr to the effect that Carr had been assured of getting files of the FBI and the President's Commission for delivery to District Attorney Wade at Dallas.

U. S. Attorney Sanders also advised that on 1/14/64 he had talked to Mr. Foley, who is assistant to Assistant Attorney General Miller, and advised Foley he feels if FBI records are furnished to the prosecution, both the Department and the FBI would be in an extremely bad position to refuse to furnish same to the defense. Mr. Foley said that he would advise Sanders of the Department's desires and instructions as to the testimony of the Agents at the bond hearing and regarding furnishing of FBI records to District Attorney Wade and to the defense.

RE: JACK L. RUBY, AKA.

It is noted that a request has been received both from the prosecution and the defense in this matter for all FBI reports and records concerning both Ruby and Oswald. The requests have been discussed with Assistant Attorney General (AAG) Miller of the Department and with Mr. Rankin of the President's Commission who presently have the matter under consideration as to specifically what records will be furnished to whom. District Attorney Wade and Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr have been advised that the matter of furnishing records is under consideration by the Department and the President's Commission.

The defense request that two Agents testify at Ruby's bond hearing on 1/20/64 as to statements made by Ruby in their presence immediately subsequent to his arrest on 11/24/63 and at their interview with Ruby on 12/21/63 was previously discussed with AAG Miller on 1/8/64 and he was advised that the Bureau would defer to his views as to whether or not the Agents would be allowed to testify. Miller said that he desired the Agents to testify and that he would insure that the U. S. Attorney or one of his representatives was present to protect the Government interest. Dallas was instructed on 1/9/64 that the Agents who interviewed Ruby should testify at the bond hearing with the U. S. Attorney present and that the testimony should be limited to the facts surrounding the interview of Ruby. Dallas has requested specific instructions as to whether or not they should testify only to the fact that they interviewed Ruby or as to information furnished to them by Ruby.

Dallas stated that unless advised to the contrary, the Agents will appear for testimony without notes or interview reports regarding their interviews with Ruby as suggested by U. S. Attorney Sanders. Dallas did prepare interview reports regarding their three interviews with Ruby and if a demand is made by the defense the Agents would be obligated under the Jencks Law to produce these interview reports. Dallas also has retained possession of the Agents' notes made at the time of the interviews.

This question was discussed by SAs Hines and Martindale with AAG Miller 1/16/64, who stated that when the Agents were called to testify that it would be entirely appropriate that they take with them the interview reports or notes of interviews and produce them if called upon to do so. He telephonically contacted U. S. Attorney Sanders with the Agents present and told him that the Agents would take with them the interview reports and notes re the interviews and produce them if called upon and U. S. Attorney Sanders agreed that this would be proper.

They also asked to be advised as to whether or not, if questioned, they should furnish an opinion as to Ruby's mental or emotional state during the time of the interview.

1. Dallas has been instructed in accordance with the previous request of AAG Miller on 1/8/64 to testify specifically as to the facts of the interviews with Ruby on 11/24/63, 11/25/63 and 12/21/63, statements made by Ruby in their presence and any information furnished by Ruby to the Agents. (It is noted that Agents actually interviewed Ruby on three occasions, 11/24/63, 11/25/63 and 12/21/63, rather than two as mentioned by Defense Attorney Tonahill on 11/24/63 and 12/21/63.)

2. Dallas has been informed of the discussion with Mr. Miller of Mr. Miller's discussion with U. S. Attorney Barefoot Sanders. Dallas has been instructed that Agents should take interview report forms and notes with them when they testify and produce them if they are requested to do so.

3. Dallas has been instructed that the Agents must confine their testimony specifically to the facts of the interviews, statements made by Ruby in their presence and information furnished by Ruby to the Agents and that, under no circumstances, are they to furnish any opinion or conclusion as to Ruby's mental or emotional state at the time of their contacts with Ruby.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated January 10, 1964, requesting the original documents contained in three metal boxes which were referred to on page 828 in the report in the Jack Ruby case of Special Agent Manning C. Clements, dated November 30, 1963, at Dallas, Texas.

We have been advised that the material you desire is in the possession of the Dallas Police Department. This material will be obtained and forwarded to you when it is received.

In addition to this material, we are in possession of copies of four handwritten letters in the Russian language dated May 16, July 14, July 21 and August 24, 1963, directed to Mrs. Marina Oswald from Mrs. Ruth Paine. These letters were found by the Dallas Police Department among the possessions of Mrs. Oswald subsequent to the assassination. Enclosed are two copies each of translations of these letters.

In addition, we have learned that subsequent to the assassination, Mrs. Marina Oswald was in receipt of an undated letter in the Russian language believed to have been dispatched by Mrs. Paine. Two copies of a translation of this letter are enclosed.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE:

Incoming notes from our 12/2/ Dallas report in Oswald case that Mrs. Paine admitted corresponding with Marina Oswald in Russian. It notes that according to our 11/30 report in Ruby case the Dallas Police were in possession of three metal boxes containing personal correspondence of Mrs. Paine. Apparently, in the belief that copies of Paine's letter to Mrs. Oswald would be among the documents in the metal boxes (such is not the case) the Commission asked that we obtain the original Paine documents. Dallas has obtained them and is sending them. Memo Branigan to Sullivan 1/15/64 in Oswald case stated that when received we would re-review the documents, photograph them for record purposes and forward the originals to the Commission. We do have in our files translations of five letters sent by Mrs. Paine to Mrs. Oswald and as these are undoubtedly the documents Commission is interested in, we are enclosing copies of full translations.

Dallas advised that a long distance call was made from Ruby's Carousel Club 11-8-63 to Dusty Miller, Eden Roc Hotel, Miami, Florida. The Caller was not identified. Barney Baker of Chicago, who was interviewed on 1-3-64, advised that Ruby had called him on 11-11-63 claiming to have contacted "mutual friends" who had told him that Baker was familiar with union matters which Ruby was trying to have straightened out. Timing of the call to Baker suggests possibility that Miller may have been a mutual friend. Interview of Miller was discussed with Kieffer and Kirtpatrick, Accounting and Fraud Section, who advised that there was no objection to interviewing Miller.

It is noted that page 163 of referenced report sets forth an interview with Mr. Seth Kantor, Scripps-Howard Staff Writer, "Washington Daily News" Building, Washington, D. C., wherein he reiterates his claim that he saw Jack Ruby at the Parkland Hospital on 11-22-63 and states that he now thinks this may have been about 2:00 p.m. rather than 1:28 p.m. as previously stated.

Ruby has, of course, flatly denied that he was at Parkland Hospital on 11-22-63. It is therefore necessary that you immediately explore this point to the fullest possible extent so that it may be positively established as to whether or not Ruby was at the hospital as indicated by Kantor. If he was not at the hospital, you must make every effort to endeavor to establish specifically where he was at the time he was alleged to be at the hospital.

Re: Request for Bureau interviews of Martha Stanton Chadwell and Oscar Krutzner

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I would like the writers of the enclosed letters interviewed by representatives of your Bureau. The interviews should be conducted along the lines prompted by statements made in the respective letters.

However, with respect to the Chadwell letter, it seems that collateral investigation would tend to prove or disprove Mrs. Chadwell's statements as to what she heard Bob Walker say about Ruby indicating an anticipated arrival by the latter prior to the shooting of Oswald. In this connection, we are enclosing a third letter to the Commission--anonymously written--apparently dealing with the same subject matter.

Sincerely,

The following was heard and witnessed by me via TV broadcast of news -- (I am not sure of exact station or channel received here, as I was changing stations every few minutes to try to get latest news or new information regarding why Oswald shot President Kennedy -- I had had ABC channel 13 here, and channel 8 C. B. S.) -- but I'm not sure which it was -- but surely, some where, some other person, and or some recording of this as of other TC broad casts must be available: about, or from 12:00 pm on sunday, following the murder -- Bob Walker Dallas TV news broadcaster was being cut-in for current news about Oswald -- they were supposed to transfer Oswald from city to county Jail -- after what seems to me was a crude, farcial atmos= phere of reporting ie -- it didn't and doesn't seem real honest -- but put on, acted -- he said, (Bob Walker said "For some unknown reason they have delayed the transfer, they are 1 1/2 hours late in so doing -- etc etc -- he had been using 2 telephones simultaneously -- a white one to the outside hook up -- a black one to the basement of the city jail -- he was about to dismiss the white telephone (he did hang up the white receiver) but he said wait a minute I'll check downstairs again -- he leaned over to the right and asked "Is Ruby there yet? -- apparently he didn't get an immediate answer for he again, and this time his face and voice showed tension, much tension -- he said "Is Ruby there" and must have had an affirmative answer for he was immediately relaxed and said "Just a minute, (tho he was using black tele- phone only) I think they are bring Oswald now -- then in a matter of seconds -- a shot was heard -- the scuffling and he ( Bob Walker) said there had been a shooting etc etc -- that an unknown man had shot Oswald -- then he said he'd try to find out who the man was -- shortly giving information that the man was called Ruby -- that's all they knew about him -- then, a little later Walker gave the information that the real name was Rubenstein, etc. etc -- I had wondered who Ruby might be -- a woman police matron or woman personnel employee -- when Walker first asked "Is Ruby there Is Ruby there? Also TV news had previously stated that President Kennedy was thinking of placing Robt. Kennedy as Head of C. I. A. Could some one from the past administration appointed by C. I. A. have wanted to keep Robt. Kennedy out of C. I. A. ? Also, Nixon on the Jack Paar Tonight show the Friday before the 1960 Nov election for President -- Nixon said "For what it may be worth I take full responsibility for this Cuban Invasion -- ie the Bay of Pigs! Why, was J. F. Kennedy blamed for that fiasco! Also what was Walker the military officer

A Reminder

The following reminder of a T.V. news report may prove important in the investigation of "Ruby."

It was before Oswald was shot.

It came over N.B.C. T.V.

A reporter in Dallas was reporting the following:

Ruby and a few men were overheard talking. Punishment for Oswald was being discussed.

One man was quoted as saying "Ruby can take care of that."

Ruby was quoted as answering, "I sure can."

This suggests to the writer of this note that Ruby had already "taken care" of someone, and thos men knew it.

Thanks for listening

Mr. Robert (Bob) Walker, 6222 Preston Crest Lane, Dallas, Texas, News Director, WFAA-TV, Dallas, on January 13, 1964, made available for viewing his video tape reflecting his telecast of proceedings at the Dallas City Hall on the morning of November 24, 1963, prior to, and during, the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald at the Dallas City Hall.

It was noted Walker was relating the activities as they were occurring at the City Hall and which he said was being furnished to him by Bill Lord, News Correspondent for the American Broadcasting Company. During Walker's oration, a voice was heard to say that Oswald had been shot. Walker made numerous inquiries over the telephone in an effort to determine the identity of the person who had shot Oswald, without success, and while making these inquiries an individual, whom Walker identified as Chuck Butt, Jr., who was in the WFAA studios, handed Walker a piece of paper. Walker was observed to place his hand over the microphone and ask Butt "is this verified".

Tex

Walker then made the announcement that Jack Ruby, owner of the Carousel Club, was the individual who had shot Oswald. This was the first time Ruby's name was mentioned by Walker.

Walker further advised WFAA-TV employee Vic Robertson was at the Dallas City Hall at the time of the shooting of Oswald and Robertson had telephonically furnished the television station with the information that Ruby was the individual who had shot Oswald.

GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

The Bureau previously learned of the existence of one safety deposit box in Ruby's name. We advised the District Attorney's Office who caused access to safety deposit box to be gained and it was found to be empty. FBI did not participate in gaining access to this safety deposit box. We have previously been advised that SAs Hall and Clements who interviewed Ruby would be subpoenaed by defense to testify at bond hearing on 1-20-64. This has been cleared with Assistant Attorney General Miller and Dallas has been instructed that Agents should testify in answer to subpoena. Agents will testify only as to statements made by Ruby in their presence and statements made by Ruby to them.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

In response to your letter of January 6, 1964, requesting interviews of Martha Stanton Chadwell and Oscar Krutzner, I am enclosing herewith four letterhead memorandums which set forth the requested interviews and related investigation.

I am also enclosing a copy of the Republican Action Fund Campaign leaflet as mentioned in the interview with Mr. Oscar Krutzner.

Re: No. E-4010-J, The State of Texas vs. Jack Ruby (Criminal District Court No. 3, Dallas County, Texas)

Sirs:

The defendant, Jack Ruby, in the above captioned action will likely go on trial either February 3 or February 10 unless the Court transfers the case to another county in Texas.

Mr. Ruby is represented by chief defense counsel, Melvin M. Belli, Belli Building, San Francisco, California, Sam Brody, Suite 204, 6505 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles 48, California, his associate, and myself as local Texas counsel, having been brought into the case by Mr. Belli.

The purpose of this letter is to request of you and through you the reports, minutes and all evidence of the Commission created by Executive Order 11130 dated November 29, 1963 created by President Lyndon B. Johnson to report upon the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and the shooting of his assailant, Lee Harvey Oswald.

According to press reports, the Attorney General of Texas was in the process of convening an examining court to conduct in Texas an investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy and the shooting by Jack Ruby of his assailant, Lee Harvey Oswald, but this investigation, at the request of the Commission, was halted. This yielding to the request of the Commission by the Attorney General of Texas has deprived the defendant Ruby of much defensive evidence, which otherwise, would have been available to him under Texas process.

EX-111 REC'd 44-24016-984

To date, our investigation reflects, for the most part, that the special agents of the FBI are the only investigative agency doing work for the prosecution in this case and that their material is being submitted daily to the District Attorney's office in Dallas.

As you know, the defendant, Jack Ruby, is presently under indictment for the November 24, 1963 shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald, who assassinated the late John F. Kennedy on November 22, 1963 when Mr. Kennedy was President of the United States. Following the assassination of President Kennedy and the worldwide catastrophe that it produced, President Lyndon B. Johnson appointed the Commission composed of the most distinguished men in the United States for the purpose of ascertaining, evaluating and reporting upon the truth and the true facts relating to the assassination of the late President, The Honorable John F. Kennedy, and the subsequent death of the man (Lee Harvey Oswald) charged with the assassination.

We lawyers who are constituting the trial attorneys for Mr. Ruby understand that such Commission immediately entered upon the discharge of its duties and is now in possession of such truth and true facts.

We are advised from the news media that the FBI has turned its investigative report of the Oswald shootings and the shooting of Oswald over to the Commission and is currently submitting further investigative reports to the Commission, along with the joint investigative efforts of Commission personnel and interested Government agencies.

We assume that the finding of the Commission is intended to be relied upon by the whole world as being true and correct. Further, the Commission was directed to examine the evidence developed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and any additional evidence that may come to light or be uncovered by any Federal or State authorities and to report its findings and conclusions to President Johnson.

As Mr. Ruby's counsel, we desire to observe that while he is charged by the State of Texas with the offense of "murder with malice" of Lee Harvey Oswald, the assailant of the late President Kennedy, yet if Ruby is guilty of any offense under Texas law according to the defense we contemplate urging in his behalf, it could at the very most, for reasons we will discuss, be classed as "murder without malice," which is punishable only by a term of years in the penitentiary, but not by his death, which the Dallas District Attorney's office is seeking, demanding, and attempting to wreak.

The evidence will show that the offense that Ruby is charged with was committed by a person who felt great and deep devotion to President Kennedy and his family and was done under overwhelming provocation, uncontrollable impulse, and mental disease and mental defect of a nature that precluded Ruby from knowing right from wrong at the time of the shooting of Oswald.

Under such circumstances a jury could either find that Mr. Ruby's mental state requires commitment and mental care, or find that the shooting of Oswald was committed under such extreme provocation, uncontrollable impulses and feelings and circumstances as to be "murder without malice."

It will be contended at the trial, and this contention will be buttressed by world renowned psychiatrists and clinical psychologists in the area of dynamic psychiatry, that under Texas law that Ruby was legally insane, and that, among other things, his defense will be that he is not legally responsible for the offense alleged against him because of such mental disease and defect.

In order to prove and show that Ruby can not be guilty of any offense higher than that of "murder without malice" it is necessary for his defense team to prove and be able to prove that the assassin Oswald actually did, in fact, murder and assassinate the late President John F. Kennedy.

Further, the defense is entitled to offer and prove under Texas law that the assailant Oswald was a dangerous man of bad character and reputation and a professed Communist.

The investigative reports which have been and are being delivered to the Commission contain an abundance of evidence that will tend to establish the defenses of the defendant Ruby to the charge against him.

Indeed, much of such proof and facts in possession of the said Commission will be denied the defendant Ruby at his trial unless the Commission releases it forthwith to the defendant Ruby and his counsel for inspection and copying.

The proof and facts in possession of the Commission will indubitably show and prove the defensive elements of Mr. Ruby's defense.

In the interest of American law, truth and justice, and under due process of law under the Texas and United States Constitution, the Commission should, and we so respectfully request of it, make the facts of its investigation producibly available forthwith to the Ruby defense at the earliest possible date for adequate review and evaluation.

Under all the facts and circumstances, particularly in view of the fact that the trial of Ruby's case will attract worldwide attention, Ruby's rights, and American due process of law, will be forever prejudiced and denied if such true facts and findings are not made available to Ruby's defense counsel.

Too, if we are not readily provided the privilege of inspecting and copying the pertinent material contained in the Commission's investigative product prior to the trial of his case, Ruby will simply be denied due process in an American court for the alleged shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald, who assassinated the late President John F. Kennedy, Officer J. D. Tippett of Dallas, Texas, and for the near fatal wounds of Governor John Connally of Texas.

In this connection, allow us to further observe that a hostile press of much power and influence in Dallas has at all times attempted to influence and inflame the public against Ruby to the extent that it is almost impossible for him to receive a fair trial and be accorded his legal rights there.

Allow us to illustrate the bewildering power of that powerfully slanted press. We do not at all accept or dignify with any shred of credibility whatsoever press releases that Lee Harvey Oswald could have been in the pay of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This was indicated in a press release originating in Dallas and contained in the Houston Post January 1, 1964. The lead line of that release read: "Oswald rumored as informant for U. S." That story had a Dallas date line and was written by Houston Post Staff Correspondent Lonnie Hudkins.

From the release it seems that some reporter interviewed Dallas Chief of Police Jessie Curry on November 22, 1963 and stated that the FBI knew that Oswald was in Dallas but had not given his name to check to the police or other law enforcement agencies involved in President Kennedy's protection. That January 1, 1964 Houston Post story says that Chief Curry later retracted the statement.

county Henry Wade Texas

In the press report writer Hudkins says there is speculation by Police and Sheriff's Deputies in Dallas that Oswald might have been an informant because (as stated in the release), as one put it, "You just wouldn't think to check out one of your own stoolies." The story points out that Dallas District Attorney, a former FBI agent himself and "therefore a man who would know law such an agency would operate, does not discount the possibility that Oswald may have been an informant." "It may be true," he said, "but I don't think it will ever be made public if he is.", the article said.

The article points out that Oswald knew of Joe Hosty, the FBI agent who had handled subversive matters in the Dallas FBI office. The article said, "He had Hosty's home phone, office phone, and car license number.", said Bill Alexander, "Assistant District Attorney to Henry Wade, one of the State's most able prosecutors." Dallas County Texas

"Alexander was one of the men who got a chance to listen in on the grilling of Oswald on November 22nd, the day the President was killed, and November 23rd, the day before Oswald's life came to an end." This bit of incredible news reporting is just simply too fantastic to be accepted by rational minds.

It points up, however, the extreme lengths to which the District Attorney and some of the press situated at Dallas will go in their effort to whip the Dallas people into a prejudiced mind against Mr. Ruby in the hope of wreaking a death sentence jury verdict there as well as elsewhere.

A portion of the Dallas press, particularly the Dallas Morning News, is now seeking to create an image in Dallas through a death sentence jury verdict of Mr. Ruby that will restore the respect that was lost there by Dallas because of the ignominious assault which occurred in Dallas in 1960 by some of its citizens upon President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson and the assault upon Ambassador to the United Nations Adlai Stephenson shortly before the assassination of President Kennedy, and the assassination as Indeed, such powerfully influential press reporting has been, and is geared to persuade their advertisers and readers and prospective jurors trying Jack Ruby everywhere in and out of the jury box that Jack Ruby and not Oswald is the guilty party that has put "Dallas on trial" for the assaults upon the Johnsons, Mr. Stephenson, and the worldwide tragedy of the assassination of President Kennedy.

We must therefore be provided all the material evidence, that is being gathered by the Commission, in behalf of our effort to place before the jury the truth and the true facts in opposition to the indelible effect of the warped and prejudicial press upon the public mind which, otherwise, is bound to follow the members of the panel into the jury room that tries Mr. Ruby. You can readily envision that such warping of the facts by the press and news media have constituted, not merely a clear and present danger to the administration of justice, but an actual obstruction of the administration of justice, in that they are depriving the defendant Jack Ruby of his constitutional right to have an impartial jury trial unless you provide us with the facts of your investigation. Otherwise, a trial of Jack Ruby without those pertinent facts would violate freedom of speech and of the press under the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.

Only you can release Dallas from its bondage of grave and prejudicial error visited upon American law and due process.

Much of the evidentiary material contained in the Commission's investigation will surely be relevant, competent, and undoubtedly of impeachment value, outside of any exclusionary rule for the protection of vital national secrets, diplomatic relations, national security, and otherwise confidential in character.

Actually, in this, a state criminal proceeding, our request is most reasonable as none of the problems of foreign relations, espionage, sabotage, subversive activities, counterfeiting, internal security, national defense, and the like exist except as to a showing of the dangerous character, background, motives, and nature of the professed Marxist Lee Harvey Oswald in the assassination of President Kennedy. But we must prove those facts and the Commission surely has those facts available and we must assume they exist.

We address you, not only in the realization and hope that you will surely accept our proposal in the interest of a due and proper administration of justice to the American tradition of due process of law, but in the certain knowledge that every experienced trial judge, trial lawyer, and experienced investigator of facts, knows the value of relevant, competent, and impeaching evidence of statements of the witnesses -- "* * * recording the events before time dulls treacherous memories."

It has always been the paramount interest of American jurisprudence in criminal prosecutions that justice shall be done--not alone that a case should be won.

The only way that we can know and decide the problems confronting us is to be able to inspect the investigative reports of the Commission and then decide whether to use them in Mr. Ruby's defense.

Only after inspection of the report by Ruby's counsel, " * * * must the trial judge determine admissibility--e.g., evidentiary questions of inconsistency, materiality and relevancy--of the contents and the method to be employed by the elimination of parts immaterial or irrelevant. See Gordon v. U. S., 344 U. S. 418.", Jencks v. U. S., 353 U. S. 657, U. S. v. Reynolds, 345 U. S. 1, 32 A. L. R. 2d 382.

The letter and spirit of the rationale of American law is to the effect that our government must see that justice is done, because "* * * it is unconscionable to allow it to undertake prosecution and then invoke its governmental privileges to deprive the accused of anything which might be material to his defense. * * *" 345 U. S. 12.

The mere fact that this is a State prosecution rather than Federal does not develop a conflict with this tenet, for in Jencks (353 U. S. 657) we find: "In United States v. Andolschek (C. A. 2d N. Y.) 142 F. 2d 503, 506," Judge Learned Hand said:

> " While we must accept it as lawful for a department of the Government to suppress documents, even when they will help determine controversies between third persons, we cannot agree that this should include their suppression in a criminal prosecution, founded upon those very dealings to which the documents relate, and whose criminality they will, or may, tend to exculpate. So far as they directly touch the criminal dealings, the prosecution necessarily ends any confidential character the documents may possess, it must be conducted in the open, and will they bear their subject matter."

The Dallas Morning News for January 4, 1964, in a column by Victor Riesel, refers to Lee Harvey Oswald as "the alleged assassin," and reads:

"There appears to be no doubt that they will talk at great length with Ruby, the cocky killer of the alleged assassin. That will come after the trial, it is presumed. Some insiders expect a swift court session for Ruby. Then, Ruby will be placed under oath by the Commission and will testify as a regular witness."

Further, in the Dallas Morning News for January 7, 1964, the Dallas District Attorney is quoted as saying the Commission would make two reports of its findings; "I anticipate there will be one report on the deaths of President Kennedy and Officer J. D. Tippett and the wounding of Governor John Connally, and a second report on the shooting of Oswald," Wade said.

"If this second report is ready before Ruby's trial, I expect the Commission to withhold it until the trial is over."

Please be assured that Mr. Jack Ruby, the defendant, Mr. Belli, Mr. Brody, and I are all agreeable to the Commission conducting interviews now or at any time you prefer with the defendant, Jack Ruby. In addition, you may have such scientific tests on Mr. Ruby of your choosing, including, but not limited to, truth tests by sodium pentothal and polygraph and otherwise.

Finally, we urge you to consider this request for the investigative products of the Commission with the view of making same available to us at the earliest possible date for inspection and copying in order that the Ruby defense will be able to give Ruby, Texas, and America the defense in this trial that will add vitality and strength to the path and growth of due process.

By this means we petition and formally move you and through you the President's Commission which proceeds under Executive Order 11130 of November 29, 1963 and Public Law 88-202, 88th Congress, S. J. Resolution 137 of December 13, 1963, to provide instanter the defendant Jack Ruby's defense team the right and privilege of inspecting and copying the investigative effects and products in the Commission's possession growing out of its duty and function of ascertaining, evaluating, and reporting to President Lyndon B. Johnson upon the facts relating to the assassination of the late President John F. Kennedy and the subsequent shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald.

We shall be pleased to appear before the Commission personally in this behalf if the Commission so decides.

Very respectfully submitted,

A letter dated 1/9/64 has been received from Joe H. Tonahill, one of Ruby's attorneys. It is addressed to the Director and J. Lee Rankin with copies designated for the President, the Chief Justice and the Attorney General.

Tonahill requests that the President's Commission make available for inspection and copying all information in possession of the Commission relating to Oswald and Ruby including the Bureau's investigative reports. Tonahill makes no direct request of the Bureau.

In support of his request Tonahill alleges that, for the most part, the FBI is the only investigative agency doing work for the prosecution and that the Bureau submits material daily to the local District Attorney. We, of course, have not conducted investigation for the prosecution and the District Attorney's request for the results of our investigations has been referred to the President's Commission and the Department for a determination as to what information should be furnished. The FBI Laboratory and the Identification Division have examined physical evidence submitted by the Dallas Police Department and the police department has been furnished the results of such examinations.

Tonahill attempts to justify his request with the following allegations:

1. The State of Texas yielded to President's Commission by halting the convening of a special court of inquiry thus depriving Ruby of such evidence which would have been available to him under Texas process.

2. The prosecution is seeking a death sentence for murder with malice but Ruby is guilty of no offense greater than murder without malice which is not a capital offense.

3. It is necessary for the defense to prove that Oswald assassinated President Kennedy and the defense is entitled to prove Oswald was a dangerous man of bad character and reputation as well as a professed communist.

4. Among other things, Ruby's defense will be that he is not legally responsible for the alleged offense because of mental disease and defect.

5. The facts in possession of the Commission will indubitably prove Ruby's defensive elements and it would violate Ruby's civil rights to withhold the Commission's information from Ruby.

Tonahill makes reference to a newspaper story, which he indicates he does not believe, alleging that Oswald was a Bureau informant. This allegation has previously come to our attention and it is completely false. Oswald was interviewed on three occasions (6/26/62, 8/16/62 and 8/10/63) but no attempt was made to develop him as an informant during any of these interviews.

ACTION:

1. Attached is a letter to Tonahill advising him this is a matter within the discretion of the President's Commission.

2. Attached are letters to Rankin and the Attorney General enclosing a copy of the letter to Tonahill and advising them that Oswald was not a Bureau informant and that we have not conducted investigation for the prosecution or furnished information to local authorities except the results of examinations of physical evidence submitted by the Dallas Police Department.

MRS. MARTHA STANTON CHADWELL

Mrs. Martha Stanton Chadwell, 940 East Havens Street, Kokomo, Indiana, on January 9, 1964, advised as follows:

She was watching television on the date of Oswald's shooting and as she recalls, the commentator was a Bob Walker. She advised she does not know Ruby or Oswald and has no information other than that she heard on television. She stated that it was her impression from the attitude of Walker that he may have had prior knowledge of Ruby's presence at the police department in Dallas prior to the shooting but she could furnish no tangible information to substantiate this impression. She advised it was merely an opinion on her part and nothing more.

It was pointed out to Mrs. Chadwell that in her letter to the Honorable Chief Justice, Supreme Court, Washington, D. C., dated December 27, 1963, she had stated she heard Bob Walker ask prior to Oswald being shot, "Is Ruby there yet" and again, "Is Ruby there?" Mrs. Chadwell stated she thought she heard that and so put in her letter. However, at the time she was not positive that those exact words were said and she might have misunderstood them. She then began talking about the two telephones which Bob Walker had on his desk, asking why it was necessary for him to have both a black and a white telephone in front of him.

Mrs. Chadwell has telephonically contacted the Indianapolis Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on several previous occasions.

On April 20, 1950, she telephonically contacted the Indianapolis Office complaining of telephone operators in Kokomo, Indiana listening in on her calls without her authorization. She furnished no specific information that anyone was listening in on her calls and she was referred to the local telephone company and advised she should report any such suspected irregularities to the phone company.

Re: Mrs. Martha Stanton Chadwell

On December 13, 1952, Mrs. Chadwell again telephoned the Indianapolis Office advising that an unknown male voice continued cutting in on her telephone line threatening her because of some dispute she had had at the phone company in Kokomo where she worked until she was forced out. At this time, Mrs. Chadwell seemed very upset and nervous and the jurisdiction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation was explained to her and she was advised to contact the local phone company and if she felt her life to be in danger, she should contact the local police department.

She again telephonically contacted the Indianapolis Office on February 5, 1953, stating she had lost a job because of allegations concerning her supposed Communist activity; that several unnamed individuals at Kokomo were making false statements regarding her; and further that persons unknown to her had listened in on her telephone conversations. She indicated she had previously been employed by the telephone company in Kokomo. She became somewhat hysterical on the phone, breaking down and crying and this, plus her incoherent statement, indicated she was possibly undergoing a mental strain.

On January 10, 1964, Raymond Keller, Chief of Police, Kokomo, Indiana, advised that Mrs. Martha Stanton Chadwell had been known to the Kokomo Police Department for a number of years. She has during this time made numerous complaints to the Police Department concerning interference with her telephone, charging that unidentified individuals were listening to her telephone conversations. Chief Keller advised that Mrs. Chadwell was considered to be mentally unbalanced; however, she was perfectly harmless insofar as he knew.

SUBJECT: JACK RUBY;
LEE HARVEY OSWALD - VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS

Assistant Attorney General Herbert J. Miller, Jr., mentioned to Special Agents J. William Hines and Wilbur L. Martindale that he intended to confer today with Deputy Attorney General Katzenbach regarding the furnishing of information to the prosecution and the defense.

It is Miller's recommendation to Katzenbach, and he believes that Lee Rankin of the President's Commission will concur with any recommendation the Department makes, that no information be given out on Oswald.

With regard to Ruby, Miller proposes that Dallas County District Attorney Wade be shown the FBI reports by United States Attorney (USA) Barefoot Sanders and be permitted to thumb through the reports for the purpose of identifying material which would be of value to him. The Department will then determine whether the material will be given to Wade for the prosecution and he probably will be furnished with what he requests. Any confidential information would be removed prior to first showing the material to Wade. (We know of no confidential information.)

Miller proposes to inform Ruby's attorneys that the results of investigation will not be made available to them but they will be furnished with the names and addresses of persons who have given information bearing on Ruby's sanity including allegations of bizarre conduct on Ruby's part. The defense could then interview these persons themselves to develop possible testimony that would have a bearing on Ruby's sanity.

Decisions as to the material to be given Wade would be made by the Department and the Department would also select the names and addresses to be furnished the defense.

RE: JACK RUBY

Miller stated that he would very much appreciate any informal statement that might be given to him as to the Bureau's thinking or desires regarding the furnishing of information to the prosecution and/or the defense.

ACTION

There appears to be no objection to Miller's proposal; however, it is not felt that the Bureau should indicate either agreement or disagreement to this plan and, upon approval, Miller will be informed that the Bureau will defer to the judgment of the Department.

Leave all memoranda in a decision.

JACK L. RUBY, also known as AKA, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA, VICTIM, OR. Civil Rights

AT BOND HEARING JAN. TWENTY, SIXTYFOUR, DALLAS, ALL WITNESSES WERE DEFENSE WITNESSES. ROY SCHAFER, PHD, SCHOOL OF CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY, YALE UNIVERSITY, (Cont'd) TESTIFIED GAVE PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTS TO RUBY DEC. TWENTYNINE, THIRTY, AND THIRTYONE LAST, FOR TOTAL OF NINE AND ONE HALF HOURS,. ON BASIS OF TESTS , IT IS HIS OPINION RUBY MAY HAVE PSYCHOMOTOR EPILEPSY, WHICH COULD HAVE BEEN CAUSED BY ENCEPHALITIS OR A BLOW TO THE HEAD, LIKELY NOT RECENT. IN SUMMARY TESTIFIED THIS BRAIN DAMAGE IS GENERALLY DISCLOSED BY TEMPER TANTRUMS, IMPULSIVENESS AND EXPLOSIVENESS, DURATION OF WHICH SIEZURES MIGHT BE FOR VERY MINIMAL PERIOD OR POSSIBLY OF EXTENDED DURATION. THIS TYPE EPILEPSY NOT NECESSARILY CHARACTERIZED BY EITHER PETIT MAL OR GRAND MAL SEIZURES DURING SUCH SEIZURES, PERSON SO AFFLICTED WOULD NOT LIKELY BE AWARE OF HIS ACTIONS. HE STATED IN HIS OPINION, NEUROLOGICAL EXAMINATION INCLUDING ELECTROENCEPHALOGRAPH, EXAMINATION OF SPINAL FLUID, AND HEAD X-RAYS, SHOULD BE CONDUCTED, SPECIFYING HOWEVER, ENCEPHALOGRAPHS WOULD LIKELY, BUT NOT NECESSARILY, SHOW BRAIN DAMAGE. COURT RECESSED FOLLOWING DIRECT AND CROSS EXAMINATION OF DR. SCHAFER.

AT RESUMPTION OF HEARING, TWO PM DATE, DR. WALTER BROMBERG Texas PSYCHIATRIST ATTACHED TO PINEWOOD PSYCHIATRICT HOSPITAL, KATONA, N. Y., TESTIFIED HE EXAMINED RUBY DECEMBER TWENTYONE AND TWENTYTWO LAST, FOR A TOTAL OF ELEVEN HOURS. TESTIFIED IN SUMMARY HIS DIAGNOSIS RUBY WAS EXPERIENCING A PERIOD OF DEPRESSION IMMEDIATELY PRIOR TO ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY JAN 28 1964 EVENTS OF NOV.

TWENTYTWO LAST CONTRIBUTED TO FURTHER DEPRESSION, AGITATION, AND EXCITEMENT, RESULTING IN A CONDITION WHICH HE DESCRIBED AS A MANIC DEPRESSIVE PSYCHOSIS. THIS PSYCHOSIS TRIGGERED OFF A FUGUE STATE, IN RUBY, WHICH HE SAID IN EFFECT, SEPARATED RUBY-S MIND FROM HIS BODY, AND HIS PHYSICAL ACTIONS BECAME AUTOMATIC OR MECHANICAL. IN HIS OPINION, RUBY WAS IN SUCH A FUGUE STATE WHEN HE KILLED OSWALD, AND AT THAT TIME RUBY DID NOT THEREFORE KNOW RIGHT FROM WRONG. DEFENSE ATTORNEY MELVIN BELLI HANDLED QUESTIONING OF SCHAFER AND BROMBERG.

CHIEF OF POLICE JESSE CURRY, DALLAS, NEXT WITNESS, WAS ASKED BY DEFENSE ATTORNEY JOE TONAHILL, FOLLOWING QUESTIONS IN SUBSTANCE. DID YOU KNOW OSWALD? DID YOU KNOW OSWALD WAS IN DALLAS PRIOR TO NOVEMBER TWENTYSECOND, SIXTYTHREE? DID THE FBI REPORT TO YOU THAT OSWALD WAS IN DALLAS AND WAS A COMMUNIST SYMPATHIZER PRIOR TO NOVEMBER TWENTYTWO, SIXTYTHREE? ARE YOU SATISFIED THE FBI DID NOT KNOW OSWALD WAS IN DALLAS? HOW MANY POLICE OFFICERS KNEW RUBY AND THOUGHT HIGHLY OF HIM? WAS IT BECAUSE OSWALD WAS A COMMUNIST THAT YOU WANTED AN ARMORED CAR TO TRANSPORT HIM TO THE COUNTY JAIL? PROSECUTION OBJECTIONS TO EACH OF THESE QUESTIONS WERE SUSTAINED. CURRY WAS QUESTIONED AS TO WHO MADE ARRANGEMENTS FOR TRANSFER OF OSWALD TO COUNTY JAIL, AND REPLIED THAT AS CHIEF OF POLICE, HE HAD ULTIMATE RESPONSIBILITY. CHIEF CURRY DENIED HAD ANNOUNCED TRANSFER OF OSWALD WOULD OCCUR AT TEN AM ON NOVEMBER TWENTYFOUR, BUT STATED HAD SAID TRANSFER WOULD OCCUR AFTER TEN AM.

DR. JOHN P. HOLBROOK, M.D., A PSYCHIATRIST, BEVERLY HILLS HOSPITAL AND CLINIC, DALLAS WHO HAD BEEN EMPLOYED BY THE STATE Texas TO EXAMINE RUBY NOVEMBER TWENTYFIVE LAST, WAS NEXT WITNESS. STATE OBJECTED TO ANY TESTIMONY FROM HOLBROOK AS AN EXPERT, AND COURT SUSTAINED OBJECTION. DEFENSE ATTORNEY BELLI HANDLED QUESTIONING. HOLBROOK WAS PERMITTED TO TESTIFY AS LAY WITNESS, TO QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS PROPOUNDED BY HOLBROOK TO RUBY OVER A TWO HOUR PERIOD, BUT PROFESSIONAL OPINIONS OR CONCLUSIONS WERE EXCLUDED . HOLBROOK WAS PERMITTED TO TESTIFY HE THOUGHT RUBY WAS EMOTIONAL AND UNSTABLE AT TIME OF INTERVIEW. HOLBROOK TESTIFIED HE ATTEMPTED, ON DECEMBER FOUR LST, TO AFFORD SEVERAL PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTS TO RUBY, BUT RUBY DECLINED TO SUBMIT TO SAME ON ADVICE OF COUNSEL.

SA C. RAY HALL WAS NEXT WITNESS, QUESTIONING HANDLED BY DEFENSE ATTORNEY JOE TONAHILL. COURT SUSTAINED PROSECUTION OBJECTION TO FIRST QUESTION REGARDING WHETHER AGENT CONDUCTED INVESTIGATION INTO ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY, SHOOTING OF GOVERNOR CONNOLLY KILLING OF OFFICER J. D. TIPPITT, AND KILLING OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD. COURT INSTRUCTED TONAHILL RESTRICT QUESTIONS TO THOSE PERTINENT TO BOND HEARING. TONAHILL RESTRICTED QUESTIONS TO STATEMENTS MADE BY RUBY AS TO RUBY-S ACTIVITIES ON NOVEMBER TWENTYFOUR, SIXTYTHREE, FROM TIME HE GOT UP THAT MORNING UNTIL HE ENTERED BASEMENT AT CITY HALL DALLAS. SA HALL TESTIFIED TO FACTS AS SET FORTH IN FD THREE ZERO TWO INTERVIEWS ON NOVEMBER TWENTYFOUR AND DECEMBER TWENTYONE LAST.

END PAGE THREE

IN CROSS EXAMINATION, DISTRICT ATTORNEY HENRY WADE ASKED SA HALL IF RUBY HAD NOT RELATED FACTS OF VISIT TO CUBA IN AUGUST, FIFTYNINE, AND OF HAVING CONTACTED INDIVIDUAL IN VICINITY OF HOUSTON TEXAS WHO HAD ALLEGEDLY BEEN ENGAGED IN GUN RUNNING TO CUBA. SA HALL CONFINED ANSWERS TO THOSE APPEARING IN FD THREE ZERO TWO OF RUBY ON DECEMBER TWENTYONE LAST. WADE ASKED IF AGENT HAD EVER SEEN RUBY-S GUN, AND SA HALL ANSWERED HE HAD NOT. HE THEN ASKED IF RUBY HAD NOT STATED HE HAD CARRIED GUN IN COAT POCKET AND LATER IN TROUSER POCKET. SA RESPONDED AS SET FORTH IN FD THREE ZERO TWOS OF RUBY.

ON REDIRECT EXAMINATION, DEFENSE ATTORNEY TONAHILL ASKED IF RUBY HAD TOLD SA HALL WHAT KIND OF GUN HE CARRIED, AND IF SO , WHAT DID RUBY TELL HIM. SA HALL TESTIFIED AS REFLECTED IN FD THREE ZERO TWO OF RUBY.

United States Attorney — Assistant United States Attorney

~~USA~~ H. BAREFOOT SANDERS AND ~~AUSA~~ B. H. TIMMINS, JR. [redacted] WERE PRESENT DURING TESTIMONY OF SA HALL. Department and U. S. Attorney agreed Agents should appear 1/20/64 at local hearing in connection with Ruby's application for bond. Agents were instructed to limit testimony to statements made to them or in their presence by Ruby and was in accordance with Departmental and U. S. Attorney's instructions. Agents were instructed to have interview report forms (FD 302's) and notes of interviews and to make these items available upon demand.

Attached teletype indicates Agents testified in accordance with FD 302's. Dallas has been instructed to furnish brief summary of actual testimony. Department and President's Commission will be appropriately advised when details of testimony are received from Dallas.

January 20, 1964

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

In accordance with your conversation with J. R. Malley of this Bureau on January 17, 1964, the scale models prepared by this Bureau relating to the site of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, and the Dallas, Texas, police department garage were delivered to the Veterans of Foreign Wars Building and have been set up in the Assembly Room on the first floor.

The scale models show in minute detail pertinent physical features of each site, including miniature reproductions of vehicles. It is believed these three-dimensional exhibits will assist eyewitnesses in clearly demonstrating their recollections of events occurring at the time of the shooting, thus making it possible for those who have not visited these sites to gain a full and clear understanding of the happenings surrounding each event.

Mr. Wade Holland, Superintendent of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Building, has advised that the Assembly Room will be kept locked and, in accordance with your request, he has been requested to make available to your office a key for this room. He has also been advised that you do not desire anyone to have access to the room without written authorization from your office. While these arrangements have been made with Mr. Holland in accordance with your request, it is suggested that it would be well for you also to discuss this matter with Mr. Holland in order that there can be no possible misunderstanding on his part relative to your desires for the safekeeping of these exhibits.

Lee Harvey Oswald - Victim
CIVIL RIGHTS

Both the prosecution and the defense in the forthcoming trial of Jack Ruby for the murder of Lee Harvey Oswald have asked for FBI reports relative to the investigation of Ruby and Oswald. Properly, we have left the decision to the President's Commission, which is studying the assassination of President Kennedy, and to the Department, as to what material should be furnished the prosecution and the defense.

Assistant AG Miller has indicated no material will be given to either the prosecution or the defense relative to the investigation of Oswald. The Department is reviewing the investigative reports relative to Jack Ruby for the purpose of removing any confidential material and thereafter making these reports available to District Attorney Wade in Dallas, through US Attorney Barefoot Sanders. Wade will select material he thinks is pertinent to the ~~defense~~ prosecution and thereafter the Department will pass on whether this material should be made available to him for that purpose.

The Department also contemplates furnishing Ruby's defense counsel with a list of names and addresses of persons who have furnished information bearing on Ruby's mental condition. It appears that Mr. Rankin of the President's Commission is awaiting a Departmental decision before expressing the Commission's views as to what should be furnished the prosecution and the defense.

Necessarily, we have to take the position that it is a decision for the President's Commission and the Department to make as to what information we have developed goes to the prosecution and the defense. However, ~~we have in mind~~ that any material which is to be furnished will be from FBI reports and, consequently, the FBI will be involved in any criticism of the material itself. Bearing in mind that we have interviewed anybody and everybody who had information concerning the assassination of the President, concerning Oswald, and concerning Ruby, our reports contain a great deal of information that can be classified as rumor and gossip, and character-assassination type of information. Considerable information is from persons who are mentally disturbed. We ran out the information wherever possible to substantiate or disprove it. Nevertheless, in a great many instances the allegation will appear in one report and the investigation to prove or disprove it will appear in a later report.

If the information in these reports is misused, or comes into the hands of unauthorized persons, there is a strong possibility that there will be complaints, both on the part of persons who gave the information and persons against whom allegations were made. For example, we conducted investigation into the background of Ruth Paine and her husband, Michael Paine, in view of the close association between the Paines and the Oswalds, and reports of this investigation were furnished to the Commission. We are sending over today a 354-page report on allegations received concerning persons who made alleged threats, or had knowledge of the assassination of President Kennedy, aside and apart from any association with Oswald or Ruby. We talked to a great many "crackpots" and emotional people who made wild allegations, and the results of the interviews are in these reports.

ACTION:

We do not know whether the courts will abide by any decision the Presidential Commission or the Department makes as to restrictions on furnishing information to the prosecution and defense. In order to alert the Department and the President's Commission, we prepared letters under date of 1/18/64 to Assistant AG Miller of the Department, and to Lee Rankin of the President's Commission, in which we pointed out that if information in these reports is misused, or becomes a matter of public knowledge, it would reflect most unfavorably upon the Department of Justice and the President's Commission.

We have done all we can do. Unless we get something either way, I feel we should close.

JOSEPH GOULDEN, Reporter, "Philadelphia Inquirer," telephonically advised that he had contacted the unidentified law enforcement officer in Dallas, Texas, over the week end by telephone, who had previously told GOULDEN in Dallas that JACK LEON RUBY had gained entrance to the basement of the Dallas Police Department by posing as a TV cameraman's helper on the day that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot and who had also told him that LEE HARVEY OSWALD at one time had been contacted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation to become an informant. GOULDEN declined to identify the law enforcement officer after having talked to him on the telephone. He did say, however, that the officer told him that the matter was being "handled through proper channels." GOULDEN said he did not question the officer further as to what these channels were.

With regard to the Dallas teletype concerning the testimony of SA Hall 1-20-64 at Ruby's bond hearing, SAC Shanklin was telephonically instructed to immediately submit a supplemental teletype setting forth the specific questions asked of SA Hall while he was on the stand as reflected in their teletype and following each question with a brief succinct summary of Agent Hall's reply.

SAC Shanklin stated that both of the Agents who were subpoenaed for the hearing yesterday were released from their subpoenas at the close of yesterday's hearing. He raised the question as to whether an Agent should be present at the hearing today for the sole purpose of observing the proceedings in order that the Bureau could be advised of pertinent developments with the least possible delay. SAC Shanklin observed that this might attract attention as the Agents have no official reason for being present.

Shanklin was instructed that an Agent should not be present at the hearing but that the office should insure through their established contacts that they are kept advised of developments and that the Bureau is informed of pertinent developments on a current basis.

Memorandum Brennan to Sullivan, 1/16/64, advised that Liaison was following with Internal Revenue Service (IRS) for the 1959 income tax return filed by Jack L. Ruby and the 1958 return filed by Jack Ruby's brother, Earl R. Ruby. The request for these returns was originally made of Inspector Malley of the General Investigative Division by Lee Rankin, Counsel for the President's Commission.

On 1/21/64 Mr. William McCarthy, Assistant Director of Inspection Service, IRS, furnished Liaison Agent the 1958 income tax return on Earl R. and Margie G. Ruby. This return has been furnished to the Civil Rights Section. Mr. McCarthy advised that IRS to date has been unable to locate the 1959 return on Jack Ruby. Mr. McCarthy stated that this latter return has been misfiled and consequently it may take some time before IRS will be able to locate it. He said IRS is, however, continuing in its efforts to locate this return.

In accordance with previous arrangements, Mr. Henry B. Montague, Chief Postal Inspector, made available to Liaison Agent O'Connor on January 21, 1964, the proposed reply of the Post Office (PO) to the President's Commission Looking into the Assassination of President Kennedy. As you are aware, the PO and other Government agencies have been requested by the Commission to furnish any pertinent information relating to the assassination.

The PO reply sets forth the investigative efforts by the Postal Inspectors to develop circumstances concerning the use of PO boxes by Oswald, particularly as it pertained to the rifle used in the assassination. Oswald was questioned November 24, 1963, by Dallas Police, Secret Service, and Inspector Harry D. Holmes of the PO concerning rental of PO boxes in the Main Dallas PO as well as the Terminal Annex and in the New Orleans PO. In each instance, Oswald maintained he made his own arrangements for rental and denied knowledge of any use of the alias A. J. Hidell, which was the name used by Oswald in obtaining the rifle used in the assassination. Generally, the interview of Oswald was nonproductive as Oswald was extremely arrogant and noncooperative.

PO Inspectors conducted several interviews of individuals in the Dallas area at the request of the Bureau and Secret Service, which interviews generally shed little light on Oswald's activities prior to and immediately following the assassination.

Each point set out in the PO reply was checked through the files pertaining to the subject as well as Jack Ruby. It was ascertained the pertinent parts of the PO investigations concerning this matter were contained in our investigative reports.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to report in the Lee Harvey Oswald case of Special Agent Gerard James Horton dated December 19, 1963, at San Francisco, California, setting forth the allegation of Robert Edmond Gallant, an inmate of the Santa Clara Prison Farm, San Jose, California, that he saw Oswald in Mexico City on July 12, 1963.

On January 7, 1964, Robert Edmond Gallant was afforded a polygraph examination at the Santa Clara County Jail by a Special Agent of our San Francisco Office. In the opinion of the examiner, the emotional responses recorded by the polygraph were not the responses of a normal person telling the truth, but were indicative of an emotionally unstable individual. Gallant was vague and rambling in his speech, made general statements unsupported by specific examples, and manifested the symptoms of paranoia; namely, fixed suspicions and delusions of grandeur. In this respect, Gallant claimed that all political leaders in Mexico were communists, that he was a doctor of electronic engineering, a general in a secret Mexican army, and an associate of a Mexican millionaire.

In view of these observations, the results of the polygraph examination were inconclusive. It was the opinion of the examiner, however, that Gallant's allegation that he saw Oswald in Mexico City in July, 1963, was untrue.

Our investigation of Lee Harvey Oswald has established that on Friday, July 12, 1963, he was employed at the William B. Reily Company plant in New Orleans from 8:27 a.m., to 5:01 p.m., and on that date was paid his salary for the week ending July 13, 1963.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE: Believed advisable to furnish Commission with results of our polygraph exam of Gallant who made wild allegation that he learned from an agent he operates in the Cuban Embassy, Mexico City, that on 7-12-63 Oswald was at the embassy seeking visa. He also alleged that his agent pointed out Oswald to him in Mexico City 7-12-63. Results of polygraph have been discussed with Mr. Bell Herndon of the Lab who agrees with language of report.

The request of Waggoner Carr, Attorney General of Texas, which he directed to J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission by letter dated 12/30/63, as well as the request of District Attorney Henry Wade, Dallas County, Texas, for information from Bureau reports relative to the prosecution of Jack Ruby, were discussed in detail today with Mr. Rankin.

Mr. Rankin was advised that the Bureau is ready to furnish to State authorities whatever information the Commission and the Department of Justice agree would be proper under the circumstances. Mr. Rankin was advised that the President's Commission had been furnished a large volume of reports with regard to Oswald being killed by Ruby and that these same reports had been furnished to the Department of Justice. He was told inasmuch as the investigation was conducted at the request of the President and the Department of Justice we would appreciate being advised what information should be made available to the State authorities of Texas.

Mr. Rankin was also advised that in view of the requests of Attorney General Carr and District Attorney Wade, the Bureau is advising them that their requests had been made known to the President's Commission and to the Department of Justice and that the FBI was ready to furnish them whatever information the President's Commission and the Department would release.

Subsequent to the discussion with Mr. Rankin, the Dallas Office so advised District Attorney Wade and the San Antonio Office advised Mr. Stanton Stone, Executive Assistant to Attorney General Waggoner Carr in Carr's absence, that their requests had been made known to the President's Commission and the Department of Justice and that the FBI was ready to furnish to State authorities whatever information the Commission and Department agree would be proper.

JAN 23 1964 Mr. Rankin indicated he was in full agreement with all action proposed by the Bureau and requested that the Department be advised of the need to review this material as expeditiously as possible in order to assist the Commission in making a decision on the information that should be made available to the State

Re LHM 12/31/63 at Dallas and Bureau routing slip to Mexico City 1/7/64.

Reflax 192X

The following investigation was conducted in an effort to locate and interview one BETTY JEAN CARTER, whose name has been listed, according to re LHM, as a former employee of JACK RUBY, Dallas, Texas, the dates of employment being unknown. Information provided by the Dallas office indicated that the parents of BETTY JEAN CARTER had provided her address as "Canal 101, San Miguel de Allende, Mexico." CARTER was described as a white female, American, age 35, 5' 6" tall, 130 pounds, with brown hair.

The Dallas office further advised that RUBY is charged with the slaying of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the alleged slayer of JOHN F. KENNEDY, and efforts are being made to determine if there has been any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

The Dallas office requested that CARTER be interviewed to determine the extent of her knowledge regarding background activities of RUBY and whether she has any information indicating association between RUBY and OSWALD.

On 1/15/64 inquiry at Calle Canal #101, San Miguel de Allende, Guanajuato, Mexico, revealed that the owner of this residence, according to a Mexican caretaker on the premises, had left San Miguel de Allende on or about 1/12/64 and that BETTY CARTER had stayed at that address for a brief period during the 1963 Christmas holiday season, but had left for the United States, possibly for San Antonio, Texas, at some time between 12/25/63 and 1/1/64.

The Mexican caretaker located an envelope addressed to G. E. BURNHAM (or BURNHAN), Calle Canal #101, San Miguel de Allende, Mexico, and the caretaker stated that this is the name of the occupant of this residence. The caretaker also exhibited an envelope which was postmarked 1/8/64 at San Antonio, Texas, and was addressed to "BETTY and GINO" at the aforementioned San Miguel de Allende address. The caretaker stated that "GINO" is actually the nickname of BURNHAM and that BETTY is thought to be a cousin of BURNHAM, or posed as such when she was visiting at San Miguel de Allende.

It was noted that the letter postmarked 1/8/64 bore the return address of LEE MALONE, 158 De Chantle, Apartment 118, San Antonio, Texas.

The caretaker at the above residence stated that she did not know when BURNHAM would return to San Miguel de Allende but that he was expected within two or three days and was thought to have gone to San Antonio, Texas.

At Dallas, Texas. Inasmuch as it would appear, according to the information available to the Legat, Mexico, that the parents of BETTY JEAN CARTER may reside at Dallas, Texas, it is suggested that the parents be recontacted concerning the present whereabouts of CARTER in order that she can be interviewed along the lines set out herein.

MC 44-5

An information copy is provided for the San Antonio office in order that San Antonio may have background information in this matter in the event it becomes necessary to interview LEE MALONE, 158 De Chantle, Apartment #118, San Antonio, Texas, to ascertain the whereabouts of BETTY JEAN CARTER.

ASAC Clark of Dallas telephonically advised that the hearing concerning the writ to release Ruby on bond for psychiatric examination reconvened at 9:00 a. m. Dallas time today and the first witness was Rabbi I. Silverman who testified that Ruby, on various occasions when he met him, had been emotionally unstable and somewhat incoherent in his conversation.

Four officers of the Dallas Police Department testified concerning the shooting of Oswald in the Dallas Police Department garage. The defense then withdrew the writ which amounted to the hearing being closed. Prior to terminating this session of court, Defense Attorney Belli entered a motion for a change of venue which was refused by the judge at this time. The judge stated the motion would be ruled upon when the trial commenced. Belli then entered a motion for a continuance of the trial from February 3 until February 17. There is to be a conference later today at which time this motion will be ruled upon. Dallas will furnish full details and additional developments later today.

CIVIL RIGHTS

Reference is made to your memorandum of January 20, 1964, regarding the furnishing of investigative reports to Dallas County District Attorney Wade.

In accordance with the discussion held between Mr. Foley of your Division and Mr. Malley of the FBI on January 21, 1964, we are making available to United States Attorney Barefoot Sanders in Dallas one copy of each of the 18 reports which have been furnished to you in this case. Prior to giving the reports to Mr. Sanders, we will remove the items specified for deletion in your memorandum.

An additional report dated January 17, 1964, at Dallas, is being forwarded to you as soon as we have completed reviewing it. It is understood that you will then review this report to determine whether any of the information in it should be made available to Mr. Wade and that future investigative reports will be handled in the same manner.

It is also understood that the President's Commission is cognizant of the manner in which the information is being made available to Mr. Wade.

The matter of searching of Postal Money Orders as well as Western Union Money Orders was discussed in detail today with Mr. J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission. Information previously set forth in letterhead memorandum form showing Mr. Rankin that it would be necessary to check between four and five million money orders on a daily basis at the Washington headquarters of the U. S. Post Office Department was discussed with him and Mr. Rankin indicated that for the time being no further check on Postal Money Orders would be necessary.

In connection with Western Union Money Orders, Mr. Rankin was advised that a check had been made by our Dallas Office of Western Union Money Orders and that the same type of check was being made by our New Orleans Office for a six-month period, this being the length of time money orders are kept in the various area offices of Western Union. Mr. Rankin was advised that to search Western Union records which are maintained at Minneapolis, Minnesota, for outgoing Western Union Money Orders from Dallas alone for a period of three years would require the time of ten persons at a cost of $2.50 per hour for approximately one month. Mr. Rankin was advised that these records are filed under the city of origin of the money order; than chronologically under the date they were sent; and then alphabetically under the name of the payee. Mr. Rankin was advised that without this data a search for a money order would have to cover the entire Western Union system on a day-to-day basis and that Western Union was unable to furnish an accurate estimate of the number of hours such a search would require.

Mr. Rankin was also advised that in view of the manner in which the records are handled, a check at Minneapolis for the cities in which Oswald lived would only be a half-way check in that any money orders sent to him from anywhere else in the city would not be picked up on such a check as was described above.

Mr. Rankin advised that in view of the foregoing, no further check should be made at this time but that the Commission would appreciate receiving the results of the six-month check that had been initiated. He was assured this information would appear in report form in the near future.

Memo to Mr. Belmont fro.n A. Rosen
Re: Lee Harvey Oswald, et al

Following the above discussion, Mr. Rankin mentioned that Oswald had been in Mexico for a brief period in late September and the first day or two of October 1963. He inquired as to whether or not it was possible to check on any money orders which Oswald may have sent or received while he was in Mexico and whether or not any such check had been made up to this time. Mr. Rankin was advised this matter would be looked into and he would be subsequently advised. Supervisor E. T. Turner in the Domestic Intelligence Division was contacted and is handling this check.

ACTION: When information is received as to the possibility of making the above check requested by Mr. Rankin, he will be advised.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

In accordance with the request of Assistant Attorney General Herbert J. Miller, Jr., we are making available to United States Attorney Barefoot Sanders at Dallas one copy of each of the 18 investigative reports which have been furnished to the Department of Justice and the President's Commission. It is understood that you received a copy of Assistant Attorney General Miller's memorandum dated January 20, 1964, which set forth the items that are to be deleted from the reports before they are furnished to Mr. Sanders.

We have been advised by the Criminal Division of the Department of Justice that as additional investigative reports are received by them in the future they will also be reviewed to determine what information should be made available to local authorities.

We have also been advised that the matter was discussed with the Commission by the Criminal Division of the Department of Justice and the Commission is cognizant of the manner in which the information is being made available to Mr. Wade.

On January 7, 1964, a confidential informant of the Atlanta Office furnished a copy of a 33 1/3 rpm phonograph record which was issued by the Defense Legion of Registered Americans (DLRA), Incorporated, which is also known as the Christian Voters and Buyers League. The DLRA was organized in Atlanta in 1962 for the purpose of opposing Communism, Marxism, Mongrelism, Nihilism, etc. The Christian Voters and Buyers League was established within the DLRA to distribute anti-Jewish and anti-Negro phonograph records and literature.

The record, which was received on January 7, 1964, was narrated by Herbert Wallace Butterworth, a former radio announcer who is executive secretary of the DLRA. The DLRA has been explained by Butterworth, who was in 1962 public relations director of the United Klans of America, Incorporated, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, as being a front organization of the United Klans. James Venable, Legal Counsel for United Klans, is President of the DLRA.

The record as narrated by Butterworth is a long, rambling, incoherent dissertation on the assassination of President Kennedy and surrounding events. It is, of course, extremely anti-Jewish and anti-Negro and through distortion and speculation with complete disregard for true facts, it attempts to show that the "Communist-Jewish conspiracy" was responsible for the assassination and subsequent events.

In the narration Butterworth makes several references to the FBI: (1) that Oswald was caught by the FBI only a few days before President Kennedy's arrival (in Dallas) distributing Castro literature in New Orleans; (2) that the FBI knew he (Oswald) was in Dallas yet never put a single man to trail him as a source of danger; (3) that in spite of what traitor editors across the country write--like Ralph McGill and Eugene Patterson of the Atlanta papers--or the FBI, Lee Oswald did not assassinate President Kennedy and whoever believes he did is a fool.....

(4) that Italians are unanimous in their belief that no expert can fire three shots with a telescopic sight in anywhere near five seconds as claimed by the Dallas Police and the FBI; and (5) that there are too many circumstances between Oswald and Ruby for it to be pure coincidence and nobody knows that better than the Dallas Police and the FBI.

The above statements concerning the FBI with the possible exception of number 2 are completely without foundation in fact as established by the investigation and are typical of the highly critical and vitriolic remarks made by Butterworth concerning the President's Commission, Congress, the Supreme Court, the U. S. Government and every other decent organization and public official mentioned by him in an effort to distort the facts to propagandize his extreme rightist's views.

Statement number 2 is partially true in that the FBI did know that Oswald was in Dallas, however, use of this statement in the DLRA context with their allegation of our not putting a single man to trail Oswald as a source of danger distorts the truth to create a warped impression as there was no information available to the Bureau which would indicate that Oswald was a source of danger as an assassin.

In view of the fact that the record deals with the assassination of President Kennedy, a transcript of the record is being forwarded to the President's Commission along with a brief description of the DLRA and Butterworth's connection with the organization. Mr. Rankin is being advised that the "Partusian" as mentioned on page 9 of the transcript, probably refers to Abraham Zapruder, the amateur photographer who took 8 mm. color motion pictures of the assassination.

REBUTELCALL THIS DATE POSING CERTAIN QUESTIONS RE SA C. RAY HALL'S INTERVIEW WITH JACK L. RUBY ON NOV TWENTYFOUR LAST. SA HALL DID CONDUCT THE INTERVIEW WITH JACK L. RUBY WITH NO OTHER AGENT PRESENT AT THE TIME. IT IS NOTED RUBY SHOT OSWALD IN THE POLICE BASEMENT, WAS IMMEDIATELY ARRESTED, AND WAS AT ALL TIMES IN THE CUSTODY OF DALLAS PD. ARRANGEMENTS HAD TO BE MADE BY ME TO HAVE AN AGENT EITHER INTERVIEW RUBY OR PARTICIPATE IN THE INTERVIEW. AT THE TIME WE WERE ABLE TO GET IN TO INTERVIEW RUBY SA HALL WAS THE ONLY AGENT AVAILABLE, ALL OTHER AGENTS OF DALLAS OFFICE BEING ASSIGNED TO IMMEDIATE AND IMPORTANT INVESTIGATIVE LEADS EITHER INTO THE ASSASSINATION OF PRES. 68 JAN 29 1964

PERS. REC. UNIT

HAS BEEN DISCUSSED WITH SA HALL. HE ADVISES ME THAT SOMETIME AFTER RETURNING TO THE OFFICE LATE NOV. TWENTYFOUR, HE PERSONALLY ROUGH DRAFTED ON TYPEWRITER HIS INTERVIEW WITH RUBY, SEPARATING IT INTO TWO SEPARATE THREE ZERO TWO'S ACCORDING TO SUBJECT MATTER. HE HAS NO INDEPENDENT RECOLLECTION AS TO WHETHER HE INADVERTENTLY TYPED NOV TWENTYFIVE INSTEAD OF NOV TWENTYFOUR. THESE RD INTER VIEWS WERE TURNED IN TO STENO POOL. THE ONE DATED NOV TWENTYFIVE WAS TYPED BY STENO N. JEANETTE TANKSLEY. I HAVE TALKED TO STENO TANKSLEY AND SHE AGAIN HAS NO INDEPENDENT RECOLLECTION OF THE DATE THAT WAS ON THIS PARTICULAR RD. OF COURSE THE RD HAS BEEN DESTROYED, AND SHE HAS NO NOTES TO REFER TO. SHE DOES RECALL, HOWEVER, RECEIV- ING THIS AT SOME TIME AROUND TWO AM NOV. TWENTYFIVE, NOTING THAT BY THAT TIME SHE HAD CAUGHT UP ON SOME OTHER EXPEDITE DICTATION, AND THAT SHE TRANSCRIBED IT SOMETIME IN THE EARLY AM OF NOV. TWENTYFIVE.

I DESIRE TO POINT OUT FOLLOWING RE LENGTH OF TIME THAT SA HALL AND STENO TANKSLEY WERE ON DUTY IN CONNECTION WITH THESE EXPEDITE INVESTIGATIONS. SA HALL WORKED THE REGULAR WORK DAY FRIDAY, NOV TWENTYTWO, AND RIGHT ON THROUGH UNTIL THREE THIRTYFIVE AM, SAT, NOV TWENTYTHREE. HE CAME BACK IN AND WORKED ~~AN HOUR DURING NIGHT OF~~ From 7:40 am until 7:07 PM SAT, NOV TWENTYTHREE. ON SUN, NOV TWENTYFOUR, HE ENTERED ON DUTY AT NINE TWENTY AM AND WORKED STRAIGHT ON THROUGH UNTIL EIGHT FORTY AM, NOV TWENTYFIVE. DURING THIS PERIOD SA HALL PERFORMED

NUMEROUS OTHER INVESTIGATIVE DUTIES IN ADDITION TO THIS PARTICULAR INTERVIEW.

STENO TANKSLEY WORKED REGULAR WORK DAY NOV TWENTYTWO. ON SAT, NOV TWENTYTHREE, SHE WORKED FROM TWELVE ZERO ONE AM TO THREE FIFTEEN AM. ON SUNDAY, NOV TWENTYFOUR, SHE WORKED FROM TWO FORTYFIVE PM RIGHT ON THROUGH UNTIL TEN AM NOV TWENTYFIVE.

QUESTION THREE - SA HALL ADVISED ME THAT SHEN HIS RD DICTATION HAD BEEN RETURNED TO HIM ON A MULTILITH HE KNOWS THAT HE REVIEWED SAME FOR CONTENT, SPELLING, ETC. THIS WAS SOMETIME DURING THE AM OF NOV TWENTYFIVE. HE THEREUPON INITIALLED THE MULTILITH AND DID NOT NOTE THE DATE WAS IN ERROR. THIS WAS THE ONLY AUTHORITY NECESSARY FOR THE FILING OF THE ORIGINAL THREE ZERO TWO, AND NO ONE ELSE HAD TO INITIAL THE SAME FOR IT TO BE FILED.

QUESTION FOUR - SA HALL DID NOT REVIEW THE BRIEF WHICH WAS FORWARDED TO DALLAS FOR REVIEW PRIOR TO BEING SUBMITTED TO PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION. END MSG ONE

A review of "The Herald of Freedom", [published at Staten Island, New York), issue of 1/17/64 reflected the following statements on pages 2 and 3 concerning RUBY:

"JACK LEON RUBENSTEIN, alias JACK RUBY, the murderer of LEE H. OSWALD, was a notorious character who has been close to several people in Chicago who were murdered and to a big time narcotics distributor. He was involved in many rackets, including striptease "joints" and party girls and has had contacts in Havana. RUBENSTEIN visited Havana within the past year in violation of State Department regulations. While there he visited his friend PRASKIN who owns and operates a novelty store on the Padro in Havana across the street from the Hotel Seville. PRASKIN is a known long-time CASTRO collaborator. He is a native Cuban married to an American girl. PRASKIN is involved in strip tease and party girls as a side line. The above information was received from Havana from one of the best informed men in the United States on Soviet and CASTRO intelligence operations."

Information regarding this pamphlet has previously been furnished the Bureau by airtel dated 7/15/63 under the caption, "THE HERALD OF FREEDOM, INFORMATION CONCERNING". This is a 4 page pamphlet published bi-weekly at Staten Island, New York by FRANK A. CAPELL, former NY 1635-C, who was discontinued as a criminal informant of the New York Office January, 1961. As a result of his active participation in anti-Communism activities in the New York and Staten Island areas.

CAPELL has received local prominence as the editor and publisher of this publication, which he describes as "devoted to combating Communism, Socialism and Un-american activities by printing the whole truth in detail".

For the information of the Bureau and Dallas this pamphlet was involved in the case captioned, "UNSUBS; Reverend George Von Hilsheimer, III, ET AL - VICTIM; CAMP SUMMERLAND, ROSMAN, N.C., CR, OO: CHARLOTTE", Bu file 44-24941. In that investigation allegation was made that the above pamphlet incited the citizens of Rosman, N.C. against the operators of Camp Summerland, at Rosman, N.C.

RUC reports by the New York Office were submitted 8/15/63 and 8/27/63.

New York will interview FRANK A. CAPELL.

Inserts and FD 302 will be forwarded to Dallas.

The following is a chronological summary of the whereabouts, movements, and activities of JACK L. RUBY, as obtained by review of investigation conducted in this case, beginning in January, 1963, with particular attention to the period November 22-24, 1963, inclusive. Additions to this chronological summary will be made as investigation continues. Only those entries are included in this chronology in which the identity of JACK L. RUBY has been indicated as definite in connection with the particular entry.

For the information of the Bureau and interested offices, the following entries in the above-mentioned chronology bear references to the Dallas case, serial and page(s). (44-1639-3627, page 10, etc.; 44-1639-3917, page 10, etc.) so that greater detail of any particular entry can be readilly found. Serials 3627 and 3917 in the Dallas file are the Dallas reports of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS dated January 8, 1964, and January 17, 1964, respectively.

Mr. William Foley, First Assistant, Criminal Division of the Department, telephonically inquired today whether the Dallas Office had made available to U. S. Attorney Sanders the reports in the Ruby investigation as requested by the Department.

The Dallas Office was contacted and ASAC Kyle Clark advised that the Ruby reports had been delivered to the U. S. Attorney's office at 11:30 a.m. today and turned over to First Assistant Bob Ward in the absence of USA Sanders. Clark advised that all the necessary deletions, in accordance with Department instructions, had been made. Clark also advised in connection with the reports that USA Sanders had inquired on 1/23/64 relative to the status of the reports and was advised that instructions had been received from the Department to turn the reports over to Sanders after certain deletions were made and this was being done at that time and they would be delivered to his office as quickly as possible.

ASAC Clark also advised that on 1/23/64 District Attorney Wade of Dallas County had been in touch with the office on other matters and inquired as to when the Ruby reports would be in the hands of the U. S. Attorney's office. At that time Wade was advised that instructions had been received concerning this matter from the Department; that they were being prepared for delivery to the U. S. Attorney's office; and that he should receive a call on these reports from the U. S. Attorney's office in the near future.

Upon receipt of this information, Mr. William Foley was advised that the reports had been delivered to the U. S. Attorney's office today at 11:30 a.m. and given to First Assistant Ward in the absence of USA Sanders. Foley advised that District Attorney Wade had been in the office of Assistant Attorney General Miller today and had inquired concerning the status of the reports, which was the reason for his inquiry.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Belmont

DATE: January 22, 1964

FROM : A. Rosen

SUBJECT: JACK RUBY, AKA
LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA - VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS

By memorandum of 1/20/64 the Criminal Division has advised that the reports we have furnished them for review in the Ruby case should be made available to Dallas County District Attorney Wade through United States Attorney(USA) Barefoot Sanders at Dallas. It was stated that Sanders will retain possession of the reports which will be shown in his office to Mr. Wade or an assistant of Wade's personally approved by USA Sanders.

It is noted we have furnished the Department 18 investigative reports and in the Department's memorandum they make specific reference to only five reports from which they request that certain information be deleted prior to the reports' being shown to Wade.

In the absence of Assistant Attorney General(AAG) Miller, William E. Foley, Miller's assistant was contacted regarding the other 13 reports since Department's memorandum only mentioned five reports from which deletions were to be made. Foley said that all 18 reports have been reviewed and the Department desires that the 18 reports be made available through USA Sanders to the County District Attorney with the exception that the items mentioned in the Department's memorandum should first be deleted. With regard to the most recent report which was submitted by Dallas, 1/17/64, and which Foley had not yet received, he stated that this and all future reports will be handled in the same manner by the Department, that is they will be reviewed to determine what if any information should be furnished local authorities.

Foley was asked whether the President's Commission has agreed to this plan and he replied that it has been discussed with a representative of the President's Commission who raised no objection and that the Commission as well as USA Sanders were furnished copies of the Department's memorandum to us.

Re: JACK RUBY, AKA

Set out below is a brief description of each item which the Department has requested should be deleted. The parenthetical comments have been supplied by us to indicate the nature of each item.

1. Report of SA Manning C. Clements, Dallas, November 30, 1963.
   a. Statement of Officer Dwayne McGrath, page 74 (Officer McGrath at 10:30 p.m. on 11/24/63 while assigned to guard Jack Ruby reportedly made several statements to the effect that the whole business of transferring Oswald to the Dallas County Jail was bungled.)

   b. Statement of Mrs. Leonard Repsky, page 329
   (Mrs. Repsky said that she had known Ruby for 12 years and that he was "mean and violent tempered." She cited two instances where Ruby had gotten in fights with customers at his club to exemplify the remark. She requested that the information furnished by her be treated as confidential as she was afraid of reprisal; however, she consented to furnishing the information to the Department, the USA, and the President's Commission.)

   c. Statement of Clayton Fowler, page 368
   (Clayton Fowler is a Dallas attorney who has represented Ruby in the past and he requested that information furnished by him not be published or made known to Ruby. He advised that he did not believe Ruby committed the murder of Oswald for patriotic motives but rather for publicity and to raise himself socially in the eyes of the public.)

   d. Records of Brand Avenue Bank and Trust Company beginning on page 605
   (These are confidential bank records that were checked in running out Ruby's financial transactions.)

   e. Records of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company beginning on page 688
   (These are confidential telephone company records that were checked in running out Ruby's telephone calls.)

2. Report of SA Manning C. Clements, Dallas, December 6, 1963.
   a. Statement of Travis Kirk beginning at page 88
   (Kirk is an attorney in San Francisco, California, who previously practiced law in Dallas for 23 years. He said he did not know Ruby or have any direct knowledge of the recent events in Dallas but over the years he had developed an animosity toward the Dallas Police Department and particularly toward Captain Fritz. He said he believed it possible that Fritz arranged the murder of Oswald in order to close the case. It is noted Kirk's information is all hearsay and speculation and investigation has not indicated any substantiation.)

   b. Records of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company beginning on page 226
   (These are confidential telephone company records that were examined in the course of tracing out telephone calls of Ruby.)

   c. Records of Michigan Bell Telephone Company beginning on page 230
   (These are confidential telephone company records that were examined in the course of tracing out telephone calls of Ruby.)

   d. Records of Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, General Telephone Company of Upstate New York and Southwestern Bell Telephone Company of St. Louis beginning on page 232
   (These are confidential telephone company records that were examined in the course of tracing out telephone calls of Ruby.)

3. Report of SA Manning C. Clements, Dallas, December 11, 1963.
   a. Interview with Gene Barnes beginning at page 373 (Barnes is an NBC news cameraman, Hollywood, California, who was in Dallas 11/24/63. He said he left the police building immediately prior to the shooting but subsequently followed the ambulance that carried Oswald to the hospital. Upon arrival a police officer told him he would identify the person who shot Oswald if Barnes would "grease his palm." He heard Ruby identified as the person before he accepted the offer. In addition, Barnes also related a number of wild rumors that he had heard among the newsmen in Dallas relating to Ruby and his association with police officers and the police department. Subsequent investigation has shown these rumors to be strictly unfounded and without merit.)

b. Interview of Charles E. Murphy, page 459
(Murphy, a news commentator for WBAP TV, Fort Worth, Texas, referred to information received by him from James Kerr, WBAP, Dallas. He said Kerr obtained the information from a reliable source in the Dallas District Attorney's Office which he did not wish to have revealed. This involved a rumor that Ruby had been seen in the office of the District Attorney on the afternoon of 11/22/63 shortly after former President Kennedy was shot. Investigation has indicated that the rumor has no factual basis.)

4. Report of SA Manning C. Clements, Dallas, December 14, 1963.
a. Information from Family Court of Cook County, Illinois (Disclosure of this information is prohibited by statute. It deals with dependency proceedings of 1921-26 when efforts were being made to force Ruby's father to support his children and also mentions that Ruby's brother Hyman was placed on probation as a juvenile delinquent in 1916.)

b. Statement of M. L. Miller beginning at page 221
(Miller is a Dallas attorney who stated he met Ruby only once. This was in 1954 or 1955 when Ruby asked Miller to represent him but Miller gained the impression that Ruby wanted an attorney who could pay off public officials although Ruby did not mention anything specific in this regard. Miller refused to represent Ruby.)

c. Information from Merchant's State Bank beginning at page 382
(This is confidential information obtained in the course of checking out Ruby's financial transactions.)

d. Records of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company beginning at page 540
(This is confidential information obtained in the course of checking out Ruby's telephone calls.)

5. Report of SA Manning C. Clements, Dallas, January 8, 1964.

a. Statement of Bill Gus Komodore beginning at page 177
(Komodore said he did not know Ruby although in 1960 or 1961 he worked as a waiter for one night only at Ruby's Sovereign Club in Dallas. Komodore was hired by the maitre d' and quit because he was not paid. He allegedly was told by another waiter that the Sovereign Club was the only place in Dallas that can serve mixed drinks at the tables and this was possible because the club had a deal with the District Attorney. As a matter of fact the Sovereign Club was a private club legally entitled to serve mixed drinks at tables.)

b. Information received from the Bank of Services and Trusts beginning at page 229
(These are confidential bank records that were checked in running out Ruby's financial transactions.)

c. Records of Merchant's State Bank beginning at page 232
(These are confidential bank records that were checked in running out Ruby's financial transactions.)

d. Records of First National Bank, page 233
(These are confidential bank records that were checked in running out Ruby's financial transactions.)

e. Letter to the Attorney General from Marvin Jones beginning at page 259
(By memorandum 12/11/63 AAG Miller furnished information from a letter to the Attorney General by Marvin Jones, a Dallas attorney. As a result Jones was interviewed by the Dallas Office 12/16/63 and the results of the interview have not been deleted from the report by the Department. The only actual deletion deals with the fact that Jones had written the Attorney General and AAG Miller had referred it to the FBI.)

f. Records of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company and Western Union Telegraph Company beginning at page 340
(These are confidential records which were checked in the course of tracing persons with whom Ruby has had contact.)

TIPPIT, 238 Glencairn, Dallas, Texas, who advised she received same in afternoon mail delivery, 1/13/64. The copies were identified with the date 1/14/64 and the initials "WHG" and "AEC, and DL 9-1914, on reverse side.

MRS. TIPPIT further advised a number of relatives and friends had handled this envelope and its enclosure and she stated she would determine their exact names and correct addresses and furnish same on 1/14/64. She said she felt sure each of these persons would gladly furnish their fingerprints if the Bureau so desired.

The letter is not being quoted herein inasmuch as it is self explanatory.

The Xerox copies of instant letter were prepared by SA's CARTER and GRIFFIN, on 1/14/64.

MRS. TIPPIT is the widow of Officer J. D. TIPPIT who was/murdered allegedly by LEE HARVEY OSWALD on 11/22/63, at Dallas, Texas, shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY. Copies of all information developed in this case are being placed in the captioned files.

On 1/13/64, SA WILL HAYDEN GRIFFIN contacted AUSA B. H. TIMMINS, at Dallas, Texas, and he advised he was withholding a prosecutive opinion until investigation was conducted to attempt to determine the intent of the sender as set out in the penultimate paragraph "...if you refuse to cooperate, You will dig Your own grave, besides, You have nothing to loose. It is worth finishing the job, Your husband has started for You and children, so pick up the, were Your husband had to drop it."

The Bureau is requested to conduct the following investigation and examination through the FBI Identification Division and the FBI Laboratory and through the Legats at Bonn, Germany, and Bern, Switzerland:

1. Search Anonymous Letter File in an attempt to identify the Unknown Subject.

2. Attempt to identify sender through search of Bureau indices.

3. Examine original extortion letter for latent prints.

4. Attempt to identify make and model of type-

DL 9-1914, 100-10461, 44-1639

The Bureau is requested to furnish the results of the examination in sufficient copies for Dallas to place them in the three captioned files.

Xerox copies are prepared and attached for use of Bureau and Legats at Bonn, Germany, and Bern, Switzerland.

The Legat at Bonn will attempt to locate and interview the sender, MR. D. EVERSHIRE, Admiralengracht 142,I, Amsterdam, The Netherlands, and also THOMAS WILLIAM EVERSHIRE, who signed the letter T. W. Evershire.

The Legat at Bern, Switzerland, will determine if possible the identity of the owner of account number as set out in the extortion letter and also the identity of MR. CHARLES ROSENBLAD, who is also mentioned in this letter.

The original of the envelope and the letter should be returned to the Dallas Division after the appropriate examinations have been made.

A report will be submitted by Dallas upon receipt of results of Laboratory and Identification Division examinations and the results of investigation by the Legats at Bonn and Bern.

The leads for the Legats are being set forth on this airtel rather than on the letterhead memorandum in view of the possibility that the enclosed letterhead memorandum may be disseminated by the Bureau.

MRS. J. D. TIPPIT - VICTIM

On January 13, 1964, MRS. J. D. TIPPIT, the widow of Dallas Police Officer J. D. TIPPIT, residing at 238 Glencairn, Dallas, Texas, advised the Dallas Office that she had received an air mail letter postmarked at Amsterdam addressed to "To (Widow) MADAM TIPPIT, Dullas, Texas, U S A." This envelope bore a return address of "Sender: MR. D. Evershire, Admiralengracht 142,I, Amsterdam, The Netherlands."

MRS. TIPPIT said she did not know the sender of this letter and was sure it was not prepared by any former friend of her husband. She said that she called the Dallas Police Department and reported receipt of it to Sergeant C. B. OWENS, Radio Patrol Officer, Dallas Police Department, about 1:00 p.m.

The contents of the letter are as follows:

"Germany, 1st Januari 1964. EUROPE.

"Concerns: Factory of Your Husband's in Germany.

"Dear Madam,

"No doubt, it will surprise You very much hearing of a Factory of Your deseased husband, but it is real true.

"There is a lot of things You have not heared of, hence, we have taken the liberty to send You this letter. Please, realize the following sentences are of paramount importance, not only to You, but also to impotant personallities, so take good notice of them.

"President Kennedy has been liquidated and Your husband has been murdered the same day, a few days later, Lee Oswald

"has been shot down by Rubby. Have You never thought there must be a secret connection between Oswald and Rubby? Well, dear Madam, there has been indeed, and more, Your husband was also a member of the gang. Amazed at it? Madam believe us, we have all evidence here with us. The death of President Kennedy must be attributed to a fanatic political opponent of the President, a certain Governor of one of the States of the USA.

"The Governor did not feel safe with regards to the Election of President next year, so that Kennedy should be disappeared. In order to achieve this result, this opponent seeked contact with Oswald, of whom was Known to be a very strong antipode of the American Intern Policy, and also with us.

"After Oswald had succeeded in liquidating Pres. Kennedy, Your husband had the order to act as if he was going to arrest Oswald. Unfortunately, Oswald did not recognize Your husband for some reason, and so he shot him down.

"Further, each of us should receive an amount of hundred thausand dollars from the said Governor. As agreed upon, the Governor should pay 75% in advance and the remainder by us self.

"However, Your husband is no more to pay his part of the remainder ad. 35.000 dollars. Will You please complete the work of Your husbands? Evidently, his was doing this for You and his children, beside, let him not gave his life for nothing.

"Moreover, if the money should not be paid in time, the sellers of the Factory may get impatiently and spoil the whole thing.

"Of course, You do not have to remain share-holder if You do not want to, later You can sell Your share again. This is done only to prevent difficulties for the time being.

"So dear Madam, do not be too self-conceited or suspicious, later everthing will be clear to You. It is urgent, so hurry, Madam, send 35.000 dollars then You and we are safe, do not wait too lang.

"Go to Your Bank and send us a covered cheque of the said amount, or open a Bank Account with a Bank at Switserland, without conditions. On name of WOLFGANG AE 090822, message of confirmation may be sent to Mr. Charles Rozenblad, Admiralengracht 142.L, Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

"Please realize, Madam, if You refuse to cooperate, You will dig Your own grave, besides, You have nothing to loose.

"It is worth finishing the job, Your husband has started for You and children, so pick up the, were Your husband had had to drop it.

"In conclusion, we wish you success, wisdom and courage.

"For the Gang.

"Thomas, William, Evershire."

INTERVIEW WITH NEWSMEN

Henry Machirella, Reporter for the "New York Daily News", was interviewed at the offices of this newspaper and he furnished the following information:

He is generally known among reporters as "Hank" Machirella. He was assigned on November 22, 1963, to cover the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and he arrived in Dallas, Texas, about 8:15 P.M., on November 22, 1963. He was in the Dallas Police Department Building on the night of November 22, 1963, and several times during the day on November 22, 1963. On each visit he went to the third floor and he recalled that he was required to identify himself when he reached the third floor. He was unable to recall if he was required to identify himself each time he went to the third floor. He explained that there were a great number of people in the corridor on the third floor, and a great deal of confusion existed in this corridor. There were some police officers on this floor who were checking the identification of persons as they left the elevator. However, he believed that due to the confusion which existed on this floor, it was possible for an unauthorized person to have entered the premises without exhibiting identification at a time when these officers were busy checking other persons entering the area.

Machirella had been informed on November 22, 1963, at an informal press conference, by Jesse Curry, Chief of Police, Dallas, Texas, that Lee Harvey Oswald would probably be moved to the County Jail at 10:00 A.M., November 24, 1963. He went to Dallas Police Headquarters about 10:00 a.m., November 24, 1963, and he immediately went to the third floor. The corridor was not crowded at that time and he is not sure if he was required to show identification at the time. He went to the office of the Chief of Police Curry.

Chief Curry was standing outside his office talking to some photographers who wanted to know when they could get pictures of Oswald. Curry was telling these men that Oswald would be moved out of the building through the basement in about 45 minutes and that they would have ample opportunity to get pictures of Oswald.

Machirella took the public elevator to the basement about 10:50 A.M. When he left the elevator his identification was checked by a uniformed officer in a basement corridor. When he entered the basement area itself, he was told to stand near a television camera. There were a number of other people standing on both sides of this camera and another television camera located on the Main Street side of the building. There were people standing in front of him.

He had noticed a number of police officers stationed along the basement ramp leading toward the Commerce Street side of the building and several at the top of the ramp. There were several officers on the ramp leading to the opposite side of the building, but he believed there was only one officer at the top of the ramp on foot. He thought there was a police car also stationed at the top of this ramp. However, he believed that the security was not very strict and that it would have been possible for an unauthorized person to gain entry to the basement without too much difficulty.

He observed Oswald being brought out by police officers into the basement corridor. He saw Oswald look to the left, which he later believed was the direction from which Jack Ruby came.

He did not see Jack Ruby in the basement area that morning. As Oswald was walking along this corridor he heard a shot and saw Oswald bend over clutching his abdomen. He saw police officers grappling with a man whom he did not know at the time. He saw a hat rolling on the floor and believed the initials inside the hat were J.R. He pointed out that he did not see Jack Ruby any time prior to the time Oswald was shot. He did not see the gun used by Jack Ruby.

He observed that after Oswald was shot he was taken back through the doorway from which he had emerged and the man in police custody, whom he later determined was Jack Ruby, was also taken through this doorway. Machirella was standing near this doorway and could see Oswald lying on the floor inside the doorway. Then, in a short time, Oswald was placed in an ambulance and taken to a hospital.

He recalled that just about the time that he heard the shot a car had backed rapidly down the ramp behind the armored car and stopped short.

He did not know of any authorized persons permitted to enter the basement area on November 24, 1963, without exhibiting identification.

He did not know from his own personal knowledge of any unauthorized person in the basement area on the morning of November 24, 1963. Someone did tell him that a sixteen year old female reporter for a high school newspaper was in the basement that morning. He did not know who had furnished him this information, but believed it might be W. Fowler, a reporter for the "Dallas Morning News".

Machirella estimated that there were between 75 and 100 people, in addition to police officers, in the basement area on that morning. It did not seem to him that all could have been authorized press representatives, but he could not name any unauthorized persons in the basement other than the girl mentioned above. The only persons he actually knew among the press representatives in the basement were the following:

A girl named Peggy (Last Name Unknown) (LNU), who is a reporter for the Dallas Bureau of the Associated Press;

Gene Miller, Reporter for the "Miami, Florida Herald";

Tony Ripley, Reporter for the "Detroit Times";

Francois (LNU), Reporter for the French Press.

He is not certain, but he believed that Adrian Smith and John Mc Donough, Reporters for the "Philadelphia Evening Bulletin", were in the basement that morning.

Machirella had no knowledge that any person conspired with Ruby to kill Oswald. He also had no knowledge that any police officer, or other official, conspired with Ruby or wilfully permitted the killing of Oswald.

Machirella did not see or talk to Ruby at any time on November 22, 23, or 24, 1963.

Machirella did not know of any connection between Ruby and Oswald.

Machirella also related the following facts which were furnished to him on November 25, 1963, by Tom Howard, who was attorney for Jack Ruby:

Howard was in the basement near the public elevator at the time Oswald was shot. This was not in the same area where the shooting took place.

After the shooting, Howard left the basement of the building and went to his office nearby. His partner, E. C. Sullivan, was in the office at the time. There was also a man in the office, whom Howard said identified himself as "a lawyer from the East". This man had an attache case with him, which he opened and which contained two guns, one of these was an automatic and a pistol. This man had told Howard that he came to Dallas to kill Oswald. Howard informed this man that he might as well take a bus back to the East.

Machirella questioned Howard as to whether he had reported this to police authorities and Howard indicated that he had not. Howard did say that he had taken the two guns from this man. Howard had pointed out that the man came to his office because he noticed the sign Howard had outside his office indicating that he was an attorney. Machirella described the information furnished by Howard as "fantastic", but he did report it to his newspaper, which did not print it. Machirella thought the story had been made up by Howard and he believed that this story gives an indication of the type of man that Howard is. Machirella thought Howard's purpose for furnishing this information was to give the impression that a number of people wanted to kill Oswald.

SUBJECT: JACK L. RUBY, AKA.

Request of Henry Wade, District Attorney, Dallas, Texas

Dallas has advised that Henry Wade, District Attorney, Dallas County, Texas, has expressed a desire to have copies of a number of the reports of interviews, particularly those reflecting interviews with Ruby, background information furnished concerning Ruby and those reflecting Ruby's activities during the pertinent period (11/21-24/63). Wade pointed out that he would keep the information confidential but would find it most helpful in possible connection with cross-examination of witnesses. He also indicated he might subpoena some of our Agents should a witness tell a different story on the stand from the story related to the Agents.

The Dallas Office reviewed interviews in connection with the phases mentioned by Wade and set forth three interviews of Ruby and 141 interviews of relatives, associates and other persons covering the desired information. It was requested that Bureau permission be granted to make the reports of these interviews available to Wade.

Request of Defense Attorney for Agent Testimony

It is noted that the defense attorneys for Ruby have already made a request for two Agents to testify at a bond hearing 1/24/63 as to statements made by Ruby in their presence immediately subsequent to his arrest on 11/24/63. District Attorney Wade did not feel that the Agents' testimonies would be detrimental to the State's case and did not object to their testifying. Assistant Attorney General Miller asked that the Bureau consider allowing the Agents to testify as to refuse might create the impression that the Federal Government had something to hide. With the Director's approval Miller was advised 1/8/64 that the Bureau would defer to his views as to whether or not the Agents would be allowed to testify. Miller said that he desired the Agents to testify for the defense and that he would insure that the U. S. Attorney was present in State court if the Agents testified.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont
RE: JACK L. RUBY, AKA.

Request of Attorney General, Texas:

Mr. J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission, by letter dated January 7, 1964, forwarded a letter to the Commission from Mr. Waggoner Carr, Attorney General of Texas, in which Carr indicated that the District Attorney of Dallas County, Henry Wade, is presently handicapped in the preparation of the case against Jack L. Ruby by the fact that certain records, including written statements, are in possession of the FBI. Mr. Carr also states that Mr. Wade is concerned about repeated statements made in the press to the effect that there is no connection between Oswald and Ruby. Carr states Wade's point is that such press reports should say that no connection has thus far been established. He advises Wade is aware that such press statements are not based on any statements or activities of the Commission or anyone connected with the Commission.

Mr. Rankin requested advice concerning the nature of the records in possession of the FBI, if any, which Mr. Wade does not have and which he feels are necessary to the preparation of his case. He requested that he be advised of any arrangements which can be made to assist Wade without impairing the investigative responsibilities of the FBI or the assignment of the President's Commission.

Facts to be Considered

The Federal Government has no direct interest in or responsibility for the State murder prosecution of Ruby but any direct statements or admissions made by Ruby to Agents would be pertinent. Since we have already agreed, as Miller desires, to furnish Agents to testify for the defense as to statements made by Ruby in the presence of Agents, there is no objection to furnishing the State reports of Agents' interviews with Ruby.

It will be noted that Mr. Rankin points out the Commission is anxious to cooperate with the Texas authorities. From the Bureau's standpoint, we see no objection to advising the District Attorney of the names of the police officers and others to whom Ruby made statements after his arrest and who we subsequently interviewed. We could orally furnish the essence of the information so state authorities could conduct their own interviews. We could do the same as to persons who furnished us information about Ruby's movements during the pertinent period, 11/21 through 11/24/63.

We think it would be undesirable to furnish the full results of our investigation to the State reflecting interviews of approximately 3,000 persons contained in investigative reports totaling approximately 3,307 pages. Our investigation covers all facets of Ruby's life, including the running out of numerous rumors and false allegations. We should not be in a position that the Bureau has selected from this mass of interviews that which should be turned over to the District Attorney bearing in mind that the defense may also request such information.

It should be noted that the Dallas Police have conducted an investigation of the murder and furnished copies of their report to Wade and the President's Commission and the trial should be based on the Dallas Police investigation.

Possible Request for FBI Reports by Defense

In connection with a possible request from the defense for our investigative reports, a United Press International release of 1/7/64 quoted J. H. Tonahill of Jasper, Texas, one of Ruby's defense attorneys, as stating that he would go to Federal court if necessary to make the FBI and the President's Commission turn over to him reports of their investigations of the Oswald killing. He said the reports no doubt would contain fine defensive material and "we are entitled to it under several Supreme Court decisions." The Bureau has not as yet had a specific request from Ruby's defense attorneys for our investigative reports.

Dallas County, Texas

Thinking of Assistant District Attorney Dallas re Conspiracy

In addition to the above, Dallas advised that Assistant District Attorney William Alexander has stated that the State prosecution would "make no effort to correct impressions" a jury may receive that Oswald and Ruby were part of a communist conspiracy and inferred that he felt a jury would be most likely to convict and give Ruby a substantial sentence with the belief that there was an Oswald-Ruby connection. Dallas requested that they be allowed to advise District Attorney Wade that Ruby has denied any connection with Oswald and that no reliable information has been developed in our investigation to indicate that Ruby and Oswald had ever known each other or had any association whatever. While this is true, we do not think the FBI should make such a statement to state authorities as this is a function of the President's Commission.

ACTION:

Basically, we feel that the decision as to what should be turned over to the State rests with the Department and the President's Commission. We recommend:

1. That Mr. Malley see Mr. Rankin and discuss with him the request made by Attorney General Carr of Texas, that it be suggested to Rankin that it would be desirable to obtain the Department's views relative to what information should be given to Mr. Carr in view of the fact the Department requested the Bureau to conduct a civil rights investigation relative to Ruby's shooting of Oswald. Mr. Rankin will also be advised that the Bureau has not up to this point furnished any reports concerning the Ruby investigation to the Department inasmuch as the President also requested the Bureau to conduct investigation relative to the shooting of Oswald by Ruby and in view of the President's request all reports thus far have been made available only to the President's Commission. Mr. Rankin will be advised that the Commission has all of the reports prepared by the Bureau in the Ruby matter and that they are, therefore, aware of what information we have. Mr. Rankin will also be advised that the Bureau defers to the Commission as to what information is to be furnished to the District Attorney. For Rankin's assistance, we can point out the feasibility of furnishing interviews with Ruby and orally identifying for the District Attorney those people whom we have interviewed who talked to Ruby after his arrest and those people whom we interviewed who furnished information regarding Ruby's movements during the pertinent period. In addition to identifying these persons, we can orally advise the District Attorney as to the nature of information he can expect from them.

UNDATION

RE: JACK L. RUBY, AKA.

2. After discussing this matter with Mr. Rankin, if Rankin agrees, the request of Waggoner Carr will then be discussed with Assistant Attorney General Miller of the Department and his opinion solicited as to what if any information should be furnished to the Dallas District Attorney. We can point out the logical cut-off line of furnishing the District Attorney specific reports (there are three) reflecting results of Agents' interviews with Ruby, the names of police officers and persons whom we interviewed who talked to Ruby subsequent to the arrest, and names of persons we interviewed who can furnish information as to Ruby's movements during the pertinent period.

Hill Chief

I will go along with this but things we are doing "stuff" about it. Certainly we should want to help the State authorities in their prosecution of Ruby. I see in this endless delays upon part of Rankin & Miller in reaching a decision. The State authorities will blame us for unduly delaying - not Rankin & Miller.

MR. DE LOACH

Jack Ruby

On January 29, 1964, Mr. J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel of the Presidential Commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren, called to see me. He stated that the Commission had asked him to personally see me relative to a matter in which the Commission members were extremely interested.

He stated that there had appeared before the Commission, Mr. Henry E. Wade, a former Special Agent of the Bureau and who is now State District Attorney at Dallas, Texas. He stated Wade advised the Commission that he had left the Bureau with a good record and that, in fact, the Bureau had endeavored to dissuade him from leaving. (The summary on Wade, dated January 29, 1964, which is attached, does not substantiate this last statement of Wade as it will be noted that a few months after leaving the Bureau, he sought reinstatement, stating he had made a mistake in resigning, but his request for reinstatement was refused since the Bureau's request for his deferment under the Selective Service Act had already been withdrawn.)

Mr. Rankin stated that Mr. Wade indicated he had left the Bureau with an excellent record and there was no indication of any differences which he might have had with the Bureau.

Mr. Rankin stated that Mr. Wade had advised the Commission that a reporter by the name of Lonnie Hudkins of the Houston Post, Houston, Texas, had printed an article to the effect that Lee Harvey Oswald was a confidential informant or undercover agent for the FBI.

[redacted] randum for Messrs. Tolson, Belmont, Mohr, Sullivan, Rosen, [redacted] J. DeLoach

Mr. Wade further advised the Commission that Lee Harvey Oswald bore the designation of "179" as an informant of the FBI and was paid $200 a month. Apparently the Commission questioned Mr. Wade at some length about this and Mr. Wade further advised the Commission that he, Mr. Wade, while in the Bureau worked in South America for the FBI. I note from the summary attached on Wade that he had an SIS assignment at Quito, Ecuador, during 1942 and 1943. I note further that he was placed on leave without pay on June 1, 1942, and departed from Washington for Quito, Ecuador, on July 29, 1942, arriving in Quito in August, 1942. Effective September 1, 1942, he was placed on the confidential rolls. On May 29, 1943, he submitted his resignation with active duty ceasing at the close of business May 30, 1943.

Mr. Rankin stated that Wade informed the Commission that he was supplied from time to time with various sums of money by the FBI for which he did not have to account nor obtain any receipt from the person or persons to whom he disbursed the money. Mr. Wade stated to the Commission that there was no record of how such funds were spent nor for what purposes they were used by the employee of the FBI to whom the money was given. The Commission, according to Mr. Rankin, concluded that there would be no record of expenditures at Washington, D. C., or any other place in the FBI showing who were employed as confidential informants or the amount paid to them.

Mr. Rankin stated that the Commission was concerned as to how this matter could be resolved, and it was for this reason that they had asked him to see me. He stated the Commission did not desire to initiate an investigation on the outside, such as the calling of Mr. Hudkins, who was the originator of the story and from whom apparently Wade gained his first information as it might appear the Commission was investigating the FBI.

I told Mr. Rankin that I thought the Commission should immediately call Mr. Hudkins before it, place him under oath, and demand of him the source of his information. I stated that I doubted he would give it to them and would either take the position he could not recall from where he obtained it or resort to the claim that a newspaper reporter's sources are privileged.

I told Mr. Rankin further that insofar as Mr. Wade's statements were concerned as to how monies were disbursed within the Bureau, of [redacted] I could not speak authoritatively upon the disbursement of funds during the operation of our SIS, but I did not believe that there was any such loose administration of our funds as had been indicated. I told Mr. Rankin that I most certainly could state that at least for the last twenty years I knew Mr. Wade's statements would not hold water.

January 31, 1964

Memorandum for Messrs. Tolson, Belmont, Mohr, Sullivan, Rosen, Malley, DeLoach

I then outlined to Mr. Rankin generally the procedures that are followed, namely, that every cent is strictly accounted for and the identity of every informant is known to and a record maintained of at the Washington headquarters of the Bureau with indications of the amount of money that is paid to him.

Mr. Rankin inquired of me as to how I would suggest this aspect be developed. I told Mr. Rankin I would be very willing to make an affidavit covering these matters or to appear in person and testify under oath as to what the facts were.

I told Mr. Rankin that Lee Harvey Oswald was never at any time a confidential informant, an undercover agent, or even a source of information for the FBI, and I would like to see that clearly stated on the record of the Commission and I would be willing to so state under oath.

I asked for and received from Mr. Belmont a memorandum as to the handling of funds within the Bureau and it does show that there has been strict accounting of our monies disbursed by the Bureau under SIS as well as subsequent to our withdrawal from SIS operations.

I would like to now have a further analysis of exactly how Wade operated and how monies were paid to him as well as a listing of the funds supplied him and what disposition he made of them. Wade has certainly grossly misinterpreted to the Presidential Commission the manner in which the Bureau operates its informants and it is the desire of the Commission and most certainly that of myself to have this clarified and the record set straight.

Mr. Rankin took occasion while he was here to express appreciation of the cooperation which has been extended by the Bureau to the Presidential Commission and how helpful the Bureau has been to it. I commented to him that I had not appreciated the what I interpreted as carping criticism of the Chief Justice when he referred to the Bureau's report originally submitted to the Commission as being a "skeleton" report and his more recent comment that the Commission was engaged in filling in the "gaps" in the investigation. I stated that the report as originally prepared at the direction of the President was intended to be released as promptly as finished by the White House in order to put an end to the many rumors already in circulation which had no basis in fact and that, therefore, the report was in a narrative form unlike the usual reports which are prepared for use in prosecutions. I stated that as he well knew, we had now supplied to the Commission the so-called "raw material" which was the language of the Chief Justice and that these reports totaled over 10,000 pages and that he no doubt would receive some thousand more as the investigation was still continuing.

January 31, 1964

Memorandum for Messrs. Tolson, Belmont, Mohr, Sullivan, Rosen, Bishop, DeLoach

As soon as I receive the memorandum which I have requested above, I will want them to have the first memorandum which Mr. Belmont has submitted to me combined with such pertinent material as the memorandum which I have now requested into an affidavit which I may sign and have with me when I am called before the Presidential Commission and which I will ask the Commission to make a part of the record in addition to any statement which they request me to make or any answers to questions which they may propound.

Very truly yours,

I called SAC Shanklin, Dallas, and advised him that we have been informed that District Attorney Wade, in his recent appearance before representatives of the President's Commission to investigate the assassination of President Kennedy, had made the statement that Dallas reporter Hudkins claims Oswald was known as Informant #179 in the FBI, and was paid $200 a month. The Commission asked Wade what he knew about informants in the FBI and he said that when he was in South America as a Bureau representative he was given money and never had to get receipts; that the Bureau depended on his integrity to spend the money properly and there was no accounting for the money. The inference, of course, is that under these circumstances the Bureau would not know at headquarters whether Oswald had been an informant and had been paid, as there was no accounting for the money. The Commission asked Wade whether he left the Bureau under a shadow, and he replied that he did not; that he was asked to stay, but that he wanted to practice law.

Mr. Shanklin was advised that the Commission was desirous of knowing how they could run this down and present a convincing picture to the effect that Oswald was not a Bureau informant, and it was suggested to them that they call Hudkins and put him under oath, regardless of the fact that he might go back and write a story that the FBI was being investigated by the Commission. Shanklin was advised that, in addition, we are preparing appropriate information here at the seat of government relative to the handling of informants and the accountability of funds.

Shanklin was informed that we want him to be very circumspect in his dealings with Wade, inasmuch as, by inference at least, Wade indicated that the Bureau was not in a position to state whether Oswald was or was not an informant. I told Shanklin this, of course, is not true, as we account for all funds paid to informants or for information of any kind, and we have a strict accountability for the designation and handling of informants.

I further pointed out to Shanklin that this information does not parallel the information which Wade furnished him (Shanklin) the other night about his appearance before the Commission.

Shanklin stated the Dallas office will follow Bureau instructions closely in this matter.

Bureau files reveal one Dr. Herbert S. Mikesell, 1514½ East Main Street, Richmond, Indiana, has written to the Bureau and Indianapolis from time to time relative to suggestions he proposed for solution of major crimes, unfounded complaints, and data in which we have no interest.

This Dr. Mikesell was interviewed by Indianapolis on 7-15-37, at which time he advised he was 48 years old and had previously volunteered information to Federal Prohibition Agents. He had written a letter to the Attorney General on 5-19-37, in order to obtain money for any service he might perform or for information he might furnish in connection with official investigations.

He admitted he had no information concerning matters within jurisdiction of the FBI. During conversation he frequently strayed considerably from the line of thought he was attempting to develop, and gave every indication of being mentally unbalanced along lines of criminal investigative procedures.

Ellis Duckett, Chief of Detectives, Richmond, Indiana, in August, 1937, advised Dr. Mikesell was an amateur private detective who drank heavily, and whose mind was very flighty.

Another interview with this Dr. Mikesell by Indianapolis in November, 1939, revealed he was an apparent psychopathic case. Indianapolis reported it was evident he did not possess a sound and balanced mind.

Noted report of SA K. R. Schroeder in Natnap Case dated 12-11-37 at Indianapolis reports interview of Dr. Mikesell of 1514½ Main Street, Richmond.

SUBJECT:

JACK LEON RUBY
Lee Harvey Oswald - Victim
CIVIL RIGHTS

Reference is made to the attached memorandum of 1/9/64 from Mr. Rosen to me, dealing with the request of Texas authorities for reports of our interviews, et cetera, in the Ruby case, and the letter from Mr. Rankin of the President's Commission, requesting advice as to the records in our possession and what arrangements can be made to assist District Attorney Wade. The Director further discussed this with me this morning.

The point was made that we do not want to get into a position of being charged with lack of cooperation with Texas authorities in connection with the trial of Ruby. We can well be put in this position if we suggest to Mr. Rankin or Mr. Miller of the Department any limitation in what is turned over to District Attorney Wade. Therefore, we should advise Mr. Rankin, in reply to his letter, that we stand ready to turn over to District Attorney Wade the full results of our investigation in the Ruby case, and this is a decision, of course, that Mr. Rankin will have to make, inasmuch as we performed this investigation at the request of the President and have turned the results over to the Commission.

Likewise, we should furnish Miller copies of our investigative reports in the Ruby case and advise him of the request of Texas authorities and what we have advised Mr. Rankin. We should seek Mr. Miller's opinion as to what should be turned over to the Texas authorities.

We should advise both Mr. Rankin and Mr. Miller that we would like to have their decision promptly, and in the event it will take time for them to determine what should be turned over to District Attorney Wade, we will advise the Texas State Attorney General, and District Attorney Wade, that we are awaiting a decision from the President's Commission and the Department in this matter.

This will, of course, place us in the position that we are not delaying the turning over of material to the Texas authorities, and thus we cannot be charged with lack of cooperation with these authorities. This should be handled at once.

Washington, D. C. 20002

Dear Lee:

Reference is made to your letter of January 7, 1964, wherein you enclosed a copy of a letter dated December 30, 1963, from Mr. Waggoner Carr, Attorney General of Texas.

In addition to the request of Mr. Carr in his letter to the Commission, you were advised today by J. R. Malley of this Bureau of the request made by District Attorney Henry Wade, Dallas County, Texas, wherein he requests any reports available covering interviews of Jack Ruby by FBI Agents. Mr. Wade also requested that he be furnished with background information concerning Ruby and any information reflecting Ruby's activities during the pertinent period of November 21 through 24, 1963.

The FBI is ready to furnish to State authorities whatever information the Commission and the Department of Justice agree would be proper under the circumstances.

As you are aware, the President's Commission has been furnished a number of reports concerning the Ruby phase of the investigation and these reports have also been furnished to the Department of Justice. Inasmuch as this Bureau conducted the investigation at the request of the President and the Department of Justice, we would appreciate being advised what information should be made available to the State authorities of Texas.

You were also advised that in view of the requests of Attorney General Carr and District Attorney Wade, the FBI is advising them that their requests had been made known to the

During this discussion you indicated you were in full agreement with this proposed action, that you would appreciate the Department being advised that the Commission would like to have its views with regard to information that could be disseminated to District Attorney Wade of Dallas County, Texas, and that the Department should also be advised that this matter should be handled as expeditiously as possible in order to forestall any criticism on the part of State authorities.

Your request has been made known to Assistant Attorney General Herbert J. Miller of the Criminal Division of the Department.

TIPPIT, 238 Glencairn, Dallas, Texas, who advised she received same in afternoon mail delivery, 1/13/64. The copies were identified with the date 1/14/64 and the initials "WHG" and "AEC, and DL 9-1914, on reverse side.

MRS. TIPPIT further advised a number of relatives and friends had handled this envelope and its enclosure and she stated she would determine their exact names and correct addresses and furnish same on 1/14/64. She said she felt sure each of these persons would gladly furnish their fingerprints if the Bureau so desired.

The letter is not being quoted herein inasmuch as it is self explanatory.

The Xerox copies of instant letter were prepared by SA's CARTER and GRIFFIN, on 1/14/64.

MRS. TIPPIT is the widow of Officer J. D. TIPPIT who was allegedly murdered by LEE HARVEY OSWALD on 11/22/63, at Dallas, Texas, shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY. Copies of all information developed in this case are being placed in the captioned files.

On 1/13/64, SA WILL HAYDEN GRIFFIN contacted AUSA B. H. TIMMINS, at Dallas, Texas, and he advised he was withholding a prosecutive opinion until investigation was conducted to attempt to determine the intent of the sender as set out in the penultimate paragraph "...if you refuse to cooperate, You will dig Your own grave, besides, You have nothing to loose. It is worth finishing the job, Your husband has started for You and children, so pick up the, were Your husband had had to drop it."

The Bureau is requested to conduct the following investigation and examination through the FBI Identification Division and the FBI Laboratory and through the Legats at Bonn, Germany, and Bern, Switzerland:

1. Search Anonymous Letter File in an attempt to identify the Unknown Subject.

2. Attempt to identify sender through search of Bureau indices.

3. Examine original extortion letter for latent prints.

4. Attempt to identify make and model of typewriter used in preparing instant letter.

DL 9-1914, 100-10461, 44-1639

The Bureau is requested to furnish the result of the examination in sufficient copies for Dallas to place them in the three captioned files.

Xerox copies are prepared and attached for use of Bureau and Legats at Bonn, Germany, and Bern, Switzerland.

Div 6 ✓ The Legat at Bonn will attempt to locate and interview the sender, MR. D. EVERSHIRE, Admiralengracht 142,I, Amsterdam, The Netherlands, and also THOMAS WILLIAM EVERSHIRE, who signed the letter T. W. Eversire.

Div 6 ✓ The Legat at Bern, Switzerland, will determine if possible the identity of the owner of account number as set out in the extortion letter and also the identity of MR. CHARLES ROSENBLAD, who is also mentioned in this letter.

The original of the envelope and the letter should be returned to the Dallas Division after the appropriate examinations have been made.

A report will be submitted by Dallas upon receipt of results of Laboratory and Identification Division examinations and the results of investigation by the Legats at Bonn and Bern.

The leads for the Legats are being set forth on this airtel rather than on the letterhead memorandum in view of the possibility that the enclosed letterhead memorandum may be disseminated by the Bureau.

If you ever find out the real truth you will find Ruby hired Oswald to order the gun for him for the job he planned or was hired to do. He could not have set it up to himself. He was laying up his alibi what a sucker Oswald was. I suppose. He pounded Oswald if he grew some wet and make one day or two before the episode was to take place Oswald smelled a rat and decided to use it himself. The temptation was so great he never expected to get caught. He saw a elegant way to get back to Russia. He was well trained in all the lies and deceit and was an apt pupil. Of course he could clean it up and get a few more coatings turn it over to Ruby after wheat fingerprints would be on it. To be a guess. He could say it just arrived. Tip off the police. They knew each other while Ruby was in the service. I suppose Ruby had the same idea of when Ruby was discharged they punched Oswald it would have as much be crushed order to the jail and murdered the kid. You know the way he hung around the jail finding out everything he could the murder was deeper than patriotism. That does not mean anything to those kind of people. But that is his story and he will stick to it. Ruby is crude because he shows his emotions when Oswald is an educated class. Oswald and his wife married Russia they could do more damage to us over here than to stay in Russia. As their brain child executed all efficiently. The reason they did have is why they got out of Russia so easy. He proved it. If they check Ruby's place with a fine tooth comb they will probably find a map tucked in with some municipal sewer system. He must have a secret cupboard or wall safe where he keeps his secret drops drugs etc. You may find a game catalog in his place of business and where he lived. You can see by his face he is petty and revengeful. Oswald was taught it to all as one thing as I said he is a brave sleep. You can't be that way in a undertaking like that. Even a child could see through Ruby. They may even find something of some one that disappeared once. Oswald was sure he would be outside the fortress of the United States before he was suspected. He just did have a operation under hypnosis I figured this out while I was reading that is why Dr. [illegible] with a kindness as a drug addict. Some time if you want to know I will tell you what put drugs down to do with this and the wife of Oswald. The Russians would do it.

I am appreciative you will answer. Russia could do it.

Dear Sir:

May I make a couple of suggestions to you, into the investigation of the assination of our late President John F. Kennedy?

I earnestly believe that there might have been a call or calls made to Mr. Ruby while Mr. Oswald was on out of town trips. May I suggest you check all Atlanta toll tickets for the year of 1963 including part of Nov. and from known places Mr. Oswald visited.

And also on Sun afternoon or night of the 24th of Nov. after Mr. Oswald murder they interviewed a friend of Mr Ruby, I can't think of the friends name but he made the statement that Mr. Ruby had lots of friends in California, he either said Los Angeles or Hollywood, I dont remember which one now. He said he wasn't going to name any names but they would go any amount to get Jack Ruby out. I think this friend should be made to tell who all those other friends are in California.

It's funny but I never heard that mentioned again on television, radio or by the press. I wonder what orgination threw their weight around to see that it didnt get back on the air or in the newspaper.

I know that you are doing every thing in your power to clear this up. I and all my family have every confidence in you, that the real facts will be known, communist or not.

Thanks for being my Senator and taking time to listen.

Very respectfully,

Marie McMurray

Dear Mr. Tonahill:

Joe

I have your letter of January 9th requesting "the reports, minutes and all evidence of the Commission created by Executive Order 11130 dated November 29, 1963, created by President Lyndon B. Johnson to report upon the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, and the shooting of his assailant, Lee Harvey Oswald," and stating your reasons for desiring the same.

This is to advise you that the President's Commission is not a prosecuting agency, and up to the present time has before it for consideration, evaluation and eventually a report to the President, only summaries and copies of working papers of other federal, state and local agencies. These documents, because of lack of time, have not been evaluated, and no conclusions have been reached concerning them. The originals are in the agencies from which they were received, and any relationship between them and the case of your client must be established with those agencies.

This Commission in no way changes or limits the powers and responsibilities of any law enforcement agency in performing its duties incident to the prosecution or defence of criminal cases.

After discussion of your request with the Commission, I am authorized to advise you that it is not within the province of the Commission to respond favorably to your request.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have your letters of January 10th, 14th and 15th concerning the request of District Attorney Wade of Dallas County, Texas, and Mr. Joe Tonahill and his associates in the defense of Jack L. Ruby for release to them for their respective uses of information concerning the assassination of President Kennedy and the subsequent killing of Lee H. Oswald, his alleged assassin. The same request has been made to the Commission through me by Mr. Tonahill. For your information, I am enclosing a copy of my letter to him.

The Commission, of course, is not a prosecuting agency. It is not the custodian of any originals. The copies of documents in its possession have come to it through the cooperation of the various federal, state and local agencies as authorized by Executive Order 11130. It considers itself only as a trustee of this information for the specific purposes enumerated in that Executive Order by the President.

While the work of the Commission would be greatly handicapped if the information contained in the summaries and work reports submitted to it by the agencies should become common knowledge before its work is completed, it does not have the authority nor the desire to limit the normal powers or responsibilities of any agency of government federal, state or local, in relation to the prosecution or defense of any criminal case.

Memorandum

TO : MR. CALLAHAN

DATE: 1-23-64

FROM : L. J. GAUTHIER

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY
AND THE KILLING OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD
VISUAL AIDS.

The Commission is utilizing the FBI's visual aids to considerable extent. On 1-23-64, I met with members of the Commission's legal staff, Messrs. Joseph Ball, David Belin, Melvin Eisenberg and Norman Redlich, for a three-hour session re-enacting on the scale model the Secret Service views concerning the approximate points where the shooting occurred. Inspector Thomas Kelly, Secret Service, was present and stated that the versions of the FBI and the Secret Service were good approximations. The staff is hoping to eventually be in a position to say exactly where the shots occurred on the Parkway with a plus or minus factor of several feet. They realize that many variables exist that will make this determination a most difficult one to resolve.

They requested that the FBI show the color movies (Zapruder and Nix) to them at 10:00 a.m. on 1-27-64 at which time an effort will be made by the staff, the FBI and Secret Service to re-enact on the scale model visual interpretations of the shooting sequence appearing in the movies. Secret Service Agent Kelly will be present along with the Secret Service Agent who originally viewed the Zapruder movie and who is responsible for fixing the shooting sequence on the Parkway in Dallas.

Attorney Norman Redlich advised that he will also seek the help of the FBI's Laboratory where Zapruder's camera was examined to determine if it would be possible for the Laboratory, by counting frames, to assist in defining the location where shots one, two and three were fired.

ENCLOSURE

The attached information explains the present position of the FBI and Secret Service with regard to the approximations of the shooting sequence re-enacted on the scale model. All of the Attorneys present used the scale model extensively advising they will continue to do so in the future. The meeting of 1-27-64 will take place in the same room where the models are maintained, in order that the versions of those visually examining the movies can be re-enacted on the model without loss of time.

COMMENTS:

1. Arrangements will be made to show the Zapruder and Nix movies to the Commission on 1-27-64. A Bureau employee will be utilized to operate the projector.

2. The points on the Parkway as defined by the FBI are considered to be the best approximations possible and in line with the Secret Service version. Inspector Kelly shares the same views. The FBI has the first shot occurring just before the President's head emerges from behind the sign while the Secret Service approximates the location moments after the President emerges. Approximately one second is involved between the two versions. The Commission realizes that there is no material difference between the FBI's and Secret Service's approximations; however, they wish to attempt to fix shooting sequence with a great degree of accuracy with a plus or minus factor of a few feet.

RECOMMENDATION:

None; for information only.

ADDENDUM BY I. W. CONRAD 1/24/64:

The FBI Laboratory previously has thoroughly examined the film in question. Laboratory has been in touch with representatives of the Commission and arrangements have been made for the Laboratory representative to be present when the film is shown.

SHOOTING SEQUENCE AS LOCATED ON THE SCALE MODEL

The approximate location of the shooting sequence was determined from an interpretation of the ZAPRUDER movie and from observations made at the site regarding the location of the Stemmons highway sign which was obscuring ZAPRUDER'S line of view while he was photographing the approaching motorcade. The movie also includes details of the surrounding area.

SHOT ONE:

It occurred when the Presidential car was unobserved by ZAPRUDER for approximately twenty feet while moving behind a road sign. Shot one was approximately fixed on the model at a point directly behind the center of this sign. The movie reveals that prior to reaching this sign the President was seen waving and moments later after emerging from behind the sign he was slumped forward. The position on the Parkway where shot one occurred as approximated by the FBI and the Secret Service varies about one car length (13 feet) or about one-half second at 15 mph. The FBI's estimate places the President approximately one-half second nearer to the assassin when shot one was fired.

SHOT TWO:

It occurred approximately at the time Governor Connally was turning his head to the right rear. This point was established through the interpretation of the relative location of trees, shrubs, street lights, curbing, etc. appearing in the movie. The position on the Parkway approximated by the FBI and the Secret Service varies about 1.5 car lengths (22 feet) or about one second at 15 mph. The FBI's estimate places the Governor approximately one second further away from the assassin when shot two was fired.

SHOT THREE:

It occurred approximately at the time a circle of light resembling an explosive blast encircles the President's head. The position on the Parkway approximated by the FBI and the Secret Service varies about 2/3 car length (14 feet) or about 2/3 second at 15 mph. The FBI's estimate places the President approximately 2/3 second nearer to the assassin when shot three was fired.

COMMENTS:

The FBI's analysis of the shooting sequence was determined independently of a similar study made of the movie by the Secret Service. "WHERE ON THE PARKWAY WAS THE PRESIDENTIAL CAR EXPOSED TO GUN FIRE?" The answer to this question is subject to varying factors such as the speed of the vehicle, the firing position of the assassin and the position of ZAPRUDER. It is a matter of accepting the fact that there will be as many versions as there are analysis made of the shooting sequence. The FBI bases its approximations on an interpretation of the ZAPRUDER movie re-enacted on a scale model. The Secret Service has also used the movie to approximate the shooting sequence; eye-witnesses may vary in locating the car at the time of the shooting; members of the Commission may also have differing opinions regarding this matter.

The ZAPRUDER movie was utilized by the FBI as the best medium for approximating the points on the Parkway where the shooting occurred.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I would like to acknowledge your two letters of January 20, 1964 regarding the scale models prepared by your Bureau relating to the site of the assassination and the Dallas Police Department garage.

Twenty-eight copies of the Visual Aids Brochure entitled "The Assassination of President John F. Kennedy and the Killing of Lee H. Oswald" have been received and made available to members of the Commission and Commission staff.

As you suggest, I intend to discuss the security arrangements relating to these exhibits with Mr. Wade Holland, Superintendent of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Building. I appreciate your offer of the assistance of Inspector Lee Gauthier with regard to any further explanation of these visual aids. He has already been very cooperative in discussing these exhibits with members of the Commission staff.

Thank you for your assistance.

ReBuairtel dated 1/23/64 in the case entitled "LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka; IS-R-CUBA," specific reference is made to paragraph 2 of this airtel.

JOSEPH GOULDEN's allegations have been the source of considerable investigation in this matter. GOULDEN's 302 dated 12/10/62, as set forth in the report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS dated 12/14/63 at page 56 in the RUBY case, furnished his original information. GOULDEN identified the cameramen who he said allowed RUBY to carry camera equipment into the Dallas Police Department basement as being JACK RENFRO, WBAP-TV, Fort Worth, Texas, and his superior, JAMES KERR.

Page 58 of this report sets forth the interview of JACKIE D. RENFRO, and paragraph 3 indicates that he was not even in the basement of the Dallas Police Department when OSWALD was shot.

Page 10 of the report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS dated 12/19/63 at Dallas in the RUBY case sets forth the interview of JAMES KERR, in which KERR advised that he was not in the basement of the Dallas Police Department when OSWALD was shot.

Bureau teletype dated 12/11/63, at 4:17 PM, in the RUBY case requested interview of RENFRO and KERR on the basis of GOULDEN's information, and Dallas teletype dated 12/12/63, at 6:08 PM, set forth a summary of these interviews.

CLEMENTS FILE #1

Dallas teletype dated 12/12/63, at 2:07 PM, on page 3, set forth information concerning a similar incident, probably the basis of GOULDEN's statements but inaccurately detailed. For details of this incident, refer to the report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS dated 12/11/63 at Dallas in the RUBY case.

Page 77 of the 12/11/63 report sets forth an interview with Dallas Police Department Officer WILBUR JAY CUTSHAW on 12/2/63, which appears to be the origin of the reported incident. CUTSHAW reported seeing three Channel 5 (WBAP TV) cameramen pushing a TV camera into the basement area shortly before OSWALD was shot. He further reported seeing two of these men pushing the camera out of the area after the shooting. These men reportedly told CUTSHAW they knew nothing of a third man helping them earlier, giving rise to the speculation that RUBY had been the third man.

The two WBAP TV cameramen have been identified as being DAVID A. TIMMONS and JOHN H. TANKERSLEY. The third man has been identified as being JAMES TURNER, also an employee of WBAP TV, but not assigned specifically to assist TIMMONS and TANKERSLEY. TURNER had, however, helped these two men briefly by helping push and steady their equipment when it appeared they were having trouble with it.

Interviews of TIMMONS, TANKERSLEY and TURNER are set forth on pages 138 through 141 of the report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS dated 11/30/63 at Dallas in the RUBY case.

No further action concerning GOULDEN's allegations regarding RUBY's entrance to the Dallas Police Department basement is contemplated.

Reference is made to your memoranda dated January 20, 1964, and January 22, 1964, which requested that our investigative reports be furnished to the United States Attorney at Dallas in order that they might be shown to the County District Attorney.

"The Dallas Times Herald" on January 28, 1964, reported, "Two Assistant State District Attorneys are today examining behind closed doors FBI reports on the slaying of Oswald by Ruby." The article identified the Assistant District Attorneys as A. D. Jim Bowie and Frank Watts. It was stated that Dallas County District Attorney Henry Wade was expected to join his assistants later in the day and that a stenographer had accompanied the assistants when they entered the United States Attorney's office at 10:00 a.m. January 28, 1964."

Mr. Wade was quoted in the article as having announced on January 28, 1964, that the FBI was opening the Ruby file for the inspection of his staff but was stopping short of actually turning the file over to him. He was also quoted as saying that he was primarily interested in the FBI's evidence on the slaying of Oswald and he has not asked for FBI information regarding the assassination of former President Kennedy. He reportedly added that he is not interested in evidence regarding the assassination in the absence of information connecting Jack Ruby with Lee Harvey Oswald.

This information has also been furnished to the President's Commission.

Memorandum

TO: Mr. Belmont

FROM: A. Rosen

DATE: January 24, 1964

SUBJECT: JACK L. RUBY, AKA;
LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA - VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS

In preparing to testify at Ruby's bond hearing on 1-20-64, SA C. Ray Hall, Dallas, noted that a typographical error had occurred in connection with interviews with Ruby previously reported to have taken place on 11-24-63 and 11-25-63. This did not cause any difficulty in connection with Agent Hall's testimony as he made the correction before he testified and the interview report forms were not produced at the hearing.

EXPLANATION SUBMITTED BY DALLAS

Oswald was killed at approximately 11:24 a.m. 11-24-63, and Ruby was immediately taken into custody by the Dallas Police who removed him from the scene of the shooting to the jail on the upper floors of the police building. SA Hall was the first Agent to arrive and found that Ruby was being interviewed by the Police Department; however, through his liaison contacts with the police, he was able to gain access to Ruby to obtain the information that was needed.

Ruby was interviewed at the Police Department on 11-24-63 from 12:40 p.m. until 1:58 p.m. when the interview was interrupted to permit Ruby to consult with his attorney. The Agent continued his interview with Ruby at 2:02 p.m. and at 2:06 p.m. Ruby was afforded a brief physical examination by a doctor. The interview continued after the brief physical examination but was again interrupted at 3:15 p.m. due to Ruby's arraignment before the Justice of the Peace but the Agent again continued his interview from 4:30 p.m. until 5:30 p.m. 11-24-63. The interruptions were undesirable but if the Agent was to get the facts under circumstances such as existed in the Dallas Police Department on the day Oswald was shot by Ruby there was no other choice than to talk with Ruby when he was available.

Discussed with Rankin 1/27/64.

RE: JACK L. RUBY, AKA.

SA Hall incorporated the information submitted by Ruby into two interview report forms in order that prior background information given by Ruby could be placed in a different and more logical part of the report than information dealing with the actual shooting of Oswald and Ruby's movements immediately prior to the shooting.

The two interview report forms were typed in rough-draft form by SA Hall on the night of 11-24-63 and in the early morning hours of 11-25-63. The roughdrafts were transcribed by a stenographer in the early morning hours of 11-25-63. One of the interview report forms in its final version showed that the interview had taken place 11-25-63. The roughdraft was destroyed after transcription and neither the Agent nor the stenographer can recall specifically what date appeared on the roughdraft. SA Hall reviewed the final transcription of the interview report form on 11-25-63 and initialed it as being correct.

Dallas states SA Hall worked a normal tour of duty on 11-22-63 and continued to work until 3:35 a.m. 11-23-63. He returned to duty at 7:40 a.m. 11-23-63 and worked until 7:07 p.m. 11-23-63. On 11-24-63 he entered on duty at 9:20 a.m. and worked straight through until 8:40 a.m. 11-25-63. Stenographer N. Jeanette Tanksley, who transcribed the interview report form, worked a regular tour of duty 11-22-63. On 11-23-63 she worked from 12:01 a.m. until 3:15 a.m. returning to duty at 2:45 p.m. 11-24-63 and working straight through until 10:00 a.m. 11-25-63.

The two interview report forms prepared by Agent Hall were incorporated into a Dallas report dated 11-30-63. Based upon a review of the interview report forms submitted by the Dallas Office, the summary which was prepared in connection with this matter states that Ruby was interviewed on 11-24-63 and 11-25-63. This summary was reviewed by the Dallas Office prior to dissemination.

ACTION

Upon approval J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission and Assistant Attorney General Miller will be advised that in connection with the Ruby investigation, which concerns the killing of Oswald, one date reflecting an interview with Ruby on 11-25-63 is a typographical error and should be corrected to 11-24-63 in the investigative report and summary.

REC 124 64-24016-1034

Dear Mr. Rankin:

In connection with the matter captioned "Jack Ruby; Lee Harvey Oswald - Victim, Civil Rights," the report of Special Agent Manning C. Clements dated November 30, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, sets forth two interviews by Special Agent C. Ray Hall with Jack Ruby.

Special Agent Hall, when preparing to testify at Ruby's bond hearing on January 20, 1964, discovered that a typographical error had occurred in connection with the reporting of the interviews with Ruby in that the interview set forth on page thirteen of the aforementioned report shows the date of the interview as November 25, 1963, when in fact the interview actually occurred on November 24, 1963. In order that your records will reflect the accurate information, it is requested that a correction be made in the report of Special Agent Manning C. Clements dated November 30, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, on page thirteen, showing that the interview took place on November 24, 1963, rather than November 25, 1963.

In the summary captioned "Investigation of Killing of Lee Harvey Oswald, Dallas, Texas, November 24, 1963," a correction should be made on page nine under the caption "A. Movements Following Assassination of President Kennedy." In the first line it is stated that Jack Ruby was interviewed by the FBI on November 24 and 25, 1963. The word and figure "and 25" should be deleted from the end of the line to show that Ruby was interviewed only on November 24, 1963.

Page 905. Congressman Cramer, (R) Florida, pointed out that "an Associated Press dispatch from Dallas, Tex., reported in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat dated January 21, 1964, carries the story of Jack Ruby's trip to Cuba in 1959 and other related facts as brought out in testimony at the Ruby hearings in Dallas." He included the text of the article with his remarks. The article stated "FBI Agent C. Ray Hall, last witness of the day, testified that Ruby had also told him of going to Cuba to try to sell jeeps, using a plane ticket sent to him by a person the State described as 'someone in Cuba.'" AND HE AND HIS ASST. , ALONG WITH WAGGONER CARR, ROBERT STOREY, FORMER DEAN OF SMU, AND LEON JAWORSKI, HOUSTON ATTY, EMPLOYED BY CARR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS MATTER, ALL WENT TO WASH., D. C. ON JAN. TWENTYTHREE. THEY ALL APPEARED AT THE COMMISSION HDQTRS. AND HAD AN INFORMAL TYPE DISCUSSION WITH CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN AND CHIEF COUNSEL LEE RANKIN. THEY WERE QUESTIONED RE THE INFO IN THE NATION ARTICLE, AT WHICH TIME, WADE ADVISED THE COMMISSION THAT HE HAD BEEN MISQUOTED BY THIS REPORTER, THAT HE HAD NO INFO TO THE EFFECT THAT OSWALD WAS AN INFORMANT OF THE FBI OR ANY GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY, AND HE ALSO AT THAT TIME EXPRESSED THE OPINION THAT EVEN IF HE WERE, HE DIDN'T THINK IT OUGHT TO BE PUBLICIZED.

WADE'S ASSISTANT, ALEXANDER, WAS ALSO QUESTIONED AND HE ADVISED THAT HE HAD NO INFO AS TO OSWALD BEING AN INFORMANT OF THE FBI, CIA OR ANY GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY. HE DID POINT OUT THAT IN A NOTEBOOK OF OSWALDS, SEIZED BY THE POLICE, THAT AGENT HOSTY'S NAME WAS IN THE NOTEBOOK, ALONG WITH MANY OTHERS, IN ADDITION THE TELEPHONE NUMBER OF THE DALLAS OFFICE OF THE FBI, AND THE LICENSE NUMBER OF A CAR.

ALEXANDER STATED THAT IN ADDITION HE TOLD CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN AND RANKIN THAT ON THE AFTERNOON OF JAN. TWENTYONE, AFTER CONCLUSION OF THE BOND HEARING FOR RUBY AND WHILE THE REPORTERS WERE WAITING FOR SOME STATEMENT FROM THE JUDGE, THERE WERE A NUMBER OF REPORTERS IN THE JUDGE'S COURTROOM AND HE HEARD SOME

LETTER HE BELIEVED TO BE FROM THE NORTH AND OTHER REPORTERS DISCUSSING THE POSSIBILITY THAT OSWALD WAS A COUNTER SPY FOR THE FBI, CIA OR SOME GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY. HE REMEMBERS HEARING THE WORDS SPECIAL SERVICES MENTIONED. HE ALSO REMEMBERS HEARING SOME REPORTER MAKE THE STATEMENT THAT OSWALD WAS SUPPOSEDLY ON THE PAY ROLL OF THE GOVT. AT TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS A MONTH, BEGINNING SEPT. NINETEEN SIXTYTWO AND THAT HE HEARD PAY ROLL NUMBER ONE SEVEN NINE OR VOUCHER ONE SEVEN NINE MENTIONED. ALEXANDER PURPORTEDLY ALLEGES THAT HE DOES NOT KNOW THE NAME S OF THESE REPORTERS.

MR. WADE ADVISED THAT HE ALSO DISCUSSED WITH RANKIN AND CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN THE FACT THAT HE WAS GOING TO HAVE TO EXAMINE THE REPORTS AT THE USA'S OFFICE AND THAT HE DEFINITELY PREFERRED TO HAVE THE REPORTS MADE AVAILABLE TO HIM. HE WAS ADVISED THAT THIS WAS A MATTER THAT HAD TO BE DETERMINED BY THE PARTICULAR DEPARTMENT, AND HE RECALLS THAT AT THIS TIME SOME MENTION WAS MADE OF THE FACT THAT THE COMMISSION HAD STILL NOT RECEIVED ANY REPORT FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT OR CIA. HE SAID HE ALSO TOOK UP WITH THEM THE FACT THAT IT HAD BEEN INDICATED TO HIM BY MR. MILLER OF THE DEPT OF JUSTICE THAT CERTAIN INFO FROM THE FBI REPORTS MIGHT BE MADE AVAILABLE TO THE DEFENSE IN THE RUBY CASE AND HE VOICED HIS DISAPPROVAL OF THIS AND HE WAS ADVISED THAT AGAIN THIS WOULD BE UP TO THE DEPARTMENT. CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN THEN TOLD HIM THAT THEY HAD WRITTEN A LETTER TO MR. BELLI WHEREIN THEY HAD TOLD HIM THAT THEY WERE NOT AN INVESTIGATIVE AGENCY, ETC. AND THAT HIS REQUEST FOR REPORTS WOULD HAVE TO BE TAKEN UP WITH THE

DEPT. WADE STATED CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN ALSO READ A LETTER THAT HE HAD DIRECTED TO MR. HOOVER, STATING THE POSITION OF THE COMMISSION WITH REGARD TO THE FILES. HE STATED THAT DURING THE COURSE OF THE CONVERSATION, HE BROUGHT UP THE FACT THAT HE HOPED THERE WOULD NOT BE ANY ADDITIONAL PUBLICITY RE THE LACK OF ANY ASSOCIATION BETWEEN RUBY AND OSWALD FOR FEAR IT WOULD HURT HIS CASE.

WADE ADVISED HE WAS FURNISHING HE THIS INFO IN STRICTEST CONFIDENCE AS HE HAD BEEN INSTRUCED THAT UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WAS ANY INFO RE THIS INTERVIEW OR INTERVIEWS TO BE GIVEN OUT, AND HE DESIRES TO BE PROTECTED. WADE ALSO STATED THAT HE CONFIDENTIALLY ADVISED LEE RANKIN THAT ANYTHING THAT ALEXANDER SAID CONCERNING THE FBI OR THE DEPARTMENT HAD TO BE TAKEN WITHA GRAIN OF SALT. HE SAID THAT ALEXANDER AND AUSA B. W. TIMMINS IN THE RECENT TRIAL OF THE CASE WHICH [redacted] WAS PROSECUTED IN STATE COURT CAPTIONED FRANK EARL FLECK, AKA, NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE, DALLAS, TEXAS, JUNE TWENTYEIGHT, SIXTYTHREE, BR., BU FILE NINE ONE DASH ONE SEVEN EIGHT EIGHT NINE, HAD HAD QUITE A RUN IN OVER THE TESTIMONY OF AGENTS AND THE PRODUCTION OF CERTAIN RECORDS AND THAT THEY HAD ALMOST COME TO BLOWS. HE STATED ALEXANDER HAD BEEN VERY CRITICAL OF THE DEPT. AND ATTY GENERAL KENNEDY AND THAT THE USA'S OFFICE IN DALLAS DEFINITELY DOES NOT GET ALONG WITH ALEXANDER AND THAT HE HAS BEEN INFORMED BY USA BAREFOOT SANDERS

END PAGD FIVE

THAT HE, WADE, OR HIS FIRST ASST. JAMES [redacted]BOWIE WILL HAVE TO REVIEW THE FILES, AS THEY WILL NOT PERMIT WILLIAM ALEXANDER TO DO SO.

AFTER RETURNING TO THE [redacted]OFFICE, MR. WADE CALLED AND FURNISHED FOLLOWING ADDITIONAL INFO. DURING THE MEETING WITH THE COMMISSIONER, WADE CANNOT RECALL JUST HOW THE QUESTION WAS BROUGHT UP, BUT STATES HE GOT THE IMPRESSION THAT THE COMMISSION WAS INTERESTED IN THE THREAT AGAINST OSWALD'S LIFE ON NOV. TWENTYFOUR, AND HE TOLD THE COMMISSION THAT SHERIFF DECKER, DALLAS COUNTY, HAD TOLD THE PD THAT HE WOULD MOVE OSWALD AT SIX [redacted]A. M. IF THE POLICE SO DESIRED.

WADE CANNOT REMEMBER ANYTHING ELSE RE THAT PHASE OF THE CONVERSATION.

Information Note

1/27/64 Nation article refers to article of Lonnie Hudkins in 1/1/64 Huston Post", "Oswald Rumored as Informant for U. S." therein Hudkins indicated he received information on authority of William Alexander, Assistant District Attorney, Dallas, that Agent Hosty's home and office phone and car license numbers in Oswald's possession. Hudkins quotes Henry Wade, Dallas District Attorney, saying, "It may be true but I don't think it will ever be made public as it is." We interviewed Wade and Alexander re remarks attributed them, results set forth in separate memorandum analysing Nation article. Attached teletype reflects data received from Wade and Alexander regarding appearance before President's Commission Washington, D. C., 1/24/64. Wade states told Commission was misquoted by reporter and had no info Oswald was informant FBI or any Government agency. Alexander stated told Commission had no information Oswald being Informant FBI, CIA or other Government agency. He pointed out in Oswald's notebook seized by Police, Agent Hosty's name appeared along with many others also telephone number of Dallas Office and license number of a car. Wade told Commission he overheard reports and some reporter said Oswald was on payroll of Government at $200 a month.

Wade discussed with Chief Justice Warren undesirability making FBI reports available to defense in Ruby case. Wade said Warren told him he had written letter to Belli, Ruby's attorney, informing him Commission not an investigative agency and requests for reports would have to be taken up with Department; Warren also referred to letter directed to Mr. Hoover stating position of Commission re files. Attached teletype sets data regarding William Alexander, Dallas Assistant District Attorney, raising question regarding Alexander's mental stability.

DON FORTE, 526 Madison St., New Orleans, advised that his fiancee, VERONA HALIFAX, a student at Newcomb College, New Orleans, was contacted by her sister, JOAN, a short time after the assassination of President KENNEDY and that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY had been seen together in New Orleans.

JOAN HALIFAX, 317 Dorris St., New Orleans, advised that KLAUS WINKELMANN, a friend of hers on the staff of Tulane Univ., mentioned to her something to the fact that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY were seen together in New Orleans by an alleged homosexual and that this homosexual, who was on the staff of the Art Dept., Newcomb College, Tulane Univ., was reported to have slept with both OSWALD and RUBY.

KLAUS WINKELMANN, 530 Royal St., New Orleans, instructor in the French Dept. at Tulane Univ., advised that a friend of his, ROBERT HELLER, shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY, told him that he had been called on the phone by [redacted] who said that he had seen OSWALD's picture in the newspaper and knew him to be the same person he slept with the night before. WINKELMANN said that [redacted] was a graduate student at Tulane Univ. and thought that he is now teaching somewhere in Norfolk, Va.

ROBERT HELLER, 4703 Freret St., New Orleans, La. was located 1/24/64 and he advised that he had received his information from SHELLY ESTRIN, Calhoun St., New Orleans. She told him that she had called [redacted] at Newport News, Va., one night shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY. [redacted] told her that he thought that he had slept with RUBY quite some time ago. There was nothing in the conversation about OSWALD and RUBY being together in New Orleans and the only one mentioned in the conversation was RUBY. HELLER said that he knew for a fact that the allegation regarding [redacted] being a homosexual was true.

Miss SHELLY ESTRIN, 541 Burgundy St., New Orleans, La. advised 1/27/64 that a few days after the assassination of President KENNEDY she had a long distance conversation with [redacted] who was at Newport News, Va. [redacted] appeared to be quite intoxicated. [redacted] mentioned during the conversation that he thought he had slept with RUBY some time ago. No mention was made of OSWALD. Miss ESTRIN said that [redacted] now lives at [redacted], Newport News, Va.

POSSIBLE BACKGROUND ON SUBJECT

Attached for Dallas are 25 copies each of insert and administrative page covering information furnished 2/1/64, by Mrs. THOMAS S. (EVELYN) CHRISTOPHER, Washington Court House, Ohio, that she had noted in reviewing old copies of "The Daily Worker" that the 4/17/62, issue contained an article on page 3 regarding a dinner given to one MARK LANE, attorney. The continuation of the article on page 7 lists as one of the dinner sponsors, a JACK RUBENSTEIN. Mrs. CHRISTOPHER also advised that she had read in some other newspaper that a MARK LANE had been hired as an attorney by victim's wife, Mrs. LEE OSWALD.

One copy of insert and administrative page are furnished herewith to the New York Office.

Enclosed for Dallas are 25 copies each of three FD-302's covering interviews of DELORES A. KOENIG, ALFRED WALDEMAR ANDERSON and LORRAINE FERRARO, all of Milwaukee. Wisc.

For the information of the Bureau and Butte, KOENIG identified the writer of a card she received (signed JACK RUBY) as ALFRED WALDEMAR ANDERSON, a Milwaukee resident who was visiting in Texas.

On interview ANDERSON acknowledged sending the card to KOENIG and also stated that he sent similar cards (signed JACK RUBY) to HOWARD HART, 2003 Custer Avenue, Billings, Montana, and LARRY O'SHAUGHNESSY, 1018 North 17th Street, Superior, Wisconsin. He also said that he sent a card signed only with his own initials to Dr. KENNETH WEISNER, 2703 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisc. which card, to the best of his recollection, bore some message such as the one received by KOENIG, "Watch the TV. There may be another live shooting soon."

Butte is hereby informed that ANDERSON wrote the card to HOWARD HART--in the event investigation is being conducted at Billings, Montana, relative thereto.

Milwaukee indices reflect no record on either DELORES A. KOENIG or ALFRED WALDEMAR ANDERSON.

On 1/30/64 Chief of Police JESSE GUNTERMAN, Waco Police Department, Waco, Texas, advised that on or about 1/29/64 he received in the mail a copy of a letter apparently prepared by B. C. EASTMAN, Post Office Box 4062, Austin, Texas, which was addressed to U. S. Senator JOHN TOWER, Washington, D. C., and which was dated 1/22/64.

GUNTERMAN noted that the letter indicated numerous copies to a large group of public officials including himself. He further noted that paragraph 3 stated: "What about the smothered report that the Cheif of Police in Waco told the FBI of a meeting between JAKE RUBENSTEIN and LEE OSWALD in a rented room in Waco?"

GUNTERMAN advised that the only facts to which this could refer was the information furnished to him and through him, to the FBI, by MAUDIE CRANE indicating that she had seen OSWALD and RUBY together in Waco and that OSWALD had lived in a rent house in the Hill District in Waco during the summer of 1963. GUNTERMAN stated that this was absolutely the only information of this type that he had received.

It is to be noted that the San Antonio Division conducted extensive investigation concerning allegations made by one MAUDIE CRANE, the results of which were set forth in report of SA JOHN N. KENNY dated 12/9/63, pages 25-42, captioned LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka, IS - R, at San Antonio.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Belmont DATE: 1/30/64

FROM : A. Rosen

SUBJECT: JACK L. RUBY, AKA.
LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA. - VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS

Jack Ruby, who is presently incarcerated Dallas County Jail, Dallas, Texas, received a letter postmarked 12/8/63 at Portland, Oregon, from a person identified only as Fred in which the writer directly inferred an acquaintance between Ruby and Lee Harvey Oswald. The letter enclosed an unidentified photograph of a person the writer alleged was with him at Ruby's night club in Dallas "last May" when they observed Oswald present.

SA Edmond C. Hardin Dallas was assigned to run out this allegation and after conducting a logical investigation at Dallas, to identify the person in the photograph, he forwarded a lead to Portland, Oregon, for them to attempt to identify the writer of the letter and the person in the photograph.

At Portland SAs William S. Brown and Max E. Taylor, who were assigned the lead, conducted logical inquiry at the police department and exhibited the photograph. Lieutenant William Brian of the Portland Police Department recalled having seen the photograph in the October 26, 1963, issue of the Saturday Evening Post. It was identified as being that of one Vincent Blaney whose body was recovered from the ocean off Atlantic City on August 23, 1960. He had been shot in the back of the head. The Post article concerned Blaney's alleged connection with the one-half million dollar burglary of the home of John B. Rich, a Pottsville, Pennsylvania, coal mine owner. Since Blaney was found dead in August, 1960, he obviously could not have been in Ruby's club in Dallas as inferred in the letter and the necessity for further inquiry to discredit the inferred connection between Ruby and Oswald was thus eliminated. This inquiry has been completed and disseminated to the Department and the President's Commission by report of 1/17/64.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF SACS DALLAS AND PORTLAND

SAC Dallas stated that the resourcefulness of SA Hardin in setting out the lead for the Portland Division exemplified the highest caliber of investigation and recommended that SA Hardin be commended by the Director.

SAC Portland advised that SA William S. Brown was assigned the lead in Portland and recommended that he be commended for the thoroughness with which he covered the lead which resulted in the identification of the photograph. He stated that SA Max E. Taylor, who handled the liaison with the Portland Police Department, actually obtained the information from Lieutenant Brian and recommended that SA Taylor be commended.

[redacted] He said that although Lieutenant Brian has been cooperative with Agents of the Portland Office that it was not felt that a letter from the Director to Lieutenant Brian would be appropriate.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

1. It is recognized that the resourcefulness and industry of SA Hardin of the Dallas Office and SAs Brown and Taylor of the Portland Office in setting forth and running out this important lead was exemplary, however, their efforts cannot be considered above and beyond those normally expected of an Agent in the logical pursuit of such a lead. The General Investigative Division does not concur in the recommendations of the SACs Dallas and Portland and does not recommend commendation for SAs Hardin, Taylor or Brown.

2. The General Investigative Division concurs with the recommendation of SAC Portland that Lieutenant William Brian of the Portland, Oregon, Police Department not be forwarded a commendation from the Director [redacted]

Bureau attention is directed to pages 174 and 175 of report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS, January 17, 1964.

This insert to the report refers to a communication transmitted to RUBY in an envelope postmarked December 8, 1963, at Portland, Oregon, addressed to JACK RUBINSTEIN, in care of the Dallas County Jail, Dallas, Texas. The writer of such letter directly inferred an acquaintance between RUBY and OSWALD. Attached to the letter was what appeared to be a reproduced snapshot or other photograph of an unidentified person who was referred to in the letter as the individual with whom the writer of the letter (identified only as FRED) had gone to RUBY's night club and had been introduced to RUBY. Thereupon, the writer infers OSWALD entered. The writer stated a few days later RUBY and OSWALD were together. He stated "this person", referring to the individual appearing in the photograph, "is back East now" and had said "as long as OSWALD is dead now he hoped that you will never talk".

After SA EDMOND C. HARDIN conducted such investigation as was logical in Dallas in effort to identify the person appearing in the photograph, with negative results, SA HARDIN directed communication on January 10, 1964, to the Portland Office. The letter to RUBY was quoted and a copy of the photograph mentioned was enclosed to Portland. Portland was requested to exhibit the photograph to appropriate members of the Portland Police Department in effort to identify the unknown individual in the photograph.

By communication January 20, 1964, Portland Office advised the photograph had been exhibited to the members of the Portland Police Department through roll-call procedure and extensive inquiry was conducted thereafter by police without effecting an identification of the photograph as that of anyone in the Portland area.

Portland advised, however, that Lieutenant WILLIAM BRYAN, Portland Police Department, after a search of a number of past issues of the Saturday Evening Post, called attention to the October 26, 1963 issue which includes an article beginning on page 28 entitled "They Call Me Tiger Lil". At the bottom of page 32 in connection with the article are the photographs of four men. The one at the extreme bottom right bears the underline "the late VINCENT BLANEY, accused burglar, whose body was found in Atlantic Ocean".

The article in question concerns showgirl LILLIAN REIS, also known as LILLIAN REIS CORADI, who faces a new trial on charges of organizing a bizarre four-man burglary of nearly one-half million dollars. The offense was concerned with the burglary of the home of JOHN B. RICH, Pottsville, Pennsylvania coal mine owner. The article states VINCENT BLANEY disappeared August 3, 1960 and the remains of his body were taken from the ocean off Atlantic City August 23, 1960. He had been shot in the back of the head with a small caliber bullet.

The Portland Office advised the photograph of BLANEY was no doubt identical to the photograph in question and that examination of the photograph supplied by Dallas, under microscope, discloses it is actually a print from the publication rather than an actual snapshot.

It is believed the investigation by SA EDMOND C. HARDIN which was followed up by his resourcefulness in setting out the lead for the Portland Division exemplified the highest caliber investigation. It is recommended SA HARDIN be commended by the Director in this regard.

[redacted] The identity of the Special Agent who conducted investigation in Portland is not indicated. It is suggested the SAC, Portland may desire to consider a recommendation regarding this Special Agent whose investigation resulted in positive identification of the previously unknown individual.

It is recommended Lieutenant WILLIAM BRYAN, Portland Police Department, be commended by the Director for his pursuit of this lead and his resourcefulness which resulted in the identification of the unknown individual as VINCENT BLANEY. It is suggested that SAC, Portland advise the Bureau in the event it is felt such commendation is not justified or otherwise desirable.

The importance of running out this lead is evident, since there was a direct allegation of an OSWALD-RUBY connection. Inasmuch as BLANEY was found dead August 23, 1960, he obviously could not have been in RUBY's club in Dallas "last May" as is stated in the letter to RUBY. This circumstance eliminates necessity for any further investigation in the above regard.

SUBJECT: SA WILLIAM S. BROWN
SA MAX E. TAYLOR
RECOMMENDATION FOR LETTERS OF COMMENDATION

Re Dallas airtel to Bureau 1/22/64, in the case entitled, "JACK L. RUBY aka; LEE HARVEY OSWALD aka (Deceased) - VICTIM, CR. OO: Dallas," Bufile 44-24016, PDfile 44-225.

The investigation in Portland which resulted in the identification of the photograph as that of VINCENT BLANEY was conducted by SAs WILLIAM S. BROWN and MAX E. TAYLOR. The case was assigned to SA BROWN, who has conducted the major portion of the Portland investigation in matters concerning the assassination of the late President KENNEDY and concerning RUBY and OSWALD. SA BROWN is an Agent with 22 years of experience and is one of the most able and dedicated Agents in the Portland Office. The thoroughness with which he covered the leads which resulted in the identification of the photograph is typical of his work. SA MAX E. TAYLOR is assigned principally to ITSMV matters and handles a great deal of liaison, particularly with the Portland, Oregon, Police Department. He is an Agent with 21 years of experience and is an extremely hard-working dedicated Agent. He handled the liaison with the Portland PD in the above cases, and it was he who actually obtained the information from Lt. WILLIAM BRIAN (BRYAN) in this matter.

It is recommended that suitable letters of commendation be sent to SAs BROWN and TAYLOR for their very thorough investigation concerning the unidentified photograph at Portland which led directly to the identification of the photograph as being that of VINCENT BLANEY thus resolving this very important allegation.

Dear Mr. Tonahill:

I am in receipt of your letter of January 9, 1964, addressed to the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and to the Chief Counsel of the President's Commission to report upon the assassination of President Kennedy. The letter has been referred to me by them for response.

Your letter requests, on behalf of the counsel representing your client, Jack Ruby, in the prosecution instituted by the State of Texas for the killing of Lee Oswald that you be furnished with "the reports, minutes and all evidence" in the possession of the President's Commission. There is excluded from the request, however, material of a recognized confidential character.

At the outset, it should be emphasized that discovery and disclosure of all of the facts surrounding the assassination of President Kennedy are of the greatest importance to the nation. As was stated by a spokesman for the White House on November 29, 1963, in announcing the appointment of the Special Commission,

> The President is instructing the Special Commission to satisfy itself that the truth is known as far as it can be discovered, and to report its findings and conclusions to him, to the American people, and to the world.

EX-103

79 FEB 10 1964

The Commission established by Executive Order No. 11130 is, of course, intended to effectuate this purpose. It is directed,

> . . . to examine the evidence developed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and any additional evidence that may hereafter come to light or be uncovered by federal or state authorities; to make such further investigation as the Commission finds desirable; to evaluate all the facts and circumstances surrounding such assassination, including the killing of the alleged assassin; and to report to me its findings and conclusions.

Obviously, the work of the Commission may be seriously hampered by any premature disclosure of FBI reports or other information turned over to it. It would also be quite unusual, if not altogether unprecedented, for a federal agency which has conducted an investigation into the subject matter of a state prosecution to supply directly to the defendant materials gathered during the course of a federal investigation. Moreover, in such circumstances the federal agency is not under any legal obligation to turn over materials either to the state or the defense. Any information in the hands of the prosecution will be available to you under the provisions of the law of the State of Texas. Consequently, any request for information which the prosecution may have should be directed to the District Attorney.

Due to the special circumstances of this case neither the Department of Justice nor the Commission has any wish to stand upon legal technicalities, and, at the same time we recognize the importance of insuring that Mr. Ruby receives a full and fair defense in his forthcoming trial. Moreover, we believe that subject to the limitations you have recognized in your request it will in fact be possible to make information available in the possession of the Government which may be helpful to the defense without impairing the effectiveness of the Commission's own investigation.

The information you request is stated in your letter to be essential to establish the defense of insanity, that your client's offense was at most "murder without malice," and that Mr. Oswald "was a dangerous man of bad character and reputation and a professed Communist." The point is also made that the information is necessary to counteract an impression assertedly created by the press to the effect that your client and not Oswald "is the guilty party that has put 'Dallas on trial'."

We recognize, of course, that as counsel for Mr. Ruby his defense is entirely a matter for your judgment. Since you have deemed that his state of mind at the time is material to his defense, we will be glad to furnish you with such information as we can on that issue. Information concerning Oswald's assassination of the President will not be made available as it does not appear to be relevant. It would seem that the issue in your case is not whether Oswald assassinated the President but whether Ruby thought he did.

In view of the defenses you are asserting, you are no doubt also attempting to familiarize yourself with the background of your client's life and state of mind at the time of the killing. Locating all those persons who are familiar with one or another aspect of his past is a large task. Since the Federal Bureau of Investigation has conducted an extensive investigation among Jack Ruby's prior acquaintances, you may wish access to the fruit of its labors in this respect. Should you feel this might be helpful, we will prepare for you a list of those persons who have been contacted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation during the course of its investigation and who have known or met Jack Ruby some time during the course of his life. Consistent with our other obligations, we could provide you the names and present addresses of these persons--thus enabling you to locate them quickly. We would also be willing to indicate to you the extent of each person's relationship with Ruby, those persons who expressed to us opinions as to Ruby's character or personality, and those persons familiar with particular incidents in Ruby's life which might be of importance in evaluating Ruby's state of mind at the time of the killing. We would supply you with this information with the understanding that it may be incomplete, that it may contain inaccuracies, and that it often reflects personal opinions.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has also investigated other related matters which may be relevant to the preparation of your case, as, for example, persons known to the Department who contacted Ruby after the assassination and prior to the killing of Oswald, and persons known to have been present at the Dallas City Jail at the time Oswald was shot. We will also make this information available to you, if you so request.

Sincerely yours,

Herbert J. Miller, Jr.

Enclosed herewith is a LHM setting out the information contained in San Francisco file 100-33976, Bufile 100-379424, concerning BROMBERG.

Investigation has never placed BROMBERG in Communist Party membership.

U. S. Attorney CECIL F. POOLE, San Francisco, advised SAC CURTIS O. LYNUM on 1/29/64 that a Dr. WALTER BROMBERG had been listed in the newspapers as one of the psychiatrists who have been used by the defense in connection with the hearings in the RUBY case at Dallas, Texas. USA POOLE advised that he did not have the specific information concerning BROMBERG but that he recalled BROMBERG had a questionable background and that he, POOLE, had conveyed this nonspecific information to Mr. RILEY, a Departmental assistant.

He had been unable to give Mr. RILEY any specific details other than that he recalled that there was some scandal in connection with Dr. BROMBERG leaving Sacramento and that it was rumored that BROMBERG went to New York to be with a mistress.

Sacramento Resident Agents, through established sources and without making any inquiry, determined that Dr. BROMBERG and his wife, ESTHER, have been in Sacramento, Calif. since September, 1948. In 1956 he was self-employed as a physician at 2720 Capitol Ave. and reported a salary of $15,000. His wife reported a salary of $415 per month as a social worker for the State of California. He formerly resided in Reno, Nev. BROMBERG left Sacramento in about January, 1963, for New York City, to obtain further schooling.

Several years ago, a nurse (identity unknown) from Napa, Calif., made a complaint that Dr. BROMBERG conducted "sex parties" in which he struck women companions with a whip.

The first source mentioned in the LHM is the City Civil Service records, Sacramento, Calif. The second source is [redacted]

The above and the enclosed LHM is for the information of the Bureau and Dallas in the event that the Bureau desires to instruct the SAC, Dallas, to convey this information to the prosecuting attorney in Dallas County.

DR. WALTER BROMBERG, MD

A source advised on January 30, 1952, that Dr. Bromberg was employed by the Department of Public Health, State of California, as an assistant physician and surgeon at the Sacramento Police Emergency Hospital, Sacramento, California, since October, 1951.

Dr. Bromberg was born December 16, 1900, at New York City, New York. He attended elementary and high school in Brooklyn, New York. He received a B. S. degree from the University of Cincinnati in 1924. He received an M. D. degree from Long Island College.

Dr. Bromberg served in the U. S. Navy as a Commander in the Medical Corps from May, 1942, to June, 1946, having U. S. Navy Serial Number 216461. From June, 1946, to August, 1950, he conducted a private practice as a medical psychiatrist at Reno, Nevada. From August, 1950, to September, 1951, he was employed with the California State Department of Mental Hygiene at Mendocino State Hospital. The source furnished the following description of Bromberg:

Re: DR. WALTER BROMBERG, MD

In the November 9, 1951, issue of the San Francisco Examiner", a newspaper published in San Francisco, California, here appeared an article headlined "Dr. Bromberg Under Fire." A subheading stated "Meddled At Agnews, Director Says." The article set out as follows:

"Dr. Walter Bromberg, ousted Director of Clinical Surveys at Mendocino State Hospital, was accused today of meddling in Agnews State Hospital affairs.

The accusation was made by Dr. Walter Rappaport, Director of Agnews, in a State Personnel Board hearing on Bromberg's appeal from his dismissal.

Rappaport said Bromberg twice consulted women patients at Agnews while he was employed at Mendocino. Rappaport said this was the first time in the history of California that a state hospital director intervened in the administration of another state hospital."

In the September 26, 1951, issue of the New York "Daily News", a newspaper published in New York City, there appeared an article showing a photograph of Belle Bromberg and her two children in connection with the arrest of Walter Bromberg on the grounds that her alimony payments were in jeopardy in that he had threatened to go to California if she did not agree to a Florida divorce. The article reflected that Belle Bromberg alleged that Walter Bromberg had been to California on a trip with a Welfare Department employee by the name of Esther Boyd and that Dr. Bromberg had been living with Boyd since 1939.

A second source advised on October 27, 1952, that she is a very close acquaintance of [redacted] invited her to various social functions in Sacramento. [redacted] and some of her associates have, with some frequency, engaged in "sex parties" where base, immoral practices took place. The source attended one such function without prior knowledge of the practices to take place. Present at this "party" was Dr. Walter Bromberg who was then employed as a physician at the Sacramento City Hospital and who formerly was Clinical Director at the Mendocino State Hospital.

GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

Tonahill, one of Ruby's attorneys, requested complete results of our investigations concerning the assassination of the President and the killing of Oswald by Ruby. The FBI and the President's Commission both deferred to the judgment of the Department.

AAG Miller is now advising Tonahill that upon his specific request he will be furnished only with the names and addresses of persons who furnished background information concerning Ruby including the extent of each persons relationship with Ruby and identifying those who furnished opinions or related incidents of importance in determining Ruby's state of mind. AAG Miller offers to furnish upon request, in addition to above, identity of persons contacting Ruby after assassination but before killing of Oswald and identities of those known to have been present when Oswald was shot.

Re telephone call from Bureau 2/1/64.

The following items of clothing worn by LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the time he was shot by JACK RUBY have been obtained from the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department at Parkland Hospital by SA VINCENT E. DRAIN:

1 - Black Slip-on sweater - cut open
1 - Undershirt - cut open
1 - Shirt - cut open
1 - Pair of dark colored trousers
1 - Pair of dark colored socks
1 - Pair of Black slip-on shoes

It is noted that according to the Police, the trousers and shoes in this listing are the same trousers and shoes he was wearing at the time he was arrested.

It is noted that the Deputy Police Chief, CHARLES BATCHELOR, who authorized release of this material to the FBI, has requested that it be returned to the Dallas Police Department by SA DRAIN as soon as possible.

District Attorney HENRY WADE was also contacted and he has stated he is perfectly agreeable for the material to be taken and exhibited to the Commission but he could not authorize their retaining same as he will definitely have to have the material in the trial of RUBY and it is necessary that he have this material in his possession by February 11, 1964.

Dr. Walter Bromberg has been widely reported in the newspapers as a New York psychiatrist upon whose testimony Ruby's defense lawyers have relied heavily in connection with the hearings in the Ruby case at Dallas, Texas. Dr. Bromberg described Ruby as a mentally sick man who "did not realize what he was doing" when he shot Lee Harvey Oswald.

The San Francisco Office advised that Dr. Bromberg resided with his wife Esther in Sacramento, California, from September, 1948, until January, 1963, when he left for New York City to obtain further schooling.

Information in the San Francisco Office files reflects that Bromberg was born December 16, 1900, in New York City and received an MD degree from Long Island College. He was a commander in the U. S. Navy Medical Corps from May, 1942, to June, 1946. From June, 1946, to August, 1950, he conducted a private practice at Reno, Nevada. From August, 1950, to September, 1951, he was employed with the California State Department of Mental Hygiene at Mendocino State Hospital. It was reported in the San Francisco "Examiner" newspaper on 11/9/51 that Dr. Bromberg was ousted as Director of Clinical Surveys at Mendocino State Hospital as a result of charges of meddling in the affairs of the patients in Agnews State Hospital. Dr. Walter Rappaport, Director of Agnews State Hospital, reportedly stated that Bromberg twice consulted women patients at Agnews while he was employed at Mendocino. Rappaport said this was the first time in the history of California that one state hospital director meddled in the affairs of another.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to my letter dated January 17, 1964, relating to a contact with this Bureau by attorneys for General Edwin A. Walker. In this letter I also advised you efforts were being made to locate William McEvan Duff, who had been linked to Lee Harvey Oswald during April or May, 1963, by a Dallas lunchroom proprietor.

We have located Duff and I am enclosing two copies of the report of Special Agent J. A. Grimes dated January 28, 1964, at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, containing the results of interview with Duff.

This concludes our inquiry into this particular matter.

NOTE:

By letter to Rankin dated 1-17-64, we advised his attorneys Clyde J. Watts and A. V. Grant had requested the FBI to confirm or deny reports that Oswald attempted to murder Walker on 4-10-63. One of the attorneys also wanted us to furnish a transcript of all evidence and information relating to this alleged attempt on Walker's life so that they could take appropriate action to protect the General. Attorney Watts indicated he might contact the President's Commission or endeavor to interview Oswald's widow. In view of the above, we furnished the Commission background on this contact as well as what action we had done in the Walker shooting, which was primarily a ballistics examination. Duff was the only suspect in the Walker shooting developed by the Dallas Police Department and he was subsequently absolved by that department. A lunchroom proprietor was the only individual who linked Duff with Oswald, therefore, efforts were made to locate Duff for interview to iron this matter out. The enclosed copies of a report from Oklahoma City disclose that Duff never knew Oswald or any other of the principals in this matter. At the time of our letter to Rankin on 1-17-64, we advised when Duff was located and interviewed he would be furnished the results thereof. This now concludes our inquiry.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of January 31, 1964, in which you advised that the Commission had information that a Roland Spigale, an employee of the Southern Bell Telephone Company at New Orleans prior to December 31, 1963, had informed Shirley Lamprecht, his fiancee, that he had learned the telephone records of his company showed Jack Ruby and Lee Harvey Oswald living at one time in the same apartment house in New Orleans.

For your information, this Bureau has determined that Roland Spigale is apparently Roland Spedale, 903 Dante Street, New Orleans, an employee in the Customers Accounting Department of the New Orleans Public Service Company, Incorporated Spedale, according to Shirley Lamprecht, 1040 Farragut Street, New Orleans, told her soon after the assassination of President Kennedy that the FBI had checked the records for gas and electric service for Oswald's apartment in New Orleans with the New Orleans Public Service Company, Incorporated. Lamprecht stated that Spedale had not mentioned Jack Ruby. She and Spedale were later at a party in the home of Mrs. Vincent T. Lococo, 3713 Dumaine Street, New Orleans, at which she told several individuals present the information given her previously by Spedale. Lamprecht advised that while the name of Ruby entered the discussion as a result of interest in the newspaper stories about Oswald and Ruby, she made no statement to the effect that Ruby and Oswald lived in the same apartment house in New Orleans, and she had no knowledge that such could be true.

Jasper, Texas

Dear Mr. Tonahill:

This is in further reference to my letter of January 28, 1964, and your telephone call of this date to my First Assistant, Mr. Foley. In accordance with your request, I am forwarding herewith materials set forth in my January 28 letter which you have requested.

I wish to thank you for your kind words of appreciation for the Federal Government's cooperation in this matter as related by you to Mr. Foley.

This material is, of course, being given to you in confidence since it involves interviews with private citizens and, accordingly should not be made public. This does not mean, however, that you cannot conduct your own interviews with these persons if you see fit.

Sincerely,

Herbert J. Miller, Jr.
Assistant Attorney General

The Department has made available a copy of a letter dated 2/3/64 to Joe H. Tonahill, one of Ruby's attorneys. A copy of the letter is attached for ready reference.

The Department has also made available a copy of the enclosure which was furnished to Tonahill. This enclosure consists of the names and addresses of approximately 1,041 persons interviewed by the FBI who have been acquainted with Ruby. In some instances only the name and address of the person interviewed was given to Tonahill but in the majority of instances the name and address was supplemented with one or two sentences showing the nature of the person's association with Ruby and/or the general nature of the information he furnished. The names and addresses of those persons present when Ruby killed Oswald were included.

This is to advise that Special Agent C. Ray Hall has been subpoenaed by the defense to appear in United States District Court Number 3, Dallas, Texas, on February 10, 1964, as a witness for the hearing on an application made by the defense for a change of venue. Special Agent Hall will appear in answer to the subpoena, and he has been instructed that his testimony is to be limited to the results of interviews conducted by him with Ruby on November 24, 1963, and December 21, 1963. He will express no opinion as to whether or not Ruby can get a fair trial in Dallas County. United States Attorney Barefoot Sanders will accompany Special Agent Hall in order that the Government's interest will be protected.

For your information, the defense has subpoenaed well over 100 law enforcement officers, civic, political, religious and business leaders who they hope will testify that Ruby cannot get a fair trial in Dallas County. United States Attorney Sanders was included among those subpoenaed.

FARKAS was employed as a busboy at the Del Camino Motor Hotel and Restaurant, 4910 Alameda Avenue, El Paso, and resided at the Hotel Linden, Room #15, 504 North Oregon Street, El Paso, Texas.

FBIH

[redacted], Del Camino Motor Hotel and Restaurant, advised that JENO FARKAS was released from his employment at the Del Camino Motor Hotel and Restaurant on January 8, 1964. He said that FARKAS was insubordinate and did not perform his work in a satisfactory manner and for those reasons was released from his employment. FARKAS was given two separate pay-checks for work performed by FARKAS at the Motor Hotel and Restaurant and has not been seen since his release. It was believed that FARKAS attempted to obtain subsequent employment at the La Fonda Motel in El Paso.

NY IRP 40R

Hungary

[redacted] Linden Hotel, 504 North Oregon Street, El Paso, advised that JENO FARKAS paid his room rent for room #15 at the Hotel through January 9, 1964. FARKAS stayed on at the Hotel for several days after January 9, and then left the Hotel without paying rent due to the Hotel. FARKAS had very little baggage with him when he registered at the Hotel. The last time that Mrs. PORTER saw FARKAS was when he cashed two small payroll checks at the Hotel. At that time he owed for several days rent. She did not ask him however, to make payment on the bill owed by him to the Hotel. After cashing the two checks, FARKAS disappeared and has not been seen since. When FARKAS registered at the Hotel he listed his residence as 2917 Bryan, Dallas, Texas.

[redacted], La Fonda Motel, 5301 Alameda, El Paso, advised that there was no information in the files of her office regarding any application for employment which JENO FARKAS may have filed.

[redacted], Del Camino Motor Hotel and Restaurant, advised that she formerly worked at the La Fonda Motel in the Restaurant section. She said that the day JENO FARKAS was released from his employment at the Del Camino Motor Hotel and Restaurant he contacted some of the employees at the La Fonda Motel with the idea of gaining employment there. She said however, that FARKAS was not employed by the Motel and was not known to have any further contact with the people at the Motel.

[redacted] Texas Employment Commission, 1116 East Yandell, El Paso, advised that there was no information contained in the files of his office which would indicate that JENO FARKAS had ever made application for employment throught the Texas Employment Commission. (The records of the Texas Employment Commission are confidential and this information should be handled accordingly).

[redacted] El Paso City-County Health Unit, 118 West Missouri Street, checked the records of her office and was unable to locate any record of JENO FARKAS, it being noted that FARKAS would have to notify the El Paso City-County Health Unit if he planned to work in the El Paso area in the food handling business.

Mr. ROY WILLIM, El Paso County Sheriff's Office, El Paso, advised that there was no information contained in the files of his office identifiable with JENO FARKAS.

Mrs. DELIA PEDREGON, El Paso Police Department, made available the arrest record of JENO FARKAS, which contained the information that he was arrested on December 12, 1963, in El Paso on a Vagrancy charge and was fined $25.00. The record indicates that FARKAS was released on December 21, 1963. He listed his residence on the arrest record as 2917 Bryan Street, Dallas, Texas. His FBI number was listed as 261-296 E and his DOB and POB were listed as December 14, 1940 at Nyirpator, Hungary.

On February 4, 1964, SAIC GEORGE WEISHEIT, U.S. Secret Service, El Paso, advised that it is incumbent upon the Secret Service to keep track of JENO FARKAS' whereabouts. He said that on December 30, 1963, he placed a wanted notice stop with the Identification Division of the FBI in Washington, D.C. for JENO FARKAS under FBI #261 296 E.

Mr. WEISHEIT said that on January 30, 1964, the U.S. Secret Service in Dallas interviewed H.H. HARLAN, Cabana Motor Hotel, where FARKAS was formerly employed as a busboy, and it was determined that FARKAS had not returned to his employment at the Motor Hotel.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

This is in response to your letter dated January 15, 1964, requesting this Bureau interview the Reverend William H. Dickinson, Jr., concerning an alleged statement reportedly made in his presence prior to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Enclosed for your assistance are two copies of a communication prepared by our Dallas Office dated February 2, 1964, incorporating the interview of Reverend Dickinson as well as the results of our investigation. Since a copy of your original request was furnished to the Honorable James J. Rowley, Chief, United States Secret Service, I have also sent a copy of the enclosed communication to him.

This concludes our inquiry into this particular matter.

ORIGINAL FILED IN 62-109060 - 2357

NOTE:

This matter previously on Director's "Special List" and has been receiving close attention at the Bureau. Marshall W. Malone, San Diego, California, directed a letter to the President's Commission dated 12-10-63 in which he quoted part of an article appearing in the western edition of the "New York Times," datelined Dallas, Texas, 11-25-63. In the article the writer quotes the Reverend H. Dickerson, Jr., as having stated "a bright young" couple had made a statement two days prior to President Kennedy's visit to Dallas that "they hated the President of the United States and that they would not care one bit if someone did take a pot shot at him." Mr. Rankin requested interview of the Reverend Dickinson for the purpose of identifying the couple responsible for this statement and thereafter conduct appropriate investigation.

Dallas by airtel 2-1-64 enclosed an eight-page letterhead memorandum incorporating the results of investigation in this matter. It would appear the statement referred to above was taken out of context when made by Mr. Frank Caldwell during a dinner in Dallas on 8-9-63. Only two other couples were present at this time, during which a discussion relating to racial matters was gone into.

The wife of another member of the dinner party has acknowledged she probably perpetuated this rumor by repeating it shortly after the President's assassination, which in turn was picked up by still another party and hence used by the Reverend Dickinson in a sermon without further documentation. All parties involved have acknowledged regret over this unfortunate statement. It does not appear the statement as quoted in the newspaper was ever actually said.

It is interesting to note that one of the individuals interviewed knew Jack Ruby in 1956 in connection with the individual's business as a tax consultant. There appears to be no further connection between this individual and Jack Ruby.

Re: State of Texas vs Jack Ruby (#-4010, In the Criminal Dist. Court #3 Dallas County, Texas)

Dear Mr. Miller:

Your recent communication advising that the Warren Commission has authorized your office to make available to the defense team of Jack Ruby certain pertinent investigative data surrounding the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and the shooting of his assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, is accepted with proper respect and sincere appreciation for the considerations of the Commission's regard for the special circumstances of this case.

We, of the Jack Ruby defense team, regard this action of the Department of Justice and the Warren Commission as being forthright and in keeping with the highest traditions of American Law, Truth and Justice.

Such action and decision by those great men of American Justice should be accepted with dignity and gratitude by all of America.

Regardless of the outcome of the Ruby Case, which, of course, is of no official concern of the Warren Commission, the making available of this evidence to the Ruby defense team in the nature of factual disclosures will, hopefully we feel, lend itself to adequate elimination of the hatred, bigotry and prejudice which the great John Fitzgerald Kennedy fought so hard to eradicate.

Perhaps this evidence will serve to clear the atmosphere of the confusion that has been wrought by a local Dallas news media through its warping of the factual background of the defendant in its slanted and controlled reporting.

We are hoping to conduct a defense that will evoke respect for trial by jury in America, and which will illuminate the absolute need for a guarded understanding of the sinister methods of such controlled press which seek to generate a clear and present danger to proper and true administration of justice in American Courts.

Tonahill, one of Ruby's attorneys, previously requested that full results of our investigation be made available. We deferred to the judgement of the Department and the President's Commission. The President's Commission also deferred to the Department. The Department has now furnished to Tonahill a list of the names and addresses of approximately 1,041 person who furnished information concerning Ruby's activities or who were present when Oswald was killed. Tonahill was not furnished with the detailed results of our interviews but in most instances the name and address of the person interviewed was accompanied by one or two sentences indicating the nature of their relationship with Ruby and/or the general nature of the information they furnished.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION CONCERNING

On 2/4/64 Mr. TIM O'CONNER, Manager, Radio Station KFML, 290 Filmore Street, Denver, Colorado, while being interviewed on another matter, advised SA RICHARD N. THOMAS that during the first week of January, 1964, a man whose name he never possessed had arranged a meeting with him at Denver in order to furnish information from an alleged FBI report on the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. Mr. O'CONNER stated at this time that it was his recollection that the material in the possession of this man was stamped "Classified."

On 2/5/64 Mr. O'CONNER advised SA RAYMOND J. FOX that on an unrecalled date between the Christmas and New Years holidays he received a phone call at Radio Station KFML from a man who informed him that he had information which he considered urgent and newsworthy and which he wanted to furnish to Mr. O'CONNER. O'CONNER stated that at the man's instructions he went to a small coffee shop located on South Broadway across from the Montgomery Wards Department Store on that same afternoon. On arrival at the coffee shop he was met by two men, one of whom did all the talking, and the other of whom had very little to say. O'CONNER advised that neither of these men would furnish their names and the spokesman for the two stated that he was in possession of information which he was afraid would not be made available to the public unless he took this action. He said the man thereupon showed him 4 or 5 pages of mimeographed material, the first page of which bore the heading "The following is a report of the Federal Bureau of Investigation." Mr. O'CONNER stated that the page also had the notation "Classified" stamped on it within a black border. Mr. O'CONNER stated that no degree of classification was listed on this page and that the word "Classified" was all that appeared thereon. He described the mimeographed pages as being in his opinion a copy of another copy and stated that the words were barely legible and the condition of the pages themselves as being very poor. He also stated that it looked to him like a church or school bulletin and that the grade of the paper appeared to be very inferior.

Mr. O'CONNER stated that a perusal by him of the contents of these pages disclosed that it was merely a recount of the events of the assassination of the President JOHN F. KENNEDY which appeared in many newspapers. He said the only information which had not been public knowledge up to this time was a short paragraph claiming that the assassination of the President had been planned and executed by the "La Cosa Nostra" and that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been paid by the "Cosa Nostra" to carry out the assassination of the President. O'CONNER said that this material also indicated that JACK RUBY was a "soldier" of the "Cosa Nostra" and had been instructed to do away with OSWALD after the assassination.

O'CONNER advised that since the news content of this material was not substantiated by any facts and in his opinion did not seem real to him, he told the two men that he was not interested in putting this information out over the air. He said that his reluctance to handle this information was further strengtened by the fact that they did not furnish their names or support the content of the material by any factual source.

Mr. O'CONNER advised that neither of these men claimed to be associated with the FBI nor did they furnish any credentials to support any association with any Government agency. He recalled that the spokesman for the two inferred that he had access to classified material and that he "got this out of the top secret classified file."

The format of the first page of the usual report of the FBI was described to Mr. O'CONNER who stated that the collection of pages shown to him by the unknown man was not similar in any respect to an FBI report. He said the first page of the pages shown to him contained nothing other than the introductory paragraph alleging that it is a report of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, immediately followed by the subject matter.

Mr. O'CONNER stated that he did not observe either of these individuals in or near an automobile and that he has not been recontacted by either since this initial contact. He was unable to furnish any information which would be helpful in identifying either of these persons. He described these men as follows:

No. 1, who was the spokesman:

|---|---|
| Race | White |
| Sex | Male |
| Age | 45 - 49 |
| Height | 6'2" |
| Weight | 195 lbs. |
| Eyes | Unobserved |
| Hair | Gray, distinguished looking |
| Characteristics | Wore glasses |

No. 2:

|---|---|
| Race | White |
| Sex | Male |
| Age | 45 |
| Height | 6' |
| Weight | 180 lbs. |
| Characteristics | No glasses or distinguishing marks |

Mr. O'CONNER stated that should either of these men contact him in the future, he would notify the Denver Office of the FBI.

DX 39-41

[redacted]

The Dallas Office is requested to advise Denver whether prior information has been received regarding individuals such as those described above having contacted news media with an alleged FBI report.

Denver Office direct discreet contact with established sources in the radio field and determine whether a similar offer has been made to other radio stations in the Denver area in an attempt to identify these persons.

[redacted]

NOTE: [redacted] O'Conner states was telephonically contacted by individual whom he later met in company of a second unidentified male who desired to sell him an alleged "classified FBI report." O'Conner states there was nothing of pertinence in this report which had not been previously seen by him in newspapers other than paragraph alleging assassination planned and executed by "La Cosa Nostra"; and that Ruby killed Oswald based on instructions from this group. There appears to be serious doubt as to the authenticity of this being an actual Bureau report, however, logical efforts are being made to identify the persons involved.

SUBJECT: JACK L. RUBY, AKA.
LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA. - VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS

An article appeared in "The Miami News" dated 1/29/64 which quoted a spokesman for the Students Revolutionary Directorate (DRE) as stating that Jack Ruby flew from Mexico City to Havana, Cuba, the latter part of December, 1962, on a Mexicana de Aviacion flight. He reportedly stayed in Havana until early 1963. The news article was written by Mary Louise Wilkinson, a reporter of "The Miami News." The Dallas Office suggested that Miami be instructed to interview Wilkinson and request that she reveal her sources in order that the allegation may be run out. Dallas also requested Bureau authority to have a check made at Mexicana airlines by the Legat Mexico City to determine if Ruby is listed as a passenger on one of their flights to Cuba at any time during the pertinent period.

The DRE is an anti-Castro organization with headquarters in the Miami area. The Miami Office has had frequent occasion to contact officials and members of the organization. On 2/5/64 we received a similar allegation to the effect that Ruby visited Cuba in late 1962 and early 1963 and that he traveled to Cuba through Mexico. This information was received from Carlos Bringuier, a delegate to the DRE in New Orleans. Miami is currently contacting their sources in the DRE to thoroughly run down this allegation.

When interviewed by Agents on 12/21/63, Ruby denied that he had ever been in Mexico except for a brief trip across the border at Juarez many years ago and he denied traveling to Cuba except on one occasion in 1959. His travel to Cuba in 1959 has been confirmed through other sources and through appropriate records. Our investigation tends to establish that Ruby was seen on a daily basis at the Carousel Club in Dallas during December, 1962, and January, 1963.

ACTION:

1. The Miami Office is being instructed to interview Mary Louise Wilkinson, reporter for "The Miami News," in an effort to determine her source within the DRE for the information published by her that Ruby was in Cuba in late 1962 and early 1963. They will also be instructed to fully run out this allegation through officials and sources within the DRE to positively establish whether or not there is any basis to the allegation.

2. Lead is being forwarded to Legat Mexico City to check out the allegation that Ruby traveled by Mexicana airline from Mexico City to Havana during the pertinent period.

Immediately upon receipt Miami will interview Mary Louise Wilkinson to determine her sources for the allegation that Ruby traveled to Cuba during late 1962 and early 1963. As pointed out in referenced airtel this allegation has been received from several sources and would appear to originate within the Student Revolutionary Directorate (DRE). In addition to interviewing officials of the DRE as set forth in New Orleans teletype to the Director and Miami dated 2/5/64, you should also interview any sources available to you within the DRE in order that it may be clearly established whether or not the allegation is true or false. Leads must be handled on an expedite basis.

A lead has been forwarded to Legat Mexico City for appropriate check of Mexicana Airlines. In the future Dallas should submit leads for Legats in accordance with instructions as set forth in Handbook, Part I, page 50B.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. DeLoach

FROM : D. C. Morrell

DATE: 2-5-64

SUBJECT: SENATOR JOHN G. TOWER

By communication dated 2-3-64, Senator Tower referred a letter he received from Walter L. Coe, 4815 Saxon Street, Bellaire, Texas. This letter thanks the Senator for sending him a copy of the Director's letter of January 15th but states that his question is still not answered as to whether the Jack Rubenstein who murdered Lee Harvey Oswald is identical with the Jack Rubenstein mentioned in Dies Committee Hearings. He states that the Director's letter only indicated that findings were being sent to the Warren Commission and it "looks like the 'whitewash' has begun." Coe wants to know if the Senator can obtain a definite answer.

In response to an inquiry from Senator Tower, the Director wrote him on January 15th pointing out that the results of the FBI's investigation were being furnished the Presidential Commission in accordance with instructions of President Johnson. He was assured that the investigation was directed at developing all pertinent facts.

It is noted that we have made no public disclosure of the results of our investigation and related inquiries. As a matter of fact, the question concerning Jack Rubenstein has been raised and resolved. Jack Ruby, the murderer of Oswald was born in 1911. The Jack Rubenstein of the "Textiles Workers Union of America" was born in 1904. They are not identical.

Bufiles contain no derogatory information concerning Walter L. Coe. A news clipping indicated that he was one of the individuals who opposed a visit of Yugoslavs to Bellaire, Texas. We have had cordial relations with Senator Tower.

OBSERVATION:

Any written reply to Senator Tower would be repetitious. We still should not be placed in the position of furnishing him a communication to send to his constituent relative to any investigation we have conducted in connection with Jack Ruby.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

This letter will confirm a request made this afternoon by a member of my staff to Mr. Malley regarding delivery of certain specified items of physical evidence tomorrow for use in taking the testimony of Marina Oswald.

If possible, the Commission would like delivered to my office at 9:15 a.m. tomorrow morning the items enumerated on the three attached lists entitled "Weapons," "Clothing," and "Cameras." In addition, we wish to request delivery also of Items C 37 and D 53, as well as a few good pictures of Jack L. Ruby, if any are available. Handled - See letter 2/5/64. JEGon

I would also appreciate being advised as to the status of my request contained in a letter dated February 1, 1964 for an inventory of the evidence currently in the hands of the Dallas Police Department which may be relevant to this investigation. Letter to Rankin 2/10/64. JEGon

In order to ensure proper handling of these evidentiary items we would appreciate your making the necessary arrangements so that they might all be picked up by an agent at 5 p.m. tomorrow afternoon. At that time, we will be in a position to indicate which of these exhibits might be needed on the following day, Thursday, February 6, 1964.

Thank you for your assistance.

Dear Senator Tower:

Thank you for your letter of January 16, and the enclosed copy of J. Edgar Hoover's January 15th letter to you.

As you recall this was in answer to my letter regarding the possibilty of the Jack Rubenstein who murdered Lee Harvey Oswald being the same Jack Rubenstein mentioned in the Dies Committee Hearings of 1929-30.

Your help is appreciated, however it looks like the "whitewash" has begun. J. Edgar Hoover's letter only told us that he would turn all findings over to the Warren Commission. This is not what we asked for. We asked for a specific asnser Senator Tower. I should think that we could get a simple yes or no answer without waiting for the Warren Commission.

This could be very importand to you, I and the future of our country. I think it is important enough for you to demand an answer and even to make a public issue of. If they withhold this information no telling what else they are hiding from us.

Please see if you can get a definite answer about Jack Rubenstein.

Reference is made to various communications relating to the inquiry of Reverend V. Montgomery.

For your future information and guidance, the Bureau is handling this investigation under three separate phases.

The first phase can be described as the Lee Harvey Oswald phase which relates primarily to background on Oswald prior to and subsequent to the assassination of President Kennedy. This investigation has been carried under the caption, "Lee Harvey Oswald, aka., IS - R - CUBA," Bureau file 105-82555, Dallas file 100-10461, and is being primarily supervised by the Domestic Intelligence Division.

The second phase of this investigation is captioned as above in the respective file numbers shown. This phase primarily deals with allegations, evidence, etc., relating principally to the assassination of the President. You are well aware of the third phase which deals with Jack L. Ruby. Both of these phases are supervised by the General Investigative Division.

Your failure to reply to Bureau communications in the same caption and file as the Bureau request results in undue confusion, primarily the routing of communications.

Evidio Bernardo Pereira Acosta, 821 Southwest 2nd Street, Miami, Florida, advised as follows:

While a prisoner in Cuba after taking part in the attempted invasion of Cuba in April 1961, Pereira was contacted by a member of the Cuban Red Cross and following his release from prison, and subsequent residence in the United States, he has corresponded with this individual.

He furnished newspaper clippings regarding the assassination of President Kennedy and the subsequent killing of Lee Harvey Oswald at Dallas, Texas, in his letters to this individual.

Pereira exhibited a letter dated December 3, 1963, at Havana, Cuba, containing a paragraph which translated to English reads as follows:

"Ruby, the assassin of Oswald, was in Havana a year ago. He is a friend and a client of an individual named Praskin, who owns or manages a souvenir shop located on Prado between Animas and Trocadero Streets in front of the Sevilla Hotel."

Pereira has no knowledge as to the original source of this information and does not know whether or not the person with whom he corresponded in Havana is personally acquainted with or has any personal knowledge regarding the individual named Praskin.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Enclosed are two copies of a self-explanatory communication prepared by our Dallas Office dated January 28, 1964. Copies of this communication have also been furnished to the following: Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence, Department of the Army; Director of Naval Intelligence, Department of the Navy; Director of Special Investigations, The Inspector General, Department of the Air Force; Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division, Department of Justice; Chief, United States Secret Service, Department of the Treasury; and Chief Postal Inspector, Post Office Department.

For your assistance, "American Opinion," was incorporated January 13, 1956, under the laws of the State of Massachusetts, and is edited and published by Robert Welch, Belmont, Massachusetts. On December 9, 1958, Welch founded the John Birch Society in Indianapolis, Indiana. The John Birch Society was incorporated on December 23, 1958, as a nonprofit business organization under the laws of the State of Massachusetts. Welch has summarized the long-range objectives of the Society as "less government, more responsibility and a better world." "American Opinion," the John Birch Society and Welch have not been investigated by this Bureau.

The above is being furnished for your information.

Sincerely yours,

Letterhead memorandum sent as enclosure with Dallas airtel dated 1/28/64 captioned, "Assassination of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 11/22/63, Dallas, Texas, Miscellaneous - Information Concerning." Copies to other Governmental agencies sent by Domestic Intelligence Division. Letterhead memorandum relates to anonymous communication received by our Dallas Office and postmarked at Dallas, Texas, both on 1/23/64 enclosing 16 stickers containing the statement "Communism Killed Kennedy." It was indicated these stickers are available at a price of $1.00 for 12 sheets (912 stickers) and can be obtained from "American Opinion," Belmont, Massachusetts. It is possible these stickers might come to the attention of the President's Commission resulting in a request for Bureau investigation. Therefore, it is felt we should take the initiative and advise the Commission of the above prior to receipt of a request.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY

JACK L. RUBY, aka.
LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka - Victim (Deceased)
CR

Pursuant to your instructions we have worked out a new procedure to insure the President's Commission has been furnished photographs of every piece of physical evidence received in any of the three captioned cases and/or to furnish photographs of new evidence that we receive. I have coordinated this procedure with Inspector Malley, SAC Shanklin in Dallas and Supervisor Lenihan in the Domestic Intelligence Division.

Henceforth as any new evidence is received in the Laboratory, subjected to examination and Laboratory report submitted, the Laboratory report will be directed to Dallas. Four 8 x 10 photographs will be furnished to Dallas along with Laboratory report. The photographs will have been assigned a listing number in the Laboratory and this number will appear on the photographs so that our master list of photographs furnished to the Commission will be complete. Dallas will be instructed to incorporate results of the Laboratory examination in an investigative report and attach three photographs to three copies of each investigative report. One photograph will be attached to the copy of the report that bears the SAC's initials and will eventually be the Bureau file copy. Dallas will flag the other two reports to which photographs are attached as "Commission" copies and in this manner the Commission will receive the photographs along with the report that sets forth the investigation to which the photographs pertain. The fourth photograph furnished to Dallas will serve as Dallas's file copy. Domestic Intelligence Division and the Investigative Division will be furnished copies of our outgoing Laboratory report along with duplicate photographs of those being transmitted to Dallas.

Memorandum to Mr. Conrad
Re: Lee Harvey Oswald

With respect to physical evidence currently being sent to the Bureau pursuant to field-wide instructions, it would be undesirable if photographs were transmitted to the Commission before the Commission had received results of investigation which pertained to such photographs. In furnishing photographs to the Commission in the future we will be alert to insure no photographs are sent from the Laboratory if the investigation pertaining to such photographs has not already been incorporated in an investigative report. If such investigation has been previously reported, we will transmit the photographs to the Commission under cover of letter as we have done in the past.

If we are unable to determine readily whether investigation which relates to a particular photograph has been incorporated in an investigative report, we will send four copies of the photograph to Dallas with a request that Dallas determine whether the investigation has been reported. If no investigative report has been submitted, Dallas will submit one and attach photographs as exhibits as indicated above. If the report has been previously submitted, Dallas will prepare a letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination identifying the report in which the pertinent information is set forth and will attach three of the photographs as exhibits. The Seat of Government Supervisor will then disseminate the letterhead memorandum with exhibits attached.

There will be a number of instances when the Laboratory, as repository only of the physical evidence, has not conducted any examination of such evidence. In those instances, if the evidence has been referred to and described in an investigative report, the Laboratory will furnish the photograph to the Commission by letter. If it has not or we cannot determine readily, we will send photographs to Dallas and Dallas will resolve the problem in accordance with the above-described arrangements.

RECOMMENDATION: None. For information.

FROM : A. Rosen

SUBJECT: JACK L. RUBY, AKA;

Memorandum from Rosen to Belmont dated January 24, 1964, set forth full details concerning a typographical error which had been discovered by SA C. Ray Hall of the Dallas Office while he was preparing to testify at Ruby's bond hearing on January 20, 1964. This error consisted of having set forth in one of the Dallas reports two interviews with subject Jack Ruby and the dates of the two interviews were reflected November 24, and 25, 1963, when in fact both interviews actually occurred on November 24, 1963. This error was corrected in sufficient time that there was no difficulty; however, it was pointed out the necessity of correcting the record both in the Department's and the President's Commission's files.

This matter was discussed with Mr. William Foley, in the absence of Assistant Attorney General Miller of the Criminal Division, and Mr. Foley advised there was no problem involved and the necessary corrections would be made.

Mr. J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission was advised of the typographical error and stated that he certainly understood an error of this type occurring, but in view of the attitude of the Commission of having everything in writing, he would appreciate a letter advising the Commission of the facts concerning the correction.

ACTION:

There is attached a letter to Mr. Rankin setting forth the error that occurred along with the circumstances under which the error was discovered.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your conversation with Inspector James R. Malley of this Bureau on February 7, 1964, regarding Lonnie Hudkins, the Houston "Post" reporter who wrote an article in the January 1, 1964, issue of the Houston "Post" entitled "Oswald Rumored as Informant for U.S."

For your information, Mr. Alonzo F. Hudkins, III, also known as Lonnie Hudkins, was interviewed by Agents of this Bureau on February 8, 1964, in this matter. Mr. Hudkins stated he arrived in Dallas, Texas, in late December, 1963, to check out rumors that Oswald might have been an informant of the FBI. He stated such rumors were based on information he had received from Assistant District Attorney William Alexander to the effect that Oswald's address book contained the name of Agent Hosty, his office and home telephone numbers and his automobile license number. Mr. Hudkins also stated he had interviewed Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, who said that Oswald was doing important subversive work for the Government.

Mr. Hudkins further stated he had contacted a Government official, not a Federal official in Dallas, who had told him that Oswald was on the payroll of either the FBI or the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) with voucher number 179 and that he had received no less than $150 a month and no more than $225 a month. Mr. Hudkins claimed that the official who furnished him this information had furnished him reliable information in the past which he had been able to print. Mr. Hudkins stated he did not print anything stating Oswald was an informant of the FBI or CIA but merely raised this question in his article in the Houston "Post" of January 1, 1964, since he had only this official's word and did not have any supporting documents of any kind to substantiate this allegation. He further stated he had made inquiries of some of his friends in Houston, Texas, whose names he would not divulge and had also requested his Washington, D. C., headquarters to attempt to check out this allegation. According to Mr. Hudkins this allegation could not be verified through any of his sources and, therefore, was not printed in the Houston "Post."

Mr. Hudkins was questioned at length in an attempt to ascertain his source that Oswald was an FBI or CIA informant, but Mr. Hudkins refused to divulge his source or to furnish a signed statement. He stated that when he received this information from his source he was alone and no other reporters were present.

According to Mr. Hudkins, the only other information he had heard that Oswald might be a symbol number informant was from Joe Golden, a reporter of the "Philadelphia Inquirer," who was in Dallas in late December, 1963. According to Hudkins, Mr. Golden mentioned to him a number different from 179, that might have been a voucher number. Mr. Hudkins stated he could not recall the number.

At the conclusion of our interview with Mr. Hudkins he stated that even if he were called to appear before the President's Commission, he would decline to furnish the source of his information.

In connection with Mr. Hudkins' reference to Joe Golden, please be advised that we have interviewed Mr. Joseph Goulden, a reporter for the "Philadelphia Inquirer," in connection with an article Mr. Goulden reported in the December 8, 1963, issue of the "Philadelphia Inquirer," wherein he alleged that Lee Harvey Oswald at one time had been contacted by the FBI to become an informant. He said he had obtained this information from a law enforcement officer in Dallas whom he declined to identify. We reinterviewed Joseph Goulden on December 16, 1963, in an attempt to pin down the source of his allegation, but Mr. Goulden declined to identify the law enforcement officer after allegedly having talked to him on the telephone. He did say, however, that the officer told him that the matter was being "handled through proper channels."

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

For your added information, we have contacted the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, to determine if an allegation had been made a matter of record to the effect that Lee Harvey Oswald at one time had been contacted by the FBI to become an informant. No such record was found in the files of the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas.

The foregoing is furnished for your information in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

For information of Washington Field Office, the referenced Bureau airtel makes reference to the report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS dated 1/17/64 at Dallas and states as follows:

"It is noted that page 163 of referenced report sets forth an interview with Mr. Seth Kantor, Scripps-Howard Staff Writer, 'Washington Daily News' Building, Washington, D. C., wherein he reiterates his claim that he saw Jack Ruby at the Parkland Hospital on 11-22-63 and states that he now thinks this may have been about 2:00 p.m. rather than 1:28 p.m. as previously stated.

"Ruby has, of course, flatly denied that he was at Parkland Hospital on 11-22-63. It is therefore necessary that you immediately explore this point to the fullest possible extent so that it may be positively established as to whether or not Ruby was at the hospital as indicated by Kantor. If he was not at the hospital, you must make every effort to endeavor to establish specifically where he was at the time he was alleged to be at the hospital."

The Bureau's attention is called to the contents of all enclosures for the Washington Field Office, which comprise all investigation pertinent to the "SETH KANTOR" question regarding interviews and "time element" information. The Dallas file, including chronological summaries of the whereabouts and activities of JACK L. RUBY during the period 11/22 through 24/63, has been reviewed and tends to support the contents of the above-listed enclosures. Results of this review are not set forth in detail here in the interest of brevity and inasmuch as specific times of day are not reflected.

Washington Field Office will note that on pages 432 through 435 of the report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS at Dallas dated 12/11/63, listed above, a news story by SETH KANTOR is mentioned. It is unknown to the Dallas Office whether or not this story was ever published. The Washington Field Office is requested to determine if it was, and if so, obtain published copies and forward to Dallas.

For the information of the Bureau, interview of ALICE REAVES NICHOLS, Dallas, on 1/18/64 reveals that she spoke with RUBY on the telephone at about 2:15 PM, 11/22/63. She was at her office, and investigation indicates RUBY was at the Carousel Club. This interview is contained in pages 134 and 135 of the report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS dated 1/31/64.

Detailed interview of ANDREW ARMSTRONG, JR., on 1/22/64 indicates that RUBY was at the Carousel Club on 11/22/63 from about 1:45 PM until about 4:00 PM. This interview is contained in pages 136 through 139 in the SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS report dated 1/31/64.

Interview of ARMSTRONG, correlated with records of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Dallas, indicates RUBY made telephone calls, both local and long distance, from the Carousel Club between 1:51 PM and 2:43 PM, 11/22/63, and ARMSTRONG made one long-distance telephone call at 1:45 PM that date at the direction of RUBY at the Carousel Club. This information is contained in pages 141, 142 and 143 of the report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS dated 1/31/64.

Investigation by SA PAUL L. SCOTT at Parkland Hospital, Dallas, on 1/17/64 located no one who saw or had any information that RUBY was at Parkland Hospital on 11/22/63. This information is contained in pages 145 and 146 of the report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS dated 1/31/64.

In addition to the statement of JACK L. RUBY that he was not at Parkland Hospital, Dallas, on 11/22/63, the preponderance of information gathered indicates he was not there, and it is believed he went directly to the Carousel Club from the "Dallas Morning News" Building on 11/22/63.

Aside from the interviews of witnesses to RUBY's activities and whereabouts on 11/22/63, it is pointed out that it is approximately three and one-half miles from the "Dallas Morning News" Building to Parkland Hospital and approximately four miles from Parkland Hospital to the Carousel Club. The fastest travel route would take a driver via the Stemmons Freeway, entering the freeway through the area where President KENNEDY was shot. At the time of day RUBY would have had to travel to be at Parkland Hospital at 1:28 PM or 2:00 PM, November 22, 1963, automobile and pedestrian traffic in the area at which one enters the freeway, and also in the area of Parkland Hospital, was extremely congested. It is believed that in the event the Dallas District Attorney and/or the Defense attorneys for JACK L. RUBY become aware of the claims of SETH KANTOR regarding the alleged presence of RUBY at Parkland Hospital on 11/22/63, this may become an issue in RUBY's trial. It is also believed possible that the Presidential Commission may consider calling SETH KANTOR as a witness. For these reasons, it is suggested the Bureau may wish to direct the Washington Field Office to reinterview KANTOR.

UACB, no further investigation regarding the "SETH KANTOR" question is being conducted at Dallas.

ReDLlet to Bureau and WFO dated 2/4/64.

The Bureau does not desire further contact with Mr. Seth Kantor, Scripps-Howard Staff Writer, "Washington Daily News" Building, Washington, D. C., regarding his statement that he saw Ruby at the Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, on 11/22/63.

NOTE: Kantor filed a story stating that he saw Ruby and Ruby spoke to him at the Parkland Memorial Hospital on 11/22/63. He has been interviewed twice concerning his statement and he insists that he did see Ruby as stated. Extensive investigation of Ruby's movements on 11/22/63 indicates that Ruby could not possibly have been at the Parkland Memorial Hospital. Dallas suggested further interview with Kantor. By memo A. Rosen to Mr. Belmont 2/10/64 it was recommended and approved that no further contact concerning this point be had with Kantor, ~~regarding this matter~~.

SUBJECT: JACK L. RUBY, AKA.
LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA. - VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS

Mr. Seth Kantor, Scripps-Howard Staff Writer, "Washington Daily News" Building, Washington, D. C., who was in Dallas at the time of the President's assassination on 11/22/63 upon interview 12/3/63 stated that while he, Kantor, was at the Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, he was approached by Ruby who spoke to him at approximately 1:28 p.m. He placed the time at 1:28 p.m. because he said he was then en route to the press conference which was called for 1:30 p.m. wherein the death of President Kennedy was announced. Kantor filed a story in which he stated that he had seen Ruby at Parkland Memorial Hospital on 11/22/63.

Ruby upon interview has flatly denied that he was at the Parkland Memorial Hospital at any time on 11/22/63. We conducted extensive investigation on this point which clearly established that Ruby was present in the "Dallas Morning News" Building on 11/22/63 at the time the news of the President's death was announced and that he had been present in the building for sometime prior. He could not, therefore, have been present at Parkland Memorial Hospital at 1:28 p.m. as alleged by Kantor.

Kantor was recontacted on 1/2/64 and it was brought to his attention that Ruby had denied being at the hospital and that Ruby's whereabouts were known prior to the announcement of the President's death which was shortly after 1:30 p.m. Kantor then stated that upon reflection it might have been after the press conference at about 2:00 p.m. when he saw Ruby at the hospital rather than at 1:28 p.m. as previously stated.

We have continued our investigation to specifically pin down Ruby's exact movements as far as possible on 11/22/63. One of his employees at the Carousel Club, Curtis LaVerne Craford, has stated that Ruby arrived at the Carousel Club at about 1:30 p.m. on 11/22/63. Another employee, Andrew Armstrong, has stated that Ruby arrived at the Carousel Club at about 1:45 p.m. and

REC-111 44-24016-1091

remained there until 4:00 p.m. He said that he felt his times were accurate within five minutes. Ruby made a number of telephone calls while at the club and correlating statements of Armstrong with records of the telephone company established that Ruby made telephone calls both local and long distance from the Carousel Club between 1:51 p.m. and 2:43 p.m. 11/22/63. Armstrong made one long-distance telephone call from the club at the direction of Ruby at 1:45 p.m.

Extensive investigation was conducted at the Parkland Memorial Hospital and no other person was located or identified as being present there on 11/22/63 who saw Ruby at the hospital. The preponderance of our investigation indicates that Ruby went directly from the "Dallas Morning News" Building to the Carousel Club on 11/22/63. The distance from the "Dallas Morning News" Building to the Parkland Memorial Hospital is about three and a half miles and from the hospital to the Carousel Club it is about four miles. In order for Ruby to have been at the hospital as alleged by Kantor he would have to have traveled this distance of seven and a half miles through heavy traffic, and stopped long enough at the hospital to speak to Kantor within a matter of 10 to 15 minutes at the outside between 1:30 and 1:45 p.m. Even if it were possible, it would have placed him at the hospital at the time when Kantor states that he was attending the press conference announcing the President's death.

Dallas points out that if the District Attorney or if the defense attorneys for Ruby became aware of the claims of Kantor, they may become an issue at the trial of Ruby. They also pointed out that it was possible that the President's Commission might consider calling Kantor as a witness and, in view of this, suggested that the Bureau might wish to direct a reinterview of Kantor.

OBSERVATION:

Kantor filed a story with his newspaper in which he stated he saw Ruby at the Parkland Memorial Hospital on 11/22/63 and he is apparently stuck with this story. When interviewed by Agents on 1/2/64 and the true facts were pointed out to him, he hedged on the time that he originally stated he saw Ruby. There is every indication that if he is interviewed further he will hedge further. If this matter becomes an issue in the trial of Ruby, the prosecution had access to reports showing the details of our investigation and the names and addresses of witnesses have been furnished to the defense. The President's Commission is in possession of all of our reports of the investigation and interviews as set forth in these reports will clearly show that Ruby was not at Parkland Memorial Hospital as alleged by Kantor on 11/22/63.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that Kantor not be interviewed further concerning this matter as to do so would merely place further emphasis on a point which has not actually been placed in issue as yet and which can, if it is put in issue, be clearly disproved.

ACTION:

Dallas, the office of origin, and Washington Field Office, which covers Kantor's residence, Washington, D. C., will be instructed not to contact Kantor further re this particular matter.

POSSIBLE BACKGROUND OF JACK RUBY

A review of the Daily Worker issue of 4/17/62, and files of NYO reflect that a testimonial dinner was held at the Astor Hotel, NYC, 4/10/62 in honor of MARK LANE. According to the Daily Worker article 1300 people attended the dinner and JACK RUBENSTEIN was listed as one of the sponsors of the dinner.

JACK RUBENSTEIN, Vice President of the Textile Workers of America, 99 University Place, Manhattan, on 2/12/64, advised SA JAMES J. ROGERS that he was one of the sponsors of the above mentioned dinner, however, he did not attend the dinner.

Mr. RUBENSTEIN added that when he read the speech given at the dinner by MARK LANE he sincerely regretted having agreed to act as a sponsor of the dinner.

DL 44-1639

"The Director of the Student Revolution of Cuba said here to have trustworthy information sent by his men inside Cuba, according to whom, Jack Ruby, killer of the alleged assassin of President Kennedy, Lee Harvey Oswald, was several days in the Cuban capitol at the end of the year 1962 and the beginning of 1963.

"Before only it was said that Ruby visited the Cuban capitol in January 1959, during those first days of the government of Fidel Castro and that his trip had commercial finalities.

"The note given out by the Director of Student Revolution affirms that Ruby was in Havana at the end of 1962and the beginning of 1963, to where he arrived by plane from Mexico City, and that during his residency in Havana he was frequenting regularily a house of tourist articles, on Prado Street in front of the Hotel,Sevilla. Also he affirms that the proprietor of that business was called Soloman Pratkins.'

"End of translation

" Yours very truly,

SAC Shanklin advised an Agent had learned on a confidential basis that Judge Brown intends to overrule the defense motion for a change of venue in the captioned case.

Judge Brown has indicated he will request the attorneys for the defense and the prosecution to go ahead with picking the jury on Monday, February 17, 1964, and that in the event they are unsuccessful in selecting a jury, then Judge Brown would give consideration to a change of venue.

Shanklin advised that it was expected Judge Brown's ruling would be made very shortly but did not know exactly what time the ruling would be given.

He stated that SA Manning C. Clements who is familiar with all aspects of the Ruby case will be standing by in Dallas in the event the Bureau instructs that a Bureau representative be present at the trial.

For your information, it is anticipated that efforts will be made to select a jury today which could conceivably take a long period of time.

The President's Commission by letter dated 2/12/64 has requested that we obtain and forward to the Commission complete copies of the medical records relating to Fannie Rubenstein, mother of Jack Ruby, which are available at the [redacted]

Detailed information was obtained on 11/27/63 from the [redacted] by Agent Harry A. Walker in connection with developing background information on Jack Ruby. This information reflected that Fannie Rubenstein was, at the age of 63, admitted to the [redacted] on July 16, 1937, with [redacted] admission. On August 25, 1938, Fannie Rubenstein received an absolute discharge from the hospital as improved. She went to live at that time with her daughter, Marian Rubenstein.

The above information obtained from the [redacted] was furnished to the President's Commission by report of SA Manning C. Clements dated 11/30/63.

ACTION:

Chicago has been requested to obtain complete copies of the medical records relating to Fannie Rubenstein from the [redacted] for immediate submission to the President's Commission.

he made, in substance, the following comments pertaining to the assassination of President KENNEDY. (It should be noted that [redacted] is rumored to be a potential Republican candidate for the U. S. Congressional seat currently held by Representative [redacted]

First, [redacted] played a tape recording of the interview of OSWALD, which presumably was the interview conducted in New Orleans relating to the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

[redacted] stated he has been well acquainted with General WALKER, of Texas, and had been in General WALKER's room sometime in the past when an individual, [redacted] had had a conference with General WALKER. [redacted] indicated that this [redacted] was a Cuban refugee attorney who had had a debate with OSWALD in the taped recording above referred to. He said [redacted] (phonetic) is now a reporter for a Chicago paper.

In his comments, [redacted] attributed the shooting at General WALKER to OSWALD, claiming that OSWALD had deliberately missed General WALKER. He charged that it was a definite fact that there was a Communist Party cell in Dallas which had six members, two of whom were JACK RUBY and LEE OSWALD.

He charged that the circumstances leading to the assassination of President KENNEDY arose from the fact that Mr. KENNEDY and Mr. KHRUSHCHEV had gone soft on one another and that both of them wanted to get rid of CASTRO. An agreement was made between them according to which KHRUSHCHEV was to allow Mr. KENNEDY to get rid of CASTRO provided Mr. KENNEDY would permit Cuba to remain Communistic. Mr. CASTRO heard of this arrangement and began his own operation.

[redacted] charged that OSWALD had made a trip to Mexico before the assassination. He allegedly returned to the United States in the company of one [redacted] (phonetic). OSWALD had $10,000 in his possession and had been given the job of assassinating President KENNEDY. It was intended that [redacted], after the assassination, was to take OSWALD to Cuba. Immediately following the assassination, OSWALD was supposed to take a taxi to a location near RUBY's home and thereafter be picked up by a representative of [redacted]. OSWALD was to have worn a certain-colored jacket for identification. Contrary to instructions, OSWALD had gone to his home and had apparently put on a different jacket, thus causing a delay in his being picked up. When the police stopped OSWALD, OSWALD shot a policeman, and RUBY in turn killed OSWALD for bungling the assassination and to seal his lips.

[redacted] will be interviewed concerning the specific facts which he has in his possession and for his sources. An appropriate communication suitable for dissemination will then be submitted.

REC-54

TO : Mr. Belmont DATE: February 13, 1964

FROM : A. Rosen

SUBJECT: JACK L. RUBY, aka.
LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka. - VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS

The President's Commission by letter of 2/12/64 has advised they have received information that in January, 1942, Jack Rubenstein, also known as Jack Ruby, operated business under the name Liberty Distributing Company, 328 South Jefferson Street, Chicago, and the Commission requested we obtain copies of any documents pertaining to this company which are maintained by the State of Illinois or any political subdivision.

No prior reference to Liberty Distributing Company could be located in our files. Interviews with Ruby as well as his relatives indicated he sold punch boards and novelty items on the road in 1941 returning to Chicago in the latter part of 1941 where he continued selling punch boards until he entered the Army in 1943. Ruby stated that in 1942-1943 while selling punch boards he was operating out of the Globe Auto Glass Company in Chicago. During this period his brother Earl said that Jack worked as a salesman for the Stanley Oliver Company and the Spartan Company.

ACTION:

The Chicago and Springfield Offices have been requested to check for pertinent documents and to determine if the Jack Rubenstein who operated Liberty Distributing Company is identical with the subject of this case.

Mrs. Robert Perrin

On January 21, 1964 Mrs. NANCY ~~PERRIN~~ of Executives Unlimited, 100 Boylston Street, Suite 309, Boston, Massachusetts, telephone 426-3515, telephonically contacted LUTHER H. MUNSON, Clerk. She stated that about two months ago she was in Oakland, California and went to the FBI Office there because she had worked for JACK RUBY. She said she was given a polygraph test by the FBI and as far as she knows this test was inconclusive. She stated that she had never previously taken a polygraph test and that she suffers from an ailment known as "chorea" which she states is commonly known as St. Vitus' dance. She also stated that on occasion she takes a drug to control or stabilize her blood pressure. She stated that she has previously informed the FBI at Oakland, California that she had attended some meetings with JACK RUBY and it was not until the second meeting that she learned that RUBY was mixed up in running guns into Cuba and taking refugees out of Cuba. Mrs. PERRIN, at this time, stated that she desires to be contacted by the FBI at her office because she has gone through some of her things and found additional information which would bear out statements she has already made to the FBI in Oakland, which information she did not previously have in her possession. She requested that she be telephonically contacted before an agent came to her office and that she did not wish to be contacted at her residence, 196 Newbury Avenue, North Quincy, Massachusetts, where she is now living with a very elderly woman.

On January 23, 1964 Mrs. NANCY PERRIN was interviewed at her place of employment, Executives Unlimited, 100 Boylston Street, Boston, Massachusetts. She stated that she had worked as a bartender for a few months in 1961 for JACK RUBY and that she has been employed for the past two weeks as an executive for Executives Unlimited which is an employment agency. She stated she was born on September 9, 1936 at Portsmouth, New Hampshire and that her husband, ROBERT, died August, 1962 at New Orleans, Louisiana. She stated that she now recalls that she and her husband, ROBERT, attended some meetings at Dallas, Texas which she believed concerned the getting refugees out of Cuba. She stated that the purpose in her attending these meetings was her belief that she and her husband could make some money by bringing refugees out of Cuba. However, when she heard that these meetings had the twofold purpose of also bringing guns into Cuba, she and her husband were not interested.

C

Although Mrs. PERRIN was extremely vague as to how these meetings came about, she now recalls that EDWARD BRUNNER of Grand Prairie, Texas, a suburb of Dallas, Texas, who was an associate of her husband, first brought up the subject matter of these meetings. She stated that when she went to the meeting she was surprised to see JACK RUBY there because she had worked for him in the past and he had physically assaulted her and they were bitter enemies. She stated that she now learned that this group was going to run guns from Mexico to Cuba for FIDEL CASTRO. She stated that after the third meeting she and her husband walked out and had nothing further to do with this organization. At one of these meetings she alleges that RUBY had a bulge in his pocket which she thinks was money and which she thinks he passed to some unidentified Colonel who was in charge of this organization. She now recalls that an individual by the name of DAVE C. (LNU), who was employed at the University Club, Dallas, Texas, as a bartender, seemed to be one of the heads of this organization.

Mrs. PERRIN stated that she has no information regarding LEE HARVEY OSWALD but she believes that RUBY was told to kill OSWALD. She has no information to support her belief in this regard.

She stated she now recalls what the contact was in connection with the gun running. According to her, the contact was to be made at the Hotel Nuevo Gallina, Guadalajara, Mexico.

She stated that this information she did not have available when she was interviewed in California.

Mrs. PERRIN stated that it seems logical to her that OSWALD belonged to some organization and it seems logical to her that someone from Chicago was behind the deal with regard to the guns. However, she had no information to support her belief in this regard. She then stated in a very vague sort of way that RUBY had been contacted by VITO GENOVESE. She then stated it was not VITO GENOVESE but one of his sons who dropped in to see JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas. She places the time of her employment for RUBY between June and September, 1961.

COVER PAGE

Mrs. PERRIN stated that she was arrested by the Brookline, Massachusetts Police Department for prostitution and was convicted in court and paid a fine of $200.00. She stated that her case is coming up for a pardon and she has prominent politicians to obtain a pardon for her. She stated that at the time she was prostituting she was engaged in this activity because her husband was sick and she needed the money.

With regard to JACK RUBY, whom she described as a very pugnacious individual, she also stated she had never heard him express any opinions or any views with regard to politics or with regard to President KENNEDY.

This interview was conducted by SA JAMES J. STRATFORD, JR. and SA JOHN F. SWEENEY.

The Boston Office has advised in connection with information supplied by Mrs. NANCY PERRIN, above, that personal observation of PERRIN raises considerable question as to whether any of the information furnished is truthful.

Throughout the interview she was continuously twitching her face and departing from the subject matter, by dropping names of prominent individuals whom she alleges she has known. The information supplied by PERRIN is not included in the body of this report in view of reference to the polygraph examination afforded by the San Francisco Office to PERRIN. In view of the previous investigation which appears to establish this woman as apparently mentally disturbed, no further action is being taken with regard to the information supplied by her.

On January 29, 1964, [redacted] Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Dallas, Texas, supplied information to SA ROBERT C. LISH concerning long-distance telephone calls made from WH 1-5601 and LAkeside 6-6258.

Information concerning long-distance telephone calls was furnished by [redacted], [redacted] Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Dallas, Texas, to SA ROBERT C. LISH on January 24, 1964, concerning telephone numbers LAkeside 8-4775 and RIverside 7-2362.

One [redacted] Zoo Bar, Dallas, is reported to have known RUBY and to be able to furnish information concerning him.

[redacted] was identified to be identical with [redacted] who is a PCI of the Dallas Office and has been interviewed concerning her knowledge of RUBY.

The following investigation was conducted at Youngstown, Ohio:

On January 13 and 14, 1964, Cleveland Confidential Informants who are aware of some phases of Communist Party activities in the Youngstown, Ohio, area, were contacted and advised that they did not know Mrs. ANNE or ANNA VOLPERT, also known as Mrs. RALPH VOLPERT.

They further advised that they have no knowledge of JACK RUBY.

A review of Cleveland files of the FBI revealed no identifiable information with regard to Mrs. ANNE or ANNA VOLPERT or Mrs. RALPH VOLPERT.

On January 13 and 14, 1964, the following informants were contacted negatively by SA JAMES W. DE GARMO, JR., at Youngstown, Ohio; it is to be noted that all these informants have furnished reliable information in the past:

Re speech by OREN FENTON POTITO, St. Petersburg, Florida, January 16, 1964.

On January 17, 1964 [redacted] PCI [redacted] furnished to SAs JAMES P. O'NEIL and JAMES E. WALLACE the following information:

On the evening of January 16, 1964 a dinner sponsored by OREN FENTON POTITO was held at Donat's Restaurant, 6001 Haines Road, North St. Petersburg, Florida. The dinner meeting was informal public in nature and approximately 41 persons were in attendance.

The source has identified POTITO as a member of the National States Rights Party (NSRP) in the Spring of 1963 at which time POTITO resigned while holding the office of National Organizer. Since that time POTITO has held meetings of a public nature under various titles all of which are non-existent organizations. He is not known to have any national affiliation at the present time although he is in contact with various leaders of right wing groups in the United States.

In the course of his speech of some 3 hours following the dinner POTITO touched on the association between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and RUBY.

POTITO identified RUBY, real name RUBENSTEIN, as a Communist Party Member since 1929 and through this connection linked him to OSWALD. He identified OSWALD as a Communist through his association with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC).

According to POTITO only two organizations knew the route of the parade in Dallas on November 22, 1963 for any period of time prior to the parade and these two were the United States Secret Service and the Dallas Police Department. RUBY had insinuated himself into the Police Department circle, obtained the route and arranged with OSWALD to take the job at the state school building along the route to carry out the assassination.

POTITO said the "Surgeon General's report" on the assassination stated the first bullet entered the President's throat below the adams apple clearly showing that two persons were involved with the first shot being fired from the bridge across the park way in front of the car. To further substantiate this, POTITO said there was a bullet hole in the wind shield of the President's car.

When OSWALD made his trip to Mexico City he did not, as has been published, go alone on the bus but in fact traveled with a couple by car and returned with $5,000.00.

Further connecting OSWALD and RUBY, POTITO said the two had met in Waco, Texas , time and circumstances not given and that the "apartment" which OSWALD rented for $8.00 per week was a six minute walk from RUBY's palatial apartment.

POTITO also raised the question of the position taken by Vice President JOHNSON in the line of the parade, a positive attempt to be away from the President and he does imply knowledge of the assassination attempt on the part of JOHNSON.

POTITO also pointed out there were no guards around the President's car implying this to be a part of the plot.

The International Jewish Conspiracy was accredited by POTITO with responsibility for the death of President KENNEDY. The President had worked with the "Yiddels" right along until his meeting with Governor WALLACE of Alabama at which time WALLACE and the President had a 45 minute helicopter ride together. Governor WALLACE "wised up" the President who changed his view point and death resulted. "They" felt they could do more with a martyr than with President KENNEDY alive with his changed view point.

OSWALD's wife was identified as a card carrying member of the Communist Party and her father as being a Lieutenant Colonel who is or has served as an instructor in a training school for assassination in Minsk, Russia.

Were RUBY to be acquitted on the charge he faces, he will not live a week. He "knows too much" and "they" do not want him alive. This, of course, was the reason for OSWALD's shooting by RUBY.

POTITO offered no documentation for the statements he made other than he had this from reliable sources. He would exhibit copies of photos of the Dallas locale, interiors of the RUBY and OSWALD apartments together with a photo of OSWALD taken after his arrest showing him with his clinched fist raised. This photo according to POTITO clearly branded him as a Communist.

POTITO was not questioned by his audience concerning the authenticity of his remarks and did not volunteer to reveal the source.

Re: 409 Old Hickory Blvd., Madison, Tenn.

In connection with the interview of LESTER JOE CHAMBERS, which is set out herein, the following should be noted:

The Memphis Division advised that on January 5, 1964, Mrs. VICKIE IRENE YOUNG, 3211 Spears Road, Nashville, Tennessee, telephonically contacted the Memphis Division and advised clerk G. L. STACY that LESTER JOE CHAMBERS, operator of the Metro Electric Corporation, 1313 Dickerson Road, is a personal friend of JACK RUBY and was at one time employed by JACK RUBY in Dallas. According to YOUNG, CHAMBERS has made two trips to Dallas, Texas.

On January 13, 1964, Mrs. YOUNG telephonically contacted the Nashville Resident Agency and advised that she wished to furnish additional information to clarify previously furnished information. She said that she had purchased some stock in the Metro Electric Corporation and was fearful that she was about to lose her investment. She stated that she had invested $1,500.00 in this company, which specializes in the sale of promotional outside lamps. According to Mrs. YOUNG, she has learned that at the time she invested in the company there were numerous outstanding checks drawn on the company's account which she did not know about. She said had she known this she would not have invested her money.

Mrs. YOUNG could furnish no specific details of any irregularities or violations of federal statutes. However, she advised that she has been in contact with the District Attorney's Office at Nashville, Tennessee, and has consulted with a private attorney. She stated that she believed that CHAMBERS has a record for uttering bad checks in Texas.

Mrs. YOUNG said she had no knowledge of any link between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no knowledge that CHAMBERS was involved in any way. She advised that she wanted CHAMBERS investigated and was furnishing this as a matter of information. Mrs. YOUNG was advised that no investigation of CHAMBERS was to be instituted in the absence of any indication that he had violated any federal statute. She was informed that she was to be contacted concerning her information that he had known JACK LEON RUBY.

Information obtained from the Southwestern Bell Telephone Telephone Company, Dallas, Texas, has been obtained from [redacted]

THE AARC

Mr. WENTWORTH DURANT, Attorney, 2323 Fidelity Union Towers, telephone RI 8-0074, telephonically advised SA VINCENT E. DRAIN on January 22, 1964, and related the following information:

GEORGE T. DAVIS, Attorney, San Francisco, who is presently in Washington, D. C., called DURANT on January 22, 1964, stating he would like to talk with some appropriate person or persons in Dallas relative to the background information of RUBY and also of MELVIN BELLI, an Attorney who is representing RUBY. DURANT described DAVIS as an individual who was not too reliable at times and was a competitor of BELLI in San Francisco. DURANT related that he did not want DAVIS to know that he related the fact that DAVIS had contacted DURANT about six or eight weeks ago wanting to know if DURANT had any contacts whereby he could get involved in the RUBY case. GEORGE T. DAVIS has been the Attorney in the past for CAROL CHESSMAN, a noted case in California. According to DURANT, DAVIS has written a book and probably is jealous of BELLI's publicity in the RUBY case.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOHN T. MC MURRER.

On January 22, 1964, CARL FREUND, reporter, "Dallas Morning News", Dallas, Texas, advised as follows.

He has never met JACK RUBY although he had heard his name on one occasion before his recent extensive publicity in the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He has no knowledge of JACK RUBY other than what he has learned through recent newspaper coverage and he believes the reason he was subpoenaed in the recent State case against RUBY was that he had written stories for the paper regarding the shooting of OSWALD. He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no possible association between RUBY and OSWALD.

On January 22, 1964, WARREN BOSWORTH, reporter, "Dallas Times Herald", advised as follows.

He became aware of who JACK RUBY was only through recent newspaper publicity. He recalled having seen JACK RUBY on numerous occasions before the assassination of President KENNEDY but he did not know RUBY's name nor his occupation. He had seen RUBY around hotels in Dallas, principally the Adolphus and he thought RUBY was a gambler, based on his appearance and manner. He explained he works the night hours at the police station, covering police stories and this may have been the basis for his being subpoenaed in the State case, against JACK RUBY. He was informed by his superior that it was believed he was in Dallas at the time of the assassination whereas actually he was out of town on vacation.

He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and therefore knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

MARVIN E. (BERT) HALL, 4112 Sun Valley, Dallas, Texas, employed Armored Motor Service Inc., 1800 Leonard Street, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

HALL was subpoenaed to appear at a trial or hearing at 10:00 AM on January 20, 1964, relative to the case entitled "The State of Texas vs. JACK RUBY - Murder".

HALL assumed he was subpoenaed because he was driver of the armored car which was to have been used on the morning of November 24, 1963, to transport LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the City Jail to the Dallas County Jail.

HALL drove the armored car to the Dallas Police Building sometime prior to 10:00 AM on November 24, 1963, and backed this car into the Commerce Street entrance to the basement of the Police Building. He remained in the seat of the vehicle and the only activity he observed was numerous newsmen and police officers around the building. He did not observe any activity in the basement of the Police Building and had no knowledge of any security arrangements in connection with the plan to transfer LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the City Jail to the Dallas County Jail.

HALL is not acquainted with JACK RUBY and has never seen him to his knowledge. He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

MARVIN RUBENSTEIN, 5915 Meadow Crest, was subpoenaed to appear at a trial or hearing on January 10, 1964, relative to the JACK RUBY case. Mr. RUBENSTEIN furnished the following information:

Approximately one month ago, a private investigator who indicated he was representing counsel for JACK RUBY contacted RUBENSTEIN and asked RUBENSTEIN if, because of similarity of name with JACK RUBY, he had experienced any difficulty over the publicity received by RUBY. Mr. RUBENSTEIN indicated he had received considerable unpleasant and several threatening telephone calls because of the similarity of names. Mr. RUBENSTEIN was asked by the private investigator if he would testify to these unpleasant experiences, at which time Mr. RUBENSTEIN indicated that he would not care to testify.

Mr. RUBENSTEIN stated that he was subpoenaed to testify to the unpleasant experiences because of the similarity of names in an attempt by the Defense to show the feeling in Dallas against JACK RUBY.

Mr. RUBENSTEIN stated that RUBY was unknown to him and that he knew nothing concerning RUBY.

1 Date 1/20/64

VICTOR ROBERTSON, Reporter, WFAA-Radio and Television, Dallas, Texas, residence 5018 Tremont, Dallas, furnished the following information:

On November 22, 1963, ROBERTSON was covering the Presidential Parade in downtown Dallas and at the time of the assassination of President KENNEDY, ROBERTSON was in a phone booth in the Adolphus Hotel talking to JOHN ALLEN at Station WFAA. While talking to ALLEN, ALLEN suddenly remarked "he's been hit" and left the phone. ROBERTSON stated he immediately started running toward Houston Street as he assumed the Presidential party had probably reached this area at the time he placed the call to ALLEN. When he arrived at Houston Street the President had already been taken to the hospital. While at Houston Street with HUGH AYNESWORTH, a WFAA photographer, he heard on a police radio that Officer TIPPIT had been shot in Oak Cliff and he and AYNESWORTH proceeded to Oak Cliff. TIPPIT had already been removed from the vicinity of the shooting so they proceeded to the Texas Theater in Oak Cliff where LEE HARVEY OSWALD was apprehended by Dallas policemen.

ROBERTSON then went to the Dallas Police Station and was there until approximately 2:30 AM on the morning of November 23, 1963. He recalls seeing JACK RUBY in the third floor hallway of the Police Building sometime possibly between 5:00 and 7:00 PM on November 22, 1963. RUBY had started in the door of the Robbery and Homocide Division and two police officers pulled him back and did not allow him to enter.

ROBERTSON was off duty on November 23, 1963.

On November 24, 1963, ROBERTSON was at WFAA-Radio Station from 6:30 AM to 1:30 PM. He was in the WFAA news room listening to the police radio at the time JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the basement of the Police Building. Immediately after the shooting he recalls hearing a police officer in the basement make a statement to the effect that JACK RUBY was the individual that had shot OSWALD. At that time, ROBERT WALKER, News Director, WFAA-TV, was making a telecast of the proceedings at the Dallas Police Building. ROBERTSON recalled that after hearing the police officer identify JACK RUBY as the individual who shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he had written the name JACK RUBY on a piece of paper and it was taken into WALKER by CHUCK BUTT, JR. Thereafter, WALKER announced on his telecast that JACK RUBY was the individual who had shot OSWALD.

on 1/17/64 at Dallas, Texas File # DL 44-1639

by Special Agent PAUL L. SCOTT - gj Date dictated 1/18/64

ROBERTSON stated WALKER may have assumed that he was at the Police Station at the time he identified RUBY as the individual who shot OSWALD, however, he was not at the Police Station and had made the identification after hearing the police officer identify RUBY on the police radio.

At about 1:30 PM, on November 24, 1963, ROBERTSON went to the Police Station and was there until approximately midnight. While at the Station, he talked to a number of people to obtain their comments as to why JACK RUBY had shot OSWALD. He does not recall the identities of these people although some may have been police officers. He recalls someone mentioning that RUBY had gotten into the Police Building basement with a crew of WBAP-TV cameramen. He does not recall who said this or where they received this information.

ROBERTSON stated he had no knowledge of security measures taken at the Police Station on November 24, 1963, or does he have any knowledge as to how JACK RUBY entered the Police Building basement prior to shooting LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

ROBERTSON has known JACK RUBY for approximately two years as operator of the Carousel Club on Commerce Street, Dallas. He met RUBY through MURPHY MARTIN, a former reporter with WFAA who, at that time was dating a girl employed at the Carousel Club. During the two years ROBERTSON knew RUBY, he (ROBERTSON) was at the Carousel Club approximately six times. RUBY impressed him as an excitable and high tempered individual. He recalled that on one occasion, RUBY bawled out one of the girls, however, he never saw RUBY physically abuse any of the employees or patrons at the club. When RUBY was around the reporters and other news representatives, he was very affable and generous.

ROBERTSON has no knowledge of any associates of JACK RUBY or does he have any knowledge of any personal habits of RUBY. He does not know of any activities of RUBY other than the operation of the Carousel Club.

ROBERTSON did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

FRANK GOLDSTEIN, 640 Teresita Boulevard, advised he knew FRANK GRANOVSKY, known as FRANK GRANT, in Los Angeles, Calif. California, about 1930 or 1931. GOLDSTEIN moved to the San Francisco area in the early 1930's. FRANK GRANT also came to San Francisco about 1936 where me met and married EVA GRANT, sister of JACK LEON RUBY. GOLDSTEIN indicated this marriage took place about 1936 in San Francisco. He was not acquainted with the witnesses to this marriage, E. B. ROSENGARTEN or HUBERT BROOKER. Shortly after the marriage of FRANK and EVA GRANT, they moved to Los Angeles, California, about 1937 to 1938, where FRANK GRANT was reportedly employed with several of the movie studios.

Mr. HYMAN MAGID, co-owner, Magid and Millman Butcher Shop, 6405 North Greenview Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, advised that he was formerly married to EVA RUBENSTEIN, sister of JACK RUBENSTEIN now known as JACK RUBY. Mr. MAGID advised that he was separated from his former wife sometime in the 1930s and has had no contact with her or members of her family since that time. He said that he has no more than faint recollection of JACK RUBENSTEIN.

Mr. MAGID advised that he has no information as to why RUBY murdered OSWALD but felt from his prior association with the RUBENSTEIN family that RUBY would not have acted out of extreme patriotism but perhaps committed this murder to seek publicity.

Mr. MAGID knew of no organizations to which RUBY or his family belonged nor had he ever heard any member of the RUBENSTEIN family indicate that they were in any way opposed to the form of government of the United States.

HAROLD RYAN, Principal Clerk, Metropolitan Sanitary District, 100 East Erie Street, advised that he was formerly Office Administrator for the Illinois Athletic Commission and supervised Chicago boxing and wrestling events for 22 years. Chicago, Ill.

He recalled that he was in regular attendance at the weekly boxing matches at Marigold Gardens and White City when they operated during the 1940s and 1950s. During this time he greeted a great number of boxing fans, many of whom he did not know by name. Many persons attended these weekly matches in groups and he would hail them, although he did not know their identity.

RYAN advised he cannot recall JACK RUBY, although he advised that the newspaper photographs of RUBY did look familiar. He stated he did not doubt that he had seen him at some of the matches but never recalled speaking to him or knowing his name.

Mrs. JOHN H. (MARGARET) ALLEN, 6277 Oran, Dallas, Texas, interviewed on the basis of information received that one MARGARET ROSPRIM contacted the Better Business Bureau, Dallas, July 22, 1960, concerning the Sovereign Club, Inc., furnished the following information:

Mrs. ALLEN was formerly MARGARET ROSPRIM. Sometime in 1960, at the request of a friend, she contacted the Better Business Bureau, Dallas, concerning the Sovereign Club located in the 1300 Block on Commerce Street. It is her recollection that she and the friend were considering seeking membership in the Sovereign Club at that time, however, she does not now recall the result of her inquiry at the Better Business Bureau. No action was taken to join the Sovereign Club.

Later in 1960, Mrs. ALLEN, employed by JACK VAN CAMPO, also known as DELL CAMPO, Dell Campo Dance Studio, attended the club with a group of dancers from the studio. It is her recollection that the club had been changed from the Sovereign Club to the Carousel Club and it was the opening night of the Carousel Club when she attended. She met JACK RUBY on this night through DELL CAMPO who was acquainted with RUBY. This was the only time she ever attended the Carousel Club and she has had no further contact with JACK RUBY since that time.

Mrs. ALLEN has no knowledge of JACK RUBY's activities other than his operation of the Carousel Club in Dallas. She does not know of his associates. Mrs. ALLEN did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

In view of the negative results encountered in an attempt to ascertain the identity of one IRVING AAKIN, whose aka name was found in a notebook belonging to JACK RUBY, Mr. IRVING ARKIN, 11130 Valley Dale, Dallas, Texas, was contacted on January 14, 1964, by SA HAROLD R. DOBSON on the possibility that he might be the individual referred to by the notebook entry.

Mr. ARKIN advised he had formerly operated a Kosher restaurant in the 1000 block of Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, for approximately twenty years. The restaurant is no longer in existence. Approximately five years ago he became acquainted with JACK RUBY as a customer in his restaurant. RUBY ate at the restaurant occasionally and on one occasion told him that if anyone appeared at the restaurant who was hungry and had no money, to go ahead and feed such person and RUBY would pay the bill.

Mr. ARKIN could recall no occasion when RUBY had paid the bill for such person.

RUBY was always quite well behaved in the restaurant. He had no contact with RUBY other than through the business.

Mr. ARKIN stated he had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination and that he knew of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY. He likewise had no information as to the nature and extent of RUBY's contacts and association with members of the Dallas Police Department. He was not aware of any reasons why RUBY shot OSWALD. Mr. ARKIN stated he felt sure he was probably the person referred to in RUBY's notebook as IRVING AAKIN because he had never heard of anyone with such a name.

He did not know JACK RUBY, although he has seen his picture on television and in recent newspaper articles.

Approximately one year ago he performed an operation on EVA GRANT, whom he understands to be the sister of JACK RUBY. This involved the removal of a benign tumor and following the operation, he went to the waiting room to see MISS GRANT's family. However, no one was in the waiting room and about one hour later, he received a telephone call from a man identifying himself as JACK RUBY. This party more or less notified the doctor, that he should come down to see him as he wanted to discuss EVA GRANT's operation. Dr. ARONOFF said he told MR. RUBY in effect to "jump in the lake" and that was the extent of his contact with JACK RUBY.

He knew of no possible association between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD as he was not acquainted with OSWALD.

She had been employed from 1951 to January, 1962, by American Airlines, first as a stewardess and for the last three years as a supervisor. Since 1962, she had also been employed by Attorney Paul Adams in New Haven, Connecticut.

The only time she could recall having met Jack Ruby was in 1952 when a friend of hers, Warren "Rusty" Brown, was appearing with his Dixieland Band at the Vegas Club in Dallas, Texas. She had visited the Vegas Club several times during Brown's engagement there and believed that she had met Ruby very briefly on these visits.

She was unable to furnish any information concerning Ruby or his associates. She did not believe she had had any contact with Ruby since 1952.

She could not recall ever being a member, either charter or temporary, of any of Jack Ruby's clubs. She explained that possibly her name appeared as a member when she visited the Vegas Club in 1952. She could not recall ever joining this club.

She did not know Lee Harvey Oswald and knew of no connection between Oswald and Jack Ruby.

JOE CECIL, 823 NW 12th Street, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, advised he was a very close friend and associate of ROY KIMES until KIMES' death.

CECIL advised KIMES was acquainted with RUBY and stated on one occasion approximately two years ago when he and ROY KIMES were in Dallas, Texas, ROY talked to RUBY for approximately fifteen minutes in a cafe, not operated by RUBY. CECIL advised he did not know the topic of their discussion as he waited in the car.

CECIL advised KIMES probably had met RUBY during the period he (KIMES) resided in Dallas, Texas, as KIMES was a very personable type individual and acquainted with most hoodlums and police characters in Dallas. He further stated that KIMES had never mentioned JACK RUBY in his presence again.

CECIL advised he and another individual had operated Marge and Betty's Motel in Durant during 1960 but that KIMES was not a partner in this business venture. He stated about three or four years ago KIMES had made the statement he would like to purchase a small motel in Durant, Oklahoma, if the price were right and he could obtain financing. CECIL advised he is certain KIMES did not purchase a motel and was also certain KIMES did not seek financial backing from or through JACK RUBY since KIMES had numerous other contacts for any necessary financing. He further stated he is certain KIMES would have mentioned RUBY to him had RUBY been a business associate or a social associate.

LESTER JOE CHAMBERS, President, Metro Electric Corporation, 1313 Dickerson Road, Nashville, Tennessee, advised that Dallas, Texas, is his home town. He advised that after the assassination of President KENNEDY and the subsequent killing of OSWALD that he had mentioned around that he had known JACK LEON RUBY in Dallas, Texas, and he was sure someone had reported his comment to the FBI.

CHAMBERS stated that he has known JACK LEON RUBY since 1952 when RUBY came to Dallas and purchased the "Silver Spur" Club on Ervay Street. This club is now known as the Patti Club and its owner and operator are unknown to CHAMBERS.

CHAMBERS stated he last saw RUBY approximately two and one-half years ago. RUBY at that time was operating a club known as the "Vegas" Club. CHAMBERS described RUBY as quick tempered but as possessing a pleasant, likeable personality. He is a fast talker and not believed by CHAMBERS to be a "con man" but rather aggressive and outspoken in his beliefs and opinions. He impressed CHAMBERS as being a "publicity chaser" and CHAMBERS stated he was not surprised that RUBY would make himself the center of attraction by calling attention to himself by such an act to be witnessed by nationwide television. He advised, however, that he was surprised that RUBY would resort to violence and murder as he had never known RUBY to have any violent tendencies.

CHAMBERS leased the "Silver Spur" Club for about a two-week period from RUBY sometime during 1959 or 1960 which was the only business association CHAMBERS has ever had with him. CHAMBERS' mother during this period operated the "Manhattan Club" in Dallas during that period and there was some association through their mutual operation of clubs. CHAMBERS stated he had no knowledge of any of the events prior to the assassination of the President or immediately thereafter. He stated he was not in Dallas at that time. However, he stated he visited Dallas during the Christmas holidays

ANTHONY "TONY" CHARLES COLLITTI, 3034 Grafton, Dallas, Texas advised that he is self-employed as a "skip chaser" and a decorator.

He said as a result of his "skip chaser" business, he had occasion to observe a 1956 Buick in the 2100 block of Ervay where it had been apparently abandoned for some time; so he contacted the Department of Motor Vehicles in Nevada concerning this car to attempt to establish whether or not it had been stolen.

He said to him recovery of such a car meant "a hundred dollar bill". He produced a letter from the Department of Motor Vehicles, State of Nevada, dated December 30, 1963 that referred to a 1962 Nevada License C91186, Serial Number 4C2047790, and the letter indicated this car was registered to C. M. ANDERSON, 1736 North Main, North Las Vegas, Nevada, on a Buick, 1956 model, convertible, Model 46-C. The license number was issued July 10, 1962 to the legal owner, C. M. ANDERSON and a Nevada title was issued on July 10, 1962, and there was no stolen report on record with BMV, Nevada.

The letter was signed by RICHARD HERZ, Chief of the Registration Division.

Mr. COLLITTI said he has known JACK RUBY, operator of the Vegas and Carousel Clubs in Dallas, Texas for about three years inasmuch as he has attended shows at the two clubs on a few occasions. He said he had never had any close association with RUBY and knew of no relationship or association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said he had no knowledge whatsoever of OSWALD except what he had read about him in the newspapers and observed on TV subsequent to the assassination of President KENNEDY in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. STANTON CORBAT, Buyer, Titche's Department Store, Main and Pacific, residence 4630 Munger, advised Dallas Texas that he became acquainted with GEORGE SENATOR approximately five years ago and that he subsequently became acquainted with JACK RUBY approximately two years ago. Around Thanksgiving, 1962, CORBAT and SENATOR moved into Apartment 206 at 223 South Ewing, Dallas, Texas. Shortly thereafter, RUBY moved into Apartment 207. Mr. CORBAT stated it was his understanding that RUBY and SENATOR had been close friends and associates for several years and that SENATOR had at one time occupied an apartment with RUBY. The apartment they moved into had just been completed. Thereafter, Mr. CORBAT saw RUBY approximately twice a week as SENATOR was an especially good cook and RUBY would frequently drop into the apartment for dinner. Mr. CORBAT has also frequented RUBY's clubs but has never been a member of such clubs.

CORBAT was married in August, 1963, and SENATOR thereafter moved into RUBY's apartment.

CORBAT stated he never noted RUBY being particularly short tempered and stated that he had never discussed anything of a volatile nature with him. He was aware that RUBY's female employees, being the type of women they were, frequently caused RUBY considerable difficulty, but it was his feeling that such difficulty was a part of the kind of business RUBY had.

CORBAT had no information or knowledge as to the nature and extent of RUBY's contacts and association with members of the Dallas Police Department but he presumed that RUBY, because of the nature of his business, maintained an amicable relationship with members of the department. Mr. CORBAT never noticed RUBY becoming particularly emotional about anything but was of the opinion that RUBY believed quite strongly about anything for which he truly cared. He considered RUBY to be a kind-hearted individual and was aware that he particularly loved dogs.

Mr. CORBAT stated that RUBY's associates appeared to be both male and female. He was of the opinion that

Charles Curtis was interviewed at the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). He resides at 2223 Cortelyou Road, Apartment 3D, Brooklyn, New York, telephone number BU 7-3658. He furnished the following information:

He is the personal manager of Little Lorraine Egypt, who dances professionally as a "belly dancer" under the name Little Egypt.

Little Egypt had been engaged to perform for ten days, beginning October 17, 1963 at a private supper club in Dallas, Texas, known as the "Gay Life." He exhibited a brochure reflecting that Little Egypt was to appear at this club beginning October 17, 1963, and she was billed as "The World's Foremost Egyptian Dancer."

After he had been in Dallas for several days, Curtis noticed an ad in the October 19, 1963 issue of the Dallas Morning News for the Carousel Club. This ad indicated that Jada and several other "strip" dancers were performing at this club. The ad also appeared to indicate that Little Egypt and Ann Corio were also performing at this club. However, Curtis noticed that underneath Little Egypt in small type a statement appeared reflecting that Little Egypt's belly album was given away free and underneath the name Ann Corio in small type was indicated that Corio's stripper album was being given away free.

Curtis determined that legally he could do nothing about this type of advertising. However, he wanted to contact the Manager of Carousel and inform him that he did not appreciate this type of advertising.

Therefore, during the above-mentioned engagement at the "Gay Life" Club, he and Little Egypt went to the Carousel Club about 2 a.m. after Little Egypt had finished her performance at the "Gay Life." They were accompanied by Glen (Last Name Unknown) who was the maitre d' of the "Gay Life" Club, and Glen's wife.

Jack Ruby came over to their table at the Carousel Club and introduced himself. Ruby asked if Little Egypt would

LAVELLE DENBOW, whose name as (FNU) DENBOW was furnished by HUGH GENE SMITH as being a former Dallas police officer who had been associated with JACK RUBY, advised as follows:

LaVelle DENBOW stated that he presently resides at 710 North Ewing Street, Dallas, Apartment 218, telephone WH 3-4262. He is employed as long distance truck hauler operating between Dallas and the West Coast. DENBOW stated that he has not seen or talked with JACK RUBY during the past three years. He added that he has never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of OSWALD on the part of RUBY. He informed that when these incidents occurred he was on the West Coast.

DENBOW stated that he was an officer with the Dallas Police Department from 1954 until July 1961. He stated that in this capacity he met JACK RUBY in about 1954 when DENBOW was a patrolman and occasionally would see RUBY at the Vegas Club. He stated that he became rather well acquainted with RUBY due to his visits to this club and occasional conversations with RUBY and a year or so after he became acquainted with him, DENBOW had some "wife trouble" and frequented RUBY's club and apartment somewhat more than he had before.

DENBOW stated that he does not recall ever discussing politics with RUBY and knew RUBY only as a friendly individual who was very much interested in his business and who seemed to like and know a lot of people. He does not recall seeing RUBY carry a gun but recalls that RUBY did handle large amounts of cash from time to time in connection with his business.

DENBOW stated that he has no additional information concerning this case.

Little Lorraine Egypt, which she says is her legal name, was interviewed at the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). She resides at 2223 Cortelyou Road, Apartment 6H, Brooklyn, New York, telephone number BU 7-4028. She furnished the following information:

She dances professionally as an Egyptian dancer, commonly known as a "belly dancer" under the name Little Egypt.

She began a ten day engagement October 17, 1963 at the "Gay Life" Club in Dallas, Texas. A day or two after she began this engagement, her personal manager, Charles Curtis, pointed out an ad in the Dallas paper which seemed to indicate that she was performing at one of the local "strip" clubs in Dallas. However, underneath the name Little Egypt, there appeared in this ad in small type, a statement indicating that her "belly dance" album was being given away free.

Charles Curtis, her manager, informed her that legally they could do nothing about this type of advertising but they decided to visit the club and asked the manager of the club to remove her name from the advertising.

She and her manager, accompanied by Glen (Last Name Unknown), the maitre d' at the "Gay Life", and Glen's wife, went to this club one night about 2 a.m. after she finished her performance at the "Gay Life".

A man came over to their table who indicated he was the manager of the club. She did not know his name at the time but later determined it was Jack Ruby. He asked her if she would appear at his club and she declined, telling him she did not perform in "strip" clubs. She told him she would appreciate it if he would remove her name from the advertising for his club. While she was at the club, Ruby introduced her to the audience and she felt embarrassed by this incident.

She was unable to furnish any other information concerning Jack Ruby and had no association with him at any other time.

Captain WILLIAM B. FRAZIER, interviewed on the basis of information received that an Officer FRAZIER, formerly with the Vice Squad, Dallas Police Department, had frequented the Carousel Club, furnished the following information:

FRAZIER was formerly in the Special Services and Vice Squad, Dallas Police Department. He is presently assigned to the Radio Patrol Division, Dallas, Texas, Police Department. He is the only FRAZIER connected with the Dallas Police Department.

FRAZIER has known JACK RUBY for approximately twelve or thirteen years. He first became acquainted with RUBY when RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club on South Ervay Street, Dallas. His contact with RUBY at that time was in connection with official business. Later, when RUBY began operating the Vegas Club, FRAZIER recalled that he may have participated in a raid of this club in connection with selling liquor after hours.

FRAZIER has known RUBY as operator of the Carousel Club during the past three or four years and has seen RUBY possibly on several occasions, either at the police building or on the street in downtown Dallas. FRAZIER has never been to the Carousel Club, his acquaintanceship with RUBY has been casual in nature, and has had no social contact with him.

FRAZIER has no knowledge of RUBY's associates or his activities other than operation of clubs in the Dallas area.

FRAZIER is not familiar with the security measures taken in connection with the planned transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the City Jail to the Dallas County Jail on November 24, 1963, and was not present in the basement at the time LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot.

FRAZIER did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knows of no connection between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

ADRIAN KLEIN HIGH, who resides at 2716 Penbrook Terrace, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, was interviewed on the premises of Sholl Pontiac, Inc., Evanston, Illinois, which firm is operated by HIGH's nephew, MARVIN SHOLL. HIGH, who is presently self-employed as a manufacturer's representative in Oklahoma City, furnished the following information:

HIGH has known JACK RUBY since 1950, having been introduced to RUBY by BEN WEINBERG, the former proprietor of a delicatessen located just east of the Whitmore Hotel in Dallas, Texas. The building in which the delicatessen is located has been torn down and WEINBERG's address in Dallas was unknown to HIGH.

From about 1950 to 1959, HIGH resided in Dallas, and during that period he had a number of dealings with RUBY at the night clubs operated by RUBY in Dallas. HIGH never considered himself a friend of RUBY, although during the period of 1952 to 1953, HIGH loaned RUBY a total of approximately $450.00. This loan to RUBY, which was made in a number of smaller amounts, was made by HIGH during a time when HIGH was considering "buying into" the Vegas Club, one of two clubs operated and partially owned by RUBY in Dallas. RUBY never repaid the loan in full, althouth RUBY would never admit that part of the loan was still outstanding.

HIGH had no contacts with RUBY which HIGH would consider as being of a social nature, as he and RUBY did not visit each other's residences or attend any social functions together. The majority of HIGH's meeting with RUBY was by chance on the streets of Dallas or took place in RUBY's night clubs. HIGH had no desire to become a close associate of RUBY, due to RUBY's unpredictable temperament and his questionable business dealings, in which RUBY would attempt to "chizel" anyone who had business dealings with him. Since moving from Dallas to Oklahoma City in 1959, HIGH has visited Dallas on a weekly basis in connection with his business. During these visits HIGH would occasionally stop at one of RUBY's clubs. If RUBY happened to be present at these times, HIGH would exchange greetings with RUBY and have a brief general conversation with him. HIGH made no effort to locate RUBY as he had no desire to have any additional dealings with him.

HIGH last saw RUBY on November 1, 1963, in Dallas while HIGH was on a business trip to that city. On this occasion, RUBY was sitting in a parked car and HIGH and RUBY went through the usual procedure of greetings, followed by a short conversation.

HIGH could recall no organizations in which RUBY held membership or had an interest in, and HIGH was confident RUBY never had a close personal friend. HIGH possessed no information indicating RUBY was previously acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and HIGH noted OSWALD was unknown to him until November 22, 1963.

HIGH believed one of RUBY's closest associates was MARTIN GIMPLE who managed RUBY's Silver Spur Club in Dallas several years ago. GIMPLE died in a Veterans Administration Hospital approximately three years ago.

HIGH recalled RUBY's associates also included IRVING ALKANEN, a former employee of the Vegas Club in Dallas, who moved to California several years ago. HIGH believed ALKANEN possibly could be located through JULIUS SCHWARTZ, a former partner in "My Florist Shop" located on Lemon Street in Dallas. He also recalled that RALPH PAUL, who operates a drive-in restaurant in Arlington, Texas, was an associate or acquaintance of RUBY.

HIGH stated that during his period of acquaintance with RUBY, he became convinced that RUBY was an ego maniac, "always trying to be a big shot." He noted that RUBY's personality would change from minute to minute, and that RUBY's moods were unpredictable. He believes RUBY to be an eccentric individual, a person with whom "no one could get along," and an individual who possessed a poor reputation in Dallas.

HIGH was in Oklahoma City on the day RUBY shot OSWALD, and he possessed no information as to the manner by which RUBY gained entrance to the building occupied by the Dallas Police Department.

BILL HOLT, Special Agent, Oklahoma Bureau of Investigation, said he had occasion to check on JOE CECIL, then operating Marg and Betty's Motel located between Durant and Ada, Oklahoma about 4 years previous. HOLT explained his Bureau had previously received complaints in reference to prostitution activities at Marg and Betty's Motel.

HOLT said he had known CECIL for several years previous and in talking with him at that time learned he (CECIL) had purchased the motel and was operating it. He recalled CECIL told he had borrowed $20,000 from ALLIE CROSSLAND, a rich widow, now deceased, formerly a resident of Shawnee, Oklahoma, which was used to purchase the motel. Texas

HOLT said he checked the guest registration records maintained by CECIL for the time of investigation and recalled the name ROY KIMES appeared as having been at that motel on several occasions. He said he did not see KIMES at that time or at any later date in connection with his investigation.

HOLT further advised he did not know of JACK RUBY at that time and received no information regarding this individual in connection with his investigation.

MACK JONES, 2834 Metropolitan Street, Dallas, Texas, employed Allright Parking, Nichols Brothers Garage, 1321 Commerce, Dallas, reported as an acquaintance of RUBY, furnished the following information:

JONES has known JACK RUBY for about three years during the time he operated the club at 1312-1/2 Commerce Street, Dallas. RUBY parked his car at this garage, which was adjacent to the club, and while parking RUBY's car RUBY would occasionally request JONES to take a package from the car to the club. He considered RUBY to be a nice gentleman. He has heard RUBY had a high temper. However, he has never seen him in any outward display. As parking attendant, JONES also waited on a number of entertainers from RUBY's club, names not recalled, and he has heard them tell about RUBY being hard to work for. JONES never saw RUBY mistreat anyone. He has never seen RUBY carry a gun or have a gun in his car. RUBY had one close friend by the name of GEORGE, but JONES is not acquainted with GEORGE or any other associates of RUBY, with the exception of ANDY ARMSTRONG, who helped RUBY run the club.

JONES has no knowledge of RUBY's activities other than the operation of the club. JONES did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has never seen OSWALD or any person resembling OSWALD at the Nichols Brothers Garage or the Carousel Club. He has no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

Mrs. BESS LENINGTON, 2931 Alaska (FR 4-3457), telephonically advised she has known JACK RUBY for a number of years as she previously worked at Abe's Colony Club and other night spots in Dallas. She said during those employments she was known as BESS REED and BESS YOUNG. Mrs. LENINGTON said she recently read in a Dallas newspaper where JACK RUBY may be sent to Galveston, Texas, for some examinations. She said she questions the advisability of sending RUBY to Galveston as she knows that he, RUBY, is a close friend of one NORMAN CLARK, who previously promoted wrestling in Dallas, Texas, and is from Galveston. She said CLARK has many friends and associates in the Galveston, Texas area who are of questionable character that might help RUBY escape and flee the United States, should RUBY be taken to Galveston. She said the MACEO Brothers of Galveston are friends of NORMAN CLARK but did not further identify the MACEOs or elaborate on this connection. CLARK's son is a doctor at John Sealy Hospital, Galveston, Texas.

Mrs. LENINGTON said "I may be whistling in the dark but I just don't think it would be wise to take RUBY to Galveston for examinations".

She said she was reporting the above information because of her concern that RUBY might escape or commit other undesirable acts if taken to Galveston.

Mr. LEVIN informed that he is a member of the law firm Mayer, Mayer and Levin with offices in the Texas Bank Building, Dallas. He stated that he was with this same firm during the Spring of 1960 when his firm was employed by JACK RUBY and others to negotiate the incorporation proceedings for the Sovereign Club. He added that he was requested to act as one of the three incorporators and acted in this capacity only until the Board of Directors was elected and convened to take over the administration of the club. He stated that he did not invest in this club and never became a member of same. Shortly after the incorporation, another law firm was contacted to represent the club and all the records were sent to this firm, the name of which he has forgotten.

Mr. LEVIN stated that through the above proceedings he met JACK RUBY on one or two occasions but added that was the extent of his acquaintance with and association with RUBY. He stated that he has never attended any of RUBY's clubs and he does not recall seeing RUBY during the past two or three years.

Mr. LEVIN advised that he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by RUBY and knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

JAMES HERBERT MARTIN, 11611 Farrar Street, advised he is the agent for MARINA OSWALD, the wife of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, deceased. He advised he first met MARINA OSWALD when she was brought to the Inn of the Six Flags, Dallas-Fort Worth, Texas, immediately following the assassination of President KENNEDY, where she stayed in protective custody of the Secret Service for a few days. He advised he does not know, nor has he ever seen, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, to his knowledge.

He advised he became acquainted with MARINA OSWALD while she was at the Inn of the Six Flags. He stated he subsequently invited MARINA OSWALD and her two children to live with him at his residence. He advised the OSWALDS have resided at his residence since approximately November 30, 1963.

MARTIN advised he is the agent for MARINA OSWALD and is handling her business affairs. He stated MARINA OSWALD has received, through voluntary public donations, in excess of $54,000, which has been deposited in bank accounts in her name in the Dallas area. He said he has told newspaper representatives that the amount of money received by MARINA OSWALD in this method is approximately $28,000.

Mr. MARTIN advised that Mr. JOHN M. THORNE, of Grand Prairie, Texas, is the attorney for MARINA OSWALD.

MARTIN was asked if he knew JACK RUBY, and he replied that he did. MARTIN stated he had been the Credit Manager at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, in Dallas, some years ago.

The following investigation was conducted by SA PAUL L. SCOTT:

On January 22, 1964, ISADORE MILLER, also known as IZZY MILLER, 11144 Valleydale Drive, Dallas, Texas, owner of Enquire Shine and Press Shop, 1322 Commerce Street, whose name appeared in the personal effects of RUBY, advised he has known RUBY since 1949 or 1950. At that time RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club on South Ervay Street. MILLER has been in the Silver Spur Club on a few occasions and also the Vegas and Carousel Clubs subsequently operated by RUBY. RUBY has been a customer at the Enquire Shine and Press Shop since he began operation of the Carousel Club and most of MILLER's contacts with him have been business contacts. RUBY was well known in the downtown section of Dallas. He was a friendly individual and was always doing things for people. On occasion when MILLER would be at one of RUBY's clubs, he would observe RUBY "flare up" when some customer in his club misbehaved. MILLER has no knowledge of any close associates of RUBY other than a girl friend, name unknown, whom RUBY dated a number of years. MILLER has only been to the Carousel Club one time during the past two years. He has no knowledge of RUBY's activities other than the operation of the club in Dallas.

MILLER did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

On January 22, 1964, SAM HICKS, shoe shine boy, Enquire Shine and Press Shop, residence 1201 - 7th Street, Dallas, an acquaintance of RUBY, advised he has known RUBY for the past three or four years as a customer at this shop. He has occasionally delivered cleaning to RUBY at the Carousel Club. RUBY was a generous individual and was always giving things to the shoe shine boys and other employees at the shop. HICKS has no knowledge of any associates of RUBY other than ANDREW ARMSTRONG who helped RUBY operate the Carousel Club.

HICKS did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

DL 44-1639

On January 23, 1964, WAYNE ARMSTRONG, 3511 Mingo, Dallas, formerly employed Enquire Shine and Press Shop, advised he has known RUBY for a number of years as operator of the Carousel Club since his brother ANDY ARMSTRONG worked for RUBY at the Club. WAYNE ARMSTRONG was employed at the Enquire Shine and Press Shop for about four months in the latter part of 1963 and for about two months in the latter part of 1963 he was employed at the Carousel Club cleaning the Carousel Club during the day. He was actually employed by his brother ANDY ARMSTRONG instead of JACK RUBY. His contacts with RUBY were limited to business contacts. He has no knowledge of any activities of RUBY other than the operation of the Carousel Club and does not know of any associates of RUBY.

WAYNE ARMSTRONG did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has never observed OSWALD or any individual appearing similar to OSWALD at the Carousel Club. He has no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

Mrs. BEVERLY (GERRY LYNN) NEAL, maiden name BEVERLY MICHAELS, nee Mrs. now residing at 2011 Irwin Avenue, Lawton, Oklahoma, 73505 is employed by the Public Service Company, Lawton. She advised as follows:

In 1961 she was living in Dallas, Texas, sharing an apartment located on Bryan Street with one LISA McELRATH. At that time, Mrs. NEAL was separated from a previous husband and was known as BEVERLY MICHAELS. She was then employed by Employers Casualty Company, Young & Akard Street, Dallas, Texas.

In the latter part of 1961 her roommate, LISA McELRATH, took her to the Sovereign Club, a private club located on Commerce Street, and operated by JACK RUBY. She said the Sovereign Club was closed by RUBY in late 1961, and the club he now operates is at the same location. LISA told her that she had previously been to the Sovereign Club on one occasion, having been taken there by a friend. On this occasion, when she and LISA went there together, they joined the club for the purpose of being legally entitled to use the facilities of the club, as is the custom in Texas under local law.

She said she met JACK RUBY, for the first time, on her first visit to the Sovereign Club. She said he was the type person who would circulate around the club and stop and talk with all the patrons, and this was the circumstance under which she met him. She does not recall anything specific about which he talked, except that most of his conversation seemed to be with reference to his club and his plans for expansion.

She visited the club about twice more, for a total of three visits to the club, in an overall period of about two months in late 1961. After her last visit there, the club was closed by RUBY apparently due to not having enough business to keep it open. On each occasion of her visiting the club she saw RUBY and had casual conversation with him, as a customer in the club. She never saw him anywhere other than in the club, on those three visits.

Her roommate was with her on each visit to the club. On about the second visit, they each had a date, the two men being RON JONES and JIM COUCH. JONES was employed by some Saving and Loan Company, at a branch office in Oak Cliff, a suburb of Dallas. COUCH was originally from Lawton, Oklahoma, and his mother (who is named Mrs. ESTES) lives there on Bessie Avenue. She does not believe either JONES or COUCH had ever been to the Sovereign Club prior to that time, or were acquainted with RUBY.

On the third occasion when she visited the club she had no date herself but accompanied LISA, who had a date with one ED BURNETTE. The latter was leader of the band in the Sovereign Club.

Mrs. NEAL recalled an incident on one of her visits to the club, which causes her to characterize RUBY as "highstrung." She said she had gone to the lounge and when she returned to the table she found LISA arguing with JACK RUBY over the amount of their bill. LISA had added up the charges on the bill and claimed the waiter had "padded" the bill. Mrs. NEAL said that RUBY got quite angry at this charge; however, he later came around and told them he had checked with the waiter and found that the bill actually had been "padded" by him, and RUBY apologized for his actions.

Mrs. NEAL said she knows nothing of RUBY's personal life, friends or acquaintances, except she has heard he was supposed to be a close friend of one TONY ZOPPE (phonetic), a columnist for a Dallas newspaper.

After the Sovereign Club was closed, she never saw RUBY again and did not visit his other club at any time. In November, 1962, she moved to Lawton, Oklahoma.

PRESTRIDGE has known JACK RUBY by sight since the early 1950's having been a customer of RUBY's night club, the Silver Spur. Since the early 1950's, PRESTRIDGE has seen RUBY from time to time on the streets of Dallas and in various clubs and usually spoke to him on each occasion that they met. PRESTRIDGE indicated that they only had a "nodding" acquaintanceship and he was positive that JACK RUBY would not even know his name.

PRESTRIDGE knows nothing concerning RUBY's personal life or political beliefs. LEE HARVEY OSWALD is unknown to him and he knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

MRS. ANN PRIEST, Director, John Robert Powers Modeling School, 538 Texas National Bank Building, Houston, Texas, upon interview furnished the following information:

She and her former dancing partner, FRANK DE VERA, formerly operated a dance studio in Dallas, Texas, called The De Vera Dance Studio. It was located very near the Las Vegas Club, which was operated by JACK RUBY. MRS. PRIEST and DE VERA occasionally went to the Las Vegas Club. DE VERA, who knew RUBY personally, introduced MRS. PRIEST to RUBY and this occurred in 1954. On a few occasions about that time, when MRS. PRIEST and DE VERA were at the Las Vegas Club, RUBY would ask them to dance more or less as an informal dancing exhibition. MRS. PRIEST only knew RUBY in this casual manner although apparently RUBY and DE VERA were rather well acquainted.

MRS. PRIEST stated she last heard that FRANK DE VERA was associated with Encyclopedia Britannica and was living either in Little Rock, Arkansas, or Memphis, Tennessee. She indicated that this was perhaps a year or two ago that she last heard concerning DE VERA.

MRS. PRIEST stated she never met or heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and accordingly did not know of any association or connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

Dr. DAVID D. REISMAN, Urologist, 3707 Gaston, telephone TA 4-6727, advised as follows.

He has been acquainted with JACK RUBY on a social basis for about ten years. He saw him professionally only on one occasion, that being April 16, 1962 at which time RUBY visited his office as he believed he had contracted gonorrhea. RUBY was afforded the regular examination and it was determined he was not so infected. RUBY, when giving his personal history, told the doctor he had had gonorrhea three times and had been treated each time with penicillin..

Dr. REISMAN described JACK RUBY as a "sweet crackpot", the type individual you could not help but like, because of his generosity and his desire to accommodate everyone. RUBY's only concern in life seemed to involve sex, money, and sports and he had asked the doctor how he could remain young as he "had to take care of the young girls". Dr. REISMAN entertained RUBY in his home on numerous occasions but never invited him when his more refined friends would be there because of RUBY's impulsive nature. He explained this by saying it could never be guessed what RUBY might say or do and he could only converse on the topics of women and sports. RUBY had a strong affection for old people and was more than generous to police officers and entertainers, considering them to be fine people, according to Dr. REISMAN. It was the doctor's opinion JACK RUBY's idea of success was to have the best club in Dallas and to stand at the door in a tuxedo and welcome important people all day. Dr. REISMAN was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD. It was his opinion that RUBY would have made no effort whatever to become acquainted with a person of OSWALD's apparent type.

Mr. J. H. STECKER, Manager of the Dallas Dance Club doing business as the Music Box Restaurant and Club, 2536 Cedar Springs, Dallas, Texas, advised he had first become acquainted with JACK RUBY approximately five years ago when he (Mr. STECKER) had been in the beer business. He saw RUBY infrequently and was aware he was owner of the Vegas Club, however, he was better acquainted with RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT. At the time RUBY started the Carousel Club he offered STECKER an opportunity to buy a share in the club which STECKER refused.

Mr. STECKER's contacts with RUBY have been somewhat infrequent but have been cordial and friendly in all instances. RUBY is an active member of STECKER's club and since the shooting of OSWALD, STECKER has been advised by his waitresses that RUBY regularly had dinner at the club once or twice per week and that on those occasions he was usually accompanied by one or more females. Mr. STECKER did not observe RUBY on such occasions as he was generally busy with administrative duties during the time RUBY was at the club.

As an active member of the club, RUBY received a copy of the club's Christmas card to all its members. STECKER stated that this was most unfortunate in RUBY's case and had he realized the import of the card he most certainly would not have sent a copy to RUBY. He described the card as being a "sick Christmas card" and exhibited a copy which on its first page bore the following: "Have a swinging holiday season." On opening the card a picture of Santa Claus inscribed on a horse appears and a noose is around Santa's neck. An individual representing STECKER is posed behind the horse with a needle in his hand. STECKER stated that RUBY returned his copy of the card with the notation that he considered it the "cruelest, most perverted thing" he had ever seen. This prompted a letter of apology to RUBY from STECKER. Mr. STECKER stated in his contacts with RUBY he has never noticed RUBY to be overly emotional and since they are both Jewish, he has kidded RUBY on several occasions in the past concerning Jewish matters and RUBY never at anytime appeared to become

He was not aware of the nature or extent of any of RUBY's contacts with members of the Dallas Police Department. He was not aware of the reason why RUBY shot OSWALD.

STECKER stated he had been much better acquainted with RUBY's sister, EVA, because she formerly called him as many times as twice a week in order to obtain waitresses.

JACK VAN KAMPEN, also known as DEL CAMPO, 3007 Lemmon Avenue, operator Dale's Restaurant, this address, furnished the following information: Dallas, Texas

JACK VAN KAMPEN has known JACK RUBY casually since about 1948 when RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club on South Ervay, Dallas. He is not a close associate of RUBY. However, he has attended RUBY's clubs frequently, including the Silver Spur, Vegas and Carousel Clubs. VAN KAMPEN formerly operated Del Campo's Dance Studios and on one occasion a group of dancers from his studio performed at the Carousel Club. VAN KAMPEN has no knowledge of any close associates of RUBY, with the exception of one individual, possibly RALPH PAUL, who seemed to be in partnership with RUBY in operation of the Carousel Club.

VAN KAMPEN has no knowledge of any activities of RUBY other than operation of clubs in Dallas. RUBY, in connection with operation of his clubs, acted as his own bouncer, and VAN KAMPEN has seen him involved in a number of fights in his club whenever a patron would become unruly. He noted that on some of these occasions RUBY displayed a violent temper and, in VAN KAMPEN's opinion, would in some cases take more severe action than the situation seemed to warrant. He noticed RUBY seemed to have an uncontrollable temper for brief periods. He never saw RUBY instigate any fights or become involved in any fights outside of his club.

VAN KAMPEN did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

In the summer of 1959 PANITZ was working in the Booker T. Lounge in Miami Beach, Florida. During this time PANITZ received a phone call from L. C. MC WILLIE. MC WILLIE was then working in Cuba. MC WILLIE advised PANITZ that JACK RUBY had visited him in Cuba and was then in Miami Beach.

PANITZ had known MC WILLIE from Dallas, Texas. - Cuba

PANITZ contacted RUBY at Wolfies Restaurant, 21 Sheet and Collins, Miami Beach, Florida. PANITZ believes RUBY was in Miami Beach two or three days and that he visited with RUBY on two occasions.

PANITZ recalls that RUBY had said he had been in Cuba on a pleasure trip and was returning to Dallas, Texas.

PANITZ does not recall the hotel RUBY stayed in while in Miami Beach.

PANITZ does not recall the month he saw RUBY, but is somewhat certain it was in the summer of 1959.

PANITZ has no knowledge of possible Cuban connections on the part of RUBY.

An item found in the car of JACK L. RUBY following his arrest on November 24, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, was the notation "Serv-U-Pharmacy, 1601 West 6th (city not shown), HARRY SHULMAN".

On January 27, 1964, information was received from the Los Angeles Office reflecting the following investigation by SA RICHARD WHALEN at Los Angeles, California, regarding this information:

On January 24, 1964, DAVID WEINSTEIN, Manager, Serv-U-Pharmacy, 1601 West 6th Street, stated that HARRY SHULMAN is not connected with this pharmacy in any manner. He said that he, WEINSTEIN, is a close friend of ALEXANDER P. GRUBER and that GRUBER is a friend of JACK RUBY and one HARRY SHULMAN. WEINSTEIN said the only connection between SHULMAN and the Pharmacy address would be AL GRUBER. He said that he did not know RUBY and he felt that RUBY was wrong in shooting OSWALD.

On January 24, 1964, ALEXANDER P. GRUBER, 522 West Olympic Boulevard, Los Angeles, advised he is acquainted with DAVID WEINSTEIN, HARRY SHULMAN and JACK RUBY. He said he was previously interviewed by the FBI concerning RUBY. GRUBER advised he often frequents the Serv-U-Pharmacy and no doubt at an earlier date had advised RUBY of the name and address of that pharmacy. GRUBER said he knows one HARRY SHULMAN, also known as "HECKIE" who resides in San Francisco, California, and was last known to be employed as an operator of a hot dog concession for the City of San Francisco. He did not know any additional location for SHULMAN adding that he is "well known in San Francisco". GRUBER said the above SHULMAN is from the same "Ghetto area" in Chicago, Illinois, as GRUBER and RUBY. He said he knew of no connection of the above SHULMAN with the Serv-U-Pharmacy or DAVID WEINSTEIN.

GRUBER added that GRUBER and WEINSTEIN were interested at one time in having a car wash business and GRUBER had discussed this with RUBY. He does not believe RUBY ever met WEINSTEIN. He said that this might be the reason for RUBY having the Serv-U-Pharmacy address but that he did not know of any connection of SHULMAN with that pharmacy or address.

Los Angeles is unable to locate any reference identifiable with HARRY SHULMAN on the basis of information known concerning SHULMAN.

JOSEPHINE ANN BUNCE, 3024 Walnut Street, advised she is now employed as a barmaid at the 39 Club, Main and 39th, Kansas City, Missouri. She advised she has worked as a barmaid and dental assistant. She is 20 years old, however, represents herself as 24 in order to gain employment. She has never married and has an illegitimate child two years old.

Miss BUNCE advised that during January, 1963, she and three others decided to go to Las Vegas, Nevada. They purchased an old automobile for $50.00. They left Kansas City on January 26, 1963, but got only as far as Dallas, Texas. Her companions on this trip were: 1 - JAMYE BARTLETT, who is now in Baton Rouge, Louisiana; 2 - BONNIE CAVIN, who is now married and living in Dallas, Texas; 3 - AL BOYER, a hair stylist. BOYER was the only male, however, she learned on the trip that he was more homosexual than heterosexual. In Dallas BOYER sold the automobile for $50.00, but left Dallas keeping the money; his whereabouts are unknown.

Miss BUNCE advised that when the above-group arrived in Dallas they stayed for approximately one week at a motel, the address she cannot recall, and said the name started with "EL." They left the motel owing a bill of approximately $90.00.

Miss BUNCE advised she answered an ad in the newspaper for employment at the Lavender Room where she met GEORGE SENATOR. She does not know the name of the proprietor of the Lavender Room who interviewed her concerning the job, but through GEORGE SENATOR she obtained a job at the Carousel Club. SENATOR introduced her to JACK RUBY, the proprietor of the Carousel Club. This was while she was residing at the motel. She was the only one of the above-group who obtained employment.

Miss BUNCE advised she initially dated GEORGE SENATOR and BONNIE CAVIN dated a roommate of SENATOR, name recalled only as STAN.

Miss BUNCE advised she was employed at the Carousel Club for two weeks as a "Champagne Girl." She left the employment of the Carousel Club for a better position at the Club Royal, however, she was not there long and also worked at the Smugglers Lounge, Cavanah Club and Tom & Jerry's. During the second week at the Carousel Club she started dating JACK RUBY, by that who meant that after work several of the employees would go out to breakfast and then she would accompany RUBY to his apartment. After she left the Carousel Club she still dated RUBY two or three times a week by going out to dinner and/or being in his apartment.

Miss BUNCE advised that she cannot recall the address or telephone number of RUBY's apartment and she has destroyed the address. The apartment she recalled was on the third floor, the first door at the top of the steps. SENATOR had an adjoining apartment. During the time she associated with RUBY he did not have a roommate. Miss BUNCE advised that she had been intimate with RUBY and that he was a "straight man" and did not resort to any acts of perversion. He owned about three dogs and on one occasion while she was in his apartment she received a telephone call from a person unknown to her who apparently made allegations that RUBY had sexual relations with his dog. After hanging up the telephone, RUBY made a joke of these allegations and in effect made denial to her of such actions.

Miss BUNCE further advised that she never met anyone either male or female at RUBY's apartment. While in his apartment she did not view any photographs or other items which might identify his associates. RUBY always carried a revolver, which was explained to her as being common practice for someone in his occupation as a means of protection.

Miss BUNCE advised she does not recall the name LEE HARVEY OSWALD being mentioned by RUBY or any of his associates at the Carousel Club. She has seen photographs of OSWALD on television and in the newspapers and his features resemble someone who she might have seen before, but not necessarily at the Carousel Club, in association with RUBY, or even in Dallas.

Miss BUNCE added that RUBY never gave her any reason to believe that he had any communist sympathies. He was devoted to his business in addition to having a good time. He was a highly emotional unpredictable person, particularly at work. For instance if a girl dropped a bottle of champagne, he would fly off the handle. Also while in his apartment she never noticed any literature which she could identify as communistic. On the night stand beside his bed she noticed on one occasion a leaflet, about 8" by 11", which was written in a foreign language and which she thought might be Yiddish since RUBY is Jewish.

Miss BUNCE advised that she did not know of any other weapons in RUBY's apartment and she did not know if he ever practiced with the gun which he carried.

Miss BUNCE advised after leaving the motel, she and her two girl friends lived in an apartment at the Fontaine Villa at Junis and Collett Streets. Neither JAMYE nor BONNIE were ever in RUBY's apartment, however, they were at the Carousel Club on occasion. BONNIE was in GEORGE SENATOR's apartment which was next door to RUBY.

Mrs. Carl T. Chance

MYRTLE CHANCE was used as a co-signer by JACK RUBY on his safety deposit box at the Merchants State Bank, Dallas, Texas. This box was rented by RUBY in 1959 and was opened on one occasion by CHANCE on July 1, 1959. RUBY cancelled CHANCE off the signature card of this box on June 6, 1960.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOSEPH G. PEGGS:

AT DALLAS, TEXAS:

Mrs. PAULINE HALL, waitress, Apartment 6, 1606 Pratt, Dallas Texas advised on December 20, 1963, that MYRTLE CHANCE was the former waitress who worked at the Vegas Club for EVA GRANT during 1958 and 1959. Mrs. HALL did not know the present whereabouts of MYRTLE CHANCE and stated that she had last heard that she had remarried and was working in a carnival traveling throughout the United States. Mrs. HALL did not know Mrs. CHANCE's present married name, nor could she suggest any way to locate Mrs. CHANCE.

On December 20, 1963, BERTIE SUE BELCHER, Clerk, Retail Merchants Credit Association of Dallas, advised her records reflected MYRTLE CHANCE was employed at the Vegas Club in 1957 as a waitress. She was a widow of CARL T. CHANCE, who had died in 1945. The credit bureau files contained no information concerning MYRTLE CHANCE subsequent to 1957.

The following sources were contacted in an attempt to further identify and locate MYRTLE CHANCE with negative results:

Dallas, Texas

ANDREW ARMSTRONG, Carousel Club; DIANA HUNTER, 916 Ryan Street, who has been employed off and on at the Carousel Club since February 1960, and ALICE ALEXANDER, 929 Southeast Eleventh, Grand Prairie, Texas, who has worked both at the Vegas and Carousel Clubs during the past three years.

All of the above individuals could furnish no information concerning the present whereabouts of CHANCE.

Business records maintained by JACK RUBY which were made available to the FBI reflected the name HOMER CRANE as that of a possible former employee at one of JACK RUBY's night clubs.

Investigation conducted by SA ALTON E. BRAMBLETT in December, 1963, revealed that an individual named HOMER CRANE was residing at 2001 Mc Coy Place, Dallas, Texas.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES S. WEIR:

Repeated efforts to locate CRANE or any other resident at 2001 Mc Coy Place, an apartment building in an area predominantly Negro, were unsuccessful.

On January 13, 1964, a woman who refused to identify herself but who gave her address as 2001 Mc Coy Place, telephonically advised the Dallas Office that she had been residing at that address for over a year and that the name HOMER CRANE was unknown to her and that no such person resided at 2001 Mc Coy Place.

Records of the Dallas Retail Merchants Credit Association checked in December, 1963, reflected a HOMER CRANE, 2001 Mc Coy Place, who was employed by Rite Way Cleaners. Dallas telephone directories reflected a Right-Way Cleaners at 1909 South Buckner, Dallas. Inquiry at 1909 South Buckner in January, 1964, revealed that the Right-Way Cleaners is no longer an operating concern.

On January 19, 1964, Mr. F. A. KNOX, 5819 Marguerita Street, Dallas, advised that he had operated the Right-Way Cleaners, 1909 South Buckner, for approximately one and one-half years until December, 1963, when he closed his establishment. KNOX advised that his cleaning establishment was a coin-operated concern. He advised his business was one he operated alone and had no employees. He stated that the name HOMER CRANE was unknown to him. KNOX further advised that to his knowledge there was no cleaning establishments in Dallas named Rite Way Cleaners.

On January 22, 1964, HENRY THOMAS KILLAN, 8114 Newport Avenue, Tampa, Florida, employed Wheels, Inc., Tampa, advised SA JOHN R. BRETT he had been in JACK RUBY's club in Dallas approximately three times and did not know RUBY well. He said he considered RUBY to be a violent man, basing this on two incidents, one being when his wife, an employee of RUBY, fed some pizza to RUBY's dog and RUBY became so enraged that Mrs. KILLAN was afraid he was going to attack her.

On another occasion KILLAN overheard a bartender telling RUBY about some customers heckling the emcee, and RUBY asked the bartender why he did not hit them in the head. KILLAN stated he had no information on RUBY's background or associates, that he did not know LEE OSWALD, and knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

CHARLES EDWARD MORGAN, 5220 South University, Apartment 303, telephone 752-7091, was interviewed at his home in this matter in the presence of his wife. He advised that both he and his wife know JACK RUBY and that he had worked for him for approximately four years between 1956 and 1960 in the Dallas, Texas night club which RUBY owned. He identified the night club as the Vegas Club and stated that he worked as a pianist in a musical group headed by JOE JOHNSON.

MORGAN advised that he had always found JACK RUBY to be a nice guy who was sympathetic to people and who put himself out on occasion to make loans to members of the musical group. He said that RUBY seemed able to take care of himself and he heard that RUBY worked out a couple times a week at a health club in Dallas, Texas. He recalled that when troublesome situations arose about the night club RUBY, as the owner, would act as the peace maker and always seemed able to control any situation.

During the four years that he worked for RUBY there was only one occasion when a situation got out of hand. This was sometime in 1958 when RUBY was turned on by some brawlers he had unsuccessfully tried to separate and he had to fight his way out of this situation. He said that RUBY, with his eyes blackened and his lip cut, rushed back of the bar and got a pistol. He said that RUBY came out from behind the bar and fired one shot into the ceiling whereupon everything quieted down in a hurry. RUBY then put the brawlers out of the night club. MORGAN said that he admired the cool way that RUBY acted in this situation in that he did not fire the pistol at the brawlers but rather seemed interested in stopping the brawl. He said that he did not feel that RUBY was a violent man by nature.

In regard to other observations of RUBY he commented that RUBY did not seem to care too much about women as during the four years that he worked for him in that he never fooled around with any of the women in the night club. He said that RUBY just seemed interested in making a success of his night club business.

MORGAN advised that he is presently playing in a jazz group known as the 3 Notes currently featured at the 13 Club, Cicero Avenue and Madison Street. He advised that he can always be located through the Musicians Protective Union, 6200 South Cottage Grove, telephone MU 4-2850.

MARY KATHERINE PARKER was advised of the identities of the interviewing agents and that she did not have to give any statement to agents and anything she said could be used against her in a court of law. She was advised of her right to consult an attorney prior to the interview. She stated that she had an attorney, but would furnish any information she had at her disposal. No threats or promises were made to induce her to make this statement.

Mrs. PARKER was interviewed in the presence of Mrs. M. RIDER, Registered Nurse and Matron at the Mobile County Jail, where she is incarcerated after having been indicted on several counts of worthless checks and one count of forgery.

PARKER stated that when she was a teenager in the Dallas, Texas, area, one of the locations where young people went was the Vegas Club in Dallas, manager by EVA RUBY.

PARKER stated that it was her inference that the club was owned by JACK RUBY and managed by his sister. She stated that the club serves beer and wine and set-ups and has a band as well as a dance floor. She stated further that on Friday nights strip tease performers perform at 2:00 A.M. or from late Friday nights to early Saturday mornings. She stated that because of her friendship from having gone to the Vegas Club during January and February 1963, when she was badly in need of money, she approached EVA RUBY and RUBY gave her a job working nights as a waitress. She stated that during the period she worked there she met JACK RUBY and knew him only as EVA's brother and the reported owner of the establishment. She stated that she no more than had a few words or pleasant conversation with him. She never knew him to carry a gun or to be emotional.

SAMUEL PRATT, also known as "SAMMY", 3708 Cochran Place, Dallas, Texas, reported as a former part-time employee of JACK RUBY, furnished the following information:

PRATT was one of a group of four entertainers--dancers--known as the "Bombshells", which was employed by JACK RUBY at the Vegas Club one or two times a week over a period of approximately ten years. This group has not worked at the Vegas Club during the past four or five months, however. PRATT had little contact with RUBY, who would usually come to the club after the show was over and pay the entertainers. PRATT has no knowledge of RUBY's activities other than operation of the Vegas and Carousel Clubs. He has no knowledge of any of RUBY's associates. PRATT never performed at the Carousel Club. He has heard that RUBY had a high temper. However, he has no personal knowledge of any altercation in which RUBY was involved.

PRATT did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

GORDON SIMS (reported to be the husband of former employee of RUBY), 1309 Huddleston, furnished the following information:

SIMS's wife, MARGARET JEAN SIMS, worked for JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club as a cigarette girl from August, 1962, until October, 1962, and on a part-time basis from October, 1962, until March, 1963. In March, 1963, JACK RUBY owed Mrs. SIMS approximately $45.00 to $50.00 in commissions and Mrs. SIMS and RUBY became involved in an argument over this money and RUBY threatened Mrs. SIMS telling her that he would throw her down the stairs.

Mrs. SIMS quit as a result of this argument.

A few days after this argument, GORDON SIMS went to the Carousel Club in an attempt to obtain the money owed Mrs. SIMS. When he arrived at the club he found that RUBY was not there and he, SIMS, obtained the money from ANDREW ARMSTRONG who worked for RUBY at the Carousel Club.

SIMS knows RUBY on a very casual basis and knows nothing concerning his personal life or political beliefs.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD is unknown to SIMS and he could furnish no information connecting LEE HARVEY OSWALD and RUBY.

Mr. NICKY (NMN) TURMAN, age 23, residence Route 8, Tyler, Texas, interviewed at Keystone Readers Service, Room 615, Dan Waggoner Building, stated that he is presently residing at the Lawrence Hotel on Houston Street in Dallas, Texas. TURMAN stated that he first met JACK RUBY when TURMAN was 16 or 17 years of age in 1957 or 1958. He stated at that time his brother, BUDDY TURMAN, was a boxer in Dallas and BUDDY had become acquainted with JACK RUBY.

He stated that RUBY was usually present at any boxing match in which BUDDY was a participant and was also around when BUDDY was training for any fight in Dallas. TURMAN stated that he was introduced to RUBY by his brother and that as far as he could recall, the only contact he had with RUBY was when he was with his brother. TURMAN stated during 1960 through 1963 he was employed by Keystone and was in and out of Dallas on different occasions and did have some contact with RUBY during this period.

TURMAN stated that in the summer of 1963 he had actually worked four or five nights at RUBY's Vegas Club, which was then managed by RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT, and he had seen RUBY one or two nights visiting the Vegas Club during this time. He stated the only conversation he had with RUBY was general conversation or discussions regarding RUBY's operation of his night club.

He stated that he had never engaged in any political conversation or any controversial subjects with RUBY.

He stated that in the summer of 1963 he had obtained an apartment at 4531 Columbia in Dallas, and at that time BUDDY was separated from his wife and lived with NICKY at that address. TURMAN stated that he needed a telephone and because he did not have any established credit in Dallas he had trouble obtaining a telephone. He stated that BUDDY had contacted RUBY and RUBY agreed to stand good for any telephone charges, and thereafter the telephone company installed a telephone at 4531 Columbia.

TURMAN stated that he did not actually talk to RUBY and all of the matter was handled by BUDDY. TURMAN stated that during the time that he knew RUBY, he was in the Carousel Club on only two occasions.

TURMAN stated that because he was so young at the time he met RUBY, RUBY did not create any impression on him.

He stated that subsequently RUBY impressed him as wanting to be a "big shot" and dressed in a flashy manner. He stated also that RUBY had shown signs of being quick-tempered, and he recalled on one occasion at least--maybe two--a customer was ordered out of the Vegas Club by RUBY when he became unruly. He stated that RUBY was quick to throw anyone out of the club who misbehaved.

TURMAN stated that he had no knowledge or any indication that JACK RUBY ever knew or had any knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of former President KENNEDY. TURMAN stated that he had never personally seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and the only knowledge he had of OSWALD was through newspapers and television after the assassination of President KENNEDY.

TURMAN stated that he had no knowledge of RUBY's background except that on one occasion his sister, EVA GRANT, had mentioned that they were from Chicago. He stated also that the sister told of an incident when a well-known boxer, BARNEY ROSS, was hurt in a boxing match and JACK RUBY had fainted.

TURMAN stated that RUBY had always been cordial toward NICKY and never caused him any trouble at all.

JOAN LEAVELLE, also known as TONI TURNER, was interviewed at the residence of her parents, 619 El Prado, West Palm Beach, Florida. She said she lived in Dallas, Texas, for a number of years where she worked as a dancer, mostly in the Colony Club. She first met JACK RUBY when he opened the Carousel next to the Colony Club about three years ago; worked for him as a dancer for about 4 weeks about 2 years ago, and has known him as a casual social acquaintance for the past three years. She said she was never closely associated with RUBY and knows nothing about his activities prior to his opening the Carousel. She believed he was also associated, along with his sister, with the Vegas Club in Dallas, and she knew nothing else of his business activities. His closest associate, insofar as LEAVELLE knew, was the small, grey haired man who ran the Carousel after RUBY went to jail and LEAVELLE knew of no close female acquaintance of RUBY's although she knew RUBY enjoyed normal relations with females.

LEAVELLE said as an employer, RUBY was quite strict and expected alot of his employees. She said she was expected to do more acts when working for RUBY than when working at other clubs and expected to do more mingling with the customers between acts. She said RUBY's main interest seemed to be making money. He had a bad temper and was nervous and high strung and he was not predictable in that one day he was real nice to his employees and the next quite gruff.

Mrs. LEAVELLE said insofar as she knows, RUBY's association with the Dallas Police Department was like that of other club owners; that is he treated all of the police officers well and did not charge them when they attended his club during off hours. She said she knew of no particularly close contact between RUBY and any particular Dallas police officer but she and others noted RUBY was allowed to run a little "rougher" show than other clubs in Dallas.

She said she knows no one who was not surprised and has heard no one say they had any idea why it happened. She said she did not have the opportunity to speak with RUBY between the time the President was shot and the time OSWALD was shot and never heard RUBY discuss the proposed trip to Dallas by the late President so had no knowledge of why RUBY did what he did. She said she knew nothing about RUBY which would indicate he is particularly patriotic or otherwise and had no reason to associate RUBY with OSWALD or OSWALD's activities.

Mrs. LEAVELLE advised that the Dallas Detective to whom OSWALD was handcuffed when he was shot is the uncle of her estranged husband, BILL LEAVELLE. She said she is well acquainted with Detective LEAVELLE and has spoken with him since OSWALD's death and she feels certain he was as amazed as anyone by what happened.

HELEN VINES, 9008 San Benito Way, Apartment 101, Dallas, Texas, telephone DAvis 4-4614, was interviewed at the Theatre Lounge, 1326 Jackson Street, in the presence of her booking agent, CARL (PAPPY) OLSEN. She advised she also has as her booking agent, JACK COLE, who recently moved his offices from Dallas, Texas, to the Papas Building, Houston, Texas.

With regard to her knowledge of and acquaintance with JACK L. RUBY, she furnished the following information:

She has known RUBY for about fifteen years, having met him while he was operating the Silver Spur Club in Dallas, Texas. RUBY employed her for about two months as a waitress, and she dated him a few times during that employment. She has seen him on occasion through the years from 1948 until the present time and feels that she knows him as well as any other girl who had similar-type contacts with him. She described RUBY as a good employer and as a nice person; however, he has the human weakness of a quick and violent temper. She said that RUBY has frequent temper tantrums, and these usually last until the cause of them has passed or has been satisfied.

She, VINES, has been employed as a stripper and exotic dancer for approximately five years and uses the professional name of PRECIOUS DIAMOND. She has never worked for JACK RUBY in any capacity, with the exception of her employment for him as a waitress as mentioned above.

VINES advised that she has spent the last year working in Dallas, Texas, and was last out of town in about January 1963. She believes she returned to Dallas sometime in February 1963. She advised that she could not recall the chronology of her last out-of-town trip, however believes that during the Christmas season of 1962 she was in Lubbock, Texas, and traveled from there to Kansas City, Missouri. She may have worked for a period of time at the T Bone Club in Wichita, Kansas, while she was en route from Lubbock, Texas, to Kansas City, Missouri; however, she is not sure of this. She said she has worked at Wichita, Kansas, at the T Bone Club on two different occasions, and one of these occasions may have been in January 1963.

...ations of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to...

At this point in the interview, VINES consulted her Agent, CARL (PAPPY) DOLSEN, with regard to his recollection of her trip at that time, and he said he does not believe that she stopped at Wichita, Kansas, during that trip. He added that the records regarding her last trip to Wichita, Kansas, would be in the office of the American Guild of Variety Artists in Kansas City, Missouri, or in the office of JACK COLE in the Papas Building in Houston, Texas.

VINES continued by saying that during the times she was at Wichita, Kansas--whenever those times may have been--she had no contact whatever with JACK L. RUBY. She added that she has no knowledge whatever of JACK L. RUBY ever having been in Wichita, Kansas. She advised that the strippers who work at the T Bone Club in Wichita usually are there on a 2- or 3-week appointment and usually stay at the Casa Siesta Motel, which is located near the T Bone Club.

It was pointed out to her that GAIL RAVEN, whom she knows and who is also a stripper, had said that she, RAVEN, had replaced her, VINES, at the T Bone Club on January 20, 1963. VINES advised that she does not have a clear recollection of who replaced her the last time she worked at Wichita, Kansas, and therefore could not verify in good conscience what had been said by GAIL RAVEN.

VINES advised that she last saw JACK RUBY in about August 1963, when she went to the Carousel Club to visit with WALLY WESTON, a master of ceremonies who was employed there at that time. She advised that her agents and managers where she is now working do not approve of their girls' visiting or going to the Carousel Club because it is a business competitor. She said for this reason she remained at the Carousel Club for only a few minutes and just greeted RUBY and passed the time of day with him for a few minutes. Nothing specific was discussed and after visiting a short time with WALLY WESTON, she returned to her own place of employment.

VINES advised that she has read various news accounts connected with the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and other news accounts connected with the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK L. RUBY. She advised that she does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has never seen him in person although she has viewed news photographs of him. She advised that she has never had any information and has never heard anything which would give her the impression that there is any connection between JACK L. RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

She added that she has no information with regard to JACK L. RUBY's associations with anyone connected with the Dallas Police Department.

Mrs. WALLACE stated during the early part of September 1960 she answered an advertisement in a local newspaper at Dallas relative to selling memberships to the Sovereign Club consisting of office work. She answered this ad and thus met JACK RUBY at that time and worked for RUBY doing office work such as mailing application blanks and viewing prospective members. She stated that on several occasions she was unable to answer such questions by prospective members, such as the duration of lifetime memberships and whether this applied to the life of the member or the life of the club, and, consequently, she consulted with RUBY on several occasions and not being satisfied with his answers and this type of work, she decided to quit. She stated that she made an inquiry concerning the club to the Better Business Bureau just prior to beginning work for RUBY.

Mrs. WALLACE stated that after quitting her job with RUBY she saw him on one or two occasions and as a customer at the Carousel Club, the last time being about one and one-half years ago. She added that she never knew or saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information concerning any possible connection between OSWALD and RUBY, the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of OSWALD.

DAVID CONRAD GLASS, residing at Logging Camp #9, Weyerhaeuser Lumber Company, in Lake County, Oregon, on interview furnished the following information:

In 1954 he was residing in Lakeview, Oregon, and was separated from his wife. He met a girl named JANE WARD in a local bar and began dating her. This continued until February, 1956, when she broke off the relationship. In the spring of 1957, she began appearing to him in dreams and engaged him in what he termed "small talk." These dreams occurred infrequently after he had had a few drinks the night before. He considered these occurrences dreams until about a year later. At that time he was employed by United Air Lines as a mechanic in the International Airport at San Francisco. He recalled that JANE WARD appeared to him in a dream and asked him if he thought MARILYN MONROE would commit suicide. He made a prediction then that she would commit suicide about August 5, 1962. The next day a fellow employee named RAY ANDREWS repeated to him word for word the conversation about MARILYN MONROE in his dream the night before. He said he had no explanation for this other than the fact that it did occur. He said he also had no explanation as to why MARILYN MONROE committed suicide about the time he predicted.

From 1957 to 1959, he thinks he had about twelve dreams in which he had a conversation with JANE WARD and the conversation in the dreams was repeated to him by ANDREWS word for word the next day. About 1959, JANE began talking with him about KENNEDY in the dreams. She insisted that KENNEDY was a relative of his and also that KENNEDY was a friend of Queen ELIZABETH. She would question him about whether he thought that KENNEDY would live through his first term as President and he would reply that he did not think so. He quit United Air Lines in June, 1959 and got a job in Medford, Oregon, for Skeeters Logging Company and during the summer of 1959, he also completed his training for a commercial pilot's license at the Medford Airport. In early 1960, he went to work for Lockheed Missiles in Sunnyvale, California. He had a limited security clearance and at this time he had another dream in which JANE WARD asked him everything he knew about restricted activities at Lockheed. He said the next day he telephoned JANE at her sister's place in Palo Alto, California, and she admitted that she talked to him in his dreams. He resigned from Lockheed in June, 1956. He then became employed by Weyerhaeuser at Klamath Falls, Oregon. The dreams continued infrequently and in one dream she told him she was now residing in Albuquerque, New Mexico, at 506 Sycamore S. E. As a memory aid to remember the address, she told him to think of the Heinz Company, 57 Varieties, subtract 1 and put a 0 in the middle. She also gave him a song title with the name of a tree but told him he should substitute Sycamore. In the spring of 1963, she appeared to him in a dream and asked him what was going to happen to WALKER. He said she referred to General WALKER in Texas. He replied that he did not know but thought nothing would happen to him. She also asked him what was going to happen to KENNEDY and he predicted that KENNEDY was going to get shot. She insisted that KENNEDY was his relative and stated again that he was a friend of the Queen.

In April, 1963, in a dream, JANE first mentioned OSWALD and asked him if he knew OSWALD.

In June, 1963, Weyerhaeuser shut down so he went to JANE's mother, NORA WARD, who verified the address JANE had given him in a dream and Mrs. WARD told him JANE was living there with her husband GENE MURPHY. He said he thought he would go and visit her so he drove to Albuquerque, arriving there on June 18, 1963, and went to see JANE. He talked with her a few times in a park near her residence. He said she had intended to get a divorce but told him she had patched things up with her husband. During the time he was in Albuquerque, he stayed at a rooming house at 602 Arno Street. He returned to Lakeview but on July 9, 1963, he flew his plane, a Piper Cub, to Albuquerque, and again stayed at the Arno Street address. He saw JANE again and she told him her marriage was okay and she did not want to see him any more. He accused her of appearing to him in his dreams and she denied it and he said he was going to punch her in the nose and she still denied it and he hit her in the eye and gave her a black eye. Right after this he hid out in some shrubbery near a church but when the police did not find him he went to his rooming house. In the meantime, he had got a job in the service department of Montgomery Ward Company.

On July 16, 1963, two deputy sheriffs came there and arrested him on an assault charge. He said they were driving a green "bathtub" Nash, 1952 or 1953 model. It was not a police car although the deputies were in uniform. They took him to Central Street in Albuquerque, to the office of a justice of the peace named ROSE DORFER. JANE was at the office. There he was placed under oath and was required to furnish a peace bond to keep the peace and pay $32, after which he was released.

On December 10, 1963, at Camp #9, Weyerhaeuser Lumber Company, he had just finished reading an account of the assassination of President KENNEDY and the surrounding events when it suddenly occurred to him that these matters had been mentioned at the hearing before justice of the peace in Albuquerque on July 16, 1963. Between July 16, 1963 and December 10, 1963, it had not occurred to him that anything had been said at the hearing other than matters connected with the assault charge, but after reading of these matters in the magazines, he suddenly began to remember that both the justice of the peace and JANE WARD had talked to him and during a long conversation they had talked about KENNEDY being a socialist, pro-Negro and a civil rightist. At that time JANE had admitted that she had appeared to him in his dreams and talked with him. They asked him to make a prediction about how long President KENNEDY would live and it appeared to him that nothing would happen to KENNEDY if he made no prediction, so to please the women, he told them that KENNEDY would die between November 15 and December 15, 1963. The justice of the peace said that was right and JANE nodded okay. They asked him about OSWALD so he said OSWALD would kill KENNEDY and that he had about a thirty caliber rifle with a four power scope. They asked him what OSWALD looked like and he said that he had short and kinky hair and was about 5'10". They asked him to predict the details of the assassination and he told them that KENNEDY would be shot twice in the head. They also mentioned CONNOLLY, the governor, and wanted him to predict that CONNOLLY would be killed, but he said that CONNOLLY would be shot and not killed and he would not predict that CONNOLLY would be killed. They then asked him about RUBY and he said that RUBY was the short form of the Jewish name RUBENSTEIN and that RUBY would kill OSWALD two or three days after the assassination.

GLASS repeated that he remembered none of the above conversations until December 10, 1963, when he had read the account of the assassination in a news magazine, and after that time, as he was working in the woods, he would begin to recall different bits of conversation as set forth above.

GLASS said that since July, 1963, he has had no conversations with JANE in his dreams and does not expect any more since it appears that he will never see her again.

He said that when these dreams first started, he thought they were just dreams, but after other people seemed to know about them, they appeared real although he has no explanation for what has happened.

ALBERT G. HARVEY, also known as AL HARVEY, 3025 Touraine Street, Dallas, whose name was furnished by Mrs. FRANCES BIRCH as having made the statement on November 22, 1963 or November 23, 1963, that he was going to shoot OSWALD, advised as follows:

Mr. HARVEY advised that he is employed as salesman by the M & M Company, Fort Worth, Texas, and is so employed in selling funeral cars.

HARVEY stated that for a period of about four months ending in December, 1963, he had a continuous illicit affair with JANE BIRCH, 9100 Metz Drive, Dallas, and during this period he stayed in the BIRCH home with JANE and her mother, Mrs. FRANCES BIRCH. He stated that during this time he gave JANE BIRCH $100.00 a month in compensation for his relationship with her and to help provide the necessities of life for her and her mother. According to HARVEY, JANE BIRCH was caring for an infant illegitimate daughter which was not his child. JANE's mother was a former "stripper", as well as JANE's sister, PAT KOHS, wife of KEN KOHS. HARVEY continued by stating in December, 1963, he learned that JANE BIRCH was going out with other men and using his money to pay expenses during these activities whereupon he became angry with her and ceased his relationship with her and discontinued giving her money, which in turn caused her, her mother and her sister to become angry with him, inasmuch as they had no other means of securing the necessities of life. As a result, they all harassed him by phoning his residence and his place of business and using abusive and threatening language to him and to others who answered the phone. He finally, through the assistance of Attorney WYNN G. STANTON, signed peace bond complaints against both BIRCH women and Mrs. KOHS in Judge JOE B. BROWN's court, Dallas. As a result of several arguments with the BIRCH women, they accused him of assault and threatened to file complaints against him in local courts but later changed their minds.

HARVEY stated that as a result of his differences with the BIRCH women, these women have stated on more than one occasion that they would "get even" with HARVEY and would do anything to get him in trouble.

HARVEY stated that he does not recall ever making a statement to anyone to the effect that he contemplated getting a gun and shooting LEE HARVEY OSWALD and added that he could not have made such a statement while intoxicated inasmuch as he does not drink. He added that he may have made a statement expressing the opinion that if JACK RUBY were released from jail on bond he might be shot or otherwise killed just as OSWALD was killed. He added that if he did make such a statement it was not to convey the impression that he himself had any notion of harming RUBY but merely expressing the opinion or fear that if RUBY were released someone might kill him.

Mr. HARVEY advised that he does not know JACK RUBY and never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD; further that he knows of no information indicating a connection between OSWALD and RUBY or the assassination of President KENNEDY and the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY.

CLIFF HONEYSUCKER, Holiday Club, Dallas, Texas, was reportedly acquainted with RUBY.

B. W. BELL advised on January 14, 1964, that he was the present owner of the Holiday Club, 1212 Main Street, Dallas, Texas. He purchased this property approximately three years ago from one BETTY CROSBY. BELL did not know HONEYSUCKER personally but knew him to be a former owner of the Holiday Club.

BIRDIE SUE BELCHER, Retail Merchants Credit Bureau of Dallas, made a search of her records and advised she could locate no recent record identifiable with CLIFTON HONEYSUCKER. WILLIAM H. KITCHING, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, could locate no information identifiable with HONEYSUCKER.

Inasmuch as HONEYSUCKER was not in the Holiday Club during recent past, no further investigation is being conducted to locate him.

Mrs. ALICIA ALUSAS, 2138 Tarpley Road, who was reported to be friendly with RUBY, advised on January 14, 1964, that she did not know RUBY and had never seen him. She pointed out, however, that she had heard of RUBY from her daughter, Mrs. AUSTIN.

RE: HERBERT KELLY

AT BRADENTON, FLORIDA

On January 10, 1964, Mrs. DAVID (ADELE) KETCHUM, Lot J-9, El Rancho Village Trailer Park, U. S. 301, Bradenton, advised SA RAYMOND N. BYERS as follows:

Her son, HERBERT KELLY, born April 23, 1921, at Brooklyn, New York, has never been married. He was very successful in the insurance business in Indiana prior to 1951. In about 1951, he went into a monastery, but did not stay. Since that time, he has appeared to be a person who has never found himself. He is completely irresponsible where money is concerned. He borrows from anyone he can, and never makes any effort to repay. She knows of no illegal activity on his part at any time and feels he is not criminally inclined.

She said she last heard from her son in 1958 or 1959 at which time he was manager of the Executive Club at Dallas, Texas. She said she has no idea where he might be located since he apparently has no close friends or associates. She said she does know that from time to time he sought treatment from Veterans Administration hospitals in the past with stomach trouble.

Mrs. KETCHUM said she never heard her son mention JACK L. RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. THELMA MARKS, 3432 Buchanan Street, Gary, Indiana, furnished the following information:

She was formerly THELMA NEELY and once resided in Brooklyn, New York. Her parents moved to Hammond, Indiana, where her father, W. H. NEELY, currently resides. She went back to New York in the summer of 1947 to marry SIDNEY MARKS, now manager of the Cowan Shoe Store, Empire State Building, New York City, New York. They went to Camp Unity near Kingston, New York for two weeks in July or August, 1947, before they were married. She claimed she thought this was a church camp of some sort, but learned on arrival it was a Communist camp.

At the camp was one JACK RUBENSTEIN, nicknamed RUBY. He was about 30-35 years of age, 5'10', stocky build and had dark hair. He showered affection on her, which made SIDNEY jealous. Mrs. MARKS said RUBY's girlfriend was a dancer. He was at the Camp every day of the two week period. She thought perhaps he might be identical with JACK L. RUBY of Dallas, Texas, accused of the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. MARKS said she and her husband are separated, but thought he might know more about RUBENSTEIN and might have his photograph. She recalls they photographed him at the Camp.

After their marriage, SIDNEY MARKS gave up Communist Party affiliations and work on her promise she would accept the Jewish faith. She does not know the identity of the organization in the Communist Party with which her husband was affiliated.

SIDNEY MARKS was recontacted at the Cowan Shoe Store 16 East 34th Street, Manhattan, New York, by SAS TIMOTHY B. LAGRONE and ROBERT J. LAWSON and he furnished the following information:

He had given considerable thought to the possibility that a JACK RUBENSTEIN or a JACK RUBY had been at Camp Unity, Kingston, New York, in 1947, at the time MARKS was at this camp. The only individual he could recall who might be JACK RUBENSTEIN was an obnoxious person who became friendly with MARK's wife, THELMA MARKS. He described this individual as a "con artist type", who came from New York City. At the time, MARKS had just married THELMA, but this did not seem to make any difference to this individual and MARKS found it necessary to "straighten out this individual" and point out that MARKS did not appreciate his attentions to Mrs. MARKS.

MARKS was not able to furnish a description of the above individual, but his recollection was that he did not resemble photographs of RUBY which MARKS had observed.

The following investigation was conducted by SA GLENN E. SILVEY:

At Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

On January 3, 1964, ANNABELLE PHELAN, 709 NE 12th Street, Oklahoma City, who is the Information and Discharge Clerk, Children's Hospital, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, advised that on or about December 1, 1963, she and DOROTHY JONES, a nurse at Children's Hospital, were discussing various remarks made by parents and visitors of the patients in the hospital concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY and the subsequent killing of OSWALD. She advised during the conversation Miss JONES stated that JENELL HUBBARD, Chief Nurse at the hospital, had informed her that everyone in Dallas knew JACK RUBY was a Communist. This information allegedly came from a nurse attending a nurses' workshop in Fort Worth, Texas, at the time of the assassination. This nurse was allegedly married to a musician who formerly played at JACK RUBY's club.

PHELAN advised there was no further discussion of this remark and she could not identify the source of this allegation about RUBY's Communistic tendencies.

On January 4, 1964, Mrs. DONALD C. (JENELL) HUBBARD, 1600 Anderson Road, Head Nurse, Children's Hospital, advised she was in attendance at a workshop sponsored by the Texas League of Nursing at Fort Worth, Texas, during the latter part of November, 1963. She stated on the day RUBY shot OSWALD she and several of the other nurses at the workshop were discussing this incident at which time Mrs. ANN MARIE CARLSON, 2622 Madera Street, Dallas, Texas, who is employed as a nurse at the Timberlawn Sanatorium in Dallas, made the remark that her husband had formerly played in the band at JACK RUBY's club and had left this job because everyone knew JACK RUBY was "a real kook and a Communist."

Mrs. HUBBARD could furnish no additional information concerning RUBY or CARLSON and advised there was no additional discussion about the above-mentioned statement. She stated there were several other individuals in the room at the time however she could not identify these persons.

Mr. PAUL H. SMILEY, 2323 40th Place, N.W., Washington, D.C., advised that he is presently retired from Government service, having formerly been an inspector-investigator for the Veterans' Administration (VA). He was with the VA from 1921 to 1950, at which time he retired and accepted other Government employment as an inspector for a congressional veterans' committee headed by Texas Congressman OLIN TEAGUE. He held this position from 1956 to late 1960, at which time he retired from Government service.

SMILEY said that based upon his lengthy investigative experience he had decided to write the Director of the FBI and express his observations concerning the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK LEON RUBY. He is firmly convinced that RUBY could not have gained access to the Dallas jail without proper identification, possibly police identification. He recalled a past experience where police identification had been used for an illegal purpose.

Specifically, he related that during the 1920's he had made a trip to New York City on official business for the VA. While in New York he attended a social affair sponsored by an individual, name not recalled, who owned a retread tire shop located on Lexington Avenue in New York City. Present at this affair were a number of VA officials and New York City officials, including a Captain and a Lieutenant from the New York police precinct in that area. The owner of the tire shop had a connection with the VA due to the fact that he trained disabled veterans in his shop at Government expense. During this affair large quantities of liquor were served illegally and a lewd and obscene show took place.

SMILEY stated that following the party he asked the tire company owner how he could get away with such illegal activities in the presence of New York City police officials. This individual replied that with proper connections you could do anything. By way of proof he exhibited a gold or gold-plated Washington, D.C., Metropolitan Police Department badge, explaining that with this badge he could gain access to the White House anytime he so desired.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to [illegible] and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

SMILEY stated that he was relating this incident on the possibility that RUBY may have gained access to the Dallas jail by means of a police badge and that this entire affair may have been prearranged by RUBY and the Dallas police.

SMILEY stated that another matter of great concern to him was the indiscriminate use of medical testimony in the courts. He feels that anyone with sufficient financial backing can purchase such medical testimony for their legal defense and considers this a sad commentary on justice.

He advised that while investigator for the VA he had occasion to visit Dallas, Texas, on a number of occasions, however, denied that he had ever known or been personally acquainted with JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Both of these individuals first came to his attention through television and press media following the President's assassination. He has no personal knowledge of any association between RUBY and OSWALD and, in fact, has no information concerning this matter other than what he has read in the local press or seen on television.

SMILEY explained that he had read an interesting article in the local press which had raised a number of questions similar to that which he had previously discussed, and this had prompted him to write to the Director because he feels it is highly important that all of the facts be brought out in this case. He feels that investigation should determine whether Dallas police officials were involved in OSWALD's murder, and, if so, that they be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

SMILEY stated that should he obtain any factual information relating to this case, he would immediately bring it to the attention of the FBI.

GEORGE T. DAVIS, Attorney, 220 Bush Street, San Francisco, California, residence 2761 Divisidaro, San Francisco, California, was interviewed at his request at Braniff Airlines Office, Dallas, Texas. This interview was arranged by WENTWORTH DURANT, Attorney, 2323 Fidelity Union Tower, Dallas, Texas, a friend of DAVIS.

DAVIS advised he was enroute from Washington, D. C., to San Francisco and because of his interest in the trial of JACK RUBY in Dallas, Texas, had decided to stop over in Dallas and furnish information in his possession which might be of assistance in the prosecution of JACK RUBY.

Gene Schriver, Gene Schriber, Ill. Nevada

DAVIS has a client, one GENE SHRIBER, San Francisco, California, residence address not recalled, that has personal knowledge concerning JACK RUBY and JACK RUBY's sister, EVA. According to DAVIS, RUBY was employed by SHRIBER as a card dealer in San Francisco, California, sometime in the early 1940's. It is DAVIS's recollection from conversations with SHRIBER that RUBY was in San Francisco sometime after the war in 1946, 1947 or 1948, however, he is not certain of the exact period he was in San Francisco. In addition, SHRIBER related to DAVIS that he had known JACK RUBY in Chicago prior to the time RUBY was in San Francisco at which time RUBY was employed as a bouncer in some club in Chicago.

DAVIS further identified GENE SHRIBER as an individual with previous underworld connections and as a former partner of BONES REMER (phonetic), Reno, Nevada and Lake Tahoe area gambler with operations in San Francisco.

Bones Remmer (deceased) Calif.

DAVIS advised he has no personal knowledge of JACK RUBY but believed that SHRIBER could furnish pertinent information concerning JACK RUBY. It was DAVIS's understanding also that RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT also known as EVA RUBENSTEIN, had also been employed by SHRIBER in San Francisco as a card dealer. JACK RUBY had been described to DAVIS as a "hoodlum" who was "quick with a gun".

DAVIS continued that he is well acquainted with MELVIN BELLI, RUBY's Attorney and he was concerned that BELLI's handling of the RUBY trial might result in RUBY being acquitted and it is his belief that a RUBY acquittal would have implications which might effect the administration of justice in the entire nation. He did not elaborate on this statement but indicated he contemplated contacting District Attorney HENRY WADE in Dallas to offer his assistance in the prosecution of RUBY. DAVIS stated he (DAVIS) has had extensive experience in cases involving defendants with psychiatric problems and he had a number of briefs which he felt might be of assistance to the prosecuting attorney.

DAVIS stated he would return to San Francisco on the night of January 23, 1964, and that he would endeavor to arrange an interview for a representative of the FBI with his client, GENE SHRIBER.

The following information was received from the San Francisco Office on January 24, 1964, relative to information received from GEORGE T. DAVIS at Dallas, Texas, on January 23, 1964, to the effect that one GENE SHRIVER, of San Francisco, had pertinent information regarding JACK L. RUBY and EVA L. GRANT, also known as RUBENSTEIN, in that RUBY and GRANT allegedly were employed by SHRIVER in San Francisco, California, and in Chicago, Illinois:

The following investigation was conducted by SA WILLIAM N. KIDWELL, JR.:

AT SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA:

The individual described as GENE SHRIVER by GEORGE T. DAVIS is GENE L. SCHRIBER, 3050 Nineteenth Avenue, San Francisco, California, a former associate of "BONES" REMMER, deceased, San Francisco and Lake Tahoe, California, gambler. SCHRIBER was resident of Chicago during a portion of the time RUBY was a resident of that city. SCHRIBER operated a card room in San Francisco with REMMER during the period RUBY resided in San Francisco. SCHRIBER is acquainted with the gambling element in many areas of the United States, including Dallas.

SCHRIBER has been contacted frequently during the past several months in connection with an Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution matter in which his son, known as EUGENE SCHREIBER, is the subject.

On January 24, 1964, SCHRIBER reiterated a previous statement to SA WILLIAM N. KIDWELL, JR., to the effect that he does not know JACK RUBY or his sister, EVA, has never seen them in Chicago or San Francisco and has never employed these people. He has never seen photographs of JACK and EVA and has discussed the case with acquaintances in San Francisco. He has never told anyone he knows them or employed them.

SCHRIBER advised that some years ago GEORGE T. DAVIS did some legal work for him. He has not had any dealings with DAVIS since that time.

Mrs. W. R. SIMONS, 2701 Washington Boulevard, Venice, California, advised she is the former wife of JAMES WOODWARD, whose location is unknown to her. She said she has not seen her former husband in about four years. She last heard about one year ago that JAMES was in the San Antonio, Texas, area. This latter information was furnished to Mrs. SIMONS by her sister, WINIFRED STEWART, 1437 Santa Barbara Avenue, San Antonio. WINIFRED's former husband is CLAUDE L. STEWART, JR., who is employed at the Southern Pacific Credit Union, San Antonio. She stated that only if JAMES was in the San Antonio area would CLAUDE, or WINIFRED, possibly know of his location as he does not correspond with, or contact, any of his present or former family members.

Mrs. SIMONS stated that she and her former husband, JAMES, were at Islamorada, Florida, for approximately two months during the summer of 1958. She was introduced by JAMES to a JACK (last name unknown) and ISABELLE (last name unknown), best described only as friends of JAMES. She said she did not recall specifically where she was introduced to JACK and ISABELLE, or where they were residing at Islamorada. She said she did not recall any information while at Islamorada from JAMES or anyone else, concerning any guns, connection with Cubans, or that JACK (last name unknown) owned a bar in Dallas, Texas. She could only recall that JACK originally reportedly came from Chicago, Illinois.

Mrs. SIMONS was exhibited photographs of JACK L. RUBY and she could not identify JACK as being identical to JACK (last name unknown) met at Islamorada. She described JACK (last name unknown) as white, male, American, 45 in 1958, 6' 3", 185 to 190 pounds, medium build, black hair, black mustache. She described ISABELLE as a white female, in her early 40's in 1958, 5' 7", 160 pounds, heavy build, dark hair, turning grey.

Mrs. SIMONS said she had no indication or information she has ever met JACK RUBY. Concerning the possibility of her husband contacting her, she added she did not expect this to occur inasmuch as she caused a local warrant to be issued for JAMES in 1961 at Santa Monica, California, charging him with Lieutenant FLOYD HANNON (NA), Detective Division, Wichita Police Department, advised that on the original interview in this matter, he had indicated he had checked the records of the Casa Siesta Motel and had found that JACK RUBY had made one phone call from there to the T-Bone Club, in Wichita, Kansas. HANNON advised that after furnishing this information, he had given this matter some additional thought and realized he had not contacted the motel on this specific matter, but had received information from THELMA CORNWELL to the effect that RUBY had called the T-Bone Club from the Casa Siesta Motel, where he supposedly stayed.

HANNON advised that he had no first-hand information where RUBY stayed in Wichita at any time, or that RUBY had even stayed in Wichita at all.

KENNETH R. ISHMAEL, Manager, Casa Siesta Motel, 4449 South Broadway, Wichita, Kansas advised that he had no recollection of JACK L. RUBY ever being a guest at his motel. He made a search of his records from January 1, 1963, to the present, and advised he could locate no one registered there by the name of RUBY.

A review of records of the Casa Siesta Motel did reflect that GAIL RAVEN was a guest of the motel from January 27, 1963, through February 13, 1963, at which time she occupied Room Number 10. ISHMAEL advised he recalled this person, but could recall nothing to indicate that RUBY or anyone else had visited RAVEN while she occupied this room.

ISHMAEL further advised that no record of local Wichita calls is made by the motel and, therefore, there is no way of knowing if anyone at the motel made a telephone call from the motel to the T-Bone Club, Wichita, Kansas, in January, 1963.

ISHMAEL stated it was almost certain that RAVEN had made local calls from the motel to the T-Bone while she was a guest there, since that was the club where she was employed, and it is the normal practice for her to make telephone calls there when she is working in Wichita and staying at the Casa Siesta Motel.

THELMA CORNWELL, 4635½ South Broadway, Wichita, Kansas, was contacted on January 16, 1964, at the Westaire Club, 4702 West Kellogg, and at that time she denied that she had any information that JACK RUBY had stayed in Wichita at the Casa Siesta Motel, Wichita, during January, 1963, or at any other time.

CORNWELL claimed that she did not know where RUBY stayed when in Wichita, and stated that it was even possible he may have not stayed in Wichita at all, but might have gone back to Dallas, Texas, after the shows ended at the T-Bone Club on each occasion that he was in Wichita.

She further advised that she had no information that RUBY had telephonically contacted the T-Bone Club from the Casa Siesta Motel at any time or that RUBY had contacted exotic dancer GAIL RAVEN in her room at the Casa Siesta Motel, at any time RAVEN was registered at that motel.

JAMES E. JONKER, Manager T-Bone Supper Club, 220 East 47th Street South, Wichita, Kansas, advised as follows:

Telephone number JA 4-9269 is a public telephone located in the T-Bone Club, and is available for the use of all patrons of the club. Since this is a public telephone, there is no way of knowing who uses this telephone.

JONKER advised that he has no recollection of JACK L. RUBY ever using a telephone while RUBY was in his club. He stated it was very possible that RUBY, the strippers, MC's or other entertainers may have used this telephone while in the club. He added, however, that if one of these persons had received a call on this telephone the caller would have to know the telephone number as this number is not the one listed for the T-Bone Supper Club.

JONKER made a search of his records and advised that during the period from October 28, 1963 to November 11, 1963, comic BILL DE MAR and stripper FROSTIE CONNERS were appearing at the club. He stated he had booked CONNERS through the Wayne Keller Theatrical Agency, St. Louis, Missouri, and it was his recollection that DE MAR went to RUBY'S Carousel Club in Dallas following his appearance at the T-Bone. JONKER stated that DE MAR was appearing at the Carousel at the time of the death of President KENNEDY. He stated that since DE MAR went to Dallas from Wichita he would be of the personal opinion that someone in Dallas may have contacted DE MAR at the T-Bone on November 6, 1963 regarding his appearance in Dallas at the Carousel Club. JONKER said he could furnish no other information regarding any telephone calls to the T-Bone from Dallas, Texas or specifically from JACK L. RUBY.

BAUGHMAN stated that CECIL and ROY KIMES, both known police characters, operated this place for several months; however, stated KIMES did not have any interest in this place to his knowledge, unless he obtained it from CECIL. He stated both KIMES and CECIL used this place for their operations of whisky, highjacking, and hobnobbing activities. He stated KIMES tried to make people believe that he owned this plact, which he actually did not.

BAUGHMAN stated to his knowledge he had never seen JACK RUBY and never noted anyone resembling RUBY in company with KIMES or CECIL.

The following investigation was conducted by SA LEO W. USELDING:

AT DURANT, OKLAHOMA

Mrs. DON MARTIN, Operator, Road Runner Motel, 202 South 9th Street, Durant, Okla. on January 16, 1964, advised she and her husband purchased the Road Runner Motel which was formerly known as the Texhoma Motel in May, 1962. She stated they were not acquainted with ROY KIMES or JACK RUBY and that KIMES or RUBY had made no effort to purchase this motel from them.

Mrs. MARTIN stated they purchased this motel from C. R. BARTLETT who resides 2515 Southwest 25th Street, Oklahoma City, and stated approximately four years ago this place was owned by a THELMA DALE NANCE.

THELMA DALE NANCE, Cartwright, Oklahoma, on January 16, 1964, advised that she was the former owner of the Road Runner Motel, previously known as the Texhoma Motel at 202 South 9th Street, Durant, Oklahoma, and she owned this place from 1956 until 1959 when she sold it to a GUY A. DEAN of Oklahoma City, Okla. She stated she was well acquainted with ROY KIMES and stated KIMES had never made any effort to purchase this motel from her. She stated further that approximately four years ago she saw ROY KIMES in Durant, Oklahoma, when KIMES told her he was operating Marge and Betty's Motel on Highway 69 and 75 five miles north of Caddo, Oklahoma.

NANCE stated when she saw KIMES he was always alone and was not accompanied by anybody. She has no knowledge of JACK L. RUBY and stated Marge and Betty's Place was formerly owned by WILSON R. BAUGHMAN of 828 West Elm Street, Durant, Oklahoma.

The following individuals, operators of motels and tourist courts in Durant, Oklahoma, were contacted on January 16, 1964, and all advised they were acquainted with ROY KIMES; however, had never seen or heard of JACK RUBY. All advised that ROY KIMES had made no effort to purchase their respective businesses:

ALICE REAVES NICHOLS, 8797 Redondo Drive, Dallas, Texas, telephone DA 1-3687, telephonically advised that on Monday evening, January 13, 1964, a Mr. DENSON, who identified himself as a private investigator employed by the defense attorneys for JACK L. RUBY, came to see her and talked to her for about one and one-half hours. This was in relation to her knowledge of JACK L. RUBY and particularly to any knowledge she had of the whereabouts of RUBY on November 22, 1963. She advised that she told Mr. DENSON what she knew and after he had gone that evening and during the next two or three days she recalled the interview she had had with SAs ALBERT SAYERS and PAUL L. SCOTT on November 25, 1963. She said she believed she had not told SAs SAYERS and SCOTT about a telephonic contact she had had with JACK L. RUBY on November 22, 1963.

She furnished the following information with regard to that telephonic contact:

She had been working at her regular job on that date and had gone out to lunch between 1:00 and 2:00 PM. She returned from lunch at about 2:00 PM and was advised that she had received a telephone call from JACK RUBY while she was out. He had left a telephone number for her to call. At about 2:10 PM she telephoned the number and the man answering sounded to her like a Negro. She said for this reason she believes the number was probably at the Carousel Club; however, she does not know this to be a fact. The man who answered the telephone told her that RUBY was on another telephone at the time, and she left her number at the office, RIverside 1-1321, and asked the man to have RUBY call her.

At about 2:15 PM she received a telephone call from JACK RUBY. This call lasted for only about one minute and RUBY was apparently calling to tell her what a terrible thing he thought it was that President KENNEDY had been assassinated.

RUBY again called her on November 22, 1963, at about 7:30 PM at her home. This was also a very short conversation, and he mentioned to her that he was going to the Synagogue. He also told her that his clubs were closed. She does not know from where RUBY was calling. This is the last contact of any kind she has had with JACK L. RUBY.

She advised that she had received a subpoena which was issued by the defense to appear in court at Dallas on Monday, January 20, 1964.

She advised that the only other contact she has had other than the interview with SA SAYERS and SA SCOTT and the conversation with Mr. DENSON in connection with the JACK RUBY case has been a telephone call from SA LEO L. ROBERTSON of the FBI at Dallas and a telephone call on December 31, 1963, from a newsman of the Associated Press. She did not know that man's name and declined to discuss anything with him. She said when SA ROBERTSON called he asked her if the names of several people were known to her or familiar to her. She recalls that she did not know any of the people whom he named.

ANDREW ARMSTRONG, JR., Assistant Manager, Big D Copa Club, formerly known as the Carousel Club, 1312-1/2 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information with regard to the time period from about 11:53 AM until about 4:00 PM or 4:30 PM, November 22, 1963:

He got on the bus near his home at about 11:53 AM and traveled the regular bus route to the bus stop at Main and Akard Street, Downtown Dallas, at about 12:25 PM. At the time he got off the bus he noticed that the Presidential Motorcade, or a large crowd of people watching the Motorcade, were at Main and Lamar Streets, a few blocks west of where he got off the bus. Upon alighting from the bus, he walked to the Carousel Club, which took him approximately four or five minutes. He estimates he arrived at the Carousel Club at about 12:30 PM.

Upon arrival at the club, he went to a room in the rear of the club and took off his jacket and then went to the men's room. While in the men's room, he heard sirens and it sounded to him as though there were many more than just one or two sirens. He became curious about this and consequently left the men's room and went to another room where he keeps his portable radio. He tuned it to Station KLIF, Dallas, and announcements were being made over the radio that someone had fired at the Presidential Motorcade. He then immediately ran to a room in the club, where CURTIS LAVERNE CRAFARD, commonly known as LARRY, was sleeping, and awakened him. He told LARRY that someone had just shot at the President. LARRY, being a very hard sleeper, did not awaken completely at that time and did not get up.

TNG

He, ARMSTRONG, then listened to the radio for two or three more minutes and heard several apparently confused announcements on the radio and heard that the car carrying President KENNEDY was on its way to Parkland Hospital. He then returned to the room where CRAFARD was sleeping and awakened him. CRAFARD got up and got dressed. While he was doing this, they both listened to Radio Station KLIF on ARMSTRONG's portable radio.

Approximately five to fifteen minutes after LARRY got up, JACK L. RUBY telephoned him, ARMSTRONG, at the Carousel Club. He

on 1/22/64 at Dallas, Texas File # DL 44-1639

by Special Agent ALBERT SAYERS and MANNING C. CLEMENTS - LAC Date dictated 1/23/64 believes that RUBY was calling from the Dallas Morning News Building inasmuch as he heard typewriters in the background and also knew that it was RUBY's habit on Friday morning to go to the newspaper building for the purpose of composing his newspaper ads for his clubs for the week-end. RUBY talked to him for three or four minutes, and he surmised that RUBY was calling to tell him that the President had been shot; however, RUBY apparently heard his radio playing in the background and said, "Oh, you have already heard?" and he told RUBY that he had. RUBY at that time told him, "If anything happens, we are going to close the club." RUBY then told him that he would see him after a short while. ARMSTRONG recalls that RUBY forgot to ask him if he had fed the dogs, which he keeps at the club inasmuch as it was RUBY's regular habit almost every time he called ARMSTRONG to ask him if the dogs have been fed.

He, ARMSTRONG, kept the radio tuned to Station KLIF, Dallas, for the remainder of that afternoon. At approximately 1:30 PM, he heard the official announcement when it was first made that President KENNEDY was dead.

Prior to the announcement of President KENNEDY's death, he had heard several announcements on the radio station to the effect that an officer of the Dallas Police Department had been shot. He does not recall hearing the name of the police officer during these announcements and believes, to the best of his recollection, that the officer had not been identified by name at the time these announcements were made.

About fifteen or twenty minutes after hearing the first official announcement of the death of President KENNEDY, JACK L. RUBY arrived at the Carousel Club. He, ARMSTRONG, believes this was at approximately 1:45 or 1:50 PM. RUBY appeared to be distraught and mumbled something about "What a terrible thing." RUBY's first coherent statement after his arrival at the club was that the club was closed and would be closed for the next three days.

RUBY immediately went to a telephone which has telephone number RI 7-2362 and started making telephone calls. He had completed one or two telephone calls within a matter of less than five minutes when they both overheard an announcement on Radio Station KLIF to the effect that Officer TIPPIT of the Dallas Police Department had been shot and killed. RUBY mentioned to him, ARMSTRONG, at that time that he knew Officer TIPPIT. ARMSTRONG said he believes that this may have been the first announcement on Station KLIF which identified by name the officer who had been shot. (It has been established through records of the Dallas Police Department that Officer J. D. TIPPIT was shot and killed at approximately 1:18 PM, November 22, 1963.)

JACK L. RUBY remained at the Carousel Club until approximately 4:00 PM. ARMSTRONG said he could not be accurate about that time but this is the best estimate he could give as to when RUBY left the Carousel Club. During the time RUBY was there, he gave ARMSTRONG instructions to contact all of the Carousel Club employees and tell them that the club would be closed Friday night, Saturday night and Sunday night. He, ARMSTRONG, started making these telephone calls at about 2:30 PM. One of the persons he called was "LITTLE LYNN", who resides in Fort Worth, Texas.

RUBY was on the telephone almost all of the time he was in the club and made several long-distance telephone calls, as well as numerous local telephone calls. RUBY was crying nearly all of this time. He, ARMSTRONG, knows, through hearing names mentioned and cities mentioned by RUBY while making these telephone calls, that long-distance calls were made that day to Arlington, Texas, where RUBY talked to RALPH PAUL, and to Detroit, Michigan; Chicago, Illinois, and Los Angeles, California. The only local telephone calls that he, ARMSTRONG, can identify were calls made to EVA L. GRANT and Dr. COLEMAN JACOBSON.

He, ARMSTRONG, has no personal knowledge of any activities, travels or whereabouts of JACK L. RUBY between the time RUBY called him from the Dallas Morning News Building and the time RUBY arrived at the Carousel Club. RUBY did not discuss that time period with him, and he has no way of knowing of RUBY's activities at that time. RUBY has never mentioned to him any intention of going to Parkland Hospital, Dallas, or of having gone there at any time.

ARMSTRONG advised that he recalls that sometime between 2:00 PM and 3:00 PM he answered the telephone at the Carousel Club and a woman asked to speak to Mr. RUBY. He recalls telling this woman that Mr. RUBY was at that time talking on another telephone and the woman asked him to have Mr. RUBY return her call as soon as possible. This woman gave him a telephone number, and he believes he recalls the name ALICE being mentioned by the woman as her name. He knows that this woman was not among his own acquaintances although he has heard of a woman by the name of ALICE NICHOLS who was a former girl friend of JACK L. RUBY.

ARMSTRONG said with regard to the foregoing information that due to the passage of time since the events set out above and the general state of confusion at the time these events were occurring, he could not be certain to the minute with regard to the times of day set out above. He stated, however, that after reflection, and after going over these stated times of day, he believes they are accurate to within a few minutes, to the best of his recollection.

ARMSTRONG related that he does not recall any woman visiting JACK L. RUBY at the Carousel Club during the afternoon of November 22, 1963, and he does not recall RUBY having gone to his office or having been in his office at the club during that afternoon. He said that RUBY usually does most of his paper work at a table near the front door of the club where the telephone is located. He said there is another telephone in the club which is a pay station and which has telephone number RIverside 1-0289. He said he does not recall JACK L. RUBY using the pay station telephone at any time that day.

RALPH PAUL, operator of the Bull-Pen Drive-In, Arlington, Texas, and previously identified as an associate of JACK RUBY was interviewed at the Big D Copa, previously known as the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce. Mr. PAUL stated he had assumed management of the club recently in order to attempt to protect his "investment" which he said consisted of loans to RUBY. He said the name had been changed to Big D Copa since Dallas newspapers had declined to accept any further advertisement under the name of Carousel Club. He volunteered one of his biggest problems has been to attempt to find who owns "the corporation". He said he attempted through RUBY's attorneys and otherwise unsuccessfully to get a clear picture of the "corporation". He stated he is now sorry he took over the management and did not merely "let it die". He said business is very poor and that he is too old to run two businesses.

PAUL was asked if he could recall specifically the time of day he first heard from RUBY on November 22, 1963, the day of President KENNEDY's assassination. He readily stated RUBY called him about 12:45 PM by telephone, the gist of the conversation being to determine whether PAUL had heard of the shooting of the President. He said this call was received prior to the subsequent announcement of the President's death. He said he did not hear further from RUBY until late afternoon or early evening. He said he did not know from what telephone RUBY called him at 12:45 PM.

The records of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Dallas, Texas, as reviewed on January 13, 1964, reflect that a long-distance call was placed from Dallas phone RI 7-2362 (located at the Carousel Club) to WE 5-1082, Los Angeles, California. This call was placed at 2:37 PM, November 22, 1963. The conversation lasted for a period of three minutes and was a station-to-station call, direct dialing being used, and the call was not handled by an operator.

In view of this fact, the records of the telephone company do not show who placed the call, nor do they show the name of the person to whom the call was placed or the person who answered it in Los Angeles.

In the event the above information must be utilized, a subpoena duces tecum must be issued to Mr. R. A. BURROW, Chief Special Agent, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Dallas, Texas.

The following investigation was conducted by SA PAUL L. SCOTT at Dallas, Texas, to determine whether or not JACK RUBY was observed at Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, on November 22, 1963:

-Tolls

Mr. C. [illegible] PRICE, Administrator, Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, advised on January 17, 1964, that he was on duty at Parkland Memorial Hospital on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, when President KENNEDY and Governor CONNALLY were brought to the hospital. Within a few minutes after their arrival, there was considerable confusion at the hospital due to the arrival of newsmen and photographers. It was necessary to dismiss classes for student nurses in order to make space available for the newsmen and this added to the commotion in the hallways as many of the student nurses remained in the building. Mr. PRICE was in the area assigned as temporary press room on several occasions during the afternoon but does not recall observing anyone resembling JACK RUBY in this portion of the hospital. He does not believe he would have noticed him had he been there because of the confusion and because of the large number of newsmen in the area. It is PRICE's recollection that the Dallas Police Department had blocked entry to the hospital of all persons other than hospital personnel and news representatives; however, it is possible that some persons gained access to the main entrance and out-patient entrance to the hospital prior to the time the police blocked entry at approximately 1:00 PM.

PRICE advised that subsequent to the admission of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the hospital on November 24, 1963, he had obtained a written statement from all hospital personnel who were in any way connected with the treatment of President KENNEDY, Governor CONNALLY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He had requested the personnel to include in their statement their impressions as to everything that transpired in connection with these incidents. At the time these statements were obtained JACK RUBY had been well publicized in newspapers and on television and PRICE feels certain that had any hospital personnel observed RUBY at Parkland Memorial Hospital at any time subsequent to the assassination of President KENNEDY they would have called this to his attention in their written statement.

PRICE advised Assistant Administrator STEVE LANDRIGAN handled liaison with the White House press group and local newsmen and was in the area of the temporary press room most of the afternoon of November 22, 1963.

On January 17, 1964, STEVE LANDRIGAN, Assistant Administrator, Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, Texas advised he had arranged space for newsmen in classroom 101 on the South side of the hospital on November 22, 1963, and that he was in the vicinity of the personnel entrance to the hospital on the East side a good portion of the time from 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM on November 22, 1963. During this time, LANDRIGAN did not observe anyone appearing similar to JACK RUBY near this entrance which was the only entrance used by newsmen; however, due to the commotion in the area and the number of strange people, LANDRIGAN does not believe he would have noticed RUBY had he been in the hospital.

LANDRIGAN furnished the names of the following personnel who were in a position to have observed any people in this portion of the hospital on the afternoon of November 22, 1963:

BARBARA HALLFORD

JUDY MITCHELL
CAROL REDDICK
} Texas

On January 17, 1964, MITCHELL and REDDICK were shown photographs of JACK RUBY and they advised they could not say whether or not he was in the Parkland Memorial Hospital or in the vicinity of the hospital on the afternoon of November 22, 1963.

On January 17, 1964, BARBARA HALLFORD, formerly employed at Parkland Memorial Hospital, 5315 Maple Springs, Dallas, telephonically advised she had observed photographs of JACK RUBY and she was unable to state whether or not he was in the Parkland Memorial Hospital.

1 Date January 24, 1964

Lieutenant JACK REVILL, Special Service Bureau, Dallas Police Department, advised that he and Lieutenant FRANK CORNWALL of same bureau, went to the Dallas County Jail on Sunday, December 1, 1963, to interview JACK RUBY. They were delayed because Attorney TOM HOWARD was at the time with RUBY. When HOWARD left, they proceeded to the Interview Room in the jail. RUBY furnished in detail an account of his activities on November 22, 1963, the day of the assassination of President KENNEDY. He accounted substantially for his time during the entire day. He said nothing about having been to Parkland Memorial Hospital on this date. RUBY declined to furnish an account of his activities on November 23, 1963, and November 24, 1963, stating such declination was on advice of his counsel, Mr. HOWARD. RUBY volunteered on this occasion to make himself available for polygraph examination. When the officers told RUBY they would accept his offer he then "hedged" stating he would have to have permission from his attorney. Mr. HOWARD was located and returned to the Interview Room at the County Jail. HOWARD said he was personally for the polygraph examination but that other attorneys were entering the case and that he would have to consult with them. He said he would make known to the officers the decision on December 2, 1963. He did not, however, contact the officers on that date and when contacted postponed a decision relative to the polygraph. On December 3, 1963, the officers returned to the County Jail and were advised by RUBY that he would decline to submit to polygraph examination on advice of counsel. No further efforts were made by the Police Department in this regard.

Lieutenant REVILL stated no information has come to his attention as a result of police investigation or otherwise that RUBY was at Parkland Hospital at any time on November 22, 1963.

Mr. SIDNEY EVANS, JR. (reported to have seen RUBY on the morning of November 24, 1963), 2205 Marvel, furnished the following information:

On November 24, 1963, Mr. EVANS was residing in Apartment 204, Marsala Apartments, 223 South Ewing Street, Dallas, Texas. On the morning of November 24, 1963, approximately 10:00 AM, EVANS recalls seeing JACK RUBY whom he knew by sight walking from the wash-a-teria area of the apartments toward RUBY's apartment. Mr. EVANS was asked if he were certain if it was 10:00 AM in the morning and he indicated that he could not positively state the exact time but felt that it was in the vicinity of 10:00 AM give or take 5 or 10 minutes.

EVANS did not know RUBY personally and knew him only by sight having seen him around the Marsala Apartments. EVANS knows nothing concerning RUBY's personal life or political beliefs. EVANS was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

MURRAY W. MILLER, also known as "DUSTY" MILLER, President, Southern Conference of Teamsters, 1331 North Industrial Boulevard, Dallas, Texas, was contacted telephonically to arrange an interview in connection with this investigation. MILLER volunteered that he had never seen JACK RUBY and that his only contact with RUBY had been a telephone call which he had received approximately two weeks prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. MILLER was in Miami, Florida, at that time and RUBY called him at the Eden Roc Hotel and discussed a problem RUBY was having with the American Guild of Variety Artists in obtaining entertainers for his club.

MILLER had heard of RUBY as a club operator in Dallas for the past several years. However, he has no knowledge of RUBY's associates or activities. MILLER has no information relating to the assassination of KENNEDY. He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

MILLER advised that further interview would be unnecessary.

MABEL K. SYLVESTER was contacted at the Kendall Hotel, Kendallville, Indiana, and she made the following information available:

She stated that she had information which concerns a very powerful person in the United States who was involved with RUBY and OSWALD in the assassination of President KENNEDY. She knows of a photograph taken in the 1950's which shows RUBY with this person. This powerful figure and RUBY were definitely close associates and it is obvious to her RUBY killed OSWALD to prevent him from talking.

She does not desire to furnish additional information concerning this photograph or to further identify this person she considers to be involved in the assassination.

She is a "medium", and on the night of January 9, 1964, she was contacted by JOHN F. KENNEDY who told her not to give the information to the FBI for if she did, he would "be washed right down the drain". Four days before the assassination "they" told her "President KENNEDY would be pinned to the road". She asked the voices what they meant, but she did not receive any explanation. On the day of the assassination, prior to her knowing of it, she began crying and did not know why she was crying until she learned of the assassination.

The voices later named the person who engineered the assassination, and this person is a very powerful individual whom she cannot name. After his identity was revealed to her, she came upon the photograph of RUBY and this same person.

She is afraid to furnish the information she has to anyone but Mr. ROBERT KENNEDY or a member of the KENNEDY family. She will attempt to arrange the placing of this information in the proper hands.

On December 19, 1963, Special Agent DEL D. DRAKE, Jr. interviewed JAMES DOUGLAS WATSON at Paris, Texas and Mr. WATSON advised that he believed on one occasion while living in Dallas, Texas that he had observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD having coffee at a restaurant which would have been either the Clifton Hotel, the El Fenix Cafe or the Beckley Cafe.

On December 31, 1963, SA's ARTHUR E. CARTER and WILL HAYDEN GRIFFIN contacted Mrs. FLO CLEMENTS, manager of the El Fenix Cafe at 120 East Colorado, Dallas, Texas, and she advised that the El Fenix Cafe is open from 11:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M. daily. She said she was familiar with LEE HARVEY OSWALD's appearance through recent publicity on TV and in the Dallas newspapers, but she had no recollection of ever having seen him in the El Fenix Cafe. She made inquiry of other regular employees and was unable to determine that any of them had ever seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD at any time.

Mrs. CLEMENTS said she recalled JACK RUBY had been in the restaurant on a very few occasions, some four or more years ago, but he had not been in to her knowledge in recent years. She said she knew of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

Owen On December 31, 1963, Mr. Z. B. OWEN and his wife, MARY, who operate the Colorado Towers Coffee Shop, formerly known as the Clifton Hotel Cafe, at 214 West Colorado, telephone number WH. 6-0040, Dallas, Texas, each advised that they had never observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY in the cafe at any time. They contacted their other employees who advised them that they had never seen either LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY in the cafe. Mr. and Mrs. OWEN said they had no knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never been acquainted with JACK RUBY, and knew of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

On January 6, 1964, J. D. KELLY, owner, Beckley Cafe, 113 West Jefferson, Dallas, Texas, advised SA's CARTER and GRIFFIN that he had no knowledge concerning LEE HARVEY and was unable to recall that OSWALD had ever been a patron of his cafe. He said one customer whose identity he was unable to recall, had said shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY, that he believed LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been in the cafe on one occasion and that OSWALD moved when this customer attempted to engage him in conversation.

Mr. KELLY questioned his waiters and waitresses and said that none of them recalled OSWALD or JACK RUBY ever having been in the cafe. He said he had no knowledge of either OSWALD or RUBY and knew of no association between them.

The following reflects additional investigation to identify and locate people who sent telegrams to JACK L. RUBY so they could be interviewed. This investigation has been unsuccessful:

On January 19, 1964, the following information was received from the Denver Office:

The following investigation was conducted by SA RICHARD L. CAMPBELL:

AT DENVER, COLORADO

A search of current telephone and city directories for Denver, Colorado, disclosed no listing for a PAT or PATRICK MC NAMARA. Such a person is also unknown to the Denver Office as a resident of Denver, Colorado.

Officer PAUL HUMPHREY, Identification Bureau, Denver Police Department, advised a search of his records failed to disclose any record of a PAT or PATRICK MC NAMARA.

Mr. BRAD WILSHIRE, Retail Men's Credit Association, Denver, advised on January 19, 1964, that his records contain only one PAT W. MC NAMARA, JR., whose permanent address is 4401 Lorraine, Dallas, Texas, who has an account with the May D & F Department Store, Denver.

On January 20, 1964, the following information was received from the New York Office:

The current issue of the Bronx, New York, Directory lists thirty-seven CHARLES SMITHS. There is no information available to indicate that the SMITH telegram was sent by any of the above-mentioned thirty-seven CHARLES SMITHS. Further investigation to identify the sender of the telegram signed Mr. and Mrs. CHARLES SMITH, Bronx, New York, is not considered feasible.

NY 44-97[illegible]

ANGELO FALLETTA, 236 East 6th Street, Manhattan, New York, Apartment 1E, on January 13, 1964, furnished the following information to SA JAMES J. ROGERS:

He resides at the above address and operates the Helrose Luncheonette located at 2nd Avenue and 6th Street, Manhattan, New York.

When President JOHN F. KENNEDY was assassinated on November 22, 1963, he was emotionally upset that a crime of this type could occur in the United States. When JACK RUBY shot and killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD on November 24, 1963, FALLETTA felt that RUBY was to be congratulated and he, therefore, sent a short telegram to RUBY at Dallas, Texas, sometime on the night of November 24, 1963, extending his congratulations to RUBY. FALLETTA had sent this telegram from the residence of his girlfriend Mrs. SCHOMAN who resides at 142-10 Hoover Avenue, Jamaica, Queens, New York, telephone OL 7-9763.

FALLETTA has never been to Dallas, Texas. He does not know JACK RUBY and he knows of no connection between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Howard Ambrose Ratto advised that he was born on August 26, 1918 at Ozone Park, and is employed as a mechanic at the Sperry Cyroscope Corporation, MacArthur Airport, Ronkonkoma, both Long Island, New York.

Ratto stated that at the time of the announcement of the assassination of President Kennedy on November 22, 1963, he was serving on a Grand Jury in the Suffolk County Courthouse in Riverhead, Long Island.

Ratto stated that he had been an ardent admirer of President Kennedy. He stated that he returned to his home in West Islip, New York, where he occupied himself by watching television broadcasts of the events following the assassination and also partaking of intoxicating beverages until the murder of Oswald by Ruby appeared on the screen at mid-day on November 24, 1963.

Ratto stated that his immediate reaction was one of complete approbation of the action taken by Ruby, which prompted him to immediately make a cash contribution of $2.00 to a defense fund for Ruby, which he felt would be organized in behalf of Ruby. He stated that in order to expedite the receipt of his contribution, he immediately drove to the West Islip, New York Post Office, where he had deposited his contribution in the mail.

Ratto stated that in reflection, he regrets the action taken by Ruby as he feels that the true facts surrounding the assassination will never be known.

Ratto stated that neither Ruby nor Oswald were personally known to him; that he knows of no association between said individuals and that he has no information regarding the Ruby defense fund, other than as set forth above.

Among the letters addressed to JACK L. RUBY at the Dallas County Jail was one signed "FRED", postmarked December 8, 1963, Portland, Oregon. To the letter there was attached a reproduction of a photograph of an unidentified person. The photograph had the following at the top left-hand corner: "LENORA (D) Remember Him." The writer stated the unidentified person and the writer of the letter had been in "your night club last May", and that the person in the unidentified photograph was introduced to RUBY. The writer represented OSWALD appeared in the club at the same time and made reference to a few days later when the writer returned to the club and saw RUBY and OSWALD together.

The writer also, in referring to the individual in the photograph, said he is "back east now" and had said that since OSWALD is dead he hoped RUBY would never talk. The photograph in question was forwarded to the Portland Office and exhibited to members of the Portland Police Department, who could not identify him as being in the Portland area.

Lieutenant WILLIAM BRYAN, Portland Police Department, subsequently produced the October 26, 1963, issue of the Saturday Evening Post, which included an article beginning on page 28 entitled "They call me TIGER LIL." At the bottom of page 32, in connection with the article, appeared the photographs of four men. The one at the extreme right bears the underline, "The Late VINCENT BLANEY, accused burglar . whose body was found in Atlantic Ocean."

The article includes information that the body of BLANEY, with a bullet hole in the head, was found in the sea off Atlantic City, August 23, 1960, following BLANEY's disappearance on August 3, 1960.

Examination of the photograph attached to the letter in question, under microscope, disclosed it was a print from the publication named above. Inasmuch as VINCENT BLANEY was found deceased August 23, 1960, he obviously could not have been in Dallas, Texas, in May 1963, and, accordingly, no further action is being taken concerning the allegations in the letter to RUBY.

Jack Ruby

Attached is a brief proposed statement in the Director's name refuting the false allegation that Lee Harvey Oswald was a confidential informant of the FBI. This statement also shows that Oswald was not employed by the FBI at any time in any capacity and that he never rendered any services for, or received any payments from, the Bureau.

RECOMMENDATION:

The attached statement has been prepared for possible use in the event the Director finds it necessary to issue a public statement setting the record straight concerning mis-information about Oswald circulated by persons outside the Bureau.

WASHINGTON 25, D.C.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover today issued a public denial that Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy, ever served as a confidential informant of the FBI.

Mr. Hoover said, "To set the record straight and to refute the misinformation which has been circulated by others, I want to state unequivocally that Lee Harvey Oswald was never an FBI informant; that he was never employed by this Bureau in any capacity; nor did he ever render any services for--or receive any sums of money from--the FBI."
